NOTES TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Six months Ended June 30, 2005 and the Year Ended December 31, 2004

(In thousands of dollars)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway") is an unincorporated open-end real estate investment trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta, created under a declaration of trust dated December 4, 2001 subsequently amended and restated on October 24, 2002, October 31, 2003, January 16, 2004 and July 7, 2005.

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements ("pro forma statements") have been prepared by Calloway management for inclusion in the Base Shelf Short Form Prospectus (the "Prospectus") of Calloway dated September 14, 2005 relating to sale and issue from time to time of units of the trust, subscription receipts and debt securities.

During 2004 and 2005, Calloway completed the following significant acquisitions:

- On February 16, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres") from the Wal-Mart-FirstPro Realty Partnership (the "Partnership").
- On May 14, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres II") from the Partnership.
- On November 30, 2004, the acquisition of six shopping centres (the "Phase I Centres") from the Partnership.
- On March 10, 2005, the acquisition of 100% undivided interests in three retail properties and 60% undivided interests in five other retail properties (the "Phase II Centres") from Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. ("Wal-Mart") and the FirstPro Group of Companies ("FirstPro").
- On July 8, 2005, the acquisition of substantially all of the freehold and leasehold interests in 45 properties described in further detail in Note 3 (the "Centres V") from Wal-Mart, FirstPro and other vendors.

The Centres, The Centres II, Phase I Centres, Phase II Centres and the Centres V are collectively referred to as the "Collective Centres".

These pro forma statements have been prepared from the following financial statements:

- Calloway's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2005.
- Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004.
- Centres V Phase I ("Centres V-I"), Centres V Phase II ("Centres V-II") and Centres V Phase III ("Centres V-III") unaudited schedules of combined net operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005 which were prepared by Calloway management and are not included or incorporated by reference in the Prospectus.
- Centres V-I, Centres V-II and Centres V-III audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.
- Phase II Centres audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.

The Centres V-I, Centres V-II and Centres V-III net operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 have been combined on Schedule 1 attached to these pro forma statements and presented in the pro forma consolidated statements of income on a combined basis.

For the Six months Ended June 30, 2005 and the Year Ended December 31, 2004

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet gives effect to the acquisitions of the Centres V as if they had occurred on June 30, 2005. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 give effect to the acquisitions of the Centres V as if they had occurred on January 1, 2004. Calloway's June 30, 2005 consolidated financial statements contains the actual operations of the Phase II Centres from the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2005 to June 30, 2005. The pro forma consolidated statement of income for the six months ended June 30, 2005 contains adjustments outlined in Note 4 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for the Phase II Centres for the period from January 1, 2005 to the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2005. Calloway's December 31, 2004 consolidated financial statements contains the actual operations of The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres from various dates of acquisition by Calloway in 2004 to December 31, 2004. The pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2004 contains adjustments outlined in Note 4 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres for the period from January 1, 2004 to the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2004.

The pro forma statements are not necessarily indicative of the results that would have actually occurred, had the transactions reflected therein been in effect on the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of future operating results or the financial position of Calloway.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

In addition to the policies disclosed below, the accounting policies used in the preparation of the pro forma statements are in accordance with those disclosed in Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and Calloway's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2005. These pro forma statements do not include all of the information and disclosure required by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), and therefore should be read in conjunction with the December 31, 2004 and June 30, 2005 consolidated financial statements of Calloway.

(a) Basis of consolidation

As further described herein, a limited partnership ("Calloway LP") was formed to facilitate the acquisition of certain of the Centres V, and Calloway is indirectly a general partner as well as a limited partner. These pro forma statements present the accounts and operations of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust, its wholly owned subsidiary Calloway Financial Inc., and Calloway LP.

Calloway carries out certain activities through co-ownerships and these investments are accounted for using the proportionate consolidation method.

(b) Exchangeable units

As further described in Note 3, limited partnership units of Calloway LP were issued to FirstPro and other vendors that are exchangeable into units of Calloway. Holders of the exchangeable units are entitled to receive distributions of earnings economically equivalent to distributions received by units of Calloway. The units are non-transferable to third parties without first exchanging them for units of Calloway. Accordingly the units are presented, in accordance with the guidance for exchangeable securities issued by subsidiaries of income trusts, as a component of unitholders' equity.

(c) Leases

As further described in Note 3, Calloway leased certain properties from FirstPro. Leases are classified as either capital or operating leases. Leases that transfer substantially all of the benefits and inherent risks of ownership of property to Calloway are accounted for as capital leases. At the time a capital lease is entered into, an asset is recorded together with its related long-term obligation to reflect the acquisition and financing. Components of income properties recorded under capital leases are amortized on the same basis as described in the annual financial statements. Rental payments under operating leases are expensed over the period to which they relate.

3. PRO FORMA BALANCE SHEET ADJUSTMENTS AND ASSUMPTIONS

Completed and probable acquisition of the Centres V

Acquisition

On July 7, 2005, the unitholders of Calloway approved the acquisition by Calloway directly or through Calloway LP of the Centres V (consisting of freehold and leasehold interests in thirty-five retail properties and ten parcels of development land) from Wal-Mart, FirstPro and other vendors.

On July 8, 2005, Calloway completed the acquisition of Wal-Mart's 60% freehold interests in eight retail properties and adjacent undeveloped lands with future development potential for $275,477. Calloway acquired FirstPro and other vendors freehold interests in thirty retail properties and adjacent undeveloped lands for $656,941 and four of the ten parcels of development land for $8,965. Calloway also leased interests in three other retail properties, including adjacent undeveloped lands, from FirstPro for a term of 35 years subject to certain early termination events. Calloway prepaid its entire lease obligations under the lease agreements in the amount of $188,647. Land transfer taxes and other transaction costs amounted to $12,092 and the fair value of the right to acquire units related to property under development described below has been estimated at $12,000, resulting in an aggregate cost at closing to Calloway of $1,154,122.

The aggregate purchase price was satisfied as follows:

- By non-interest bearing vendor take-back mortgages for the amount of the purchase price for certain of the undeveloped lands		$33,091
- By assumption of existing mortgages
- face value	342,863
- market rate adjustment	22,386	365,249
- By issuance of exchangeable partnership units to FirstPro		250,000
- By cash payment
- From the net proceeds of new mortgage financing	153,495
- From the net proceeds of unsecured bridge loan	174,688
- From the net proceeds of the Private Placement	165,599	493,782
- By granting the right to acquire units related to property under development		12,000
		$1,154,122

On July 8, 2005, Calloway acquired four of the ten parcels of development land included in the Centres V. Six parcels of development land were subject to unfulfilled conditions at the time. Subsequently, Calloway has acquired one additional parcel of development land. It is assumed for the purpose of the pro forma statements that Calloway will acquire the remaining six parcels of development land that were not acquired on July 8, 2005 for $32,928. The purchase price will be satisfied from net proceeds obtained from the Private Placement (described below).

In conjunction with the July 8, 2005 acquisition of the Centres V, Calloway took on a portion of FirstPro's leasing and development operations through an offer of positions to FirstPro employees. Calloway's preliminary assessment is that no material allocation of the purchase price will be assigned to assets acquired and liabilities assumed as a result of the acquisition of these operations.

Calloway assumed existing mortgages on certain of the properties in the amount of $342,863 and incurred related mortgage assumption fees in the amount of $1,250. The assumed mortgages have a weighted average interest rate of 6.41% which is in excess of current rates and Calloway received a credit of $22,386 from the vendors as a mark to market adjustment at closing. The mortgage assumption fees will be amortized to deferred financing costs and the market rate adjustment will be amortized against interest expense over the term of the applicable assumed mortgages.

FirstPro and other vendors subscribed for approximately $250,000 of Class B exchangeable units (representing 12,594,458 Class B exchangeable units at $19.85 per unit) of Calloway LP, as partial payment for the Centre V properties acquired by Calloway LP, and 8,500,000 Class C exchangeable units of Calloway LP, representing future potential equity value of the undeveloped lands acquired by Calloway LP.

Holders of the Class B exchangeable units are entitled to cash distributions in amounts equal on a per unit basis to monthly distributions made by Calloway to its unitholders. The Class B exchangeable units carry no voting rights at meetings of Calloway unitholders. Class B exchangeable units are exchangeable on a one for one basis for units of Calloway, at the option of the holder.

Holders of the Class C exchangeable units are only entitled to nominal cash distributions and have no voting rights at meetings of Calloway unitholders. The Class C exchangeable units are exchangeable, on a one for one basis, at the holder's option, into Class B exchangeable units on the completion of certain developments on the undeveloped lands and development land ("Centres V Undeveloped Lands"). The 8,500,000 Class C exchangeable units available for issuance represents FirstPro's right to receive 40% of the estimated proceeds on development of those Centres V Undeveloped Lands acquired by Calloway LP in units priced at $20.10 per unit. Any Class C exchangeable units that remain outstanding 10 years after the closing of this acquisition will be cancelled.

FirstPro also has the right to receive up to 2,500,000 units of Calloway representing 40% of the estimated proceeds on completion of development of those Centres V Undeveloped Lands acquired directly by Calloway in units priced at $20.10 per unit.

Calloway has estimated the fair value of the right to acquire 8,500,000 Class B exchangeable LP units and 2,500,000 units of Calloway upon development of the Centres V Undeveloped Lands described in the two preceding paragraphs to be $12,000.

Calloway is authorized to issue an unlimited number of Special Voting units which shall be entitled to one vote per unit at meetings of Calloway unitholders but otherwise shall have no economic value. These units provide voting rights but no equity participation. The number of outstanding Special Voting units will be equivalent to the number of outstanding Class B exchangeable units.

FirstPro and other vendors received 12,594,458 (the total of the Class B exchangeable units of Calloway LP issued) Special Voting units. Calloway will issue additional Special Voting units if Class C exchangeable units are exchanged for Class B exchangeable units, with the total outstanding Special Voting units to equal the outstanding Class B exchangeable units. The number of Special Voting units issued to FirstPro and other vendors may increase due to future developments of Centres V Undeveloped Lands acquired by Calloway LP. In addition, FirstPro has been granted the right, under certain circumstances, to receive additional Special Voting units of Calloway in order to maintain a voting interest at a minimum of 25%. This right will expire at the end of five years unless an additional $800,000 in assets is transferred from FirstPro to Calloway (inclusive of assets which will be acquired by Calloway under existing development agreements) and other conditions are fulfilled, in which case the 25% minimum voting right will extend for an additional five year term.

The Centres V Undeveloped Lands will be developed directly and indirectly by Calloway under the terms of development agreements with FirstPro and Wal-Mart. It is assumed for the purpose of these pro forma statements that these undeveloped lands remain undeveloped and that no material development costs and no earnouts under the terms of these development agreements are incurred during the year ended December 31, 2004 and the six months ended June 30, 2005.

New mortgage financing

Calloway arranged new mortgage financing on four of the retail properties in the amount of $154,250 at a weighted average interest rate of 5.069%. The net proceeds to Calloway of $153,495, after deducting financing fees and other costs related to the new mortgage financing, were used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the July 8, 2005 acquisition cost of the Centres V.

Unsecured bridge loan

Calloway arranged an unsecured bridge loan facility in the amount of $175,000 at average interest rates of 4.25%. The net proceeds to Calloway of $174,688, after deducting financing fees and other costs related to the new unsecured bridge loan, were used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the July 8, 2005 acquisition cost of the Centres V.

Private placement

Pursuant to private placements of subscription receipts (the "Private Placement") Calloway issued 11,336,000 trust units at an issuance price of $19.85 per unit, for net proceeds of $218,689 (after deducting underwriters' fees and issue costs of $6,331). Net proceeds of $165,599 were used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the July 8, 2005 acquisition cost of the Centres V. The remaining net proceeds of $53,090 will be used as follows:

6. INCOME TAXES

Properties purchased from FirstPro and other vendors by Calloway LP were acquired with an income tax base which is $250,000 lower than the assigned acquisition costs. 7. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A nominee of FirstPro owned or controlled directly and indirectly approximately 16% of the outstanding units of Calloway prior of the Centres V acquisition and owns approximately 27% of the outstanding units (including Calloway LP exchangeable units) after the Centres V acquisition. This prospectus supplement is deemed to be incorporated by reference into the accompanying short form base shelf prospectus of Calloway dated September 14, 2005 (the "Short Form Prospectus"), solely for the purpose of offering the Debentures. Other documents are also incorporated, or deemed to be incorporated, by reference into the Short Form Prospectus and reference should be made to the Short Form Prospectus for full particulars thereof.

Any statement contained in the Short Form Prospectus, in this prospectus supplement or in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein or in the Short Form Prospectus for the purposes of the offering of Debentures will be deemed to be modified or superseded, for purposes of this prospectus supplement, to the extent that a statement contained herein or in the Short Form Prospectus or in any other subsequently filed document that also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein or in the Short Form Prospectus modifies or supersedes such prior statement. The modifying or superseding statement need not state that it has modified or superseded a prior statement or included any other information set out in the document that it modifies or supersedes. Any statement so modified or superseded will not be deemed, except as so modified or superseded, to constitute a part of this prospectus supplement. The making of a modifying or superseding statement will not be deemed an admission for any purposes that the modified or superseded statement, when made, constituted a misrepresentation, an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact that is required to be stated or that is necessary to make a statement not misleading in light of the circumstances in which it was made.

Information has been incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement from documents filed with securities commissions or similar authorities in Canada. Copies of the documents incorporated herein by reference may be obtained on request without charge from the Chief Financial Officer of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust at 310, 855 – 5th Avenue SW, Calgary, AB T2P 3P1 (Telephone (403)266-6442). A copy of the permanent information record may be obtained from the Chief Financial Officer of the issuer at the above mentioned address and telephone number.

NON GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

In the Short Form Prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference therein, there are references to "Distributable Income". See the amended definition of "Distributable Income" on page 51 of the Management Information Circular of Calloway dated June 9, 2005.

Distributable Income is a measure sometimes used by Canadian income trusts as an indicator of financial performance. Management uses Distributable Income to analyze operating performance including its ability to earn and distribute cash returns to unitholders. As one of the factors that may be considered relevant by prospective investors in units of Calloway is the cash distributed by Calloway relative to the price of the units, management believes that Distributable Income of Calloway is a useful supplemental measure that may assist prospective investors in assessing an investment in units.

Distributable Income is not a measure recognized by generally accepted accounting principles in Canada ("GAAP") and does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP. Therefore, Calloway's method of calculating Distributable Income may differ from other issuer's methods and may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. Distributable Income is not intended to represent operating profits for the period nor should it be viewed as an alternative to net income, cash flow from operating activities or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with GAAP. The GAAP measure most directly comparable to Distributable Income is net earnings (to which reconciliation is provided in Calloway's management discussion and analysis).

ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

Subject to compliance with the general investment provisions and, in certain cases, subject to compliance with the prudent investment requirements, general investment provisions and restrictions of the statutes referred below (and where applicable, regulations or guidelines thereunder) and additional requirements relating to investment or lending policies or goals, the purchase of the Debentures offered hereunder would not, if the date hereof was the date of the closing of this offering, be precluded as investments under or by the following statutes and the applicable regulations:

Insurance Companies Act (Canada)
Pension Benefits Standards Act 1985 (Canada)
Trustee Act (Ontario)
Insurance Act (Alberta)

Trust and Loan Companies Act (Canada)
Pension Benefits Act (Ontario)
Insurance Act (Ontario)

In the opinion of Shea Nerland Calnan, counsel to Calloway, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, counsel to the Agents, provided that Calloway is a mutual fund trust under the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act") on the date of this prospectus supplement, the Debentures, if issued on the date of this prospectus supplement, will not be a prohibited investment for a registered pension plan under the Tax Act other than a plan for which Calloway, or a person who is connected with, controlled directly or indirectly in any manner or that does not deal at arm's length with Calloway, is the employer. As long as Calloway is a mutual fund trust, the units of which are listed on a prescribed stock exchange, the Debentures will be qualified investments under the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder (the "Regulations") for a trust governed by a registered retirement savings plan, a registered retirement income fund, registered education savings plan or a deferred profit sharing plan (collectively "Plans"), other than a deferred profit sharing plan for which Calloway, or a corporation with which Calloway does not deal at arm's length, is the employer.

The foreign property restrictions in the Tax Act were eliminated effective January 1, 2005 pursuant to Bill C-43, which received Royal Assent in June 2005.

On March 23, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) proposed amendments to the Tax Act (the "Budget Proposals") to restrict direct and indirect holdings in certain "business income trusts" (as defined in the Budget Proposals) by certain tax-exempt entities. The Budget Proposals were originally scheduled to apply commencing after 2004. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the application of the Budget Proposals was suspended to allow further consultation with representatives of the pension fund industry, the investment industry, provincial governments and other interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. As part of the release of the 2005 Federal Budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) issued further statements in respect of the Budget Proposals advising that the Department of Finance will continue to consult stakeholders on tax issues related to business income trusts and other flow-through entities. These statements indicated that a consultation paper would be released shortly after the 2005 Federal Budget and that the Department of Finance would continue to monitor developments in the markets for business income trusts and other flow-through entities during the consultation period. On September 8, 2005 the Minister of Finance released a consultation paper, seeking comments from interested persons. Calloway has advised counsel that due to the nature of its investments and property and their relative fair market values and cost amounts that, on the date hereof, Calloway will not constitute a "business income trust" and Debentures will not constitute "restricted investment property" for the purposes of the Budget Proposals. See "Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations -- Budget Proposals".

CREDIT RATINGS

Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited ("DBRS") provides credit ratings of debt securities for commercial entities. A credit rating generally provides an indication of the risk that the borrower will not fulfill its full obligations in a timely manner with respect to both interest and principal commitments. Rating categories range from highest credit quality (generally AAA) to very highly speculative (generally C). DBRS has provided Calloway with a credit rating of BBB with a stable trend relating to all general unsecured obligations of Calloway and a provisional rating of BBB with a stable trend on the Debentures. A credit rating of BBB is generally an indication of adequate credit quality as defined by DBRS. The credit ratings accorded to Calloway's debt securities are not recommendations to purchase, hold or sell such debt securities. There can be no assurance that any rating will remain in effect for any given period of time or that any rating will not be withdrawn or revised by a rating agency at any time.

DBRS also provides stability ratings for real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and income trusts. A stability rating generally provides an indication of both the stability and sustainability of REITs' and income trusts' distributions to unitholders. DBRS's rating categories range from highest stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-1) to poor stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-7). Calloway has a DBRS stability rating of STA-3 (high). This rating category reflects good stability and sustainability of distributions per unit.

INTEREST AND EARNINGS COVERAGES

Earnings Coverage Ratios

After giving pro forma effect to the significant acquisitions as set out in the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements as at and for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 included in the Short Form Prospectus which include the issuances of long-term debt and changes in indebtedness not reflected in the unaudited interim comparative consolidated financial statements of Calloway for the six month period ended June 30, 2005 or the audited annual comparative consolidated financial statements of Calloway as at and for the year ended December 31, 2004, and after giving effect to this offering and assuming the retirement of the unsecured bridge loan referred to in the aforementioned unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and the retirement of other indebtedness (see "Use of Proceeds"), Calloway's interest requirements for the twelve months ended December 31, 2004 and for the twelve months ended June 30, 2005, after giving effect to the pro forma transactions referred to above, would have been $77,986,000 and $78,573,000, respectively, and its net income (before deducting interest expense and income taxes) for such periods would have been $83,704,000 and $99,248,000, respectively, which is 1.07 and 1.26 times Calloway's interest requirements for such periods, respectively.

	For the 12 months ended June 30, 2005 ⁽¹⁾	For the 12 months ended December 31, 2004 ⁽¹⁾
	(Pro forma)	(Pro forma)

Numerator for Earnings Coverage Ratio ($)	99,248,000	83,704,000
Earnings Coverage Ratio	1.26	1.07

Notes:

- (1) Pro forma numbers give effect to the significant acquisitions and related debt all as set out in the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements as at and for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004. The significant acquisitions include properties for which certain tenant premises were under construction during the pro forma periods. As a result, the pro forma Net Income includes rents from such tenants only from the dates that the premises were occupied by the tenants and does not represent the total annual rent payable by such tenants. Interest Expense is determined, however, on the basis that the full amount of the debt incurred to acquire the completed properties was outstanding for the entire pro forma periods.
- (2) Calloway is taxed as a mutual fund trust for income tax purposes. Calloway intends to distribute all taxable income directly earned by Calloway directly to unitholders and to deduct such distributions for income tax purposes.

Interest Coverage Ratios

The Trust Indenture (as defined under "Details of the Offering") will contain an interest coverage covenant that will require Calloway to maintain a ratio of Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Expense of not less than 1.65 to 1. The calculation of such ratio will be based on the defined terms of Consolidated EBITDA and Consolidated Interest Expense to be contained in the Trust Indenture. See "Details of the Offering – Definitions" and "Details of the Offering – Certain Covenants re Debentures – Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Expense Ratio". This ratio is different than the Earnings Coverage Ratios set forth above which have been prepared in accordance with applicable Canadian securities law disclosure requirements. Such securities law disclosure requires the calculation to be based upon earnings and, as described in Note 1 above under "Earnings Coverage Ratios", gives only partial credit to acquired properties that do not have a full 12 months of trailing income but includes a full 12 months of interest expense. The interest coverage ratio calculated in accordance with the terms of the Trust Indenture for the period ended June 30, 2005, after giving effect to the offering of the Debentures and giving pro forma effect to acquisitions, debt incurred, debt retired, and the associated annual income therefrom since the beginning of the calculation period, is 2.18.

DETAILS OF THE OFFERING

The Debentures will be issued under a trust indenture (the "Trust Indenture") to be dated as of the closing date of the offering and entered into between Calloway and Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the "Indenture Trustee"). The Trust Indenture will authorize Calloway to issue an unlimited aggregate principal amount of Debt Securities (as defined below) in one or more series. Each such issue, other than the Debentures, will be made by way of a supplemental indenture which will set out the terms of the relevant series of Debt Securities. The terms of the Debentures will be set out in the Trust Indenture. The following is a summary of the material terms of the Debentures which does not purport to be complete. For full particulars of such terms, reference should be made to the Trust Indenture.

Definitions

For the purpose of the following discussion of certain provisions of the Trust Indenture, the following terms have the meanings set out below:

"Adjusted Unitholders' Equity" of Calloway, at any time, means the aggregate of the amount of unitholders' equity of Calloway and the amount of accumulated amortization of income properties, including accumulated amortization of the fair value of intangible assets and liabilities recorded on the acquisition of income properties, recorded in the books and records of Calloway at such time, calculated in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Aggregate Assets" of Calloway, at any time, means the total book value of the assets of Calloway, excluding goodwill, determined on a consolidated basis, plus accumulated amortization of income properties, including accumulated amortization of the fair value of intangible assets but less than fair value of intangible liabilities and the associated accumulated amortization recorded on the acquisition of income properties, recorded in the books and records of Calloway at such time, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Capital Lease Obligation" of any person means the obligation of such person, as lessee, to pay rent or other payment amounts under a lease of real or personal property which is required to be classified and accounted for as a capital lease or a liability on a consolidated balance sheet of such person in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Change of Control" means the acquisition by a person, or group of persons acting jointly or in concert, of units of Calloway (and/or securities convertible into units of Calloway) representing (on a diluted basis, but only giving effect to the conversion or exercise of convertible securities held by such person or group of persons) greater than 50% of the units of Calloway.

"Consolidated EBITDA" of Calloway for any period means Consolidated Net Income increased by the sum of (i) Consolidated Interest Expense, excluding interest that has been capitalized on projects that are under development or held for future development, for such period, (ii) income tax expense of Calloway for such period (other than income taxes, either positive or negative, attributable to extraordinary or non-recurring gains or losses) determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, (iii) amortization of income properties (including provisions for diminution of income properties) for such period, determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, (iv) amortization of the fair value of intangible assets and liabilities for such period, determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, (v) amortization of deferred expenses of Calloway for such period, determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and (vi) other non-cash items changing Consolidated Net Income resulting from a change in accounting principles in determining Consolidated Net Income for such period.

"Consolidated Indebtedness" as at any date means the consolidated Indebtedness of Calloway as at such date determined, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Trust Indenture, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

"Consolidated Interest Expense" of Calloway for any period means the aggregate amount of interest expense of Calloway in respect of Indebtedness, Capital Lease Obligations, the original issue discount of any Indebtedness issued at a price less than the face amount thereof paid, accrued or scheduled to be paid or accrued by Calloway during such period and, to the extent interest has been capitalized on projects that are under development or held for future development during the period, the amount of interest so capitalized, all as determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (provided that, notwithstanding its presentation under generally accepted accounting principles, all interest expense of Calloway in respect of convertible debt Indebtedness will be included (without duplication) in determining Consolidated Interest Expense).

"Consolidated Net Income" of Calloway for any period means the net income (loss) of Calloway for such period determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, excluding (i) any gain or loss (net of any tax impact) attributable to the sale or other disposition of any asset of Calloway, other than the sale or disposition of income properties specifically acquired and held for resale, (ii) any extraordinary gains and losses of Calloway, determined on a consolidated basis in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and (iii) other nonrecurring items.

"Debt Securities" means unsecured debt securities of Calloway issued from time to time pursuant to the Trust Indenture;

“Extraordinary Resolution” means, for any series of Debt Securities, instruments in writing signed by the holders of not less than 66 2/3% (or 75% in certain events as described under “Modification and Waiver”) of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of such series of Debt Securities or a resolution passed as an Extraordinary Resolution by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than 66 2/3% (or 75% in certain events as described under “Modification and Waiver”) of the aggregate outstanding principal amount of such series of Debt Securities represented and voting at a meeting of holders of such series of Debt Securities duly convened and held in accordance with the Trust Indenture, all upon compliance with the procedures specified in the Trust Indenture.

“generally accepted accounting principles” means generally accepted accounting principles in effect in Canada as of the date of the Trust Indenture.

“Indebtedness” of any person means (without duplication), on a consolidated basis, (i) any obligation of such person for borrowed money (including, for greater certainty, the full principal amount of convertible debt, notwithstanding its presentation under generally accepted accounting principles), (ii) any obligation of such person incurred in connection with the acquisition of property, assets or businesses, (iii) any obligation of such person issued or assumed as the deferred purchase price of property, (iv) any Capital Lease Obligation of such person, and (v) any obligations of the type referred to in clauses (i) through (iv) of another person, the payment of which such person has guaranteed or for which such person is responsible or liable; provided that, for the purpose of clauses (i) through (v) (except in respect of convertible debt, as described above), an obligation will constitute Indebtedness only to the extent that it would appear as a liability on the consolidated balance sheet of such person in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Obligations referred to in clauses (i) through (iii) exclude (i) trade accounts payable, (ii) distributions payable to unitholders of Calloway, (iii) accrued liabilities arising in the ordinary course of business which are not overdue or which are being contested in good faith, (iv) indebtedness with respect to the unpaid balance of installment receipts, where such indebtedness has a term not in excess of 12 months, (v) intangible liabilities and (vi) deferred revenues, all of which will be deemed not to be Indebtedness for the purposes of this definition.

“Material Subsidiary” means, at any date, any Subsidiary the book value of the assets of which exceed (on a stand alone basis) 5% of the Adjusted Unitholders’ Equity calculated as at such date.

“Non-Recourse Indebtedness” means any Indebtedness of a Subsidiary of Calloway which is a single purpose company or whose principal assets and business are constituted by a particular project and pursuant to the terms of which Indebtedness payment is to be made from the revenues arising out of such project with recourse for such payment being available only to the revenues or the assets of such single purpose company or the project.

“Subsidiary” of any Person has the meaning attributed to it in the Ontario Securities Commission Rule 45-501 as in effect on the date hereof.

General

The Debentures will be issued in $1,000 denominations limited to $250,000,000 aggregate principal amount, will be dated September 22, 2005, will bear interest at the rate of 4.51% per annum, payable in semi-annual instalments on September 22 and March 22 in each year, with the first payment of interest due on March 22, 2006 and will mature on September 22, 2010.

Rank

The Debentures will be direct senior unsecured obligations of Calloway and will rank equally and rateably with one another and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated Indebtedness of Calloway except for sinking fund provisions (if any) applicable to different series of Debt Securities or other obligations of Calloway, except to the extent prescribed by law.

Guarantee

The Debentures will be guaranteed by the wholly-owned Material Subsidiaries of Calloway and certain of the wholly-owned corporate Subsidiaries. All such current and future Material Subsidiaries will provide a guarantee of the Debentures. In the case of default by Calloway, the Indenture Trustee will, subject to the Trust Indenture, seek redress from such Subsidiaries for the guaranteed obligations. These guarantees are intended to eliminate structural subordination, which arises as a consequence of certain Calloway assets being held in various Subsidiaries. A guarantor may be released from its guarantee in certain circumstances where it no longer remains a majority-owned Subsidiary of Calloway. See "Risk Factors – Structural Subordination of Debentures".

Redemption by Calloway

At its option, Calloway may redeem the Debentures, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, on payment of a redemption price equal to the greater of (i) the Canada Yield Price and (ii) par, together in each case with accrued and unpaid interest to the date fixed for redemption. Calloway will give notice of redemption at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the date fixed for redemption. Where less than all of the Debentures are to be redeemed pursuant to their terms, the Debentures to be so redeemed will be redeemed on a pro rata basis according to the principal amount of Debentures registered in the respective name of each holder of Debentures or in such other manner as the Indenture Trustee may consider equitable.

For the purposes of the foregoing provisions, the following terms will be defined in the Trust Indenture substantially as follows:

"Canada Yield Price" means a price equal to the price of the Debentures calculated to provide a yield to maturity, compounded semi-annually and calculated in accordance with generally accepted financial practice, equal to the Government of Canada Yield calculated at 10:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the date on which Calloway gives notice of redemption of the Debentures pursuant to the Trust Indenture plus 0.26%.

"Government of Canada Yield" on any date means the yield to maturity on such date, compounded semi-annually and calculated in accordance with generally accepted financial practice, which a non-callable Government of Canada bond would carry if issued, in Canadian dollars in Canada, at 100% of its principal amount on such date with a term to maturity equal to the remaining term to maturity of the Debentures, calculated as of the redemption date of the Debentures, such yield to maturity being the average of the yields provided by two major Canadian investment dealers selected by Calloway.

Purchase of Debt Securities

Calloway may at any time and from time to time purchase the Debentures in the market (which will include purchases from or through an investment dealer or a firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by tender or private contract at any price. Debt Securities that are so purchased will be cancelled and will not be reissued or resold.

Certain Trust Indenture Covenants

The Trust Indenture will contain covenants substantially to the following effect in favour of holders of the Debt Securities (including the Debentures).

Maintenance of Properties

Calloway will maintain and keep or cause to be maintained and kept in good condition, repair and working order all of the properties owned by it or any of its Subsidiaries used in its business or in the business of any of its Subsidiaries. Calloway will make or cause to be made all necessary repairs and renewals to and replacements and improvements of these properties as in its judgment may be necessary to carry on its business properly and prudently. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Calloway and its Subsidiaries will not be prohibited from selling or transferring their properties in the ordinary course of business.

Insurance

Calloway will maintain and will cause its Subsidiaries to maintain such property and liability insurance as would be maintained by a prudent owner.

Restrictions on Consolidations and Mergers

Calloway may not consolidate with, amalgamate or merge with or into or sell, assign, transfer or lease all or substantially all of its properties and assets unless:

- i) the entity formed by such consolidation or amalgamation or into which Calloway is merged or the entity which acquires by operation of law or by conveyance or by transfer the assets of Calloway substantially as an entirety is a corporation or unincorporated organization organized or existing under the laws of Canada or any province or territory thereof and (except where such assumption is deemed to have occurred solely by the operation of law) such entity assumes under a supplemental indenture all the obligations of Calloway under the Trust Indenture, any supplemental indenture and the Debt Securities and such transaction to the satisfaction of the Indenture Trustee and in the opinion of counsel will be on such terms to preserve and not impair any of the rights and powers of the Indenture Trustee and the holders of Debt Securities;
- ii) immediately before and immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Event of Default (as defined in the Trust Indenture) has occurred and is continuing; and
- iii) immediately after giving effect to such transaction, the surviving entity could incur at least $1.00 of additional Indebtedness.

Certain Covenants re Debentures

The Trust Indenture will contain covenants substantially to the following effect in favour of the holders of the Debentures.

Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Expense Ratio

Calloway will maintain a ratio of Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Expense of not less than 1.65 to 1.

Restrictions on Additional Indebtedness

Calloway will not incur or assume, or permit any Subsidiary to incur or assume, any Indebtedness unless the quotient (expressed as a percentage) obtained by dividing Consolidated Indebtedness by Aggregate Assets, calculated on a pro forma basis as described below (the "Indebtedness Percentage"), would be less than or equal to 65%.

The Trust Indenture will provide that the Indebtedness Percentage will be calculated on a pro forma basis as at the date of Calloway's most recently published balance sheet (the "Balance Sheet Date") giving effect to the incurrence of the Indebtedness to be incurred or assumed and the application of the proceeds therefrom and to any other event that has increased or decreased Consolidated Indebtedness or Aggregate Assets since the Balance Sheet Date to the date of calculation.

Equity Maintenance

Calloway will maintain an Adjusted Unitholders' Equity of at least $500 million.

Events of Default

The Trust Indenture will provide that each of the following events will constitute an event of default (each, an "Event of Default") in respect of each series of Debt Securities (including the Debentures):

- a) default in payment of principal when due;

- b) default in payment of any interest when due where such default continues for a period of three business days after the relevant interest payment date;
- c) a breach of or default in the performance of any other covenant of Calloway under the Trust Indenture, the Debt Securities or a supplemental indenture in connection with that series of Debt Securities where such default or breach continues for a period of 30 days after the Indenture Trustee has given notice in writing to Calloway specifying the nature of such breach or default, and requiring that it be remedied unless the Indenture Trustee (having regard to the subject matter of such breach or default) agrees to a longer period, and in such event within the period agreed to by the Indenture Trustee;
- d) certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency, winding up or dissolution related to Calloway or a Material Subsidiary as set out in the Trust Indenture;
- e) the rendering of a final judgment or judgments (not subject to appeal) against Calloway or any Material Subsidiary in an aggregate amount in excess of $25 million by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction, which remains or remain undischarged and unstayed for a period of 60 days after the date on which the right to appeal has expired; and
- f) default by Calloway or any Material Subsidiary under the terms of any Indebtedness (other than any Non-Recourse Indebtedness) where that default results in the acceleration of that Indebtedness (after expiration of any applicable grace period) unless such acceleration is waived or rescinded; provided that the aggregate of all such Indebtedness which is accelerated exceeds $25 million.

Subject to the provisions of the Trust Indenture relating to the duties of the Indenture Trustee, in case an Event of Default applicable to a series of Debt Securities occurs and is continuing, the Indenture Trustee will be under no obligation to exercise any of its rights or powers under the Trust Indenture at the request or direction of any of the holders of Debt Securities of such series, unless such holders have offered to indemnify the Indenture Trustee to its reasonable satisfaction.

If an Event of Default (other than an Event of Default described in paragraph (d) above) occurs and is continuing with respect to a particular series of Debt Securities, either the Indenture Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of such series may accelerate the maturity of all Debt Securities of such series; provided that, notwithstanding any other provisions of the Trust Indenture, any supplemental indenture or any Debt Securities, after such acceleration, but before a judgment or decree based on acceleration, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of outstanding Debt Securities of that series may rescind and annul such acceleration in certain circumstances described in the Trust Indenture. See "Modification and Waiver". If an Event of Default specified in paragraph (d) above occurs, the outstanding Debt Securities will become immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Indenture Trustee or any holder of Debt Securities. If the maturity of the Debt Securities of a series has been accelerated, legal action against Calloway may be authorized by an Extraordinary Resolution of the holders of the Debt Securities of such series.

Depository Services

Except as otherwise provided below, the Debentures will be issued in "book-entry only" form and must be purchased or transferred through participants ("Participants") in the depository service of The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited or a successor ("CDS"), which include securities brokers and dealers, banks and trust companies. On the closing date of the offering, Calloway will cause a global certificate or certificates representing the Debentures (each, a "Global Debenture") to be delivered to, and registered in the name of, CDS or its nominee. Except as described below, no purchaser of a Debenture will be entitled to a certificate or other instrument from Calloway or CDS evidencing that Debentureholder's ownership thereof, and no Debentureholder will be shown on the records maintained by CDS except through a book-entry account of a Participant acting on behalf of such Debentureholder. Each Debentureholder will receive a customer confirmation of purchase from the registered dealer from which the Debenture is purchased in accordance with the practices and procedures of that registered dealer. Practices of registered dealers may vary, but generally customer confirmations are issued promptly after execution of a customer order. CDS will be responsible for establishing and maintaining book-entry accounts for its Participants having interests in the Debentures.

Debentures will be issued in fully registered form to holders or their nominees other than CDS or its nominee if (i) Calloway determines that CDS is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depository and Calloway is unable to locate a qualified successor, (ii) Calloway at its option elects, or is required by law, to terminate the book-entry system through CDS or such book-entry system ceases to exist or (iii) after the occurrence of an Event of Default, holders of Debentures representing beneficial interests aggregating over 50% of the outstanding principal amount of Debentures determine that the continuation of the book-entry system is no longer in their best interests.

Transfers

Transfers of ownership in the Debentures will be effected only through records maintained by CDS or its nominee for such Debentures with respect to interests of Participants and on the records of Participants with respect to interests of persons other than Participants. Debentureholders who are not Participants, but who desire to purchase, sell or otherwise transfer ownership of or other interest in the Debentures, may do so only through Participants.

The ability of a Debentureholder to pledge a Debenture or otherwise take action with respect to such Debentureholder's interest in a Debenture (other than through a Participant) may be limited due to the lack of a physical certificate.

Payment of Interest and Principal

Except in the case of payment on maturity, in which case payment may be made on surrender of the Global Debenture, payments of interest and principal on each Global Debenture will be made to CDS as registered holder of the Global Debenture. Interest payments on the Global Debenture will be made by cheque dated the date interest is payable and delivered to CDS two days before the date interest is payable. Payments of interest may also be made by electronic funds transferred to CDS at the option of Calloway. Principal payments on the Global Debenture will be made by cheque dated the maturity date delivered to CDS at maturity against receipt of the Global Debenture. As long as CDS is the registered holder of the Global Debenture, CDS will be considered the sole owner of the Global Debenture for the purpose of receiving payment on the Debentures and for all other purposes under the Trust Indenture and the Debentures.

Calloway expects that CDS, upon receipt of any payment of principal or interest in respect of a Global Debenture, will credit Participants' accounts, on the date principal or interest is payable, with payments in amounts proportionate to their respective beneficial interests in the principal amount of such Global Debenture as shown on the records of CDS. Calloway also expects that payments of principal and interest by Participants to the owners of beneficial interests in such Global Debenture held through such Participants will be governed by standing instructions and customary practices, as is the case with securities held for the accounts of customers in bearer form or registered in "street name", and will be the responsibility of such Participants. The responsibility and liability of Calloway and the Indenture Trustee in respect of Debentures represented by the Global Debenture is limited to making payment of any principal and interest due on such Global Debenture to CDS.

If the date for payment of any amount of principal or interest on any Debenture is not a business day at the place of payment, then payment will be made on the next business day and the holder of the Debenture will not be entitled to any further interest or other payment in respect of the delay.

Change of Control

In the event of a Change of Control, the holders of Debentures may require Calloway to repurchase their Debentures, in whole or in part, at a price of (i) 101% of the principal amount of such Debentures plus (ii) all accrued interest to the date of repurchase.

Defeasance

The Trust Indenture contains provisions requiring the Indenture Trustee to release Calloway from its obligations under the Trust Indenture and any supplemental indenture relating to a particular series of Debt Securities (including the Debentures) provided that, among other things, Calloway satisfies the Indenture Trustee that it has deposited funds or made due provision for the payment of (i) the expenses of the Indenture Trustee and (ii) all principal, premium (if any), interest and other amounts due or to become due in respect of such series of Debt Securities.

Modification and Waiver

The rights of the holders of Debt Securities issued under the Trust Indenture and any supplemental indenture may be modified if authorized by Extraordinary Resolution. If the proposed modification affects the rights of the holders of a separate series of Debt Securities rather than all of the Debt Securities, the approval of a like proportion of the holders of such separate series of Debt Securities outstanding will be required.

The approval threshold for an Extraordinary Resolution will generally be 66 2/3% but will be 75% for the following: (a) to change the stated maturity of the principal or redemption price of or any premium or installment of interest on, any Debt Securities of such series, (b) to reduce the principal amount of, or interest or premium (if any) on, any Debt Securities of such series, (c) to change the place or currency of payment of the principal of, premium (if any) on redemption price of or interest on, any Debt Securities of such series or (d) to amend the percentage of Debt Securities of such series necessary to approve an Extraordinary Resolution. See the definition of "Extraordinary Resolution" under "Definitions".

Subject to certain rights of the Indenture Trustee as provided in the Trust Indenture, the holders of a majority of the outstanding principal amount of the Debt Securities of a series (including the Debentures), on behalf of all holders of Debt Securities of such series, may waive certain Events of Default under the Trust Indenture with respect to such series of Debt Securities.

Financial Information

Calloway has covenanted in the Trust Indenture to deliver to the Indenture Trustee its audited annual financial statements and unaudited interim financial statements at such time as such statements are delivered to Canadian securities regulators.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under an agency agreement (the "Agency Agreement") dated September 15, 2005 between the Agents and Calloway, Calloway has appointed the Agents as its agents to offer for sale on a best efforts basis on September 22, 2005 or such other date as may be agreed upon, but not later than October 7, 2005, subject to compliance with all necessary legal requirements and to the terms and conditions contained in the Agency Agreement, up to $200,000,000 principal amount of Debentures at a price equal to $999.78 per $1,000 principal amount of Debenture, plus accrued interest (if any) from September 22, 2005 to the date of delivery, payable in cash to Calloway against delivery of such principal amount of Debentures. The Agency Agreement provides that Calloway will pay the Agents a fee equal to 0.35% of the gross proceeds from the sale of the Debentures on account of agency services rendered in connection with this offering. The obligations of the Agents under the Agency Agreement may be terminated at their discretion upon the occurrence of certain stated events.

Calloway has been advised by the Agents that, in connection with this offering, the Agents may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Debentures at levels other than those which otherwise might prevail on the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CALLOWAY AND CERTAIN OF THE AGENTS

Scotia Capital Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of a Canadian chartered bank (the "Bank"), which is a lender to Calloway. As of September 1, 2005, Calloway was indebted to the Bank in an aggregate amount of approximately $147.424 million, of which debt $4.424 million is secured by specific properties. The net proceeds of the offering will be used to repay a portion of the indebtedness of Calloway owed to the Bank. Consequently, Calloway may be considered a connected issuer of Scotia Capital Inc. for the purposes of the securities regulations of certain Canadian provinces. As of the date of this prospectus supplement, Calloway is in compliance with the terms of its indebtedness. Since the date the indebtedness to the Bank was incurred, there has not been a material adverse change in the financial position of Calloway and the value of the collateral granted as security for the indebtedness. Scotia Capital Inc. has advised that the decision to act as agent for the offering was made independently of the Bank and the Bank had no influence as to the determination of the terms of the distribution. Scotia Capital Inc. will not receive any benefit in connection with this offering other than its proportionate share of the Agents' fee payable by Calloway.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The estimated net proceeds to Calloway from this offering, after deducting the Agents' fees of $700,000 and the estimated expenses of the issue estimated to be approximately $370,000, will be approximately $198,886,000. The net proceeds of the offering will be used by Calloway to repay a portion of the indebtedness of Calloway owed to the Bank and to repay other indebtedness outstanding from time to time and for general trust purposes. See "Relationship Between Calloway and Certain of the Agents".

CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Shea Nerland Calnan, counsel to Calloway, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, counsel to the Agents, the following is, at the date hereof, a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations generally applicable to a holder of Debentures (a "Holder") who acquires Debentures pursuant to this offering and who, at all relevant times, for purposes of the Tax Act, is resident in Canada, holds the Debentures as capital property and deals at arm's length and is not affiliated with Calloway. Generally, the Debentures will be considered capital property to a Holder provided that the Holder does not hold the Debentures in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities and has not acquired them as an adventure in the nature of trade. Certain Holders whose Debentures might not otherwise qualify as capital property may be entitled to obtain such qualification in certain circumstances by making an irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act.

This summary is not applicable to a Holder that is a "financial institution" (as defined in the Tax Act for purposes of the mark-to-market rules) or a "specified financial institution", or a Holder an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" (all as defined in the Tax Act). Such Holders should consult their own tax advisors having regard to their particular circumstances.

This summary is based upon the facts set out in the Short Form Prospectus and this prospectus supplement, a certificate of Calloway with respect to certain factual matters, the current provisions of the Tax Act and the Regulations in force at the date of this prospectus supplement, all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and Regulations publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof and counsel's understanding of the current published administrative and assessing policies and practices of the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA"). There can be no assurance that the proposed amendments will be implemented in their current form or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes of law or practice, whether by judicial, governmental or legislative decision or action or changes in the administration policies or assessment practices of the CRA, nor does it take into account tax legislation or considerations of any province or foreign jurisdiction. The provisions of provincial income tax legislation vary from province to province in Canada and in some cases differ from federal income tax legislation.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular Holder, and no representations with respect to the income tax consequences to any particular Holder are made. Accordingly, prospective purchasers should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences to them of acquiring, holding and disposing of the Debentures, including the application and effect of the income and other tax laws of any country, province, state or local tax authority.

This summary does not address any Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to non-residents of Canada, and non-residents should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of acquiring and holding the Debentures. All payments to non-residents of interest on the Debentures (including amounts deemed to be interest for purposes of the Tax Act) will be net of any applicable withholding taxes.

A Holder that is a corporation, partnership, unit trust or trust of any which a corporation or partnership is a beneficiary will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year any interest on a Debenture that accrues or is deemed to accrue to the Holder to the end of that taxation year or becomes receivable or is received by the Holder before the end of that taxation year, except to the extent that such interest was otherwise included in the Holder's income for a preceding taxation year.

Any other Holder, including an individual and trusts of which an individual is a beneficiary, will be required to include in income for a taxation year any interest on a Debenture received or receivable by such Holder in that year (depending upon the method regularly followed by the Holder in computing income), except to the extent that the interest was included in the Holder's income for a preceding taxation year.

On a disposition or deemed disposition of a Debenture, including a purchase for cancellation, a Holder will generally be required to include in income the amount of interest accrued or deemed to accrue on the Debenture from the date of the last interest payment to the date of disposition to the extent that such amount has not otherwise been included in the Holder's income for the taxation year or a previous taxation year. In general, a disposition or deemed disposition of a Debenture will give rise to a capital gain (or capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds of disposition, net of any accrued interest and any other amount included in computing income and any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base of the Debenture to the Holder immediately before the disposition.

One-half of the amount of any capital gain (a "taxable capital gain") realized by a Holder in a taxation year generally must be included in the Holder's income for that year, and one-half of the amount of any capital loss (an "allowable capital loss") realized by a Holder in a taxation year may generally be deducted from taxable capital gains realized by the Holder in that year. Allowable capital losses in excess of taxable capital gains in a particular year may be carried back and deducted in any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward and deducted in any subsequent taxation year against net taxable capital gains realized in such years, to the extent and under the circumstances described in the Tax Act.

A Holder that is a "Canadian controlled private corporation" (as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % on certain investment income, including amounts of interest and taxable capital gains. A capital gain realized by a holder who is an individual may give rise to a liability for alternative minimum tax.

A Holder that is a corporation will not be entitled to include any amount in respect of the Debentures in computing its "investment allowance" for purposes of computing "taxable capital" (both as defined in the Tax Act) under Part 1.3 (Tax on Large Corporations) of the Tax Act.

Budget Proposals

On March 23, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) proposed amendments to the Tax Act (the "Budget Proposals") to restrict direct and indirect holdings in certain "business income trusts" (as defined in the Budget Proposals) by certain tax-exempt entities. The Budget Proposals were originally scheduled to apply commencing after 2004. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced that the application of the Budget Proposals was suspended to allow further consultation with representatives of the pension fund industry, the investment industry, provincial governments and other interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance (Canada) in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. As part of the release of the 2005 Federal Budget, the Minister of Finance (Canada) issued further statements in respect of the Budget Proposals advising that the Department of Finance will continue to consult stakeholders on tax issues related to business income trusts and other flow-through entities. These statements indicated that a consultation paper would be released shortly after the 2005 Federal Budget and that the Department of Finance would continue to monitor developments in the markets for business income trusts and other flow-through entities during the consultation period. On September 8, 2005, the Minister of Finance released a consultation paper, seeking comments from interested parties.

If the Budget Proposals were to be enacted as originally proposed, a "designated taxpayer" would be subject to a monthly penalty tax in respect of each month ending after 2004 where, at the end of that month, the designated taxpayer holds "restricted investment property" and, in general terms, the cost amount to the designated taxpayer of all such property exceeds 1% of the cost amount to it of all of its properties. The monthly tax would be 1% of such excess. For this purpose, restricted investment property includes units and debt of a "business income trust" (other than an "exempt trust") and interests in (or debts of) certain entities where the cost amount to such entities of their restricted investment property exceeds 1% of the cost of all of their property.

For the purposes of these Budget Proposals, a "designated taxpayer" includes registered pension plans and funds and pension corporations as described in paragraphs 149(1)(o) to (o.2) of the Tax Act or the Canada Pension Plan Investment Board (but does not include Plans).

For the purposes of the Budget Proposals a trust will, in general terms, constitute a "business income trust" if it is a "unit trust" (as defined in the Tax Act) and 50% or more of the fair market value of all of the trust's property is attributable, directly or indirectly, to certain types of property. Calloway has advised counsel that due to the nature of its investments and property and their relative fair market values and cost amounts that, on the date hereof, Calloway will not constitute a "business income trust" and Debentures will not constitute "restricted investment property". However, no assurances can be given that Calloway will not become a "business income trust" or that Debentures will not become "restricted investment property" in the future. Prospective purchasers who are designated taxpayers, or prospective purchasers an interest in (or debt of) which may constitute restricted investment property, should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential application of the Budget Proposals.

RISK FACTORS

There are risks associated with the Debentures being distributed under the offering. In addition to the risks described herein, reference is made to the risks described in the Short Form Prospectus including Calloway's annual information form and management's discussion and analysis which are incorporated therein by reference.

Credit Ratings

Real or anticipated changes in credit ratings on the Debentures may affect the market value of the Debentures. In addition, real or anticipated changes in credit ratings can affect the cost at which Calloway can access the debenture market.

Structural Subordination of Debentures

Liabilities of a parent entity with assets held by various Subsidiaries may result in the structural subordination of the lenders of the parent entity. The parent entity is entitled only to the residual equity of its Subsidiaries after all debt obligations of its Subsidiaries are discharged. In the event of a bankruptcy, liquidation or reorganization of Calloway, holders of indebtedness of Calloway (including holders of Debentures) may become subordinate to lenders to the Subsidiaries of Calloway.

Wholly-owned Material Subsidiaries and certain wholly-owned corporate Subsidiaries of Calloway will provide a form of guarantee pursuant to which the Indenture Trustee will, subject to the Trust Indenture, be entitled to seek redress from such wholly-owned Subsidiaries for the guaranteed indebtedness. These guarantees are intended to eliminate structural subordination which arises as a consequence of certain Calloway assets being held in various Subsidiaries. Although all wholly-owned Material Subsidiaries will provide a guarantee, not all Subsidiaries of Calloway will provide such a guarantee. In addition, there can be no assurance that the Indenture Trustee will, or will be able to, effectively enforce the guarantee. See "Details of the Offering – Guarantee".

Coverage Ratios

See "Interest Coverages" which is relevant to an assessment of the risk that Calloway will be unable to pay interest or principal on the Debentures when due.

Market Value Fluctuation

Prevailing interest rates will affect the market value of the Debentures, as they carry a fixed interest rate. Assuming all other factors remain unchanged, the market value of the Debentures, which carry a fixed interest rate, will decline as prevailing interest rates for comparable debt instruments rise, and increase as prevailing interest rates for comparable debt instruments decline.

Trading Market for Debentures

If the Debentures are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount from their initial public offering price depending on prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, the performance of Calloway and other factors. No assurance can be given as to whether an active trading market will develop or be maintained for the Debentures. To the extent that an active trading market for the Debentures does not develop, the liquidity and trading prices for the Debentures may be adversely affected.

Debt Financing

As at July 31, 2005, Calloway had outstanding indebtedness of approximately $1,441 million, of which approximately $440 million is principal payments and debt maturing prior to January 1, 2010. As at July 31, 2005 and assuming that the net proceeds of the offering will be used by Calloway to repay a portion of the indebtedness of Calloway owed to the affiliated bank of Scotia Capital Inc. and to repay other indebtedness, Calloway will have outstanding indebtedness of approximately $1,461 million, of which approximately $260 million is principal payments and debt maturing prior to January 1, 2010. In addition, approximately 8.2% of Calloway's indebtedness, as a percentage of Gross Book Value (as defined in the declaration of trust of Calloway), is variable rate debt as at July 31, 2005 (1.0% as at July 31, 2005 assuming that the net proceeds of the offering will be used by Calloway to repay a portion of the indebtedness of Calloway owed to the affiliated bank of Scotia Capital Inc. and to repay other indebtedness).

The ability of Calloway to make cash distributions or make other payments or advances is subject to applicable laws and contractual restrictions contained in the instruments governing its indebtedness. The degree to which Calloway is leveraged could have important consequences to the holders of the Debentures, including: that Calloway's ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures or acquisitions in the future may be limited; that a significant portion of Calloway's cash flow from operations may be dedicated to the payment of the principal of and interest on its indebtedness, thereby reducing funds available for future operations and distributions; that certain of Calloway's borrowings may be at variable rates of interest, which exposes it to the risk of increased interest rates; and that Calloway may be vulnerable to economic downturns including Calloway's ability to retain and attract tenants. Also, there can be no assurance that Calloway will continue to generate sufficient cash flow from operations to meet required interest and principal payments. Further, Calloway is subject to the risk that any of its existing indebtedness may not be able to be refinanced upon maturity or that the terms of such financing may not be as favourable as the terms of its existing indebtedness. These factors may adversely affect Calloway's cash distributions.

Calloway's various credit facilities provide first charge security interests on most of the properties in its portfolio of income producing properties, to the various lenders. These credit facilities contain numerous terms and covenants that limit the discretion of management with respect to certain business matters. These covenants place restrictions on, among other things, the ability of Calloway to create liens or other encumbrances, to pay distributions on its Units or make certain other payments, investments, loans and guarantees and to sell or otherwise dispose of assets and merge or consolidate with another entity. In addition, the credit facilities contain a number of financial covenants that require Calloway to meet certain financial ratios and financial condition tests. For example, certain of Calloway's loans require specific loan to value and debt service coverage ratios which must be maintained by Calloway. A failure to comply with the obligations in the credit facilities could result in a default which, if not cured or waived, could result in a reduction or termination of distributions by Calloway and permit acceleration of the relevant indebtedness. If the indebtedness under the credit facilities were to be accelerated, there can be no assurance that the assets of Calloway would be sufficient to repay in full that indebtedness.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The registrar and transfer agent for the Debentures will be Computershare Trust Company of Canada at its principal office in Toronto, Ontario.

LEGAL MATTERS

Legal matters in connection with the issuance of the Debentures offered by this prospectus supplement will be passed upon at the date of closing on behalf of Calloway by Shea Nerland Calnan and on behalf of the Agents by McCarthy Tétrault LLP.

As of the date hereof, the partners and associates of Shea Nerland Calnan, as a group, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, as a group, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of the outstanding units of Calloway. David M. Calnan, a partner of Shea Nerland Calnan, is a member of the board of trustees of Calloway.

PURCHASERS' STATUTORY RIGHTS

Securities legislation in several of the provinces of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment thereto. In several of the provinces, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment thereto contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT
To a Short Form Base Shelf Prospectus Dated September 14, 2005

This prospectus supplement together with the short form base shelf prospectus to which it relates dated September 14, 2005, as amended or supplemented, and each document deemed to be incorporated by reference in the short form base shelf prospectus constitutes a public offering of these securities only in those jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale and therein only by persons permitted to sell such securities.

No securities regulatory authority has expressed an opinion about these securities and it is an offence to claim otherwise. The securities offered hereby have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended and, subject to certain exceptions, may not be offered or sold in the United States or to U.S. persons.

New Issue

November 28, 2005

4,256,000 Units

This offering (the “Offering”) consists of 4,256,000 units (“Units”) in Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust (“Calloway” or the “Trust”) at a price of $23.50 per Unit (the “Offering Price”) pursuant to an underwriting agreement dated November 28, 2005 (the “Underwriting Agreement”) between Calloway and CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Desjardins Securities Inc., National Bank Financial Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., Canaccord Capital Corporation and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (collectively, the “Underwriters”). The Offering Price was determined by negotiation between Calloway and the Underwriters. The Units are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the “TSX”) under the trading symbol “CWT.UN”. Calloway has obtained conditional approval to list the additional Units to be distributed under this prospectus supplement, together with the short form base shelf prospectus of Calloway dated September 14, 2005 (the “Short Form Prospectus”), on the TSX. Listing is subject to Calloway fulfilling the requirements of the TSX as set out in their conditional approval. The closing price of the Units on the TSX on November 23, 2005, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the Offering, was $24.00. Calloway is an unincorporated “open-end” trust constituted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta, pursuant to a declaration of trust that was most recently amended and restated as of July 7, 2005 (the “Declaration of Trust”). Calloway was created to invest in income-producing rental properties located in Canada.

Price: $23.50 per Unit

	Price to Public	Underwriters' Fee	Net Proceeds to the Trust ⁽¹⁾
Per Unit	$23.50	$0.94	$22.56
Total	$100,016,000	$4,000,640	$96,015,360

Note:

(1) Before deducting expenses of the Offering, estimated to be $350,000 that, together with the Underwriters' fee, will be paid from the proceeds of the Offering.

A return on an investment in Units of Calloway is not comparable to the return on an investment in a fixed-income security. The recovery of an investment in Units is at risk, and any anticipated return on an investment in Units is based on many performance assumptions. Although Calloway intends to make distributions of a significant percentage of its available cash to its Unitholders, these cash distributions are not assured and may be reduced or suspended. The ability of Calloway to make cash distributions and the actual amount distributed will be dependant upon, among other things, the financial performance of the properties in its property portfolio, its debt covenants and obligations, its working capital requirements and its future capital requirements. In addition, the market value of the Units may decline for a variety of reasons including if Calloway is unable to meet its cash distribution targets in the future, and that decline may be significant.

It is important for a person making an investment in Units of Calloway to consider the particular risk factors that may affect both Calloway and the real estate industry in which Calloway operates and which may therefore affect the stability of the cash distributions on the Units of Calloway. See the section entitled "Risk Factors" which describes Calloway's assessment of those risk factors as well as the potential consequences to a Unitholder if a risk should occur. Calloway has obtained a DBRS stability rating of STA-3 (high).

The after-tax return from an investment in Units to Unitholders that is subject to Canadian income tax can be made up of both a "return on" and a "return of" capital. That composition may change over time, thus affecting a Unitholder's after-tax return. Returns on capital are generally taxed as ordinary income, capital gains or as dividends in the hands of a Unitholder. Returns of capital are generally tax-deferred (and reduce the Unitholder's cost base in the unit for tax purposes). See "Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations".

The Trust is not a trust company and is not registered under applicable legislation governing trust companies as it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company. The Trust qualifies as a mutual fund trust for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act") and offers and sells its Units to the public. Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of the Act or any other legislation. The Units offered hereby will be eligible for investment under certain statutes as set out under "Eligibility for Investment".

In connection with this Offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize or maintain the market price of the Units at levels other than those which otherwise might prevail on the open market. See "Plan of Distribution".

In connection with this Offering, the Trust may be considered a "connected issuer" of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. under applicable laws. Each of CIBC World Markets Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of a Canadian chartered bank (the "Affiliated Banks"), which Affiliated Banks are lenders to the Trust. See "Relationship Between Calloway and Certain of the Underwriters".

The Underwriters, as principal, conditionally offer the Units, subject to prior sale, if, as and when issued, sold and delivered by the Trust and accepted by the Underwriters in accordance with the conditions contained in the Underwriting Agreement referred to under "Plan of Distribution" and subject to the approval of certain legal matters on behalf of the Trust by Shea Nerland Calnan and on behalf of the Underwriters by McCarthy Tétrault LLP. Subscriptions will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part and the Underwriters reserve the right to close the subscription books at any time without notice. It is expected that definitive certificates evidencing the Units will be available for delivery at closing which is expected to occur on or about December 6, 2005, or such later date as the Trust and the Underwriters may agree, but in any event no later than December 20, 2005.

NON GAAP FINANCIAL MEASURES

In the Short Form Prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference therein, there are references to "Distributable Income". See the amended definition of "Distributable Income" on page 9 of the Management's Discussion and Analysis of Calloway dated November 8, 2005 for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2005.

Distributable Income is a measure sometimes used by Canadian income trusts as an indicator of financial performance. Management uses Distributable Income to analyze operating performance including its ability to earn and distribute cash returns to unitholders. As one of the factors that may be considered relevant by prospective investors in units of Calloway is the cash distributed by Calloway relative to the price of the units, management believes that Distributable Income of Calloway is a useful supplemental measure that may assist prospective investors in assessing an investment in units.

Distributable Income is not a measure recognized by generally accepted accounting principles in Canada ("GAAP") and does not have a standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP. Therefore, Calloway's method of calculating Distributable Income may differ from other issuer's methods and may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other issuers. Distributable Income is not intended to represent operating profits for the period nor should it be viewed as an alternative to net income, cash flow from operating activities or other measures of financial performance calculated in accordance with GAAP. The GAAP measure most directly comparable to Distributable Income is net earnings (to which reconciliation is provided in Calloway's Management's Discussion and Analysis).

ELIGIBILITY FOR INVESTMENT

Subject to compliance with the prudent investor standards and the general provisions and restrictions of the following statutes (and the regulations thereunder) and, in certain cases, subject to the satisfaction of additional requirements relating to investment or lending policies, standards, procedures or goals and, in certain cases, subject to the filing of such policies, standards, procedures or goals, the purchase of the Units offered hereunder would not, if the date hereof was the date of the closing of the Offering, be precluded as investments under the following statutes:

Insurance Companies Act (Canada)
Trust and Loan Companies Act (Canada)
Cooperative Credit Associations Act (Canada)
Pension Benefits Standards Act, 1985 (Canada)
Loan and Trust Corporations Act (Alberta)
Insurance Act (Alberta)

In the opinion of Shea Nerland Calnan, counsel for Calloway, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, provided that Calloway qualifies as a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the Units would, if issued on the date hereof, be qualified investments for trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans and deferred profit sharing plans.

STABILITY RATING

Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited ("DBRS") provides stability ratings for real estate investment trusts ("REITs") and income trusts. A stability rating generally provides an indication of both the stability and sustainability of REITs' and income trusts' distributions to unitholders. DBRS's rating categories range from highest stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-1) to poor stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-7). DBRS has provided Calloway with stability rating of STA-3 (high). This rating category reflects good stability and sustainability of distributions per unit.

There can be no assurance that any rating will remain in effect for any given period of time or that any rating will not be withdrawn or revised by a rating agency at any time.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, Calloway has agreed to sell and the Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase on December 6, 2005, or on such later date as may be agreed upon, but in any event not later than December 20, 2005, an aggregate of 4,256,000 Units at a purchase price of $23.50 per Unit, for an aggregate gross consideration of $100,016,000, payable in cash to Calloway by the Underwriters against delivery of the Units on the closing of the Offering. The Underwriters will receive an aggregate fee of $4,000,640 (or 4% of the gross proceeds of the Offering). See "Use of Proceeds".

The offered Units shall be identical in terms to all other Units.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement are several and may be terminated at their discretion on the basis of their assessment of the state of the financial markets and may also be terminated upon the occurrence of certain stated events. If one or more of the Underwriters fails to purchase their allotment of the Units, the remaining Underwriter or Underwriters may, but are not obligated to, purchase the Units not purchased by the Underwriter or Underwriters who failed to purchase. The Underwriters are, however, obligated to take up and pay for all of the Units if any of the Units are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement. Calloway has agreed to indemnify the Underwriters and their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain liabilities, including civil liabilities under Canadian provincial securities legislation, or to contribute to any payments the Underwriters may be required to make in respect thereof.

This Offering is being made in each of the Provinces of Canada. The Units have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended and, subject to certain exceptions, may not be offered or sold within the United States. The Underwriters will not offer or sell the Units within the United States, except to qualified institutional buyers (as defined in Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act) or to institutional accredited investors. In addition, until 40 days after the Closing Date of the Offering an offer or sale of the Units within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the Offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act if that offer or sale is made other than in accordance with Rule 144A or another exemption under the U.S. Securities Act.

Pursuant to policy statements of the Ontario Securities Commission and the Commission des valeurs mobilières du Québec, the Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution, bid for or purchase Units. The foregoing restriction is subject to exceptions, on the condition that the bid or purchase is not engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in, or raising the price of, Units. These exceptions include a bid or purchase permitted under the bylaws and rules of the TSX relating to market stabilization and passive market-making activities and a bid or purchase made for and on behalf of a customer where the order was not solicited during the period of distribution. Under the first-mentioned exception, in connection with the Offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Units at levels other than those which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Those transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

CONSOLIDATED CAPITALIZATION OF THE TRUST

As at December 31, 2004, the year end of its most recently completed financial year, Calloway had 33,263,171 Units issued and outstanding. From December 31, 2004 to October 31, 2005, 17,628,033 Units, and securities convertible into up to a further 12,827,079 Units, have been issued by Calloway or one of its subsidiaries, primarily either: (i) through the raising of equity financing; (ii) as partial consideration for acquisitions; or (iii) upon the exercise of previously outstanding options and convertible securities.

As at December 31, 2004, the indebtedness of Calloway, consisting of mortgages payable, capital lease obligations and convertible debentures was $600,525,000. That indebtedness, which now includes series A unsecured debentures, has since increased to approximately $1,464,149,000 as at September 30, 2005 due to various acquisitions completed by Calloway and due to the issuance of series A unsecured debentures pursuant to Calloway's prospectus supplement dated September 15, 2005.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CALLOWAY AND CERTAIN OF THE UNDERWRITERS

In connection with this Offering, Calloway may be considered a "connected issuer" to CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. under applicable securities laws. The Canadian chartered bank affiliates of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (the "Affiliated Banks") are lenders under credit facilities or mortgage loans (the "Facilities") provided to Calloway, and the Facilities are secured by, among other things, first priority charges over specific properties of Calloway, general security interests over the secured properties and a general assignment of rents over the secured properties. As at September 30, 2005, a total of approximately $85.5 million was outstanding under the Facilities. Calloway is in compliance with all material terms and conditions of the Facilities.

The terms, structuring and pricing of the Offering were determined solely by negotiation between Calloway and the Underwriters. The Affiliated Banks did not play any role in those determinations or decisions. None of the proceeds of the Offering, except for that portion of the proceeds payable to the Underwriters for their fees and expenses, is expected to be applied for the benefit of CIBC World Markets Inc, RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. and/or their respective Affiliated Banks.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The estimated net proceeds to Calloway from this Offering, after deducting the Underwriters' fee of $4,000,640 and the estimated expenses of this Offering of $350,000, will be approximately $95,665,360. The net proceeds of the offering will be used by Calloway to fund normal course acquisitions and for general trust purposes.

CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Shea Nerland Calnan, counsel to Calloway, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, (together, "Tax Counsel"), the following summary describes, as of the date of this prospectus, the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations pursuant to the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder generally applicable to a prospective purchaser of Units pursuant to this prospectus who, for purposes of the Tax Act, is resident in Canada, holds the Units as capital property and deals at arm's length with Calloway and is not affiliated with Calloway. Generally, Units will be considered to be capital property to a holder provided that the holder does not hold the Units in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure in the nature of trade. Certain holders who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Units as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act.

This summary is not applicable to a holder that is a "financial institution" for the purposes of the "mark-to-market" rules, to a holder an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" or to a holder that is a "specified financial institution", all as defined in the Tax Act. Such holders should consult their own tax advisors.

This summary is based upon the facts set out in this prospectus, the provisions of the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder in force at the date of this prospectus, Tax Counsel's understanding of the current published administrative and assessing practices and policies of the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA"), all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance prior to the date of this prospectus (the "Tax Proposals") and certificates of Calloway and the Underwriters as to certain factual matters. There can be no assurance that the Tax Proposals will be implemented in their current form or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law or action, and does not take into account provincial, territorial or foreign tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed herein.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal tax considerations applicable to an investment in Units. Moreover, the income and other tax consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of Units will vary depending on the holder's particular circumstances, including the province or provinces in which the holder resides or carries on business. Accordingly, this summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice to any prospective purchaser of Units. Investors should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in Units based on their particular circumstances. No advance income tax ruling has been sought or obtained from the CRA to confirm the tax consequences of any of the transactions herein described. Prospective holders who propose to finance the acquisition of Units should consult their own advisors as to the application of the Draft Proposals to amend the Tax Act released October 31, 2003 relating to the deductibility of interest and other expenses.

This summary does not address any Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to non-residents of Canada, and non-residents should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of acquiring and holding securities. All distributions on the Units to non-residents, whether in cash or Units, will be net of any applicable withholding taxes.

Status of Trust

Calloway has advised counsel that Calloway is, and expects that it will continue to be on and after the closing of the Offering a unit trust and a mutual fund trust as defined in the Tax Act and has provided a factual certificate to support such advice. This summary therefore assumes that Calloway does and will continue to so qualify. If Calloway were not to qualify as a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the income tax consequences described below would in some respects be materially different.

Taxation of the Trust

Based in part on a certificate provided by Calloway as to the residence of its Trustees, Calloway will be treated as a resident of Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act. In general, Calloway is treated as an individual for tax purposes and is taxable on its income determined under the Tax Act from sources inside or outside Canada. Calloway is subject to tax in each taxation year (which will be the calendar year) on its taxable income for the year. The income of Calloway for the purposes of the Tax Act will include rents in respect of the properties included in its portfolio, and any taxable capital gain or recapture of capital cost allowance arising on the disposition of property owned by Calloway.

Calloway will generally be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of its net income and net realized capital gains in each taxation year except to the extent such net income and net realized capital gains are paid or payable or are deemed to be paid or payable in such year to Unitholders.

In computing its income, Calloway will generally be entitled to deduct its expenses incurred to earn such income, provided such expenses are reasonable and otherwise deductible. Calloway may deduct in computing its income for a year a portion of the reasonable expenses of the issue of Units paid by Calloway in accordance with the applicable rules in the Tax Act.

The Declaration of Trust provides that an amount (which may include net recapture income and net realized capital gains) will be payable to Unitholders such that Calloway will not be liable to pay tax under Part I of the Tax Act for such year. The Declaration of Trust provides that Calloway will deduct, for tax purposes, such amount of its net income and net realized capital gains as is paid or payable to Unitholders for the year and as is necessary to ensure that Calloway will not be subject to tax on its net income and net taxable capital gains under Part I of the Tax Act.

Calloway will be entitled for each taxation year to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized taxable capital gains by an amount determined under the Tax Act based on the redemption of Units during the year (the "capital gains refund"). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset Calloway's tax liability for that taxation year arising in connection with the distribution of its property on the redemption of Units. The Declaration of Trust provides that all or a portion of any income or taxable capital gain realized by Calloway as a result of that redemption may, at the discretion of the Trustees, be treated as income or taxable capital gain paid to, and designated as income or taxable capital gain of, the redeeming Unitholders, and will be deductible by Calloway in computing its income.

Losses incurred by Calloway cannot be allocated to Unitholders but may be deducted by Calloway in accordance with the Tax Act.

Taxation of Unitholders

A Unitholder is generally required to include in computing income for tax purposes in each year the portion of the income of Calloway for the year, including the taxable portion of net realized capital gains, determined for the purposes of the Tax Act, that is paid or payable, or deemed paid or payable, to such holder in the year and that Calloway deducts in computing its income.

The Declaration of Trust provides that net income and net taxable gains for the purposes of the Tax Act will be allocated to Unitholders in the same proportion as distributions received by Unitholders, subject to the discretion of the Trustees to adopt an allocation method which the Trustees consider to be more reasonable in the circumstances. The Declaration of Trust provides that Calloway will designate to the extent permitted by the Tax Act the portion of the taxable income distributed to Unitholders as may reasonably be considered to consist of net taxable capital gains of Calloway. Any such designated amount will be deemed for tax purposes to be received by Unitholders in the year as a taxable capital gain.

On the disposition or deemed disposition of a Unit, whether on a redemption or otherwise, the Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the Unitholder's proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Unit and any reasonable costs of disposition. Proceeds of disposition will not include an amount payable by the Trust that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder's income, including any capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with a redemption of Units which has been designated by the Trust to the redeeming Unitholder. The taxation of capital gains and capital losses are described below.

The adjusted cost base of a Unit to a Unitholder will include all amounts paid or payable by the Unitholder for the Unit, with certain adjustments. The Declaration of Trust generally requires Calloway to claim the maximum amount of capital cost allowance available to it in computing its income for tax purposes. Based on Calloway's distribution policy, the amount distributed to Unitholders in a year may exceed the net income and net realized taxable capital gains of Calloway for that year. Such excess distributions will not be included in computing the income of Unitholders for tax purposes. However, a Unitholder is required to reduce the adjusted cost base of the Unitholder's Units by the amount paid or payable to the Unitholder by Calloway (other than the non-taxable portion of capital gains designated by Calloway) that was not included in computing the Unitholder's income and will realize a capital gain in the year to the extent the adjusted cost base of the Units would otherwise be a negative amount. The cost to a Unitholder of additional Units received in lieu of a cash distribution of income will be the amount of income distributed by the issue of those Units. For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of Units, the cost of the newly acquired Unit will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Units owned by the Unitholder as capital property immediately before the acquisition in accordance with the detailed provisions of the Tax Act.

One-half of any capital gain realized by a Unitholder and the amount of any net taxable capital gains designated by Calloway in respect of a Unitholder will generally be included in the Unitholder's income as a taxable capital gain and one-half of any capital loss realized by a Unitholder may generally be deducted only from taxable capital gains in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act.

Trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans and deferred profit sharing plans will generally not be liable for tax in respect of any distributions received from Calloway or any capital gains arising on the disposition of the Units.

Budget Proposals

The Minister of Finance announced proposed amendments to the Tax Act in the March 23, 2004 Budget (the "2004 Budget Proposals") that will affect the income tax consequences of investing in a trust that constitutes a "business income trust" and property that constitutes "restricted investment property" (as those terms are defined for the purposes of the Budget Proposals). The 2004 Budget Proposals were originally scheduled to apply commencing after 2004. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance announced that the application of the 2004 Budget Proposals was suspended to allow further consultation with representatives of the pension industry, the investment industry, provincial governments and other interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the 2004 Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004. On November 23, 2005 the Minister of Finance announced a reduction in the personal income tax rate on dividends, through increased dividend gross-up and tax credits and announced an end to the consultation process. The reduced tax on dividends is intended to make the total tax paid on dividends received from large Canadian corporations more comparable to the tax paid on distributions from income funds. This change will be effective starting in 2006. There was no announcement of any tax to be levied on income funds.

Alternative Minimum Tax

In general terms, net income of the Trust paid or payable to a Unitholder who is an individual or a trust that is designated as net realized capital gains and capital gains realized on the disposition of Units may increase the holder's liability for alternative minimum tax.

RISK FACTORS

There are risks associated with the Units being distributed under the offering. In addition to the risks described herein, reference is made to the risks described in the Short Form Prospectus including Calloway's annual information form and management's discussion and analysis which are incorporated therein by reference.

Debt Financing

As at September 30, 2005, Calloway had outstanding indebtedness of approximately $1,464 million, of which approximately $260 million is principal payments and debt maturing prior to January 1, 2010. In addition, approximately 1.7% of Calloway's indebtedness, as a percentage of Gross Book Value, is variable rate debt as at September 30, 2005.

The ability of Calloway to make cash distributions or make other payments or advances is subject to applicable laws and contractual restrictions contained in the instruments governing its indebtedness. The degree to which Calloway is leveraged could have important consequences to the holders of the Units, including: that Calloway's ability to obtain additional financing for working capital, capital expenditures or acquisitions in the future may be limited; that a significant portion of Calloway's cash flow from operations may be dedicated to the payment of the principal of and interest on its indebtedness, thereby reducing funds available for future operations and distributions; that certain of Calloway's borrowings may be at variable rates of interest, which exposes it to the risk of increased interest rates; and that Calloway may be vulnerable to economic downturns including Calloway's ability to retain and attract tenants. Also, there can be no assurance that Calloway will continue to generate sufficient cash flow from operations to meet required interest and principal payments. Further, Calloway is subject to the risk that any of its existing indebtedness may not be able to be refinanced upon maturity or that the terms of such financing may not be as favourable as the terms of its existing indebtedness. These factors may adversely affect Calloway's cash distributions.

Calloway's various credit facilities provide first charge security interests on most of the properties in its portfolio of income producing properties, to the various lenders. These credit facilities contain numerous terms and covenants that limit the discretion of management with respect to certain business matters. These covenants place restrictions on, among other things, the ability of Calloway to create liens or other encumbrances, to pay distributions on its Units or make certain other payments, investments, loans and guarantees and to sell or otherwise dispose of assets and merge or consolidate with another entity. In addition, the credit facilities contain a number of financial covenants that require Calloway to meet certain financial ratios and financial condition tests. For example, certain of Calloway's loans require specific loan to value and debt service coverage ratios which must be maintained by Calloway. A failure to comply with the obligations in the credit facilities could result in a default which, if not cured or waived, could result in a reduction or termination of distributions by Calloway and permit acceleration of the relevant indebtedness. If the indebtedness under the credit facilities were to be accelerated, there can be no assurance that the assets of Calloway would be sufficient to repay in full that indebtedness.

Department of Finance Review

On September 8, 2005 the Department of Finance released a consultation paper and requested submissions from stakeholders in business income trusts and other flow through entities by December 31, 2005. Further initiatives in this area, if any, will be taken by the Department of Finance following the completion of such consultations. On September 19, 2005, the Minister of Finance, again citing concerns about the increased use of flow-through entities, announced that he had asked the Minister of National Revenue, and the Minister of National Revenue had agreed, to postpone providing advance tax rulings respecting flow-through entity structures during the consultation process, and that the Department of Finance was closely monitoring developments in the flow-through entity market with a view to proposing measures in response to the consultations. On November 23, 2005 the Minister of Finance announced a reduction in the personal income tax rate on dividends, through increased dividend gross-up and tax credits and announced an end to the consultation process. The reduced tax on dividends is intended to make the total tax paid on dividends received from large Canadian corporations more comparable to the tax paid on distributions from income funds. This change will be effective starting in 2006. There was no announcement of any tax to be levied on income funds. Notwithstanding the foregoing, changes in this area are still possible. Such changes could result in the income tax considerations described under the heading "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations" being materially different in certain respects. There can be no assurance that the treatment of mutual fund trusts and other flow through entities will not be changed in a manner which adversely affects Calloway and Unitholders.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The registrar and transfer agent for the Units is Computershare Trust Company of Canada at its principal offices in Toronto, Ontario and Calgary, Alberta.

LEGAL MATTERS

Legal matters in connection with the issuance of the Units offered by this prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, will be passed upon at the date of closing on behalf of Calloway by Shea Nerland Calnan and on behalf of the Underwriters by McCarthy Tétrault LLP.

As of the date hereof, the partners and associates of Shea Nerland Calnan, as a group, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, as a group, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of the outstanding Units of Calloway. David M. Calnan, a partner of Shea Nerland Calnan, is a member of the board of trustees of Calloway.

Securities legislation in several of the provinces of Canada provides purchasers with the right to withdraw from an agreement to purchase securities. This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment thereto. In several of the provinces, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment thereto contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

6. Read the notes to the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income and found them to be consistent with the basis described to us for the determination of the pro forma adjustments.

A pro forma financial statement is based on management assumptions and adjustments which are inherently subjective. The foregoing procedures are substantially less than either an audit or a review, the objective of which is the expression of assurance with respect to management's assumptions, the pro forma adjustments, and the application of the adjustments to the historical financial information. Accordingly, we express no such assurance.

The foregoing procedures would not necessarily reveal matters of significance to the unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income, and we therefore make no representation about the sufficiency of the procedures for the purposes of a reader of such statements.

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway") is an unincorporated open-end mutual fund trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta, created under a declaration of trust dated December 4, 2001 subsequently amended and restated on October 24, 2002, October 31, 2003, January 16, 2004 and July 7, 2005.

These unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income ("pro forma statements") have been prepared by Calloway management for inclusion in the Prospectus Supplement to a Base Shelf Short Form Prospectus (the "Supplement") of Calloway dated November 28, 2005 relating to sale and issue of units of the trust.

During 2004 and 2005, Calloway completed the following significant acquisitions:

- On February 16, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres") from the Wal-Mart-FirstPro Realty Partnership (the "Partnership").

- On July 8, 2005, the acquisition of substantially all of the freehold and leasehold interests in 45 properties (the "Centres V") from Wal-Mart, FirstPro and other vendors.

The Centres, The Centres II, Phase I Centres, Phase II Centres and the Centres V are collectively referred to as the "Collective Centres".

These pro forma statements have been prepared from the following financial statements:

- Calloway's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2005.
- Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004.
- Centres V Phase I ("Centres V-I"), Centres V Phase II ("Centres V-II") and Centres V Phase III ("Centres V-III") unaudited schedules of combined net operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005 which were prepared by Calloway management and are not included or incorporated by reference in the Supplement.
- Centres V-I, Centres V-II and Centres V-III audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.
- Phase II Centres audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.

The Centres V-I, Centres V-II and Centres V-III net operations for the six months ended June 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 have been combined on Schedule 1 attached to these pro forma statements and presented in the pro forma consolidated statements of income on a combined basis.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 give effect to the acquisitions of the Collective Centres as if they had occurred on January 1, 2004. Calloway's September 30, 2005 consolidated financial statements contain the actual operations of the Phase II Centres and the Centres V from the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2005 to September 30, 2005. The pro forma consolidated statement of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 contains adjustments outlined in Note 3 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for the Phase II Centres and the Centres V for the period from January 1, 2005 to the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2005. Calloway acquired the Centres V effective July 1, 2005. The combined schedule of net operations for the Centres V for the six months ended June 30, 2005 is presented in Schedule 1 to these pro forma statements. Calloway's December 31, 2004 consolidated financial statements contain the actual operations of The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres from various dates of acquisition by Calloway in 2004 to December 31, 2004. The pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2004 contains adjustments outlined in Note 3 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres for the period from January 1, 2004 to the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2004.

New Issue

8,500,000 Units

This offering (the "Offering") consists of 8,500,000 units ("Units") in Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway" or the "Trust") at a price of $26.60 per Unit (the "Offering Price") pursuant to an underwriting agreement dated April 4, 2006 (the "Underwriting Agreement") between Calloway and CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., National Bank Financial Inc., Desjardins Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., Canaccord Capital Corporation and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (collectively, the "Underwriters"). The Offering Price was determined by negotiation between Calloway and the Underwriters. The Units are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") under the trading symbol "CWT.UN". Calloway has obtained conditional approval to list the additional Units to be distributed under this prospectus supplement, together with the short form base shelf prospectus of Calloway dated September 14, 2005 (the "Short Form Prospectus"), on the TSX. Listing is subject to Calloway fulfilling the requirements of the TSX as set out in their conditional approval. The closing price of the Units on the TSX on March 30, 2006, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the Offering, was $27.05. Calloway is an unincorporated "open-end" trust constituted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta, pursuant to a declaration of trust that was most recently amended and restated as of July 7, 2005 (the "Declaration of Trust"). Calloway was created to invest in income-producing rental properties located in Canada.

Price: $26.60 per Unit

	Price to Public	Underwriters' Fee	Net Proceeds to the Trust ⁽¹⁾
Per Unit	$26.60	$1.064	$25.536
Total ⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾	$226,100,000	$9,044,000	$217,056,000

Notes:

- (1) Before deducting expenses of the Offering, estimated to be $375,000 that, together with the Underwriters' fee, will be paid from the proceeds of the Offering.
- (2) Calloway has granted the Underwriters an option (the "Underwriters' Option"), exercisable until 48 hours prior to the closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 900,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Underwriters' Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. See "Plan of Distribution".
- (3) Calloway has also granted the Underwriters an option (the "Over-Allotment Option"), exercisable for a period of 30 days from the date of closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 940,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above, to cover over-allotments, if any, and for market stabilization purposes. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Over-Allotment Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. See "Plan of Distribution".

- (4) If the Underwriters exercise both the Underwriters' Option and the Over-Allotment Option in full, the total price to the public relating to the Offering, the Underwriters' fee and the net proceeds to Calloway before deducting the expenses of the Offering will be $275,044,000, $11,001,760 and $264,042,240, respectively.

A return on an investment in Units of Calloway is not comparable to the return on an investment in a fixed-income security. The recovery of an investment in Units is at risk, and any anticipated return on an investment in Units is based on many performance assumptions. Although Calloway intends to make distributions of a significant percentage of its available cash to its Unitholders, these cash distributions are not assured and may be reduced or suspended. The ability of Calloway to make cash distributions and the actual amount distributed will be dependant upon, among other things, the financial performance of the properties in its property portfolio, its debt covenants and obligations, its working capital requirements and its future capital requirements. In addition, the market value of the Units may decline for a variety of reasons including if Calloway is unable to meet its cash distribution targets in the future, and that decline may be significant.

It is important for a person making an investment in Units of Calloway to consider the particular risk factors that may affect both Calloway and the real estate industry in which Calloway operates and which may therefore affect the stability of the cash distributions on the Units of Calloway. See the section entitled "Risk Factors" which describes Calloway's assessment of those risk factors as well as the potential consequences to a Unitholder if a risk should occur. Calloway has obtained a DBRS stability rating of STA-3 (high). This rating category reflects good stability and sustainability of distributions per unit.

The after-tax return from an investment in Units to Unitholders that is subject to Canadian income tax can be made up of both a "return on" and a "return of" capital. That composition may change over time, thus affecting a Unitholder's after-tax return. Returns on capital are generally taxed as ordinary income, capital gains or as dividends in the hands of a Unitholder. Returns of capital are generally tax-deferred (and reduce the Unitholder's cost base in the unit for tax purposes). See "Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations".

The Trust is not a trust company and is not registered under applicable legislation governing trust companies as it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company. The Trust qualifies as a mutual fund trust for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act") and offers and sells its Units to the public. Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of the Act or any other legislation. The Units offered hereby will be eligible for investment under certain statutes as set out under "Eligibility for Investment".

In connection with this Offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize or maintain the market price of the Units at levels other than those which otherwise might prevail on the open market. Further, the Underwriters may offer the Units to the public at a price lower than the Offering Price of $26.60 per Unit. See "Plan of Distribution".

In connection with this Offering, the Trust may be considered a "connected issuer" of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. under applicable laws. Each of CIBC World Markets Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of a Canadian chartered bank (the "Affiliated Banks"), which Affiliated Banks are lenders to the Trust. It is anticipated that up to approximately $11,500,000 of the net proceeds from the Offering will be used by Calloway to pay down its line of credit with the affiliated bank of TD Securities Inc. Calloway is in compliance with all material terms and conditions of the Facilities. See "Relationship Between Calloway and Certain of the Underwriters".

The Underwriters, as principal, conditionally offer the Units, subject to prior sale, if, as and when issued, sold and delivered by the Trust and accepted by the Underwriters in accordance with the conditions contained in the Underwriting Agreement referred to under "Plan of Distribution" and subject to the approval of certain legal matters on behalf of the Trust by Shea Nerland Calnan and on behalf of the Underwriters by McCarthy Tétrault LLP. Subscriptions will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part and the Underwriters reserve the right to close the subscription books at any time without notice. It is expected that definitive certificates evidencing the Units will be available for delivery at closing which is expected to occur on or about April 13, 2006, or such later date as the Trust and the Underwriters may agree, but in any event no later than April 20, 2006.

Trust and Loan Companies Act (Canada)	The Trustee Act (Ontario)

STABILITY RATING

Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited (“DBRS”) provides stability ratings for real estate investment trusts (“REITs”) and income trusts. A stability rating generally provides an indication of both the stability and sustainability of REITs’ and income trusts’ distributions to unitholders. DBRS’s rating categories range from highest stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-1) to poor stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-7). DBRS has provided Calloway with stability rating of STA-3 (high). This rating category reflects good stability and sustainability of distributions per unit.

There can be no assurance that any rating will remain in effect for any given period of time or that any rating will not be withdrawn or revised by a rating agency at any time.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, Calloway has agreed to sell and the Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase on April 13, 2006, or on such later date as may be agreed upon, but in any event not later than April 20, 2006, an aggregate of 8,500,000 Units at a purchase price of $26.60 per Unit, for an aggregate gross consideration of $226,100,000, payable in cash to Calloway by the Underwriters against delivery of the Units on the closing of the Offering. The Underwriters will receive an aggregate fee of $9,044,000 (or 4% of the gross proceeds of the Offering). See “Use of Proceeds”. Calloway has granted the Underwriters an option (the “Underwriters’ Option”), exercisable until 48 hours prior to the closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 900,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Underwriters’ Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. Calloway has also granted the Underwriters an option (the “Over-Allotment Option”), exercisable for a period of 30 days from the date of closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 940,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above, to cover over-allotments, if any, and for market stabilization purposes. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Over-Allotment Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. If the Underwriters exercise both the Underwriters' Option and the Over-Allotment Option in full, the total price to the public relating to the Offering, the Underwriters' fee and the net proceeds to Calloway before deducting the expenses of the Offering will be $275,044,000, $11,001,760 and $264,042,240, respectively.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement are several and may be terminated at their discretion on the basis of their assessment of the state of the financial markets and may also be terminated upon the occurrence of certain stated events. If one or more of the Underwriters fails to purchase their allotment of the Units, the remaining Underwriter or Underwriters may, but are not obligated to, purchase the Units not purchased by the Underwriter or Underwriters who failed to purchase. The Underwriters are, however, obligated to take up and pay for all of the Units if any of the Units are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement. Calloway has agreed to indemnify the Underwriters and their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain liabilities, including civil liabilities under Canadian provincial securities legislation, or to contribute to any payments the Underwriters may be required to make in respect thereof.

This Offering is being made in each of the Provinces of Canada, except Quebec. The Units offered hereunder have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "U.S. Securities Act") or any state securities laws, and accordingly may not be offered or sold within the United States except in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. In connection with the Offering, a portion of the Units may be sold in the United States to "qualified institutional buyers" (as defined in Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act) pursuant to Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act. Institutional "accredited investors" (as defined in Regulation D under the U.S. Securities Act) designated by the Underwriters may also purchase Units directly from the Trust in transactions exempt from registration under Rule 506 of Regulation D. Any offers or sales of Units in the United States will be made by U.S. affiliates of the Underwriters.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of this Offering, any offer or sale of Units offered hereby within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in this Offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A or another exemption under the U.S. Securities Act.

Pursuant to policy statements of the Ontario Securities Commission, the Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution, bid for or purchase Units. The foregoing restriction is subject to exceptions, on the condition that the bid or purchase is not engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in, or raising the price of, Units. These exceptions include a bid or purchase permitted under the bylaws and rules of the TSX relating to market stabilization and passive market-making activities and a bid or purchase made for and on behalf of a customer where the order was not solicited during the period of distribution. Under the first-mentioned exception, in connection with the Offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Units at levels other than those which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Those transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

The Underwriters propose to offer the Units to the public at the Offering Price of $26.60 per Unit. After the Underwriters have made a reasonable effort to sell all of Units at that price, the Offering Price to the public may be decreased and may be further changed from time to time to an amount not greater than $26.60, and the compensation realized by the Underwriters will be decreased by the amount that the aggregate price paid by the purchasers for the Units is less than the price paid by the Underwriters to Calloway.

The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Units to be distributed under this prospectus supplement. Listing will be subject to the Fund fulfilling all of the requirements of the TSX on or before June 29, 2006.

Calloway has agreed with the Underwriters not to, directly or indirectly, sell, issue, offer to sell or otherwise dispose of any of its securities or securities of Calloway (or announce publicly its intention to do so) for a period of 90 days following the date of closing of the Offering, without the prior consent of the Underwriters, other than in connection with specific types of transactions.

As at December 31, 2005, the year end of its most recently completed financial year, Calloway had 56,550,095 Units and 12,925,125 Exchangeable Securities (as defined below) outstanding for a total of 69,475,220 Units and Exchangeable Securities in aggregate. "Exchangeable Securities" means any securities of any trust, limited partnership or corporation other than the Trust that are convertible or exchangeable directly for Units without the payment of additional consideration therefore.

Since December 31, 2005, there have no material changes in the capitalization of Calloway other than the issuance of:

- (a) 548,409 Units and 95,110 Exchangeable Securities issued as partial consideration for properties developed pursuant to certain of the development agreements and exchange agreements that Calloway has entered into;
- (b) 5,000 Units issued upon the exercise of options granted pursuant to the incentive stock option plan of Calloway;
- (c) 89,508 Units issued pursuant to the distribution reinvestment plan of Calloway; and
- (d) 261,404 Units issued upon the exercise of the outstanding convertible debentures of Calloway;

As such, as at March 31, 2006, Calloway had 57,454,416 Units and 13,020,235 Exchangeable Securities outstanding for a total of 70,474,651 Units and Exchangeable Securities in aggregate. Up to an additional 10,340,000 Units may be issued pursuant to the Offering.

As at December 31, 2005, the indebtedness of Calloway, consisting of mortgages payable, development loans, unsecured debentures, convertible debentures and revolving operating facilities was approximately $1,451,435,000. There has been no material change in that indebtedness since December 31, 2005.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CALLOWAY AND CERTAIN OF THE UNDERWRITERS

In connection with this Offering, Calloway may be considered a "connected issuer" to CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. under applicable securities laws. The Canadian chartered bank affiliates of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (the "Affiliated Banks") are lenders under credit facilities or mortgage loans (the "Facilities") provided to Calloway, and the Facilities are secured by, among other things, first priority charges over specific properties of Calloway, general security interests over the secured properties and a general assignment of rents over the secured properties. As at December 31, 2005, a total of approximately $89,797,792 was outstanding under the Facilities including $5,000,000 under Calloway's line of credit with the affiliated bank of TD Securities Inc. Between December 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006, Calloway received additional net advances of $6,500,000 on this line of credit. It is anticipated that up to approximately $11,500,000 of the net proceeds from the Offering will be used by Calloway to pay down that line of credit with the affiliated bank of TD Securities Inc. Calloway is in compliance with all material terms and conditions of the Facilities.

The terms, structuring and pricing of the Offering were determined solely by negotiation between Calloway and the Underwriters. The Affiliated Banks did not play any role in those determinations or decisions. Other than as set out above, none of the proceeds of the Offering, except for that portion of the proceeds payable to the Underwriters for their fees and expenses, is expected to be applied for the benefit of CIBC World Markets Inc, RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. and/or their respective Affiliated Banks.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The estimated net proceeds to Calloway from this Offering, after deducting the Underwriters' fee of $9,044,000 and the estimated expenses of this Offering of $375,000, will be approximately $216,681,000. If the Underwriters exercise both the Underwriters' Option and the Over-Allotment Option in full, the estimated net proceeds to Calloway from this Offering, after deducting the Underwriters' fee of $11,001,760 and the estimated expenses of this Offering of $375,000, will be approximately $263,667,240.

The net proceeds from the Offering will be used by Calloway to pay down its line of credit, to finance future acquisitions and for general trust purposes. See "Relationship Between Calloway and Certain of the Underwriters."

In the opinion of Shea Nerland Calnan, counsel to Calloway, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, (together, "Tax Counsel"), the following summary describes, as of the date of this prospectus, the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations pursuant to the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder generally applicable to a prospective purchaser of Units pursuant to this prospectus who, for purposes of the Tax Act, is resident in Canada, holds the Units as capital property and deals at arm's length with Calloway and is not affiliated with Calloway. Generally, Units will be considered to be capital property to a holder provided that the holder does not hold the Units in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure in the nature of trade. Certain holders who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Units as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act.

This summary is not applicable to a holder that is a "financial institution" for the purposes of the "mark-to-market" rules, to a holder an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" or to a holder that is a "specified financial institution", all as defined in the Tax Act. Such holders should consult their own tax advisors.

This summary is based upon the facts set out in this prospectus, the provisions of the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder in force at the date of this prospectus, Tax Counsel's understanding of the current published administrative and assessing practices and policies of the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA"), all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance prior to the date of this prospectus (the "Tax Proposals") and certificates of Calloway and the Underwriters as to certain factual matters. There can be no assurance that the Tax Proposals will be implemented in their current form or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law or action, and does not take into account provincial, territorial or foreign tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed herein.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal tax considerations applicable to an investment in Units. Moreover, the income and other tax consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of Units will vary depending on the holder's particular circumstances, including the province or provinces in which the holder resides or carries on business. Accordingly, this summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice to any prospective purchaser of Units. Investors should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in Units based on their particular circumstances. No advance income tax ruling has been sought or obtained from the CRA to confirm the tax consequences of any of the transactions herein described. Prospective holders who propose to finance the acquisition of Units should consult their own advisors as to the application of the Draft Proposals to amend the Tax Act released October 31, 2003 relating to the deductibility of interest and other expenses.

This summary does not address any Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to non-residents of Canada, and non-residents should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of acquiring and holding securities. All distributions on the Units to non-residents, whether in cash or Units, will be net of any applicable withholding taxes.

Status of Trust

Calloway has advised counsel that Calloway is, and expects that it will continue to be on and after the closing of the Offering a unit trust and a mutual fund trust as defined in the Tax Act and has provided a factual certificate to support such advice. This summary therefore assumes that Calloway does and will continue to so qualify. If Calloway were not to qualify as a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the income tax consequences described below would in some respects be materially different.

Taxation of the Trust

Based in part on a certificate provided by Calloway as to the residence of its Trustees, Calloway will be treated as a resident of Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act. In general, Calloway is treated as an individual for tax purposes and is taxable on its income determined under the Tax Act from sources inside or outside Canada. Calloway is subject to tax in each taxation year (which will be the calendar year) on its taxable income for the year. The income of Calloway for the purposes of the Tax Act will include rents in respect of the properties included in its portfolio, and any taxable capital gain or recapture of capital cost allowance arising on the disposition of property owned by Calloway.

Calloway will generally be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of its net income and net realized capital gains in each taxation year except to the extent such net income and net realized capital gains are paid or payable or are deemed to be paid or payable in such year to Unitholders.

In computing its income, Calloway will generally be entitled to deduct its expenses incurred to earn such income, provided such expenses are reasonable and otherwise deductible. Calloway may deduct in computing its income for a year a portion of the reasonable expenses of the issue of Units paid by Calloway in accordance with the applicable rules in the Tax Act.

The Declaration of Trust provides that an amount (which may include net recapture income and net realized capital gains) will be payable to Unitholders such that Calloway will not be liable to pay tax under Part I of the Tax Act for such year. The Declaration of Trust provides that Calloway will deduct, for tax purposes, such amount of its net income and net realized capital gains as is paid or payable to Unitholders for the year and as is necessary to ensure that Calloway will not be subject to tax on its net income and net taxable capital gains under Part I of the Tax Act.

Calloway will be entitled for each taxation year to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized taxable capital gains by an amount determined under the Tax Act based on the redemption of Units during the year (the "capital gains refund"). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset Calloway's tax liability for that taxation year arising in connection with the distribution of its property on the redemption of Units. The Declaration of Trust provides that all or a portion of any income or taxable capital gain realized by Calloway as a result of that redemption may, at the discretion of the Trustees, be treated as income or taxable capital gain paid to, and designated as income or taxable capital gain of, the redeeming Unitholders, and will be deductible by Calloway in computing its income.

Losses incurred by Calloway cannot be allocated to Unitholders but may be deducted by Calloway in accordance with the Tax Act.

Taxation of Unitholders

A Unitholder is generally required to include in computing income for tax purposes in each year the portion of the income of Calloway for the year, including the taxable portion of net realized capital gains, determined for the purposes of the Tax Act, that is paid or payable, or deemed paid or payable, to such holder in the year and that Calloway deducts in computing its income.

The Declaration of Trust provides that net income and net taxable gains for the purposes of the Tax Act will be allocated to Unitholders in the same proportion as distributions received by Unitholders, subject to the discretion of the Trustees to adopt an allocation method which the Trustees consider to be more reasonable in the circumstances. The Declaration of Trust provides that Calloway will designate to the extent permitted by the Tax Act the portion of the taxable income distributed to Unitholders as may reasonably be considered to consist of net taxable capital gains of Calloway. Any such designated amount will be deemed for tax purposes to be received by Unitholders in the year as a taxable capital gain.

On the disposition or deemed disposition of a Unit, whether on a redemption or otherwise, the Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the Unitholder's proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Unit and any reasonable costs of disposition. Proceeds of disposition will not include an amount payable by the Trust that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder's income, including any capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with a redemption of Units which has been designated by the Trust to the redeeming Unitholder. The taxation of capital gains and capital losses are described below.

The adjusted cost base of a Unit to a Unitholder will include all amounts paid or payable by the Unitholder for the Unit, with certain adjustments. The Declaration of Trust generally requires Calloway to claim the maximum amount of capital cost allowance available to it in computing its income for tax purposes. Based on Calloway's distribution policy, the amount distributed to Unitholders in a year may exceed the net income and net realized taxable capital gains of Calloway for that year. Such excess distributions will not be included in computing the income of Unitholders for tax purposes. However, a Unitholder is required to reduce the adjusted cost base of the Unitholder's Units by the amount paid or payable to the Unitholder by Calloway (other than the non-taxable portion of capital gains designated by Calloway) that was not included in computing the Unitholder's income and will realize a capital gain in the year to the extent the adjusted cost base of the Units would otherwise be a negative amount. The cost to a Unitholder of additional Units received in lieu of a cash distribution of income will be the amount of income distributed by the issue of those Units. For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of Units, the cost of the newly acquired Unit will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Units owned by the Unitholder as capital property immediately before the acquisition in accordance with the detailed provisions of the Tax Act.

One-half of any capital gain realized by a Unitholder and the amount of any net taxable capital gains designated by Calloway in respect of a Unitholder will generally be included in the Unitholder's income as a taxable capital gain and one-half of any capital loss realized by a Unitholder may generally be deducted only from taxable capital gains in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act.

Trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans and deferred profit sharing plans will generally not be liable for tax in respect of any distributions received from Calloway or any capital gains arising on the disposition of the Units.

Budget Proposals

The Minister of Finance announced proposed amendments to the Tax Act in the March 23, 2004 Budget (the "2004 Budget Proposals") that will affect the income tax consequences of investing in a trust that constitutes a "business income trust" and property that constitutes "restricted investment property" (as those terms are defined for the purposes of the Budget Proposals). The 2004 Budget Proposals were originally scheduled to apply commencing after 2004. On May 18, 2004, the Minister of Finance announced that the application of the 2004 Budget Proposals was suspended to allow further consultation with representatives of the pension industry, the investment industry, provincial governments and other interested parties. This position was reiterated by the Minister of Finance in the press release that accompanied the release of the draft amendments for the 2004 Budget Proposals dated September 16, 2004 and further reiterated in the announcement of proposed amendments to the Tax Act in the February 23, 2005 Budget. On September 8, 2005 the Minister of Finance announced the commencement of the consultation process, with submissions being received until December 31, 2005. On November 23, 2005 the Minister of Finance announced a reduction in the personal income tax rate on dividends, through increased dividend gross-up and tax credits and announced an end to the consultation process. The reduced tax on dividends is intended to make the total tax paid on dividends received from large Canadian corporations more comparable to the tax paid on distributions from income funds. It is expected that this change will be effective starting in 2006 but no draft legislation has yet been released and there has been an intervening change of government. There have been no further announcements of any tax to be levied on income funds.

Alternative Minimum Tax

In general terms, net income of the Trust paid or payable to a Unitholder who is an individual or a trust that is designated as net realized capital gains and capital gains realized on the disposition of Units may increase the holder's liability for alternative minimum tax.

RISK FACTORS

There are risks associated with the Units being distributed under the offering. Reference is made to the risks described in Calloway's annual information form dated March 10, 2006 and in Calloway's management's discussion and analysis of its results for the year ended December 31, 2005 which are incorporated herein by reference.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The registrar and transfer agent for the Units is Computershare Trust Company of Canada at its principal offices in Toronto, Ontario and Calgary, Alberta.

INTEREST OF EXPERTS

Certain legal matters in connection with the issuance of the Units offered by this prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, will be passed upon at the date of closing on behalf of Calloway by Shea Nerland Calnan and on behalf of the Underwriters by McCarthy Tétrault LLP. Further, each of Shea Nerland Calnan and McCarthy Tétrault LLP are named as having provided certain legal opinions included in this prospectus supplement. As of the date hereof, the partners and associates of Shea Nerland Calnan, as a group, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, as a group, beneficially own, directly or indirectly, less than 1% of the outstanding Units of Calloway. David M. Calnan, a partner of Shea Nerland Calnan, is a member of the board of trustees of Calloway.

PURCHASERS' STATUTORY RIGHTS

This right may be exercised within two business days after receipt or deemed receipt of a prospectus and any amendment thereto. In several of the provinces, the securities legislation further provides a purchaser with remedies for rescission or, in some jurisdictions, damages if the prospectus and any amendment thereto contains a misrepresentation or is not delivered to the purchaser, provided that the remedies for rescission or damages are exercised by the purchaser within the time limit prescribed by the securities legislation of the purchaser's province. The purchaser should refer to any applicable provisions of the securities legislation of the purchaser's province for the particulars of these rights or consult with a legal advisor.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT
To a Short Form Base Shelf Prospectus Dated September 14, 2005

This prospectus supplement together with the short form base shelf prospectus to which it relates dated September 14, 2005, as amended or supplemented, and each document deemed to be incorporated by reference in the short form base shelf prospectus constitutes a public offering of these securities only in those jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale and therein only by persons permitted to sell such securities.

No securities regulatory authority has expressed an opinion about these securities and it is an offence to claim otherwise. The securities offered hereby have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended and, subject to certain exceptions, may not be offered or sold in the United States or to U.S. persons.

New Issue

October 10, 2006

$250,000,000
5.37% Series B Debentures Due October 12, 2016
(Senior Unsecured)

Interest on the 5.37% Series B Debentures (the “Debentures”) of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust (“Calloway”) will be payable semi-annually in arrears on October 12 and April 12 in each year commencing April 12, 2007. The Debentures will mature on October 12, 2016. Please see “Details of the Offering” for particulars of the material attributes of the Debentures.

At the time of closing, the Debentures will qualify for investment under the statutes set out under “Eligibility for Investment”.

There is no market through which the Debentures may be sold and purchasers may not be able to resell Debentures purchased under this prospectus supplement. This may affect the pricing of the Debentures in the secondary market, the transparency and availability of trading prices, the liquidity of the Debentures and the extent of issuer regulation. See “Risk Factors”.

	Price to Calloway ⁽¹⁾	Underwriters’ Fee	Net Proceeds to Calloway ⁽²⁾⁽³⁾
Per $100 principal amount of Debenture	$99.9066	$0.70	$99.2066
Total.....	$249,766,500	$1,750,000	$248,016,500

(1) The Debentures have been priced to yield 5.382% if held to maturity.

(2) Plus accrued interest, if any, from October 12, 2006 to the date of delivery.

(3) Before deducting the expenses of the offering, not including the Underwriters’ Fee, estimated to be approximately $400,000.

RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc. and TD Securities Inc. (the “Underwriters”) have agreed to purchase the Debentures from Calloway at 99.9066% of their principal amount, plus accrued interest (if any) from October 12, 2006 to the date of delivery, subject to the terms and conditions of the Underwriting Agreement described under “Plan of Distribution”.

The Underwriters are subsidiaries of separate Canadian chartered banks which are lenders to Calloway. Consequently, Calloway may be considered to be a “connected issuer” of the Underwriters under applicable Canadian securities legislation. See “Relationship Between Calloway and the Underwriters”.

The Debentures will be offered to the public at prices to be negotiated between each purchaser and the Underwriters. Accordingly, the price at which the Debentures will be offered and sold to the public may vary as between purchasers and during the period of distribution of the Debentures.

The Underwriters, as principals, conditionally offer the Debentures, subject to prior sale, if, as and when issued by Calloway and accepted by the Underwriters in accordance with the conditions of the Underwriting Agreement referred to under "Plan of Distribution" and subject to the approval of certain legal matters on behalf of Calloway by Shea Nerland Calnan LLP and on behalf of the Underwriters by McCarthy Tétrault LLP.

Calloway has been advised by the Underwriters that, in connection with this offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Debentures at levels other than those which otherwise might prevail on the open market. Such transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time. See "Plan of Distribution".

Subscriptions for the Debentures will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part and the right is reserved to close the subscription books at any time without notice. It is expected that the closing of this offering will take place on October 12, 2006 or on such other date as Calloway and the Underwriters may agree but, in any event, not later than October 19, 2006 and that Debentures will be available for delivery in book-entry form only through the facilities of The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited on or about closing.

PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT
To a Short Form Base Shelf Prospectus Dated September 14, 2005

RECEIVED
 2006 DEC 21 10:12 AM
 100-111111-1111

This prospectus supplement together with the short form base shelf prospectus to which it relates dated September 14, 2005, as amended or supplemented, and each document deemed to be incorporated by reference in the short form base shelf prospectus constitutes a public offering of these securities only in those jurisdictions where they may be lawfully offered for sale and therein only by persons permitted to sell such securities.

No securities regulatory authority has expressed an opinion about these securities and it is an offence to claim otherwise. The securities offered hereby have not been, and will not be, registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended, ("U.S. Securities Act") or any state securities laws and, unless registered under the U.S. Securities Act or pursuant to an applicable exemption from registration under the U.S. Securities Act, may not be offered, sold, reoffered, resold or delivered, directly or indirectly, in the United States or to U.S. Persons (as defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act). This prospectus does not constitute an offer to sell or solicitation of an offer to buy any of the securities offered hereby within the United States. See "Plan of Distribution."

New Issue

7,680,000 Units

This offering (the "Offering") consists of 7,680,000 units ("Units") in Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway" or the "Trust") at a price of $29.30 per Unit (the "Offering Price") pursuant to an underwriting agreement dated November 21, 2006 (the "Underwriting Agreement") between Calloway and CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., National Bank Financial Inc., TD Securities Inc., Desjardins Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch Canada Inc., Canaccord Capital Corporation, Dundee Securities Corporation and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (collectively, the "Underwriters"). The Offering Price was determined by negotiation between Calloway and the Underwriters. The Units are listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") under the trading symbol "CWT.UN". Calloway has obtained conditional approval to list the additional Units to be distributed under this prospectus supplement, together with the short form base shelf prospectus of Calloway dated September 14, 2005 (the "Short Form Prospectus"), on the TSX. Listing is subject to Calloway fulfilling the requirements of the TSX as set out in their conditional approval. The closing price of the Units on the TSX on November 16, 2006, the last trading day prior to the announcement of the Offering, was $29.83. Calloway is an unincorporated "open-end" trust constituted in accordance with the laws of the Province of Alberta, pursuant to a declaration of trust that was most recently amended and restated as of May 16, 2006 (the "Declaration of Trust"). Calloway was created to invest in income-producing rental properties located in Canada.

Price: $29.30 per Unit

	Price to Public	Underwriters' Fee	Net Proceeds to the Trust ⁽¹⁾
Per Unit	$29.30	$1.172	$28.128
Total ⁽²⁾⁽³⁾⁽⁴⁾	$225,024,000	$9,000,960	$216,023,040

Notes:

- (1) Before deducting expenses of the Offering, estimated to be $375,000 that, together with the Underwriters' fee, will be paid from the proceeds of the Offering.
- (2) Calloway has granted the Underwriters an option (the "Underwriters' Option"), exercisable until 48 hours prior to the closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 1,200,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Underwriters' Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. See "Plan of Distribution".
- (3) Calloway has also granted the Underwriters an option (the "Over-Allotment Option"), exercisable for a period of 30 days from the date of closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 1,332,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above, to cover over-allotments, if any, and for market stabilization purposes. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Over-Allotment Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. See "Plan of Distribution".
- (4) If the Underwriters exercise both the Underwriters' Option and the Over-Allotment Option in full, the total price to the public relating to the Offering, the Underwriters' fee and the net proceeds to Calloway before deducting the expenses of the Offering will be $299,211,600, $11,968,464 and $287,243,136, respectively.

A return on an investment in Units of Calloway is not comparable to the return on an investment in a fixed-income security. The recovery of an investment in Units is at risk, and any anticipated return on an investment in Units is based on many performance assumptions. Although Calloway intends to make distributions of a significant percentage of its available cash to its Unitholders, these cash distributions are not assured and may be reduced or suspended. The ability of Calloway to make cash distributions and the actual amount distributed will be dependant upon, among other things, the financial performance of the properties in its property portfolio, its debt covenants and obligations, its working capital requirements and its future capital requirements. In addition, the market value of the Units may decline for a variety of reasons including if Calloway is unable to meet its cash distribution targets in the future, and that decline may be significant.

It is important for a person making an investment in Units of Calloway to consider the particular risk factors that may affect both Calloway and the real estate industry in which Calloway operates and which may therefore affect the stability of the cash distributions on the Units of Calloway. See the section entitled "Risk Factors" which describes Calloway's assessment of those risk factors as well as the potential consequences to a Unitholder if a risk should occur. Calloway has obtained a DBRS stability rating of STA-3 (high). This rating category reflects good stability and sustainability of distributions per unit.

The after-tax return from an investment in Units to Unitholders that is subject to Canadian income tax can be made up of both a "return on" and a "return of" capital. That composition may change over time, thus affecting a Unitholder's after-tax return. Returns on capital are generally taxed as ordinary income, capital gains or as dividends in the hands of a Unitholder. Returns of capital are generally tax-deferred (and reduce the Unitholder's cost base in the unit for tax purposes). See "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations".

The Trust is not a trust company and is not registered under applicable legislation governing trust companies as it does not carry on or intend to carry on the business of a trust company. The Trust qualifies as a mutual fund trust for the purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Tax Act") and offers and sells its Units to the public. Units are not "deposits" within the meaning of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (Canada) and are not insured under the provisions of the Act or any other legislation. The Units offered hereby will be eligible for investment under certain statutes as set out under "Eligibility for Investment".

In connection with this Offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions that stabilize or maintain the market price of the Units at levels other than those which otherwise might prevail on the open market. Further, the Underwriters may offer the Units to the public at a price lower than the Offering Price of $29.30 per Unit. See "Plan of Distribution".

In connection with this Offering, the Trust may be considered a "connected issuer" of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch Canada Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. under applicable laws. Merrill Lynch Canada Inc. and the Canadian chartered bank affiliates of each of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (the "Lenders") are lenders to the Trust. Calloway is in compliance with all material terms and conditions of its credit facilities and mortgage loans with the Lenders. See "Relationship Between Calloway and Certain of the Underwriters".

The Underwriters, as principal, conditionally offer the Units, subject to prior sale, if, as and when issued, sold and delivered by the Trust and accepted by the Underwriters in accordance with the conditions contained in the Underwriting Agreement referred to under "Plan of Distribution" and subject to the approval of certain legal matters on behalf of the Trust by Shea Nerland Calnan LLP and on behalf of the Underwriters by McCarthy Tétrault LLP. Subscriptions will be received subject to rejection or allotment in whole or in part and the Underwriters reserve the right to close the subscription books at any time without notice. It is expected that definitive certificates evidencing the Units will be available for delivery at closing which is expected to occur on or about November 30, 2006, or such later date as the Trust and the Underwriters may agree, but in any event no later than December 7, 2006.

RECENT DEVELOPMENTS

Calloway has entered into a conditional letter agreement with SmartCentres group of companies ("SmartCentres") whereby the parties set out terms under which Calloway will agree to acquire or lease interests in 16 properties from SmartCentres and various third party vendors. The letter agreement also contemplates that Calloway will internalize the management of the majority of its existing portfolio of shopping centres. The aggregate consideration contemplated in the letter agreement is approximately $442 million with additional amounts payable as the recently constructed properties and raw land are built out.

The 16 properties contemplated by the letter agreement comprise 9 operating shopping centres, containing over 1.6 million square feet of leased area and 0.6 million square feet of expansion potential, and 7 development properties with 1.8 million square feet of potential leaseable area.

Calloway anticipates that the initial purchase price will be comprised of approximately $382 million for the operating properties, $44 million for the undeveloped land and $14 million to internalize the property management on 112 Calloway properties. It is anticipated that the transaction will be financed in part by the assumption of debt in the amount of approximately $235 million and the issuance to the vendors of units of Calloway's subsidiary limited partnership in the amount of approximately $60 million, priced pursuant to a formula reflecting the current market price of Calloway's Units and convertible into Calloway Units on a one-for-one basis. The balance of the purchase price will be paid in cash from the surplus proceeds of Calloway's recently completed 5.37%, 10-year unsecured debt offering.

The 16 properties include over 2.4 million square feet in future development, which will be completed by SmartCentres under development agreements. Calloway estimates that it will invest an additional $555 million in these properties as new buildings are completed and leased. SmartCentres will have the option to provide up to $140 million in financing for these developments, by subscribing for Calloway Units or exchangeable limited partnership units at a price per unit, based on a 25-cent premium to the price of the units issued to SmartCentres as part of the purchase price. Under certain circumstances payments for the additional developments may be deferred and the price per unit adjusted. Interests in five properties, for initial consideration of $222 million, will be by way of prepaid 80-year leases, with an option to acquire the free-hold interest at the end of the term for approximately $250 million, adjusted for the impact of build outs completed subsequent to the acquisitions.

Calloway is currently negotiating the terms of the binding purchase and sale agreements in respect of the foregoing acquisition with SmartCentres and the various third party vendors. Calloway expects that these agreements will be executed and that these acquisitions will close in December 2006. There can be no guarantee that such acquisitions will close or that they will close on the foregoing terms.

Mr. Mitchell Goldhar, President and CEO of SmartCentres and a part owner, through SmartCentres, of interests in the 16 properties, owns approximately 9 million Units of Calloway and a further 10.85 million securities of a subsidiary limited partnership that are convertible into Calloway Units on a one-for-one basis. As such, Mr. Goldhar currently owns a 24.5% equity interest in Calloway. However, Mr. Goldhar maintains a 25% voting interest in Calloway. Following completion of the transaction, and assuming completion of this Offering, it is anticipated that Mr. Goldhar will own a 22.0% equity interest in Calloway but maintain a 25% voting interest in Calloway. SmartCentres has three representatives on the Calloway Board of Trustees. As a result of Mr. Goldhar's financial interest in this transaction, the SmartCentres representatives have and will continue to abstain from voting on this transaction at both the Board and Investment Committee levels.

Supplemental Pension Plans Act (Québec)

In the opinion of Shea Nerland Calnan LLP, counsel for Calloway, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, provided that Calloway qualifies as a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the Units would, if issued on the date hereof, be qualified investments for trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans and deferred profit sharing plans.

STABILITY RATING

Dominion Bond Rating Service Limited (“DBRS”) provides stability ratings for real estate investment trusts (“REITs”) and income trusts. A stability rating generally provides an indication of both the stability and sustainability of REITs’ and income trusts’ distributions to unitholders. DBRS’s rating categories range from highest stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-1) to poor stability and sustainability of distributions per unit (STA-7). DBRS has provided Calloway with stability rating of STA-3 (high). This rating category reflects good stability and sustainability of distributions per unit.

There can be no assurance that any rating will remain in effect for any given period of time or that any rating will not be withdrawn or revised by a rating agency at any time.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Pursuant to the Underwriting Agreement, Calloway has agreed to sell and the Underwriters have severally agreed to purchase on November 30, 2006, or on such later date as may be agreed upon, but in any event not later than December 7, 2006, an aggregate of 7,680,000 Units at a purchase price of $29.30 per Unit, for an aggregate gross consideration of $225,024,000, payable in cash to Calloway by the Underwriters against delivery of the Units on the closing of the Offering. The Underwriters will receive an aggregate fee of $9,000,960 (or 4% of the gross proceeds of the Offering). See “Use of Proceeds”. Calloway has granted the Underwriters an option (the “Underwriters’ Option”), exercisable until 48 hours prior to the closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 1,200,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Underwriters’ Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. Calloway has also granted the Underwriters an option (the “Over-Allotment Option”), exercisable for a period of 30 days from the date of closing of the Offering, to purchase up to 1,332,000 additional Units on the same terms set forth above, to cover over-allotments, if any, and for market stabilization purposes. This prospectus supplement, together with the Short Form Prospectus, also qualifies the granting of the Over-Allotment Option and the distribution of any Units issuable on the exercise of such option. If the Underwriters exercise both the Underwriters’ Option and the Over-Allotment Option in full, the total price to the public relating to the Offering, the Underwriters’ fee and the net proceeds to Calloway before deducting the expenses of the Offering will be $299,211,600, $11,968,464 and $287,243,136, respectively.

The offered Units shall be identical in terms to all other Units.

The obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreement are several and may be terminated at their discretion on the basis of their assessment of the state of the financial markets and may also be terminated upon the occurrence of certain stated events. If one or more of the Underwriters fails to purchase their allotment of the Units, the remaining Underwriter or Underwriters may, but are not obligated to, purchase the Units not purchased by the Underwriter or Underwriters who failed to purchase. The Underwriters are, however, obligated to take up and pay for all of the Units if any of the Units are purchased under the Underwriting Agreement. Calloway has agreed to indemnify the Underwriters and their respective shareholders, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain liabilities, including civil liabilities under Canadian provincial securities legislation, or to contribute to any payments the Underwriters may be required to make in respect thereof.

This Offering is being made in each of the Provinces of Canada. The Units offered hereunder have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “U.S. Securities Act”) or any state securities laws, and accordingly may not be offered or sold within the United States except in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. In connection with the Offering, a portion of the Units may be sold in the United States to “qualified institutional buyers” (as defined in Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act) pursuant to Rule 144A under the U.S. Securities Act. Institutional “accredited investors” (as defined in Regulation D under the U.S. Securities Act) designated by the Underwriters may also purchase Units directly from the Trust in transactions exempt from registration under Rule 506 of Regulation D. Any offers or sales of Units in the United States will be made by U.S. affiliates of the Underwriters.

In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of this Offering, any offer or sale of Units offered hereby within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in this Offering) may violate the registration requirements of the U.S. Securities Act, if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A or another exemption under the U.S. Securities Act.

Pursuant to policy statements of the Ontario Securities Commission and the Autorite des marches financiers, the Underwriters may not, throughout the period of distribution, bid for or purchase Units. The foregoing restriction is subject to exceptions, on the condition that the bid or purchase is not engaged in for the purpose of creating actual or apparent active trading in, or raising the price of, Units. These exceptions include a bid or purchase permitted under the bylaws and rules of the TSX relating to market stabilization and passive market-making activities and a bid or purchase made for and on behalf of a customer where the order was not solicited during the period of distribution. Under the first-mentioned exception, in connection with the Offering, the Underwriters may over-allot or effect transactions which stabilize or maintain the market price of the Units at levels other than those which might otherwise prevail in the open market. Those transactions, if commenced, may be discontinued at any time.

The Underwriters propose to offer the Units to the public at the Offering Price of $29.30 per Unit. After the Underwriters have made a reasonable effort to sell all of Units at that price, the Offering Price to the public may be decreased and may be further changed from time to time to an amount not greater than $29.30, and the compensation realized by the Underwriters will be decreased by the amount that the aggregate price paid by the purchasers for the Units is less than the price paid by the Underwriters to Calloway.

The TSX has conditionally approved the listing of the Units to be distributed under this prospectus supplement. Listing will be subject to the Fund fulfilling all of the requirements of the TSX on or before February 16, 2007.

Calloway has agreed with the Underwriters not to issue or sell Units, other equity securities or other securities convertible or exchangeable into equity securities (or agree to do so or publicly announce any intention to do so) for a period of 90 days following the date of closing of the Offering, without the prior consent of the Underwriters, other than in connection with specific types of transactions.

CONSOLIDATED CAPITALIZATION

As at September 30, 2006, the end of the most recently completed interim period of Calloway for which financial statements of Calloway have been filed in accordance with applicable Canadian securities legislation, Calloway had 67,112,864 trust units ("Units") and 14,002,541 Exchangeable Securities (as defined below) outstanding for a total of 81,115,405 Units and Exchangeable Securities in aggregate. "Exchangeable Securities" means any securities of any trust, limited partnership or corporation other than Calloway that are convertible or exchangeable directly for Units of Calloway without the payment of additional consideration therefore. Since September 30, 2006, there have been no material changes in the capitalization of Calloway other than the issuance of:

- (a) 62,623 Units issued pursuant to the distribution reinvestment plan of Calloway; and
- (b) 26,291 Units issued upon the exercise of the conversion option of the outstanding convertible debentures of Calloway.

As such, as at November 21, 2006, Calloway had 67,201,778 Units and 14,002,541 Exchangeable Securities outstanding for a total of 81,204,319 Units and Exchangeable Securities in aggregate. As at November 21, 2006 and assuming completion of this Offering (but not the exercise, if any, of any portion of either the Underwriters' Option or the Over-Allotment Option), Calloway will have 74,881,778 Units and 14,002,541 Exchangeable Securities outstanding for a total of 88,884,319 Units and Exchangeable Securities in aggregate.

As at September 30, 2006, the indebtedness of Calloway, consisting of mortgages payable, development loans, unsecured debentures, convertible debentures and revolving operating facilities was approximately $1,585,394,000. Since that time, as of October 31, 2006, the net indebtedness of Calloway has increased by approximately $167,756,000 including an increase of approximately $15,156,000 in connection with acquisition and development activity, an increase of $250,000,000 as a result of Calloway's offering of unsecured debentures in October, offset by a decrease of approximately $97,400,000 as a result of the use of a portion of the net proceeds of that offering to repay a portion of indebtedness.

RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN CALLOWAY AND CERTAIN OF THE UNDERWRITERS

In connection with this Offering, Calloway may be considered a "connected issuer" to CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch Canada Inc. and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. under applicable securities laws. Merrill Lynch Canada Inc. and the Canadian chartered bank affiliates of each of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc., and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (the "Lenders") are lenders under credit facilities or mortgage loans (the "Facilities") provided to Calloway, and the Facilities are secured by, among other things, first priority charges over specific properties of Calloway, general security interests over the secured properties and a general assignment of rents over the secured properties. As at September 30, 2006, a total of approximately $168,144,319 was outstanding under the Facilities. Subsequent to September 30, 2006, Calloway repaid the entire outstanding amounts under its line of credit and acquisition facility with certain of the Lenders, such aggregate net amounts being approximately $97,400,000 with the net proceeds of its offering of unsecured debentures in October 2006. Calloway is in compliance with all material terms and conditions of the Facilities.

The terms, structuring and pricing of the Offering were determined solely by negotiation between Calloway and the Underwriters. The affiliated banks of each of CIBC World Markets Inc., RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc., and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. did not play any role in those determinations or decisions. None of the proceeds of the Offering, except for that portion of the proceeds payable to the Underwriters for their fees and expenses, is expected to be applied for the benefit of CIBC World Markets Inc, RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., TD Securities Inc., Merrill Lynch Canada Inc., HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. or their respective affiliated banks.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The estimated net proceeds to Calloway from this Offering, after deducting the Underwriters' fee of $9,000,960 and the estimated expenses of this Offering of $375,000, will be approximately $215,648,040. If the Underwriters exercise both the Underwriters' Option and the Over-Allotment Option in full, the estimated net proceeds to Calloway from this Offering, after deducting the Underwriters' fee of $11,968,464 and the estimated expenses of this Offering of $375,000, will be approximately $286,868,136.

The net proceeds from the Offering will be used by Calloway to finance future acquisitions and for general trust purposes.

CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Shea Nerland Calnan LLP, counsel to Calloway, and McCarthy Tétrault LLP, counsel to the Underwriters, (together, "Tax Counsel"), the following summary describes, as of the date of this prospectus supplement, the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations pursuant to the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder generally applicable to a prospective purchaser of Units pursuant to this prospectus supplement who, for purposes of the Tax Act, is resident in Canada, holds the Units as capital property and deals at arm's length with Calloway and is not affiliated with Calloway. Generally, Units will be considered to be capital property to a holder provided that the holder does not hold the Units in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities and has not acquired them in one or more transactions considered to be an adventure in the nature of trade. Certain holders who might not otherwise be considered to hold their Units as capital property may, in certain circumstances, be entitled to have them treated as capital property by making the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act.

This summary is not applicable to a holder that is a "financial institution" for the purposes of the "mark-to-market" rules, to a holder an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment" or to a holder that is a "specified financial institution", all as defined in the Tax Act. Such holders should consult their own tax advisors.

This summary is based upon the facts set out in this prospectus supplement and the Short Form Prospectus, the provisions of the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder in force at the date of this prospectus supplement, Tax Counsel's understanding of the current published administrative and assessing practices and policies of the Canada Revenue Agency (the "CRA"), all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act and the regulations thereunder publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date of this prospectus supplement (the "Tax Proposals") and a certificate of Calloway as to certain factual matters. There can be no assurance that the Tax Proposals will be implemented in their current form or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any changes in law or action, and does not take into account provincial, territorial or foreign tax legislation or considerations, which may differ significantly from those discussed herein.

This summary is not exhaustive of all possible Canadian federal tax considerations applicable to an investment in Units. Moreover, the income and other tax consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of Units will vary depending on the holder's particular circumstances, including the province or provinces in which the holder resides or carries on business. Accordingly, this summary is of a general nature only and is not intended to be legal or tax advice to any prospective purchaser of Units. Investors should consult their own tax advisors for advice with respect to the tax consequences of an investment in Units based on their particular circumstances. No advance income tax ruling has been sought or obtained from the CRA to confirm the tax consequences of any of the transactions herein described. Prospective holders who propose to finance the acquisition of Units should consult their own advisors as to the application of the Draft Proposals to amend the Tax Act released October 31, 2003 relating to the deductibility of interest and other expenses.

This summary does not address any Canadian federal income tax considerations applicable to non-residents of Canada, and non-residents should consult their own tax advisors regarding the tax consequences of acquiring and holding securities. All distributions on the Units to non-residents, whether in cash or Units, will be net of any applicable withholding taxes.

Status of the Trust

Calloway has advised counsel that Calloway is, and expects that it will continue to be on and after the closing of the Offering a unit trust and a mutual fund trust as defined in the Tax Act and has provided a factual certificate to support such advice. In order for Calloway to so qualify, it must satisfy various requirements, including a requirement that it not have been established or maintained primarily for the benefit of non-residents. The Declaration of Trust contains a limitation on non-resident ownership which provides that at no time may non-residents of Canada (within the meaning of the Tax Act) be the beneficial owners of more than 49.9% of the Units outstanding and in the event such threshold is exceeded, the Declaration of Trust contains a mechanism to reduce the number of Units held by non-residents. If proposed amendments released by the Minister of Finance (Canada) on September 16, 2004, are enacted as proposed, Calloway may cease to qualify as a mutual fund trust for purposes of the Tax Act if at any time after 2004 the fair market value of all Units held by non-residents or partnerships which are not "Canadian partnerships" as defined in the Tax Act (or any combination thereof) is more than 50% of the fair market of all issued and outstanding Units. The proposed amendments currently do not provide any means of rectifying a loss of mutual fund trust status. On December 6, 2004, the Department of Finance (Canada) tabled a Notice of Ways and Means Motion that did not include these proposed changes. It is the understanding of the Tax Counsel that the Department of Finance (Canada) has suspended implementation of the proposed changes pending further consultation with interested parties. This summary therefore assumes that Calloway does and will continue to so qualify. If Calloway were not to qualify as a mutual fund trust under the Tax Act, the income tax consequences described below would in some respects be materially different.

Taxation of the Trust

Based in part on a certificate provided by Calloway as to the residence of its Trustees, Calloway will be treated as a resident of Canada for the purposes of the Tax Act. In general, Calloway is treated as an individual for tax purposes and is taxable on its income determined under the Tax Act from sources inside or outside Canada. Calloway is subject to tax in each taxation year (which will be the calendar year) on its taxable income for the year. The income of Calloway for the purposes of the Tax Act will include rents in respect of the properties included in its portfolio, and any taxable capital gain or recapture of capital cost allowance arising on the disposition of property owned by Calloway.

Calloway will generally be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of its net income and net realized capital gains in each taxation year except to the extent such net income and net realized capital gains are paid or payable in such year to Unitholders.

In computing its income, Calloway will generally be entitled to deduct its expenses incurred to earn such income, provided such expenses are reasonable and otherwise deductible. Calloway may deduct in computing its income for a year a portion of the reasonable expenses of the issue of Units paid by Calloway in accordance with the applicable rules in the Tax Act.

The Declaration of Trust provides that an amount (which may include net recapture income and net realized capital gains) will be payable to Unitholders such that Calloway will not be liable to pay tax under Part I of the Tax Act for such year. The Declaration of Trust provides that Calloway will deduct, for tax purposes, such amount of its net income and net realized capital gains as is paid or payable to Unitholders for the year and as is necessary to ensure that Calloway will not be subject to tax on its net income and net taxable capital gains under Part I of the Tax Act.

Calloway will be entitled for each taxation year to reduce (or receive a refund in respect of) its liability, if any, for tax on its net realized taxable capital gains by an amount determined under the Tax Act based on the redemption of Units during the year (the "capital gains refund"). In certain circumstances, the capital gains refund in a particular taxation year may not completely offset Calloway's tax liability for that taxation year arising in connection with the distribution of its property on the redemption of Units. The Declaration of Trust provides that all or a portion of any income or taxable capital gain realized by Calloway as a result of that redemption may, at the discretion of the Trustees, be treated as income or taxable capital gain paid to, and designated as income or taxable capital gain of, the redeeming Unitholders, and will be deductible by Calloway in computing its income.

Losses incurred by Calloway cannot be allocated to Unitholders but may be deducted by Calloway in accordance with the Tax Act.

Taxation of Unitholders

A Unitholder is generally required to include in computing income for tax purposes in each year the portion of the income of Calloway for the year, including the taxable portion of net realized capital gains, determined for the purposes of the Tax Act, that is paid or payable to such holder in the year and that Calloway deducts in computing its income.

The Declaration of Trust provides that net income and net taxable gains for the purposes of the Tax Act will be allocated to Unitholders in the same proportion as distributions received by Unitholders, subject to the discretion of the Trustees to adopt an allocation method which the Trustees consider to be more reasonable in the circumstances. The Declaration of Trust provides that Calloway will designate to the extent permitted by the Tax Act the portion of the taxable income distributed to Unitholders as may reasonably be considered to consist of net taxable capital gains of Calloway. Any such designated amount will be deemed for tax purposes to be received by Unitholders in the year as a taxable capital gain.

On the disposition or deemed disposition of a Unit, whether on a redemption or otherwise, the Unitholder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) equal to the amount by which the Unitholder's proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of the Unit and any reasonable costs of disposition. Proceeds of disposition will not include an amount payable by the Trust that is otherwise required to be included in the Unitholder's income, including any capital gain realized by the Trust in connection with a redemption of Units which has been designated by the Trust to the redeeming Unitholder. The taxation of capital gains and capital losses are described below.

The adjusted cost base of a Unit to a Unitholder will include all amounts paid or payable by the Unitholder for the Unit, with certain adjustments. The Declaration of Trust generally requires Calloway to claim the maximum amount of capital cost allowance available to it in computing its income for tax purposes. Based on Calloway's distribution policy, the amount distributed to Unitholders in a year may exceed the net income and net realized taxable capital gains of Calloway for that year. Such excess distributions will not be included in computing the income of Unitholders for tax purposes. However, a Unitholder is required to reduce the adjusted cost base of the Unitholder's Units by the amount paid or payable to the Unitholder by Calloway (other than the non-taxable portion of capital gains designated by Calloway) that was not included in computing the Unitholder's income and will realize a capital gain in the year to the extent the adjusted cost base of the Units would otherwise be a negative amount. The cost to a Unitholder of additional Units received in lieu of a cash distribution of income will be the amount of income distributed by the issue of those Units. For the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base to a Unitholder of Units, the cost of the newly acquired Unit will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all of the Units owned by the Unitholder as capital property immediately before the acquisition in accordance with the detailed provisions of the Tax Act.

One-half of any capital gain realized by a Unitholder and the amount of any net taxable capital gains designated by Calloway in respect of a Unitholder will generally be included in the Unitholder's income as a taxable capital gain and one-half of any capital loss realized by a Unitholder may generally be deducted only from taxable capital gains in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act.

Trusts governed by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, registered education savings plans and deferred profit sharing plans will generally not be liable for tax in respect of any distributions received from Calloway or any capital gains arising on the disposition of the Units.

Income Trust Tax Proposals

On October 31, 2006, the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced proposed changes to the taxation of income trusts. The proposed changes (the "October 31 Proposals") were described generally in a backgrounder ("Backgrounder") released by the Department of Finance (Canada) and a subsequent Notice of Ways and Means Motion ("Notice of Ways and Means Motion") tabled October 31, 2006. To date, draft legislation relating to the October 31 Proposals has yet to be released.

Under the October 31 Proposals, certain publicly-traded flow-through entities referred to as "specified investment flow-throughs" or "SIFTs" will be taxed in a manner similar to the taxation of corporations and investors in SIFTs will be treated in a manner similar to shareholders of a corporation. Specifically, distributions to investors in SIFTs of income which is subject to tax under the October 31 Proposals will also be taxed in the hands of the investors as though it were a taxable dividend from a taxable Canadian corporation. Such dividend will be eligible for the proposed new enhanced dividend tax credit if paid to an individual resident in Canada. Distributions that are paid as a return of capital will not be subject to tax under the October 31 Proposals. These changes will generally take effect beginning with the 2007 taxation year for SIFTs that begin to be publicly-traded after October 2006, but will only apply beginning with the 2011 taxation year for those SIFTs that were publicly-traded prior to November 2006.

Under the October 31 Proposals, certain trusts that would otherwise be SIFTs will be excluded from the SIFTs definition. These are trusts (commonly known as "real estate investment trusts") that meet a series of conditions relating to the nature of their income and investments. Specifically, for a real estate investment trust to benefit from the exclusion from the SIFTs definition for a given taxation year, the trust must:

- at no time in the year hold any non-portfolio properties other than real property situated in Canada;
- have as not less than 95% of its income for the year income from properties (whether in Canada or abroad, and including dividends, interest, rents, etc. and taxable capital gains from dispositions of real properties);
- have as not less than 75% of its income for the year income that is directly or indirectly attributable to rents from, mortgages on, or gains from the disposition of, real property situated in Canada; and
- hold throughout the year real property situated in Canada, cash and debt or other obligations of governments in Canada (including crown corporations, etc.) with a total fair market value that is not less than 75% of its equity value.

"Real property situated in Canada" will include securities issued by any entity that itself satisfies the above conditions, but does not include depreciable property, the capital cost allowance rate for which is greater than 5%.

"Non-portfolio properties" will include Canadian resource properties, timber resource properties, and real properties situated in Canada, if the total fair market value of such properties held by the SIFT is greater than 50% of the total equity value of the SIFT. Non-portfolio properties also include investments in a "subject entity" if the SIFT holds securities of the subject entity that have a fair market value greater than 10% of the subject entity's total equity value, or if the SIFT holds securities of the subject entity or its affiliates that have a total fair market value greater than 50% of the equity value of the SIFT. A subject entity will include corporations resident in Canada, trusts resident in Canada, and partnerships that meet certain Canadian residence-like criteria. Non-resident corporations and trusts, and partnerships that otherwise would not meet this definition, may also be subject entities if their principal source of income is in Canada.

Alternative Minimum Tax

In general terms, net income of the Trust paid or payable to a Unitholder who is an individual or a trust that is designated as net realized capital gains and capital gains realized on the disposition of Units may increase the holder's liability for alternative minimum tax.

RISK FACTORS

There are risks associated with the Units being distributed under the Offering. In addition to the risks described herein, reference is made to the risks described in Calloway's annual information form dated March 10, 2006 and in Calloway's management's discussion and analysis of its results for the year ended December 31, 2005 and for the nine month period ended September 30, 2006 which documents are incorporated herein by reference.

Income Trust Tax Proposals

As noted under "Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations – Income Trust Tax Proposals", the Minister of Finance (Canada) announced on October 31, 2006 proposed changes to the taxation of certain publicly-traded flow-through entities referred to as "specified investment flow-throughs" or "SIFTs". Under the October 31 Proposals, certain income trusts that would otherwise be SIFTs will be excluded from the SIFTs definition. These are income trusts (commonly known as "real estate investment trusts") that meet a series of conditions relating to the nature of their income and investments. Based on the Backgrounder and Notice of Ways and Means Motion, management of Calloway believes that it should meet the conditions for qualification for this exclusion; however, no final determination can be made until the legislation incorporating the October 31 Proposals is released. If, once the legislation incorporating the October 31 Proposals is released, it is determined that Calloway does not meet the conditions for qualification for this exclusion from the SIFTs definition, the October 31 Proposals will likely have a negative effect on Calloway and its Unitholders. Among other potential negative consequences to Calloway and its Unitholders, the October 31 Proposals may impact the future level of cash distributions made by Calloway. In particular, there can be no assurance that Calloway will be able to maintain the current level of distributions and the current portion of distributions that is treated as a non-taxable return of capital. If Calloway is not able to maintain or grow its current level of cash distributions, the market value of Calloway's Units may be negatively affected. If, under the specific legislation that is enacted to give effect to the October 31 Proposals, Calloway does not qualify for the exclusion from the SIFTs definition, Calloway would consider reorganizing its assets and operations in order to qualify for such exclusion, provided such a reorganization was in the best interests of the Unitholders.

Further, the Backgrounder indicates that the October 31 Proposals will apply to SIFTs, the units of which were publicly-traded before November, 2006, beginning with the 2011 taxation year of the trust. However, the Backgrounder also provides that the application date of 2011 is subject to the possible need to foreclose inappropriate new avoidance techniques. The Backgrounder provides, as an example, that, while there is now no intention to prevent existing SIFTs from normal growth prior to 2011, any undue expansion of an existing income trust (such as might be attempted through the insertion of a disproportionately large amount of capital) could cause this to be revisited. As stated earlier, management of Calloway believes that it should meet the conditions for qualification for exclusion from the SIFTs definition; however, no final determination can be made until the legislation incorporating the October 31 Proposals is released. If, once the legislation incorporating the October 31 Proposals is released, it is determined that Calloway does not meet the conditions for qualification for the exclusion from the SIFTs definition, there can be no assurance that the Offering pursuant to this prospectus supplement would not be considered to be an undue expansion of Calloway within the meaning contemplated in the October 31 Proposals. In that event, the October 31 Proposals may apply to Calloway earlier than the 2011 taxation year which could have an earlier than otherwise anticipated negative impact on the level of cash distributions made by Calloway. Further, Calloway's success depends in large part on identifying suitable acquisition and development opportunities and completing such acquisitions and developments. Also, Calloway accesses the capital markets from time-to-time to fund such acquisitions and developments. If Calloway were to be unable to raise additional funds through the issuance of debt, equity or equity-related securities, certain of its acquisition or development activities may be curtailed. As such, if once the legislation incorporating the October 31 Proposals is released, it is determined that Calloway does not meet the conditions for qualification for the exclusion from the SIFTs definition, the October 31 Proposals may prevent Calloway from growing its business.

Management of Calloway believes that it should meet the conditions for qualification for exclusion from the SIFTs definition; however, no final determination can be made until the legislation incorporating the October 31 Proposals is released. Assuming that Calloway meets the conditions for qualification for this exclusion, Calloway intends to structure its business and affairs so that it will continue to meet such conditions. If, once the legislation incorporating the October 31 Proposals is released, it is determined that Calloway does not meet the conditions for qualification for this exclusion from the SIFTs definition, the ability of Calloway to continue to acquire income producing properties without attracting an earlier application of the October 31 Proposals may be uncertain. Further, the expected effect of such taxation on Calloway's existing distributions may be uncertain. Further, the effect of the October 31 Proposals on the market for Units and SIFT units generally and the ability of Calloway to finance future acquisitions through the issue of Units or other securities is uncertain.

Proposed Acquisition

As noted under "Recent Developments", Calloway has entered into a conditional letter agreement with SmartCentres whereby the parties set out terms under which Calloway will agree to acquire or lease interests in 16 properties from SmartCentres and various third party vendors. The proposed transaction is subject to normal commercial risks that it will not close on the terms negotiated or at all. Further, there can be no assurance that Calloway will receive any or all requisite third party consents for the proposed transaction.

TRANSFER AGENT AND REGISTRAR

The registrar and transfer agent for the Units is Computershare Trust Company of Canada at its principal offices in Toronto, Ontario and Calgary, Alberta.

The Subscription Receipt Certificates shall be signed by any Trustee of Calloway. The signature of such Trustee may be mechanically reproduced in facsimile and Subscription Receipt Certificates bearing such facsimile signature shall, subject to Section 2.8, be binding upon Calloway as if they had been manually signed by such Trustee. Notwithstanding that the person whose manual or facsimile signature appears on any Subscription Receipt Certificate as such Trustee may no longer hold such position at the date of such Subscription Receipt Certificate or at the date of certification or delivery thereof, any Subscription Receipt Certificate signed as aforesaid shall, subject to Section 2.8, be valid and binding upon Calloway and the holder thereof shall be entitled to the benefits of this Agreement.

2.08 Certification by the Subscription Receipt Agent

- (a) No Subscription Receipt Certificate shall be issued or, if issued, shall be valid for any purpose or entitle the holder to the benefit hereof until it has been certified by manual signature by or on behalf of the Subscription Receipt Agent, and such certification by the Subscription Receipt Agent upon any Subscription Receipt Certificate shall be conclusive evidence as against Calloway that the Subscription Receipt Certificate so certified has been duly issued hereunder and that the holder is entitled to the benefits hereof.
- (b) The certification of the Subscription Receipt Agent on Subscription Receipt Certificates issued hereunder shall not be construed as a representation or warranty by the Subscription Receipt Agent as to the validity of this Agreement or the Subscription Receipt Certificates (except the due certification thereof) and the Subscription Receipt Agent shall in no respect be liable or answerable for the use made of the Subscription Receipt Certificates or any of them or of the consideration therefor except as otherwise specified herein. The certificate by or on behalf of the Subscription Receipt Agent on Subscription Receipt Certificates shall constitute a representation and warranty by the Subscription Receipt Agent that the said Subscription Receipt Certificates have been duly certified by or on behalf of the Subscription Receipt Agent pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement.

2.09 Issue in Substitution for Subscription Receipt Certificates Lost, etc.

- (a) In case any of the Subscription Receipt Certificates shall become mutilated or be lost destroyed or stolen, Calloway, subject to applicable law and compliance with paragraph (b) below, shall issue and thereupon the Subscription Receipt Agent shall certify and deliver, a new Subscription Receipt Certificate of like tenor as the one mutilated, lost, destroyed or stolen in exchange for and in place of and upon cancellation of such mutilated Subscription Receipt Certificate, or in lieu of and in substitution for such lost, destroyed or stolen Subscription Receipt Certificate, and the substituted Subscription Receipt Certificate shall be in a form approved by the Subscription Receipt Agent and shall be entitled to the benefits hereof and shall rank equally in accordance with its terms with all other Subscription Receipt Certificates issued or to be issued hereunder.

- (b) The applicant for the issue of a new Subscription Receipt Certificate pursuant to this Section 2.09 shall bear the cost of the issue thereof and in case of loss, destruction or theft shall, as a condition precedent to the issue thereof, furnish to Calloway and to the Subscription Receipt Agent such evidence of ownership and of the loss, destruction or theft of the Subscription Receipt Certificate so lost, destroyed or stolen as shall be satisfactory to Calloway and to the Subscription Receipt Agent in their sole discretion, acting reasonably, and such applicant may also be required to furnish an indemnity or security in amount and form reasonably satisfactory to Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent in their sole discretion and shall pay the reasonable charges of Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent in connection therewith.

2.10 Exchange of Subscription Receipt Certificates

- (a) Subscription Receipt Certificates representing Subscription Receipts may, upon compliance with the reasonable requirements of the Subscription Receipt Agent, be exchanged for another Subscription Receipt Certificate or Subscription Receipt Certificates entitling the holder thereof to, in the aggregate, the same number of Subscription Receipts as represented by the Subscription Receipt Certificates so exchanged.
- (b) Subscription Receipt Certificates may be surrendered for exchange only at the Designated Office of the Subscription Receipt Agent.

2.11 Charges for Exchange

Except as otherwise herein provided, the Subscription Receipt Agent may charge to the holder requesting an exchange a reasonable sum for each new Subscription Receipt Certificate issued in exchange for Subscription Receipt Certificate(s). Payment of such charges and reimbursement of the Subscription Receipt Agent or Calloway for any and all stamp taxes or governmental or other charges required to be paid shall be made by such holder as a condition precedent to such exchange.

2.12 Transfer and Ownership of Subscription Receipts

- (a) The Subscription Receipts are subject to statutory resale restrictions under the Securities Laws. In addition to, and without limiting the foregoing, the Subscription Receipts may only be transferred on the register kept at the Designated Office of the Subscription Receipt Agent by the holder or his legal representatives or his attorney duly appointed by an instrument in writing. Upon surrender for registration of transfer of Subscription Receipts at the Designated Office of the Subscription Receipt Agent and upon compliance with Section 2.13, Calloway shall issue and thereupon the Subscription Receipt Agent shall certify and deliver a new Subscription Receipt Certificate of like tenor in the name of the designated transferee. However, notwithstanding the foregoing, Subscription Receipts shall only be transferred upon:

- (i.) payment to the Subscription Receipt Agent of a reasonable sum for each new Subscription Receipt Certificate issued upon such transfer, and reimbursement of the Subscription Receipt Agent or Calloway for any and all stamp taxes or governmental or other charges required to be paid in respect of such transfer; and
 - (ii.) such reasonable requirements as the Subscription Receipt Agent may prescribe, including with respect to compliance with all statutory resale restrictions under the Securities Laws and all such transfers shall be duly noted in such register by the Subscription Receipt Agent.
- (b) Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent will deem and treat the registered owner of any Subscription Receipt as the beneficial owner thereof for all purposes and neither Calloway nor the Subscription Receipt Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary.
- (c) The transfer register in respect of Subscription Receipts shall be closed at 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) at each of the Designated Office, on the earlier to occur of the Acquisition Date and the Termination Date (subject to settlement).
- (d) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement and applicable Securities Laws a Receiptholder shall be entitled to the rights and privileges attaching to the Subscription Receipts. Either the issue and delivery of Units and the payment of the applicable Acquisition Payment as provided in Section 3.03, or the payment of the Subscription Price and the Earned Interest, less applicable withholding taxes, as provided in Section 3.05, all in accordance with the terms and conditions herein contained, shall discharge all responsibilities of Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent with respect to such Subscription Receipts and neither Calloway nor the Subscription Receipt Agent shall be bound to inquire into the title of a Receiptholder or a transferee of Subscription Receipts who surrenders a Subscription Receipt Certificate.

2.13 Limitation on Non-Resident Ownership

At no time may non-residents of Canada be the beneficial owners of a majority of the outstanding Units (on a fully-diluted basis). Calloway may direct the Subscription Receipt Agent to require declarations as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of Subscription Receipts are resident, which will be delivered to the Subscription Receipt Agent. If the Subscription Receipt Agent becomes aware, as a result of such declarations as to beneficial ownership or otherwise, that the beneficial owners of 40% of the Units then outstanding (on a fully-diluted basis) are, or may be, non-residents or that such a situation is imminent, Calloway may direct the Subscription Receipt Agent to make a public announcement thereof and, following notification to Calloway of such announcement, Calloway may direct the Subscription Receipt Agent to not register a transfer of Subscription Receipts to a person unless the person provides a declaration in form and content satisfactory to Calloway, as provided to the Subscription Receipt Agent that the person is not a non-resident. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Subscription Receipt Agent determines that a majority of the holders of Units (on a fully-diluted basis) are held by non-residents, Calloway may direct the Subscription Receipt Agent to send a notice to non-resident Receiptholders, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as Calloway may direct, requiring them to sell their Subscription Receipts or a portion thereof within a specified period of not more than 30 days. If the non-resident Receiptholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Subscription Receipts or provided the Subscription Receipt Agent, as confirmed by Calloway, with satisfactory evidence that they are not non-residents within such period, Calloway may direct the Subscription Receipt Agent, on behalf of such non-resident Receiptholders, to sell such Subscription Receipts and, in the interim, to suspend the voting and interest rights attached to such Subscription Receipts. Upon such sale, the affected non-resident Receiptholders shall cease to be holders of Subscription Receipts and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the applicable Subscription Receipts. The Subscription Receipt Agent is, upon direction of Calloway, empowered to take all steps necessary, including cancelling Subscription Receipts and amending the register, as are required to effect any such sale.

2.14 Proceeds to be Placed in Escrow

Upon the issuance of Subscription Receipts, the Escrowed Funds in respect thereof shall be delivered to the Subscription Receipt Agent to be held pursuant to the terms hereof. The Subscription Receipt Agent hereby agrees to hold the same as agent on behalf of the Receiptholders and to disburse and deal with the same as provided herein.

The amount paid to each holder shall be satisfied by Calloway paying the aggregate amount of the Acquisition Payments to the Subscription Receipt Agent. - (c) Any Surrender Form referred to in Section 3.03(b) shall be signed by the Receiptholder (or by a transferee of the Subscription Receipts) and shall specify the person or persons in whose name or names such Units are to be issued and to whom the Acquisition Payment specified in Section 3.03(b) shall be paid, the address or addresses of such persons and the principal amount to be issued and cash amounts to be paid to each such person if more than one is so specified.

If any of the Units are to be issued to a person or persons other than the Receiptholder, the Receiptholder shall comply with such reasonable requirements as Calloway may prescribe and pay to Calloway or the Subscription Receipt Agent on behalf of Calloway, all applicable transfer or similar taxes or fees and Calloway shall not be required to issue or deliver certificates evidencing the Units unless such Receiptholder shall have paid the amount of such tax or fee or shall have established to the satisfaction of Calloway that such fee or tax has been paid or that no fee or tax is due.

- (d) Within two (2) Business Days after the surrender of a Subscription Receipt Certificate as contemplated in Sections 3.03(b) and (c), Calloway shall cause to be mailed to the person or persons in whose name or names the Units have been issued, as specified in the Surrender Form, at the address or addresses specified therein, a certificate or certificates for the appropriate number of Units so issued, together with a cheque or cheques for the Acquisition Payment specified in Section 3.03(b) or, if so requested by the person surrendering the Subscription

Receipt Certificate at the time of surrender, Calloway shall deliver or cause to be delivered such certificate or certificates and such cheque or cheques to such person or persons at the Designated Office.

- (e) If any Subscription Receipt Certificates have not been surrendered as contemplated in Sections 3.03(b) and (c) on or before the Initial Distribution Date, on the Initial Distribution Date the Subscription Receipt Agent shall mail the certificates representing Units, together with a cheque for the Acquisition Payment specified in Section 3.03(b), to the registered holders of such Subscription Receipts at their last addresses of record.
- (f) Effective immediately after the Units have been issued as contemplated in Section 3.03(a) and Calloway has mailed or delivered the certificate or certificates representing such Units as provided in Sections 3.03(d) and (e), together with the cheque or cheques for the Acquisition Payment specified in Section 3.03(b), the Subscription Receipts relating thereto shall be void and of no value or effect.

3.04 Fractions

Calloway shall not be required to issue fractional Units. All fractional Units shall be rounded up to the next whole Unit.

3.05 Payment on Termination

- (a) If the Acquisition Agreements are terminated, or the Acquisition Date does not occur on or before the Deadline, Calloway shall forthwith notify the Subscription Receipt Agent thereof and shall issue a press release setting forth the Termination Date.
- (b) If the Acquisition Agreements are terminated, or the Acquisition Date does not occur on or before the Deadline, the subscription evidenced by each Subscription Receipt shall be automatically terminated and cancelled and each holder of a Subscription Receipt (or a transferee thereof if all applicable transfer requirements, other than registration, have been satisfied) shall be entitled from and after the Deadline, but shall receive no earlier than on the second Business Day following notice of the Termination Date, a cheque in the amount of (i) the Subscription Price in respect of such holder's Subscription Receipts; and (ii) such holder's pro rata share of the Earned Interest less applicable withholding taxes, by surrendering, at any time after the Termination Date, to the Subscription Receipt Agent at the Designated Office the applicable Subscription Receipt Certificate together with a duly completed Surrender Form executed by such holder or transferee. The amount paid to each Receiptholder under (i) and (ii) shall be satisfied by the Escrowed Funds and any shortfall in such funds shall be satisfied by the immediate payment by Calloway to the Subscription Receipt Agent in accordance with the written direction of the Subscription Receipt Agent.

- (c) A Surrender Form submitted upon surrender of a Subscription Receipt Certificate as contemplated in Section 3.05(b) shall be signed by the Receiptholder (or by a transferee of the Subscription Receipts) and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the amount specified in Section 3.05(b) shall be paid.
- (d) The obligation to make the payment of the amount specified in Section 3.05(b) shall be satisfied by:
 - (i) mailing payment by cheque payable at par in Calgary, Alberta to the payee specified in the Surrender Form and at the address specified for such payee in the Surrender Form; or

The mailing or delivering of such cheque shall occur as soon as practicable following the surrender of the Subscription Receipt Certificate.

- (e) If any holders of Subscription Receipts (or transferees thereof) have not surrendered the relevant Subscription Receipt Certificates to obtain payment following the automatic termination of the subscription evidenced thereby as contemplated in Section 3.05(b) within six months after the Termination Date, the Subscription Receipt Agent shall mail the cheques in payment of the amount specified in Section 3.05(b) to the registered holders of such Subscription Receipts at their last addresses of record.
- (f) Upon the mailing or delivery of any cheque as provided in Sections 3.05(d) and (e) (and provided such cheque has been honoured for payment, if presented for payment within six months of the date thereof) all rights evidenced by the Subscription Receipts relating thereto shall be satisfied and such Subscription Receipts shall be void and of no value or effect.

All Subscription Receipt Certificates surrendered to the Subscription Receipt Agent pursuant to Sections 2.09, 2.10, 3.03, 3.05 and 5.01 shall be returned to or received by the Subscription Receipt Agent for cancellation and, if required by Calloway, the Subscription Receipt Agent shall furnish Calloway with a cancellation certificate identifying the Subscription Receipt Certificates so cancelled and the number of Subscription Receipts evidenced thereby.

3.07 Additional Payments by Corporation

Calloway shall, no later than two (2) Business Days before the date upon which the Acquisition Payment is required to be paid pursuant to Article 3, pay to the Subscription

Receipt Agent such amount as will be sufficient to allow the Subscription Receipt Agent to pay in full the Acquisition Payment, as is required under the circumstances.

ARTICLE 6
ENFORCEMENT*6.01 Suits by Receiptholders

All or any of the rights conferred upon any Receiptholder by any of the terms of the Subscription Receipt Certificates or of this Agreement, or of both, may be enforced by the Receiptholder by appropriate proceedings but without prejudice to the right which is hereby conferred upon the Subscription Receipt Agent to proceed in its own name to enforce each and all of the provisions contained herein for the benefit of the Receiptholders.

6.02 Immunity of Unitholders, etc.

The Subscription Receipt Agent and, by the acceptance of the Subscription Receipt Certificates and as part of the consideration for the issue of the Subscription Receipts, the Receiptholders hereby waive and release any right, cause of action or remedy now or hereafter existing in any jurisdiction against any settlor or any past, present or future Unitholder, Trustee, officer, employee or agent of Calloway or any successor entity for the issue of the Units pursuant to any Subscription Receipt or on any covenant, agreement, representation or warranty by Calloway contained herein or in the Subscription Receipt Certificate(s).

6.03 Limitation of Liability

ARTICLE 7
MEETINGS OF RECEIPHOLDERS*7.01 Right to Convene Meetings

The Subscription Receipt Agent may at any time and from time to time, and shall on receipt of a written request of Calloway or of a Receipholders' Request and upon being indemnified to its reasonable satisfaction by Calloway or by the Receipholders signing such Receipholders' Request against the cost which may be incurred in connection with the calling and holding of such meeting, convene a meeting of the Receipholders. In the event of the Subscription Receipt Agent failing to so convene a meeting within ten (10) days after receipt of such written request of Calloway or such Receipholders' Request and indemnity given as aforesaid, Calloway or such Receipholders, as the case may be, may convene such meeting. Every such meeting shall be held in the City of Calgary or at such other place as may be determined by the Subscription Receipt Agent and approved by Calloway.

7.02 Notice

At least ten (10) days prior notice of any meeting of Receipholders shall be given to the Receipholders in the manner provided for in Section 10.02 and a copy of such notice shall be sent by mail to the Subscription Receipt Agent (unless the meeting has been called by the Subscription Receipt Agent) and to Calloway (unless the meeting has been called by Calloway). Such notice shall state the time when and the place where the meeting, is to be held, shall state briefly the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat and shall contain such information as is reasonably necessary to enable the Receipholders to make a reasoned decision on the matter, but it shall not be necessary for any such notice to set out the terms of any resolution to be proposed or any of the provisions of this Article 7.

7.03 Chairman

An individual (who need not be a Receipholder) designated in writing by the Subscription Receipt Agent shall be chairman of the meeting and if no individual is so designated, or if the individual so designated is not present within fifteen (15) minutes from the time fixed for the holding of the meeting, the Receipholders present in person or by proxy shall choose some individual present to be chairman.

7.04 Quorum

Subject to the provisions of Section 7.11, at any meeting of the Receiptholders a quorum shall consist of not less than two (2) Receiptholders present in person or by proxy and entitled to receive at least 10% of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts. If a quorum of the Receiptholders shall not be present within (30) minutes from the time fixed for holding any meeting, the meeting, if summoned by the Receiptholders or on a Receiptholders' Request, shall be dissolved; but in any other case the meeting shall be adjourned to the same day in the next week (unless such day is not a Business Day, in which case it shall be adjourned to the next following Business Day) at the same time and place and no notice of the adjournment need be given. Any business may be brought before or dealt with at an adjourned meeting which might have been dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same. No business shall be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum be present at the commencement of business. At the adjourned meeting the Receiptholders present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was originally convened notwithstanding that they may not be entitled to receive at least 10% of the Units which may be received pursuant to all then outstanding Subscription Receipts.

7.05 Power to Adjourn

The chairman of any meeting at which a quorum of the Receiptholders is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any such meeting and no notice of such adjournment need be given except such notice, if any, as the meeting may prescribe.

7.06 Show of Hands

Every question submitted to a meeting shall be decided in the first place by a majority of the votes given on a show of hands except that votes on an extraordinary resolution shall be given in the manner hereinafter provided. At any such meeting, unless a poll is duly demanded as herein provided, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority or lost or not carried by a particular majority shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

7.07 Poll and Voting

On every extraordinary resolution, and on any other question submitted to a meeting and after a vote by show of hands when demanded by the chairman or by one or more of the Receiptholders acting in person or by proxy and entitled to receive in the aggregate at least 5% of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the Subscription Receipts then outstanding, a poll shall be taken in such manner as the chairman shall direct. Questions other than those required to be determined by extraordinary resolution shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast on the poll.

On a show of hands, every person who is present and entitled to vote, whether as a Receiptholder or as proxy for one or more absent Receiptholders, or both, shall have one vote.

On a poll, each Receiptholder present in person or represented by a proxy duly appointed by instrument in writing shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each Unit which he is entitled to receive pursuant to the Subscription Receipt(s) then held or represented by him. A proxy need not be a Receiptholder. In the case of joint holders, any of them present in person or by proxy at the meeting may vote in the absence of the other or others; but in case more than one of them shall be present in person or by proxy, they shall vote together in respect of Subscription Receipts of which they are joint registered holders. The chairman of any meeting shall be entitled, both on a show of hands and on a poll, to vote in respect of the Subscription Receipts, if any, held or represented by him.

7.08 Regulations

The Subscription Receipt Agent, or Calloway with the approval of the Subscription Receipt Agent, may from time to time make and from time to time vary such regulations as it shall think fit for:

- (a) the setting of the record date for a meeting of holders of Subscription Receipts for the purpose of determining Receiptholders entitled to receive notice of and vote at such meeting;
- (b) the issue of voting certificates by any bank, trust company or other depository satisfactory to the Subscription Receipt Agent stating that the Subscription Receipt Certificates specified therein have been deposited with it by a named person and will remain on deposit until after the meeting, which voting certificate shall entitle the persons named therein to be present and vote at any such meeting and at any adjournment thereof or to appoint a proxy or proxies to represent them and vote for them at any such meeting and at any adjournment thereof in the same manner and with the same effect as though the persons so named in such voting certificates were the actual holders of the Subscription Receipt Certificates specified therein;
- (c) the deposit of voting certificates and instruments appointing proxies at such place and time as the Subscription Receipt Agent, Calloway or the Receiptholders, convening the meeting, as the case may be, may in the notice convening the meeting direct;

- (e) the form of the instrument of proxy; and

- (f) generally for the calling of meetings of Receiptholders and the conduct of business thereat.

Any regulations so made shall be binding and effective and the votes given in accordance therewith shall be valid and shall be counted. Save as such regulations may provide, the only persons who shall be recognized at any meeting as a Receiptholder, or be entitled to vote or be present at the meeting in respect thereof (subject to Section 7.09), shall be Receiptholders or their counsel, or proxies of Receiptholders.

7.09 Calloway and Subscription Receipt Agent may be Represented

Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent, by their respective authorized agents, and the counsel for Calloway and for the Subscription Receipt Agent may attend any meeting of the Receiptholders, but shall have no vote as such unless in their capacity as Receiptholder or a proxy holder.

7.10 Powers Exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution

In addition to all other powers conferred upon them by any other provisions of this Agreement or by law, the Receiptholders at a meeting shall, subject to the provisions of Section 7.11, have the power, exercisable from time to time by extraordinary resolution:

- (a) to agree to any modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement of the rights of Receiptholders or the Subscription Receipt Agent against Calloway or against its undertaking, property and assets or any part thereof whether such rights arise under this Agreement or the Subscription Receipt Certificates or otherwise;

- (e) to waive, and to direct the Subscription Receipt Agent to waive, any default on the part of Calloway in complying with any provisions of this Agreement or the Subscription Receipt Certificates either unconditionally or upon any conditions specified in such extraordinary resolution;

- (f) to restrain any Receiptholder from taking or instituting any suit, action or proceeding against Calloway for the enforcement of any of the covenants on the part of Calloway in this Agreement or the Subscription Receipt Certificates or to enforce any of the rights of the Receiptholders;
- (g) to direct any Receiptholder who, as such, has brought any suit, action or proceeding to stay or to discontinue or otherwise to deal with the same upon payment of the costs, charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by such Receiptholder in connection therewith;
- (h) to assent to any modification of, change in or omission from the provisions contained in the Subscription Receipt Certificates and this Agreement or any ancillary or supplemental instrument which may be agreed to by Calloway, and to authorize the Subscription Receipt Agent to concur in and execute any ancillary or supplemental agreement embodying the change or omission;

- (j) to assent to any compromise or arrangement with any creditor or creditors or any class or classes of creditors, whether secured or otherwise, and with holders of any units or other securities of Calloway; and
- (k) to assent to any modification of the Declaration of Trust in circumstances where, had the underlying Units then been outstanding, an extraordinary resolution of the unitholders of Calloway would have been required.

7.11 Meaning of Extraordinary Resolution

- (a) The expression "extraordinary resolution" when used in this Agreement means, subject as hereinafter provided in this Section 7.11 and in Section 7.14, a resolution proposed at a meeting of Receiptholders duly convened for that purpose and held in accordance with the provisions of this Article 7 at which there are present in person or by proxy at least two (2) Receiptholders entitled to receive more than 10% of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts and passed by the affirmative votes of Receiptholders entitled to receive not less than 66 2/3 % of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts represented at the meeting and voted on the poll upon such resolution.
- (b) If, at any meeting called for the purpose of passing an extraordinary resolution, at least two (2) Receiptholders entitled to receive more than 10% of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts are not present in person or by proxy within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, then the meeting, if convened by Receiptholders or on a Receiptholders' Request, shall be dissolved; but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to such day, being not less than fourteen (14) or more than thirty (30) days later, and to such place and time as may be appointed by the chairman. Not less than seven (7) days prior notice shall be given of the time and place of such adjourned meeting in the manner provided for in Section 10.02. Such notice shall state that at the adjourned meeting the Receiptholders present in person or by proxy shall form a quorum but it shall not be necessary to set forth the purposes for which the meeting was originally called or any other particulars. At the adjourned meeting;

- (i) if the extraordinary resolution purports to exercise any of the powers conferred pursuant to Subsection 7.10(a), 7.10(e), 7.10(j), 7.10(j) or 7.10(k) or purports to change the provisions of this Section 7.11 or of Section 7.14 or purports to amend, alter or repeal any extraordinary resolution previously passed or sanctioned by the Receiptholders in exercise of the powers referred to in this paragraph, a quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of Receiptholders entitled to receive more than 25% of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts present in person or by proxy; and
 - (ii) in any other case, a quorum for the transaction of business shall consist of such Receiptholders as are present in person or by proxy.
- (c) At any such adjourned meeting, any resolution passed by the requisite votes as provided in Subsection 7.11(a) shall be an extraordinary resolution within the meaning of this Agreement notwithstanding that Receiptholders entitled to receive more than 50% of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts are not present in person or by proxy at such adjourned meeting.
 - (d) Votes on an extraordinary resolution shall always be given on a poll and no demand for a poll on an extraordinary resolution shall be necessary.

7.12 Powers Cumulative

Any one or more of the powers or any combination of the powers in this Agreement stated to be exercisable by the Receiptholders by extraordinary resolution or otherwise may be exercised from time to time and the exercise of any one or more of such powers or any combination of powers from time to time shall not be deemed to exhaust the right of the Receiptholders to exercise such power or powers or combination of powers then or thereafter from time to time.

7.13 Minutes

Minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at every meeting of Receipholders shall be made and duly entered in books to be provided from time to time for that purpose by the Subscription Receipt Agent at the expense of Calloway, and any such minutes as aforesaid, if signed by the chairman or the secretary of the meeting at which such resolutions were passed or proceedings had or by the chairman or secretary of the next succeeding meeting held shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated and, until the contrary is proved, every such meeting in respect of the proceedings of which minutes shall have been made shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held, and all resolutions passed thereat or proceedings taken shall be deemed to have been duly passed and taken.

7.14 Instruments in Writing

All actions which may be taken and all powers that may be exercised by the Receipholders at a meeting held as provided in this Article 7 may also be taken and exercised by an instrument in writing signed in one or more counterparts by such Receipholders in person or by attorney duly appointed in writing, by Receipholders entitled to receive at least 66 2/3 % of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts with respect to an extraordinary resolution, and the expression "extraordinary resolution" when used in this Agreement shall include an instrument so signed by Receipholders entitled to receive at least 66 2/3 % of the Units which could be received pursuant to all the then outstanding Subscription Receipts.

7.15 Binding Effect of Resolutions

Every resolution and every extraordinary resolution passed in accordance with the provisions of this Article 7 at a meeting of Receipholders shall be binding upon all the Receipholders, whether present at or absent from such meeting, and every instrument in writing signed by Receipholders in accordance with Section 7.14 shall be binding upon all the Receipholders, whether signatories thereto or not, and each and every Receipholder and the Subscription Receipt Agent (subject to the provisions for indemnity herein contained) shall be bound to give effect accordingly to every such resolution and instrument in writing.

7.16 Holdings by Fund Disregarded

In determining whether Receipholders holding Subscription Receipt Certificates evidencing the entitlement to receive the required Units are present at a meeting of Receipholders for the purpose of determining a quorum or have concurred in any consent, waiver, extraordinary resolution, Receipholders' Request or other action under this Agreement, Subscription Receipts owned legally or beneficially by Calloway or any affiliated entity of Calloway shall be disregarded in accordance with the provisions of Section 10.08.

ARTICLE 8

From time to time Calloway (when authorized by action by the Trustees), CIBC, on behalf of the Agents, and the Subscription Receipt Agent may, subject to the provisions hereof, and they shall, when so directed in accordance with the provisions hereof, execute and deliver by their proper officers, agreements supplemental hereto, which thereafter shall form part hereof, for any one or more or all of the following purposes:

- (a) adding to the provisions hereof such additional covenants and enforcement provisions as, in the opinion of Counsel, are necessary or advisable in the premises, provided that the same are not in the opinion of the Subscription Receipt Agent prejudicial to the interests of the Receipholders;
- (b) giving effect to any extraordinary resolution passed as provided in Article 7;
- (c) making such provisions not inconsistent with this Agreement as may be necessary or desirable with respect to matters or questions arising hereunder, provided that such provisions are not, in the opinion of counsel for the Subscription Receipt Agent, prejudicial to the interests of the Receipholders;
- (d) adding to or altering the provisions hereof in respect of the transfer of Subscription Receipts, making, provision for the exchange of Subscription Receipt Certificates, and making any modification in the form of the Subscription Receipt Certificates which does not affect the substance thereof,
- (e) modifying any of the provisions of this Agreement, including relieving Calloway from any of the obligations, conditions or restrictions herein contained, provided that such modification or relief shall be or become operative or effective only if, in the opinion of counsel for the Subscription Receipt Agent, such modification or relief in no way prejudices any of the rights of the Receipholders or of the Subscription Receipt Agent, and provided further that the Subscription Receipt Agent may in its sole discretion decline to enter into any such supplemental agreement which in its opinion may not afford adequate protection to the Subscription Receipt Agent when the same shall become operative; and
- (f) for any other purpose not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement, including the correction or rectification of any ambiguities, defective or inconsistent provisions, errors, mistakes or omissions herein, provided that in the opinion of counsel for the Subscription Receipt Agent the rights of the Subscription Receipt Agent and of the Receipholders are in no way prejudiced thereby.

ARTICLE 9
CONCERNING THE SUBSCRIPTION RECEIPT AGENT

9.01 Rights and Duties of Subscription Receipt Agent

- (a) In the exercise of the rights and duties prescribed or conferred by the terms of this Agreement, the Subscription Receipt Agent shall exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent subscription receipt agent would exercise in comparable circumstances. No provision of this Agreement shall be construed to relieve the Subscription Receipt Agent from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act, or its own wilful misconduct or bad faith.
- (b) The obligation of the Subscription Receipt Agent to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding for the purpose of enforcing any rights of the Subscription Receipt Agent or the Receiptholders hereunder shall be conditional upon the Receiptholders furnishing, when required by notice by the Subscription Receipt Agent, sufficient funds to commence or to continue such act, action or proceeding and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Subscription Receipt Agent to protect and to hold harmless the Subscription Receipt Agent against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred thereby and any loss and damage it may suffer by reason thereof. None of the provisions contained in this Agreement shall require the Subscription Receipt Agent to expend or to risk its own funds or otherwise to incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers unless indemnified as aforesaid.
- (c) The Subscription Receipt Agent may, before commencing or at any time during the continuance of any such act, action or proceeding, require the Receiptholders at whose instance it is acting to deposit with the Subscription Receipt Agent the Subscription Receipts held by them, for which Subscription Receipts the Subscription Receipt Agent shall issue receipts.
- (d) Every provision of this Agreement that by its terms relieves the Subscription Receipt Agent of liability or entitles it to rely upon any evidence submitted to it is subject to the provisions of this Section 9.01 and of Section 9.02.
- (e) The Subscription Receipt Agent shall have no duties except those expressly set forth herein, and it shall not be bound by any notice of a claim or demand with respect to, or any waiver, modification, amendment, termination or rescission of, this Agreement, unless received by it in writing and signed by the other parties hereto and, if its duties herein are affected, unless it shall have given its prior written consent thereto.
- (f) The Subscription Receipt Agent shall not be responsible for ensuring that the Proceeds are used in the manner contemplated by the Acquisition Agreements.

- (g) The Subscription Receipt Agent shall retain the right not to act and shall not be held liable for refusing to act unless it has received clear and reasonable documentation which complies with the terms of this Agreement, which documentation does not require the exercise of any discretion or independent judgment.

9.02 Evidence, Experts and Advisers

- (a) In addition to the reports, certificates, opinions and other evidence required by this Agreement, Calloway shall furnish to the Subscription Receipt Agent such additional evidence of compliance with any provision hereof, and in such form, as the Subscription Receipt Agent may reasonably require by written notice to Calloway.
- (b) In the exercise of its rights and duties hereunder, the Subscription Receipt Agent may, if it is acting in good faith, rely as to the truth of the statements and the accuracy of the opinions expressed in statutory declarations, opinions, reports, written requests, consents, or orders of Calloway, certificates of Calloway or other evidence furnished to the Subscription Receipt Agent pursuant to any provision hereof or pursuant to a request of the Subscription Receipt Agent.
- (c) Whenever it is provided in this Agreement that Calloway shall deposit with the Subscription Receipt Agent resolutions, certificates, reports, opinions, requests, orders or other documents, it is intended that the trust, accuracy and good faith on the effective date thereof and the facts and opinions stated in all such documents so deposited shall, in each and every such case, be conditions precedent to the right of Calloway to have the Subscription Receipt Agent take the action to be based thereon.
- (d) Proof of the execution of an instrument in writing, including a Receiptholders' Request, by any Receiptholder may be made by the certificate of a notary public, or other officer with similar powers, that the person signing such instrument acknowledged to him the execution thereof, or by an affidavit of a witness to such execution or in any other manner which the Subscription Receipt Agent may consider adequate.
- (e) The Subscription Receipt Agent may employ or retain such Counsel, accountants, appraisers or other experts or advisers as it may reasonably require for the purpose of discharging its duties hereunder and may pay reasonable remuneration for all services so performed by any of them, without taxation of costs of any Counsel, and shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any such experts or advisers who have been appointed with due care by the Subscription Receipt Agent.

9.03 Documents, Monies, etc. Held by Subscription Receipt Agent

Any securities, documents of title or other instruments that may at any time be held by the Subscription Receipt Agent pursuant to this Agreement may be placed in the deposit vaults of the Subscription Receipt Agent or of any Canadian chartered bank or deposited for safekeeping with any such bank. If the Subscription Receipt Agent has not received a direction under Section 4.01, any monies so held pending the application or withdrawal thereof under any provisions of this Agreement may be deposited in the name of the Subscription Receipt Agent in any Canadian chartered bank, or in the deposit department of the Subscription Receipt Agent or any other loan or trust company authorized to accept deposits under the laws of Canada or a province thereof, at the rate of interest (if any) then current on similar deposits.

9.04 Actions by Subscription Receipt Agent to Protect Interest

The Subscription Receipt Agent shall have power to institute and to maintain such actions and proceedings as it may consider necessary or expedient to preserve, protect or enforce its interests and the interests of the Receiptholders.

9.05 Subscription Receipt Agent not Required to Give Security

The Subscription Receipt Agent shall not be required to give any bond or security in respect of the execution of this Agreement or otherwise in respect of the premises.

9.06 Protection of Subscription Receipt Agent

By way of supplement to the provisions of any law for the time being relating to Subscription Receipt Agent it is expressly declared and agreed as follows:

- (a) the Subscription Receipt Agent shall not be liable for or by reason of any statements of fact or recitals in this Agreement or in the Subscription Receipt Certificates (except the representation contained in Section 9.08 or in the certificate of the Subscription Receipt Agent on the Subscription Receipt Certificates) or be required to verify the same, but all such statements or recitals are and shall be deemed to be made by Calloway;
- (b) nothing herein contained shall impose any obligation on the Subscription Receipt Agent to see to or to require evidence of the registration or filing (or renewal thereof) of this Agreement or any instrument ancillary or supplemental hereto;
- (c) the Subscription Receipt Agent shall not be bound to give notice to any person or persons of the execution hereof; and
- (d) the Subscription Receipt Agent shall not incur any liability or responsibility whatever or be in any way responsible for the consequence of any breach on the part of Calloway of any of the covenants herein contained or of any acts of any Trustees, officers, employees, agents or servants of Calloway.

9.07 Replacement of Subscription Receipt Agent; Successor by Merger

- (a) The Subscription Receipt Agent may resign its appointment and be discharged from all other duties and liabilities hereunder, subject to this Section 9.07, by giving to Calloway not less than thirty (30) days prior notice in writing or such shorter prior notice as Calloway may accept as sufficient. The Receiptholders by extraordinary resolution shall have power at any time to remove the existing Subscription Receipt Agent and to appoint a new subscription receipt agent. In the event of the Subscription Receipt Agent resigning or being removed as aforesaid or being dissolved, becoming bankrupt, going into liquidation or otherwise becoming incapable of acting hereunder, CIBC, on behalf of the Agents, shall forthwith appoint a new subscription receipt agent unless a new subscription receipt agent has already been appointed by the Receiptholders; failing such appointment by CIBC, on behalf of the Agents, the retiring Subscription Receipt Agent or any Receiptholder may apply to a justice of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice on such notice as such justice may direct, for the appointment of a new subscription receipt agent; but any new subscription receipt agent so appointed by CIBC, on behalf of the Agents, or by the Court shall be subject to removal as aforesaid by the Receiptholders. Any new subscription receipt agent appointed under any provision of this Section 9.07 shall be a corporation authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in the province of Ontario and, if required by the applicable legislation for any other provinces, in such other provinces. On any such appointment the new subscription receipt agent shall be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named herein as Subscription Receipt Agent hereunder. At the request of Calloway or the new Subscription Receipt Agent, the retiring Subscription Receipt Agent, upon payment of the amounts, if any, due to it pursuant to Section 5.03, shall duly assign, transfer and deliver to the new Subscription Receipt Agent all property and money held and all records kept by the retiring Subscription Receipt Agent hereunder or in connection herewith.
- (b) Upon the appointment of a successor subscription receipt agent, Calloway shall promptly notify the Receiptholders thereof in the manner provided for in Article 10 hereof.
- (c) Any corporation into or with which the Subscription Receipt Agent may be merged or consolidated or amalgamated, or any corporation resulting therefrom to which the Subscription Receipt Agent shall be a party, or any corporation succeeding to the corporate trust business of the Subscription Receipt Agent shall be the successor to the Subscription Receipt Agent hereunder without any further act on its part or any of the parties hereto, provided that such corporation would be eligible for appointment as a successor subscription receipt agent under Subsection 9.07(a).

- (d) Any Subscription Receipt Certificates certified but not delivered by a predecessor subscription receipt agent may be delivered by the successor subscription receipt agent in the name of the predecessor or successor subscription receipt agent.

9.08 Conflict of Interest

- (a) The Subscription Receipt Agent represents to Calloway and CIBC, on behalf of the Agents, that at the time of execution and delivery hereof no material conflict of interest exists between its role as a subscription receipt agent hereunder and its role in any other capacity and agrees that in the event of a material conflict of interest arising hereafter it will, within thirty (30) days after ascertaining that it has such material conflict of interest, either eliminate the same or assign its appointment as subscription receipt agent hereunder to a successor subscription receipt agent approved by Calloway and meeting the requirements set forth in Subsection 9.07(a). Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Subsection 9.08(a), if any such material conflict of interest exists or hereafter shall exist, the validity and enforceability of this Agreement and the Subscription Receipt Certificates shall not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason thereof.
- (b) Subject to Subsection 9.8(a), the Subscription Receipt Agent, in its personal or any other capacity, may buy, lend upon and deal in securities of Calloway and generally may contract and enter into financial transactions with Calloway or any affiliated entity of Calloway without being liable to account for any profit made thereby.

9.09 Acceptance of Appointment

The Subscription Receipt Agent hereby accepts the appointment as Subscription Receipt Agent in this Agreement and agrees to perform its duties hereunder upon the terms and conditions herein set forth.

9.10 Subscription Receipt Agent Not to be Appointed Receiver

The Subscription Receipt Agent and any person related to the Subscription Receipt Agent shall not be appointed a receiver, a receiver and manager or liquidator of all or any part of the assets or undertaking of Calloway.

Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent may deem and treat the registered owner of any Subscription Receipt Certificate or, in the case of a transferee who has surrendered a Subscription Receipt Certificate in accordance with and as contemplated in Sections 3.3 and 3.5, such transferee, as the absolute owner of the Subscription Receipt represented thereby for all purposes, and Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent shall not be affected by any notice or knowledge to the contrary except where Calloway or the Subscription Receipt Agent is required to take notice by statute or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. A Receiptholder shall be entitled to the rights evidenced by such Subscription Receipt Certificate free from all equities or rights of set off or counterclaim between Calloway and the original or any intermediate holder thereof and all persons may act accordingly and the receipt of any such Receiptholder for the Units which may be acquired pursuant thereto shall be a good discharge to Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent for the same and neither Calloway nor the Subscription Receipt Agent shall be bound to inquire into the title of any such holder except where Calloway or the Subscription Receipt Agent is required to take notice by statute or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

10.04 Evidence of Ownership

- (a) Upon receipt of a certificate of any bank, trust company or other depository satisfactory to the Subscription Receipt Agent stating that the Subscription Receipts specified therein have been deposited by a named person with such bank, trust company or other depository and will remain so deposited until the expiry of the period specified therein, Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent may treat the person so named as the owner, and such certificate as sufficient evidence of the ownership by such person of such Subscription Receipt during such period, for the purpose of any requisition, direction, consent, instrument or other document to be made, signed or given by the holder of the Subscription Receipt so deposited.
- (b) Calloway and the Subscription Receipt Agent may accept as sufficient evidence of the fact and date of the signing of any requisition, direction, consent, instrument or other document by any person (i) the signature of any officer of any bank, trust company, or other depository satisfactory to the Subscription Receipt Agent as witness of such execution, (ii) the certificate of any notary public or other officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds to be recorded at the place where such certificate is made that the person signing acknowledged to him

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the indemnities provided to the Subscription Receipt Agent by Calloway hereunder shall remain in full force and effect and survive the termination of this Agreement.

10.06 Provisions of Agreement and Subscription Receipts for the Sole Benefit of Parties and Receiptholders

Nothing in this Agreement or in the Subscription Receipt Certificates, expressed or implied, shall give or be construed to give to any person other than the parties hereto, the Receiptholders and the transferees of Subscription Receipts as contemplated in Sections 3.03 and 3.05, as the case may be, any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Agreement, or under any covenant or provision herein or therein contained, all such covenants and provisions being for the sole benefit of the parties hereto, the Receiptholders and such transferees.

The REIT shall, to the satisfaction of the Agents and their counsel, acting reasonably, promptly comply with all applicable filing and other requirements under Securities Laws as a result of such change. The REIT shall, in good faith, first discuss with RBC DS any change in circumstances (actual or proposed within the REIT's knowledge) that is of such a nature that there is reasonable doubt whether notice need be given to the Agents pursuant to this paragraph 3.6 and, in any event, prior to making any filing referred to in this paragraph 3.6. For greater certainty, it is understood and agreed that if the Agents determine, after consultation with the REIT, that a material change or change in a material fact has occurred that makes untrue or misleading any statement of a material fact contained in the Supplemented Prospectus, or any Amendment or Supplementary Material thereto, or that may result in a misrepresentation, the REIT will:

- 3.8 it will advise the Agents, promptly after receiving notice or obtaining knowledge, of:
 - 3.8.1 the issuance by any Securities Commission of any order suspending or preventing the use of the Supplemented Prospectus, any Amendment or any Supplementary Material;
 - 3.8.2 the suspension of the qualification of the Debentures for offering or sale in any of the Qualifying Jurisdictions;
 - 3.8.3 the institution, threatening or contemplation of any proceeding for any of those purposes; or
 - 3.8.4 any requests made by any Securities Commission for amending or supplementing the Supplemented Prospectus or for additional information and will use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any such order and, if any such order is issued, to obtain the withdrawal of the order promptly; and
- 3.9 it will use reasonable best efforts to promptly do, make, execute, deliver or cause to be done, made, executed or delivered, all such acts, documents and things as the Agents may reasonably require from time to time for the purpose of giving effect to the Material Documents and the transactions contemplated by the Supplemented Prospectus and take all such steps as may be reasonably within their power to implement to their full extent the provisions of the Material Documents and the transactions contemplated by the Supplemented Prospectus.

10.1 In addition to any other remedies that may be available to the Agents, the Agents shall be entitled, at the Agents' option, to terminate and cancel, without any liability on the Agents' part, the Agents' obligations under this Agreement if, prior to the Closing Time:

10.1.1 any inquiry, investigation or other proceeding is commenced or any order is issued under or pursuant to any statute of Canada or of any Qualifying Jurisdiction, or otherwise, or there is any change of law, or the interpretation or administration thereof, which in the opinion of the Agents, or either of them, operates to prevent or restrict the trading in the Units, the Debentures or any other securities of the REIT or the distribution of the Units, the Debentures or any other securities of the REIT, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;

10.1.2 there shall occur any material change or regulatory intervention, actual, anticipated or threatened, in the operating, financial or physical condition of the Business or any change in any material fact contained or referred to in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment thereto, or there shall exist any material fact which is, or may be, of such a nature as to render the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment thereto, untrue, false or misleading in a material respect or result in a misrepresentation (other than a change or fact related solely to the Agents), which in the reasonable opinion of the Agents would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price or value of the Units or the Debentures, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;

10.1.3 there should be announced, develop, occur or come into effect any occurrence of national or international consequence, or any action, law or regulation, inquiry, or any change in national or international financial, political or economic conditions, including, without limitation, any change in the state of the financial markets, or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, an act of terrorism) which, in the reasonable opinion of the Agents, seriously affects, or may seriously affect, the financial markets or the Business or the state of the financial markets is such that, in the reasonable opinion of the Agents, the Debentures cannot be profitably marketed, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;

- 10.1.4 there shall be an adverse change in the assigned ratings on the Debentures, or any other rated public securities,
- 10.1.5 an order shall have been made by any Securities Commission which restricts in any manner the distribution of the Units or the Debentures or trading in the Units or the Debentures which remains outstanding for a sufficient length of time such that, in the reasonable opinion of the Agents, such order has materially adversely affected or may materially adversely affect the ability of the Agents to offer or to continue to offer the Debentures for sale in the Qualifying Jurisdictions, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time; or
- 10.1.6 there shall have been, or have been announced by the appropriate governmental authorities, any change or any proposed change in the Income Tax Act (Canada), the regulations thereunder, current administrative decisions or practices or court decisions or any other applicable rules which, in any such case, in the opinion of the Agents, might reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Distributable Income of the REIT or on the tax consequences associated with the purchase, holding or resale of the Debentures or on any distribution that would be made by the REIT to the holders thereof.

If the Agents terminate their obligations hereunder pursuant to this Section 0, the REIT's liability hereunder to the Agents shall be limited to the REIT's obligations under Sections 8 and 9 hereof.

11. Reliance on RBC DS

All steps or other actions which must or may be taken by the Agents in connection with this Agreement shall be taken by RBC DS, with the exception of the matters contemplated by Sections 8, 0, and 12, on the Agents' behalf and the execution of this offer by the Agents shall constitute the authority of the REIT for accepting notification of any such steps or other actions from RBC DS.

12. Conditions

All of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement to be satisfied by the REIT on the one hand and the Agents on the other hand, prior to the Closing Time shall be construed as conditions, and any breach or failure by a party to comply with any of such terms and conditions shall entitle the other parties to terminate their obligations hereunder by written notice to that effect given prior to the Closing Time. It is understood and agreed that any party may waive in whole or in part, or extend the time for compliance with, any of such terms and conditions without prejudice to such party's rights in respect of any such terms and conditions or any other or subsequent breach or non-compliance; provided, however, that to be binding, any such waiver or extension must be in writing.

If a party elects to terminate its obligations hereunder the obligations of the other parties hereunder shall be limited to the indemnity referred to in Section 8 hereof and the payment of expenses referred to in Section 9 hereof.

13. Survival

All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT herein contained or contained in the Indenture shall survive the purchase by the Agents of the Debentures and shall continue in full force and effect for the period hereinafter described, regardless of any investigation which the Agents may carry out or which may be carried out on behalf of the Agents or otherwise and notwithstanding any subsequent disposition by the Agents of the Debentures. Such representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT shall survive for such maximum period of time as the Agents may be entitled to commence an action, or, if applicable, exercise a right of rescission, with respect to a misrepresentation contained in the Supplemented Prospectus or an Amendment or either of them, pursuant to Securities Laws.

Prospectus shall have been obtained from the applicable Securities Commission following the filing of the Base Prospectus;

- 2.3 the Underwriters will notify the REIT when, in their opinion, the distribution of the Purchased Units shall have ceased and provide a breakdown of the number of Purchased Units distributed in each Qualifying Jurisdiction where such breakdown is required for the purpose of calculating fees payable to a Securities Commission;
- 2.4 provided that they are otherwise satisfied, in their sole discretion, they will execute and deliver to the REIT the certificate required to be executed by the Underwriters under Securities Laws in connection with the Prospectus Supplement and any Amendment; and
- 2.5 the Underwriters agree not to distribute the Purchased Units in such manner as to require registration of the Purchased Units or the filing of a prospectus or any similar document under the laws of any jurisdiction outside the Qualifying Provinces. The Underwriters agree that they will not offer or sell any of the Purchased Units constituting a part of their allotment within the United States. Any agreements between the Underwriters and the members of any banking or selling group will contain similar restrictions to those contained in this paragraph 2.5.

3. Covenants of the REIT

The REIT covenants and agrees with the Underwriters that:

- 3.1 the Purchased Units will be duly and validly authorized and issued on the payment therefor, and will have the attributes set out in this Agreement, the Supplemented Prospectus, and any Amendment, subject only to those modifications or changes, if any, prior to the Closing Date as may be agreed to in writing by the REIT and the Underwriters;
- 3.2 it has filed the Base Prospectus in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions, omitting such information as is permitted to be omitted pursuant to Securities Laws;
- 3.3 it shall fulfil to the satisfaction of the Underwriters all legal requirements to be fulfilled by it to enable the Purchased Units to be offered for sale and sold to the public in Canada by or through the Selling Firms who comply with all Securities Laws in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions. In particular, the REIT will, within two business days following the execution of this Agreement, have prepared and filed with the Securities Commissions the Prospectus Supplement and other related documents (in the English and French languages, as appropriate) in respect of the Purchased Units and shall have taken all other steps and proceedings that may be necessary in order to qualify the Purchased Units for distribution in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions by or through the Underwriters and other investment dealers and brokers who comply with Securities Laws.

- 3.5 it shall allow and assist the Underwriters to participate fully in the preparation of the Supplemented Prospectus and any Amendment, and shall allow the Underwriters to conduct all "due diligence" investigations that the Underwriters may reasonably require to fulfil the Underwriters' obligations as underwriters and to enable the Underwriters to responsibly execute any certificate required to be executed by the Underwriters in such documentation;
- 3.6 it will comply with sections 114 and 115 of the Securities Act (Alberta) and with the other comparable provisions of the Securities Laws, if any, in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions and during the period from the date hereof to the completion of distribution of the Purchased Units, will promptly inform the Underwriters in writing of the full particulars of any material change (for greater certainty, material in the context of the Business), actual, anticipated or threatened, in the operating, financial or physical condition of the Business or of any change in any material fact contained or referred to in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment or Supplementary Material thereto, and of the existence of any material fact which is, or may be, of such a nature as to render the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment or Supplementary Material thereto, untrue, false or misleading in a material respect or result in a misrepresentation. The REIT shall, to the satisfaction of the Underwriters and their counsel, acting reasonably, promptly comply with all applicable filing and other requirements under Securities Laws as a result of such change. The REIT shall, in good faith, first discuss with CIBCWM any change in circumstances (actual or proposed within the REIT's knowledge) that is of such a nature that there is reasonable doubt whether notice need be given to the Underwriters pursuant to this paragraph 3.6 and, in any event, prior to making any filing referred to in this paragraph 3.6. For greater certainty, it is understood and agreed that if the Underwriters determine, after consultation with the REIT, that a material change or change in a material fact has occurred that makes untrue or misleading any statement of a material fact contained in the Supplemented Prospectus, or any Amendment or Supplementary Material thereto, or that may result in a misrepresentation, the REIT will:
- 3.6.1 prepare and file promptly at the request of the Underwriters any Amendment that in their opinion, acting reasonably, may be necessary or advisable; and

- 3.6.2.2 an originally signed copy of all documents relating to the proposed distribution of the Purchased Units and filed with the Amendment under Securities Laws; and
- 3.6.2.3 such other documents as the Underwriters shall reasonably require;
- 3.7 it will advise the Underwriters, promptly after receiving notice thereof, of the time when the Prospectus Supplement and any Amendment or Supplementary Material has been filed and receipts (or equivalent documents) have been obtained and will provide evidence satisfactory to the Underwriters of each filing and the issuance of receipts;

- 3.8 it will advise the Underwriters, promptly after receiving notice or obtaining knowledge, of:
- 3.8.1 the issuance by any Securities Commission of any order suspending or preventing the use of the Supplemented Prospectus, any Amendment or any Supplementary Material;
 - 3.8.2 the suspension of the qualification of the Purchased Units for offering or sale in any of the Qualifying Jurisdictions;
 - 3.8.3 the institution, threatening or contemplation of any proceeding for any of those purposes; or
 - 3.8.4 any requests made by any Securities Commission for amending or supplementing the Supplemented Prospectus or for additional information and will use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any such order and, if any such order is issued, to obtain the withdrawal of the order promptly; and
- 3.9 it will use reasonable best efforts to promptly do, make, execute, deliver or cause to be done, made, executed or delivered, all such acts, documents and things as the Underwriters may reasonably require from time to time for the purpose of giving effect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Supplemented Prospectus and take all such steps as may be reasonably within its power to implement to their full extent the provisions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Supplemented Prospectus.

 - 4.2.2 an opinion of the Auditors (or other accountants acceptable to the Underwriters, acting reasonably), dated the date of such document, and acceptable in form and substance to the Underwriters' counsel, that the Financial Information in such document in the French language is, in all material respects, a complete and proper translation of the Financial Information contained in such document in the English language and that such English language and French language versions are not susceptible to any materially different interpretation with respect to any matter contained therein;

- 4.3 at the time of the delivery to the Underwriters pursuant to this Section 4 of the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment and at the Closing Time, a comfort letter of the Auditors dated the date of the Prospectus Supplement or Amendment or the Closing Date, as the case may be, and addressed to the Underwriters and the trustees of the REIT, in form and substance satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, relating to the verification of the Financial Information and such other information as the Underwriters or their counsel shall reasonably request (including, without limitation, financial information, statistical and accounting data) in each case contained in the Supplemented Prospectus or Amendment, as the case may be, and matters involving changes or developments since the respective dates of which the Financial Information is given to a date not more than two Business Days prior to the date of such letter, which letter shall be in addition to the Auditors' report in the Supplemented Prospectus or Amendment and the comfort letter of the Auditors addressed, in the case of the Supplemented Prospectus, to the Securities Commissions; and

5. Representations and Warranties – Supplemented Prospectus

- 5.1 The delivery to the Underwriters of the documents referred to in paragraphs 4.1 and 4.4 hereof shall constitute the representation and warranty of the REIT to the Underwriters that: (i) each such document at the time of its respective delivery fully complied with the requirements of Securities Laws pursuant to which it was or is prepared, and, as applicable, filed and that all the information and statements contained therein (except information and statements relating solely to the Underwriters' Disclosure) are at the respective dates of delivery thereof, true and correct, contain no misrepresentation and constitute full, true and plain disclosure of all material facts relating to the REIT and the REIT Entities, taken together, and the Purchased Units as required by Securities Laws; (ii) with respect to purchasers of Purchased Units resident in the Province of Québec, such documents do not contain any misrepresentation within the meaning of the Securities Act (Québec) and the regulations respecting securities adopted pursuant thereto likely to affect the value or the market price of the Purchased Units; and (iii) no material fact or information has been omitted from such disclosure (except information and statements relating solely to the Underwriters' Disclosure) that is required to be stated in such disclosure or is necessary to make the statements or information contained in such disclosure not misleading in light of the circumstances under which they were made; and to offer the Purchased Units for sale in the Qualifying Jurisdictions, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time; or

10.1.6 there shall have been, or have been announced by the appropriate governmental authorities, any change or any proposed change in the Income Tax Act (Canada), the regulations thereunder, current administrative decisions or practices or court decisions or any other applicable rules which, in any such case, in the opinion of the Underwriters, might reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Distributable Income of the REIT or on the tax consequences associated with the purchase, holding or resale of the Purchased Units or on any distribution that would be made by the REIT to the holders thereof.

If the Underwriters terminate their obligations hereunder pursuant to this Section 12, the REIT's liability hereunder to the Underwriters shall be limited to the REIT's obligations under Sections 8 and 9 hereof.

11. Reliance on CIBCWM

12. Conditions

All of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement to be satisfied by the REIT on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand, prior to the Closing Time shall be construed as conditions, and any breach or failure by a party to comply with any of such terms and conditions shall entitle the other parties to terminate their obligations hereunder by written notice to that effect given prior to the Closing Time. It is understood and agreed that any party may waive in whole or in part, or extend the time for compliance with, any of such terms and conditions without prejudice to such party's rights in respect of any such terms and conditions or any other or subsequent breach or non-compliance; provided, however, that to be binding, any such waiver or extension must be in writing. If a party elects to terminate its obligations hereunder the obligations of the other parties hereunder shall be limited to the indemnity referred to in Section 8 hereof and the payment of expenses referred to in Section 9 hereof.

13. Obligation of Underwriters to Purchase

13.1 The obligation of the Underwriters to purchase the Purchased Units at the Closing Time shall be several and not joint and several and shall be limited to the percentage of the Purchased Units specified opposite the name of each such Underwriter as follows:

CIBCWM	23%
RBC Dominion Securities Inc.	20%
TD Securities Inc.	15%

Desjardins Securities Inc.	10%
National Bank Financial Inc.	10%
Scotia Capital Inc.	10%
BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc.	5%
Canaccord Capital Corporation	3.5%
HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc.	3.5%

- 13.2 Subject to paragraph 13.3, if one or more of the Underwriters (the "Refusing Underwriters") fails to purchase their percentage of the Purchased Units at the Closing Time, then the other Underwriters (the "Continuing Underwriters") shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase such Purchased Units on a pro rata basis (or on such other basis as they may agree). If the Continuing Underwriters do not purchase all the Purchased Units of the Refusing Underwriters, the REIT shall be entitled to terminate its obligations under this Agreement without further liability of the REIT to the Continuing Underwriters, on the one hand, or on the part of the Continuing Underwriters to the REIT, on the other hand, except in respect of any liability which may have arisen or may arise under Sections 8 and 9. Nothing in this Section shall relieve any Refusing Underwriter from liability to the REIT.
- 13.3 If one or more but not all of the Underwriters shall exercise their right of termination under Section 10, then the others shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase all of the percentage of the Purchased Units, which would otherwise have been purchased by such Underwriters which have so exercised their right of termination. If the amount of such Purchased Units, which the remaining Underwriters wish, but are not obliged, to purchase exceeds the amount of such Purchased Units, which remain available for purchase, such Purchased Units, shall be divided pro rata among the Underwriters desiring to purchase such Purchased Units, in proportion to the percentage of Purchased Units, which such Underwriters have agreed to purchase as set forth in paragraph 13.1. Nothing in this Section shall oblige the REIT to sell to the Underwriters less than all of the Purchased Units.

14. Concurrent Offerings

The REIT shall not issue or sell Units (or agree to do so or publicly announce any intention to do so), at any time prior to 90 days after the Closing Date, unless (i) the issue or sale or the proposed issue or sale is made pursuant to this Agreement; or (ii) the REIT shall have obtained the prior written consent of CIBCWM on behalf of the Underwriters, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

15. Survival

All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT contained herein shall survive the purchase by the Underwriters of the Purchased Units and shall continue in full force and effect for the period hereinafter described, regardless of any investigation which the Underwriters may carry out or which may be carried out on behalf of the Underwriters or otherwise and notwithstanding any subsequent disposition by the Underwriters of the Purchased Units. Such representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT shall survive for such maximum period of time as the Underwriters may be entitled to commence an action, or, if applicable, exercise a right of rescission, with respect to a misrepresentation contained in the Supplemented Prospectus or an Amendment or either of them, pursuant to Securities Laws.

Attention: Mr. Simon Nyilassy

Dear Sirs:

We understand that Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust (the “REIT”) desires to issue and sell 8,500,000 Units (the “Purchased Units”) as more particularly described below. We further understand that the REIT has filed a (final) base shelf short form prospectus (the “Base Prospectus”) dated September 14, 2005 relating to the issuance of debt and equity securities in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions (as defined below) and is prepared:

- (i) to authorize and issue the Purchased Units; and
- (ii) to prepare and file, without delay, a (final) prospectus supplement (the “Prospectus Supplement”) and all necessary related documents in order to qualify the Purchased Units for distribution in each of the Qualifying Jurisdictions.

Subject to the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement, CIBC World Markets Inc. (“CIBCWM”), RBC Dominion Securities Inc., TD Securities Inc., BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc., National Bank Financial Inc., Desjardins Securities Inc., Scotia Capital Inc., Canaccord Capital Corporation and HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc. (collectively, the “Underwriters”) hereby severally offer to purchase from the REIT and, by its acceptance of this Agreement, the REIT hereby agrees to sell to the Underwriters, at the Closing Time (as defined below), all but not less than all of the Purchased Units, in consideration of $226,100,000 (the “Purchase Price”). At the Underwriters’ Option, the REIT further agrees to sell, and the Underwriters agree to purchase, up to 900,000 additional Units on the same terms as set forth in this Agreement upon the Underwriters providing notice to the REIT not less than 48 hours prior to Closing (the “Underwriters’ Option”). The REIT also grants the Underwriters the option (the “Over-Allotment Option”), exercisable for a period of 30 days from the Closing Date, to purchase up to 940,000 additional Units on the same terms as set forth in this Agreement, to cover over-allotments, if any, and for market stabilization purposes. The Underwriters propose to distribute the Purchased Units in Canada pursuant to the Prospectus Supplement and in the United States pursuant to Rule 144A under the 1933 Act (as defined below), all in the manner contemplated by this Agreement.

In consideration of the Underwriters’ agreement to purchase the Purchased Units, and in consideration of the services to be rendered by the Underwriters in connection therewith, including assisting in preparing documentation relating to the Purchased Units and the Prospectus Supplement, distributing the Units to the public directly and through other investment dealers and brokers and performing administrative work in connection with the distribution of the Units, the REIT agrees to pay to the Underwriters, at the Closing Time, an underwriting fee equal to $1.064 for each Purchased Unit (representing a commission of 4%).

- 9.2.1.2 an opinion of the Underwriters' counsel, which may rely on the opinion of the REIT's counsel as to matters which specifically relate to the REIT or REIT Entities, dated the Closing Date, in form and substance satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably, with respect to those matters as the Underwriters may reasonably request relating to the distribution of the Purchased Units;
- 9.2.1.3 a certificate or certificates, dated the date of delivery and signed by the chief executive officer and/or the chief financial officer of the REIT, or such other officers of the REIT as may be acceptable to the Underwriters, addressed to the Underwriters and their counsel and counsel to the REIT, certifying on behalf of the REIT and without personal liability:
 - (i) that the REIT has complied with all terms and conditions of this Agreement to be complied with by the REIT at or prior to the Closing Time;

- (ii) that the representations and warranties of the REIT contained herein are true and correct as of the Closing Time as if such representations and warranties had been made at such time;
 - (iii) that no order, ruling or determination having the effect of ceasing or suspending trading in any securities of the REIT has been received by the REIT and no proceedings for such purpose are pending or, to the best of the knowledge, information and belief of the persons signing such certificate, are contemplated or threatened;
 - (iv) that since the date of the Supplemented Prospectus and any Amendments thereto there has been no material adverse change, financial or otherwise, to such date in the operating, financial or physical condition of the Business, or in any other current or intended business, affairs, operations, assets, liabilities (contingent or otherwise) or capital of the REIT, from that disclosed in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment (as they existed at the time of filing);
 - (v) that the REIT has satisfied certain factual requirements in connection with the qualification of the REIT as a "unit trust" and "mutual fund trust" for purposes of the Income Tax Act (Canada); and
 - (vi) as to such other matters of a factual nature as the Underwriters and the Underwriters' counsel may reasonably request;
- 9.2.1.4 the comfort letter from the Auditors required to be delivered at the Closing Time pursuant to paragraph 6.2;
- 9.2.1.5 certificates dated the Closing Date, signed by appropriate officers of the REIT addressed to the Underwriters and their counsel, with respect to the Declaration of Trust, all resolutions of the board of trustees of the REIT and other actions relating to this Agreement and to the, allotment, issue and sale of the Purchased Units, the incumbency and specimen signatures of signing officers and with respect to such other matters as the Underwriters may reasonably request; and
- 9.2.1.6 one or more definitive certificate representing the Purchased Units registered in the name or names designated by CIBCWM, against payment to the REIT, or as the REIT may direct, of the purchase price in respect of the Purchased Units;
- all in form and substance satisfactory to the Underwriters, acting reasonably;
- 9.2.2 the representations and warranties of the REIT contained herein being true and correct as of the Closing Time as if such representations and warranties had been made at such time;

- 9.2.3 the REIT having complied with all covenants contained herein and satisfied all terms and conditions contained herein to be complied with and satisfied by it at or prior to the Closing Time; and
- 9.2.4 the Underwriters not having previously terminated their obligations pursuant to Section 12 of this Agreement.
- 9.3 It shall be a condition precedent to the REIT's obligations to issue the Purchased Units that:
 - 9.3.1 the REIT shall have received funds from the Underwriters by wire transfer payable in Toronto representing the Purchase Price, in Canadian dollars, less an amount equal to the full amount of the underwriting fee for such Purchased Units;
 - 9.3.2 the Underwriters shall have complied with the covenants and satisfied all terms and conditions to be complied with and satisfied by them at or prior to the Closing Time; and
 - 9.3.3 no order shall have been made and no proceedings for such purpose being pending or threatened by any Securities Commission that restricts in any manner the distribution of the Purchased Units;
- 9.4 The Underwriters will provide a direction to CDS with respect to the crediting of the Purchased Units to the accounts of the participants of CDS as shall be designated by the Underwriters in writing in sufficient time prior to the Closing Date to permit such crediting.

10. Indemnity

- 10.1 The REIT shall protect and indemnify the Underwriters and the Underwriters' directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against all losses (other than losses of profit in connection with the distribution of the Purchased Units), claims, actions, causes of action, demands, costs, damages, expenses and liabilities caused by or arising directly or indirectly by reason of:
 - 10.1.1 any information or statement (except any information or statement relating to Underwriters' Disclosure) contained in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment or Supplementary Material, being or being alleged to be a misrepresentation or untrue, or any omission or alleged omission to state therein any fact or information (except facts or information relating solely to Underwriters' Disclosure) required to be stated therein or necessary to make any of the statements therein not misleading in light of the circumstances in which they were made;
 - 10.1.2 any order made or any inquiry, investigation or proceeding commenced or threatened by any Securities Commission or other authority, based upon any untrue statement, omission or misrepresentation or alleged untrue statement, omission or misrepresentation (except a statement, omission or misrepresentation relating solely to Underwriters' Disclosure) in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment (except any document or material delivered or filed solely by the Underwriters)

preventing or restricting the trading in or the sale or distribution of the Purchased Units, or any of them, or any other securities of the REIT in any of the Qualifying Jurisdictions; or

- 10.1.3 the REIT's non-compliance with any requirement of Securities Laws in connection with the transactions herein contemplated, including the REIT's non-compliance with the requirement to file any document under or in compliance with Securities Laws.
- 10.2 If any claim contemplated by this Section 10 shall be asserted against any of the Indemnified Parties, or if any potential claim contemplated by this Section 10 shall come to the knowledge of any of the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Party concerned shall notify the REIT as soon as possible of the nature of such claim (provided that any failure to so notify shall not, except to the extent of actual prejudice to the REIT therefrom, affect the REIT's liability under this Section 10), and the REIT shall, subject as hereinafter provided, be entitled (but not required) to assume the defence on behalf of the Indemnified Party of any suit brought to enforce such claim. Any such defence shall be through legal counsel acceptable to the Indemnified Party, acting reasonably, and no admission of liability shall be made by the REIT or the Indemnified Party without, in each case, the prior written consent of all the parties hereto, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. An Indemnified Party shall have the right to employ separate counsel in any such suit and participate in the defence thereof but the fees and expenses of such counsel shall be at the expense of the Indemnified Party unless: (i) the REIT fails to assume the defence of such suit on behalf of the Indemnified Party within five Business Days of receiving notice of such suit; (ii) the employment of such counsel has been authorized by the REIT; or (iii) the named parties to any such suit include both the Indemnified Party and the REIT, and the Indemnified Party shall have been advised by counsel that there may be one or more legal defences available to the Indemnified Party which are different from or in addition to those available to the REIT (in each of which cases the REIT shall not have the right to assume the defence of such suit on behalf of the Indemnified Party, and the REIT shall be liable to pay the reasonable fees and expenses of the counsel for the Indemnified Party). It is the intention of the REIT to constitute the Underwriters as trustees for the Underwriters' directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents of the covenants of the REIT under this Section 10 with respect to the Underwriters' directors, officers, shareholders, employees and agents and the Underwriters agree to accept such trust and to hold and enforce such covenants on behalf of such persons.
- 10.3 The REIT hereby waives its right to recover contribution from the Underwriters with respect to any liability of the REIT by reason of or arising out of any misrepresentation contained in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment (except facts or information relating solely to Underwriters' Disclosure).
- 10.4 If for any reason the indemnification provided for in paragraph 10.1 is unavailable, in whole or in part, to an Indemnified Party in respect of any losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses (or claims, actions, suits or proceedings in respect thereof) for which indemnity is provided in paragraph 10.1, and subject to the restrictions and limitations referred to therein, the REIT shall contribute to the amount paid or payable (or, if such indemnity is unavailable only in respect of a portion of the amount so paid or payable, such portion of the amount so paid or payable) by such Indemnified Party as a result of such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses (or claims, actions, suits or proceedings in respect thereof) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the REIT on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand from the sale of the Purchased Units; provided, however, that the Indemnified Parties shall not in any event be liable to contribute, in the aggregate, any amount in excess of the amount of the underwriting fee for the Purchased Units.

The relative benefits received by the REIT on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand shall be deemed to be in the proportion that the total proceeds received from the sale of the Purchased Units (net of the underwriting fee for the Purchased Units) is to the underwriting fee for the Purchased Units. The amount paid or payable by an Indemnified Party as a result of such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses (or claims, actions, suits or proceedings in respect thereof) referred to above shall be deemed to include any legal or other expenses reasonably incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, costs or expenses (or claims, actions, suits or proceedings in respect thereof), whether or not resulting in any such action, suit, proceeding or claim.

11. Expenses

Whether or not the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are completed, except as specifically provided below, all expenses of or incidental to the transactions set out in this Agreement shall be borne by the REIT including, without limitation, expenses payable in connection with the qualification of the Purchased Units for distribution to the public, the fees and expenses of the REIT's counsel and the fees and expenses of the Auditors and all costs incurred in connection with the preparation and printing of the Supplemented Prospectus and the certificates representing the Purchased Units. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Underwriters shall be responsible for the fees and expenses of the Underwriters' counsel and any out-of-pocket expenses of the Underwriters.

If the purchase and sale of the Purchased Units is not completed in accordance with the terms of this Agreement by reason of default or breach by the REIT, and the Underwriters have complied with their obligations under this Agreement, the REIT shall be obliged to assume and pay the fees and expenses of the Underwriters' counsel and the out-of-pocket expenses of the Underwriters.

12. Termination

12.1 In addition to any other remedies that may be available to the Underwriters, the Underwriters shall be entitled, at the Underwriters' option, to terminate and cancel, without any liability on the Underwriters' part, the Underwriters' obligations under this Agreement if, prior to the Closing Time:

12.1.1 any inquiry, investigation or other proceeding is commenced or any order is issued under or pursuant to any statute of Canada or of any Qualifying Jurisdiction, or otherwise, or there is any change of law, or the interpretation or administration thereof, which in the opinion of the Underwriters, or any of them, operates to prevent or restrict the trading in the Units, the Purchased Units or any other securities of the REIT or the distribution of the Purchased Units or any other securities of the REIT, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;

- 12.1.2 there shall occur any material change or regulatory intervention, actual, anticipated or threatened, in the operating, financial or physical condition of the Business or any change in any material fact contained or referred to in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment thereto, or there shall exist any material fact which is, or may be, of such a nature as to render the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment thereto, untrue, false or misleading in a material respect or result in a misrepresentation (other than a change or fact related solely to the Underwriters), which in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price or value of the Purchased Units, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;
- 12.1.3 there should be announced, develop, occur or come into effect any occurrence of national or international consequence, or any action, law or regulation, inquiry, or any change in national or international financial, political or economic conditions, including, without limitation, any change in the state of the financial markets, or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, an act of terrorism) which, in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters, seriously affects, or may seriously affect, the financial markets or the Business or the state of the financial markets is such that, in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters, the Purchased Units cannot be profitably marketed, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;
- 12.1.4 there shall be an adverse change in the assigned credit or stability of the REIT or any of its ratings of any public securities;
- 12.1.5 an order shall have been made by any Securities Commission which restricts in any manner the distribution of the Purchased Units or trading in the Units which remains outstanding for a sufficient length of time such that, in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters, such order has materially adversely affected or may materially adversely affect the ability of the Underwriters to offer or to continue to offer the Purchased Units for sale in the Qualifying Jurisdictions, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time; or
- 12.1.6 there shall have been, or have been announced by the appropriate governmental authorities, any change or any proposed change in the Income Tax Act (Canada), the regulations thereunder, current administrative decisions or practices or court decisions or any other applicable rules which, in any such case, in the opinion of the Underwriters, might reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Distributable Income of the REIT or on the tax consequences associated with the purchase, holding or resale of the Purchased Units or on any distribution that would be made by the REIT to the holders thereof.

If the Underwriters terminate their obligations hereunder pursuant to this Section 12, the REIT's liability hereunder to the Underwriters shall be limited to the REIT's obligations under Sections 10 and 11 hereof.

13. Reliance on CIBCWM

All steps or other actions which must or may be taken by the Underwriters in connection with this Agreement shall be taken by CIBCWM, with the exception of the matters contemplated by Sections 10, 12, and 14, on the Underwriters' behalf and the execution of this offer by the Underwriters shall constitute the authority of the REIT for accepting notification of any such steps or other actions from CIBCWM.

14. Conditions

All of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement to be satisfied by the REIT on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand, prior to the Closing Time shall be construed as conditions, and any breach or failure by a party to comply with any of such terms and conditions shall entitle the other parties to terminate their obligations hereunder by written notice to that effect given prior to the Closing Time. It is understood and agreed that any party may waive in whole or in part, or extend the time for compliance with, any of such terms and conditions without prejudice to such party's rights in respect of any such terms and conditions or any other or subsequent breach or non-compliance; provided, however, that to be binding, any such waiver or extension must be in writing. If a party elects to terminate its obligations hereunder the obligations of the other parties hereunder shall be limited to the indemnity referred to in Section 10 hereof and the payment of expenses referred to in Section 11 hereof.

15. Obligation of Underwriters to Purchase

15.1 The obligation of the Underwriters to purchase the Purchased Units at the Closing Time shall be several and not joint and several and shall be limited to the percentage of the Purchased Units specified opposite the name of each such Underwriter as follows:

CIBCWM	23%
RBC Dominion Securities Inc.	23%
TD Securities Inc.	12%
BMO Nesbitt Burns Inc.	10%
National Bank Financial Inc.	10%
Desjardins Securities Inc.	7.5%
Scotia Capital Inc.	7.5%
Canaccord Capital Corporation	3.5%
HSBC Securities (Canada) Inc.	3.5%

15.2 Subject to paragraph 15.3, if one or more of the Underwriters (the "Refusing Underwriters") fails to purchase their percentage of the Purchased Units at the Closing Time, then the other Underwriters (the "Continuing Underwriters") shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase such Purchased Units on a pro rata basis (or on such other basis as they may agree). If the Continuing Underwriters do not purchase all the Purchased Units of the

Refusing Underwriters, the REIT shall be entitled to terminate its obligations under this Agreement without further liability of the REIT to the Continuing Underwriters, on the one hand, or on the part of the Continuing Underwriters to the REIT, on the other hand, except in respect of any liability which may have arisen or may arise under Sections 10 and 11. Nothing in this Section shall relieve any Refusing Underwriter from liability to the REIT.

- 15.3 If one or more but not all of the Underwriters shall exercise their right of termination under Section 12, then the others shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase all of the percentage of the Purchased Units, which would otherwise have been purchased by such Underwriters which have so exercised their right of termination. If the amount of such Purchased Units, which the remaining Underwriters wish, but are not obliged, to purchase exceeds the amount of such Purchased Units, which remain available for purchase, such Purchased Units, shall be divided pro rata among the Underwriters desiring to purchase such Purchased Units, in proportion to the percentage of Purchased Units, which such Underwriters have agreed to purchase as set forth in paragraph 15.1. Nothing in this Section shall oblige the REIT to sell to the Underwriters less than all of the Purchased Units.

16. Concurrent Offerings

The REIT shall not issue or sell Units (or agree to do so or publicly announce any intention to do so), at any time prior to 90 days after the Closing Date, unless (i) the issue or sale or the proposed issue or sale is made pursuant to this Agreement; (ii) the issue or the proposed issue is made pursuant to the REIT's unit option plan, the REIT's deferred unit plan, the REIT's distribution reinvestment plan, a proposed property acquisition by the REIT or the REIT's outstanding convertible securities; or (iii) the REIT shall have obtained the prior written consent of CIBCWM on behalf of the Underwriters, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

17. Survival

All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT contained herein shall survive the purchase by the Underwriters of the Purchased Units and shall continue in full force and effect for the period hereinafter described, regardless of any investigation which the Underwriters may carry out or which may be carried out on behalf of the Underwriters or otherwise and notwithstanding any subsequent disposition by the Underwriters of the Purchased Units. Such representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT shall survive for such maximum period of time as the Underwriters may be entitled to commence an action, or, if applicable, exercise a right of rescission, with respect to a misrepresentation contained in the Supplemented Prospectus or an Amendment or either of them, pursuant to Securities Laws.

EXHIBIT I

“The Purchased Units have not been and will not be registered under the 1933 Act and, subject to certain exceptions, may not be offered or sold within the United States. Each Underwriter has agreed that it will not offer or sell these securities within the United States, except in accordance with Rule 144A under the 1933 Act. In addition, until 40 days after the commencement of the offering of units of the REIT pursuant to the Canadian prospectus, an offer or sale of the Purchased Units within the United States by any dealer (whether or not participating in the offering) may violate the registration requirements of the 1933 Act if such offer or sale is made otherwise than in accordance with Rule 144A.”

NOTICE TO INVESTORS

Each U.S. purchaser hereof will, by its purchase of such Purchased Units, be deemed to have represented, warranted and agreed for the benefit of the REIT, the Underwriters and the U.S. Affiliates as follows:

- (i) it is aware that the Purchased Units have not been and will not be registered under the 1933 Act and that the offer and sale of Purchased Units to it is being made in reliance on Rule 144A;
- (ii) it is a Qualified Institutional Buyer and is acquiring the Purchased Units for its own account or for the account of a Qualified Institutional Buyer with respect to which it exercises sole investment discretion and not with a view to any resale, distribution or other disposition of the Purchased Units in violation of United States federal or state securities laws;
- (iii) it acknowledges that it has not purchased the Purchased Units as a result of any general solicitation or general advertising, including but not limited to advertisements, articles, notices or other communications published in any newspaper, magazine or similar media, or broadcast over radio or television, or any seminar or meeting whose attendees have been invited by general solicitation or general advertising;
- (iv) it understands that, if it decides to offer, sell or otherwise transfer such Purchased Units, such Purchased Units may be offered, sold or otherwise transferred only (A) to the REIT, (B) outside the United States in accordance with Rule 904 of Regulation S under the 1933 Act, or (C) within the United States in accordance with (x) Rule 144A to a person whom the seller reasonably believes is a Qualified Institutional Buyer that is purchasing for its own account or for the account of a Qualified Institutional Buyer to whom notice is given that the offer, sale or transfer is being made in reliance on Rule 144A, or (y) the exemption from registration under the 1933 Act provided by Rule 144, if available;
- (v) it understands and acknowledges that upon the original issuance thereof, and until such time as the same is no longer required under applicable requirements of the 1933 Act or applicable state securities laws, certificates representing the Purchased Units, and all certificates issued in exchange thereof or in substitution thereof, shall bear the following legend:

THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY HAVE NOT BEEN REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE "SECURITIES ACT"). THE HOLDER HEREOF, BY PURCHASING SUCH SECURITIES, AGREES FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE TRUST THAT SUCH SECURITIES MAY BE OFFERED, SOLD OR OTHERWISE TRANSFERRED ONLY (A) TO THE TRUST, (B) OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES IN ACCORDANCE WITH RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, OR (C) WITHIN THE UNITED STATES IN ACCORDANCE WITH (1) RULE 144A UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR (2) RULE 144 UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT, IF AVAILABLE AND IN COMPLIANCE WITH ANY APPLICABLE STATE LAWS. DELIVERY OF THIS CERTIFICATE MAY NOT CONSTITUTE "GOOD DELIVERY" IN SETTLEMENT OF TRANSACTIONS ON STOCK EXCHANGES IN CANADA. PROVIDED THAT THE TRUST IS A "FOREIGN ISSUER" WITHIN THE MEANING OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT AT THE TIME OF SALE, A NEW CERTIFICATE, BEARING NO LEGEND, DELIVERY OF WHICH WILL CONSTITUTE "GOOD DELIVERY" MAY BE OBTAINED FROM CIBC MELLON TRUST COMPANY UPON DELIVERY OF THIS CERTIFICATE AND A DULY EXECUTED DECLARATION, IN A FORM SATISFACTORY TO CIBC MELLON TRUST COMPANY AND THE TRUST, TO THE EFFECT THAT THE SALE OF THE SECURITIES REPRESENTED HEREBY IS BEING MADE IN COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 904 OF REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT. CIBC MELLON TRUST COMPANY MAY ALSO REQUIRE AN OPINION OF COUNSEL IN CONNECTION WITH ANY OFFER, SALE OR TRANSFER OF THE SECURITIES BY THE HOLDER HEREOF; provided that, if Purchased Units are being sold under clause (iv)(B) above, and provided that the REIT is a "foreign issuer" within the meaning of Regulation S at the time of sale the legend may be removed by providing a declaration to Computershare Investor Services Inc., as registrar and transfer agent for the Purchased Units, to the following effect (or as the REIT may from time to time prescribe):

The undersigned (A) acknowledges that the sale of the securities of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust, to which this declaration relates is being made in reliance on Rule 904 of Regulation S under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "1933 Act") and (B) certifies that (1) it is not an "affiliate" (as defined in Rule 405 under the 1933 Act) of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust, (2) the offer of such securities was not made to a person in the United States and either (a) at the time the buy order was originated, the buyer was outside the United States, or the seller and any person acting on its behalf reasonably believe that the buyer was outside the United States, or (b) the transaction was executed on or through the facilities of the Toronto Stock Exchange and neither the seller nor any person acting on its behalf knows that the transaction has been prearranged with a buyer in the United States; (3) neither the seller nor any person acting on its behalf has engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts in the United States in connection with the offer and sale of such securities; (4) the sale is bona fide and not for the purpose of “washing off” the resale restrictions imposed because the securities are “restricted securities” (as such term is defined in Rule 144(a)(3) under the 1933 Act); (5) the seller does not intend to replace the securities sold in reliance on Rule 904 of the 1933 Act with fungible unrestricted securities; and (6) the contemplated sale is not a transaction, or part of a series of transactions which, although in technical compliance with Regulation S of the 1933 Act, is part of a plan or scheme to evade the registration provisions of the 1933 Act. Terms used herein have the meanings given to them by Regulation S of the 1933 Act.

and, if required by the registrar and transfer agent, an opinion of counsel of recognized standing reasonably satisfactory to the registrar and transfer agent, that such legend is no longer required under applicable requirements of the 1933 Act; and provided, further, that, if any such Purchased Units are being sold under clause (iv)(C)(y) above, the legend may be removed by delivery to Computershare Investor Services Inc. of an opinion of counsel, of recognized standing reasonably satisfactory to the REIT, that such legend is no longer required under applicable requirements of the 1933 Act or state securities laws;

- (vi) it understands and acknowledges that the REIT (i) is not obligated to remain a “foreign issuer” within the meaning of Regulation S, (ii) may not, at the time the Purchased Units are resold by it or at any other time, be a “foreign issuer”, and (iii) may engage in one or more transactions that could cause the REIT not to be a “foreign issuer”; and
- (vii) it consents to the REIT making a notation on its records or giving instructions to any transfer agent of the Purchased Units in order to implement the restrictions on transfer set forth and described herein.”

3. Covenants of the REIT

The REIT covenants and agrees with the Underwriters that:

 - 3.6.2.3 such other documents as the Underwriters shall reasonably require;
- 3.7 it will advise the Underwriters, promptly after receiving notice thereof, of the time when the Prospectus Supplement and any Amendment or Supplementary Material has been filed and receipts (or equivalent documents) have been obtained and will provide evidence satisfactory to the Underwriters of each filing and the issuance of receipts;
- 3.8 it will advise the Underwriters, promptly after receiving notice or obtaining knowledge, of:
 - 3.8.1 the issuance by any Securities Commission of any order suspending or preventing the use of the Supplemented Prospectus, any Amendment or any Supplementary Material;
 - 3.8.2 the suspension of the qualification of the Debentures for offering or sale in any of the Qualifying Jurisdictions;

- 3.8.3 the institution, threatening or contemplation of any proceeding for any of those purposes; or
- 3.8.4 any requests made by any Securities Commission for amending or supplementing the Supplemented Prospectus or for additional information and will use its best efforts to prevent the issuance of any such order and, if any such order is issued, to obtain the withdrawal of the order promptly; and
- 3.9 it will use reasonable best efforts to promptly do, make, execute, deliver or cause to be done, made, executed or delivered, all such acts, documents and things as the Underwriters may reasonably require from time to time for the purpose of giving effect to the Material Documents and the transactions contemplated by the Supplemented Prospectus and take all such steps as may be reasonably within its power to implement to their full extent the provisions of the Material Documents and the transactions contemplated by the Supplemented Prospectus.

10.1 In addition to any other remedies that may be available to the Underwriters, the Underwriters shall be entitled, at the Underwriters' option, to terminate and cancel, without any liability on the Underwriters' part, the Underwriters' obligations under this Agreement if, prior to the Closing Time:

10.1.2 there shall occur any material change or regulatory intervention, actual, anticipated or threatened, in the operating, financial or physical condition of the Business or any change in any material fact contained or referred to in the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment thereto, or there shall exist any material fact which is, or may be, of such a nature as to render the Supplemented Prospectus or any Amendment thereto, untrue, false or misleading in a material respect or result in a misrepresentation (other than a change of fact related solely to the Underwriters), which in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the market price or value of the Units or the Debentures, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;

including, without limitation, any change in the state of the financial markets, or other occurrence of any nature whatsoever (including, without limitation, an act of terrorism) which, in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters, seriously affects, or may seriously affect, the financial markets or the Business or the state of the financial markets is such that, in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters, the Debentures cannot be profitably marketed, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time;

10.1.4 there shall be an adverse change in the assigned credit or stability of the REIT or any of its ratings on the Debentures or any other rated public securities,

10.1.5 an order shall have been made by any Securities Commission which restricts in any manner the distribution of the Units or the Debentures or trading in the Units or the Debentures which remains outstanding for a sufficient length of time such that, in the reasonable opinion of the Underwriters, such order has materially adversely affected or may materially adversely affect the ability of the Underwriters to offer or to continue to offer the Debentures for sale in the Qualifying Jurisdictions, by giving the REIT written notice to that effect not later than the Closing Time; or

10.1.6 there shall have been, or have been announced by the appropriate governmental authorities, any change or any proposed change in the Income Tax Act (Canada), the regulations thereunder, current administrative decisions or practices or court decisions or any other applicable rules which, in any such case, in the opinion of the Underwriters, might reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the Distributable Income of the REIT or on the tax consequences associated with the purchase, holding or resale of the Debentures or on any distribution that would be made by the REIT to the holders thereof.

If the Underwriters terminate their obligations hereunder pursuant to this Section 10, the REIT's liability hereunder to the Underwriters shall be limited to the REIT's obligations under Sections 8 and 9 hereof.

11. Reliance on RBC DS

All steps or other actions which must or may be taken by the Underwriters in connection with this Agreement shall be taken by RBC DS, with the exception of the matters contemplated by Sections 8, 10, and 12, on the Underwriters' behalf and the execution of this offer by the Underwriters shall constitute the authority of the REIT for accepting notification of any such steps or other actions from RBC DS.

12. Conditions

All of the terms and conditions contained in this Agreement to be satisfied by the REIT on the one hand and the Underwriters on the other hand, prior to the Closing Time shall be construed as conditions, and any breach or failure by a party to comply with any of such terms and conditions shall entitle the other parties to terminate their obligations hereunder by written notice to that effect given prior to the Closing Time. It is understood and agreed that any party may waive in whole or in part, or extend the time for compliance with, any of such terms and conditions without prejudice to such party's rights in respect of any such terms and conditions or any other or subsequent breach or non-compliance; provided, however, that to be binding, any such waiver or extension must be in writing. If a party elects to terminate its obligations hereunder the obligations of the other parties hereunder shall be limited to the indemnity referred to in Section 8 hereof and the payment of expenses referred to in Section 9 hereof.

13.2 Subject to paragraph 13.3, if one or more of the Underwriters (the "Refusing Underwriters") fails to purchase their percentage of the Debentures at the Closing Time, then the other Underwriters (the "Continuing Underwriters") shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase such Debentures on a pro rata basis (or on such other basis as they may agree). If the Continuing Underwriters do not purchase all the Debentures of the Refusing Underwriters, the REIT shall be entitled to terminate its obligations under this Agreement without further liability of the REIT to the Continuing Underwriters, on the one hand, or on the part of the Continuing Underwriters to the REIT, on the other hand, except in respect of any liability which may have arisen or may arise under Sections 8 and 9. Nothing in this Section shall relieve any Refusing Underwriter from liability to the REIT.

13.3 If one or more but not all of the Underwriters shall exercise their right of termination under Section 10, then the others shall have the right, but shall not be obligated, to purchase all of the percentage of the Debentures, which would otherwise have been purchased by such Underwriters which have so exercised their right of termination. If the amount of such Debentures, which the remaining Underwriters wish, but are not obliged, to purchase exceeds the amount of such Debentures, which remain available for purchase, such Debentures, shall be divided pro rata among the Underwriters desiring to purchase such Debentures, in proportion to the percentage of Debentures, which such Underwriters have agreed to purchase as set forth in paragraph 13.1. Nothing in this Section shall oblige the REIT to sell to the Underwriters less than all of the Debentures.

14. Concurrent Offerings

The REIT shall not issue or sell Debentures or any other senior unsecured debentures of the REIT (or agree to do so or publicly announce any intention to do so), at any time prior to 60 days after the Closing Date, unless (i) the issue or sale or the proposed issue or sale is made pursuant to this Agreement; or (ii) the REIT shall have obtained the prior written consent of RBC DS on behalf of the Underwriters, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that if such consent is provided the REIT shall use RBC DS as its lead underwriter for the purpose of such offering.

15. Survival

All representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT herein contained or contained in the Indenture shall survive the purchase by the Underwriters of the Debentures and shall continue in full force and effect for the period hereinafter described, regardless of any investigation which the Underwriters may carry out or which may be carried out on behalf of the Underwriters or otherwise and notwithstanding any subsequent disposition by the Underwriters of the Debentures. Such representations, warranties, covenants and agreements of the REIT shall survive for such maximum period of time as the Underwriters may be entitled to commence an action, or, if applicable, exercise a right of rescission, with respect to a misrepresentation contained in the Supplemented Prospectus or an Amendment or either of them, pursuant to Securities Laws.

Calloway funded the cash component of the acquisition, in part, by borrowing approximately $36.1 million secured by fixed rate mortgage financing on three of the properties at a weighted average interest rate of 5.8% and an average term of 12.6 years. The remaining cash component was funded from the proceeds of the private placement of units of Calloway ("Units") closed by Calloway on November 18, 2004.

 5. Read the notes to the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements and found them to be consistent with the basis described to us for the determination of the pro forma adjustments.

A pro forma financial statement is based on management assumptions and adjustments which are inherently subjective. The foregoing procedures are substantially less than either an audit or a review, the objective of which is the expression of assurance with respect to management's assumptions, the pro forma adjustments, and the application of the adjustments to the historical financial information. Accordingly, we express no such assurance. The foregoing procedures would not necessarily reveal matters of significance to the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements, and we therefore make no representation about the sufficiency of the procedures for the purposes of a reader of such statements.

For the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2004 and for the Year Ended December 31, 2003
(unaudited)
(In thousands of dollars except per unit amounts)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway") is an unincorporated closed-end real estate investment trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta, created under a Declaration of Trust dated December 4, 2001, subsequently amended and restated on October 24, 2002, October 31, 2003 and January 16, 2004.

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements ("pro forma statements") have been prepared by Calloway management for inclusion in the business acquisition report ("BAR") of Calloway relating to the acquisition of six shopping centres (the "Phase I Centres") from Wal-Mart-FirstPro Realty Partnership (the "Partnership") on November 30, 2004.

During 2004, Calloway also completed three other significant acquisitions as follows:

- On February 16, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres") from the Partnership.
- On May 4, 2004, the acquisition of 50% and 49% undivided interests in two shopping centres ("The Assigned Centres") pursuant to an assignment of purchase agreement between the FirstPro Shopping Centres group of companies ("FirstPro") and the previous owner.
- On May 14, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres II") from the partnership.

These pro forma statements have been prepared from the following financial statements:

Calloway - unaudited consolidated financial statements as at September 30, 2004 and for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2004.
- audited consolidated financial statements as at December 31, 2003 and for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Phase I Centres
- unaudited schedules of combined net operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 included in the BAR.
- audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2003 included in the BAR.

The Centres, The Assigned Centres, The Centres II
- audited schedules of combined net operations or audited combined statement of net operations for the year ended December 31, 2003 included in Calloway's April 30, 2004 prospectus.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet gives effect to the acquisition of the Phase I Centres as if it had occurred on September 30, 2004. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 and for the year ended December 31, 2003 give effect to the acquisition of The Centres, The Assigned Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres (collectively, the "Collective Centres") as if they had occurred on January 1, 2003. Calloway's September 30, 2004 consolidated financial statements contain the actual operations of The Centres, The Assigned Centres and The Centres II from the date of the respective acquisition by Calloway in 2004 to September 30, 2004. The pro forma consolidated statement of net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 contains adjustments outlined in Note 4 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for The Centres, The Assigned Centres and The Centres II for the period from January 1, 2004 to the respective dates of acquisition by Calloway in 2004.

The pro forma statements are not necessarily indicative of the results that would have actually occurred, had the transactions reflected therein been in effect on the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of future operating results or the financial position of Calloway.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies used in the preparation of the pro forma statements are in accordance with those disclosed in Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003, and Calloway's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the three and nine month periods ended September 30, 2004. These pro forma statements do not include all of the information and disclosure required by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), and therefore should be read in conjunction with the December 31, 2003 and September 30, 2004 consolidated financial statements of Calloway.

Effective January 1, 2004 Calloway adopted the straight-line method of rental revenue recognition and the straight-line method of amortization of buildings. These changes in accounting policies were applied prospectively. Consequently, in applying the pro forma adjustments to the Collective Centres, the pro forma consolidated statement of net income for the year ended December 31, 2003 has not been adjusted to provide for the recognition of rental revenue on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective leases and amortization of buildings has been adjusted using the sinking fund method rather than the straight-line method. Had the straight-line method of rental revenue recognition and the straight-line method of amortization of buildings been applied to the pro forma consolidated statement of net income for the year ended December 31, 2003, rentals from income properties would have increased by $1,688, amortization of income properties – tangible components would have increased by $6,235 and net income would have decreased by $4,547. The pro forma consolidated statement of net income for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 has been adjusted to provide for the recognition of rental revenue on a straight-line basis and the amortization of buildings using the straight-line method.

3. PRO FORMA BALANCE SHEET ADJUSTMENTS AND ASSUMPTIONS

(a) Acquisition of the Phase I Centres

On November 30, 2004, Calloway completed the acquisition of six shopping centres and connected undeveloped lands with future development potential (the "Phase I Centres Undeveloped Lands") from the Partnership. The purchase price consisted of $64,615 for the Phase I Centres, $5,738 for the Phase I Centres Undeveloped Lands and $1,167 for land transfer taxes and other transaction costs for an aggregate purchase price of $71,520 which was satisfied as follows:

- By a non-interest bearing vendor take-back mortgage for the amount of the purchase price for the Phase I Centres Undeveloped Lands	$	5,738
- By retaining holdbacks and assuming accounts payable		719
- By cash payment
- From the proceeds of new mortgage financing		35,945
- From the net proceeds of the issuance of trust units		29,118

3. PRO FORMA BALANCE SHEET ADJUSTMENTS AND ASSUMPTIONS (CONTINUED)

The Phase I Centres Undeveloped Lands and other undeveloped lands that Calloway purchased in connection with the acquisitions of The Centres, The Assigned Centres and The Centres II will be developed by Calloway under the terms of development agreements with FirstPro. It is assumed for the purpose of these pro forma statements that these undeveloped lands remain undeveloped and that no material development costs and no earnouts under the terms of these development agreements will be incurred during the nine months ended September 30, 2004 or the year ended December 31, 2003.

(b) Mortgage financing

In conjunction with the acquisition of the Phase I Centres, Calloway arranged for new mortgages on three of the shopping centres in the amount of $36,100 at a weighted average interest rate of 5.8%. The net proceeds to Calloway were $35,945 after deducting financing fees and other costs related to the mortgage financing.

(c) Issuance of trust units

On November 18, 2004, Calloway closed a private placement (the "Private Placement") of its trust units. Calloway issued 2,320,000 trust units at $17.25 per unit, for net proceeds of $38,835 (after deducting underwriters' fees and issue costs of $1,185). Net proceeds of $29,118 were used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the purchase price of the Phase I Centres and $9,717 was used for working capital.

(d) Summary of the acquisition of the Phase I Centres

A summary of the assets acquired, using the purchase method of accounting based on preliminary allocations, and liabilities assumed or incurred resulting from the acquisition of the Phase I Centres and the Private Placement is as follows:

Consideration paid for the net assets acquired was obtained from the net proceeds of the Private Placement.

4. PRO FORMA STATEMENT OF INCOME ADJUSTMENTS

(a) Revenues and property operating costs

- (i) Rentals from income properties and property operating costs have been increased to provide for rentals from income properties and property operating costs for The Centres, The Assigned Centres and The Centres II for the period from January 1, 2004 to the respective dates of acquisition by Calloway in 2004.
- (ii) Interest income has been increased to provide for interest on a 9% mezzanine loan advanced by Calloway to FirstPro in connection with the acquisition of The Assigned Centres.

(b) Interest expense

- (i) Interest expense has been increased to provide for interest on the mortgage financing assumed or put in place on the Collective Centres.
- (ii) Interest expense has been increased to provide for interest and accretion on the convertible debentures that were issued in connection with the acquisition of The Assigned Centres and The Centres II.

(c) Amortization of income properties

- (i) Amortization of income properties has been increased to provide for amortization of the tangible components and the intangible components of the Collective Centres' purchase price.

(d) Amortization of deferred expenses

- (i) Amortization of deferred leasing costs has been decreased to eliminate the actual historical amortization of deferred expenses on the Collective Centres.
- (ii) Amortization of deferred financing costs has been increased to provide for amortization of deferred financing fees incurred on the mortgage financing and the convertible debenture financing of the Collective Centres.

(e) General and administrative

No adjustments have been made to reflect probable increased general and administrative expenses of Calloway resulting from the increased property portfolio.

5. NET INCOME PER UNIT

The following table presents the calculation of pro forma basic and diluted net income per unit before discontinued operations:

Numerator:
Income before discontinued operations	$ 10,128	$ 11,462
Denominator:
Weighted average number of units	24,411,767	6,933,559
Adjustment for units issued in connection with the acquisitions of The Centres, The Centres II, and Phase I Centres, on the basis that the units were issued at the beginning of the periods	7,434,658	19,968,182
Denominator for basic net income per unit	31,846,425	26,901,741
Effect of dilutive securities
Employee stock options & warrants	338,706	10,626
Denominator for diluted net income per unit	32,185,131	26,912,367
Basic net income per unit
Income before discontinued operations	0.32	0.43
Discontinued operations	0.05	-
Net income	0.37	0.43
Diluted earnings per unit
Income before discontinued operations	0.31	0.43
Discontinued operations	0.04	-
Net income	0.35	0.43

The convertible debentures were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per unit because the convertible debentures conversion price was greater than the average price of Calloway's units and therefore the effect would be anti-dilutive.

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Calloway acquired The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres from the Partnership. FirstPro, through an affiliate, holds a 40% interest in the Partnership. A nominee of FirstPro owns or controls directly and indirectly approximately 17% of the outstanding units of Calloway. Also, two officers of FirstPro are members of the Board of Trustees of Calloway.

In conjunction with the acquisition of The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres, Calloway entered into certain temporary head leases with FirstPro relating to specific tenants who had entered into lease agreements, but whose space was not yet available for occupancy.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Partners of the Wal-Mart-First Pro Realty Partnership

We have audited the schedules of combined net operations, as defined in note 2(a) of Phase I Centres, for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002. This financial information is the responsibility of Phase I Centres' management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial information based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial information is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial information. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial information.

In our opinion, these schedules of combined net operations present fairly, in all material respects, the results of the combined net operations of Phase I Centres for the years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

PHASE I CENTRES

Notes to schedules of combined net operations

Nine months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 (unaudited)
and years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

1. Basis of presentation:

These schedules of combined net operations (the "schedules") are financial schedules prepared for the Business Acquisition Report to be filed by Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway"), for the acquisition of six shopping centres from Wal-Mart-First Pro Realty Partnership (the "Partnership").

These schedules combine the net operations, as defined in note 2(a), of six shopping centres, listed below, that Calloway purchased from the Partnership, excluding Wal-Mart stores in Burlington North Centre, Pembroke Centre and Winnipeg Central Centre, which Calloway did not acquire ("Phase I Centres"). Phase I Centres is not a legal entity and the information used to prepare these schedules has been derived from records specific to the properties to be sold to Calloway. These schedules may not necessarily reflect the net operations in future periods, nor do they necessarily reflect the net operations that would have been realized had Phase I Centres been a stand-alone entity during the years presented.

This information is provided to assist the reader in determining the relative impact of each property on the financial results for the years presented. The net leased and occupied areas increased period to period as construction was completed on units and tenants occupied said units.

	Net leased and occupied area (sq. ft.)
	September 30, 2004	September 30, 2003	December 31, 2003	December 31, 2002

and years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

2. Significant accounting policies:

(a) General:

These schedules present rental revenue, property operating costs, amortization of deferred expenses of the combined net operations prior to amortization of income properties, general and administrative expenses, capital taxes, interest expense and income taxes. Additionally, all costs and revenue associated with the undeveloped land and lands under development have been excluded. These schedules have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Rental revenue from income properties includes base and percentage rent, operating cost recoveries, parking and other incidental tenant charges.

Property operating costs include property taxes, utilities, insurance, repairs and maintenance, property management fees and other expenses directly related to the operation of income properties.

(b) Use of estimates:

The preparation of these schedules requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

(c) Revenue recognition:

Rental revenue from income properties is recognized when tenants of each unit of these multi-phase developments take occupancy. Rentals from income properties are recognized as revenue over the term of the related lease agreements. All rent steps in lease agreements are accounted for on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective leases. Recoveries from tenants for property taxes, utilities, insurance and other operating costs are recognized as revenue in the year the applicable costs are incurred.

(d) Deferred expenses:

Deferred tenant inducements and leasing expenses are amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related lease agreements.

3. Related party transactions:

First Professional Development Group II Inc. is related to one of the partners of the Partnership. This company acted as property manager to Phase I Centres. Property operating costs include management fees paid to this company for property management services which were recorded at amounts specified in the management agreement. In addition, this company earned fees for leasing which were recorded at the exchange amount and amortized over the lease term.

	September 30,		December 31,
	2004	2003	2003	2002
Management fees	$ 96,686	$ 73,031	$ 96,838	$ 72,774
Leasing fees	144,640	27,856	53,050	14,678

Additionally, First Professional Development Group II Inc. also earns fees from the Partnership for acting as the development manager of Phase I Centres.

4. Economic dependence:

Rental revenue and recoveries derived from one retailer, who is related to one of the partners of the Partnership, represent approximately the following percentages of total rental revenue:

	September 30,		December 31,
	2004	2003	2003	2002
Revenue from retailer	62%	82%	81%	92%

5. Land rent:

One of the income properties leases land adjacent to the land on which the property sits. The lease has a term of three years commencing May 1, 2000 with seven one-year automatic renewals subject to the tenant not defaulting under the lease and subject to certain landlord termination rights. The lease calls for annual payments of $14,063 growing annually by percentage increase of CPI.

Nine months ended September 30, 2004 and 2003 (unaudited)
and years ended December 31, 2003 and 2002

6. Subsequent events:

- (a) The Partnership entered into an agreement to sell Phase 1 Centres to Calloway for approximately $70.3 million. The sale price was satisfied by a vendor take-back mortgage of $5.7 million and cash consideration for the balance on November 30, 2004.

Currently, an affiliate of a partner of the Partnership owns approximately 17% of the outstanding units of Calloway.

- (b) A tenant who took occupancy in March 2004 in one of the properties has filed for Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act protection, this tenant occupies approximately 10,700 square feet and pays annualized minimum rent of approximately $161,000. The monitor has delivered notice of termination of this lease effective February 2, 2005.

2.2 Date of Acquisition

March 10, 2005

2.3 Consideration

The total consideration paid for the Phase II Centres and the related undeveloped lands was approximately $230 million which was satisfied:

- (a) by way of a vendor take back mortgage to the Vendors in the amount of approximately $6 million, which is interest free and relates to the undeveloped lands; and
- (b) by the payment of the balance in cash.

Calloway funded the cash component of the acquisition, in part, by borrowing approximately $155.2 million secured by fixed rate mortgage financing on seven of the properties at a weighted average interest rate of 5.64% and an average term of 15.3 years. The remaining cash component was funded from the proceeds of the private placement of Subscription Receipts of Calloway closed by Calloway on February 24, 2005. The Subscription Receipts were convertible into 3,101,000 Units of Calloway concurrent with the closing of the transaction.

2.4 Effect on Financial Position

Except as discussed below, there are no plans or proposals for material changes in Calloway's business affairs or the affairs of the acquired properties which may have a significant effect on the results of operations and financial position of Calloway. Calloway has entered into letters of intent to acquire interests in an additional 36 centres and 10 parcels of vacant land from Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. ("Wal-Mart") and the FirstPro Group of Companies ("FirstPro") for approximately $1.207 billion. This acquisition will materially increase the size of Calloway.

2.5 Prior Valuations

To the knowledge of Calloway and except as discussed below, there has been no valuation opinion obtained within the last 12 months by the previous owners of the acquired properties or by Calloway required by securities legislation or a Canadian exchange or market to support the consideration paid by Calloway for the properties. Calloway obtained appraisals of the Phase II Centres from Colliers International Realty Advisors Inc. in connection with this acquisition. The portfolio valuation of the Phase II Centres dated January 15, 2005 prepared by Colliers established an appraised value of the eight acquired centres on a portfolio basis of $327,590,000.00 (or $230,666,000 for the interests in the Phase II Centres acquired by Calloway) as at January 15, 2005. The valuation methodologies used were income capitalization and cash flow analysis supported by a direct comparison approach.

2.6 Parties to Transaction

The transaction may have been with an informed person or an associate of Calloway. The transaction was between Calloway and Wal-Mart (60% interest) and FirstPro (40% interest) with respect to 3 of the centres and with Wal-Mart alone with respect to the remaining five centres. FirstPro retained a 40% interest in each of the five centres acquired from Wal-Mart. Wal-Mart is an affiliate of a major U.S. based retailer which is publicly owned. FirstPro is a Canadian retail developer and operator based in Toronto. FirstPro is a group of private companies that are controlled by Stephen and Mitchell Goldhar. Mitchell Goldhar, directly and indirectly, owns or controls more than 10% of the outstanding Units of Calloway. Wal-Mart is not an informed person or associate of Calloway, but FirstPro is an informed person or associate of Calloway.

2.7 Date of Report

May 10, 2005.

Item 3 Financial Statements

Pursuant to a mutual reliance review system decision document dated January 7, 2005 issued by the Alberta Securities Commission on its own behalf and on behalf of the securities regulatory authorities in each of Manitoba, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Quebec and Saskatchewan upon receipt of an application from Calloway for an exemption from certain of the requirements of Part 8 of National Instrument 51-102, this business acquisition report for the acquired properties contains audited Schedules of Combined Net Operations for the Phase II Centres for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Co-owners of the Wal-Mart-First Pro Realty Co-ownerships

We have audited the schedules of combined net operations, as defined in note 2(a), of Phase II Centres for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003. This financial information is the responsibility of Phase II Centres' management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial information based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial information is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial information. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial information.

In our opinion, these schedules of combined net operations present fairly, in all material respects, the results of the combined net operations of Phase II Centres for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

PHASE II CENTRES

Years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

1. Basis of presentation:

These schedules of combined net operations (the "schedules") are financial schedules prepared for the Business Acquisition Report to be filed by Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway"), for the acquisition of 100% interest in three shopping centres and the undivided 60% interest of five shopping centres from Wal-Mart-First Pro Realty Co-ownerships (the "Co-ownerships").

The schedules combine the net operations, as defined in note 2(a), of the shopping centres ("Phase II Centres"), listed below, that Calloway purchased from the Co-ownerships. Phase II Centres is not a legal entity and the information used to prepare the schedules has been derived from records specific to the properties sold to Calloway. The schedules may not necessarily reflect the net operations in future periods, nor do they necessarily reflect the net operations that would have been realized had Phase II Centres been a stand-alone entity during the years presented.

This information is provided to assist the reader in determining the relative impact of each property on the financial results for the years presented. The net leased and occupied areas increased from period to period as construction was completed on units and tenants occupied said units.

		Net leased and occupied area (square feet) representing 100% interest
	Interest acquired	2004	2003
Bolton Centre	60%	183,183	—
Edmonton Northeast Centre	100%	209,289	183,583

Years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

2. Significant accounting policies:

(a) General:

The schedules have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The schedules present the combined net operations prior to amortization of income properties, general and administrative expenses, capital taxes, interest expense and income taxes. Additionally, all costs and revenue associated with the undeveloped lands and lands under development of Phase II Centres have been excluded. As these properties are multi phased developments, costs are capitalized until the phase is considered substantially complete subject to a predetermined time limit, at which point the phase is considered income-producing property.

Rental revenue from income properties includes base and percentage rent, operating cost recoveries, parking and other incidental tenant charges.

Property operating costs include property taxes, utilities, insurance, repairs and maintenance, property management fees and other expenses directly related to the operation of properties.

(b) Use of estimates:

The preparation of the schedules requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the years. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

(c) Revenue recognition:

Rental revenue from income properties is recognized once a phase of the property is considered substantially complete. Rentals from income properties are recognized as revenue over the term of the related lease agreements. All rent steps in lease agreements are accounted for on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective leases. Recoveries from tenants for property taxes, utilities, insurance and other operating costs are recognized as revenue in the year the applicable costs are incurred.

(d) Deferred expenses:

Deferred tenant inducements and leasing expenses are amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related lease agreements.

3. Related party transactions:

First Professional Development Group II Inc. ("First Professional") is related to one of the co-owners of the Co-ownerships and acts as property manager to Phase II Centres. Property operating costs include management fees paid to First Professional for property management services which were recorded at amounts specified in the development management agreement between the co-owners and First Professional. In addition, First Professional earned fees for leasing which were recorded at the exchanged amount and are amortized over the lease term.

Management fees	$ 455,604	$ 274,054
Leasing fees	332,287	309,643

First Professional also earns fees from the Co-ownerships for acting as development manager of Phase II Centres.

4. Economic dependence:

Rental revenue derived from one retailer, who is related to one of the co-owners of the Co-ownerships, represents approximately the following percentages:

	2004	2003
Revenue derived from one retailer	37.7%	42.7%

5. Subsequent events:

The Co-ownerships have sold the Phase II Centres and connected undeveloped land to Calloway for approximately $228.3 million. The sale price was satisfied by a vendor take-back mortgage of approximately $6 million and cash consideration for the balance. Currently, one of the co-owners of the Co-ownerships owns approximately 16.3% of the issued and outstanding units of Calloway.

For the Year Ended December 31, 2004
(unaudited)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway") is an unincorporated closed-end real estate investment trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta, created under a Declaration of Trust dated December 4, 2001, subsequently amended and restated on October 24, 2002, October 31, 2003 and January 16, 2004.

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements ("pro forma statements") have been prepared by Calloway management for inclusion in the business acquisition report ("BAR") of Calloway relating to the acquisition of 100% interests in three shopping centres and 60% undivided interests in five shopping centres (the "Phase II Centres") from the FirstPro Shopping Centres Group of Companies ("FirstPro") and Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. ("Wal-Mart") on March 10, 2005.

During 2004, Calloway also completed three other significant acquisitions as follows:

- On February 16, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres") from the Wal-Mart-FirstPro Realty Partnership (the "Partnership").
- On May 14, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres II") from the Partnership.
- On November 30, 2004, the acquisition of six shopping centres (the "Phase I Centres") from the Partnership.

These pro forma statements have been prepared from the following financial statements:

- Calloway audited consolidated financial statements as at December 31, 2004 and for the year ended December 31, 2004.
- Phase II Centres audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2004, included in the BAR.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet gives effect to the acquisition of the Phase II Centres as if it had occurred on December 31, 2004. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2004 gives effect to the acquisition of The Centres, The Centres II, the Phase I Centres and the Phase II Centres (collectively, the "Collective Centres") as if they had occurred on January 1, 2004. Calloway's December 31, 2004 consolidated financial statements contain the actual operations of The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres from the date of the respective acquisition by Calloway in 2004 to December 31, 2004. The pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2004 contains adjustments outlined in Note 4 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres for the period from January 1, 2004 to the respective dates of acquisition by Calloway in 2004.

The pro forma statements are not necessarily indicative of the results that would have actually occurred, had the transactions reflected therein been in effect on the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of future operating results or the financial position of Calloway.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies used in the preparation of the pro forma statements are in accordance with those disclosed in Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004. These pro forma statements do not include all of the information and disclosure required by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), and therefore should be read in conjunction with the December 31, 2004 consolidated financial statements of Calloway.

3. PRO FORMA BALANCE SHEET ADJUSTMENTS AND ASSUMPTIONS

(a) Acquisition of the Phase II Centres

On March 10, 2005, Calloway completed the acquisition of 100% interests in three shopping centres and 60% undivided interests in five shopping centres and connected undeveloped lands with future development potential (the "Phase II Centres Undeveloped Lands") from FirstPro and Wal-Mart. The purchase price consisted of $222,304 for the Phase II Centres, $5,997 for the Phase II Centres Undeveloped Lands and $1,430 for land transfer taxes and other transaction costs for an aggregate purchase price of $229,731 which was satisfied as follows:

- By a non-interest bearing vendor take-back mortgage for the amount of the purchase price for the Phase II Centres Undeveloped Lands		$ 5,997
- By retaining holdbacks and assuming accounts payable		3,185
- By cash payment
- From the net proceeds of new mortgage financing	154,640
- From the net proceeds of the issuance of trust units	58,210
- From working capital	7,699	220,549
		$ 229,731

The Phase II Centres Undeveloped Lands and other undeveloped lands that Calloway purchased in connection with the acquisitions of The Centres, The Centres II, and the Phase I Centres will be developed by Calloway under the terms of development agreements with FirstPro. It is assumed for the purpose of these pro forma statements that these undeveloped lands remain undeveloped and that no material development costs and no earnouts under the terms of these development agreements will be incurred during the year ended December 31, 2004 other than what was actually incurred and reflected in Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004.

(b) Mortgage financing

In conjunction with the acquisition of the Phase II Centres, Calloway arranged for new mortgages on seven of the shopping centres in the amount of $155,210 at a weighted average interest rate of 5.64%. The net proceeds to Calloway were $154,640 after deducting financing fees and other costs related to the mortgage financing.

Calloway issued 3,101,000 trust units at $19.35 per unit, for net proceeds of $58,210 (after deducting underwriters' fees and issue costs of $1,794). The net proceeds were used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the purchase price of the Phase II Centres.

(d) Summary of the acquisition of the Phase II Centres

A summary of the assets acquired, using the purchase method of accounting based on preliminary allocations, and liabilities assumed or incurred resulting from the acquisition of the Phase II Centres and the Private Placement is as follows:

6. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Calloway acquired the Collective Centres from the Partnership, FirstPro and/or Wal-Mart. FirstPro, through an affiliate, holds a 40% interest in the Partnership. A nominee of FirstPro owns or controls directly and indirectly approximately 16% of the outstanding units of Calloway. Also, currently one officer of FirstPro is a member of the Board of Trustees of Calloway.

A trustee of Calloway was paid a fee of $90, and a legal firm in which a trustee is a partner was paid legal fees of $265 related to the acquisition of the Phase II Centres.

In conjunction with the acquisition of the Collective Centres, Calloway has entered into property management agreements with FirstPro to provide for the management of the Collective Centres.

In conjunction with the acquisition of the Collective Centres, Calloway entered into certain temporary head leases with FirstPro relating to specific tenants who had entered into lease agreements, but whose space was not yet available for occupancy.

7. COMMITMENTS

Calloway has entered into a development agreement with FirstPro for the development of the Phase II Centres Undeveloped Land. The estimated commitment payable by Calloway under the agreement is $16,000.

8. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The cost of these properties is expected to be in excess of $1,207,000 and will consist of freehold and leasehold interests in 46 properties. The cost of the properties will be satisfied by assumption of existing mortgages, by obtaining new financing including vendor take back mortgages, by FirstPro subscribing to units of a partnership to be formed by Calloway and by Calloway issuing additional units. The transaction is expected to be completed by August 2005 and is subject to due diligence, unitholder and regulatory approval and other customary conditions.

CALLOWAY REIT: SERVING THE CONSUMER

In under three years, through the acquisition and development of almost 100 shopping centres in all Canadian provinces, Calloway has become a shopping centre owner that is national in scope and is committed to meeting the needs of all Canadian consumers.

Calloway's centres deliver a combination of value and convenience to shoppers through modern retail formats, accessible locations and thoughtful design.

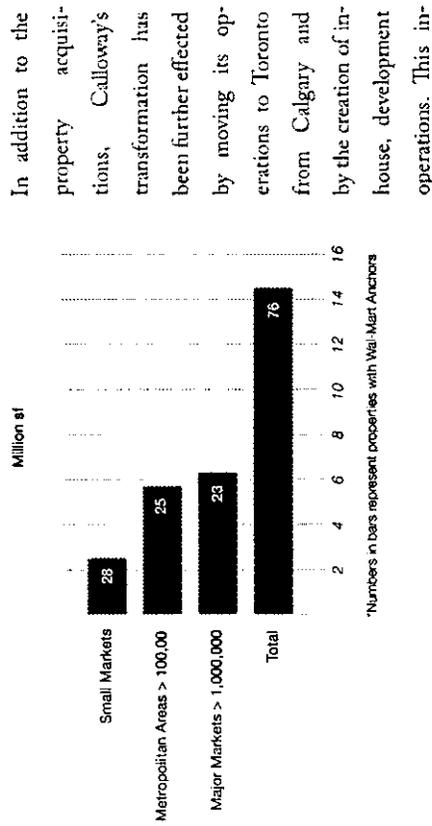

Almost 85% of Calloway's revenue is derived from metropolitan markets with populations in excess of 100,000 people. Calloway also serves the needs of consumers in other markets, with centres that are proximate to major highways, providing convenient access to value-minded Canadians throughout the country. Our concentration in the major urban markets of Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Vancouver, Calgary, Edmonton and other Canadian capital cities will continue, but we will also balance this presence with investments in other growing markets. Our presence in all of Canada's significant retail markets further ensures the appeal of Calloway's centres to the stronger retailers, who demand broad exposure across the country to meet their own growth objectives.

A Transformational Year

The year ended December 31, 2005 was transformational for Calloway, highlighted by the largest single transaction by a Canadian REIT, in July 2005. With a value over $1.2 billion this acquisition of 35 shopping centres and 10 development projects, comprising some of Canada's prime retail properties and locations, was done on an accretive basis and has transformed Calloway into Canada's third largest REIT, by market capitalization. Calloway's portfolio now comprises 96 properties with a total rented area of 14.6 million square feet and 3.8 million square feet of development potential

This landmark transaction with FirstPro Shopping Centres punctuated two years of exceptional growth. The acquisition of a portfolio of newly constructed shopping centres situated in 8 of 10 provinces and characterized by strong national and regional tenants has positioned Calloway as the dominant retail REIT for large format unenclosed centres in Canada.

In addition to the property acquisitions, Calloway's transformation has been further effected by moving its operations to Toronto from Calgary and by the creation of in-house, development operations. This internal development team is now responsible for approximately 1.6 million of the total 3.8 million square feet of new development potential in our 23 properties. The balance is being developed by FirstPro on behalf of Calloway.

Financial Highlights

Calloway's assets increased over 150% to $2.6 billion as of December 2005 from $1.0 billion as of December 2004. During this same period, revenue increased to $201 million from $85 million, or 136%. Cash flow, as measured by funds from operations, increased to $1.57 per unit (fully diluted), from $1.39 per unit in 2004, a 13% jump, which reflects the accretive nature of our growth. Over $1.5 billion of net additional real estate investments during the year, together with strong debt and equity capital markets, allowed Calloway's market capitalization to grow from $624 million at the end of 2004, to $1,649 million at the end of 2005, providing a significant leap forward in terms of liquidity and credibility with investors.

Calloway's ability to finance its growth by issuing $669.2 million of common unit offerings and over $509.5 million in long term fixed rate mortgage financing, on favorable terms, added further financial strength to the enterprise. Calloway's long-term balance sheet strength with an average lease term of over 11 years and an average term debt maturity of almost 10 years reduces Calloway's exposure to interest rate increases and lease rollovers. Calloway continues to manage its debt at conservative levels, ending 2005 with a Debt-to-Gross Book Value ratio of 54.0%. As at December 31, 2005 the REIT's occupancy level for the portfolio was a strong 99.2%.

Building Retail Leadership

Our continued leadership as a retail landlord is buttressed by our key relationships with FirstPro Shopping Centres and with major national retailers, particularly Wal-Mart which anchors 80% of our centres. The relationship with FirstPro provides us with a pipeline of entirely newly built, successful shopping centres in strong markets across the country. This relationship also provides us with expertise and experience in all key disciplines of the development and management process.

"Calloway's commitment to its unitholders is to provide stable and growing distributions by investing in a portfolio of high quality retail assets."

The centres we have acquired are home to many large regional, national and international retailers. Central to the proposition we offer to Canadian consumers is our ability to attract and maintain significant relations with these retailers and their focus on value. The almost 3.8 million square feet of future development potential in our centres is available to meet the growing needs of these tenants.

Calloway has already expanded its existing centres by 715,000 square feet since their respective acquisition dates. Furthermore, another 895,000 square feet was leased and under construction as at December 31, 2005.

The Outlook

Calloway's commitment to its unitholders is to provide stable and growing distributions by investing in a portfolio of high quality retail assets. The stability of our distributions in the future is provided by a portfolio of modern, well-designed centres, strategically located in key markets and anchored by tenants such as Wal-Mart, with long-term leases, that provide the value shopping experience that consumers demand. The dominance of our centres in their markets and the scarcity of land available for retail use in these markets further bolster the stability of our income and distributions.

Our relationship with FirstPro and with Canada's largest retailers, coupled with the largest development pipeline, relative to size, of any commercial REIT in Canada, provide the key to Calloway's growth commitment to its unitholders. We look forward to another exciting year.

On behalf of management I want to thank the unitholders, trustees, advisors and especially our employees for their hard work in rising to the task of executing a landmark transaction that transformed the Trust and enhanced its prospects for current and future success.

Business Overview and Strategic Direction

Calloway is an unincorporated "open-ended" mutual fund trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta. The Trust units and the convertible debentures are publicly traded and listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") under the symbol "CWT:UN" and "CWT:DB", respectively. During 2005, unit holders approved a resolution to amend its Declaration of Trust, which converted Calloway from a "closed-ended" to an "open-ended" mutual fund trust.

The objectives of Calloway are to provide unit holders with stable and growing tax deferred cash distributions, through the acquisition, development and operation of a portfolio of well-located, primarily large format unenclosed retail centres in Canada and to enhance the value of Calloway's assets and unit value through effective management and long-term leasing and re-development.

Calloway became a public entity in 2001 with a mandate to invest in a diversified portfolio of income producing rental properties located across Canada. In 2003, the Trust acquired from the FirstPro Shopping Centres Group of Companies ("FirstPro") a portfolio of high quality, large format unenclosed shopping centres. As a result of that acquisition, the Trust's strategic direction changed to being an owner and manager of value-oriented shopping centres located in major urban centres or in other communities where its properties are dominant in their trade area. As at December 31, 2005, Calloway owned 94 shopping centres and 2 industrial buildings with a gross leaseable area of 14.6 million square feet, located across Canada. These centres are focused on the every day needs of the customers in those communities. The largest tenant in the Trust's portfolio is Wal-Mart. Wal-Mart anchors 79 of Calloway's shopping centres as either a tenant under long-term lease or as an owner, operating a store as an integrated part of the centre. Calloway's centres are typically conveniently located close to major highways which, along with the Wal-Mart stores, provide significant draws to the Calloway portfolio, attracting both value-oriented consumers and retailers.

The Trust's growth strategy is through the acquisition of new properties, expansion of existing locations, development, and professional management of the portfolio.

The ability of management to succeed in the execution of its business plan is conditional upon internal factors such as effectively managing the portfolio, optimizing the capital structure, hiring and training competent employees and upon external factors such as a strong business and political environment, and the availability of reasonably priced debt and equity capital.

Acquisition

Calloway intends to grow distributions, in part, through the accretive acquisition of properties. While the current environment for acquisitions is competitive, the Trust will continue to explore selective opportunities. In particular the Trust will continue to work with FirstPro to identify opportunities to acquire, or finance as means to acquiring, new shopping centres being developed by FirstPro, as well as to establish relationships with other private owners.

Development

Development is a key component of Calloway's strategic plan. The Trust has approximately 3.8 million square feet of potential gross leaseable area that, when developed, should provide a return to unit holders that management expects will be superior to that available from acquiring completed centres. The Trust has internal development capabilities and plans to develop approximately 1.6 million square feet internally with the balance of the space to be developed by FirstPro. Pursuant to existing agreements, FirstPro will lease the space on Calloway's behalf.

Professional Management

Through professional management of the portfolio, Calloway intends to ensure its properties portray an image that will continue to attract consumers as well as providing preferred locations for our tenants. Well-managed properties enhance the shopping experience and ensure customers continue to visit the centres.

Financial and Operational Highlights in 2005

In 2005, the Trust set new records for growth. The real estate portfolio increased 164% to $2,424.9 million through acquisitions and developments, and unit holder's equity increased 170% to $1,058.0 million.

Other highlights include:

- Acquired 100% freehold and leasehold interests in 48 retail properties, partial interests in five retail properties and interests in lands with the potential for future development of 2.7 million square feet for $1,538.6 million.
- Issued 36.2 million Trust and Class "B" units for net proceeds of $710.5 million.
- Issued $200.0 million of unsecured notes at 4.51% due September 22, 2010.
- Increased AFFO per unit by 11.9% to $1.44 per unit from the prior year.

Acquisition of Income Properties

Acquisitions - 2005

During 2005, the Trust completed the acquisition from First Pro or FirstPro in partnership with various other vendors, of 100% freehold and leasehold interests in 48 retail properties, partial interests in five retail properties and interest(s) in land(s) with future development potential of 2.7 million square feet. Wal-Mart is one of the anchor tenants in 26 of the locations. The purchase price of the properties, including acquisition costs, totaled $1,336.9 million, satisfied by the assumption of existing mortgages or vendor take back mortgages, the issuance of development and exchange agreement options, the issuance of class "B" units and cash. The cash portion was financed by new term debt facilities, an unsecured bridge loan and the issue of units. The unsecured bridge loan was repaid from a $200.0 million unsecured debenture financing completed in September 2005. Approximately $190.0 million of the purchase price relates to three properties in which the Trust acquired a leasehold interest.

Cash of $0.25 million and 184,524 Class "B" units are held in escrow pending the closing of two of the above properties. Once the acquisition is completed the cash and Class "B" units will be released.

The Trust also acquired from third parties 100% freehold interests in three retail properties. The purchase price totaled $39.3 million and was satisfied by the assumption of existing mortgages totaling $20.0 million and the balance in cash.

Acquisitions - 2004

Calloway's acquisition program was also active in 2004. During the year the Trust acquired 100% freehold interests in 30 retail properties and partial interests in two retail properties at a cost of $693.8 million. As in 2005, the assets were acquired from a FirstPro/Wal-Mart partnership or FirstPro in partnership with other vendors. The purchase price was satisfied by the assumption of existing mortgages or vendor-take-back mortgages, the issuance of development agreement options, the assumption of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and cash. The cash was financed by new term debt facilities and the issue of units.

Portfolio Diversification

Calloway's portfolio consists of 14.6 million square feet of built gross leaseable area and 3.8 million square feet of future potential gross leaseable area in 96 properties. The portfolio is located across Canada with assets in each of the ten provinces. Management does not segment its portfolio into reportable segments.

Gross Revenue by Province

The Trust targets major urban centres or other shopping centres that are dominant in their trade area. By selecting well-located centres, Calloway attracts quality tenants at economic rental rates. Wal-Mart is the Trust's largest tenant, representing 30.4% of total revenues, followed by the Reitmans Group at 3.8%. The five largest tenants account for 44.8% of portfolio revenue as follows:

Tenant	% of Revenues
Wal-Mart	30.5%
Reitmans Group	3.8%
Best Buy/Future Shop	3.6%
Marks Work Warehouse	3.5%
Winners	3.4%

Development of Existing Properties

Certain acquisitions included lands for future developments. Pursuant to exchange agreements and development agreements, the vendors assume responsibility for managing the developments on behalf of the Trust for additional proceeds ("Earn-outs") calculated based on a pre-determined rate of return, net of land and development costs incurred by the Trust.

During 2005, the Trust acquired 567,361 (2004 - 147,381) square feet of retail space for $101.3 million (2004 - $24.4 million) pursuant to these agreements. Consideration included $38.7 million (2004 - $9.8 million) in Trust units and Class "B" units, and the balance in cash.

Income Properties

Income Properties include approximately $31.2 million related to certain properties, which are subject to development acquisition agreements with FirstPro. These agreements provide that FirstPro assumes responsibility for managing the development of these properties, including the cost of developing the land. The additional proceeds are calculated based on pre-determined capitalization rates ranging from 7.155% to 10%. FirstPro also has the right, at its option, to subscribe up to 40% of the proceeds for any new developments in Trust units at purchase prices of $10.00, $10.50 and $20.10 per unit up to 199,475 Trust units, 1,800,000 Trust units and 1,500,000 Class "B" partnership units, respectively. The Class "B" partnership units are exchangeable into Trust units on a one for one basis. The Trust provides financing to FirstPro for the development costs of the additional developments. FirstPro pays the Trust a fee equal to 9% per annum, on the value of lands purchased in October 2003, and 8% per annum, on the value of certain lands purchased in July 2005. The value is reduced from time to time upon the completion and rental of additional space. As the negotiated fee earned by the Trust reflects management's estimate of a fair market return for the use of a productive asset, the fee is recognized as revenue. At December 31, 2005, there was an estimated 598,034 square feet of developable land that management anticipates will be completed over the next five years at a cost of $68,605.

Properties Under Development

As at December 31, 2005, properties under development totaled $155.8 million compared to $32.0 million in the prior year.

Properties under development totaling approximately $56.0 million are subject to development management agreements with FirstPro and Waj-Mart Canada Realty Inc., and to an exchange option and support agreement with FirstPro and other vendors. The vendors assume responsibility for managing the development on behalf of the Trust for additional proceeds calculated based on pre-determined capitalization rates ranging from 7.25% to 9.125%. Costs during the development period are paid for by the Trust and are funded through interest bearing development loans provided by the vendors. Upon the completion of the development and the commencement of lease payments by a tenant, the additional proceeds are paid by the Trust, net of land and development costs incurred. FirstPro also has the right, at its option, to subscribe for up to 40% of the proceeds in Trust units based on prices ranging from $14.00 per unit to $20.10 per unit, as well as the right to subscribe for up to 1,750,000 Class "B" partnership units, (which are exchangeable into Trust units on a one for one basis) at a price of $20.10 per unit. At December 31, 2005, there was an estimated 1.5 million square feet of developable land related to these agreements that management anticipates will be completed over the next five years at an estimated cost of $221,810.

Properties under development totaling approximately $99.8 million are subject to an exchange, option and support agreement with FirstPro and other vendors of the properties. Pursuant to the agreement, the Trust is responsible for managing the development of the properties under development and the vendors are granted the right for a period of five years to subscribe for up to 5,250,000 Class "B" units at a price of $20.10, upon the completion and rental of additional space. At December 31, 2005, there is an estimated 1.6 million square feet of developable square feet related to these agreements that management anticipates will be completed over the next five years at an estimated cost of $160,125. (See Table - Summary of Development Options granted at the Date of Acquisition & Table - Development Options at December 31, 2005, pg 21)

Management

During 2005, Calloway moved its head office from Calgary, Alberta to Toronto, Ontario. Existing management elected not to transfer and the Trust completed the recruitment of an experienced Toronto based management team. The Trust also internalized certain leasing and development functions. The portfolio continues to be property managed externally. This will continue until such time as it is determined that the benefit of internalization would result in an increased return to unit holders. FirstPro manages 72 properties, and four other companies manage the remaining 14 properties.

Mortgages Receivable

In addition to direct property acquisitions, Calloway provides mezzanine financing to developers, which includes options to acquire an interest in the related property upon substantial completion. This program provides a significant and committed pipeline of future property acquisitions, which is particularly important in the current competitive acquisition market.

As at December 31, 2005, mortgages totaling $36.5 million, secured by first or second charges on the properties, have been advanced to FirstPro. During the year, funds totaling $22.5 million were advanced against six mortgages and three mortgages totaling $7.5 million were repaid. The mortgages are interest only with rates that range from 7.5% to 9.25%. The mortgages are due at maturity on various dates in 2009 and 2010. The mortgages include an option entitling the Trust to acquire a 50% interest in the properties upon substantial completion at an agreed upon formula. The Trust exercised its option to purchase one of the properties during 2005.

Two mortgages to other borrowers, totaling $1.6 million, are outstanding at year-end. These loans are secured by second charges on two properties under development, bear interest at 12% per annum, and are due the earlier of two years after substantial completion, upon the sale of the property or when the Trust exercises its option to acquire. The mortgage includes an option to purchase the properties, however, the Trust elected not to exercise its option on one of the properties during 2005. A trustee of Calloway is an officer and director of the borrower.

Loans Receivable

Pursuant to development agreements with FirstPro, the Trust has advanced loans to fund the cost of improvements on six of Calloway's properties.

As at December 31, 2005, loans receivable totaling $5.1 million have been advanced. The loans bear interest at rates that approximate the prime rate of a Canadian chartered bank plus rates ranging from 0.75% to 1.25% and are repayable upon completion and the commencement of rental payments. During the year, the Trust advanced $1.0 million against one property and received principal repayment of $3.2 million on seven properties, including two properties that were repaid in full.

Calloway's Declaration of Trust limits Calloway's indebtedness to a maximum of 60% of gross book value (excluding convertible debentures).

tures) and 65% including convertible debentures. Gross book value is defined as total assets plus accumulated amortization of income properties. Total indebtedness (excluding convertible debentures) as a percentage of gross book value was 54.0% as at December 31, 2005 (2004 - 52.9%). Total debt (including convertible debentures) as a percentage of gross book value was 54.9 % as at December 31, 2005 (2004 - 58.0%). Management anticipates Calloway will be able to renew its mortgage debt as it matures.

Term Mortgages

As at December 31, 2005 term mortgages increased to $1,139.5 million from $485.2 million in 2004, an increase of $654.3 million. This increase is primarily the result of new term mortgages ($407.9 million), and the assumption of mortgages on acquisitions ($385.2 million) offset by principal repayments. The term mortgages payable bear interest at a weighted average contractual interest rate of 6.06% (2004 - 6.17%) and mature between 2006 and 2025. Pursuant to acquisitions completed in 2005, the Trust received adjustments to purchase prices amounting to $22.4 million to reduce the effective rate on mortgages assumed to current market levels (a "Mark-to-Market" adjustment). Including Mark-to-Market adjustments, the effective weighted average interest rate on term mortgages is 5.95%. The weighted average years to maturity, including the timing for payments of principal and debt maturing, is 9.5 years. Future principal payments as a percentage of term mortgages are as follows:

Unsecured Debentures

During 2005, Calloway filed a "shelf" prospectus permitting the public offering of up to $2 billion in debt or equity securities. In September 2005, the Trust completed the issuance of $200.0 million in unsecured debentures under this prospectus. These funds were used to repay the bridge financing on the July 8, 2005 acquisition. The $200 million of 4.51% Series "A" unsecured debentures, with interest payable semi annually on September 22 and March 22, are due September 22, 2010. The debentures are currently rated "BBB" by Dominion Bond Rating Services.

The unsecured financing has permitted 23 properties, with a book value of $267.4 million, to have clear title, which provides financing flexibility in the future.

Development Loans

Development loans totalling $84.9 million (2004 - $45.4 million) are outstanding as at December 31, 2005 of which $34.4 million (2004 - $20.8 million) are interest bearing and $50.5 million (2004 - $24.6 million) are non-interest bearing.

Interest bearing loans

Pursuant to purchase and sale agreements, the vendor, FirstPro/WM Partnership, agreed to finance the costs associated with the construction and lease up of undeveloped lands for certain assets. Development loans totalling $13.4 million have been advanced from FirstPro/WM Partnership under the agreements. These loans bear variable interest rates at bankers' acceptance rate ("B/A") plus

2% and are secured by first mortgages over specific income properties and properties under development, general assignment of leases, and are due the earlier of various dates in 2009 and 2010 or the date building construction is completed and the tenant is in occupancy and paying rent.

Calloway has also borrowed from third party lenders to finance construction and leasing costs of various other properties. Development loans totalling $21.0 million bear variable interest rates ranging from the prime rates of various Canadian chartered banks plus 0.375% to 2.00% on $12.6 million in loans and a fixed rate of 10% on the remaining $8.4 million. These loans are secured by first and second mortgages registered on income properties and a general assignment of leases.

Non-Interest Bearing Loans

FirstPro/WM Partnership has provided non-interest bearing loans to finance certain land acquisitions costs. An imputed annual cost has been calculated at rates ranging from 4.03% to 4.63% and the loans are secured by first mortgages over specific income properties and development properties and a general assignment of leases, and are due the earlier of various dates in 2009 and 2010 or the date building construction is completed and the tenant is in occupancy and paying rent.

Convertible Debentures

On May 14, 2004, Calloway issued $55 million of 6.0% convertible unsecured subordinated debentures due June 30, 2014. The debentures tures are convertible at the holder's option into trust units at $17.00 per unit. The units are redeemable at the option of Calloway in cash or units on or after June 28, 2010. In 2005, debenture holders have elected to convert $31.9 million (2004 - $0.5 million) into trust units. As December 31, 2005, convertible debentures outstanding totaled $22.7 million.

Unitholder's Equity

As at December 31, 2005, unitholder's equity totaled $1,058.0 million (2004 - $391.5 million), including $0.9 million pertaining to the allocation of the equity component of convertible debentures. As at December 31, 2005, paid in capital totaled $1,117.8 million and units outstanding, including Class "B" units of a subsidiary partnership totaled 69,475,220. During the year, the Trust issued 23,286,924 trust units and 12,925,125 Class "B" units.

Approximately 18.7 million units were issued for cash through three separate transactions and provided net proceeds of $372.4 million, net of $12.7 million in transactions costs. Proceeds were used to acquire real estate, repay outstanding operating lines and bridge facilities and to fund operating expenses.

Approximately 12.6 million Class "B" units and 12.6 million "special voting units" were issued as consideration to FirstPro to acquire real estate on July 8, 2005. The paid in capital of the Class "B" units totaled $250.0 million. Each Class "B" unit is non transferable, but is exchangeable into one trust unit. The Class "B" units receive distributions equivalent to the distributions on the trust units. The special voting units are each entitled to one vote at meetings of the unitholders of the Trust. The Class "B" units are classified as equity of the Trust.

Holder's of $31.9 million of face value of the Convertible Debentures elected to convert and received 1.9 million trust units. The Trust's unit capital was increased $30.7 million as a result of these conversions.

Distributions by the Trust totaled $69.5 million during 2005 (2004 - $33.2 million) or $1.37 per unit (2004 - $1.22 per unit). The Trust paid $61.3 million in cash and the balance by issuing 150,734 units under the distribution re-investment plan. For tax purposes, the distribution has been allocated as follows: return of capital (40.1%) capital gain (24.1%) and the balance as income (35.8%).

The remaining 318,400 units were issued when management exercised unit options for $3.2 million in proceeds.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Future obligations total $1,509.9 million as identified in the following schedule. It is management's intention to renew both the mortgage financing and unsecured debentures at maturity. Management anticipates that the convertible debentures will convert to equity prior to their maturity. Development loan repayments will be funded with the issuance of equity units and out of existing cash or operating lines. Mortgage receivable and development obligations will be funded out of existing cash or operating lines.

As at December 31, 2005, the Trust believes it has sufficient capital resources to meet all on-going commitments. The details of its capital resources are as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents	$89,670
Unused operating facilities	59,614
Additional financing commitments	23,950
Total capital resources	$173,234

The debt to gross book value as defined in the Trust deed is 54.0%. If the Trust increased its debt to gross book value to 57.5% (the mid-point of the target range of 55% to 60%) it could raise an additional $217.0 million in debt capital. Short-term fluctuations in working capital are funded through pre-established operating lines. The Trust currently anticipates meeting all future obligations.

Results of Operations

Net income from continuing operations totaled $12.1 million ($0.25 per unit) in 2005 compared to $10.5 million ($0.40 per unit) in 2004. Revenues in 2005 totaled $201.1 million with rentals from income properties totaling $196.7 million and the balance from interest.

Net Operating Income

Net operating income, defined as income from rental properties less operating expenses, increased 139.4% to $135.3 million.

The $78.8 million increase in NOI is primarily due to acquisitions made in 2005 and 2004, which contributed $73.6 million and earnings from FirstPro, which contributed $4.2 million. The balance relates to increases in same property income.

Lease Expiries

As at December 31, 2005, the portfolio has a vacancy rate of 0.77% or 111,585 square feet. Only 13.27% of leases are expiring over the next five years with 230,508 square feet, or 1.58% of space, expiring in 2006.

In 2005, interest cost incurred totalled $58.9 million, net of the $2.2 million mark to market adjustment. Interest capitalized to properties under development totalled $3.0 million and the balance of $56.0 million was expensed. In 2004, interest costs totalled $24.0 million and only $0.2 million was capitalized to properties under development. The increase in debt was a result of acquisitions made during the year and funds borrowed to complete the development of certain properties. The weighted average interest rate, including the adjustment for mark to market amortization, is 5.95% (2004 - 5.8%).

General and administrative expenses increased $4.0 million over the prior year. During the year, the Trust incurred $2.9 million in transitional costs that included bonuses, severances, vesting of deferred units as well as moving and recruiting costs.

Amortization of $65.7 million has increased $43.0 million over 2004. This increase is due to a full year amortization on 2004 acquisitions and amortization on acquisitions made in 2005.

Income from Discontinued Operations

Income from discontinued operations totaled $14.6 million in 2005 compared to $2.9 million in the prior year. In 2005 the Trust sold eight properties for proceeds of $85.3 million and recorded a gain on sale of $14.3 million. In 2004 there were no property sales.

Other Measures of Performance

(See Table - Other Measures of Performance, pg 29)

Distributable Income

Distributable income has historically been used by Calloway as an indicator of financial performance in the REIT industry. Since distributable income is not a measure defined under GAAP, Calloway, in common with other REIT's, has included a definition in its Declaration of Trust. As a result of accounting and other changes however, the method of calculation of DI is not comparable from REIT to REIT and the differences in methodology can be significant. Accordingly, the Trust intends to recommend to its unitholders that the definition of DI be deleted from its Declaration of Trust. If such recommendation is approved, Calloway will no longer report DI. DI for the year ended December 31, 2005 totaled $72.9 million (2004 - $35.8 million) and the payout ratio totaled 94.4% (2004 -91.6%).

Funds From Operations

While FFO is also not defined by GAAP, it is a non-GAAP financial measure of operating performance widely used by the real estate industry. FFO has been calculated in accordance with the new recommendations of RealPac, the industry association to which most public REIT's and real estate operating companies belong.

(1) FFO, DI and AFFO per unit is adjusted for the dilutive effect of the convertible debentures, which are not additive for net income purposes. To calculate diluted FFO, DI and AFFO per unit for the twelve months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004, convertible debenture interest of $2,403 and $2,180 are added back to net income, and 2,330,805 and 2,048,040 units are added back to the weighted average units outstanding, respectively. (2) Approximately $340 of the $534 in capital expenditures relate to properties held for sale. (3) Approximately $1.5 million of the $2.1 million in tenant inducement and leasing costs relate to properties held for sale.

Adjusted Funds From Operations

Since FFO does not consider capital transactions, adjusted funds from operations is presented herein as an alternative measure of determining available cash flow. AFFO is not defined by GAAP. Calloway also calculates AFFO in accordance with the recommendations of RealPac. AFFO for the year ended December 31, 2005 totaled $72.4 million (2004 - $34.6 million) and the payout ratio was 95.0% (2004 - 94.4%). Calloway targets a payout ratio of 95% of AFFO.

Fourth Quarter Results from Operations

Financial Results

Three months ended December 31, 2005 vs. three months ended September 30, 2005:

Net income for the fourth quarter increased $2.9 million over the prior quarter, primarily as a result of additional tenants acquired pursuant to earn-outs. General and administrative expenses in third quarter included transitional costs of $2.7 million compared to $0.2 million in fourth quarter. During the fourth quarter, Calloway recorded a $0.9 million gain from the sale of two industrial assets.

Three months ended December 31, 2005 vs. three months ended December 31, 2004:

Net income for the fourth quarter of 2005 was $3.6 million higher than the same prior year period, the result of acquisitions made during 2005. This increase was offset by interest cost associated with the unsecured debentures issued in September 2005 that were expensed in the fourth quarter.

Quarterly Information

(See Table - Quarterly Information, pg 32-33)

Revenue from continuing operations has increased significantly over the past eight quarters because of the large number of acquisitions and earn outs including: the acquisition of 12 income properties in February 2004; the acquisition of 14 income properties effective May 2004; the acquisition of 6 income properties in November 2004; the acquisition of interests in 8 income properties on March 10, 2005; the acquisition of 45 income properties on July 8, 2005 and the completion of earn outs during the fourth quarter 2005.

Net income from continuing operations has also grown over the past eight quarters for the reasons stated above. However, for the quarter ended December 31, 2004 and the quarter ended March 31, 2005, the net income from continuing operations decreased because of the write-off of the unamortized balance of intangibles for vacated tenant space. For the quarter ended September 30, 2005 the net income from continuing operations decreased as a result of the office relocation transition costs approximating $2.8 million.

In addition, there were gains on sales of income properties as follows: March 31, 2005 - $12,226; June 30, 2005 - $1,112; and December 31, 2005 - $921.

Related Party

Mitchell Goldhar or companies controlled by Mitchell Goldhar (collectively referred to herein as FirstPro) owns 26.8% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Trust units and special voting units of Calloway. The ownership would increase to 37.8% if Mitchell Goldhar exercised all development and exchange agreement options. Calloway has entered into agreements with FirstPro to borrow funds from FirstPro and to finance various development projects. In addition, the Trust has entered into property management, leasing, development and exchange agreements with FirstPro.

The financial implication of these agreements is disclosed in notes 3, 4, 5, 6, 10, 11 and 15 of the audited financial statements.

performing its due diligence with an expected closing in April 2006. The Trust has entered into contracts to acquire interests in four retail income properties (154,784 square feet) from First Pro at a price of approximately $40,000 to be paid for by issuance of equity units and cash. Included in the four, are two properties (85,632 square feet) where Calloway has exercised its option to acquire the remaining 50% interest that the Trust does not already own at a purchase price of approximately $11,000. The Trust is currently performing its due diligence with an expected closing in April 2006.

Subsequent Events

Subsequent to year-end, the Trust has completed the acquisition of a 51,060 square foot retail property in Calgary, and a 14.53-acre development property in Burlington, Ontario for a combined purchase price of $21.7 million.

Calloway has entered into agreements with FirstPro in which the Trust will lend up to $33.9 million for the purpose of acquiring and developing 104.67 acres in two separate transactions. The Trust has an option exercisable during the first four years after the initial advance to acquire a 50% interest upon substantial completion. The Trust has advanced $10.3 million under the financing agreements.

Calloway has acquired 101,056 square feet of earn outs from FirstPro for $23.5 million pursuant to existing agreements. FirstPro received consideration of $7.7 million (480,998 trust units) and consideration of $1.3 million (62,733 class "B" units) and the balance in cash.

Calloway has completed the acquisition of a 14.53-acre development property in Burlington, Ontario for a purchase price of $11.3 million. The purchase was paid in cash.

The Trust has entered into two agreements to acquire two retail income properties (330,393 square feet) in Ontario at a purchase price of approximately $63,100 to be paid for by assuming an existing mortgage, issuance of equity units and cash. The Trust is currently

Responsibility of Management and the Board of Trustees

It is the responsibility of the Trust's management and board of trustees to maintain appropriate information systems, procedures and controls to ensure that information used internally and disclosed externally is complete, reliable and timely. The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Trust have evaluated, or caused the evaluation of the effectiveness of the Trust's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Multilateral Instrument 52-109, Certification of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings) for the year ended December 31, 2005, and have concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures are operating effectively.

Critical Accounting Estimates

In preparing the Trust's consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes, it is necessary for management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. The significant items requiring estimates are impairment value of real estate assets and investments, the useful life of assets, the allocation of the purchase price to tangible and intangible assets, the determination of fair value of options granted, and the collectibility of accounts and potential litigation. Changes in these assumptions will cause actual results to differ from estimated amounts.

Accounting Policies

On January 1, 2005, the Trust prospectively adopted the requirements of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Accounting Guideline 15, "Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities" (ACG-13), which provides guidance for "Subsidiaries", to those entities defined as Variable Interest Entities (VIE's).

Risks and Uncertainties

Real Property Ownership Risk

All real property investments are subject to elements of risk. General economic conditions, local real estate markets, supply and demand for leased premises, competition from other available premises and various other factors affect such investments.

Real estate has a high fixed cost associated with ownership, and income lost due to declining rental rates or increased vacancies cannot easily be minimized through cost reduction. Through well-located, well-designed and professionally managed properties, management seeks to reduce this risk. Prime locations will attract high quality renters with excellent covenants and will enable the Trust to maintain economic rents and high occupancy. By maintaining the property at the highest standard through professional management practices, management seeks to increase tenant loyalty.

Development Risk

Development risk arises from the possibility that developed space will not be leased or that costs of development will exceed returns from the lease. Calloway mitigates this risk by not commencing construction of any development until sufficient lease-up has occurred and by entering into fixed price contracts for development costs.

Interest and Financing Risk

In the low interest rate environment that the Canadian economy has experienced in recent years, leverage has enabled the Trust to enhance its return to unit holders. A reversal of this trend, however, can significantly affect the business's ability to meet its financial obligation. In order to minimize this risk, Calloway negotiates fixed rate term debt with staggered maturities on the portfolio, and the Declaration of Trust restricts total indebtedness permitted on the portfolio.

Interest rate changes will also impact the Trust's development portfolio. Calloway has entered into development agreements that obligate the trust to acquire up to approximately 2.1 million square feet of additional income properties at a cost determined by capitalizing the rental income at pre-determined rates. The Trust will finance these acquisitions by issuing additional debt and equity. Changes in interest rates will have an impact on the return from these acquisitions and should the rate exceed the capitalization rate used, could result in a purchase being non-accretive. This risk is mitigated as management has the right not to approve the acquisitions.

Operating facilities and development loans exist that are priced at prime plus a risk premium. Changes in short-term interest rates will negatively impact the cost of funds. In addition, there is a risk that the lenders will not refinance upon maturity. By restricting the amount of variable interest rate debt the Trust has minimized the impact on financial performance.

Environmental Risk

As an owner and manager of real property, the Trust is subject to various laws relating to environmental matters. These laws impose liability for the cost of removal and remediation of certain hazardous materials released or deposited on properties owned by the Trust or on adjacent properties. As required by the Declaration of Trust, and in accordance with best management practices, Phase 1 audits are completed on all properties prior to acquisition. Further investigation is conducted if Phase 1 tests indicate a potential problem. In addition, the standard lease restricts tenants from carrying on environmentally hazardous activities or having environmentally hazardous substances on site. The Trust has obtained environmental insurance on certain assets to further manage risk.

Capital Requirements

Calloway accesses the capital markets from time to time through the issuance of debt, equity or equity-related securities. If Calloway was unable to raise additional funds then acquisition or development activities may be curtailed, asset sales accelerated and property specific financing re-negotiated.

Outlook

Calloway is well positioned for the future with a high quality portfolio of newly constructed shopping centres that are home to some of the largest retailers in Canada. The portfolio has little leasing exposure, with an average lease term of 11.2 years and tenants with strong financial covenants. In addition, with an average construction age in the portfolio of only 4.3 years, capital expenditures in the foreseeable future will be minimal.

There continues to be an abundance of capital seeking quality real estate. As a result, Calloway will continue to pursue selective acquisitions that are accretive and meet the Trust's investment criteria. As well, the Trust will continue to build its relationship with FirstPro, including the acquisition of real estate as a result of the development agreements that are in place on its existing portfolio, the acquisition of completed developments and by growing the mezzanine-financing program.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2005 and 2004

1. Organization

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust (the "Trust") is an unincorporated open-ended mutual fund trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta created under a declaration of trust, dated December 4, 2001 subsequently amended and restated on October 24, 2002, October 31, 2003, January 16, 2004 and July 7, 2005 (the "Declaration of Trust").

On July 7, 2005, the unitholders passed a special resolution converting the Trust from a closed-ended to an open-ended mutual fund trust.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of presentation

The Trust's accounting policies and its standards of financial disclosure are in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and the liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Principles of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Trust and its subsidiaries, together with its proportionate share of the assets, liabilities, revenue and expenses of all co-ownerships in which it participates.

On January 1, 2005, the Trust adopted the requirements of The Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants (CICA) Accounting Guideline 15, Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities (AcG-15), which provides guidance for applying the principles in Section 1590, Subsidiaries, to those entities defined as Variable Interest Entities (VIEs). This standard considers a VIE to be an entity in which either the equity at risk is not sufficient to permit it to finance its activities without additional subordinated financial support from other parties, or equity investors lack either voting control, an obligation to absorb expected losses, or the right to receive expected residual returns. AcG-15 requires consolidation of VIEs by the primary beneficiary. The primary beneficiary is defined as the party who has exposure to the majority of a VIE's expected losses and/or expected residual returns. The adoption of AcG-15 had no material impact on the Trust.

Exchangeable securities

The Trust has applied the recommendations of the Emerging Issues Committee (EIC) of the CICA who issued an Abstract of Issues Discussed No. 151, Exchangeable Securities Issued by Subsidiaries of Income Trusts (EIC-151), which provides guidance on the presentation of exchangeable securities issued by a subsidiary of an income trust. In order to be presented as equity, the exchangeable securities must have distributions that are economically equivalent to distributions on units issued directly by the income trust and the exchangeable securities must also ultimately be exchanged for units of the income trust.

Real estate assets

a) Income properties

Income properties are carried at cost less accumulated amortization, less impairment loss, if any. Cost includes initial acquisition costs, improvements, other direct costs and capitalized development costs. In accordance with EIC-137, Recognition of Customer Relationship Intangible Assets Acquired in a Business Combination, and EIC-140, Accounting for Operating Leases Acquired in Either an Asset Acquisition or a Business Combination, the cost of income property acquisitions initiated on or after September 12, 2003 is allocated to tangible and intangible assets based on their respective fair market values. Tangible assets include land, buildings, tenant improvements and equipment. Intangible assets include the value of in-place leases, the value of above and below market leases and the value of tenant relationships, if any. For income property acquisitions initiated before September 12, 2003, the cost of income properties was allocated to land and buildings based on their respective fair market values.

The Trust records amortization expense on a straight-line basis over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Buildings	40 years
Buildings under land leases and capital leases	term of the respective lease
Tenant improvements	term of the respective lease
Equipment	5 years
Value of in-place leases	term of the respective lease plus renewal periods as applicable
Value of tenant relationships	term of the respective lease plus renewal periods as applicable

The Trust amortizes the value of above and below market leases on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective lease as an adjustment to rentals from income properties.

b) Properties under development

Properties under development are stated at cost less impairment charges, if any. Cost includes initial acquisition costs, other direct costs of development and construction, allocations of directly attributable general and administrative expenses, property taxes, interest on both specific and general debt, and incidental operating revenues and expenses during the period of development. Certain properties under development are subject to development agreements (see note 5(a)).

c) Impairment of income properties and properties under development

The Trust uses a two-step process for determining when an impairment of income properties and properties under development should be recognized in the consolidated financial statements. If events or circumstances indicate that the carrying value of a property may be impaired, a recoverability analysis is performed based on estimated undiscounted future cash flows to be generated from property operations and its projected disposition. If the analysis indicates that the carrying value is not recoverable from future cash flows, the property is written down to estimated fair value and an impairment loss is recognized. No impairment losses were recorded by the Trust during 2005 or 2004.

d) Deferred leasing costs

Deferred leasing costs include tenant inducements and leasing costs. These costs are deferred and amortized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective lease.

e) Properties held for sale and discontinued operations

A property is classified by the Trust as held for sale on the consolidated balance sheet at the point in time when it is available for immediate sale, management has committed to a plan to sell the asset and is actively locating a buyer for the asset at a sales price that is reasonable in relation to the current fair value of the asset, and the sale is probable and expected to be completed within a one-year period. Properties held for sale are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value, less selling costs. No amortization is recorded on these properties once classified as held for sale. A property that is subsequently reclassified to held and used is measured at the lower of: (a) its carrying amount before it was classified as held for sale, adjusted for any amortization expense that would have been recognized had it been continuously classified as held and used; and (b) its estimated fair value at the date of the subsequent decision not to sell.

The results of operations associated with properties disposed of, or classified as held for sale, are reported separately as income from discontinued operations when the Trust has no continuing involvement with the ongoing cash flow of the assets.

f) Impairment of mortgages and loans receivable

Mortgages and loans receivable are classified as impaired when, in the opinion of management, there is a reasonable doubt as to the timely collection of principal and interest. The carrying amount of a mortgage or loan receivable that is classified as impaired is reduced to its estimated fair value.

Revenue recognition

Rentals from income properties include rents from tenants under leases, property tax and operating cost recoveries, percentage participation rents, lease cancellation fees, parking income and incidental income. Rents from tenants may include free rent periods and rental increases over the term of the lease and are recognized in revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease. The difference between revenue recognized and the cash received is included in amounts receivable as straight-line rent receivable. Recoveries from tenants are recognized as revenues in the period in which the applicable costs are incurred. Percentage participation rents are recognized after the minimum sales level has been achieved in accordance with each lease. Lease cancellation fees are recognized as revenue when the tenant foregoes the rights and obligations from the use of the space. Other income is recorded in the period it is earned.

For properties under development, rentals from income properties are recognized in the consolidated statements of income commencing upon the earlier of attaining a break-even point in cash flow after debt servicing or the expiration of a reasonable period of time following substantial completion determined at the time of approval of the project. Prior to the property under development meeting these criteria, net property operating income is recorded as a reduction of capitalized costs.

Unit based compensation

a) Unit options issued to non-employees on acquisitions. In connection with certain acquisitions and the associated development agreements, the Trust may grant options to acquire units of the Trust to FirstPro Group of Companies ("FirstPro") and other vendors. These options are measured at fair value at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model and are included in determining the cost of the acquisition.

b) Deferred unit plan

The deferred unit plan is described in note 11(f). Deferred units granted to trustees and executives in respect of their trustee fees and bonuses are considered to be in respect of past services and are recognized in compensation expense upon grant. Deferred units granted relating to amounts matched by the Trust are considered to be in respect of future services and are recognized in compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the vesting period. Compensation cost is measured based on the market price of the Trust's units on the date of grant of the deferred units. The deferred units earn additional deferred units for the distributions that would otherwise have been paid on the deferred units had they instead been issued as Trust Units on the date of grant. No additional compensation cost is recorded for additional deferred units issued. Deferred units that have vested, but for which the corresponding Trust Units have not been issued and where the ultimate issuance of such Trust Units is simply a matter of the passage of time, are considered to be outstanding units from the date of vesting for basic income per unit calculations.

c) Unit option plan

The Trust has a unit option plan for trustees and employees. The Trust recognizes compensation expense based on the fair value of the options at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model over the vesting period. The Trust does not intend to issue any further options under this plan.

d) Warrants issued to non-employees on acquisitions

In conjunction with certain acquisitions, the Trust may issue warrants to acquire units of the Trust to the vendor. These warrants are measured at fair value at the date of grant using a Black-Scholes option pricing model and are included in determining the cost of the acquisition.

Convertible debentures

Upon issuance, convertible debentures are separated into their debt and equity components. These components are measured based on their respective estimated fair values at the date of issuance of the convertible debentures. The fair value of the debt component is estimated based on the present value of future interest and principal payments due under the terms of the convertible debentures using a discount rate for similar debt instruments without a conversion feature. The value assigned to the equity component is the estimated fair value ascribed to the holders' option to convert the convertible debentures into units. The difference between the fair value of the convertible debentures and their face value is recognized as interest expense on a straight-line basis over the term to maturity of the convertible debentures.

Deferred financing costs

Deferred financing costs include commitment fees, underwriting costs and legal costs associated with new debt and the renewal of existing debt of the Trust. Financing costs for term mortgages, development loans and debentures are deferred and amortized over the term of the respective indebtedness. Financing costs for non-term debt are deferred and amortized over five years. In the event any debt is terminated, any associated unamortized financing costs are expensed immediately. Upon conversion of convertible debentures into Trust Units, a portion of the associated unamortized financing costs are charged to equity.

Income per unit calculations

Basic income per unit is calculated by dividing income by the weighted average number of units outstanding for the year including vested deferred units. The calculation of income per unit on a diluted basis considers the potential exercise or conversion of outstanding unit purchase options and development agreement options. Exchange Agreement options, unvested deferred units, warrants and convertible debentures, if dilutive, and is calculated using the treasury stock method.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are comprised of cash and include short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less. At December 31, 2005, cash and cash equivalents include the Trust's proportionate share of cash balances of joint ventures of $1,265 (2004 - $1,716).

Fair value of financial instruments

The Trust's amounts receivable, prepaid expenses and deposits, cash and cash equivalents and accounts payable and accrued liabilities are carried at cost, which approximates their fair value because of the short period to receipt or payment of cash. The fair values of other financial instruments are disclosed in notes 6 and 10, with fair values estimated based on discounted future cash flows using discount rates that reflect current market conditions for instruments with similar terms and risks. Such fair value estimates are not necessarily indicative of the amounts the Trust might pay or receive in actual market transactions.

Derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are utilized by the Trust in the management of its interest rate exposures. The Trust's policy is not to utilize derivative financial instruments for trading or speculative purposes. The Trust may enter into interest rate swaps or similar instruments in order to reduce the impact of fluctuating interest rates on its debt. These swap agreements require the periodic exchange of payments without the exchange of the notional principal amount on which the payments are based. The Trust designates its interest rate agreements as hedges of the underlying debt. Interest expense on the debt is adjusted to include the payments made or received under the interest rate swaps.

3. Acquisitions

a) On July 8, 2005, the Trust completed the acquisition of substantially all of the freehold and leasehold interests in 45 properties from FirstPro, Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. and other vendors. These interests include the co-ownership interests owned by FirstPro in seven properties where the Trust already owned the other co-ownership interests, effectively giving the Trust a 100% ownership interest in these properties. As at the closing date, the 45 properties comprised approximately 5,458,375 net square feet of leased area of which approximately 2,141,771 net square feet (18 stores) was leased to Wal-Mart Canada Inc., and include lands with the potential for future development of approximately 2,721,594 net square feet. In connection with the acquisition, FirstPro obtained the ability to nominate a specified number of trustees; the Trust entered into long-term development agreements and property management agreements with FirstPro on the properties acquired; and it was agreed that the Trust's head office would be relocated to Toronto.

The purchase price of the properties was $1,168,703 including costs of acquisition. Of this purchase price, approximately $190,017 relates to three properties in which the Trust acquired leasehold interests and prepaid its entire lease obligation. The purchase price was satisfied by the assumption of existing mortgages, non-interest bearing mortgages provided by the vendors, the issuance of 12,594,458 Class B Units (see note 11 for a description of the Class B Units) to FirstPro and the other vendors, the issuance of Development Agreement options and Exchange Agreement options to FirstPro and the other vendors, the assumption of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and cash including amounts obtained from new term mortgages and unsecured bridge loan financing. The Class B Units were valued at a price of $19.85 per unit, which was approximately the fair market value of Trust Units on the date the substantive terms of the acquisition were agreed upon and announced. Development Agreement options and Exchange Agreement options were valued at their estimated combined fair market value of $10,675 based on a Black-Scholes calculation using the following assumptions: average volatility of 17.8% on the underlying Trust Units; an exercise price of $20.10 per unit; a risk free interest rate of 1.605%; a weighted average expected life of two years; and an expected distribution rate on the Trust Units of 6.76%.

At December 31, 2005, the acquisition of two properties under development (included in the 45 properties above) has not been completed. Cash of $250 and 184,524 Class B Units with an ascribed value at the date of grant of $3,663 are held in escrow and will be released to the vendors on closing of acquisition of the properties by the Trust. In addition, the Trust is obligated to provide an additional $6,990 in cash to complete the acquisition of one of these properties. If the properties are acquired, they will be recorded at the date of acquisition at which time the purchase price will be allocated to the fair value of the net assets acquired, otherwise the cash and units held in escrow (note 9(a)) will be returned to the Trust.

b) On March 10, 2005, the Trust completed the acquisition of a 100% interest in three retail properties and a 60% undivided interest in each of five other retail properties from the co-owners, FirstPro and Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. The purchase price of the properties was $229,333 including costs of acquisition. Wal-Mart Canada Inc. operates stores in all eight centres. The purchase price was satisfied by a non-interest bearing mortgage on one of the properties provided by the vendors, the issuance of Development Agreement options, the assumption of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and cash including amounts obtained from new debt financing on seven of the properties.

c) Pursuant to Development Agreements and the Exchange

Agreement referred to in notes 4 and 5(a), the Trust completed the purchase of additional development space (Earnouts) from FirstPro and Wal-Mart Realty Inc. for $101,322.

d) The Trust completed three acquisitions from unrelated parties during the year ended December 31, 2005 for a total purchase price of $39,289.

At December 31, 2005, the allocation of the purchase prices to the assets acquired for these acquisitions was finalized. Income from the acquired properties is included in the consolidated statement of income from the date of acquisition or, in the case of the July 8, 2005 acquisition, from an effective date of July 1, 2005.

a) On February 16, 2004, the Trust completed the acquisition of twelve retail properties from a partnership (WMI-FP Partnership) in which FirstPro is a 40% owner and an affiliate of a major tenant (Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc.) is a 60% owner. The purchase price of the properties was $312,604 including costs of acquisition. Wal-Mart Canada Inc. operates stores in all twelve centres. The purchase price was satisfied by non-interest bearing mortgages on two of the properties provided by the vendors, the issuance of Development Agreement options, the assumption of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and cash including amounts obtained from new debt financing on ten of the properties.

b) On May 4, 2004, the Trust completed the acquisition of a 50% and 49% undivided interest in two retail properties pursuant to an assignment of purchase agreement between FirstPro and the previous owner. The purchase price of these interests was $52,376 including costs of acquisition. Under the terms of the assignment, the Trust loaned an additional $9,400 at 9% per annum to FirstPro to replace mezzanine loans payable by FirstPro to one of the vendors of the properties. This loan was subsequently repaid on July 8, 2005 when the Trust acquired the remaining interest in each of the properties. The purchase price was satisfied by the assumption of existing mortgages, the issuance of Development Agreement options and the assumption of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and cash obtained from unsecured bridge financing.

c) On May 14, 2004, the Trust completed the acquisition of twelve retail properties from the WM-FP Partnership. The purchase price of the properties was $287,564 including costs of acquisition. Wal-Mart Canada Inc. operates stores in all twelve centres. The purchase price was satisfied by non-interest bearing mortgages on two of the properties and an interest bearing mortgage on one of the properties provided by the vendor, the issuance of Development Agreement options, the assumption of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and cash including amounts obtained from new debt financing on eight of the properties.

d) On November 30, 2004, the Trust completed the acquisition of six retail properties from the WM-FP Partnership. The purchase price of the properties was $71,521 including costs of acquisition. Wal-Mart Canada Inc. operates stores in all six centres (three stores continue to be owned by Wal-Mart). The purchase price was satisfied by non-interest bearing mortgages on two of the properties provided by the vendor, the issuance of Development Agreement options, the assumption of accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and cash including amounts obtained from new debt financing on three of the properties.

e) Pursuant to Development Agreements referred to in notes 4 and 5(a), the Trust completed the purchase of additional development space (Earmouts) from WM-FP Partnership for $24,369.

Land with a carrying value of $31,231 (2004 - $12,992) is subject to development acquisition agreements with FirstPro and the Exchange Agreement, the original vendor of the properties. FirstPro pays the Trust an opportunity fee ranging from 8% to 9% per annum of the aggregate undeveloped land cost as reduced from time to time upon the completion and rental of additional space that is purchased by the Trust. As the negotiated opportunity fee earned by the Trust reflects management's estimate of a fair market return for the lease of a productive asset, the fee is recognized as revenue. Pursuant to the development acquisition agreements, FirstPro has assumed the responsibility for the cost of developing the land. Included in this land subject to development acquisition agreements is land with a carrying value of $7,043 for which FirstPro is obligated to repurchase any land remaining undeveloped at the end of the specified development period of five years (extendable to ten years under certain circumstances). The remaining land subject to development acquisition agreements with a carrying value of $24,188 provides for a reduction, under certain circumstances at the end of the development period, of 15% of the Trust's obligations under a non-interest bearing development loan related to the land, which has a principal amount outstanding at December 31, 2005 of $3,600. Upon the completion and rental of additional space on these lands the Trust is obligated to purchase the additional developments at a total price calculated by a formula using the net operating rents and predetermined negotiated capitalization rates (which range from 7.155% to 10.0%), on the date rent becomes payable on the additional space (Gross Cost). The actual price paid to FirstPro is the Gross Cost less the associated land cost (Net Cost). The Trust has provided a second mortgage on a specific property in the amount of $10,000 to FirstPro as security for payment of the Net Cost.

For certain of this land, FirstPro has been granted the right, at its option, to receive up to 40% of the Gross Cost in Trust Units for developments completed pursuant to the development acquisition agreements, subject to a maximum number of units (note 11(c)). For other land, FirstPro has been granted the right, at its option, to receive up to 40% of the Gross Cost in Class B Units for developments completed pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, subject to a maximum number of units (note 11(c)).

The Trust has also provided financing to FirstPro to fund development costs (note 6(b)).

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Trust acquired 196,218 square feet (2004 - 28,621 square feet) of retail space upon completion and rental of additional space by FirstPro at a Net Cost of $26,386 (2004 - $4,291) (i.e., exclusive of the cost of land previously acquired). FirstPro elected to receive consideration of $7,418 (2004 - $1,717) in Trust Units and $3,127

(2004 - $nil) in Class B Units (note 11(c)).

As at December 31, 2005, four income properties with a cost of $234,307 and a net book value of $226,589 are subject to capital leases. As at December 31, 2004, one property with a cost of $40,807 and a net book value of $40,048 is subject to a capital lease. Three of the income properties were acquired in 2005 under the terms of 35-year leases with FirstPro. FirstPro has the right to terminate the leases after ten years on payment to the Trust of the market value of a 35-year leasehold interest in the properties at that time and also has the right to terminate the leases at any time in the event any third party acquires 20% of the aggregate of the Trust Units and special voting units by payment to the Trust of the unamortized balance of any prepaid lease cost. The Trust prepaid its entire lease obligations of $190,017, including prepaid land rent of $47,157, under these lease agreements on July 8, 2005. There are no purchase options at the end of the lease term for these three income properties and, accordingly, the portion of the prepaid lease obligation attributable to land has been classified as prepaid land rent. Amortization of prepaid land rent is included in property operating costs in the consolidated statement of income. The fourth capital lease is described further in note 9(c).

During 2005, unamortized tenant improvements and intangible assets relating to space that was vacated by tenants during the year, totalling $4,057, were charged to amortization expense.

5. Properties under development

Properties under development consist of the following:

ated capitalization rates (which range from 7.250% to 9.125%). The Earnout Fee is calculated as the Gross Cost less the associated land and development costs incurred by the Trust.

For certain of these properties under development, FirstPro has been granted the right, at its option, to receive up to 40% of the Gross Cost in Trust Units for developments completed pursuant to the development management agreements, subject to a maximum number of units (note 11(c)). For other properties under development, FirstPro has been granted the right, at their option, to receive up to 40% of the Gross Cost in Class B Units for developments completed pursuant to the Exchange Agreement, subject to a maximum number of units (note 11(c)).

The vendors have provided non-interest bearing loans for the initial land acquisition costs and interest bearing loans to finance additional costs of developments (notes 10(c) and 10(b), respectively).

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Trust completed 371,143 square feet (2004 - 118,760 square feet) of retail space with a Gross Cost of $49,477 (2004 - $13,884) plus Earnout Fees paid to the vendors of $25,459 (2004 - $6,194). FirstPro elected to receive $24,660 (2004 - $8,071) in Trust Units and $3,519 (2004 - $nil) in Class B Units (note 11(c)).

b) Properties under development not subject to development management agreements

a) Properties under development subject to development management agreements

These properties under development are subject to development management agreements with FirstPro and Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. (together with the development acquisition agreements discussed in note 4, collectively referred to as the Development Agreements) and to an exchange, option and support agreement with FirstPro and the other vendors of the properties (the Exchange Agreement). Pursuant to the development management agreements and the Exchange Agreement, the vendors assume responsibility for managing the development of the land on behalf of the Trust and are granted the right for a period of five years to earn an Earnout Fee.

The Trust is obligated to pay the Earnout Fee upon the completion and rental of additional space on these properties, on the date rent becomes payable on the additional space. Gross Cost is calculated by a formula using the net operating rents and predetermined negoti-

a) Mortgages receivable of $36,492 (2004 - $21,495) have been provided pursuant to agreements with FirstPro in which the Trust will lend up to $54,450 (2004 - $37,331) for use in acquiring and developing six (2004 - six) properties in Ontario and Quebec. These mortgages bear interest payable monthly at 7.50% to 9.25% (2004 - 8.75% to 9.25%) and the principal amounts are due at the maturity of the mortgages at various dates in 2009 and 2010 (four to five years from the initial advance). The mortgages are secured by first or second charges on properties, assignments of rents and leases, and general security agreements. In addition, other FirstPro affiliated companies have provided certain limited indemnities and guarantees.

During 2005, $22,521 has been funded, offset by repayments of $7,524.

The Trust has an option to acquire a 50% interest in the properties upon substantial completion at an agreed upon formula. During the year ended December 31, 2005, one property was completed and the Trust exercised its option to acquire a 50% interest. The acquisition was completed on July 8, 2005 at a cost of $6,208.

The loans bear interest at rates that approximate the prime rate of a Canadian chartered bank plus rates ranging from 0.75% to 1.25% (2004 - 0.75% to 1.25%). The loans receivable are repayable at the completion and rental of the properties under development. FirstPro has not provided any security in regard to the loans; however, the loan agreements stipulate that the proceeds of the loans are to be used to fund improvements to properties owned by the Trust.

c) Mortgages receivable of $1,600 (2004 - $1,600) have been provided to a company in which a trustee of the Trust is an officer and director, are secured by second charges on two properties under development, bear interest at 12% per annum and are repayable in their entirety upon the earliest of the Trust purchasing the properties, the properties being sold to a third party and the day which is two years following the date of substantial completion of the properties. The Trust has an option to purchase the properties at a negotiated price, or failing agreement, at a price equal to 95% of the appraised value

For the year ended December 31, 2005, $1,201 (2004 - $nil) of unamortized deferred financing costs, relating to convertible debentures that have been converted, have been charged to equity (note 11(h)). Amortization of deferred financing costs are included in interest expense (note 10(g)).

a) Authorized units

i) Trust Units

The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of voting trust units ("Trust Units"), each of which represents an equal undivided interest in the Trust. All Trust Units outstanding from time to time shall be entitled to participate pro rata in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination or winding up of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust. All Trust Units shall rank among themselves equally and ratably without discrimination, preference or priority. Unit holders are entitled to require the Trust to redeem all or any part of their Trust Units at prices determined and payable in accordance with the conditions provided for in the Declaration of Trust. A maximum amount of $50 may be redeemed in total in any one month unless otherwise waived by the Board of Trustees.

The Trust is authorized to issue an unlimited number of special voting units that will be used to provide voting rights to holders of exchangeable securities. Special voting units are not entitled to any interest or share in the distributions or net assets of the Trust. Each special voting unit entitles the holder to the number of votes at any meeting of unit holders of the Trust, which is equal to the number of Trust Units into which the exchangeable security is exchangeable or convertible. Special voting units shall be cancelled on the issuance of Trust Units on exercise, conversion or cancellation of the corresponding exchangeable securities. At December 31, 2005, there were 12,925,125 special voting units outstanding. There is no value assigned to the special voting units.

ii) Limited partnership units

An unlimited number of Class A Units, Class B Units and Class C Units may be issued by Calloway Limited Partnership ("LP"). Class A partners have five votes for each Class A Unit held, Class B partners have one vote for each Class B Unit held and Class C partners have no votes at meetings of the LP. The LP is under the control of the Trust.

The Class A Units are entitled to all distributable cash of the LP after the required distributions on the Class B Units have been paid. At December 31, 2005, there were 3,080,000 Class A Units outstanding. All Class A Units are owned indirectly by the Trust and have been eliminated on consolidation.

The Class B Units are non-transferable, except under certain circumstances, but are exchangeable into an equal number of Trust Units at the holder's option. Holders of Class B Units are entitled to receive distributions equivalent to the distributions on Trust Units. Each Class B Unit is entitled to one special voting unit, which will entitle the holder to receive notice of, attend and vote at all meetings of the Trust. The Class B Units are considered to be economically equivalent to Trust Units and accordingly have been presented as equity in these consolidated financial statements.

The Class C Units are entitled to receive 0.01% of any distributions of the LP and have nominal value assigned in the financial statements. The Class C Units are exchangeable at the holder's option into Class B Units upon the completion and rental of additional space on specific properties and payment of $20.10 per unit (the Exchange Agreement options - see note 11(c)). At December 31, 2005, there were 8,169,333 Class C Units outstanding.

b) Units issued

c) Development Agreement options and Exchange Agreement options

As part of consideration paid for certain income property acquisitions, the Trust has granted options in connection with Development Agreements and the Exchange Agreement (notes 3, 4 and 5) with FirstPro and other vendors. Upon completion and rental of additional space on specific properties, the holder may elect to exercise the options and receive Trust Units, in the case of the Development Agreements options, and Class B Units by exchanging Class C Units, in the case of the Exchange Agreement options. The option strike prices were based on the market price of Trust Units on the date the substantive terms were agreed upon and announced. No options were exercised during the year ended December 31, 2003.

d) Unit option plan

On July 7, 2003, 560,000 unit options expiring on July 7, 2008 were granted at a strike price of $10 per unit to employees and trustees. The status of the outstanding unit options as at December 31, 2005 is as follows:

	Outstanding	Vested
Balance - January 1, 2004	545,000	425,000
Vested	-	60,000

Exercised	(318,400)	(318,400)
Balance - December 31, 2005	5,000	5,000

The Trust does not intend to issue any further options under this plan. The remaining options were exercised on January 13, 2006.

e) Warrants

In 2003, Calloway issued 1,000,000 warrants to FirstPro as part of a purchase agreement and in 2004 all warrants were exercised for Trust Units at a strike price of $10.50 per unit.

f) Deferred unit plan

During 2005, the Trust implemented a deferred unit plan. The plan entitles trustees and officers, at the participant's option, to receive deferred units in consideration for trustee fees or executive bonuses with the Trust matching the number of units received. The deferred units vest 50% on the third anniversary and 25% on each of the fourth and fifth anniversaries, subject to provisions for earlier vesting in certain events. The deferred units earn additional deferred units for the distributions that would otherwise have been paid on the deferred units (i.e., had they instead been issued as Trust Units on the date of grant). Once vested, participants are entitled to receive an equivalent number of Trust Units for the vested deferred units and the corresponding additional deferred units.

The deferred unit plan was approved by unit holders on July 7, 2005 and the Trust granted 71,544 deferred units at a grant day value of $1,545. The completion of the acquisition of properties on July 8, 2005, was defined to be a change of control for purposes of the deferred unit plan. This resulted in the immediate vesting of all outstanding deferred units at this date and the recognition of all unrecognized compensation expense in respect of these deferred units, in excess of initial amounts previously recorded for trustee fees and executive bonuses. The amount expensed was $858.

The status of the outstanding deferred units as at December 31, 2005 is as follows:

	Outstanding	Vested
Deferred units granted and vested on July 7, 2005	71,544	71,544
Deferred units granted	12,069	-
Additional deferred units earned on vested deferred units	2,326	2,326
Additional deferred units earned on unvested deferred units	46	-

g) Distribution reinvestment plan

The Trust enables holders of Trust Units to reinvest their cash distributions in additional units of the Trust at 97% of the weighted average unit price over the ten trading days prior to the distribution. The 3% bonus amount is recorded as an additional distribution and reinvestment.

h) Convertible debentures

During the year ended December 31, 2005, $31,875 (2004 - $450) of face value of the Convertible Debentures were converted into 1,875,036 (2004 - 26,470) Trust Units. The face value of the Convertible Debentures, net of a discount of $1,278 (2004 - $nil), plus a proportionate share of the equity component in the amount of $1,261 (2004 - $18), net of applicable unamortized deferred financing costs of $1,201 (2004 - $nil), was added to Trust Unit capital.

12. Amortization expense

Amortization expense consists of the following:

	2005	2004
Income properties	$	$
Tangible assets	35,512	13,242
Intangible assets	30,042	9,346
Deferred leasing costs	123	45
	65,677	22,633

13. Net income per unit

The following table sets forth the weighted average number of units outstanding for income per unit purposes:

	2005	2004
Trust Units	43,185,598	26,190,956
Class B Units	6,181,148	-
Vested deferred units	35,483	-

Unit options	88,086	147,571
Warrants	-	148,666
Diluted	49,490,315	26,487,193

The impact of the potential exercise of Development Agreement options and Exchange Agreement options have not been included in the calculation of the weighted average diluted number of units outstanding because the conditions necessary for their issuance were not satisfied as at December 31, 2005 or December 31, 2004. The impact of the unvested deferred units and the potential conversion of the Convertible Debentures into Trust Units has not been included in the calculation of the diluted number of units outstanding, as at December 31, 2005 and December 31, 2004, as it has been determined to be anti-dilutive.

As at December 31, 2005, FirstPro owned 8,054,001 Trust Units and 10,588,716 Class B Units, which represent approximately 26.8% of the issued and outstanding Trust Units and Class B Units, combined. No impairment losses were recorded on these properties. At December 31, 2005, the Trust determined that Airtech Centre and British Colonial Building no longer qualified for held for sale treatment and these two properties were reclassified as held and used. At December 31, 2005, Canadian Commercial Centre continues to be

The Trust is taxed as a Mutual Fund Trust for Canadian income tax purposes. The Trust is required by its declaration of trust to distribute all of its taxable income to unitholders, which enables the Trust to deduct such distributions for income tax purposes. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is recorded in the consolidated financial statements.

The carrying values of the Trust's net assets at December 31, 2005 exceed their tax basis by approximately $160,982 (2004 - $6,000).

20. Risk management and fair values

The Trust is exposed to certain financial risks, including changes in interest rates, the credit quality of its tenants and environmental matters. The Trust manages these risks as follows:

- a) Interest rate risk
- The majority of the Trust's debt is financed at fixed rates with maturities staggered over a number of years, thereby mitigating its exposure to changes in interest rates.

A portion of the Trust's debt is financed at variable rates. From time to time, the Trust may enter into interest rate swap contracts to modify the interest rate profile of its variable rate debt without an exchange of the underlying principal amount. As at December 31, 2004, $15,000 of the variable rate debt was subject to interest rate swap agreements, which had a nominal fair value and which matured in February 2005. There were no interest rate swaps or other derivative financial instruments outstanding as at December 31, 2005.

b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises from the possibility that tenants may experience financial difficulty and be unable to fulfill their lease commitments. The Trust mitigates this risk of credit loss by ensuring that its tenant mix is diversified and by limiting its exposure to any one tenant except Wal-Mart Canada Inc. and government agencies. Further risks arise in the event that borrowers default on the repayment of amounts owing to the Trust. The Trust endeavours to ensure adequate security has been provided in support of mortgages and loans receivable.

c) Environmental risk

As an owner of real property, the Trust is subject to various federal, provincial and municipal laws relating to environmental matters. Such laws provide a range of potential liability, including potentially significant penalties, and potential liability for the costs of removal or remediation of certain hazardous substances. The presence of such substances, if any, could adversely affect the Trust's ability to sell or redevelop such real estate or to borrow using such real estate as collateral and, potentially, could also result in civil claims against the Trust. As required by the Declaration of Trust, and in accordance with best management practices, Phase 1 audits are completed on all properties prior to acquisition. Further investigation is conducted if Phase 1 tests indicate a potential problem. In addition, the standard lease restricts tenants from carrying on environmentally hazardous activities or having environmentally hazardous substances on site.

The Trust has obtained environmental insurance on certain assets to further manage risk.

21. Commitments and contingencies

The Trust has certain obligations and commitments pursuant to Development Agreements as disclosed in notes 4 and 5(a) and also has entered into various development contracts totalling $11,485. In addition, the Trust is committed to complete the acquisition of two properties under development, as disclosed in note 3(a).

The Trust has entered into agreements with FirstPro in which the Trust will lend monies to FirstPro as disclosed in note 6(a). The maximum amount that may be provided under the agreements totals $54,450.

One of the Trust's income properties is subject to a land lease requiring annual lease payments of $205. The annual lease payment increases to $220 in 2007. The lease expires November 2011 and the Trust has an option to extend for a further ten years.

Letters of credit totalling $17,795 have been issued on behalf of the Trust by the Trust's bank as security for mortgages and for maintenance obligations to municipal authorities.

The Trust indemnifies its trustees and officers against any and all claims or losses reasonably incurred in the performance of their services to the Trust to the extent permitted by law.

The Trust, in the normal course of operations, is subject to a variety of legal and other claims. Management and the Trust's legal counsel evaluate all claims on their apparent merits and accrue management's best estimate of the likely cost to satisfy such claims. Management believes that the outcome of current legal and other claims filed against the Trust will not have a significant impact on the Trust's consolidated financial statements.

22. Comparative figures

Certain of the comparative figures have been reclassified from statements previously issued to conform to the presentation in the 2005 consolidated financial statements.

23. Subsequent events

In January and February 2006, the Trust entered into two agreements with FirstPro in which the Trust will lend up to $33,900 for use in acquiring and developing certain properties in Caledon, Ontario and Barrie, Ontario. These mortgage receivables bear interest at 7.25% to 7.50%, which accrues up to a maximum of $5,660 and thereafter is payable monthly. The Trust has the option, during the first four years after the initial advances, to acquire a 50% interest in the properties upon substantial completion of development of the properties at an agreed upon formula. The principal amount of the mortgage receivables, including accrued interest, is repayable six years after the initial advances if the options are not exercised. The mortgage receivables are secured by second charges on the properties, assignment of rents and leases, and general security agreements. In addition, companies affiliated with FirstPro have provided certain limited indemnities and guarantees. As at February 24, 2006, $10,315 has been advanced under these agreements.

In January and February 2006, pursuant to the Development Agreements referred to in notes 4 and 5(a), the Trust completed or acquired 101,056 square feet of development space from FirstPro for a cost of $23,499. FirstPro elected to receive consideration of $7,703 in Trust Units (480,998 Trust Units) and consideration of $1,261 in Class B Units (62,733 Class B Units). On February 10, 2006, the Trust completed the acquisition of a 51,060 square foot retail property in Calgary, Alberta for a purchase price of $10,500. The purchase price was paid in cash.

On February 20, 2006, the Trust completed the acquisition of a 14.53 acre development property in Burlington, Ontario for a purchase price of $11,264. The purchase price was paid in cash.

The Trust has entered into two agreements to acquire two retail income properties (330,393 square feet) in Ontario at a purchase price of approximately $63,100 to be paid for by assuming an existing mortgage, issuance of equity units and cash. The acquisitions are contingent on the Trust performing its due diligence to its satisfaction. The expected closing is in April 2006.

The Trust has entered into contracts to acquire interests in four retail income properties (154,784 square feet) from FirstPro at a price of approximately $40,000 to be paid for by issuance of equity units and cash. Included in the four, are two properties (85,632 square feet) where the Trust has exercised its option to acquire the remaining 50% interest that the Trust does not already own at a price of approximately $11,000. The acquisitions are contingent on the Trust performing its due diligence to its satisfaction. The expected closing is in April 2006.

Funds from Operations ("FFO")

FFO is not defined by GAAP and is a non-GAAP financial measure of operating performance widely used by the real estate industry. FFO has been calculated in accordance with the new recommendations of RealPac.

FFO is defined as net income (computed in accordance with GAAP), excluding gains (or losses) from sales of depreciable real estate and extraordinary items, plus depreciation and amortization, plus future income taxes and after adjustments for equity accounted for entities and non-controlling interests. Adjustments for equity accounted entities and joint ventures and non-controlling interests are calculated to reflect funds from operations on the same basis as the consolidated properties.

The receipt by or on behalf of the Trustees for moneys or other consideration shall be binding upon the Trust.

4.6 Determinations of Trustees Binding

All determinations of the Trustees which are made in good faith with respect to any matters relating to the Trust, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, whether any particular investment or disposition meets the requirements of this Declaration of Trust, shall be final and conclusive and shall be binding upon the Trust and all Unitholders (and, where the Unitholder is a registered retirement savings plan, registered retirement income fund, deferred profit sharing plan or registered pension fund or plan as defined in the Income Tax Act (Canada), or such other fund or plan registered under the Income Tax Act (Canada), upon plan beneficiaries and plan holders past, present and future) and Special Unitholders and Units and Special Voting Units of the Trust shall be issued and sold on the condition and understanding that any and all such determinations shall be binding as aforesaid.

4.7 Conflict of Interest

If a Trustee or an officer of the Trust:

4.7.1 is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Trust (including a contract or transaction involving the making, or disposition of any investment in Real Property or a joint venture arrangement); or

4.7.2 is a director or officer of, or otherwise has a material interest in, any person who is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Trust, the Trustee or the officer of the Trust, as the case may be, shall disclose in writing to the Trustees or request to have entered in the minutes of meetings of the Trustees the nature and extent of such interest as follows:

4.7.3 The disclosure required in the case of a Trustee shall be made:

4.7.3.1 at the meeting of Trustees at which a proposed contract or transaction is first considered;

4.7.3.2 if the Trustee was not then interested in a proposed contract or transaction, at the first such meeting after he becomes so interested;

4.7.3.3 if the Trustee becomes interested after a contract is made or a transaction is entered into, at the first meeting after he becomes so interested; or

4.7.3.4 if a person who is interested in a contract or transaction later becomes a Trustee, at the first such meeting after he becomes a Trustee;

4.7.4 The disclosure required in the case of an officer of the Trust who is not a Trustee shall be made:

4.7.4.1 forthwith after such person becomes aware that the contract or transaction or proposed contract or transaction is to be considered or has been considered at a meeting of the Trustees;

4.7.4.2 if such person becomes interested after a contract is made or a transaction is entered to, forthwith after such person becomes so interested; or

4.7.4.3 if a person who is interested in a contract or transaction later becomes an officer of the Trust who is not a Trustee, forthwith after he becomes an officer of the Trust;

4.7.5 Notwithstanding subsections 4.7.3 and 4.7.4, where this section applies to any person in respect of a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction that, in the ordinary course of the affairs of the Trust, would not require approval by the Trustees or the Unitholders, such person shall disclose in writing to the Trustees or request to have entered into the minutes of meetings of the Trustees the nature and extent of such person's interest forthwith after such person becomes aware of the contract or transaction or proposed contract or transaction;

4.7.6 A Trustee referred to in this section shall not vote on any resolution to approve the said contract or transaction unless the contract or transaction is:

4.7.6.1 one relating primarily to his remuneration as a Trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Trust; or

4.7.6.2 one for indemnity under section 15.1. or the purchase of liability insurance;

4.7.7 For the purposes hereof, a general notice to the Trustees by a Trustee or an officer of the Trust disclosing that he is a director or officer of or has a material interest in a person and is to be regarded as interested in any contract made or any transaction entered into with that person, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to any contract so made or transaction so entered into. In the event that a meeting of Unitholders is called to confirm or approve a contract or transaction which is the subject of a general notice to the Trustees, the notice and extent of the interest in the contract or transaction of the person giving such general notice shall be disclosed in reasonable detail in the notice calling the said meeting of Unitholders or in any information circular required to be provided by this Declaration of Trust or by law;

4.7.8 Where a material contract is made or a material transaction is entered into between the Trust and a Trustee or an officer of the Trust, or between the Trust and another person of which a Trustee or an officer of the Trust is a director or officer or in which he has a material interest:

4.7.8.1 such person is not accountable to the Trust or to the Unitholders for any profit or gain realized from the contract or transaction; and

by reason only of that relationship or by reason only that such person is present at or is counted to determine the presence of a quorum at the meeting of the Trustees that authorized the contract or transaction, if such, person disclosed his interest in accordance with this section 4.7, and the contract or transaction was approved by the Trustees or the Unitholders and was reasonable and fair to the Trust at the time it was so approved;

4.7.9 Notwithstanding anything in this section, but without limiting the effect of subsection 4.7.8, a Trustee or an officer of the Trust, acting honestly and in good faith, is not accountable to the Trust or to the Unitholders for any profit or gain realized from any such contract or transaction by reason only of his holding such office or position, and the contract or transaction, if it was reasonable and fair to the Trust at the time it was approved, is not by reason only of such person's interest therein void or voidable, where:

4.7.9.1 the contract or transaction is confirmed or approved at a meeting of Unitholders duly called for that purpose; and

4.7.9.2 the nature and extent of such person's interest in the contract or transaction are disclosed in reasonable detail in the notice calling the meeting or in any information circular required to be provided by this Declaration of Trust or by law; and

4.7.10 Subject to subsections 4.7.8 and 4.7.9, where a Trustee or an officer of the Trust fails to disclose his interest in a material contract or transaction in accordance with this Declaration of Trust or otherwise fails to comply with this section, the Trustees or any Unitholder, in addition to exercising any other rights or remedies in connection with such failure exercisable at law or in equity, may apply to a court for an order setting aside the contract or transaction and/or directing that such person account to the Trust for any profit or gain realized.

ARTICLE 5 INVESTMENT GUIDELINES AND OPERATING POLICIES

5.1 Investment Guidelines

The assets of the Trust may be invested only in accordance with the following guidelines:

5.1.1 the Trust will focus its acquisition activities on existing income-producing properties that are capital property of the Trust, including office, retail, industrial and mixed use properties, that are substantially leased;

5.1.2 notwithstanding anything in this Declaration of Trust to the contrary, the Trust shall not make any investment or take any action or omit to take any action that would result in Units not being units of a "mutual fund trust" and of a "unit trust" within the meaning of the Income Tax Act, that would result in Units being disqualified for investment by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, deferred profit sharing plans or registered education savings plans, that would result in the Trust being liable under the Income Tax Act to pay a tax imposed as a result of holdings by the Trust of foreign property as defined in the Income Tax Act, that would result in Units being foreign property for the purposes of the Income Tax Act or that would result in the Trust paying a tax under the registered investment provisions of the Income Tax Act imposed for exceeding certain investment limits;

- 5.1.3 the Trust may invest in a joint venture arrangement only if:
- 5.1.3.1 the arrangement is one pursuant to which the Trust holds an interest in Real Property jointly or in common with others ("joint venturers") either directly or through the ownership of an interest in a corporation or other entity (a "joint venture entity") as co-owners and not as partners and such Real Property is capital property of the Trust and if owned through the ownership of an interest in a joint venture entity, the said Real Property is capital property of the joint venture entity;
 - 5.1.3.2 the Trust's interest in the joint venture arrangement is not subject to any restriction on transfer other than a right of first offer or a right of first refusal, if any, in favour of the joint venturers;
 - 5.1.3.3 the Trust has a right of first offer or a right of first refusal to buy the interests of the other joint venturers;
 - 5.1.3.4 the joint venture arrangement provides an appropriate buy-sell mechanism to enable a joint venturer to purchase the other joint venturers' interests or to sell its interest;
 - 5.1.3.5 the joint venture arrangement provides that the liability of the Trust to third parties is several based on its proportionate ownership interest of the joint venture and not joint and several, provided however, that subject to any remedies that each joint venturer may have against the other joint venturers, a joint venturer may be required to give up its interest in any particular property owned by the joint venture entity as a result of another joint venturer's failure to honour its proportionate share of the obligations relating to such property; and
 - 5.1.3.6 the joint venture arrangement permits, but does not require, the Trust or its designee to participate fully in the management thereof,
- 5.1.4 except for temporary investments held in cash, deposits with a Canadian chartered bank or trust company registered under the laws of a province of Canada, short-term government debt securities, or in money market instruments of, or guaranteed by, a Schedule 1 Canadian chartered bank maturing prior to one year from the date of issue, the Trust may not hold securities other than securities of a trust or limited partnership formed for the purpose of holding Real Property, securities of a joint venture entity or an entity or corporation wholly owned by the Trust formed and operated for the purpose of holding a particular Real Property or real properties or for any other purpose relating to the activities of the Trust, and provided further that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Declaration of Trust to the contrary, the Trust may acquire securities of other real estate investment trusts;
- 5.1.5 except as otherwise prohibited in this Declaration of Trust, the Trust may invest in interests (including fee ownership and leasehold interests) in income-producing Real Property in Canada and the United States that is capital property of the Trust;
- 5.1.6 the Trust shall not acquire any single investment in real property (whether directly or indirectly through its interest in a trust or limited partnership) if the cost to the Trust of such acquisition (including encumbrances assumed) will exceed 20% of the Gross Book Value calculated following such purchase;

- 5.1.7 the Trust shall not invest in rights to or interests in mineral or other natural resources, including oil or gas, except as incidental to an investment in Real Property that is capital property of the Trust;
- 5.1.8 the Trust shall not invest in operating businesses unless such investment is incidental to a transaction: (i) where the revenue will be derived, directly or indirectly, principally from Real Property; or (ii) which principally involves the ownership, maintenance, improvement, leasing or management, directly or indirectly, of real property (in each case as determined by the Trustees);
- 5.1.9 the Trust shall not acquire interests in general partnerships or limited partnerships provided that the Trust may invest in a general partnership or limited partnership if:
- 5.1.9.1 the general partnership or limited partnership is formed and operated solely for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining, improving, developing, leasing or managing a particular Real Property or Real Properties or interest therein.
- 5.1.9.2 the Trust's interest in the limited partnership is not subject to any restriction on transfer other than a right of first offer or right of first refusal, if any, in favour of any other partner or any affiliate thereof;
- 5.1.9.3 the Trust has a right of first offer or right of first refusal to buy the interests of the other partners; and
- 5.1.9.4 the Trust has received a legal opinion to the effect that the investment (a) would not result in the Trust or any registered retirement savings plan, registered retirement income fund, deferred profit sharing plan or registered education savings plan being liable, under the Income Tax Act, to pay tax imposed as a result of holdings by the Trust of foreign property as defined in the Income Tax Act, (b) would not disqualify the Trust as a "mutual fund trust" within the meaning of the Tax Act, and (c) would not result in the Trust losing any status under the Income Tax Act that is otherwise beneficial to the Trust and its Unitholders,
- provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trust may from time to time enter into any limited partnership arrangement which does not comply with any of subparagraphs 5.1.9.2 or 5.1.9.3 above if the Trustees determine that the investment is desirable for the Trust and otherwise complies with sections 5.1 and 5.2;
- 5.1.10 subject to Section 5.1.2, the Trust shall not invest directly in raw land for development except for properties adjacent to existing properties of the Trust for the purpose of (i) the renovation or expansion of existing facilities that are capital property of the Trust, or (ii) the development of new facilities which will be capital property of the Trust, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not preclude the Trust from investing in general or limited partnerships that invest in raw lands for development purposes;
- 5.1.11 the Trust may invest in mortgages or mortgage bonds (including, with the consent of a majority of the Trustees, a participating or convertible mortgage) where:
- 5.1.11.1 the Real Property which is security therefore is income-producing Real Property which otherwise meets the general investment guidelines of the Trust adopted by the Trustees from time to time in accordance with this Declaration of Trust and the restrictions set out therein;
- 5.1.11.2 the amount of the mortgage loan is not in excess of 75% of the market value of the property securing the mortgage and the mortgage has at least 1.2X debt service coverage;

- 5.1.11.3 the mortgage is a first-ranking mortgage registered on title to the Real Property which is security therefore; and
- 5.1.11.4 the aggregate value of the investments of the Trust in these mortgages, after giving effect to the proposed investment, will not exceed 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity;
- 5.1.12 the Trust may invest in mortgages if the sole intention is to use the acquisition of the mortgages as a method of acquiring control of income-producing Real Property which would otherwise meet the investment guidelines of the Trust and provided the aggregate value of the investments of the Trust in these mortgages, after giving effect to the proposed investment, will not exceed 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity; and
- 5.1.13 subject to subsection 5.1.2, the Trust may invest an amount (which, in the case of an amount invested to acquire Real Property, is the purchase price less the amount of any indebtedness assumed or incurred by the Trust and secured by a mortgage on such property) of up to 15% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity of the Trust in investments or transactions which do not comply with subsections 5.1.4, 5.1.5, 5.1.11 and 5.1.12 above or subsection 5.2.3.

For the purpose of the foregoing guidelines, the assets, liabilities and transactions of a corporation or other entity wholly or partially owned by the Trust will be deemed to be those of the Trust on a proportionate consolidation basis. In addition, any references in the foregoing to investment in Real Property will be deemed to include an investment in a joint venture arrangement. Nothing in the guidelines prohibits the Trust from holding or assigning some or all of the receivables due pursuant to any instalment receipt agreement.

Except as specifically set forth herein to the contrary, all of the foregoing prohibitions, limitations or requirements for investment shall be determined as at the date of investment by the Trust.

5.2 Operating Policies

The operations and affairs of the Trust shall be conducted in accordance with the following policies:

- 5.2.1 the Trust shall not purchase, sell, market or trade in currency or interest rate futures contracts otherwise than for hedging purposes where, for the purposes hereof, the term "hedging" shall have the meaning ascribed thereto by National Instrument 81-102 adopted by the Canadian Securities Administrators, as amended from time to time;
- 5.2.2 (i) any written instrument creating an obligation which is or includes the granting by the Trust of a mortgage, and (ii) to the extent the Trustees determine to be practicable and consistent with their duty to act in the best interests of the Unitholders, any written instrument which is, in the judgement of the Trustees, a material obligation, shall contain a provision or be subject to an acknowledgement to the effect that the obligation being created is not personally binding upon, and that resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse or satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the Trustees, Unitholders, Annuitants under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the Trust, but that only property of the Trust or a specific portion thereof shall be bound; the Trust, however, is not required, but shall use all reasonable efforts, to comply with this requirement in respect of obligations assumed by the Trust upon the acquisition of Real Property;
- 5.2.3 the Trust shall not lease or sublease to any person any Real Property, premises or space where that person and its Affiliates would, after the contemplated lease or sublease, be leasing or subleasing Real Property, premises or space having a fair market value net of encumbrances in excess of 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity of the Trust;

- 5.2.4 the limitation contained in subsection 5.2.3 shall not apply to the renewal or extension of a lease or sublease and shall not apply where the lessee or sublessee is, or where the lease or sublease is guaranteed (or an indemnity has been given) by:
- 5.2.4.1 the Government of Canada, the Government of the United States, any province of Canada, any state of the United States or any municipality in Canada or the United States, or any agency thereof;
 - 5.2.4.2 any corporation, the bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness of, or guaranteed by which, has received a rating from Standard & Poors of no less than AA (or equivalent from any other recognized credit rating agency) in each case, at the time the lease or sublease is entered into, or at the time other satisfactory leasing arrangements as determined by the Trustees, in their discretion, are entered into;
 - 5.2.4.3 a Canadian chartered bank registered under the laws of a province of Canada; or
 - 5.2.4.4 Wal-Mart Canada Corp. and its related associates and affiliates.
- 5.2.5 except for renovation or expansion of existing facilities and the development of new facilities on property adjacent to existing properties of the Trust as permitted under subsection 5.1.10, the Trust shall not engage directly in construction or development of property except as necessary to maintain its properties in good repair or to enhance the income producing ability of properties in which the Trust has an interest, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not preclude the Trust from investing in general or limited partnerships that invest in raw lands for development purposes;
- 5.2.6 title to each Real Property shall be drawn up in the name of the Trustees or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trust or a corporation or other entity wholly owned by the Trust or jointly by the Trust with joint venturers;
- 5.2.7 the Trust shall not incur or assume any indebtedness under a mortgage unless, at the date of the proposed assumption or incurring of the indebtedness, the aggregate of (i) the amount of all indebtedness secured on such Real Property or group of Real Properties and (ii) the amount of additional indebtedness proposed to be assumed or incurred does not exceed 75% of the market value of such Real Property or group of Real Properties (other than the renewal, extension or modification of any existing mortgage, including, on substantially similar terms or on terms more favourable to the Trust, in each such case, as determined by a majority of the Trustees);
- 5.2.8 the Trust will not incur or assume any indebtedness if, after the incurring or assuming of the indebtedness, the total indebtedness of the Trust would be more than 60% of the Gross Book Value (65% if convertible debentures are outstanding). For the purposes of this subsection the term "indebtedness" means (without duplication and excluding "non-controlling interests") on a consolidated basis:
- 5.2.8.1 any obligation of the Trust for borrowed money;
 - 5.2.8.2 any obligation of the Trust incurred in connection with the acquisition of property, assets or business;
 - 5.2.8.3 any obligation of the Trust issued or assumed as the deferred purchase price of property;
 - 5.2.8.4 any capital lease obligation of the Trust; and
 - 5.2.8.5 any obligation of the type referred to in clauses 5.2.8.1 through 5.2.8.4 of another person, the payment of which the Trust has guaranteed or for which the Trust is responsible for or liable;

provided that (a) for the purposes of 5.2.8.1 through 5.2.8.4, an obligation (other than convertible debentures) will constitute indebtedness only to the extent that it would appear as a liability on the consolidated balance sheet of the Trust in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (b) obligations referred to in clauses 5.2.8.1 through 5.2.8.3 exclude trade accounts payable, distributions payable to Unitholders and accrued liabilities arising out of the ordinary course of business; and (c) convertible debentures will constitute indebtedness to the extent of the principal amount thereof outstanding;

- 5.2.9 the Trust shall not incur debt aggregating more than 20% of Gross Book Value (other than unsecured trade payables, accrued expenses and distributions payable) at floating interest rates or having a maturity of less than one year, not including term debt falling due in the next twelve months or variable rate debt for which the Trust has entered into interest rate swap agreements to fix the interest rate for a one year period or greater;
- 5.2.10 the Trust shall not directly or indirectly guarantee any indebtedness or liabilities of any kind of a third party except:
- 5.2.10.1 indebtedness assumed or incurred under a mortgage by a corporation or other entity wholly-owned by the Trust or jointly by the Trust with joint venturers and operated solely for the purpose of holding a particular property or properties where such mortgage, if granted by the Trust directly, would not cause the Trust to otherwise contravene the restrictions set out in this section 5.2 and section 5.1, and, where such mortgage is granted by a joint venture entity, subject to a joint venturer being required to give up its interest in a property owned by the joint venture entity as a result of another joint venturer's failure to honour its proportionate share of the obligations relating to such property, the liability of the Trust is limited strictly to the proportion of the mortgage loan equal to the Trust's proportionate ownership interest in the joint venture entity;
- 5.2.10.2 indebtedness assumed or incurred under a mortgage by a general partnership or limited partnership in which the Trust has an interest in accordance with section 5.1.9 or by a corporation or other entity owned by such general partnership or limited partnership or by a corporation or other entity wholly-owned by a joint venturer and operated solely for the purpose of holding a particular property or properties where such mortgage, if granted by the Trust directly, would not cause the Trust to otherwise contravene the restrictions set out in this section 5.2 and section 5.1, and, where such mortgage is granted by an entity wholly owned by a joint venture entity and an entity wholly owned by the Trust, subject to a joint venturer being required to give up its interest in a property owned by the joint venture entity as a result of another joint venturer's failure to honour its proportionate share of the obligations relating to such property, the liability of the Trust is limited strictly to the proportion of the mortgage loan equal to the Trust's proportionate ownership interest in the joint venture entity;
- 5.2.11 the Trust shall not be obliged to obtain independent appraisals of properties it acquires but shall obtain an independent appraisal of any property that it as is determined at the discretion of the Investment Committee;
- 5.2.12 the Trust will not issue additional Units unless the Trustees consider that, based upon the market price of the Units prevailing at such time, the issuance of such Units would not be expected to result in a yield to Unitholders over the ensuing 24 month period which is less than the current yield to Unitholders;
- 5.2.13 the Trust shall obtain and maintain at all times insurance coverage in respect of potential liabilities of the Trust and the accidental loss of value of the assets of the Trust from risks, in amounts, with such insurers, and on such terms as the Trustees consider appropriate, taking into account all relevant factors including the practices of owners of comparable properties;

5.2.14 the Trust shall have conducted a Phase I environmental audit of each Real Property to be acquired by it and, if the Phase I environmental audit report recommends a Phase II environmental audit be conducted, the Trust shall have conducted a Phase II environmental audit, in each case by an independent and experienced environmental consultant; such audit as a condition to any acquisition, shall be satisfactory to the Trustees. All new leases granted by the Trust shall contain appropriate covenants from the lessee respecting environmental matters as determined by the Trustees from time to time; and

For the purposes of the foregoing policies, the assets, liabilities and transactions of a corporation or other entity wholly or partially owned by the Trust will be deemed to be those of the Trust on a proportionate consolidation basis. In addition, any references in the foregoing to investment in Real Property will be deemed to include an investment in a joint venture.

All of the foregoing prohibitions, limitations or requirements pursuant to the foregoing policies shall be determined as at the date of investment or other action by the Trust.

5.3 Registered Investments

The Trustees shall cause the Trust to do all such things and take all such action as may be necessary from time to time to ensure that the Trust obtains and retains its status as a "registered investment" under the Income Tax Act. The Trustees shall take all steps necessary to ensure that the Trust does not make or hold any investment that would result in the Trust being liable for tax under Part XI or Part X.2 of the Income Tax Act.

5.4 Application of Investment Restrictions and Operating Guidelines

With respect to the investment restrictions and operating guidelines contained in Sections 5.1 and 5.2, where any maximum or minimum percentage limitation is specified in any of the restrictions therein contained, such restrictions shall be applied on the basis of the relevant amounts calculated immediately after the making of such investment. Any subsequent change relative to any percentage limitation which results from a subsequent change in the book value of the assets of the Trust or the amount of Adjusted Unitholders' Equity will not require divestiture of any investment

5.5 Regulatory Matters

If at any time a government or regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Trust or any property of the Trust shall enact any law, regulation or requirement which is in conflict with any investment restriction of the Trust then in force, such restriction in conflict shall, if the Trustees on the advice of legal counsel to the Trust so resolve, be deemed to have been amended to the extent necessary to resolve any such conflict and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, any such resolution of the Trustees shall not require the prior approval of Unitholders.

ARTICLE 6 TRUST UNITS

6.1 Units

6.1.1 The beneficial interests in the Trust shall be divided into interests of two classes, described and designated as "Units" and "Special Voting Units", which shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the limitations, restrictions and conditions set out herein, and the interest of each Unitholder and Special Unitholder shall be determined by the number of Units and/or Special Voting Units registered in the name of the Unitholder or Special Unitholder.

6.1.2 Each Unit represents an equal undivided interest in the Trust. All Units outstanding from time to time shall be entitled to participate pro rata in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination or winding-up of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust. All Units shall rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority.

- 6.1.3 No Special Voting Unit shall be entitled to any interest or share in the distributions or net assets of the Trust. Special Voting Units may be issued in series and shall only be issued in connection with or in relation to Exchangeable Securities on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Trustee. A Special Voting Unit shall be issued in conjunction with Exchangeable Securities issued and shall be automatically cancelled on the issuance of Units on exercise, conversion or cancellation of Exchangeable Securities. Subject to Section 8.6.3, each Special Voting Unit shall entitle the Special Unitholder of record thereof to a number of votes at all meetings of Unitholders or in respect of any written resolution of Unitholders equal to the number of Units into which the Exchangeable Securities to which such Special Voting Unit relates are, directly or indirectly, exchangeable or convertible (other than in respect of Exchangeable Securities which have been so exchanged, converted or cancelled). For greater certainty, holders of Special Voting Units shall not be entitled to any distributions of any nature whatsoever from the Trust or have any legal or beneficial interests in any assets of the Trust on termination or winding-up of the Trust.
- 6.1.4 Concurrently with the issuance of any Exchangeable Securities and associated Special Voting Units, the Trust shall enter into such agreements, including voting and exchange trust agreements and Exchangeable Security support agreements, as may be necessary or desirable to properly provide for the terms of the Exchangeable Securities, including to provide for voting of such Special Voting Units;
- 6.1.5 If in any given 365 day period in the five year period from July 1, 2005, the average weighted aggregate number of Special Voting Units plus Units held or controlled by FirstPro is equal to or greater than 15,000,000, then so long as Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee and FirstPro directly or indirectly beneficially own or control less than 25% of the voting rights attached to all voting securities of the Trust, the Trust shall issue such number of additional Special Voting Units (the "Additional Special Voting Units") which will entitle FirstPro to cast 25% of the votes attached at a meeting of the holders of Units and Special Voting Units. FirstPro's entitlement under this clause shall extend for an additional five year period should FirstPro sell in aggregate at least $800,000,000 of freehold assets (including freehold interests in assets sold under development arrangements) to the Trust or its affiliates during the initial 5 year period, provided that number of Units and Special Voting Units held or controlled by FirstPro shall be increased to the lesser of 20,000,000 or 20% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Units plus Special Voting Units and provided that Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee.

6.2 Ranking of Units

Each Unit shall represent an equal undivided interest in the Trust with all other outstanding Units, all Units outstanding from time to time shall participate equally and rateably in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust remaining after satisfaction of all liabilities and no Unit shall have any preference or priority over any other. Special Voting Units shall have no legal or beneficial interest in the distributions or assets of the Trust.

6.3 Consideration for Units

- 6.3.1 Subject to the last two sentences of this section 6.3.1, a Unit shall not be fully paid until the consideration therefore has been received in full by or on behalf of the Trust. The consideration for any Unit shall be paid in money or in property or in past services that are not less in value than the fair equivalent of the money that the Trust would have received if the Unit had been issued for money. In determining whether property or past services are the fair equivalent of consideration paid in money, the Trustees may take into account reasonable charges and expenses of organization and reorganization and payments for property and past services reasonably expected to benefit the Trust. Units may be issued and sold on an instalment basis, in which event beneficial ownership of such Units may be represented by instalment receipts, but shall otherwise be non-assessable. When Units are issued and sold on an instalment basis, the Trust may take security over such Units as security for unpaid instalments, including, without limitation, a pledge as contemplated by an instalment receipt agreement.

6.3.2 Special Voting Units shall only be issued in connection with the issuance of Exchangeable Securities or pursuant to the operation of Section 6.1.5 above.

6.4 No Pre-Emptive Rights

There are no pre-emptive rights attaching to the Units.

6.5 Fractional Units

If as a result of any act of the Trustees hereunder any person becomes entitled to a fraction of a Unit, such person is not entitled to receive a certificate therefore. Fractional Units shall not, except to the extent that they may represent in the aggregate one or more whole Units, entitle the holders thereof to notice of or to attend or to vote at, meetings of Unitholders. Subject to the foregoing, such fractional Units shall have attached thereto the rights, restrictions, conditions and limitations attaching to whole Units in the proportion that they bear to a whole Unit.

6.6 Title to Assets of the Trust

The titles to the assets of the Trust and the right to conduct the affairs of the Trust are vested exclusively in the Trustees, subject to the provisions of this Declaration of Trust, and the Unitholders and Special Unitholder shall have no interest therein other than the interest in the Trust conferred by their Units or Special Voting Units issued hereunder as described in section 2.7. No Unitholder or Special Unitholder has or is deemed to have any right of ownership in any of the assets of the Trust.

6.7 Allotment and Issue

The Trustees may allot and issue Units and Special Voting Units at such time or times and in such manner (including pursuant to any plan from time to time in effect relating to reinvestment by Unitholders of their distributions of the Trust in Units), and for such consideration and to such person, persons or class of persons as the Trustees in their sole discretion shall determine excepting only that Special Voting Units shall only be issued in connection with the issuance of Exchangeable Securities. In the event that Units or Special Voting Units are issued in whole or in part for a consideration other than money, the resolution of the Trustees allotting and issuing such Units or Special Voting Units shall express the fair equivalent in money of the other consideration received.

6.8 Rights, Warrants and Options

The Trustees may create and issue rights, warrants or options to subscribe for fully paid Units (including Exchangeable Securities) which rights, warrants or options may be exercisable at such subscription price or prices and at such time or times as the Trustees may determine. The rights, warrants or options so created may be issued for such consideration or for no consideration, all as the Trustees may determine. A right, warrant or option shall not be a Unit and a holder thereof shall not be a Unitholder. Upon the approval by the Trustees of any Unit option plan for trustees, officers and/or employees of the Trust, the Trustees may grant options upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in such plan.

6.9 Commissions and Discounts

The Trustees may provide for the payment by the Trust of commissions or may allow discounts to persons in consideration of their subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for Units or of their agreeing to produce subscriptions therefor, whether absolute or conditional.

6.10 Transferability

Subject to Section 6.11, the Units are freely transferable and the Trustees shall not impose any restriction on the transfer of Units. The Trustees shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain a listing for the Units on one or more stock exchanges in Canada. Special Voting Units and Exchangeable Securities shall be non-transferable without the consent of the Trust and shall not be listed on any exchange.

6.11 Limitation of Ownership by Non-Residents

- 6.11.1 At no time may Non-Residents be the beneficial owners of more than 40% of the Units, on a basic or fully-diluted basis (and for greater certainty, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged), and the Trustees shall inform the Transfer Agent of this restriction. The Trustees may require a registered holder of Units and Special Voting Units to provide the Trustees with a declaration as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of the Units registered in such Unitholder's name are resident and as to whether such beneficial owners are Non-Residents (or in the case of a partnership, whether the partnership is a Non-Resident). If the Trustees become aware, as a result of acquiring such declarations as to beneficial ownership or as a result of any other investigations, that the beneficial owners of 40% of the Units (on a basic or fully-diluted basis, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged) are, or may be, Non-Residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustees may make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Units from or issue or register a transfer of Units to a person unless the person provides a declaration in form and content satisfactory to the Trustees that the person is not a Non-Resident and does not hold such Units for the benefit of Non-Residents. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees determine that more than 40% of the Units (on a basic or fully-diluted basis, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged) are held by Non-Residents, the Trustees may send a notice to such Non-Resident holders of the Units or Exchangeable Securities, as the case may be, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustees may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Units or Exchangeable Securities or a portion thereof within a specified period of not more than 30 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Units or Exchangeable Securities or provided the Trustees with satisfactory evidence that they are not Non-Residents within such period, the Trustees may on behalf of such Unitholders sell such Units or Exchangeable Securities and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units or Exchangeable Securities (other than the right to receive the net proceeds from the sale). Upon such sale or conversion, the affected holders shall cease to be holders of the relevant Units or Exchangeable Securities and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates, if any, representing such securities. The Trust may direct the Transfer Agent to do any of the foregoing.
- 6.11.2 No liability shall accrue to the Trust or the Trustees if the Units of a Non-Resident Unitholder are sold at a loss to such Unitholder. Unless and until the Trustees shall have been required to do so under the terms hereof, the Trustees shall not be bound to do or take any proceeding or action with respect to this Section 6.11 by virtue of the powers conferred on them hereby. The Trustees shall use reasonable commercial efforts to actively monitor the ownership of Units by Non-Residents. It is acknowledged that the Trustees cannot definitively monitor the ownership of Units by Non-Residents if the Units are registered in the name of CDS. The Trustees shall not be liable for any violation of the Non-Resident ownership restriction which may occur during the term of the Trust.
- 6.11.3 In order to ensure the Trust's continued compliance with proposed amendments to subsection 132(7) of the Income Tax Act or any legislative amendments to subsection 132(7) of the Income Tax Act as finally enacted, the Trustees may, at any time and in their sole discretion, amend the Declaration of Trust in any manner including that the Trustees may proceed to reclassify the outstanding Units into two separate classes of Units, namely, Class A Units and Class B Units. The Class A and Class B Units would carry the same rights to vote, obtain distributions and participate in the Trust Property upon the wind-up or dissolution of the Trust. However, ownership of the Class B Units would be restricted to Resident Canadians while Class A Units would not be subject to any restriction on ownership. If the Trustees were to proceed with this amendment, the Declaration of Trust would also be amended to provide that the number of outstanding Class B Units must at all times exceed 150% of the number of outstanding Class A Units. The proposed terms of the Class A and Class B Units, if and when adopted, would be substantially as follows:

Class A Trust Units

- (i) are not subject to any residency restriction;
- (ii) will trade on the principal exchange on which the Units are traded immediately prior to reclassification into Class A Units and Class B Units;
- (iii) may be exchanged by a holder at any time for Class B Units provided that the holder is a Canadian Resident and provides a suitable residency declaration;
- (iv) will have identical rights to voting, distributions and Trust Property on a wind-up to the Class B Units (will not vote separately as a class); and
- (v) will be subject to a restriction on the number of Units to be issued such that the total number of issued and outstanding Class A Units will not exceed 66⅔% of the number of issued and outstanding Class B Units.

Class B Trust Units

- (i) may not be held by Non-Residents;
- (ii) will trade on the principal exchange on which the Units are traded immediately prior to reclassification into Class A Units and Class B Units;
- (iii) may be exchanged by a holder for Class A Units, provided that the number of outstanding Class A Units, after the exchange, does not exceed 66⅔% of the number of outstanding Class B Units; and
- (iv) will have identical rights to voting, distributions and Trust Property on a wind-up to the Class A Units (will not vote separately as a class).

6.12 Certificates

Each Unitholder and Special Unitholder or his duly authorized agent is entitled to a certificate bearing an identifying serial number in respect of the Units or Special Voting Units held by him, signed in the manner hereinafter prescribed, but the Trust is not bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of a Unit or Units held jointly or in common by two or more persons and delivery of a certificate to one of them shall be sufficient delivery to all. No certificate shall be issued to evidence any fractional Units. A single certificate shall be issued for the Special Voting Units as directed by FirstPro.

6.13 Execution of Certificates

Certificates representing Units shall be signed manually by at least one Trustee or officer of the Trust holding office at the time of signing, provided, however, that if the Trustees have appointed a registrar and transfer agent which countersigns manually such Unit certificate, signatures of Trustees or officers of the Trust required on Unit certificates may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and certificates so signed are as valid as if they had been signed manually. If a Unit certificate contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a person, the Trust may issue the certificate even though the person has ceased to be a Trustee or an officer of the Trust and such certificate is as valid as if the person were a Trustee or an officer of the Trust at the date of its issue.

6.14 Certificate Fee

The Trustees may establish a reasonable fee to be charged for every certificate issued.

6.15 Form of Certificate

The form of certificate representing Units (sometimes called the "Unit Certificates") shall be in such form as is from time to time authorized by the Trustees. The Unit Certificates may be engraved, printed or lithographed, or partly in one form and partly in another, as the Trustees may determine, and the Unit Certificate issued in respect of the Initial Contribution (and any Unit Certificate issued to a transferee of such Unit) may be typewritten. The form of certificate representing Special Voting Units shall be in a form authorized by the Trustees.

6.16 Unit Register and Transfer Ledgers to be Maintained

A register (the "Register") shall be kept by, or on behalf and under the direction of the Trustees, which Register shall contain the names and addresses of Unitholders, the respective numbers of Units held by them, the certificate numbers of the certificates of such Units and a record of all transfers thereof. The Trustees may appoint one or more chartered banks or trust companies to act as transfer agents and to act as registrars for Units and may provide for the transfer of Units in one or more places within Canada. In the event of such appointment, such transfer agents and registrars shall keep all necessary registers and other books (which may be kept in a bound or loose-leaf book or may be entered or recorded by any system of mechanical or electronic data processing or any other information storage device) for recording original issues and registering and transferring the Units. If the Trustees have appointed a registrar and transfer agent, no certificate for Units shall be valid unless countersigned manually by or on behalf of a transfer agent and registrar. Only persons whose Units are recorded on the Register shall be entitled to vote or to receive distributions or otherwise exercise or enjoy the rights of Unitholders.

6.17 Entry on Register

Upon any issue of Units, the name of the subscriber or other person entitled thereto shall be promptly entered on the Register as the owner of the number of Units issued to such subscriber or other person, or if the subscriber is already a Unitholder, the Register shall be amended to include his additional Units.

6.18 Transfer of Units

Units shall be for all purposes of the Trust and this Declaration of Trust, personal and moveable property, and shall be transferable at any time and from time to time by the Unitholder by endorsement and delivery of the certificates representing the Units subject to such provisions and conditions as may be prescribed by the Trustees from time to time. No transfer shall be recorded on the Register unless the transferor has executed the instrument of transfer as reproduced in the Unit certificate and the transferee has delivered to the transfer agent and/or registrar a Unit certificate representing the Units transferred. Subject to the foregoing, transfers shall be recorded on the Register and a new certificate for the Units so transferred shall be issued to the transferee and in case of a transfer of only part of the Units represented by any certificate, a new certificate for the remaining Units shall be issued to the transferor. Special Voting Units shall be non-transferable (except to an affiliate of FirstPro) without the consent of the Trust and the Toronto Stock Exchange.

6.19 Successors in Interest to Unitholders

Any person becoming entitled to any Units or Special Voting Units, as the case may be, as a consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of any Unitholder or otherwise by operation of law shall be recorded in the Register as the holder of such Units or Special Voting Units and shall receive a new certificate therefor upon production of evidence thereof satisfactory to the Trustees and delivery of the existing certificate to the Trustees or a transfer agent or registrar of the Trust, but until such record is made, the Unitholder or Special Unitholder of record shall continue to be and be deemed to be the holder of such Units or Special Voting Units for all purposes whether or not the Trust, the Trustees or the transfer agent or registrar of the Trust shall have actual or other notice of such death, bankruptcy, incapacity or other event.

6.20 Units Held Jointly or in Fiduciary Capacity

The Trust may treat two or more persons holding any Unit as joint owners of the entire interest therein unless the ownership is expressly otherwise recorded on the Register of the Trust, but no entry, shall be made in the Register or on any certificate that any person is in any other manner entitled to any future, limited or contingent interest in any Unit; provided, however, that any person recorded in the Register as a Unitholder may, subject to the provisions herein contained, be described in the Register or on any certificate as a fiduciary of any kind and any customary words may be added to the description of the holder to identify the nature of such fiduciary relationship.

6.21 Performance of Trusts

None of the Trustees, officers of the Trust, Unitholders, Special Unitholders or any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the Trust or the Trustees shall have a duty to inquire into any claim that a transfer of a Unit, Special Voting Unit or other security of the Trust was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the Unit, Special Voting Unit or other security or any other adverse claim, or be bound to see to the performance of any trust, express, implied or of any charge, pledge or equity to which any of the Units, Special Voting Units or other securities or any interest therein are or may be subject, or to ascertain or inquire whether any sale or transfer of any such Units, Special Voting Units or other securities or interest therein by any such Unitholder, Special Unitholder or holder of such security or his personal representatives is authorized by such trust, charge, pledge or equity, or to recognize any person as having any interest therein, except for the person recorded as Unitholder or Special Unitholder of such security.

6.22 Lost Certificates

In the event that any certificate for Units or Special Voting Units is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated, the Trustees may authorize the issuance of a new certificate for the same number of Units or Special Voting Units in lieu thereof. The Trustees may in their discretion, before the issuance of such new certificate, require the owner of the lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, or the legal representative of the owner, to make such affidavit or statutory declaration, setting forth such facts as to the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation as the Trustees deem necessary and may require the applicant to supply to the Trust a "lost certificate" or similar bond in such reasonable amount as the Trustees direct indemnifying the Trustees, the transfer agents and registrars for so doing. The Trustees shall have the power to acquire from an insurer or insurers a blanket lost security bond or bonds in respect of the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificates. The Trust shall pay all premiums and other sums of money payable for such purpose out of the property of the Trust with such contribution, if any, by those insured as may be determined by the Trustees. If such blanket lost security bond is acquired, the Trustees may authorize and direct (upon such terms and conditions as they from time to time impose) any registrar, transfer agent, trustee or others to whom the indemnity of such bond extends to take such action to replace such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificates without further action or approval by the Trustees.

6.23 Death of Unitholders

The death of a Unitholder or Special Unitholder during the continuance of the Trust shall not terminate the Trust or give the personal representatives or the heirs of the estate of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder a right to an accounting or to take any action in the courts or otherwise against other Unitholders, Special Unitholders or the Trustees, officers of the Trust or the property of the Trust, but shall only entitle the personal representatives or the heirs of the estate or succession of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder to demand and receive, pursuant to the provisions of section 6.19, a new certificate for Units in place of the certificate held by the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder, and upon the acceptance thereof such personal representatives or the heirs of the estate or succession of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder shall succeed to all rights of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder under this Declaration of Trust.

6.24 Unclaimed Payments

In the event that the Trustees hold any amounts to be paid to Unitholders under Article 11 or otherwise because such amounts are unclaimed or cannot be paid for any reason, neither the Trustees nor any distribution disbursing agent shall be under any obligation to invest or reinvest the same and shall only be obligated to hold the same in a current or other non-interest bearing account with a chartered bank or trust company, pending payment to the person or persons entitled thereto. The Trustees shall, as and when required by law, and may at any time prior to such required time, pay all or part of such amounts so held to a court in the province where the Trust has its head office or to the Public Curator (or other similar government official or agency) in the province where the Trust has its head office whose receipt shall be a good release, acquittance and discharge of the obligations of the Trustees.

6.25 Repurchase of Units

The Trust shall be entitled to purchase for cancellation at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the outstanding Units, at a price per Unit and on a basis determined by the Trustees in compliance with all applicable securities regulatory laws, regulations or policies or the policies of any applicable stock exchange.

6.26 Instalment Receipts

The Trust shall be entitled to exercise all rights to which it is entitled under any instalment receipt agreement in the event of non-payment of any instalment by a registered holder of an instalment receipt.

6.27 Take-Over Bids

6.27.1 If within 120 days after the date of a Take-over Bid the bid is accepted by the holders of not less than 90% of the aggregate of the Units and Special Voting Units, other than Units held at the date of the Take-over Bid by or on behalf of the Offeror or an Affiliate or Associate of the Offeror, the Offeror is entitled, on complying with this section, to acquire the Units held by the Dissenting Offerees.

6.27.2 An Offeror may acquire Units held by a Dissenting Offeree by sending by registered mail within 60 days after the date of termination of the Take-over Bid and in any event within 180 days after the date of the Take-over Bid, an Offeror's notice to each Dissenting Offeree stating that:

6.27.2.1 the Offerees holding more than 90% of the Units and Special Voting Units to which the bid relates accepted the Take-over Bid;

6.27.2.2 the Offeror is bound to take up and pay for or has taken up and paid for the Units of the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid;

6.27.2.3 a Dissenting Offeree is required to elect:

6.27.2.3.1 to transfer his Units to the Offeror on the terms on which the Offeror acquired the Units of the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid, or

6.27.2.3.2 to demand payment of the fair value of his Units in accordance with subsections 6.27.8 to 6.27.17 by notifying the Offeror within 20 days after he receives the Offeror's notice;

- 6.27.2.4 a Dissenting Offeree who does not notify the Offeror in accordance with subparagraph 6.27.2.3.2 is deemed to have elected to transfer his Units to the Offeror on the same terms that the Offeror acquired the Units from the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid; and
- 6.27.2.5 a Dissenting Offeree must send his Units to which the Take-over Bid relates to the Trust within 20 days after he receives the Offeror's notice.
- 6.27.3 Concurrently with sending the Offeror's notice under subsection 6.27.2, the Offeror shall send to the Trust a notice of adverse claim disclosing the name and address of the Offeror and the name of the Dissenting Offeree with respect to each Unit held by a Dissenting Offeree.
- 6.27.4 A Dissenting Offeree to whom an Offeror's notice is sent under subsection 6.27.2 shall, within 20 days after he receives that notice, send his Unit Certificates to the Trust.
- 6.27.5 Within 20 days after the Offeror sends an Offeror's notice under subsection 6.27.2, the Offeror shall pay or transfer to the Trust the amount of money or other consideration that the Offeror would have had to pay or transfer to a Dissenting Offeree if the Dissenting Offeree had elected to accept the Take-over Bid under subparagraph 6.27.2.3.1.
- 6.27.6 The Trust is deemed to hold in trust for the Dissenting Offeree the money or other consideration it receives under subsection 6.27.5, and the Trust shall deposit the money in a separate account in a bank or other body corporate any of whose deposits are insured by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation (or any successor thereto), and shall place the other consideration in the custody of a bank or such other body corporate.
- 6.27.7 Within 30 days after the Offeror sends an Offeror's notice under subsection 6.27.2, the Trust shall:
- 6.27.7.1 issue to the Offeror a Unit Certificate in respect of the Units that were held by Dissenting Offerees;
- 6.27.7.2 give to each Dissenting Offeree who elects to accept the Take-over Bid terms under subparagraph 6.27.2.3.1 and who sends his Unit Certificates as required under subsection 6.27.4, the money or other consideration to which he is entitled, disregarding fractional Units, if any, which may be paid for in money; and
- 6.27.7.3 send to each Dissenting Offeree who has not sent his Unit Certificates as required under subsection 6.27.4 a notice stating that:
- 6.27.7.3.1 his Units have been cancelled,
- 6.27.7.3.2 the Trust or some designated person holds in trust for him the money or other consideration to which he is entitled as payment for or in exchange for his Units, and
- 6.27.7.3.3 the Trust will, subject to subsections 6.27.8 to 6.27.17, send that money or other consideration to him forthwith after receiving his Units.
- 6.27.8 If a Dissenting Offeree has elected to demand payment of the fair value of his Units under subparagraph 6.27.2.3.2, the Offeror may, within 20 days after it has paid the money or transferred the other consideration under subsection 6.27.5, apply to a court to fix the fair value of the Units of that Dissenting Offeree.
- 6.27.9 If an Offeror fails to apply to a court under subsection 6.27.8, a Dissenting Offeree may apply to a court for the same purpose within a further period of 20 days.

- 6.27.10 Where no application is made to a court under subsection 6.27.9 within the period set out in that subsection, a Dissenting Offeree is deemed to have elected to transfer his Units to the Offeror on the same terms that the Offeror acquired the Units from the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid.
- 6.27.11 An application under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9 shall be made to a court having jurisdiction in the place where the Trust has its head office or in the province where the Dissenting Offeree resides if the Trust carries on its affairs in that province.
- 6.27.12 A Dissenting Offeree is not required to give security for costs in an application made under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9.
- 6.27.13 On an application under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9:
- 6.27.13.1.1 all Dissenting Offerees referred to in subparagraph 6.27.2.3.2 whose Units have not been acquired by the Offeror shall be joined as parties and shall be bound by the decision of the court; and
 - 6.27.13.1.2 the Offeror shall notify each affected Dissenting Offeree of the date, place and consequences of the application and of his right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.
- 6.27.14 On an application to a court under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9 the court may determine whether any other person is a Dissenting Offeree who should be joined as a party, and the court shall then fix a fair value for the Units of all Dissenting Offerees.
- 6.27.15 A court may in its discretion appoint one or more appraisers to assist the court to fix a fair value for the Units of a Dissenting Offeree.
- 6.27.16 The final order of the court shall be made against the Offeror in favour of each Dissenting Offeree and for the amount for his Units as fixed by the court.
- 6.27.17 In connection with proceedings under this section, a court may, make any order it thinks fit and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it may:
- 6.27.17.1 fix the amount of money or other consideration that is required to be held in trust under subsection 6.27.6;
 - 6.27.17.2 order that money or other consideration be held in trust by a person other than the Trust; and
 - 6.27.17.3 allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each Dissenting Offeree from the date he sends or delivers his Unit Certificates under subsection 6.27.4 until the date of payment.

6.28 Power of Attorney

Each Unitholder hereby grants to the Trustees and each of them, their successors and assigns, a power of attorney constituting the Trustees, and each of them, with full power of substitution, as his true and lawful attorney to act on his behalf, with full power and authority in his name, place and stead, and to execute, under seal or otherwise, swear to, acknowledge, deliver, make or file or record when, as and where required:

- 6.28.1 this Declaration of Trust, any amendment to this Declaration of Trust and any other instrument required or desirable to qualify, continue and keep in good standing the Trust as a "mutual fund trust", a "unit trust" or as a "registered investment", all within the meaning of the Income Tax Act;

- 6.28.2 any instrument, deed, agreement or document in connection with carrying on the activities and affairs of the Trust as authorized in this Declaration of Trust,
- 6.28.3 all conveyances, transfers and other documents required in connection with the dissolution, liquidation or termination of the Trust in accordance with the terms of this Declaration of Trust; and
- 6.28.4 any and all elections, determinations or designations whether jointly with third parties or otherwise, under the Income Tax Act or any other taxation or other legislation or similar laws of Canada or of any other jurisdiction in respect of the affairs of the Trust or of a Unitholder's interest in the Trust.

The Power of Attorney granted herein is an attorney coupled with an interest, to the extent permitted by applicable law, irrevocable and will survive the assignment by the Unitholder of all or part of his interest in the Trust and will extend to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives and successors and assigns of the Unitholder.

ARTICLE 7 REDEMPTION OF UNITS

7.1 Right of Redemption

Each Unitholder shall be entitled to require the Trust to redeem at any time or from time to time at the demand of the Unitholder all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder at the prices determined and payable in accordance with the conditions hereinafter provided.

7.2 Exercise of Redemption Right

- 7.2.1 To exercise a Unitholder's right to require redemption under this Article 7, a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring the Trust to redeem Units, in a form approved by the Trustees, shall be sent to the Trust at the head office of the Trust.
- 7.2.2 Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units, the Unitholder shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption (other than to receive the redemption payment therefor) including the right to receive any distributions thereon which are declared payable to the Unitholders of record on a date which is subsequent to the day of receipt by the Trust of such notice. Units shall be considered to be tendered for redemption on the date that the Trust has received the notice and other required documents or evidence as aforesaid.

7.3 Cash Redemption

- 7.3.1 Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units in accordance with Section 7.2 the holder of the Units tendered for redemption shall be entitled to receive a price per Unit (hereinafter called the "Redemption Price") equal to the lesser of:
 - 7.3.1.1 90% of the "market price" of the Units on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading during the 10 trading day period ending on the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption; and
 - 7.3.1.2 100% of the "closing market price" on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading on the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption.

For the purposes hereof, "market price" shall be an amount equal to the weighted average of the closing price of the Units for each of the trading days on which there was a closing price; provided that if the applicable exchange or market does not provide a closing price but only provides the highest and lowest prices of the Units traded on a particular day, the "market price" shall be an amount equal to the weighted average of the average of the highest and lowest prices for each of the trading days on which there was a trade; and provided further that if there was trading on the applicable exchange or market for fewer than five of the 10 trading days, the "market price" shall be the weighted average of the following prices established for each of the 10 trading days: the average of the last bid and last ask prices for each day on which there was no trading; the closing price of the Units for each day that there was trading if the exchange or market provides a closing price; and the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of the Units for each day that there was trading, if the market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Units traded on a particular day. For the purposes of Section 7.3.1.2, the "closing market price" shall be: an amount equal to the closing price of the Units if there was a trade on the date and the exchange or market provides a closing price; an amount equal to the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of Units if there was trading and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest trading prices of Units traded on a particular day; and the weighted average of the last bid and last ask prices if there was no trading on the date. During the period of time, if any, after the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption, that the Units issued are subject to payment of an instalment of the issue price and are represented by instalment receipts, unless a market for trading in the Units (other than those so represented by instalment receipts) develops which the Trustees consider fairly reflects the market value of the Units, the "market price" for purposes of Section 7.3.1.1 and the "closing market price" for purposes of Section 7.3.1.2 shall equal the aggregate of the "market price" or "closing market price" for such instalment receipts (calculated as aforesaid as if the instalment receipts were Units) plus the amount of the unpaid instalment of the issue price per Unit.

- 7.3.2 Subject to Sections 7.4 and 7.5, the Redemption Price payable in respect of the Units tendered for redemption during any month shall be paid by cheque, drawn on a Canadian chartered bank or a trust company in lawful money of Canada, payable at par to or to the order of the Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption on or before the last day of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were tendered for redemption. Payments made by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of a cheque in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Unitholder and/or any party having a security interest unless such cheque is dishonoured upon presentment. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Unitholder in respect of Trust Units redeemed.

7.4 No Cash Redemption in Certain Circumstances

Section 7.3.2 shall not be applicable to Units tendered for redemption by a Unitholder, if:

- 7.4.1 the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 7.3 in respect of such Units and all other Units tendered for redemption prior thereto in the same calendar month exceeds $50,000 ("Monthly Limit"); provided that the Trustees may, in their sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of all Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month. In the absence of such a waiver, Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month in which the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 7.3.2 exceeds the Monthly Limit will be redeemed for cash pursuant to Section 7.3.2 and, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals, in accordance with Section 7.5 on a pro rata basis;
- 7.4.2 at the time the Units are tendered for redemption, the outstanding Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are not listed for trading or quoted on any stock exchange or market which the Trustees consider, in their sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts); or
- 7.4.3 the normal trading of the outstanding Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) is suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are listed for trading or, if not so listed, on any market on which the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are quoted for trading, on the date that such Units tendered for redemption were tendered to the Trust for redemption or for more than five trading days during the 10 trading day period commencing immediately after the date on which such Units tendered for redemption were tendered to the Trust for redemption.

7.5 Alternate Redemption

If, pursuant to Section 7.4, Section 7.3.2 is not applicable to Units tendered for redemption by a Unitholder, the Redemption Price per Unit specified in Section 7.3 to which the Unitholder would otherwise be entitled shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid and satisfied by way of a distribution to such Unitholder of unsecured promissory notes with interest at a market rate to be determined by the Trustees, payable monthly, issued by the Trust (the "Notes"), each in the principal amount of $1, on the basis of such number of Notes for such Units tendered for redemption equal to the product of (i) number of Units tendered for redemption multiplied by (ii) the Redemption Price per Unit specified in Section 7.3, which product will then be divided by $1 on the date the Units were tendered for redemption. The Redemption Price payable pursuant to this Section 7.5 in respect of Units tendered for redemption during any month shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid by the transfer, to or to the order of the Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption, on the last day (the "Transfer Date") of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were tendered for redemption. Payments by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of the Notes by registered mail in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Unitholder. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Unitholder in respect of the Units so redeemed. No fractional Notes in a principal amount less than $1 will be distributed and where the number of Notes to be received by the former Unitholder includes a fraction or a principal amount less than a multiple of $1, such number shall be rounded to the next lowest number or multiple of $1, as the case may be.

7.6 Cancellation of all Redeemed Units

All Units which are redeemed under this Article 7 shall be cancelled and such Units shall no longer be outstanding and shall not be reissued.

7.7 Subordination

Following any in specie redemption pursuant to the operation of Section 7.5, holders of Notes will be required to acknowledge that they are subject to any applicable subordination agreements as may be determined by the Trustees prior to delivery of such Notes to the Unitholder.

ARTICLE 8 MEETINGS OF UNITHOLDERS

8.1 Annual Meeting

There shall be an annual meeting of the Unitholders at such time and place as the Trustees shall prescribe for the purpose of electing Trustees, appointing the auditors of the Trust and transacting such other business as the Trustees may determine or as may properly be brought before the meeting. The annual meeting of Unitholders shall be held after delivery to the Unitholders of the annual report referred to in section 16.6 and, in any event, within 180 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Trust.

8.2 Other Meetings

The Trustees shall have power at any time to call special meetings of the Unitholders at such time and place as the Trustees may determine. Unitholders and Special Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 10% of the outstanding Units and Special Voting Units of the Trust may requisition the Trustees to call a special meeting of the Unitholders for the purposes stated in the requisition. The requisition shall state in reasonable detail the business to be transacted at the meeting and shall be sent to each of the Trustees at the head office of the Trust. Upon receiving the requisition, the Trustees shall call a meeting of Unitholders to transact the business referred to in the requisition, unless (i) a record date for a meeting of the Unitholders has been fixed and notice thereof has been given to each stock exchange in Canada on which the Units are listed for trading; (ii) the Trustees have called a meeting of the Unitholders and have given notice thereof pursuant to section 8.3; or (iii) in connection with the business as stated in the requisition:

- 8.2.1 it clearly appears that the matter covered by the requisition is submitted by the Unitholder primarily for the purpose of enforcing a personal claim or redressing a personal grievance against the Trust, the Trustees, the officers of the Trust or its Unitholders, or primarily for the purpose of promoting general economic, political, racial, religious, social or similar causes;
- 8.2.2 the Trust, at the Unitholder's request, included a matter covered by a requisition in an information circular relating to a meeting of Unitholders held within two years preceding the receipt of such request and the Unitholder failed to present the matter, in person or by proxy, at the meeting;
- 8.2.3 substantially the same matter covered by the requisition was submitted to Unitholders in an information circular (including a dissidents information circular) relating to a meeting of Unitholders held within two years preceding the receipt of the Unitholder's request and the matter covered by the requisition was defeated; or
- 8.2.4 the rights conferred by this section 8.2 are being abused to secure publicity.

Subject to the foregoing, if the Trustees do not within 21 days after receiving the requisition call a meeting, any Unitholder who signed the requisition may call the meeting in accordance with the provisions of sections 8.3 and 8.7 and the Trustees' Regulations, mutatis mutandis. If there shall be no Trustees, the officers of the Trust shall promptly call a special meeting of the Unitholders for the election of successor Trustees. The phrase "meeting of the Unitholders" wherever it appears in this Declaration of Trust shall mean and include both an annual meeting and any other meeting of Unitholders.

8.3 Notice of Meeting of Unitholders

Notice of all meetings of the Unitholders shall be mailed or delivered by the Trustees to each Unitholder at his address appearing in the Register, to each Trustee and to the auditors of the Trust not less than 21 nor more than 50 days before the meeting. Notice of any meeting of the Unitholders shall state the purposes of the meeting.

8.4 Quorum; Chairman

A quorum for any meeting of Unitholders shall be individuals present not being less than two in number and being Unitholders or representing by proxy Unitholders who hold in the aggregate not less than 10% of the total number of outstanding Units. The Chairman, or any Trustee determined by the Trustees, shall be the chairman of any meeting of the Unitholders.

8.5 Voting

Holders of Units and/or Special Voting Units may attend and vote at all meetings of the Unitholders either in person or by proxy. Subject to the provisions of Section 8.6, each Unit and Special Voting Unit shall be entitled to one vote at all meetings of the Unitholders, provided that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else herein contained, any action to be taken by the Unitholders shall, except as otherwise required by this Declaration of Trust or by law, be authorized when approved by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Unitholders. The chairman of any such meeting shall not have a second or casting vote.

8.6 Matters on which Unitholders Shall Vote

None of the following shall occur unless the same has been duly approved by the Unitholders at a meeting duly called and held:

- 8.6.1 except as provided in sections 3.1, 3.6, 3.7 and 3.11, the appointment, election or removal of Trustees;
- 8.6.2 except as provided in section 16.4, the appointment or removal of auditors of the Trust;
- 8.6.3 any amendment to the Declaration of Trust (except as provided in section 5.5 or section 13.1, provided that Special Unitholders shall not be entitled to vote the Special Voting Units on any amendment which directly or indirectly adds, removes or changes any of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions in respect of the Units or Special Voting Units and further provided that the Unitholders shall not be entitled to vote on any amendment which directly or indirectly adds, removes or changes any of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions in respect of the Special Units without the consent of the Special Unitholder);
- 8.6.4 an increase or decrease in the number of Trustees pursuant to section 3.1;
- 8.6.5 the sale or transfer of the assets of the Trust as an entirety or substantially as an entirety (other than as a part of an internal reorganization of the assets of the Trust as approved by the Trustees); or
- 8.6.6 the distribution pursuant to section 14.2 of all the Trust Property.

Except with respect to the foregoing matters specified in this section 8.6 or matters submitted to a vote of the Unitholders by the Trustees, no vote of the Unitholders shall in any way bind the Trustees. In particular, under no circumstances may Unitholders authorize the forgiveness of the obligation of holders of any instalment receipts to pay amounts owing thereunder in respect of Units represented by such instalment receipts. Nothing in this section, however, shall prevent the Trustees from submitting to a vote of Unitholders any matter which they deem appropriate.

8.7 Record Dates

For the purpose of determining the Unitholders who are entitled to receive notice of and vote at any meeting or any adjournment thereof, or who are entitled to receive any distribution, or for the purpose of any other action, the Trustees may from time to time, without notice to Unitholders, close the transfer books for such period, not exceeding 30 days, as the Trustees may determine; or with or without closing the transfer books the Trustees may fix a date not more than 60 days prior to the date of any meeting of the Unitholders or distribution or other action as a record date for the determination of Unitholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to receive such distribution or to be treated as Unitholders of record for purposes of such other action, as the case may be, and any Unitholder who was a Unitholder at the time so fixed shall be entitled to receive notice of and vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to receive such distribution, even though he has since that date disposed of his Units, and no Unitholder becoming such after that date shall be entitled to receive notice of and vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to receive such distribution or to be treated as a Unitholder of record for purposes of such other action.

8.8 Proxies

Whenever the vote or consent of Unitholders is required or permitted under this Declaration of Trust, such vote or consent may be given either directly by the Unitholder or Special Unitholder or by a proxy in such form as the Trustees may prescribe from time to time. A proxy need not be a Unitholder or Special Unitholder. The Trustees may solicit such proxies from the Unitholders, Special Unitholders or any of them in any matter requiring or permitting the Unitholders' vote, approval or consent.

The Trustees may adopt, amend or repeal such rules relating to the appointment of proxyholders and the solicitation, execution, validity, revocation and deposit of proxies, as they in their discretion from time to time determine.

8.9 Personal Representatives

If a Unitholder is deceased, his personal representative, upon filing with the secretary of the meeting such proof of his appointment as the secretary considers sufficient, shall be entitled to exercise the same voting rights at any meeting of Unitholders as the Unitholder would have been entitled to exercise if he were living and for the purpose of the meeting shall be considered to be a Unitholder. Subject to the provisions of the will of a deceased Unitholder, if there is more than one personal representative, the provisions of Section 6.20 relating to joint holders shall apply.

8.10 Attendance by Others

Any Trustee, officer, director or employee of the Trust, representative of the auditors of the Trust or other individual approved by the Trustees may attend and speak at any meeting of Unitholders.

8.11 Conduct of Meeting

To the extent that the rules and procedures for the conduct of a meeting of Unitholders are not prescribed herein, the rules and procedures shall be such reasonable rules and procedures as are determined by the chairman of the meeting and such rules and procedures shall be binding upon all parties participating in the meeting

8.12 Binding Effect of Resolutions

Every resolution passed at a meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Article 8 shall be binding upon all Unitholders, whether present at or absent from the meeting. Subject to Section 8.6, no action taken by Unitholders at any meeting of Unitholders shall in any way bind the Trust or Trustees without the approval of the Trustees.

8.13 Actions by Unitholders

Any action, change, approval, decision or determination required or permitted to be taken or made by the Unitholders hereunder shall be effected by a resolution passed by the Unitholders at a duly constituted meeting (or a special resolution in lieu thereof) in accordance with this Article 8.

8.14 Resolution in Lieu of Meeting

A resolution signed in writing by all of the Unitholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of Unitholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of Unitholders.

ARTICLE 9
MEETINGS OF TRUSTEES

9.1 Trustees May Act Without Meeting

The Trustees may act with or without a meeting. Any action of the Trustees may be taken at a meeting by vote or without a meeting by written consent or resolution signed by all of the Trustees, or members of the applicable committee, as the case may be. Any such consent or resolution may be signed in counterpart.

9.2 Notice of Meeting

Meetings of the Trustees may be held from time to time upon the giving of notice by any Trustee. Regular meetings of the Trustees may be held without call or notice at a time and place fixed by the Trustees' Regulations. Notice of the time and place of any other meetings shall be mailed or otherwise given not less than 48 hours before the meeting but may be waived in writing by any Trustee either before or after such meeting. The attendance of a Trustee at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a Trustee attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened. Each committee of Trustees appointed by the Trustees may adopt its own rules or procedures for the calling, conduct, adjournment and regulation of the meetings of such committees as it sees fit and may amend or repeal such rules or procedures from time to time; provided, however, that the Trustees' Regulations and any such rules or procedures shall not be inconsistent with this Declaration of Trust.

9.3 Quorum

A quorum for all meetings of the Trustees or any committee thereof shall be at least a majority of the Trustees or of the Trustees on such committee, as the case may be, present in person, provided that if there is no quorum, the meeting may be adjourned to another business day on notice to all of the Trustees or members of such committee, as the case may be, and, at the reconvened meeting, the presence of two-fifths of the Trustees or members of such committee, as the case may be, is required in order to constitute a quorum.

9.4 Voting at Meetings

Questions arising at any meeting of the Trustees shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting, who shall be the Chairman if present, shall not have a second or casting vote in addition to his original vote, if any.

9.5 Meeting by Telephone

Any Trustee may participate in a meeting of the Trustees or any committee thereof by means of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other and a Trustee so participating shall be considered for the purposes of this Declaration of Trust to be present in person at that meeting.

ARTICLE 10 DELEGATION OF POWERS

10.1 General

The Trustees may appoint from among their number one or more committees of Trustees and may, subject to applicable law and to any provision hereof to the contrary, delegate to such committee or committees any of the powers of the Trustees. The Trustees shall have the power to appoint, employ or contract with any person for any matter relating to the Trust or its assets or affairs. The Trustees may grant or delegate such authority to a property manager as the Trustees may, subject to applicable law, in their sole discretion deem necessary or desirable without regard to whether such authority is normally granted or delegated by trustees. Subject to section 10.4, the Trustees shall have the power to determine the term and compensation of a property manager or any other person whom they may employ or with whom they may contract. The Trustees shall have the power to grant powers of attorney as required in connection with any financing or security relating thereto.

10.2 Audit Committee

The Trustees shall appoint an audit committee (the "Audit Committee") to consist of not less than three Trustees. The Audit Committee shall be composed of Trustees who comply with the provisions of Mutilateral Instrument 52-110. Subject to the delegation to the Audit Committee of such other responsibilities as are determined by the Trustees from time to time and subject such changes to its form and function as may be mandated by any relevant regulatory authorities, the Audit Committee shall:

- (a) review the Trust's procedures for internal control with the Auditors and the Trust's Chief Financial Officer;

The auditors of the Trust are entitled to receive notice of every meeting of the Audit Committee and, at the expense of the Trust, to attend and be heard thereat and, if so requested by a member of the Audit Committee, shall attend any meeting of the Audit Committee held during the term of office of the auditors. Questions arising at any meeting of the Audit Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. Decisions may be taken by written consent signed by all of the members of the Audit Committee. The auditors of the Trust or a member of the Audit Committee may call a meeting of the Audit Committee on not less than 48 hours' notice.

10.3 Investment Committee

The Trustees shall appoint an investment committee (the "Investment Committee") to consist of not less than three Trustees and not more than five Trustees, a majority of whom shall be Outside Trustees, two of whom shall be Trustees appointed by FirstPro pursuant to section 3.11 hereof for so long as FirstPro is the registered and beneficial owner of in excess of 15% of the issued and outstanding Units and/or Special Voting Units of the Trust (unless the prior written consent to the contrary or a written waiver of FirstPro is obtained) and two-thirds of whom shall have had at least 5 years of substantive experience in the real estate industry. Questions arising at any meeting of the Investment Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. Decisions may be taken by written consent signed by all of the members of the Investment Committee. Any member of the Investment Committee may call a meeting of the Investment Committee upon not less than 48 hours notice. Where for any reason a member of the Investment Committee is disqualified from voting on or participating in a decision, any other independent and disinterested Trustee not already a member of the Investment Committee may be designated by the Trustees to act as an alternate. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Investment Committee, the Trustees may consider and approve any matter which the Investment Committee has the authority to consider or approve.

10.4 Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee

The Trustees shall appoint a corporate governance and compensation committee (the "Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee") to consist of not less than three Trustees and not more than four Trustees, one of whom shall be a Trustee appointed by FirstPro pursuant to section 3.11 hereof for so long as FirstPro is the registered and beneficial owner of in excess of 15% of the issued and outstanding Units and/or Special Voting Units of the Trust (unless the prior written consent to the contrary or a written waiver of FirstPro is obtained). The duties of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee will be to review the governance of the Trust with the responsibility for the Trust's corporate governance, human resources and compensation policies. In particular, the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee will be responsible for: (i) assessing the effectiveness of the board of Trustees and each of its committees; (ii) considering questions of management succession; (iii) participating in the recruitment and selection of candidates as Trustees of Calloway; (iv) considering and approving proposals by the Trustees of Calloway to engage outside advisers on behalf of the board of Trustees of Calloway; (v) administering Calloway's long term incentive plan; (vi) assessing the performance of the Chief Executive Officer; (vii) reviewing and approving the compensation of senior management and consultants of Calloway and its subsidiaries; and (viii) reviewing and making recommendations to the board concerning the level and nature of the compensation payable to the Trustees.

Questions arising in any meeting of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. Decisions may be taken by written consent signed by all of the members of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee. Any member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee may call a meeting of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee upon not less than 48 hours notice. Where for any reason a member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee is disqualified from voting on or participating in a decision, any other independent and disinterested Trustee not already a member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee may be designated by the Trustees to act as an alternate. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee, the Trustees may consider and approve any matter which the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee has authority to consider or approve.

10.5 Property Manager

The Trustees may exercise broad discretion in allowing any property manager to manage the Real Property of the Trust, including operating, maintaining, leasing and marketing the said properties, to act as agent for the Trust in respect thereof and to execute documents on behalf of the Trustees in respect thereof, all subject to the overriding authority of the Trustees over the management and affairs generally of the Trust.

ARTICLE 11 DISTRIBUTIONS

11.1 Distributions

The Trust shall pay or declare payable to Unitholders monthly, and the Unitholders will have a right to receive, on each Distribution Date a pro rata share of such portion of the Distributable Income of the Trust for the preceding calendar month then ended as the Trustees determine to distribute to the Unitholders, provided that the Trustees shall pay or declare payable each taxation year an amount equal to the greater of (i) 75% of its Distributable Income for that year; or (ii) the net income and Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust in such amount as is necessary to ensure that the Trust will not be subject to tax on its net income and net capital gains under Part I of the Income Tax Act. If the Trustees anticipate a cash shortfall and determine that it would be in the best interests of the Trust, they may reduce for any period the percentage of Distributable Income to be distributed to Unitholders, provided that they may not reduce the percentage of Distributable Income distributed below 75% for any taxation year. The Trust shall also distribute to Unitholders, and the Unitholders will have a right to receive, on December 31 of each year (i) the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust and the Net Recapture Income of the Trust for the year then ended and (ii) any excess of the income of the Trust for purposes of the Income Tax Act for the year then ended over distributions otherwise made for that year. Distributions of Distributable Income maybe adjusted for amounts paid in prior periods if the actual Distributable Income for the prior periods is greater than or less than the Trustees' estimates for the prior periods. Distributions shall be made in cash or Units pursuant to any distribution reinvestment plan or distribution reinvestment and Unit purchase plan adopted by the Trustees pursuant to section 11.6. Any distribution shall be made proportionately to persons who are Unitholders as at the close of business on the record date for such distribution which shall be the last business day of the calendar month preceding the month in which the Distribution Date falls, or if such date is not a business day then the next following business day, or such other date, if any, as is fixed in accordance with section 8.7. For greater certainty, it is hereby expressly declared that a Unitholder shall have the legal right to enforce payment as of the Distribution Date of any amount which is required to be distributed to a Unitholder hereunder. The Trustees, if they so determine when income has been accrued but not collected may, on a temporary basis, transfer sufficient moneys from the capital to the income account of the Trust to permit distributions under this section 11.1 to be effected.

11.2 Allocation

Income and net taxable capital gains for purposes of the Income Tax Act will be allocated to Unitholders in the same proportions as distributions received by Unitholders, subject to the discretion of the Trustees to adopt an allocation method which the Trustees consider to be more reasonable in the circumstances.

11.3 Payment of Distributions

Distributions shall be made by cheque payable to or to the order of the Unitholder or by such other manner of payment approved by the Trustees from time to time. The payment, if made by cheque, shall be conclusively deemed to have been made upon hand-delivery of a cheque to the Unitholder or to his agent duly authorized in writing or upon the mailing of a cheque by prepaid first-class mail addressed to the Unitholder at his address as it appears on the Register unless the cheque is not paid on presentation. The Trustees may issue a replacement cheque if they are satisfied that the original cheque has not been received or has been lost or destroyed upon being furnished with such evidence of loss, indemnity or other document in connection therewith that they may in their discretion consider necessary.

11.4 Income Tax Matters

In reporting income for income tax purposes the Trust shall claim, and shall cause any partnership controlled by the Trust to claim, the maximum amount available to it as deductions under the relevant law, including but not limited to maximum capital cost allowance, unless the Trustees determine otherwise, provided, however, that for purposes of determining the income of the Trust for purposes of the Income Tax Act as contemplated by clause (ii) of section 11.1, the income shall be computed on the basis of the Trust claiming the maximum amount available to it as deductions under the Income Tax Act (but without reference to Section 104(6) of the Income Tax Act), including, but not limited to, maximum capital cost allowance, unless the Trustees determine otherwise prior to the end of the relevant taxation year.

11.5 Designations

The Trustees shall make such designations, determinations and allocations for income tax purposes in respect of amounts paid or payable to Unitholders for such amounts that the Trustees consider to be reasonable, including, without limitation, designations relating to taxable dividends received by the Trust in the year on shares of taxable Canadian corporations, net taxable capital gains of the Trust in the year, and foreign source income of the Trust for the year, as well as elect under subsections 104(13.1) and (13.2) of the Income Tax Act that income be taxed to the Trust, rather than to such Unitholder.

11.6 Distribution Reinvestment and Unit Purchase Plan

Subject to any required regulatory approvals, the Trustees may in their sole discretion establish one or more distribution reinvestment plans, distribution reinvestment and Unit purchase plans or Unit option plans at any time and from time to time.

11.7 Withholding Taxes

The Trustees may deduct or withhold from the distributions payable to any Unitholder amounts required by law to be withheld from such Unitholder's distributions.

ARTICLE 12
FEES AND EXPENSES*12.1 Expenses

The Trust shall pay all expenses incurred in connection with the administration and management of the Trust and its investments, including without limitation fees of auditors, lawyers, appraisers, registrars and transfer agents and other agents, stock exchanges, consultants and professional advisors employed by or on behalf of the Trust and the cost of reporting or giving notices to Unitholders.

12.2 Payment of Real Property and Brokerage Commissions

The Trust may pay Real Property and brokerage commissions at commercial rates in respect of the acquisition and disposition of any investment acquired or disposed of by it. Such commissions may be paid to a property manager or to others.

12.3 Property Management, Leasing and Financing Fees

The Trust may pay property management fees, leasing fees and financing fees in respect of any Real Property owned by it. Such fees may be paid to a property manager or to others.

ARTICLE 13 AMENDMENTS TO THE DECLARATION OF TRUST

13.1 Amendments by the Trustees

The Trustees may, without the approval of or any notice to Unitholders, make amendments to this Declaration of Trust:

- 13.1.1 for the purpose of ensuring continuing compliance with applicable laws, regulations, requirements or policies of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Trustees or over the Trust, including respecting its status as a “unit trust” a “mutual fund trust” and a “registered investment” under the Income Tax Act or the distribution of its Units;
- 13.1.2 which, in the opinion of the Trustees, provide additional protection for or benefit to the Unitholders;
- 13.1.3 to remove any conflicts or inconsistencies in the Declaration of Trust or to make minor corrections which are, in the opinion of the Trustees, necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Unitholders;
- 13.1.4 which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are necessary or desirable as a result of changes in taxation laws from time to time, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, amendments which may affect the Trust, the Unitholders or Annuitants under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier or which may permit the Trust to qualify for any status under the Income Tax Act which would benefit the Trust or the Unitholders;
- 13.1.5 for any purpose (except one in respect of which a Unitholder vote is specifically otherwise required), if the Trustees are of the opinion that the amendment is not prejudicial to Unitholders and is necessary or desirable; and
- 13.1.6 which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are necessary or desirable to enable the Trust to issue Units for which the purchase price is payable on an instalment basis.

13.2 Amendments by Unitholders

Subject to sections 8.6, 13.1, 13.3 and 13.4, this Declaration of Trust may be amended by the vote of a majority of the votes cast at a Meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose.

13.3 Two-Thirds Unitholder Vote

None of the following shall occur unless the same has been duly approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Unitholders duly called and held:

- 13.3.1 any amendment to this section 13.3;
- 13.3.2 any amendment to change a right with respect to any outstanding Units of the Trust to reduce the amount payable thereon upon termination of the Trust or to diminish or eliminate any voting rights pertaining thereto;
- 13.3.3 any amendment to the duration or term of the Trust;
- 13.3.4 any amendment relating to the powers, duties, obligations, liabilities or indemnification of the Trustees;
- 13.3.5 any sale or transfer of the assets of the Trust as an entirety or substantially as an entirety (other than as part of an internal reorganization of the Assets of the Trust as approved by the Trustees);
- 13.3.6 any amendment to sections 5.1 and 5.2 except for any amendment contemplated by section 13.1; or
- 13.3.7 any approval pursuant to section 8.6.6 or 14.2;
- 13.3.8 any amendments to sections 3.11, 6.1.5, 10.3 or 10.4, without the written consent of FirstPro; except for any amendment contemplated by section 5.3 or section 13.1.

13.4 Trustees to Sign Amendment

When a vote of the Unitholders approves an amendment to this Declaration of Trust which, pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration of Trust, binds the Trustees to make such amendment, the Trustees shall sign such documents as may be necessary to effect such amendment.

ARTICLE 14 TERMINATION OF THE TRUST

14.1 Term of the Trust

The term of the Trust shall commence on the date hereof and shall continue in full force and effect until twenty-one (21) years after the date of death of the last surviving issue of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, alive on December 4, 2001, and the Trustees shall have all the powers and discretions, expressed and implied, conferred upon them by law or by this Declaration of Trust.

14.2 Distribution of Trust Property by Vote of Unitholders

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.1, if there is an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose requiring that the Trustees distribute to the Unitholders all Trust Property, the Trustees will be bound and obligated to make such distribution to the Unitholders.

14.3 Effect of Termination

Upon the termination of the Trust or the affirmative vote referred to in section 14.2, the liabilities of the Trust shall be discharged with due speed and the net assets of the Trust shall be liquidated and the proceeds distributed proportionately to the Unitholders. Such distribution may be made in cash or in kind or partly in each, all as the Trustees in their sole discretion may determine.

14.4 Procedure Upon Termination

Forthwith upon being required to commence to discharge the liabilities of and liquidate the Trust, the Trustees shall give notice thereof to the Unitholders, which notice shall designate the time or times at which Unitholders may surrender their Units for cancellation and the date at which the Register of Units of the Trust shall be closed.

14.5 Powers of the Trustees Upon Termination

After the date on which the Trustees are required to discharge the liabilities of and liquidate the Trust, the Trustees shall carry on no activities except for the purpose of winding-up the affairs of the Trust as hereinafter provided and, for this purpose, the Trustees shall continue to be vested with and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon the Trustees under this Declaration of Trust.

14.6 Further Notice to Unitholders

In the event that less than all of the Unitholders have surrendered their Units for cancellation within six months after the time specified in the notice referred to in section 14.4, the Trustees shall give further notice to the remaining Unitholders to surrender their Units for cancellation and if, within one year after the further notice, all the Units shall not have been surrendered for cancellation, such remaining Units shall be deemed to be cancelled without prejudice to the rights of the holders of such Units to receive their shares, equally and rateably, of the remaining Trust Property, and the Trustees may either take appropriate steps, or appoint an agent to take appropriate steps, to contact such Unitholders (deducting all expenses thereby incurred from the amounts to which such Unitholders are entitled as aforesaid) or, in the discretion of the Trustees, may pay such amounts into Court or to the Public Curator (or other appropriate government official or agency) whose receipt shall be a good discharge and release of the Trustees.

15.1 Liability and Indemnification of the Trustees

The Trustees shall at all times be indemnified and saved harmless out of the property of the Trust from and against all liabilities, damages, losses, debts, claims, actions, suits and proceedings whatsoever, including costs, charges and expenses in connection therewith, sustained, incurred, brought, commenced or prosecuted against them for or in respect of any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever made, done, acquiesced in or omitted in or about or in relation to the execution of their duties as Trustees and also from and against all other liabilities, damages, losses, debts, claims, costs, charges and expenses which they sustain or incur in or about or in relation to the affairs of the Trust. Further, the Trustees shall not be liable to the Trust or to any Unitholder or an Annuitant for any loss or damages relating to any matter regarding the Trust, including any loss or diminution in the value of the Trust or its assets. The foregoing provisions of this section 15.1 in favour of any Trustee do not apply unless:

- 15.1.1 the Trustee acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders; and
- 15.1.2 in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the Trustee had reasonable grounds for believing his conduct was lawful.

The provisions of this section 15.1 with respect to indemnification and saving harmless shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to any former Trustee and to any officer or former officer of the Trust.

15.2 Liability of the Trustees

The Trustees shall not be liable to the Trust or to any Unitholder, Annuitant or any other person for the acts, omissions, receipts, neglects or defaults of any person, firm or corporation employed or engaged by the Trust as permitted hereunder, or for joining in any receipt or act of conformity or for any loss, damage or expense caused to the Trust through the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of or belonging to the Trust shall be paid out or invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person, firm or corporation with whom or which any moneys, securities or property of the Trust shall be lodged or deposited, or for any loss occasioned by error in judgement or oversight on the part of the Trustees, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune which may happen in the execution by the Trustees of their duties hereunder, except to the extent the Trustees have not acted in accordance with subsections 15.1.1 and 15.1.2.

15.3 Reliance Upon Advice

The Trustees may rely and act upon any statement, report or opinion prepared by or any advice received from the auditors, lawyers or other professional advisors of the Trust and shall not be responsible or held liable for any loss or damage resulting from so relying or acting.

15.4 Liability of Unitholders and Others

15.4.1 No Unitholder or Annuitant under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier shall be held to have any personal liability as such, and no resort shall be had to, nor shall recourse or satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any Unitholder or Annuitant for any liability whatsoever, in tort, contracts or otherwise, to any person in connection with the Trust Property or the affairs of the Trust, including, without limitation, for satisfaction of any obligation or claim arising out of or in connection with any contract or obligation of the Trust or of the Trustees or any obligation which a Unitholder or Annuitant would otherwise have to indemnify a Trustee for any personal liability incurred by the Trustee as such, but rather the assets of the Trust only are intended to be liable and subject to levy or execution for satisfaction of such liability. Each Unitholder and Annuitant under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of the assets of the Trust in respect of any payment of a Trust obligation made by such Unitholder or Annuitant.

15.4.2 (i) Any written instrument creating an obligation which is or includes the granting by the Trust of a mortgage and (ii) to the extent the Trustees determine to be practicable and consistent with their obligations to act in the best interests of the Unitholders, any written instrument which is, in the judgement of the Trustees, a material obligation, shall contain a provision or be subject to an acknowledgement to the effect that the obligation being created is not personally binding upon, and that resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse or satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the Unitholders or Annuitants under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier, but the property of the Trust or a specific portion thereof only shall be bound. If the Trust makes Real Property investment subject to existing contractual obligations, including obligations under mortgages, the Trustees shall use all reasonable efforts to have any such obligations modified so as to achieve the aforesaid disavowal of contractual liability. Further, the Trustees shall cause the operations of the Trust to be conducted, with the advice of counsel, in such a way and in such jurisdictions as to avoid, to the extent which they determine to be practicable and consistent with their obligations to act in the best interests of the Unitholders, any material risk of liability on the Unitholders for claims against the Trust, and shall, to the extent available on terms which they determine to be practicable, including the cost of premiums, cause the insurance carried by the Trust, to the extent applicable, to cover the Unitholders and Annuitants as additional insureds. Any potential liability of the Trustees with respect to their

- 4.2.11 To collect, sue for and receive sums of money coming due to the Trust, and to engage in, intervene in, prosecute, join, defend, compromise, abandon or adjust, by arbitration or otherwise, any actions, suits, proceedings, disputes, claims, demands or other litigation relating to the Trust, the assets of the Trust or the Trust's affairs, to enter into agreements therefor whether or not any suit is commenced or claim accrued or asserted and, in advance of any controversy, to enter into agreements regarding the arbitration, adjudication or settlement thereof,
- 4.2.12 To renew, modify, release, compromise, extend, consolidate or cancel, in whole or in part, any obligation to or of the Trust;
- 4.2.13 To purchase and pay for, out of the assets of the Trust, insurance contracts and policies insuring the assets of the Trust against any and all risks and insuring the Trust and/or any or all of the Trustees, the Unitholders or officers of the Trust against any and all claims and liabilities of any nature asserted by any person arising by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted by the Trust or by the Trustees, the Unitholders or the officers or otherwise;
- 4.2.14 To cause title to any of the assets of the Trust to be drawn up in the name of the Trustees, and/or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in the name of the Trust or one or more of the Trustees or any other person, on such terms, in such manner with such powers in such person as the Trustees may determine and with or without disclosure that the Trust or Trustees are interested therein provided, however, that should title to any of the assets of the Trust be held by and/or in the name of any person or persons other than the Trust or Trustees as aforesaid, the Trustees shall require such person or persons to execute a declaration of trust acknowledging that title to such assets is held in trust for the benefit of the Trust;

- 4.2.15 To determine conclusively the allocation to capital, income or other appropriate accounts of all receipts, expenses, disbursements and property of the Trust;
- 4.2.16 To prepare, sign and file or cause to be prepared, signed and filed any prospectus, information circular, offering memorandum or similar document, and any amendment thereto, relating to or resulting from an offering of the Units or other securities issued or held by the Trust and to pay the cost thereof and related thereto and any fees related thereto out of the property of the Trust whether or not such offering is or was of direct benefit to the Trust or those persons (if any) who were Unitholders or holders of Exchangeable Securities, immediately prior to such offering;
- 4.2.17 To make or cause to be made application for the listing on any stock exchange of any Units or other securities of the Trust, and to do all things which in the opinion of the Trustees may be necessary or desirable to effect or maintain such listing or listings;
- 4.2.18 To determine conclusively the value of any or all of the property of the Trust from time to time and, in determining such value, to consider such information and advice as the Trustees, in their sole judgement, may deem material and reliable;
- 4.2.19 To do all such acts and things and to exercise such powers which are delegated to the Trustees by any person who co-owns Real Property with the Trust;
- 4.2.20 To do all such other acts and things as are incidental to the foregoing and to exercise all powers which are necessary or useful to carry on the affairs of the Trust, to promote any of the purposes for which the Trust is formed and to carry out the provisions of this Declaration of Trust.

4.3 Further Powers of the Trustees

The Trustees shall have the power to prescribe any form provided for or contemplated by this Declaration of Trust. The Trustees may make, adopt, amend, or repeal regulations containing provisions relating to the Trust, the conduct of its affairs, their rights or powers and the rights or powers of its Unitholders or officers not inconsistent with law or with this Declaration of Trust and not, in the opinion of the Trustees, prejudicial to Unitholders. The Trustees shall also be entitled to make any reasonable decisions, designations or determinations not contrary to this Declaration of Trust which they may determine are necessary or desirable in interpreting, applying or administering this Declaration of Trust or in administering, managing or operating the Trust. Any regulations, decisions, designations or determinations made pursuant to this section shall be conclusive and binding upon all persons affected thereby.

4.4 Standard of Care

The exclusive standard of care required of the Trustees in exercising their powers and carrying out their functions hereunder shall be that they exercise their powers and carry out their functions hereunder as Trustees honestly, in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders and that in connection therewith they exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. A Trustee shall not be liable in carrying out his or her duties under this Declaration of Trust except in cases where a Trustee fails to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders or to exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. Unless otherwise required by law, no Trustee shall be required to give bond, surety or security in any jurisdiction for the performance of any duties or obligations hereunder. The Trustees in their capacity as Trustees shall not be required to devote their entire time to the affairs of the Trust.

For greater certainty, to the extent that the Trustees have contracted or delegated the performance of certain activities to a property manager, they shall be deemed to have satisfied the aforesaid standard of care.

4.5 Reliance Upon Trustees

Any person dealing with the Trust in respect of any matters pertaining to the assets of the Trust and any right, title or interest therein or to the Trust or to securities of the Trust shall be entitled to rely on a certificate or statutory declaration (including, without limiting the foregoing, a certificate or statutory declaration as to the passing of a resolution of the Trustees) executed by any two Trustees or the Secretary or, without limiting the foregoing, such other person as may be authorized by the Trustees as to the capacity, power and authority of the Trustees or any other person to act for and on behalf and in the name of the Trust. No person dealing with the Trustees shall be bound to see to the application of any funds or property passing into the hands or control of the Trustees. The receipt by or on behalf of the Trustees for moneys or other consideration shall be binding upon the Trust.

All determinations of the Trustees which are made in good faith with respect to any matters relating to the Trust, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, whether any particular investment or disposition meets the requirements of this Declaration of Trust, shall be final and conclusive and shall be binding upon the Trust and all Unitholders (and, where the Unitholder is a registered retirement savings plan, registered retirement income fund, deferred profit sharing plan or registered pension fund or plan as defined in the Income Tax Act (Canada), or such other fund or plan registered under the Income Tax Act (Canada), upon plan beneficiaries and plan holders past, present and future) and Special Unitholders and Units and Special Voting Units of the Trust shall be issued and sold on the condition and understanding that any and all such determinations shall be binding as aforesaid.

4.7 Conflict of Interest

If a Trustee or an officer of the Trust:

- 4.7.1 is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Trust (including a contract or transaction involving the making, or disposition of any investment in Real Property or a joint venture arrangement); or
- 4.7.2 is a director or officer of, or otherwise has a material interest in, any person who is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with the Trust,

the Trustee or the officer of the Trust, as the case may be, shall disclose in writing to the Trustees or request to have entered in the minutes of meetings of the Trustees the nature and extent of such interest as follows:

- 4.7.3 The disclosure required in the case of a Trustee shall be made:
 - 4.7.3.1 at the meeting of Trustees at which a proposed contract or transaction is first considered;
 - 4.7.3.2 if the Trustee was not then interested in a proposed contract or transaction, at the first such meeting after he becomes so interested;
 - 4.7.3.3 if the Trustee becomes interested after a contract is made or a transaction is entered into, at the first meeting after he becomes so interested; or
 - 4.7.3.4 if a person who is interested in a contract or transaction later becomes a Trustee, at the first such meeting after he becomes a Trustee;
- 4.7.4 The disclosure required in the case of an officer of the Trust who is not a Trustee shall be made:

- 4.7.4.1 forthwith after such person becomes aware that the contract or transaction or proposed contract or transaction is to be considered or has been considered at a meeting of the Trustees;
 - 4.7.4.2 if such person becomes interested after a contract is made or a transaction is entered to, forthwith after such person becomes so interested; or
 - 4.7.4.3 if a person who is interested in a contract or transaction later becomes an officer of the Trust who is not a Trustee, forthwith after he becomes an officer of the Trust;
- 4.7.5 Notwithstanding subsections 4.7.3 and 4.7.4, where this section applies to any person in respect of a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction that, in the ordinary course of the affairs of the Trust, would not require approval by the Trustees or the Unitholders, such person shall disclose in writing to the Trustees or request to have entered into the minutes of meetings of the Trustees the nature and extent of such person's interest forthwith after such person becomes aware of the contract or transaction or proposed contract or transaction;
- 4.7.6 A Trustee referred to in this section shall not vote on any resolution to approve the said contract or transaction unless the contract or transaction is:
- 4.7.6.1 one relating primarily to his remuneration as a Trustee, officer, employee or agent of the Trust; or
 - 4.7.6.2 one for indemnity under section 15.1. or the purchase of liability insurance;
- 4.7.7 For the purposes hereof, a general notice to the Trustees by a Trustee or an officer of the Trust disclosing that he is a director or officer of or has a material interest in a person and is to be regarded as interested in any contract made or any transaction entered into with that person, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to any contract so made or transaction so entered into. In the event that a meeting of Unitholders is called to confirm or approve a contract or transaction which is the subject of a general notice to the Trustees, the notice and extent of the interest in the contract or transaction of the person giving such general notice shall be disclosed in reasonable detail in the notice calling the said meeting of Unitholders or in any information circular required to be provided by this Declaration of Trust or by law;
- 4.7.8 Where a material contract is made or a material transaction is entered into between the Trust and a Trustee or an officer of the Trust, or between the Trust and another person of which a Trustee or an officer of the Trust is a director or officer or in which he has a material interest:
- 4.7.8.1 such person is not accountable to the Trust or to the Unitholders for any profit or gain realized from the contract or transaction; and
 - 4.7.8.2 the contract or transaction is neither void nor voidable;
- by reason only of that relationship or by reason only that such person is present at or is counted to determine the presence of a quorum at the meeting of the Trustees that authorized the contract or transaction, if such, person disclosed his interest in accordance with this section 4.7, and the contract or transaction was approved by the Trustees or the Unitholders and was reasonable and fair to the Trust at the time it was so approved;
- 4.7.9 Notwithstanding anything in this section, but without limiting the effect of subsection 4.7.8, a Trustee or an officer of the Trust, acting honestly and in good faith, is not accountable to the Trust or to the Unitholders for any profit or gain realized from any such contract or transaction by reason only of his holding such office or position, and the contract or transaction, if it was reasonable and fair to the Trust at the time it was approved, is not by reason only of such person's interest therein void or voidable, where:

- 4.7.9.1 the contract or transaction is confirmed or approved at a meeting of Unitholders duly called for that purpose; and
 - 4.7.9.2 the nature and extent of such person's interest in the contract or transaction are disclosed in reasonable detail in the notice calling the meeting or in any information circular required to be provided by this Declaration of Trust or by law; and
- 4.7.10 Subject to subsections 4.7.8 and 4.7.9, where a Trustee or an officer of the Trust fails to disclose his interest in a material contract or transaction in accordance with this Declaration of Trust or otherwise fails to comply with this section, the Trustees or any Unitholder, in addition to exercising any other rights or remedies in connection with such failure exercisable at law or in equity, may apply to a court for an order setting aside the contract or transaction and/or directing that such person account to the Trust for any profit or gain realized.

ARTICLE 5 INVESTMENT GUIDELINES AND OPERATING POLICIES

5.1 Investment Guidelines

The assets of the Trust may be invested only in accordance with the following guidelines:

- 5.1.1 the Trust will focus its acquisition activities on existing income-producing properties that are capital property of the Trust, including office, retail, industrial and mixed use properties, that are substantially leased;
- 5.1.2 notwithstanding anything in this Declaration of Trust to the contrary, the Trust shall not make any investment or take any action or omit to take any action that would result in Units not being units of a "mutual fund trust" and of a "unit trust" within the meaning of the Income Tax Act, that would result in Units being disqualified for investment by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, deferred profit sharing plans or registered education savings plans, or that would result in the Trust paying a tax under the registered investment provisions of the Income Tax Act imposed for exceeding certain investment limits;
- 5.1.3 the Trust may, directly or indirectly, invest in a joint venture arrangement for the purposes of owning interests or investments otherwise permitted to be held by the Trust, provided that such joint venture arrangement contains terms and conditions which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are commercially reasonable, including without limitation such terms and conditions relating to restrictions on transfer and the acquisition and sale of the Trust's and any joint venturer's interest in the joint venture arrangement, provisions to provide liquidity to the Trust, such as buy-sell mechanisms, provisions that limit the liability of the Trust to third parties, and provisions that provide for the participation of the Trust in the management of the joint venture arrangement. For purposes of this provision, a joint venture arrangement is an arrangement between the Trust and one or more other persons ("joint venturers") pursuant to which the Trust, directly or indirectly, conducts an undertaking for one or more of the purposes set out above and in respect of which the Trust may hold its interest jointly or in common or in another manner with others either directly or through the ownership of securities of a corporation or other entity (a "joint venture entity"), including without limitation a general partnership, limited partnership or limited liability company;
- 5.1.4 except for temporary investments held in cash, deposits with a Canadian chartered bank or trust company registered under the laws of a province of Canada, short-term government debt securities, or in money market instruments of, or guaranteed by, a Schedule 1 Canadian chartered bank maturing prior to one year from the date of issue, the Trust may not hold securities other than securities of a joint venture entity, trust or limited partnership or an entity or corporation wholly owned by the Trust formed and operated for the purpose of holding a particular Real Property or Real Properties or for any other purpose relating to the activities of the Trust, and provided further that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Declaration of Trust to the contrary, the Trust may acquire securities of other real estate investment trusts;

- 5.1.5 except as otherwise prohibited in this Declaration of Trust, the Trust may invest in interests (including fee ownership and leasehold interests) in income-producing Real Property that is capital property of the Trust;
- 5.1.6 the Trust shall not acquire any single investment in real property (whether directly or indirectly through its interest in a trust, limited partnership or corporation) if the cost to the Trust of such acquisition (including encumbrances assumed) will exceed 20% of the Gross Book Value calculated following such purchase;
- 5.1.7 the Trust shall not invest in rights to or interests in mineral or other natural resources, including oil or gas, except as incidental to an investment in Real Property that is capital property of the Trust;
- 5.1.8 the Trust shall not invest directly in operating businesses unless such investment is through a corporation, limited partnership or trust;
- 5.1.9 subject to Section 5.1.2, the Trust may invest directly in raw land for development properties adjacent to existing properties of the Trust provided such investment is through a corporation, limited partnerships or trust established for the purpose of (i) the renovation or expansion of existing facilities that are capital property of the Trust, or (ii) the development of new facilities which will be capital property of the Trust;
- 5.1.10 the Trust may invest in mortgages or mortgage bonds (including, with the consent of a majority of the Trustees, a participating or convertible mortgage) where:
 - 5.1.10.1 the Real Property which is security therefore is income-producing Real Property which otherwise meets the general investment guidelines of the Trust adopted by the Trustees from time to time in accordance with this Declaration of Trust and the restrictions set out therein; and
 - 5.1.10.2 the aggregate value of the investments of the Trust in these mortgages, after giving effect to the proposed investment, will not exceed 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity;
- 5.1.11 the Trust may invest in mortgages if the primary intention is to use the acquisition of the mortgages as a method of acquiring control of income-producing Real Property which would otherwise meet the investment guidelines of the Trust and provided the aggregate value of the investments of the Trust in these mortgages, after giving effect to the proposed investment, will not exceed 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity; and
- 5.1.12 subject to subsection 5.1.2, the Trust may invest an amount (which, in the case of an amount invested to acquire Real Property, is the purchase price less the amount of any indebtedness assumed or incurred by the Trust and secured by a mortgage on such property) of up to 15% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity of the Trust in investments or transactions which do not comply with subsections 5.1.4, 5.1.5, 5.1.10 and 5.1.11 above or subsection 5.2.3.

For the purpose of the foregoing guidelines, the assets, liabilities and transactions of a corporation or other entity wholly or partially owned by the Trust will be deemed to be those of the Trust on a proportionate consolidation basis. In addition, any references in the foregoing to investment in Real Property will be deemed to include an investment in a joint venture arrangement. Nothing in the guidelines prohibits the Trust from holding or assigning some or all of the receivables due pursuant to any instalment receipt agreement.

Except as specifically set forth herein to the contrary, all of the foregoing prohibitions, limitations or requirements for investment shall be determined as at the date of investment by the Trust.

5.2 Operating Policies

The operations and affairs of the Trust shall be conducted in accordance with the following policies:

- 5.2.1 (i) any written instrument creating an obligation which is or includes the granting by the Trust of a mortgage, and (ii) to the extent the Trustees determine to be practicable and consistent with their duty to act in the best interests of the Unitholders, any written instrument which is, in the judgement of the Trustees, a material obligation, shall contain a provision or be subject to an acknowledgement to the effect that the obligation being created is not personally binding upon, and that resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse or satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the Trustees, Unitholders, Annuitants under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as a trustee or carrier, or officers, employees or agents of the Trust, but that only property of the Trust or a specific portion thereof shall be bound; the Trust, however, is not required, but shall use all reasonable efforts, to comply with this requirement in respect of obligations assumed by the Trust upon the acquisition of Real Property;
- 5.2.2 the Trust shall not lease or sublease to any person any Real Property, premises or space where that person and its Affiliates would, after the contemplated lease or sublease, be leasing or subleasing Real Property, premises or space having a fair market value net of encumbrances in excess of 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity of the Trust;
- 5.2.3 the limitation contained in subsection 5.2.2 shall not apply to the renewal or extension of a lease or sublease and shall not apply where the lessee or sublessee is, or where the lease or sublease is guaranteed (or an indemnity has been given) by:
- 5.2.3.1 the Government of Canada, the Government of the United States, any province of Canada, any state of the United States or any municipality in Canada or the United States, or any agency thereof;
- 5.2.3.2 any corporation, the bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness of, or guaranteed by which, has received a rating from Standard & Poors of no less than investment grade (or equivalent from any other recognized credit rating agency) in each case, at the time the lease or sublease is entered into, or at the time other satisfactory leasing arrangements as determined by the Trustees, in their discretion, are entered into;
- 5.2.3.3 a Canadian chartered bank registered federally or under the laws of a province of Canada; or
- 5.2.3.4 Wal-Mart Canada Corp. and its related associates and affiliates.
- 5.2.4 the Trust may engage directly in construction or development to maintain its properties in good repair or to enhance the income producing ability of properties in which the Trust has an interest;
- 5.2.5 title to each Real Property shall be drawn up in the name of the Trustees or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, the Trust or a corporation or other entity wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by the Trust or jointly, directly or indirectly, by the Trust with joint venturers;
- 5.2.6 the Trust will not incur or assume any indebtedness if, after the incurring or assuming of the indebtedness, the total indebtedness of the Trust would be more than 60% of the Gross Book Value (65% if convertible debentures are outstanding). The Trustees may in their discretion use Fair Market Value in place of Gross Book Value for the purposes of this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection the term "indebtedness" means (without duplication and excluding "non-controlling interests") on a consolidated basis:

- 5.2.6.1 any obligation of the Trust for borrowed money;
- 5.2.6.2 any obligation of the Trust incurred in connection with the acquisition of property, assets or business;
- 5.2.6.3 any obligation of the Trust issued or assumed as the deferred purchase price of property;
- 5.2.6.4 any capital lease obligation of the Trust; and
- 5.2.6.5 any obligation of the type referred to in clauses 5.2.6.1 through 5.2.6.4 of another person, the payment of which the Trust has guaranteed or for which the Trust is responsible for or liable;

provided that (a) for the purposes of 5.2.6.1 through 5.2.6.4, an obligation (other than convertible debentures) will constitute indebtedness only to the extent that it would appear as a liability on the consolidated balance sheet of the Trust in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (b) obligations referred to in clauses 5.2.6.1 through 5.2.6.3 exclude trade accounts payable, distributions payable to Unitholders and accrued liabilities arising out of the ordinary course of business; and (c) convertible debentures will constitute indebtedness to the extent of the principal amount thereof outstanding;

- 5.2.7 the Trust shall not incur debt aggregating more than 20% of Gross Book Value (other than unsecured trade payables, accrued expenses and distributions payable) at floating interest rates or having a maturity of less than one year, not including term debt falling due in the next twelve months or variable rate debt for which the Trust has entered into interest rate swap agreements to fix the interest rate for a one year period or greater;
- 5.2.8 the Trust may directly or indirectly guarantee indebtedness or liabilities of a third party provided that such guarantee is related to the direct or indirect ownership or acquisition by the Trust of Real Property that would otherwise comply with the investment restrictions and operating guidelines contained in sections 5.1 and 5.2;
- 5.2.9 the Trust shall be obliged to obtain an independent appraisal of any property acquired by the Trust that the Investment Committee determines, in its discretion, should be supported by an independent appraisal;
- 5.2.10 the Trust shall obtain and maintain at all times insurance coverage in respect of potential liabilities of the Trust and the accidental loss of value of the assets of the Trust from risks, in amounts, with such insurers, and on such terms as the Trustees consider appropriate, taking into account all relevant factors including the practices of owners of comparable properties;
- 5.2.11 the Trust shall have conducted a Phase I environmental audit of each Real Property to be acquired by it and, if the Phase I environmental audit report recommends a Phase II environmental audit be conducted, the Trust shall have conducted a Phase II environmental audit, in each case by an independent and experienced environmental consultant; such audit as a condition to any acquisition, shall be satisfactory to the Trustees. All new leases granted by the Trust shall contain appropriate covenants from the lessee respecting environmental matters as determined by the Trustees from time to time; and

For the purposes of the foregoing policies, the assets, liabilities and transactions of a corporation or other entity wholly or partially owned by the Trust will be deemed to be those of the Trust on a proportionate consolidation basis. In addition, any references in the foregoing to investment in Real Property will be deemed to include an investment in a joint venture.

All of the foregoing prohibitions, limitations or requirements pursuant to the foregoing policies shall be determined as at the date of investment or other action by the Trust.

5.3 Registered Investments

The Trustees shall cause the Trust to do all such things and take all such action as may be necessary from time to time to ensure that the Trust obtains and retains its status as a "registered investment" under the Income Tax Act. The Trustees shall take all steps necessary to ensure that the Trust does not make or hold any investment that would result in the Trust being liable for tax under Part XI or Part X.2 of the Income Tax Act.

5.4 Application of Investment Restrictions and Operating Guidelines

With respect to the investment restrictions and operating guidelines contained in Sections 5.1 and 5.2, where any maximum or minimum percentage limitation is specified in any of the restrictions therein contained, such restrictions shall be applied on the basis of the relevant amounts calculated immediately after the making of such investment. Any subsequent change relative to any percentage limitation which results from a subsequent change in the book value of the assets of the Trust or the amount of Adjusted Unitholders' Equity will not require divestiture of any investment

If at any time a government or regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Trust or any property of the Trust shall enact any law, regulation or requirement which is in conflict with any investment restriction of the Trust then in force, such restriction in conflict shall, if the Trustees on the advice of legal counsel to the Trust so resolve, be deemed to have been amended to the extent necessary to resolve any such conflict and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, any such resolution of the Trustees shall not require the prior approval of Unitholders.

ARTICLE 6 TRUST UNITS

6.1.1 The beneficial interests in the Trust shall be divided into interests of two classes, described and designated as "Units" and "Special Voting Units", which shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the limitations, restrictions and conditions set out herein, and the interest of each Unitholder and Special Unitholder shall be determined by the number of Units and/or Special Voting Units registered in the name of the Unitholder or Special Unitholder.

6.1.2 Each Unit represents an equal undivided interest in the Trust. All Units outstanding from time to time shall be entitled to participate pro rata in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination or winding-up of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust. All Units shall rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority.

6.1.3 No Special Voting Unit shall be entitled to any interest or share in the distributions or net assets of the Trust. Special Voting Units may be issued in series and shall only be issued in connection with or in relation to Exchangeable Securities on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Trustee. A Special Voting Unit shall be issued in conjunction with Exchangeable Securities issued and shall be automatically cancelled on the issuance of Units on exercise, conversion or cancellation of Exchangeable Securities. Subject to Section 8.6.3, each Special Voting Unit shall entitle the Special Unitholder of record thereof to a number of votes at all meetings of Unitholders or in respect of any written resolution of Unitholders equal to the number of Units into which the Exchangeable Securities to which such Special Voting Unit relates are, directly or indirectly, exchangeable or convertible (other than in respect of Exchangeable Securities which have been so exchanged, converted or cancelled). For greater certainty, holders of Special Voting Units shall not be entitled to any distributions of any nature whatsoever from the Trust or have any legal or beneficial interests in any assets of the Trust on termination or winding-up of the Trust.

- 6.1.4 Concurrently with the issuance of any Exchangeable Securities and associated Special Voting Units, the Trust shall enter into such agreements, including voting and exchange trust agreements and Exchangeable Security support agreements, as may be necessary or desirable to properly provide for the terms of the Exchangeable Securities, including to provide for voting of such Special Voting Units;
- 6.1.5 If in any given 365 day period in the five year period from July 1, 2005, the average weighted aggregate number of Special Voting Units plus Units held or controlled by FirstPro is equal to or greater than 15,000,000, then so long as Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee and FirstPro directly or indirectly beneficially own or control less than 25% of the voting rights attached to all voting securities of the Trust, the Trust shall issue such number of additional Special Voting Units (the "Additional Special Voting Units") which will entitle FirstPro to cast 25% of the votes attached at a meeting of the holders of Units and Special Voting Units. FirstPro's entitlement under this clause shall extend for an additional five year period should FirstPro sell in aggregate at least $800,000,000 of freehold assets (including freehold interests in assets sold under development arrangements) to the Trust or its affiliates during the initial 5 year period, provided that number of Units and Special Voting Units held or controlled by FirstPro shall be increased to the lesser of 20,000,000 or 20% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Units plus Special Voting Units and provided that Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee.

6.2 Ranking of Units

Each Unit shall represent an equal undivided interest in the Trust with all other outstanding Units, all Units outstanding from time to time shall participate equally and rateably in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust remaining after satisfaction of all liabilities and no Unit shall have any preference or priority over any other. Special Voting Units shall have no legal or beneficial interest in the distributions or assets of the Trust.

6.3 Consideration for Units

- 6.3.1 Subject to the last two sentences of this section 6.3.1, a Unit shall not be fully paid until the consideration therefore has been received in full by or on behalf of the Trust. The consideration for any Unit shall be paid in money or in property or in past services that are not less in value than the fair equivalent of the money that the Trust would have received if the Unit had been issued for money. In determining whether property or past services are the fair equivalent of consideration paid in money, the Trustees may take into account reasonable charges and expenses of organization and reorganization and payments for property and past services reasonably expected to benefit the Trust. Units may be issued and sold on an instalment basis, in which event beneficial ownership of such Units may be represented by instalment receipts, but shall otherwise be non-assessable. When Units are issued and sold on an instalment basis, the Trust may take security over such Units as security for unpaid instalments, including, without limitation, a pledge as contemplated by an instalment receipt agreement.
- 6.3.2 Special Voting Units shall only be issued in connection with the issuance of Exchangeable Securities or pursuant to the operation of Section 6.1.5 above.

6.4 No Pre-Emptive Rights

There are no pre-emptive rights attaching to the Units.

6.5 Fractional Units

If as a result of any act of the Trustees hereunder any person becomes entitled to a fraction of a Unit, such person is not entitled to receive a certificate therefore. Fractional Units shall not, except to the extent that they may represent in the aggregate one or more whole Units, entitle the holders thereof to notice of or to attend or to vote at, meetings of Unitholders. Subject to the foregoing, such fractional Units shall have attached thereto the rights, restrictions, conditions and limitations attaching to whole Units in the proportion that they bear to a whole Unit.

6.6 Title to Assets of the Trust

The titles to the assets of the Trust and the right to conduct the affairs of the Trust are vested exclusively in the Trustees, subject to the provisions of this Declaration of Trust, and the Unitholders and Special Unitholder shall have no interest therein other than the interest in the Trust conferred by their Units or Special Voting Units issued hereunder as described in section 2.7. No Unitholder or Special Unitholder has or is deemed to have any right of ownership in any of the assets of the Trust.

6.7 Allotment and Issue

The Trustees may allot and issue Units and Special Voting Units at such time or times and in such manner (including pursuant to any plan from time to time in effect relating to reinvestment by Unitholders of their distributions of the Trust in Units), and for such consideration and to such person, persons or class of persons as the Trustees in their sole discretion shall determine excepting only that Special Voting Units shall only be issued in connection with the issuance of Exchangeable Securities. In the event that Units or Special Voting Units are issued in whole or in part for a consideration other than money, the resolution of the Trustees allotting and issuing such Units or Special Voting Units shall express the fair equivalent in money of the other consideration received.

6.8 Rights, Warrants and Options

The Trustees may create and issue rights, warrants or options to subscribe for fully paid Units (including Exchangeable Securities) which rights, warrants or options may be exercisable at such subscription price or prices and at such time or times as the Trustees may determine. The rights, warrants or options so created may be issued for such consideration or for no consideration, all as the Trustees may determine. A right, warrant or option shall not be a Unit and a holder thereof shall not be a Unitholder. Upon the approval by the Trustees of any Unit option plan for trustees, officers and/or employees of the Trust, the Trustees may grant options upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in such plan.

6.9 Commissions and Discounts

The Trustees may provide for the payment by the Trust of commissions or may allow discounts to persons in consideration of their subscribing or agreeing to subscribe, whether absolutely or conditionally, for Units or of their agreeing to produce subscriptions therefor, whether absolute or conditional.

6.10 Transferability

Subject to Section 6.11, the Units are freely transferable and the Trustees shall not impose any restriction on the transfer of Units. The Trustees shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain a listing for the Units on one or more stock exchanges in Canada. Special Voting Units and Exchangeable Securities shall be non-transferable without the consent of the Trust and shall not be listed on any exchange.

6.11 Limitation of Ownership by Non-Residents

6.11.1 At no time may Non-Residents be the beneficial owners of more than 49.9% of the Units, on a basic or fully-diluted basis (and for greater certainty, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged), and the Trustees shall inform the Transfer Agent of this restriction. The Trustees may require a registered holder of Units and Special Voting Units to provide the Trustees with a declaration as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of the Units registered in such Unitholder's name are resident and as to whether such beneficial owners are Non-Residents (or in the case of a partnership, whether the partnership is a Non-Resident). If the Trustees become aware, as a result of acquiring such declarations as to beneficial ownership or as a result of any other investigations, that the beneficial owners of 49.9% of the Units (on a basic or fully-diluted basis, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged) are, or may be, Non-Residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustees may make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Units from or issue or register a transfer of Units to a person unless the person provides a declaration in form and content satisfactory to the Trustees that the person is not a Non-Resident and does not hold such Units for the benefit of Non-Residents. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees determine that more than 49.9% of the Units (on a basic or fully-diluted basis, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged) are held by Non-Residents, the Trustees may send a notice to such Non-Resident holders of the Units or Exchangeable Securities, as the case may be, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustees may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Units or Exchangeable Securities or a portion thereof within a specified period of not more than 30 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Units or Exchangeable Securities or provided the Trustees with satisfactory evidence that they are not Non-Residents within such period, the Trustees may on behalf of such Unitholders sell such Units or Exchangeable Securities and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units or Exchangeable Securities (other than the right to receive the net proceeds from the sale). Upon such sale or conversion, the affected holders shall cease to be holders of the relevant Units or Exchangeable Securities and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates, if any, representing such securities. The Trust may direct the Transfer Agent to do any of the foregoing.

- 6.11.2 No liability shall accrue to the Trust or the Trustees if the Units of a Non-Resident Unitholder are sold at a loss to such Unitholder. Unless and until the Trustees shall have been required to do so under the terms hereof, the Trustees shall not be bound to do or take any proceeding or action with respect to this Section 6.11 by virtue of the powers conferred on them hereby. The Trustees shall use reasonable commercial efforts to actively monitor the ownership of Units by Non-Residents. It is acknowledged that the Trustees cannot definitively monitor the ownership of Units by Non-Residents if the Units are registered in the name of CDS. The Trustees shall not be liable for any violation of the Non-Resident ownership restriction which may occur during the term of the Trust.
- 6.11.3 In order to ensure the Trust's continued compliance with proposed amendments to subsection 132(7) of the Income Tax Act or any legislative amendments to subsection 132(7) of the Income Tax Act as finally enacted, the Trustees may, at any time and in their sole discretion, amend the Declaration of Trust in any manner including that the Trustees may proceed to reclassify the outstanding Units into two separate classes of Units, namely, Class A Units and Class B Units. The Class A and Class B Units would carry the same rights to vote, obtain distributions and participate in the Trust Property upon the wind-up or dissolution of the Trust. However, ownership of the Class B Units would be restricted to Resident Canadians while Class A Units would not be subject to any restriction on ownership. If the Trustees were to proceed with this amendment, the Declaration of Trust would also be amended to provide that the number of outstanding Class B Units must at all times exceed 150% of the number of outstanding Class A Units. The proposed terms of the Class A and Class B Units, if and when adopted, would be substantially as follows:

Class A Trust Units

- (i) are not subject to any residency restriction;

- (ii) will trade on the principal exchange on which the Units are traded immediately prior to reclassification into Class A Units and Class B Units;
- (iii) may be exchanged by a holder at any time for Class B Units provided that the holder is a Canadian Resident and provides a suitable residency declaration;
- (iv) will have identical rights to voting, distributions and Trust Property on a wind-up to the Class B Units (will not vote separately as a class); and
- (v) will be subject to a restriction on the number of Units to be issued such that the total number of issued and outstanding Class A Units will not exceed 66⅔% of the number of issued and outstanding Class B Units.

Class B Trust Units

- (i) may not be held by Non-Residents;
- (ii) will trade on the principal exchange on which the Units are traded immediately prior to reclassification into Class A Units and Class B Units;
- (iii) may be exchanged by a holder for Class A Units, provided that the number of outstanding Class A Units, after the exchange, does not exceed 66⅔% of the number of outstanding Class B Units; and
- (iv) will have identical rights to voting, distributions and Trust Property on a wind-up to the Class A Units (will not vote separately as a class).

6.12 Certificates

Each Unitholder and Special Unitholder or his duly authorized agent is entitled to a certificate bearing an identifying serial number in respect of the Units or Special Voting Units held by him, signed in the manner hereinafter prescribed, but the Trust is not bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of a Unit or Units held jointly or in common by two or more persons and delivery of a certificate to one of them shall be sufficient delivery to all. No certificate shall be issued to evidence any fractional Units. A single certificate shall be issued for the Special Voting Units as directed by FirstPro.

6.13 Execution of Certificates

Certificates representing Units shall be signed manually by at least one Trustee or officer of the Trust holding office at the time of signing, provided, however, that if the Trustees have appointed a registrar and transfer agent which countersigns manually such Unit certificate, signatures of Trustees or officers of the Trust required on Unit certificates may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon and certificates so signed are as valid as if they had been signed manually. If a Unit certificate contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a person, the Trust may issue the certificate even though the person has ceased to be a Trustee or an officer of the Trust and such certificate is as valid as if the person were a Trustee or an officer of the Trust at the date of its issue.

6.14 Certificate Fee

6.15 Form of Certificate

The form of certificate representing Units (sometimes called the "Unit Certificates") shall be in such form as is from time to time authorized by the Trustees. The Unit Certificates may be engraved, printed or lithographed, or partly in one form and partly in another, as the Trustees may determine, and the Unit

Certificate issued in respect of the Initial Contribution (and any Unit Certificate issued to a transferee of such Unit) may be typewritten. The form of certificate representing Special Voting Units shall be in a form authorized by the Trustees.

6.16 Unit Register and Transfer Ledgers to be Maintained

A register (the "Register") shall be kept by, or on behalf and under the direction of the Trustees, which Register shall contain the names and addresses of Unitholders, the respective numbers of Units held by them, the certificate numbers of the certificates of such Units and a record of all transfers thereof. The Trustees may appoint one or more chartered banks or trust companies to act as transfer agents and to act as registrars for Units and may provide for the transfer of Units in one or more places within Canada. In the event of such appointment, such transfer agents and registrars shall keep all necessary registers and other books (which may be kept in a bound or loose-leaf book or may be entered or recorded by any system of mechanical or electronic data processing or any other information storage device) for recording original issues and registering and transferring the Units. If the Trustees have appointed a registrar and transfer agent, no certificate for Units shall be valid unless countersigned manually by or on behalf of a transfer agent and registrar. Only persons whose Units are recorded on the Register shall be entitled to vote or to receive distributions or otherwise exercise or enjoy the rights of Unitholders.

6.17 Entry on Register

Upon any issue of Units, the name of the subscriber or other person entitled thereto shall be promptly entered on the Register as the owner of the number of Units issued to such subscriber or other person, or if the subscriber is already a Unitholder, the Register shall be amended to include his additional Units.

6.18 Transfer of Units

Units shall be for all purposes of the Trust and this Declaration of Trust, personal and moveable property, and shall be transferable at any time and from time to time by the Unitholder by endorsement and delivery of the certificates representing the Units subject to such provisions and conditions as may be prescribed by the Trustees from time to time. No transfer shall be recorded on the Register unless the transferor has executed the instrument of transfer as reproduced in the Unit certificate and the transferee has delivered to the transfer agent and/or registrar a Unit certificate representing the Units transferred. Subject to the foregoing, transfers shall be recorded on the Register and a new certificate for the Units so transferred shall be issued to the transferee and in case of a transfer of only part of the Units represented by any certificate, a new certificate for the remaining Units shall be issued to the transferor. Special Voting Units shall be non-transferable (except to an affiliate of FirstPro) without the consent of the Trust and the Toronto Stock Exchange.

6.19 Successors in Interest to Unitholders

Any person becoming entitled to any Units or Special Voting Units, as the case may be, as a consequence of the death, bankruptcy or incapacity of any Unitholder or otherwise by operation of law shall be recorded in the Register as the holder of such Units or Special Voting Units and shall receive a new certificate therefor upon production of evidence thereof satisfactory to the Trustees and delivery of the existing certificate to the Trustees or a transfer agent or registrar of the Trust, but until such record is made, the Unitholder or Special Unitholder of record shall continue to be and be deemed to be the holder of such Units or Special Voting Units for all purposes whether or not the Trust, the Trustees or the transfer agent or registrar of the Trust shall have actual or other notice of such death, bankruptcy, incapacity or other event.

6.20 Units Held Jointly or in Fiduciary Capacity

The Trust may treat two or more persons holding any Unit as joint owners of the entire interest therein unless the ownership is expressly otherwise recorded on the Register of the Trust, but no entry, shall be made in the Register or on any certificate that any person is in any other manner entitled to any future, limited or contingent interest in any Unit; provided, however, that any person recorded in the Register as a

Unitholder may, subject to the provisions herein contained, be described in the Register or on any certificate as a fiduciary of any kind and any customary words may be added to the description of the holder to identify the nature of such fiduciary relationship.

6.21 Performance of Trusts

None of the Trustees, officers of the Trust, Unitholders, Special Unitholders or any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the Trust or the Trustees shall have a duty to inquire into any claim that a transfer of a Unit, Special Voting Unit or other security of the Trust was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the Unit, Special Voting Unit or other security or any other adverse claim, or be bound to see to the performance of any trust, express, implied or of any charge, pledge or equity to which any of the Units, Special Voting Units or other securities or any interest therein are or may be subject, or to ascertain or inquire whether any sale or transfer of any such Units, Special Voting Units or other securities or interest therein by any such Unitholder, Special Unitholder or holder of such security or his personal representatives is authorized by such trust, charge, pledge or equity, or to recognize any person as having any interest therein, except for the person recorded as Unitholder or Special Unitholder of such security.

In the event that any certificate for Units or Special Voting Units is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated, the Trustees may authorize the issuance of a new certificate for the same number of Units or Special Voting Units in lieu thereof. The Trustees may in their discretion, before the issuance of such new certificate, require the owner of the lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, or the legal representative of the owner, to make such affidavit or statutory declaration, setting forth such facts as to the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation as the Trustees deem necessary and may require the applicant to supply to the Trust a "lost certificate" or similar bond in such reasonable amount as the Trustees direct indemnifying the Trustees, the transfer agents and registrars for so doing. The Trustees shall have the power to acquire from an insurer or insurers a blanket lost security bond or bonds in respect of the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificates. The Trust shall pay all premiums and other sums of money payable for such purpose out of the property of the Trust with such contribution, if any, by those insured as may be determined by the Trustees. If such blanket lost security bond is acquired, the Trustees may authorize and direct (upon such terms and conditions as they from time to time impose) any registrar, transfer agent, trustee or others to whom the indemnity of such bond extends to take such action to replace such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificates without further action or approval by the Trustees.

6.23 Death of Unitholders

The death of a Unitholder or Special Unitholder during the continuance of the Trust shall not terminate the Trust or give the personal representatives or the heirs of the estate of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder a right to an accounting or to take any action in the courts or otherwise against other Unitholders, Special Unitholders or the Trustees, officers of the Trust or the property of the Trust, but shall only entitle the personal representatives or the heirs of the estate or succession of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder to demand and receive, pursuant to the provisions of section 6.19, a new certificate for Units in place of the certificate held by the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder, and upon the acceptance thereof such personal representatives or the heirs of the estate or succession of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder shall succeed to all rights of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder under this Declaration of Trust.

6.24 Unclaimed Payments

In the event that the Trustees hold any amounts to be paid to Unitholders under Article 11 or otherwise because such amounts are unclaimed or cannot be paid for any reason, neither the Trustees nor any distribution disbursing agent shall be under any obligation to invest or reinvest the same and shall only be obligated to hold the same in a current or other non-interest bearing account with a chartered bank or trust company, pending payment to the person or persons entitled thereto. The Trustees shall, as and when required by law, and may at any time prior to such required time, pay all or part of such amounts so held to a court in the province where the Trust has its head office or to the Public Curator (or other similar government official or agency) in the province where the Trust has its head office whose receipt shall be a good release, acquittance and discharge of the obligations of the Trustees.

6.25 Repurchase of Units

The Trust shall be entitled to purchase for cancellation at any time the whole or from time to time any part of the outstanding Units, at a price per Unit and on a basis determined by the Trustees in compliance with all applicable securities regulatory laws, regulations or policies or the policies of any applicable stock exchange.

6.26 Instalment Receipts

The Trust shall be entitled to exercise all rights to which it is entitled under any instalment receipt agreement in the event of non-payment of any instalment by a registered holder of an instalment receipt.

6.27 Take-Over Bids

6.27.1 If within 120 days after the date of a Take-over Bid the bid is accepted by the holders of not less than 90% of the aggregate of the Units and Special Voting Units, other than Units held at the date of the Take-over Bid by or on behalf of the Offeror or an Affiliate or Associate of the Offeror, the Offeror is entitled, on complying with this section, to acquire the Units held by the Dissenting Offerees.

6.27.2 An Offeror may acquire Units held by a Dissenting Offeree by sending by registered mail within 60 days after the date of termination of the Take-over Bid and in any event within 180 days after the date of the Take-over Bid, an Offeror's notice to each Dissenting Offeree stating that:

6.27.2.1 the Offerees holding more than 90% of the Units and Special Voting Units to which the bid relates accepted the Take-over Bid;

6.27.2.2 the Offeror is bound to take up and pay for or has taken up and paid for the Units of the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid;

6.27.2.3 a Dissenting Offeree is required to elect:

6.27.2.3.1 to transfer his Units to the Offeror on the terms on which the Offeror acquired the Units of the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid, or

6.27.2.3.2 to demand payment of the fair value of his Units in accordance with subsections 6.27.8 to 6.27.17 by notifying the Offeror within 20 days after he receives the Offeror's notice;

6.27.2.4 a Dissenting Offeree who does not notify the Offeror in accordance with subparagraph 6.27.2.3.2 is deemed to have elected to transfer his Units to the Offeror on the same terms that the Offeror acquired the Units from the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid; and

6.27.2.5 a Dissenting Offeree must send his Units to which the Take-over Bid relates to the Trust within 20 days after he receives the Offeror's notice.

6.27.3 Concurrently with sending the Offeror's notice under subsection 6.27.2, the Offeror shall send to the Trust a notice of adverse claim disclosing the name and address of the Offeror and the name of the Dissenting Offeree with respect to each Unit held by a Dissenting Offeree.

- 6.27.4 A Dissenting Offeree to whom an Offeror's notice is sent under subsection 6.27.2 shall, within 20 days after he receives that notice, send his Unit Certificates to the Trust.
- 6.27.5 Within 20 days after the Offeror sends an Offeror's notice under subsection 6.27.2, the Offeror shall pay or transfer to the Trust the amount of money or other consideration that the Offeror would have had to pay or transfer to a Dissenting Offeree if the Dissenting Offeree had elected to accept the Take-over Bid under subparagraph 6.27.2.3.1.
- 6.27.6 The Trust is deemed to hold in trust for the Dissenting Offeree the money or other consideration it receives under subsection 6.27.5, and the Trust shall deposit the money in a separate account in a bank or other body corporate any of whose deposits are insured by the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation (or any successor thereto), and shall place the other consideration in the custody of a bank or such other body corporate.
- 6.27.7 Within 30 days after the Offeror sends an Offeror's notice under subsection 6.27.2, the Trust shall:
- 6.27.7.1 issue to the Offeror a Unit Certificate in respect of the Units that were held by Dissenting Offerees;
 - 6.27.7.2 give to each Dissenting Offeree who elects to accept the Take-over Bid terms under subparagraph 6.27.2.3.1 and who sends his Unit Certificates as required under subsection 6.27.4, the money or other consideration to which he is entitled, disregarding fractional Units, if any, which may be paid for in money; and
 - 6.27.7.3 send to each Dissenting Offeree who has not sent his Unit Certificates as required under subsection 6.27.4 a notice stating that:
 - 6.27.7.3.1 his Units have been cancelled,
 - 6.27.7.3.2 the Trust or some designated person holds in trust for him the money or other consideration to which he is entitled as payment for or in exchange for his Units, and
 - 6.27.7.3.3 the Trust will, subject to subsections 6.27.8 to 6.27.17, send that money or other consideration to him forthwith after receiving his Units.
- 6.27.8 If a Dissenting Offeree has elected to demand payment of the fair value of his Units under subparagraph 6.27.2.3.2, the Offeror may, within 20 days after it has paid the money or transferred the other consideration under subsection 6.27.5, apply to a court to fix the fair value of the Units of that Dissenting Offeree.
- 6.27.9 If an Offeror fails to apply to a court under subsection 6.27.8, a Dissenting Offeree may apply to a court for the same purpose within a further period of 20 days.
- 6.27.10 Where no application is made to a court under subsection 6.27.9 within the period set out in that subsection, a Dissenting Offeree is deemed to have elected to transfer his Units to the Offeror on the same terms that the Offeror acquired the Units from the Offerees who accepted the Take-over Bid.
- 6.27.11 An application under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9 shall be made to a court having jurisdiction in the place where the Trust has its head office or in the province where the Dissenting Offeree resides if the Trust carries on its affairs in that province.
- 6.27.12 A Dissenting Offeree is not required to give security for costs in an application made under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9.

- 6.27.13 On an application under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9:
- 6.27.13.1.1 all Dissenting Offerees referred to in subparagraph 6.27.2.3.2 whose Units have not been acquired by the Offeror shall be joined as parties and shall be bound by the decision of the court; and
 - 6.27.13.1.2 the Offeror shall notify each affected Dissenting Offeree of the date, place and consequences of the application and of his right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.
- 6.27.14 On an application to a court under subsection 6.27.8 or 6.27.9 the court may determine whether any other person is a Dissenting Offeree who should be joined as a party, and the court shall then fix a fair value for the Units of all Dissenting Offerees.
- 6.27.15 A court may in its discretion appoint one or more appraisers to assist the court to fix a fair value for the Units of a Dissenting Offeree.
- 6.27.16 The final order of the court shall be made against the Offeror in favour of each Dissenting Offeree and for the amount for his Units as fixed by the court.
- 6.27.17 In connection with proceedings under this section, a court may, make any order it thinks fit and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it may:
- 6.27.17.1 fix the amount of money or other consideration that is required to be held in trust under subsection 6.27.6;
 - 6.27.17.2 order that money or other consideration be held in trust by a person other than the Trust; and
 - 6.27.17.3 allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each Dissenting Offeree from the date he sends or delivers his Unit Certificates under subsection 6.27.4 until the date of payment.

6.28 Power of Attorney

Each Unitholder hereby grants to the Trustees and each of them, their successors and assigns, a power of attorney constituting the Trustees, and each of them, with full power of substitution, as his true and lawful attorney to act on his behalf, with full power and authority in his name, place and stead, and to execute, under seal or otherwise, swear to, acknowledge, deliver, make or file or record when, as and where required:

- 6.28.1 this Declaration of Trust, any amendment to this Declaration of Trust and any other instrument required or desirable to qualify, continue and keep in good standing the Trust as a "mutual fund trust", a "unit trust" or as a "registered investment", all within the meaning of the Income Tax Act;
- 6.28.2 any instrument, deed, agreement or document in connection with carrying on the activities and affairs of the Trust as authorized in this Declaration of Trust,
- 6.28.3 all conveyances, transfers and other documents required in connection with the dissolution, liquidation or termination of the Trust in accordance with the terms of this Declaration of Trust; and
- 6.28.4 any and all elections, determinations or designations whether jointly with third parties or otherwise, under the Income Tax Act or any other taxation or other legislation or similar laws of Canada or of any other jurisdiction in respect of the affairs of the Trust or of a Unitholder's interest in the Trust.

The Power of Attorney granted herein is an attorney coupled with an interest, to the extent permitted by applicable law, irrevocable and will survive the assignment by the Unitholder of all or part of his interest in the Trust and will extend to and bind the heirs, executors, administrators and other legal representatives and successors and assigns of the Unitholder.

7.1 Right of Redemption

Each Unitholder shall be entitled to require the Trust to redeem at any time or from time to time at the demand of the Unitholder all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder at the prices determined and payable in accordance with the conditions hereinafter provided.

7.2.1 To exercise a Unitholder's right to require redemption under this Article 7, a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring the Trust to redeem Units, in a form approved by the Trustees, shall be sent to the Trust at the head office of the Trust.

7.2.2 Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units, the Unitholder shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption (other than to receive the redemption payment therefor) including the right to receive any distributions thereon which are declared payable to the Unitholders of record on a date which is subsequent to the day of receipt by the Trust of such notice. Units shall be considered to be tendered for redemption on the date that the Trust has received the notice and other required documents or evidence as aforesaid.

7.3 Cash Redemption

7.3.1 Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units in accordance with Section 7.2 the holder of the Units tendered for redemption shall be entitled to receive a price per Unit (hereinafter called the "Redemption Price") equal to the lesser of:

7.3.1.1 90% of the "market price" of the Units on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading during the 10 trading day period ending on the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption; and

7.3.1.2 100% of the "closing market price" on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading on the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption.

For the purposes hereof, "market price" shall be an amount equal to the weighted average of the closing price of the Units for each of the trading days on which there was a closing price; provided that if the applicable exchange or market does not provide a closing price but only provides the highest and lowest prices of the Units traded on a particular day, the "market price" shall be an amount equal to the weighted average of the average of the highest and lowest prices for each of the trading days on which there was a trade; and provided further that if there was trading on the applicable exchange or market for fewer than five of the 10 trading days, the "market price" shall be the weighted average of the following prices established for each of the 10 trading days: the average of the last bid and last ask prices for each day on which there was no trading; the closing price of the Units for each day that there was trading if the exchange or market provides a closing price; and the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of the Units for each day that there was trading, if the market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Units traded on a particular day. For the purposes of Section 7.3.1.2, the "closing market price" shall be: an amount equal to the closing price of the Units if there was a trade on the date and the exchange or market provides a closing price; an amount equal to the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of Units if there was trading and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest trading prices of Units traded on a particular day; and the weighted average of the last bid and last ask prices if there was no trading on the date. During the period of time, if any, after the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption, that the Units issued are subject to payment of an instalment of the issue price and are represented by instalment receipts, unless a market for trading in the Units (other than those so represented by instalment receipts) develops which the Trustees consider fairly reflects the market value of the Units, the "market price" for purposes of Section 7.3.1.1 and the "closing market price" for purposes of Section 7.3.1.2 shall equal the aggregate of the "market price" or "closing market price" for such instalment receipts (calculated as aforesaid as if the instalment receipts were Units) plus the amount of the unpaid instalment of the issue price per Unit.

- 7.3.2 Subject to Sections 7.4 and 7.5, the Redemption Price payable in respect of the Units tendered for redemption during any month shall be paid by cheque, drawn on a Canadian chartered bank or a trust company in lawful money of Canada, payable at par to or to the order of the Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption on or before the last day of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were tendered for redemption. Payments made by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of a cheque in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Unitholder and/or any party having a security interest unless such cheque is dishonoured upon presentment. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Unitholder in respect of Trust Units redeemed.

Section 7.3.2 shall not be applicable to Units tendered for redemption by a Unitholder, if:

- 7.4.1 the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 7.3 in respect of such Units and all other Units tendered for redemption prior thereto in the same calendar month exceeds $50,000 ("Monthly Limit"); provided that the Trustees may, in their sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of all Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month. In the absence of such a waiver, Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month in which the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 7.3.2 exceeds the Monthly Limit will be redeemed for cash pursuant to Section 7.3.2 and, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals, in accordance with Section 7.5 on a pro rata basis;
- 7.4.2 at the time the Units are tendered for redemption, the outstanding Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are not listed for trading or quoted on any stock exchange or market which the Trustees consider, in their sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts); or
- 7.4.3 the normal trading of the outstanding Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) is suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are listed for trading or, if not so listed, on any market on which the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are quoted for trading, on the date that such Units tendered for redemption were tendered to the Trust for redemption or for more than five trading days during the 10 trading day period commencing immediately after the date on which such Units tendered for redemption were tendered to the Trust for redemption.

7.5 Alternate Redemption

If, pursuant to Section 7.4, Section 7.3.2 is not applicable to Units tendered for redemption by a Unitholder, the Redemption Price per Unit specified in Section 7.3 to which the Unitholder would otherwise be entitled shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid and satisfied by way of a distribution to such Unitholder of unsecured promissory notes with interest at a market rate to be determined by the Trustees, payable monthly, issued by the Trust (the "Notes"), each in the principal amount of $1, on the basis of such number of Notes for such Units tendered for redemption equal to the product of (i) number of Units tendered for redemption multiplied by (ii) the Redemption Price per Unit specified in Section 7.3, which product will then be divided by $1 on the date the Units were tendered for redemption. The Redemption Price payable pursuant to this Section 7.5 in respect of Units tendered for redemption during any month shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid by the transfer, to or to the order of the Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption, on the last day (the "Transfer Date") of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were tendered for redemption. Payments by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of the Notes by registered mail in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Unitholder. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Unitholder in respect of the Units so redeemed. No fractional Notes in a principal amount less than $1 will be distributed and where the number of Notes to be received by the former Unitholder includes a fraction or a principal amount less than a multiple of $1, such number shall be rounded to the next lowest number or multiple of $1, as the case may be.

7.6 Cancellation of all Redeemed Units

All Units which are redeemed under this Article 7 shall be cancelled and such Units shall no longer be outstanding and shall not be reissued.

7.7 Subordination

Following any in specie redemption pursuant to the operation of Section 7.5, holders of Notes will be required to acknowledge that they are subject to any applicable subordination agreements as may be determined by the Trustees prior to delivery of such Notes to the Unitholder.

ARTICLE 8
MEETINGS OF UNITHOLDERS

8.1 Annual Meeting

There shall be an annual meeting of the Unitholders at such time and place as the Trustees shall prescribe for the purpose of electing Trustees, appointing the auditors of the Trust and transacting such other business as the Trustees may determine or as may properly be brought before the meeting. The annual meeting of Unitholders shall be held after delivery to the Unitholders of the annual report referred to in section 16.6 and, in any event, within 180 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Trust.

8.2 Other Meetings

The Trustees shall have power at any time to call special meetings of the Unitholders at such time and place as the Trustees may determine. Unitholders and Special Unitholders holding in the aggregate not less than 10% of the outstanding Units and Special Voting Units of the Trust may requisition the Trustees to call a special meeting of the Unitholders for the purposes stated in the requisition. The requisition shall state in reasonable detail the business to be transacted at the meeting and shall be sent to each of the Trustees at the head office of the Trust. Upon receiving the requisition, the Trustees shall call a meeting of Unitholders to transact the business referred to in the requisition, unless (i) a record date for a meeting of the Unitholders has been fixed and notice thereof has been given to each stock exchange in Canada on which the Units are listed for trading; (ii) the Trustees have called a meeting of the Unitholders and have given notice thereof pursuant to section 8.3; or (iii) in connection with the business as stated in the requisition:

8.2.1 it clearly appears that the matter covered by the requisition is submitted by the Unitholder primarily for the purpose of enforcing a personal claim or redressing a personal grievance against the Trust, the Trustees, the officers of the Trust or its Unitholders, or primarily for the purpose of promoting general economic, political, racial, religious, social or similar causes;

- 8.2.2 the Trust, at the Unitholder's request, included a matter covered by a requisition in an information circular relating to a meeting of Unitholders held within two years preceding the receipt of such request and the Unitholder failed to present the matter, in person or by proxy, at the meeting;
- 8.2.3 substantially the same matter covered by the requisition was submitted to Unitholders in an information circular (including a dissidents information circular) relating to a meeting of Unitholders held within two years preceding the receipt of the Unitholder's request and the matter covered by the requisition was defeated; or
- 8.2.4 the rights conferred by this section 8.2 are being abused to secure publicity.

Subject to the foregoing, if the Trustees do not within 21 days after receiving the requisition call a meeting, any Unitholder who signed the requisition may call the meeting in accordance with the provisions of sections 8.3 and 8.7 and the Trustees' Regulations, mutatis mutandis. If there shall be no Trustees, the officers of the Trust shall promptly call a special meeting of the Unitholders for the election of successor Trustees. The phrase "meeting of the Unitholders" wherever it appears in this Declaration of Trust shall mean and include both an annual meeting and any other meeting of Unitholders.

8.3 Notice of Meeting of Unitholders

Notice of all meetings of the Unitholders shall be mailed or delivered by the Trustees to each Unitholder at his address appearing in the Register, to each Trustee and to the auditors of the Trust not less than 21 nor more than 50 days before the meeting. Notice of any meeting of the Unitholders shall state the purposes of the meeting.

8.4 Quorum; Chairman

A quorum for any meeting of Unitholders shall be individuals present not being less than two in number and being Unitholders or representing by proxy Unitholders who hold in the aggregate not less than 10% of the total number of outstanding Units. The Chairman, or any Trustee determined by the Trustees, shall be the chairman of any meeting of the Unitholders.

8.5 Voting

Holders of Units and/or Special Voting Units may attend and vote at all meetings of the Unitholders either in person or by proxy. Subject to the provisions of Section 8.6, each Unit and Special Voting Unit shall be entitled to one vote at all meetings of the Unitholders, provided that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else herein contained, any action to be taken by the Unitholders shall, except as otherwise required by this Declaration of Trust or by law, be authorized when approved by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the Unitholders. The chairman of any such meeting shall not have a second or casting vote.

8.6 Matters on which Unitholders Shall Vote

None of the following shall occur unless the same has been duly approved by the Unitholders at a meeting duly called and held:

- 8.6.1 except as provided in sections 3.1, 3.6, 3.7 and 3.11, the appointment, election or removal of Trustees;
- 8.6.2 except as provided in section 16.4, the appointment or removal of auditors of the Trust;
- 8.6.3 any amendment to the Declaration of Trust (except as provided in section 5.5 or section 13.1, provided that Special Unitholders shall not be entitled to vote the Special Voting Units on any amendment which directly or indirectly adds, removes or changes any of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions in respect of the Units or Special Voting Units and further provided that the Unitholders shall not be entitled to vote on any amendment which directly or indirectly adds, removes or changes any of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions in respect of the Special Units without the consent of the Special Unitholder);

- 8.6.4 an increase or decrease in the number of Trustees pursuant to section 3.1;
- 8.6.5 the sale or transfer of the assets of the Trust as an entirety or substantially as an entirety (other than as a part of an internal reorganization of the assets of the Trust as approved by the Trustees); or
- 8.6.6 the distribution pursuant to section 14.2 of all the Trust Property.

Except with respect to the foregoing matters specified in this section 8.6 or matters submitted to a vote of the Unitholders by the Trustees, no vote of the Unitholders shall in any way bind the Trustees. In particular, under no circumstances may Unitholders authorize the forgiveness of the obligation of holders of any instalment receipts to pay amounts owing thereunder in respect of Units represented by such instalment receipts. Nothing in this section, however, shall prevent the Trustees from submitting to a vote of Unitholders any matter which they deem appropriate.

8.7 Record Dates

For the purpose of determining the Unitholders who are entitled to receive notice of and vote at any meeting or any adjournment thereof, or who are entitled to receive any distribution, or for the purpose of any other action, the Trustees may from time to time, without notice to Unitholders, close the transfer books for such period, not exceeding 30 days, as the Trustees may determine; or with or without closing the transfer books the Trustees may fix a date not more than 60 days prior to the date of any meeting of the Unitholders or distribution or other action as a record date for the determination of Unitholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to receive such distribution or to be treated as Unitholders of record for purposes of such other action, as the case may be, and any Unitholder who was a Unitholder at the time so fixed shall be entitled to receive notice of and vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to receive such distribution, even though he has since that date disposed of his Units, and no Unitholder becoming such after that date shall be entitled to receive notice of and vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof or to receive such distribution or to be treated as a Unitholder of record for purposes of such other action.

8.8 Proxies

Whenever the vote or consent of Unitholders is required or permitted under this Declaration of Trust, such vote or consent may be given either directly by the Unitholder or Special Unitholder or by a proxy in such form as the Trustees may prescribe from time to time. A proxy need not be a Unitholder or Special Unitholder. The Trustees may solicit such proxies from the Unitholders, Special Unitholders or any of them in any matter requiring or permitting the Unitholders' vote, approval or consent.

The Trustees may adopt, amend or repeal such rules relating to the appointment of proxyholders and the solicitation, execution, validity, revocation and deposit of proxies, as they in their discretion from time to time determine.

8.9 Personal Representatives

If a Unitholder is deceased, his personal representative, upon filing with the secretary of the meeting such proof of his appointment as the secretary considers sufficient, shall be entitled to exercise the same voting rights at any meeting of Unitholders as the Unitholder would have been entitled to exercise if he were living and for the purpose of the meeting shall be considered to be a Unitholder. Subject to the provisions of the will of a deceased Unitholder, if there is more than one personal representative, the provisions of Section 6.20 relating to joint holders shall apply.

8.10 Attendance by Others

Any Trustee, officer, director or employee of the Trust, representative of the auditors of the Trust or other individual approved by the Trustees may attend and speak at any meeting of Unitholders.

8.11 Conduct of Meeting

To the extent that the rules and procedures for the conduct of a meeting of Unitholders are not prescribed herein, the rules and procedures shall be such reasonable rules and procedures as are determined by the chairman of the meeting and such rules and procedures shall be binding upon all parties participating in the meeting

8.12 Binding Effect of Resolutions

Every resolution passed at a meeting in accordance with the provisions of this Article 8 shall be binding upon all Unitholders, whether present at or absent from the meeting. Subject to Section 8.6, no action taken by Unitholders at any meeting of Unitholders shall in any way bind the Trust or Trustees without the approval of the Trustees.

8.13 Actions by Unitholders

Any action, change, approval, decision or determination required or permitted to be taken or made by the Unitholders hereunder shall be effected by a resolution passed by the Unitholders at a duly constituted meeting (or a special resolution in lieu thereof) in accordance with this Article 8.

8.14 Resolution in Lieu of Meeting

A resolution signed in writing by all of the Unitholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of Unitholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of Unitholders.

ARTICLE 9
MEETINGS OF TRUSTEES

9.1 Trustees May Act Without Meeting

The Trustees may act with or without a meeting. Any action of the Trustees may be taken at a meeting by vote or without a meeting by written consent or resolution signed by all of the Trustees, or members of the applicable committee, as the case may be. Any such consent or resolution may be signed in counterpart.

9.2 Notice of Meeting

Meetings of the Trustees may be held from time to time upon the giving of notice by any Trustee. Regular meetings of the Trustees may be held without call or notice at a time and place fixed by the Trustees' Regulations. Notice of the time and place of any other meetings shall be mailed or otherwise given not less than 48 hours before the meeting but may be waived in writing by any Trustee either before or after such meeting. The attendance of a Trustee at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a Trustee attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting has not been lawfully called or convened. Each committee of Trustees appointed by the Trustees may adopt its own rules or procedures for the calling, conduct, adjournment and regulation of the meetings of such committees as it sees fit and may amend or repeal such rules or procedures from time to time; provided, however, that the Trustees' Regulations and any such rules or procedures shall not be inconsistent with this Declaration of Trust.

9.3 Quorum

A quorum for all meetings of the Trustees or any committee thereof shall be at least a majority of the Trustees or of the Trustees on such committee, as the case may be, present in person, provided that if there is no quorum, the meeting may be adjourned to another business day on notice to all of the Trustees or members of such committee, as the case may be, and, at the reconvened meeting, the presence of two-fifths of the Trustees or members of such committee, as the case may be, is required in order to constitute a quorum.

9.4 Voting at Meetings

Questions arising at any meeting of the Trustees shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting, who shall be the Chairman if present, shall not have a second or casting vote in addition to his original vote, if any.

9.5 Meeting by Telephone

Any Trustee may participate in a meeting of the Trustees or any committee thereof by means of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other and a Trustee so participating shall be considered for the purposes of this Declaration of Trust to be present in person at that meeting.

ARTICLE 10 DELEGATION OF POWERS

10.1 General

The Trustees may appoint from among their number one or more committees of Trustees and may, subject to applicable law and to any provision hereof to the contrary, delegate to such committee or committees any of the powers of the Trustees. The Trustees shall have the power to appoint, employ or contract with any person for any matter relating to the Trust or its assets or affairs. The Trustees may grant or delegate such authority to a property manager as the Trustees may, subject to applicable law, in their sole discretion deem necessary or desirable without regard to whether such authority is normally granted or delegated by trustees. Subject to section 10.4, the Trustees shall have the power to determine the term and compensation of a property manager or any other person whom they may employ or with whom they may contract. The Trustees shall have the power to grant powers of attorney as required in connection with any financing or security relating thereto.

10.2 Audit Committee

The Trustees shall appoint an audit committee (the "Audit Committee") to consist of not less than three Trustees. The Audit Committee shall be composed of Trustees who comply with the provisions of Multilateral Instrument 52-110. Subject to the delegation to the Audit Committee of such other responsibilities as are determined by the Trustees from time to time and subject such changes to its form and function as may be mandated by any relevant regulatory authorities, the Audit Committee shall:

- (a) review the Trust's procedures for internal control with the Auditors and the Trust's Chief Financial Officer;
- (b) review the engagement of the Auditors;
- (c) review and recommend to the Trustees for approval annual and quarterly financial statements and management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operation;
- (d) assess the Trust's financial and accounting personnel; and
- (e) review any significant transactions outside the Trust's ordinary course of business and all pending litigation involving the Trust.

The auditors of the Trust are entitled to receive notice of every meeting of the Audit Committee and, at the expense of the Trust, to attend and be heard thereat and, if so requested by a member of the Audit Committee, shall attend any meeting of the Audit Committee held during the term of office of the auditors. Questions arising at any meeting of the Audit Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. Decisions may be taken by written consent signed by all of the members of the Audit Committee. The auditors of the Trust or a member of the Audit Committee may call a meeting of the Audit Committee on not less than 48 hours' notice.

10.3 Investment Committee

The Trustees shall appoint an investment committee (the "Investment Committee") to consist of not less than three Trustees and not more than five Trustees, a majority of whom shall be Outside Trustees, two of whom shall be Trustees appointed by FirstPro pursuant to section 3.11 hereof for so long as FirstPro is the registered and beneficial owner of in excess of 15% of the issued and outstanding Units and/or Special Voting Units of the Trust (unless the prior written consent to the contrary or a written waiver of FirstPro is obtained) and two-thirds of whom shall have had at least 5 years of substantive experience in the real estate industry. The duties of the Investment Committee will be to:

- (a) review all proposals regarding investments;

- (c) approve proposed transactions on behalf of the Trust or any of its subsidiaries or Affiliates; and
- (d) approve or reject all borrowings and the assumption or granting of any mortgage or other security interest in Real Property, including any assignment of rents and other monies derived from or related to Real Property, by the Trust or any of its subsidiaries and Affiliates.

Questions arising at any meeting of the Investment Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. Decisions may be taken by written consent signed by all of the members of the Investment Committee. Any member of the Investment Committee may call a meeting of the Investment Committee upon not less than 48 hours notice. Where for any reason a member of the Investment Committee is disqualified from voting on or participating in a decision, any other independent and disinterested Trustee not already a member of the Investment Committee may be designated by the Trustees to act as an alternate. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Investment Committee, the Trustees may consider and approve any matter which the Investment Committee has the authority to consider or approve.

10.4 Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee

The Trustees shall appoint a corporate governance and compensation committee (the "Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee") to consist of not less than three Trustees and not more than four Trustees, one of whom shall be a Trustee appointed by FirstPro pursuant to section 3.11 hereof for so long as FirstPro is the registered and beneficial owner of in excess of 15% of the issued and outstanding Units and/or Special Voting Units of the Trust (unless the prior written consent to the contrary or a written waiver of FirstPro is obtained). The duties of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee will be to review the governance of the Trust with the responsibility for the Trust's corporate governance, human resources and compensation policies. In particular, the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee will be responsible for: (i) assessing the effectiveness of the board of Trustees and each of its committees; (ii) considering questions of management succession; (iii) participating in the recruitment and selection of candidates as Trustees of Calloway; (iv) considering and approving proposals by the Trustees of Calloway to engage outside advisers on behalf of the board of Trustees of Calloway; (v) administering Calloway's long term incentive plan; (vi) assessing the performance of the Chief Executive Officer; (vii) reviewing and approving the compensation of senior management and consultants of Calloway and its subsidiaries; and (viii) reviewing and making recommendations to the board concerning the level and nature of the compensation payable to the Trustees.

Questions arising in any meeting of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast. Decisions may be taken by written consent signed by all of the members of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee. Any member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee may call a meeting of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee upon not less than 48 hours notice. Where for any reason a member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee is disqualified from voting on or participating in a decision, any other independent and disinterested Trustee not already a member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee may be designated by the Trustees to act as an alternate. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee, the Trustees may consider and approve any matter which the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee has authority to consider or approve.

10.5 Property Manager

The Trustees may exercise broad discretion in allowing any property manager to manage the Real Property of the Trust, including operating, maintaining, leasing and marketing the said properties, to act as agent for the Trust in respect thereof and to execute documents on behalf of the Trustees in respect thereof, all subject to the overriding authority of the Trustees over the management and affairs generally of the Trust.

ARTICLE 11 DISTRIBUTIONS

11.1 Distributions

The Trust shall pay or declare payable to Unitholders monthly, and the Unitholders will have a right to receive, on each Distribution Date a pro rata share of such portion of the revenue of the Trust for the preceding calendar month then ended as the Trustees determine to distribute to the Unitholders, provided that the Trustees shall pay or declare payable each taxation year an amount equal to such amount as is necessary to ensure that the Trust will not be subject to tax on its net income and net capital gains under Part I of the Income Tax Act. Distributions shall be made in cash or Units pursuant to any distribution reinvestment plan or distribution reinvestment and Unit purchase plan adopted by the Trustees pursuant to section 11.6. Any distribution shall be made proportionately to persons who are Unitholders as at the close of business on the record date for such distribution which shall be the last business day of the calendar month preceding the month in which the Distribution Date falls, or if such date is not a business day then the next following business day, or such other date, if any, as is fixed in accordance with section 8.7. For greater certainty, it is hereby expressly declared that a Unitholder shall have the legal right to enforce payment as of the Distribution Date of any amount which is required to be distributed to a Unitholder hereunder. The Trustees, if they so determine when income has been accrued but not collected may, on a temporary basis, transfer sufficient moneys from the capital to the income account of the Trust to permit distributions under this section 11.1 to be effected.

11.2 Allocation

Income and net taxable capital gains for purposes of the Income Tax Act will be allocated to Unitholders in the same proportions as distributions received by Unitholders, subject to the discretion of the Trustees to adopt an allocation method which the Trustees consider to be more reasonable in the circumstances.

11.3 Payment of Distributions

Distributions shall be made by cheque payable to or to the order of the Unitholder or by such other manner of payment approved by the Trustees from time to time. The payment, if made by cheque, shall be conclusively deemed to have been made upon hand-delivery of a cheque to the Unitholder or to his agent duly authorized in writing or upon the mailing of a cheque by prepaid first-class mail addressed to the Unitholder at his address as it appears on the Register unless the cheque is not paid on presentation. The Trustees may issue a replacement cheque if they are satisfied that the original cheque has not been received or has been lost or destroyed upon being furnished with such evidence of loss, indemnity or other document in connection therewith that they may in their discretion consider necessary.

11.4 Income Tax Matters

In reporting income for income tax purposes the Trust shall claim, and shall cause any partnership controlled by the Trust to claim, the maximum amount available to it as deductions under the relevant law, including but not limited to maximum capital cost allowance, unless the Trustees determine otherwise, provided, however, that for purposes of determining the income of the Trust for purposes of the Income Tax Act as contemplated by clause (ii) of section 11.1, the income shall be computed on the basis of the Trust claiming the maximum amount available to it as deductions under the Income Tax Act (but without reference to Section 104(6) of the Income Tax Act), including, but not limited to, maximum capital cost allowance, unless the Trustees determine otherwise prior to the end of the relevant taxation year.

11.5 Designations

The Trustees shall make such designations, determinations and allocations for income tax purposes in respect of amounts paid or payable to Unitholders for such amounts that the Trustees consider to be reasonable, including, without limitation, designations relating to taxable dividends received by the Trust in the year on shares of taxable Canadian corporations, net taxable capital gains of the Trust in the year, and foreign source income of the Trust for the year, as well as elect under subsections 104(13.1) and (13.2) of the Income Tax Act that income be taxed to the Trust, rather than to such Unitholder.

11.6 Distribution Reinvestment and Unit Purchase Plan

Subject to any required regulatory approvals, the Trustees may in their sole discretion establish one or more distribution reinvestment plans, distribution reinvestment and Unit purchase plans or Unit option plans at any time and from time to time.

11.7 Withholding Taxes

The Trustees may deduct or withhold from the distributions payable to any Unitholder amounts required by law to be withheld from such Unitholder's distributions.

ARTICLE 12
FEES AND EXPENSES*12.1 Expenses

The Trust shall pay all expenses incurred in connection with the administration and management of the Trust and its investments, including without limitation fees of auditors, lawyers, appraisers, registrars and transfer agents and other agents, stock exchanges, consultants and professional advisors employed by or on behalf of the Trust and the cost of reporting or giving notices to Unitholders.

12.2 Payment of Real Property and Brokerage Commissions

The Trust may pay Real Property and brokerage commissions at commercial rates in respect of the acquisition and disposition of any investment acquired or disposed of by it. Such commissions may be paid to a property manager or to others.

12.3 Property Management, Leasing and Financing Fees

The Trust may pay property management fees, leasing fees and financing fees in respect of any Real Property owned by it. Such fees may be paid to a property manager or to others.

ARTICLE 13
AMENDMENTS TO THE DECLARATION OF TRUST

13.1 Amendments by the Trustees

The Trustees may, without the approval of or any notice to Unitholders, make amendments to this Declaration of Trust:

- 13.1.1 for the purpose of ensuring continuing compliance with applicable laws, regulations, requirements or policies of any governmental authority having jurisdiction over the Trustees or over the Trust, including respecting its status as a “unit trust” a “mutual fund trust” and a “registered investment” under the Income Tax Act or the distribution of its Units;
- 13.1.2 which, in the opinion of the Trustees, provide additional protection for or benefit to the Unitholders;
- 13.1.3 to remove any conflicts or inconsistencies in the Declaration of Trust or to make minor corrections which are, in the opinion of the Trustees, necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Unitholders;
- 13.1.4 which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are necessary or desirable as a result of changes in taxation laws from time to time, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, amendments which may affect the Trust, the Unitholders or Annuitants under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier or which may permit the Trust to qualify for any status under the Income Tax Act which would benefit the Trust or the Unitholders;
- 13.1.5 for any purpose (except one in respect of which a Unitholder vote is specifically otherwise required), if the Trustees are of the opinion that the amendment is not prejudicial to Unitholders and is necessary or desirable; and
- 13.1.6 which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are necessary or desirable to enable the Trust to issue Units for which the purchase price is payable on an instalment basis.

13.2 Amendments by Unitholders

Subject to sections 8.6, 13.1, 13.3 and 13.4, this Declaration of Trust may be amended by the vote of a majority of the votes cast at a Meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose.

13.3 Two-Thirds Unitholder Vote

None of the following shall occur unless the same has been duly approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Unitholders duly called and held:

- 13.3.1 any amendment to this section 13.3;
- 13.3.2 any amendment to change a right with respect to any outstanding Units of the Trust to reduce the amount payable thereon upon termination of the Trust or to diminish or eliminate any voting rights pertaining thereto;
- 13.3.3 any amendment to the duration or term of the Trust;
- 13.3.4 any amendment relating to the powers, duties, obligations, liabilities or indemnification of the Trustees;
- 13.3.5 any sale or transfer of the assets of the Trust as an entirety or substantially as an entirety (other than as part of an internal reorganization of the Assets of the Trust as approved by the Trustees);

13.3.6 any amendment to sections 5.1 and 5.2 except for any amendment contemplated by section 13.1;
or

13.3.7 any approval pursuant to section 8.6.6 or 14.2;

13.3.8 any amendments to sections 3.11, 6.1.5, 10.3 or 10.4, without the written consent of FirstPro; except for any amendment contemplated by section 5.3 or section 13.1.

13.4 Trustees to Sign Amendment

When a vote of the Unitholders approves an amendment to this Declaration of Trust which, pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration of Trust, binds the Trustees to make such amendment, the Trustees shall sign such documents as may be necessary to effect such amendment.

ARTICLE 14
TERMINATION OF THE TRUST

14.1 Term of the Trust

The term of the Trust shall commence on the date hereof and shall continue in full force and effect until twenty-one (21) years after the date of death of the last surviving issue of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, alive on December 4, 2001, and the Trustees shall have all the powers and discretions, expressed and implied, conferred upon them by law or by this Declaration of Trust.

14.2 Distribution of Trust Property by Vote of Unitholders

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 14.1, if there is an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Unitholders called for that purpose requiring that the Trustees distribute to the Unitholders all Trust Property, the Trustees will be bound and obligated to make such distribution to the Unitholders.

14.3 Effect of Termination

Upon the termination of the Trust or the affirmative vote referred to in section 14.2, the liabilities of the Trust shall be discharged with due speed and the net assets of the Trust shall be liquidated and the proceeds distributed proportionately to the Unitholders. Such distribution may be made in cash or in kind or partly in each, all as the Trustees in their sole discretion may determine.

14.4 Procedure Upon Termination

Forthwith upon being required to commence to discharge the liabilities of and liquidate the Trust, the Trustees shall give notice thereof to the Unitholders, which notice shall designate the time or times at which Unitholders may surrender their Units for cancellation and the date at which the Register of Units of the Trust shall be closed.

14.5 Powers of the Trustees Upon Termination

After the date on which the Trustees are required to discharge the liabilities of and liquidate the Trust, the Trustees shall carry on no activities except for the purpose of winding-up the affairs of the Trust as hereinafter provided and, for this purpose, the Trustees shall continue to be vested with and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon the Trustees under this Declaration of Trust.

14.6 Further Notice to Unitholders

In the event that less than all of the Unitholders have surrendered their Units for cancellation within six months after the time specified in the notice referred to in section 14.4, the Trustees shall give further notice to the remaining Unitholders to surrender their Units for cancellation and if, within one year after the further notice, all the Units shall not have been surrendered for cancellation, such remaining Units shall be deemed to be cancelled without prejudice to the rights of the holders of such Units to receive their shares, equally and rateably, of the remaining Trust Property, and the Trustees may either take appropriate steps, or appoint an agent to take appropriate steps, to contact such Unitholders (deducting all expenses thereby incurred from the amounts to which such Unitholders are entitled as aforesaid) or, in the discretion of the Trustees, may pay such amounts into Court or to the Public Curator (or other appropriate government official or agency) whose receipt shall be a good discharge and release of the Trustees.

The Trustees shall be under no obligation to invest the proceeds of any sale of investments or other assets or cash forming part of the Trust Property after the date referred to in section 14.4 and, after such sale, the sole obligation of the Trustees under this Declaration of Trust shall be to hold such proceeds in trust for distribution pursuant to section 14.3.

ARTICLE 15 LIABILITIES OF THE TRUSTEES AND OTHERS

15.1 Liability and Indemnification of the Trustees

The Trustees shall at all times be indemnified and saved harmless out of the property of the Trust from and against all liabilities, damages, losses, debts, claims, actions, suits and proceedings whatsoever, including costs, charges and expenses in connection therewith, sustained, incurred, brought, commenced or prosecuted against them for or in respect of any act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever made, done, acquiesced in or omitted in or about or in relation to the execution of their duties as Trustees and also from and against all other liabilities, damages, losses, debts, claims, costs, charges and expenses which they sustain or incur in or about or in relation to the affairs of the Trust. Further, the Trustees shall not be liable to the Trust or to any Unitholder or an Annuitant for any loss or damages relating to any matter regarding the Trust, including any loss or diminution in the value of the Trust or its assets. The foregoing provisions of this section 15.1 in favour of any Trustee do not apply unless:

- 15.1.1 the Trustee acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust and the Unitholders; and
- 15.1.2 in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the Trustee had reasonable grounds for believing his conduct was lawful.

The provisions of this section 15.1 with respect to indemnification and saving harmless shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to any former Trustee and to any officer or former officer of the Trust.

15.2 Liability of the Trustees

The Trustees shall not be liable to the Trust or to any Unitholder, Annuitant or any other person for the acts, omissions, receipts, neglects or defaults of any person, firm or corporation employed or engaged by the Trust as permitted hereunder, or for joining in any receipt or act of conformity or for any loss, damage or expense caused to the Trust through the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the moneys of or belonging to the Trust shall be paid out or invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person, firm or corporation with whom or which any moneys, securities or property of the Trust shall be lodged or deposited, or for any loss occasioned by error in judgement or oversight on the part of the Trustees, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune which may happen in the execution by the Trustees of their duties hereunder, except to the extent the Trustees have not acted in accordance with subsections 15.1.1 and 15.1.2.

15.3 Reliance Upon Advice

The Trustees may rely and act upon any statement, report or opinion prepared by or any advice received from the auditors, lawyers or other professional advisors of the Trust and shall not be responsible or held liable for any loss or damage resulting from so relying or acting.

15.4 Liability of Unitholders and Others

15.4.1 No Unitholder or Annuitant under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier shall be held to have any personal liability as such, and no resort shall be had to, nor shall recourse or satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any Unitholder or Annuitant for any liability whatsoever, in tort, contracts or otherwise, to any person in connection with the Trust Property or the affairs of the Trust, including, without limitation, for satisfaction of any obligation or claim arising out of or in connection with any contract or obligation of the Trust or of the Trustees or any obligation which a Unitholder or Annuitant would otherwise have to indemnify a Trustee for any personal liability incurred by the Trustee as such, but rather the assets of the Trust only are intended to be liable and subject to levy or execution for satisfaction of such liability. Each Unitholder and Annuitant under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of the assets of the Trust in respect of any payment of a Trust obligation made by such Unitholder or Annuitant.

15.4.2 (i) Any written instrument creating an obligation which is or includes the granting by the Trust of a mortgage and (ii) to the extent the Trustees determine to be practicable and consistent with their obligations to act in the best interests of the Unitholders, any written instrument which is, in the judgement of the Trustees, a material obligation, shall contain a provision or be subject to an acknowledgement to the effect that the obligation being created is not personally binding upon, and that resort shall not be had to, nor shall recourse or satisfaction be sought from, the private property of any of the Unitholders or Annuitants under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier, but the property of the Trust or a specific portion thereof only shall be bound. If the Trust makes Real Property investment subject to existing contractual obligations, including obligations under mortgages, the Trustees shall use all reasonable efforts to have any such obligations modified so as to achieve the aforesaid disavowal of contractual liability. Further, the Trustees shall cause the operations of the Trust to be conducted, with the advice of counsel, in such a way and in such jurisdictions as to avoid, to the extent which they determine to be practicable and consistent with their obligations to act in the best interests of the Unitholders, any material risk of liability on the Unitholders for claims against the Trust, and shall, to the extent available on terms which they determine to be practicable, including the cost of premiums, cause the insurance carried by the Trust, to the extent applicable, to cover the Unitholders and Annuitants as additional insureds. Any potential liability of the Trustees with respect to their foregoing obligations or their failure to perform the same shall be governed by the provisions of sections 15.1, 15.2 and 15.3.

ARTICLE 2 DECLARATION OF TRUST

2.1 Initial Contribution, Acceptance and Trust Property

The Settlor does, by these presents, irrevocably transfer, concurrent with the execution of this Declaration of Trust, the Initial Contribution to the Trustees for the purpose of establishing the Trust. Receipt of the Initial Contribution is hereby acknowledged by the Trustees and in consideration thereof the Settlor is hereby issued one initial Trust Unit. - (a) No Trust Unitholder or annuitant under a plan of which a Unitholder acts as trustee or carrier, in its capacity as such, shall incur or be subject to any liability, direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, in contract or in tort or of any other kind to any person in connection with (i) the Trust Assets or the ownership, use, operation, acquisition or disposition thereof or exercise or enjoyment of the rights, privileges, conditions or benefits attached thereto, associated therewith or derived therefrom; (ii) the obligations or the activities or affairs of the Trust; (iii) any actual or alleged act or omission of the Trustees or any of them or by any other person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust) (iv) any act or omission of the Trustees or any of them or any other person in the performance or exercise, or purported or attempted performance or exercise, of any obligation, power, discretion or authority conferred upon the Trustees or any of them or such other person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); (v) any transaction entered into by the Trustees or any of them or by any other person in respect of the activities or affairs of the Trust (whether or not authorized by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust); or (vi) any taxes, levies, imposts or charges or fines, penalties or interest in respect thereof payable by the Trust or by the Trustees or any of them or by any other person on behalf of or in connection with the activities or affairs of the Trust (collectively, "Trust Liabilities").
- (b) No Trust Unitholder in its capacity as such shall be liable to indemnify the Trustees or any of them or any other person with respect to any Trust Liabilities.

- (c) To the extent that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Section 2.7, any Trust Unitholder, in its capacity as such, may be determined by a judgement of a court of competent jurisdiction to be subject to or liable in respect of any Trust Liabilities, such judgement and any writ of execution or similar process in respect thereof, shall be enforceable only against, and shall be satisfied only out of, the Trust Unitholder's share of the Trust Assets represented by its Trust Unit Certificates.

2.8 Indemnity

The Trust agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Trust Unitholder from any cost, damages, liabilities, expenses, charges and losses suffered by a Trust Unitholder in its capacity as such in connection with the Trust Liabilities.

ARTICLE 3 ISSUE AND SALE OF TRUST UNITS

3.1 Nature of Trust Units

- (a) The beneficial interests in the Trust shall be divided into interests of one class, described and designated as "Trust Units", which shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the limitations, restrictions and conditions set out herein, and the interest of each Trust Unitholder shall be determined by the number of Trust Units registered in the name of the Trust Unitholder.
- (b) Each Trust Unit represents an equal undivided interest in the Trust. All Trust Units outstanding from time to time shall be entitled to participate pro rata in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination or winding-up of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust. All Trust Units shall rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority.

3.2 Authorized Number of Trust Units

The aggregate number of Trust Units which is authorized and may be issued hereunder is unlimited.

3.3 Issue of Trust Units

- (a) Trust Units may be issued by the Trust at the times, to the persons, for the consideration and on the terms and conditions that the Trustees determine, and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustees may authorize the Trust to pay a reasonable commission to any person in consideration of such person purchasing or agreeing to purchase Trust Units from the Trust or from any other person or procuring or agreeing to procure purchasers for Trust Units.
- (b) Trust Units are only to be issued as fully paid in money, property, including an obligation to pay consideration in instalments, or past services that are not less in value than the fair equivalent of the money that the Trust would have received if the Units had been issued for money, and are not to be subject to future calls or assessment, except that Trust Units to be issued under an offering may be issued for a consideration payable in instalments and the Trust may take a security interest over such Trust Units for unpaid instalments.

- (c) Trust Units may not be issued by the Trust or the Trustees other than:
 - (i) pursuant to subsection 3.3(a); or
 - (ii) pursuant to Section 5.8.

3.4 No Fractional Trust Units

Fractions of Trust Units shall not be issued, except pursuant to distributions of additional Trust Units to all Trust Unitholders pursuant to Section 5.8.

3.5 Consolidation of Trust Units

Immediately after any pro rata distribution of additional Trust Units to all Trust Unitholders pursuant to Section 5.8, the number of the outstanding Trust Units will be consolidated such that each Trust Unitholder will hold after the consolidation the same number of Trust Units as the Trust Unitholder held before the distribution of additional Trust Units, except where tax is required to be withheld. In this case, each Trust Unit Certificate representing a number of Trust Units prior to the distribution of additional Trust Units is deemed to represent the same number of Trust Units after the distribution of additional Trust Units and the consolidation.

3.6 No Pre-Emptive Rights

No person shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to subscribe for or purchase any Trust Unit.

ARTICLE 4 INVESTMENTS OF TRUST

4.1 Purpose of the Trust

The Trust is a limited purpose trust and its operations and activities shall be restricted to the following activities:

- (c) disposing of any part of the assets of the Trust;

- (d) temporarily holding cash and short term investments in accordance with a policy from time to time determined by the Trustees or, if no such policy is in place, in accordance with Section 4.2, and other investments (including investments in Calloway LP) for the purposes of paying expenses and Trust Liabilities, paying amounts payable by the Trust in connection with the redemption of any Trust Units, and making distributions to Trust Unitholders; and
- (e) undertaking such other activities as shall be approved by the Trustees from time to time.

4.2 Other Investments

To the extent that any monies or other property received by the Trust or the Trustees are not to be immediately used by the Trustees for the purpose of making distributions under Article 5 hereof, the Trustees are hereby authorized and, where prudent to do so, shall invest such monies in: (i) debt obligations of or guaranteed by the Government of Canada or a province of Canada, (ii) short term commercial paper obligations of a corporation whose short term commercial paper is rated R-1 (or higher) by Dominion Bond Rating Service or A-1 (or higher) by Canadian Bond Rating Service or (iii) interest-bearing accounts and certificates of deposit issued or guaranteed by one of the six largest (in terms of total assets) Canadian chartered banks. For the purpose hereof, "short term" shall mean having a date to maturity or call for payment of not more than 60 days from the date on which the investment is made or at any time thereafter.

ARTICLE 5 DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Computation of Distributable Cash Flow of the Trust

- (a) The Cash Flow of the Trust, for any Distribution Period, shall be determined pursuant to the following provisions:
 - (i) all amounts which are received by the Trust in the Distribution Period, including, without limitation, interest, dividends, redemption proceeds, purchase for cancellation proceeds, returns of capital and repayments of indebtedness, shall be included in the calculation;
 - (ii) the following amounts shall be deducted in the calculation:
 - (A) all costs and expenses of the Trust including any accrued but unpaid interest arising under the Trust Notes which, in the opinion of the Trustees, may reasonably be considered to have accrued and become owing in respect of, or which relate to, such Distribution Period or a prior Distribution Period if not accrued in such prior period; and
 - (B) all amounts which relate to the redemption of Trust Units and which have become payable in cash by the Trust in such Distribution Period.
 - (iii) the proceeds and issuance costs from the sale of any Trust Units by the Trust shall not be included in the Cash Flow of the Trust.

- (b) The Distributable Cash Flow for, or in respect of, a Distribution Period shall be the Cash Flow of the Trust for such Distribution Period less any amount which the Trustees may reasonably consider to be necessary to provide for the payment of any costs which have been or will be incurred in the activities and operations of the Trust and to provide for the payments of any income tax liability of the Trust.

5.2 Computation of Income of the Trust and Net Realized Capital Gains for the purposes of the Tax Act

- (a) The Income of the Trust for any year shall be the net income determined pursuant to the provisions of the Tax Act having regard to the provisions thereof which relate to the calculation of income of a trust, and taking into account such adjustments thereto as are determined by the Trustees in respect of dividends received from taxable Canadian corporations, amounts paid or payable by the Trust to Trust Unitholders and such other amounts as may be determined in the discretion of the Trustees; provided, however, that capital gains and capital losses shall be excluded.
- (b) The Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for any year shall be determined as the amount, if any, by which the aggregate of the capital gains of the Trust in the year exceeds the aggregate of the capital losses of the Trust in the year, excluding any capital gains or losses which are realized by the Trust as a result of any redemption of Trust Units pursuant to Article 6, and the amount determined by the Trustees in respect of any net capital losses for prior years which the Trust is permitted by the Act to deduct in computing the taxable income of the Trust for the year.

5.3 Distributions of Distributable Cash Flow

The Trustees shall, on or before each Distribution Record Date, declare payable to the Trust Unitholders on such Distribution Record Date, all or any part of the Distributable Cash Flow for the Distribution Period which includes such Distribution Record Date. The proportionate share of each Trust Unit of the amount of such Distributable Cash Flow shall be determined by dividing such amount by the number of issued and outstanding Trust Units on such Distribution Record Date. Each Trust Unitholder's share of such Distributable Cash Flow shall be an amount equal to the proportionate share of each Trust Unit of such Distributable Cash Flow multiplied by the number of Trust Units owned of record by each such Trust Unitholder on such Distribution Record Date. Subject to Section 5.8, Distributable Cash Flow which has been declared to be payable to Trust Unitholders in respect of a Distribution Period shall be paid in cash on the Distribution Payment Date which immediately follows such Distribution Record Date.

5.4 Other Distributions

- (a) In addition to the distributions which are made payable to Trust Unitholders pursuant to Section 5.3, the Trustees may declare to be payable and make distributions, from time to time, out of the Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains, the capital of the Trust or otherwise, in any year, in such amount or amounts, and on such dates as the Trustees may determine.
- (b) Having regard to the present intention of the Trustees to allocate, distribute and make payable to Trust Unitholders all of the Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains and any other applicable amounts so that the Trust will not have any liability for tax under the Tax Act in any year, the following amounts shall, without any further actions on the part of the Trustees, be due and payable to Trust Unitholders of record on December 31st in each year:

- (i) an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the Income of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of the portions, if any, of each distribution made by the Trust pursuant to Section 5.3 or Section 5.4(a) which have been determined by the Trustees, pursuant to Section 5.5, to have been payable by the Trust out of Income of the Trust for such year; and
 - (ii) an amount equal to the amount, if any, by which the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust for such year exceeds the aggregate of the portions, if any, of each distribution made by the Trust pursuant to Section 5.3 or Section 5.4(a) which have been determined by the Trustees, pursuant to Section 5.5, to have been payable by the Trust out of Net Realized Capital Gains for such year.
- (c) Subject to Section 6.5, the proportionate share of each issued and outstanding Trust Unit of the amount of any distribution made pursuant to either or both of Sections 5.4(a) and (b) shall be determined by dividing such amount by the number of issued and outstanding Trust Units on the applicable Distribution Record Date in respect of a distribution pursuant to Section 5.4(a) and on December 31 in respect of a distribution pursuant to Section 5.4(b). Each Trust Unitholder's share of the amount of any such distribution shall be an amount equal to the proportionate share of each Trust Unit of such amount multiplied by the number of Trust Units owned of record by each such Trust Unitholder on such applicable record date or December 31 in the year of such distribution, as the case may be. Subject to Section 5.8, amounts which have been declared to be payable to Trust Unitholders pursuant to either Section 5.4(a) or (b) shall be paid in cash on the Distribution Payment Date which immediately follows the applicable record date in respect of a distribution pursuant to Section 5.4(a) or December 31 in the applicable year in respect of a distribution pursuant to Section 5.4(b).

5.5 Character of Distributions

Distributions payable to Trust Unitholders pursuant to this Article 5 shall be deemed to be distributions of Income of the Trust, Net Realized Capital Gains, trust capital or other items in such amounts as the Trustees shall, in their absolute discretion, determine. For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that any distribution of Net Realized Capital Gains shall include the non-taxable portion of the capital gains of the Trust which are encompassed in such distribution.

5.6 Enforceability of Right to Receive Distributions

For greater certainty, it is hereby declared that each Trust Unitholder shall have the legal right to enforce payment of any amount which is due and payable to such Trust Unitholder as a result of any distribution which is payable to such Trust Unitholder pursuant to this Article on or before December 31st of the year in which the Distribution Record Date for such distribution occurs.

5.7 Designation of Taxable Dividends, Taxable Capital Gains and Foreign Source Income

In accordance with and to the extent permitted by the Tax Act, the Trustees in each year shall make designations in respect of the amounts payable to Trust Unitholders for such amounts that the Trustees consider to be reasonable in all of the circumstances, including, without limitation, designations relating to taxable dividends received by the Trust in the year on shares of taxable Canadian corporations, net taxable capital gains realized by the Trust in the year and foreign source income of the Trust for the year.

5.8 Method of Payment of Distributions

- (a) Distributions shall be made by cheque payable to or to the order of the Unitholder or by such other manner of payment as approved by the Trustees from time to time.
- (b) Where the Trustees determine that the Trust does not have cash in an amount sufficient to make payment of the full amount of any distribution which has been declared to be payable pursuant to this Article on the due date for such payment, the payment may, at the option of the Trustees, include the issuance of additional Trust Units, or fractions of Trust Units, if necessary, having a value equal to the difference between the amount of such distribution and the amount of cash which has been determined by the Trustees to be available for the payment of such distribution.
- (c) The value of each Trust Unit which is issued pursuant to Section 5.8(b) shall be the market price (as defined in Section 6.3) of the Trust Units on the applicable Distribution Record Date in respect of a distribution pursuant to Section 5.3, on the applicable Distribution Record Date in respect of a distribution under Section 5.4(a) or December 31 in respect of a distribution under Section 5.4(b), provided that if the particular date is not a Business Day then the market price (as defined in Section 6.3) shall be determined on the last Business Day which precedes such particular date.

5.9 Withholding Taxes

The Trustees shall deduct or withhold from distributions payable to any Trust Unitholder all amounts required by law to be withheld from such distribution.

5.10 Definitions

Unless otherwise specified or the context otherwise requires, any term in this Article which is defined in the Tax Act shall have for the purposes of this Article the meaning that it has in the Tax Act.

ARTICLE 6 REDEMPTION OF TRUST UNITS

6.1 Right of Redemption

Each Trust Unitholder shall be entitled to require the Trust to redeem at any time or from time to time at the demand of the Unitholder all or any part of the Trust Units registered in the name of the Trust Unitholder at the prices determined and payable in accordance with the conditions hereinafter provided.

6.2 Exercise of Redemption Right

- (a) To exercise a Trust Unitholder's right to require redemption under this Article 6, a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring the Trust to redeem Trust Units, in a form approved by the Trustees, shall be sent to the Trust at the head office of the Trust. No form or manner of completion or execution shall be sufficient unless the same is in all respects satisfactory to the Trustees and is accompanied by any further evidence that the Trustees may reasonably require with respect to the identity, capacity or authority of the person giving such notice.
- (b) Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Trust Units, the Unitholder shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to the Trust Units tendered for redemption (other than to receive the redemption payment therefor) including the right to receive any distributions thereon which are declared payable to the Trust Unitholders of record on a date which is subsequent to the day of receipt by the Trust of such notice. Trust Units shall be considered to be tendered for redemption on the date that the Trust has, to the satisfaction of the Trustees, received the notice and other required documents or evidence as aforesaid.

6.3 Cash Redemption

- (a) Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Trust Units in accordance with Section 6.2, the holder of the Trust Units tendered for redemption shall be entitled to receive a price per Trust Unit (hereinafter called the "Redemption Price") equal to the fair market value thereof as determined by the Trustees in their sole discretion acting reasonably.
- (b) Subject to Sections 6.4 and 6.5, the Redemption Price payable in respect of the Trust Units tendered for redemption during any month shall be paid by cheque, drawn on a Canadian chartered bank or a trust company in lawful money of Canada, payable at par to or to the order of the Trust Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption on or before the last day of the calendar month following the month in which the Trust Units were tendered for redemption. Payments made by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of a cheque in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Unitholder and/or any party having a security interest unless such cheque is dishonoured upon presentment. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Unitholder in respect of Trust Units redeemed.

6.4 No Cash Redemption in Certain Circumstances

Section 6.3(b) shall not be applicable to Trust Units tendered for redemption by a Trust Unitholder, if the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 6.3 in respect of such Trust Units and all other Trust Units tendered for redemption prior thereto in the same calendar month exceeds $50,000 ("Monthly Limit"); provided that the Trustees may, in their sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of all Trust Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month. In the absence of such a waiver, Trust Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month in which the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 6.3(b) exceeds the Monthly Limit will be redeemed for cash pursuant to Section 6.3(b) and, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals, by a distribution in specie of securities held by the Trust under Section 6.5 on a pro rata basis.

6.5 In Specie Redemption

If, pursuant to Section 6.4, Section 6.3(b) is not applicable to Trust Units tendered for redemption by a Unitholder, the Redemption Price per Trust Unit specified in Section 6.3 to which the Unitholder would otherwise be entitled shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid and satisfied, at the option of the Trust, by way of the issuance and delivery by the Trust to each holder of Units tendered for redemption who is not entitled to receive cash in respect thereof on the Redemption Date of:

- (i) Series 2 Trust Notes in a principal amount equal to the Redemption Price as determined by the Trustees, bearing a commercially reasonable rate of interest as determined by the Trustees in their sole and absolute discretion; or
- (ii) a promissory note of any other series as may be established by the Trust from time to time with such terms as the Trustees may determine in a principal amount equal to the Redemption Price as determined by the Trustees; or
- (iii) securities and/or obligations held by the Trust or any other assets of the Trust having a fair market value equal to the applicable Redemption Price as determined by the Trustees.

The Redemption Price payable pursuant to this Section 6.5 in respect of Trust Units tendered for redemption during any month shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid by the transfer, to or to the order of the Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption, on the last day (the "Transfer Date") of the calendar month following the month in which the Trust Units were tendered for redemption, of the number of securities and/or obligations determined as aforesaid. The Trust shall be entitled to all interest paid or accrued and unpaid on the obligations being transferred and distributions paid on the securities being transferred to and including the Transfer Date. Payments by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of such securities and/or obligations by registered mail in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Trust Unitholder. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Trust Unitholder in respect of the Trust Units so redeemed.

Where the Trust makes a distribution of securities and/or obligations on a redemption of Trust Units as a result of the operation of Section 6.4 or 6.5, the Trustees shall determine the fair market value of the redeemed Trust Units and of the securities and/or obligations issued to satisfy the Redemption Price. Where the Trust makes a distribution of securities and/or obligations on a redemption of Trust Units pursuant to this subsection, the Trustees may, in their sole discretion, designate to the redeeming Trust Unitholders any capital gain realized by the Trust as a result of the distribution of such securities to the Trust Unitholder.

6.6 Cancellation of all Redeemed Trust Units

All Trust Units which are redeemed under this Article 6 shall be cancelled and such Trust Units shall no longer be outstanding and shall not be reissued.

6.7 Subordination

Following any in specie redemption pursuant to the operation of Section 6.5, holders of obligations of Calloway LP will be required to acknowledge that they are subject to any applicable subordination agreements as may be determined by the Trustees prior to delivery of such obligations of Calloway LP to the Trust Unitholder.

Notice of a meeting of the Trustees may be given verbally, in writing or by telephone, fax or other means of communication. A notice of a meeting of Trustees need not specify the purpose of or the business to be transacted at the meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees may by resolution from time to time fix a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings of the Trustees at a place and hour to be named, in which case, provided that a copy of such resolution is sent to each Trustee forthwith after being passed and forthwith after each Trustee's appointment, no other notice shall be required for any such regular meeting. Notice of a meeting may be waived by the Trustees at or after a meeting which is held and the meeting shall be deemed to have been duly held in such event. A Trustee who attends a meeting of Trustees is deemed to have waived notice of the meeting except when such Trustee attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that proper notice of the meeting was not given.

7.3 Place of Meetings

Meetings of the Trustees shall be held in Calgary, Alberta or such other place in Canada as the Trustees shall designate. A Trustee who attends a meeting of Trustees, in person or by telephone, is deemed to have consented to the location of the meeting except when he attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully held.

7.4 Meetings by Telephone

With the consent of the chairman of the meeting or a majority of the other Trustees present at the meeting, a Trustee may participate in a meeting of the Trustees or of a committee of the Trustees by means of telephone or other communication facilities that permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other. The quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Trustees shall consist of the greater of one Trustee or a majority of the number of Trustees then holding office, and, notwithstanding any vacancy among the number of Trustees, a quorum of Trustees may exercise all of the powers of the Trustees.

7.6 Chairman

The chairman of any meeting of the Trustees shall be the Trustee present at the meeting who holds the office of Chairman of the Trustees or if such person is not present, the Trustees present shall choose one of their number to be chairman.

7.7 Action by the Trustees

At all meetings of the Trustees every question shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast on the question. In the case of equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall not be entitled to a second or casting vote. The powers of the Trustees may be exercised by resolution passed at a meeting at which a quorum is present or by resolution in writing signed by all Trustees who would be entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of the Trustees. Resolutions in writing may be signed in counterparts each of which shall be deemed to be an original and all originals together shall be deemed to be one and the same instrument.

7.8 Adjourned Meeting

Any meeting of Trustees may be adjourned from time to time by the chairman of the meeting with the consent of the meeting to a fixed time and place. Further notice of the adjourned meeting need not be given. The adjourned meeting shall be duly constituted if a quorum is present and if it is held in accordance with the terms of the adjournment. If there is not a quorum present at the adjourned meeting, the original meeting shall be deemed to have terminated upon its adjournment.

7.9 Remuneration and Expenses

The Trustees shall be paid such remuneration for their services as may from time to time be determined by the Trustees, acting reasonably. The Trustees shall also be entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable travelling and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending meetings of the Trustees or any committee thereof or in connection with their services as Trustees. A Trustee shall not be precluded from serving the Trust in any other capacity and receiving remuneration therefore. Trustees who are not employees of [Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust], any of its Subsidiaries or any successor thereto shall be entitled to participate in any Trust Option Plan adopted by the Trustees.

7.10 Officers

The Trustees from time to time may appoint one or more officers of the Trust, including without limitation a Chairman of the Trustees, and, without prejudice to rights under any employment contract, may remove any officer of the Trust. The powers and duties of each officer of the Trust shall be those determined from time to time by the Trustees and, in the absence of such determination, shall be those usually applicable to the office held.

Any such appointment shall be made either by a resolution approved by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of Trust Unitholders or shall be made by resolution in writing in the manner set out in Section 12.10. Notwithstanding the foregoing:

- (a) if no Trustees are appointed at the annual meeting of Trust held immediately before the term of office of such Trustees expires, such Trustees shall continue to hold the office of Trustee under this Declaration of Trust until successors have been appointed; and
- (b) the Trustees may, between annual meetings of the Trust appoint one or more additional Trustees for a term to expire (subject to further appointment) at the close of the next annual meeting of Trust Unitholders but the number of additional Trustees so appointed shall not at any time exceed one-third of the number of Trustees who held office immediately after the expiration of the immediately preceding annual meeting of Trust Unitholders.

8.3 Consent to Act

- (a) A person who is appointed a trustee hereunder shall not become a Trustee until such Trustee has, either before or after such appointment, executed and delivered to the Trust and the Trustees a consent substantially as follows:

“To: CALLOWAY HOLDINGS TRUST (the “Trust”)
And to: The Trustees thereof

The undersigned hereby consents to act as a Trustee of the Trust and hereby agrees, upon the later of the date of this consent and the date of the undersigned's appointment as a Trustee of the Trust, to thereby become a party, as a Trustee, to the Declaration of Trust dated as of June 15, 2005, as amended or amended and restated from time to time, constituting the Trust.

Dated:

- (b) Upon the later of a person being appointed a trustee hereunder and executing and delivering to the Trust and the Trustees, a consent substantially as set forth in subsection 8.3(a), such person shall become a Trustee hereunder and shall be deemed to be a party (as a Trustee) to this Declaration of Trust, as amended or amended and restated from time to time.

8.4 Failure to Elect Minimum Number of Trustees

If a meeting of Trust Unitholders fails to elect the minimum number of Trustees required by this Declaration of Trust by reason of the disqualification or death of any nominee, the Trustees elected at the meeting may exercise all of the powers of the Trustees if the number of Trustees so elected constitutes a quorum.

8.5 Ceasing to Hold Office

A Trustee ceases to hold office when:

- (a) he or she dies or resigns;
- (b) he or she is removed in accordance with Section 8.6; or
- (c) he or she is disqualified from being a Trustee as provided under Section 8.1.

A resignation of a Trustee becomes effective at the time a written resignation is sent to the Trust and the other Trustees or at the time specified in the resignation, whichever is later, provided that if, upon the resignation becoming effective, the number of remaining Trustees would be less than the number necessary to constitute a quorum for a meeting of Trustees, the resignation is not effective until the resigning Trustee's successor is duly appointed as a Trustee.

Upon a Trustee ceasing to hold office as such hereunder, such Trustee shall cease to be a party, as a Trustee, to this Declaration of Trust; provided, however, that such Trustee shall continue to be entitled to be paid any amounts owing by the Trust to the Trustee and to the benefits of the indemnity provided in Section 9.9.

8.6 Removal of Trustee

The Trust Unitholders may remove any Trustee or Trustees from office by resolution approved by a majority of the votes cast at a meeting of Trust Unitholders called for that purpose. A vacancy created by the removal of a Trustee may be filled at the meeting of Trust Unitholders at which the Trustee is removed or, if not so filled, may be filled as set forth in Section 8.7.

8.7 Filling Vacancies

Subject to Section 8.2, a quorum of Trustees may fill a vacancy among the Trustees, except a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of Trustees or from a failure to elect the minimum number of Trustees fixed by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust. If there is not a quorum of Trustees, or if there has been a failure to elect the minimum number of Trustees required by or pursuant to this Declaration of Trust, the Trustees then in office shall forthwith call a special meeting of Trust Unitholders to fill the vacancy and, if they fail to call a meeting or if there are no Trustees then in office, the meeting may be called by any Trust Unitholder. A Trustee appointed to fill a vacancy holds office, subject to Section 8.5, until the close of the next annual meeting of the Trust Unitholders.

8.8 Validity of Acts

All acts of a Trustee are valid notwithstanding any irregularity in the appointment of the Trustee or any defect in the qualifications of the Trustee.

9.3 Voting of Securities and/or Obligations Held by the Trust

The securities and/or obligations of Calloway LP held from time to time by the Trustees as part of the Trust Assets may be voted by the Trustees at any and all meetings of Calloway LP or any and all meetings of Calloway LP at which the holders of such securities and/or obligations are entitled to vote.

- (e) The Trustees shall only vote the securities and/or obligations of Calloway LP and exercise the rights thereunder in the manner provided for herein, as the case may be, on the conditions contained therein.

9.5 Banking

The banking activities of the Trust, or any part thereof, including, but without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the operation of the Trust's accounts; the making, signing, drawing, accepting, endorsing, negotiation, lodging, depositing or transferring of any cheques, promissory notes, drafts, acceptances, bills of exchange and orders for the payment of money; the giving of receipts for orders relating to any property of the Trust; the execution of any agreement relating to any property of the Trust; the execution of any agreement relating to any such banking activities and defining the rights and powers of the parties thereto; and the authorizing of any officer of such banker to do any act or thing on the Trust's behalf to facilitate such banking activities, shall be transacted with such bank, trust company, or other firm or corporation carrying on a banking business as the Trustees may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time and shall be transacted on the Trust's behalf by one or more officers of the Trust or Trustees as the Trustees may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time.

9.6 Standard of Care and Duties

The Trustees shall act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust and in connection therewith shall exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. A Trustee shall not be liable in carrying out his or her duties under this Declaration of Trust except in cases where a Trustee fails to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust or to exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. The duties and standard of care of the Trustees provided as aforesaid are intended to be similar to, and not to be any greater than, those imposed on a director of a corporation governed by the Business Corporations Act (Alberta). Unless otherwise required by law, a Trustee shall not be required to give bond surety or security in any jurisdiction for the performance of any duties or obligations hereunder. No Trustee, in his or her capacity as trustee, shall be required to devote his or her entire time to the investments or business or affairs of the Trust.

9.7 Fees and Expenses

As part of the expenses of the Trust, the Trustees may pay or cause to be paid reasonable fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the administration and management of the Trust, including (without, limitation) fees of auditors, accountants, lawyers, appraisers and other agents, consultants and professional advisors employed by or on behalf of the Trust and the cost of reporting or giving notices to Trust Unitholders. All costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the Trustees on behalf of the Trust shall be payable out of the Trust Assets.

9.8 Limitations on Liability of Trustees

None of the Trustees or the officers or agents of the Trust shall be liable to any Trust Unitholder for any action taken in good faith in reliance on any documents that are, prima facie properly executed; for any depreciation of, or loss to, the Trust incurred by reason of the sale of any security; for the loss or disposition of monies or securities; or for any other action or failure to act including, without limitation, the failure to compel in any way any former trustee to redress any breach of trust or any failure by Calloway LP to perform obligations or pay monies owed to the Trust, except for a breach of the standard of care, diligence and skill as set out in Section 9.6 or a breach of Section 9.4. If the Trustees have retained an appropriate expert or advisor with respect to any matter connected with their duties under this Declaration of Trust, the Trustees may act or refuse to act based on the advice of such expert or advisor and, notwithstanding any provision of this Declaration of Trust, including, without limitation, the standard of care, diligence and skill set out in Section 9.6 hereof, the Trustees shall not be liable for any action or refusal to act based on the advice of any such expert or advisor which it is reasonable to conclude is within the expertise of such expert or advisor to give.

9.9 Indemnification of Trustees

Each Trustee, each former Trustee, each officer of the Trust and each former officer of the Trust shall be entitled to be and shall be indemnified and reimbursed out of the Trust Assets in respect of any and all taxes, penalties or interest in respect of unpaid taxes or other governmental charges imposed upon the Trustee or officer in consequence of his or her performance of his or her duties hereunder and in respect of any and all costs, charges and expenses, including amounts paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgement, reasonably incurred in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which the Trustee, former Trustee, officer or former officer is made a party by reason of being or having been a Trustee or officer of the Trust or, at the request of the Trust, a director or officer of any Subsidiary thereof, provided that a Trustee, former Trustee, officer or former officer shall not be indemnified out of the Trust Assets in respect of unpaid taxes or other governmental charges or in respect of such costs, charges and expenses that arise out of or as a result or in the course of his or her failure to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Trust Unitholders. A Trustee, former Trustee, officer or former officer shall not be entitled to satisfy any right of indemnity or reimbursement granted herein, or otherwise existing under law, except out of the Trust Assets, and no Trust Unitholder or other Trustee or officer shall be personally liable to any person with respect to any claim for such indemnity or reimbursement as aforesaid.

9.10 Contractual Obligations of Trust

In respect of any obligations or liabilities being incurred by the Trust or the Trustees on behalf of the Trust, the Trustees and the Trust shall make all reasonable efforts to include as a specific term of such obligations or liabilities a contractual provision to the effect that none of the Trust Unitholders or the Trustees have any personal liability or obligations in respect thereof.

9.11 Conflicts of Interest

A Trustee or an officer of the Trust who is a party to, or is a director or officer of, or has a material interest in any person who is a party to a material contract or proposed material contract with the Trust shall disclose in writing to the Trust or request to have entered in the minutes of meetings of the Trustees the nature and extent of such interest, and shall not vote on any resolutions to approve the contract, unless the contract is one relating primarily to his or her remuneration as a Trustee or officer, one for indemnity or insurance in respect of him or her, and, for greater certainty, a Trustee complying with this Section 9.11, shall not be subject to any liability to the Trust or the Trust Unitholders with respect to such contract or proposed material contract as aforesaid.

ARTICLE 10 COMMITTEES OF TRUSTEES

10.1 Delegation

Except as prohibited by law, the Trustees may appoint from their number a committee of Trustees and may delegate to the committee of Trustees such authority as the Trustees may in their sole discretion deem necessary or desirable to effect the administration of the duties of the Trustees under this Declaration of Trust, without regard to whether such authority is normally granted or delegated by trustees.

10.2 Procedure

Unless otherwise determined by the Trustees, a quorum for meetings of any committee shall be a majority of its members, each committee shall have the power to appoint its chairman and the rules for calling, holding, conducting and adjourning meetings of the committee shall be the same as those governing the Trustees. Each member of a committee shall serve during the pleasure of the Trustees and, in any event, only so long as he or she shall be a Trustee. The Trustees may fill vacancies in a committee by appointment from among their members. Provided that a quorum is maintained, the committee may continue to exercise its powers notwithstanding any vacancy among its members.

10.3 Governance

In lieu of a committee, the Trustees will be directly responsible for developing the Trust's approach to governance issues, filling vacancies among the Trustees and periodically reviewing the composition and effectiveness of the Trustees and the contribution of individual Trustees.

The Trustees will also be responsible for adopting and periodically reviewing and updating the Trust's written disclosure policy. This policy will, among other things:

- (a) Articulate the legal obligations of the Trust, its affiliates and their respective Trustees, directors, officers and employees with respect to confidential corporate information;
- (b) Identify spokespersons of the Trust who are authorized to communicate with third parties such as analysts, the media and investors;
- (c) Provide guidelines on the disclosure of forward-looking information;
- (d) Require advance review by senior representatives of any disclosure of financial information to seek to ensure that the information is not material, and to seek to ensure that selective disclosure of material information does not occur, and that if it does occur, a news release is issued promptly; and
- (e) Establish "black-out" periods immediately prior to and following the disclosure of quarterly and annual financial results and immediately prior to the disclosure of certain material changes during which the Trust, its affiliates, and their respective trustees, directors, officers and certain other persons may not purchase or sell Trust Units.

10.4 Audit Review

In lieu of an audit committee, the Trustees will directly fulfill their responsibilities of oversight and supervision of:

- (a) The accounting for and financial reporting practices and procedures of the Trust;
- (b) The adequacy of internal accounting controls and procedures of the Trust; and
- (c) The quality and integrity of financial statements of the Fund.

In addition, the Trustees will be responsible for directing the auditors' examination into specific areas.

ARTICLE 11 AMENDMENT

11.1 Amendment

The provisions of this Declaration of Trust, except where specifically provided otherwise, may only be amended by Special Resolution; provided that the provisions of this Declaration of Trust may be amended by the Trustees without the consent, approval or ratification of the Trust Unitholders or any other person at any time for the purpose of:

- (a) ensuring continuing compliance with applicable laws, regulations, requirements or policies of any governmental or other authority having jurisdiction over the Trustees or the Trust;
- (b) making all changes deemed necessary or advisable to ensure that the Trust qualifies as a "unit trust" at all times pursuant to the Tax Act;
- (c) providing, in the opinion of the Trustees, additional protection for or of benefit to the Trust Unitholders;
- (d) removing any conflicts or inconsistencies in this Declaration of Trust or making corrections, including the correction or rectification of any ambiguities, defective provisions, errors, mistakes or omissions which are, in the opinion of the Trustees, necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Trust Unitholders; or
- (e) making amendments which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are necessary or desirable as a result of changes in taxation laws;
- (f) correcting errors or inconsistencies between this Declaration of Trust and the Management Information Circular of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust dated June 9 2005 which are, in the opinion of the Trustees, necessary or desirable and not prejudicial to the Trust Unitholders;

but notwithstanding the foregoing, no such amendment shall modify the right to one vote per Trust Unit or reduce the fractional undivided interest in the Trust Assets represented by any Trust Unit without the consent of the holder of such Trust Unit.

11.2 Notification of Amendment

As soon as shall be practicable after the making of any amendment pursuant to this Article 11, the Trustees shall furnish written notification of the substance of such amendment to each Trust Unitholder.

ARTICLE 12 MEETINGS OF TRUST UNITHOLDERS

12.1 Annual and Special Meetings of Trust Unitholders

Annual meetings of the Trust Unitholders shall be called on a day on or before June 30 in each year, at a time and at a place in Canada set by the Trustees. The business transacted at such meetings shall include the presentation of the audited financial statements of the Trust for the prior fiscal year, the election of nominees of the Trust to serve as directors of the general partner of Calloway LP (except to fill casual vacancies which shall be done by the other directors of the general partner of Calloway LP), the appointment of Trustees for the ensuing year in accordance with Article 8, the appointment of Auditors and the transaction of such other business as Trust Unitholders may be entitled to vote upon as hereinafter provided in this Article 12 or as the Trustees may determine. Special meetings of the Trust Unitholders may be called at any time by the Trustees and shall be called by the Trustees upon a written request of Trust Unitholders holding in the aggregate Trust Units to which are attached not less than 10% of the votes attached to all Trust Units then outstanding, such request specifying the purpose or purposes for which such meeting is to be called. The chairman of any annual or special meeting shall be the Chairman of the Trustees or any other Trustee specified by resolution of the Trustees or, in the absence of any Trustee, any person appointed as chairman of the meeting by the Trust Unitholders present. The Trustees, the officers of the Trust, the Auditors and any other person approved by the Trustees, the chairman of the meeting or by resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast by Trust Unitholders represented at the meeting may attend meetings of the Trust Unitholders.

12.2 Notice of Meetings

Notice of all meetings of Trust Unitholders shall be given by unregistered mail, postage prepaid, addressed to each Trust Unitholder at his or her last address on the books of the Trust, mailed at least 21 days and not more than 60 days before the meeting. Such notice shall specify the time when, and the place where, such meeting is to be held and shall specify the nature of the business to be transacted at such meeting in sufficient detail to permit a Trust Unitholder to form a reasonable judgement thereon, together with the text of any Special Resolution, at the time of mailing of the notice, proposed to be passed. Any adjourned meeting, other than a meeting adjourned for lack of a quorum under Section 12.6(b), may be held as adjourned without further notice. The accidental omission to give notice or the non-receipt of such notice by a Trust Unitholder shall not invalidate any resolution passed at any such meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a meeting of Trust Unitholders may be held at any time without notice if all the Trust Unitholders are present or represented thereat or those not so present or represented have waived notice. Any Trust Unitholder (or a duly appointed proxy of a Trust Unitholder) may waive any notice required to be given under the provisions of this section, and such waiver, whether given before or after the meeting, shall cure any default in the giving of such notice.

12.3 Quorum

At any meeting of the Trust Unitholders, subject as hereinafter provided, a quorum shall consist of one or more individuals present in person either holding personally or representing as proxies Trust Units to which are attached not less in aggregate than 5% of the votes attached to all outstanding Trust Units. In the event of such quorum not being present at the appointed place on the date for which the meeting is called within 30 minutes after the time fixed for the holding of such meeting, the meeting, if called by request of Trust Unitholders, shall be terminated and, if otherwise called, shall stand adjourned to such day being not less than 14 days later and to such place and time as may be appointed by the chairman of the meeting. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum as above defined is not present, the Trust Unitholders present either personally or by proxy shall form a quorum, and any business may be brought before or dealt with at such an adjourned meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same.

12.4 Voting Rights of Trust Unitholders

Only Trust Unitholders of record shall be entitled to vote. Each Trust Unit shall entitle the holder or holders of that Trust Unit to one vote on a poll vote at any meeting of Trust Unitholders. Every question submitted to a meeting, other than a Special Resolution, shall, unless a poll vote is demanded, be decided by a show of hands vote, on which every person present and entitled to vote shall be entitled to one vote. At any meeting of Trust Unitholders, any holder of Trust Units entitled to vote thereat may vote by proxy and a proxy need not be a Trust Unitholder, provided that no proxy shall be voted at any meeting unless it shall have been received by the Trust for verification at least 24 hours prior to the commencement of such meeting. When any Trust Unit is held jointly by several persons, any one of them may vote at any meeting in person or by proxy in respect of such Trust Unit, but if more than one of them shall be present at such meeting in person or by proxy, and such joint owners of their proxies so present disagree as to any vote to be cast, such vote purporting to be executed by or on behalf of a Trust Unitholder shall be deemed valid unless challenged at or prior to its exercise, and the burden of proving invalidity shall rest on the challenger.

12.5 Resolutions Binding the Trustees

Trust Unitholders shall be entitled to pass resolutions that will bind the Trustees or the Trust only with respect to the following matters:

- (a) the appointment or removal of a Trustee as provided in Article 8;
- (b) the appointment or removal of Auditors as provided in Article 17;
- (c) the appointment of an Inspector as provided in Section 12.9;
- (d) amendments of this Declaration of Trust as provided in Section 11.1;
- (e) the termination of the Trust as provided in Section 14.2; and
- (f) the sale of the Trust Assets as an entirety or substantially as an entirety.

Except with respect to the above matters set out in this Section 12.5, no action taken by the Trust Unitholders or any resolution of the Trust Unitholders at any meeting shall in any way bind the Trustees other than with respect to matters brought before the Trust Unitholders by the Trustees. Any action taken or resolution passed in respect of any matter at a meeting of Trust Unitholders shall be by Special Resolution, unless the contrary is otherwise expressly provided under any specific provision of this Declaration of Trust and except for the matters set out in Sections 12.5(a), 12.5(b) and 12.5(f) above which matters may be dealt with by a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast by Trust Unitholders represented at the meeting.

12.6 Meaning of "Special Resolution"

- (a) The expression "Special Resolution" when used in this Declaration of Trust means, subject to Article 11, a resolution proposed to be passed as a special resolution at a meeting of Trust Unitholders (including an adjourned meeting) duly convened for that purpose and held in accordance with the provisions of this Article at which two or more individuals present in person either holding personally or representing as proxies not less in aggregate than 25% of the number of Trust Units then outstanding and passed by the affirmative votes of the holders of Trust Units to which are attached more than 66 2/3% of the votes attached to all Trust Units represented at the meeting and cast on a poll upon such resolution.

- (b) If a Limited Partner fails to comply with such a request or in the event that reasonably satisfactory evidence is not provided, the Majority General Partner will have the right, in its sole discretion: (i) to sell such Limited Partner's Partnership Units or to purchase the same on behalf of the Partnership at fair market value as determined by an independent investment dealer acting as valuator, selected by the Majority General Partner. For all purposes of a sale, the Majority General Partner is deemed to be the agent and lawful attorney of the Limited Partner or any owner for the purposes of the Tax Act of the Limited Partner's Partnership Units and any other person with an ownership interest in the affected Partnership Units. The net proceeds of any sale of the affected Partnership Units will be the net proceeds after deduction of any commissions, taxes or other costs of sale. In the event of a sale pursuant to this section, the Limited Partner or other person whose Partnership Units were sold will have the right only to receive the net proceeds of that sale.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything contained herein, the General Partners may waive the application of this Section 2.8.

- (f) compel or seek a partition, judicial or otherwise, of any of the assets of the Partnership distributed or to be distributed to the Partners in kind in accordance with this Agreement.

2.10 Power of Attorney

Each Partner hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints the Majority General Partner, with full power of substitution, as his or her agent and true and lawful attorney to act on his or her behalf with full power and authority in his or her name, place and stead to execute and record or file as and where required in the opinion of the Majority General Partner:

- (a) this Agreement, the Declaration, any amendment to this Agreement, the Declaration or the Record and any other instruments or documents required to continue and keep in good standing the Partnership as a limited partnership under the Act, or otherwise to comply with the laws of any jurisdiction in which the Partnership may carry on business or own or lease property in order to maintain the limited liability of the Limited Partners and to comply with the applicable laws of such jurisdiction (including such amendments to the Declaration or the Record as may be necessary to reflect the admission to the Partnership of subscribers for or transferees of Partnership Units as contemplated by this Agreement);
- (b) all instruments and any amendments to the Declaration necessary to reflect any amendment to this Agreement;
- (c) any instrument required in connection with the dissolution and termination of the Partnership in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, including any elections under the Tax Act and under any similar legislation;
- (d) the documents necessary to be filed with the appropriate governmental body or authority in connection with the business, property, assets and undertaking of the Partnership;
- (e) such documents as may be necessary to give effect to the business of the Partnership as described in Section 2.2;

- (g) all documents on his or her behalf and in his or her name as may be necessary to give effect to any sale of Partnership Units by the Majority General Partner or a purchase of Partnership Units by the Majority General Partner, in either case on its own behalf or on behalf of a Partner including pursuant to Section 2.8;
- (h) any information return, form of election or determination or similar document or instrument as may be required at any time under the Tax Act on behalf of the Partnership or any Partner and under any similar legislation of the federal or a provincial government which relates to the Partnership or the membership of any Person as a Partner; and
- (i) all other instruments and documents on his or her behalf and in his or her name or in the name of the Partnership as may be considered necessary by the Majority General Partner to carry out fully this Agreement.

To evidence the foregoing, each Partner, in executing a Power of Attorney, and each transferee of Partnership Units, in executing a Transfer Form, will have executed a power of attorney incorporating by reference, ratifying and confirming some or all of the powers set forth above.

The power of attorney granted herein shall survive the transfer, but only to the extent of the obligations of a Partner hereunder, by the Partner, of the whole or any part of the interest of the Partner in the Partnership and may be exercised by the Majority General Partner on behalf of each Partner in executing any instrument necessary or desirable to give effect to such transfer. Each Partner agrees to be bound by any actions made or taken by the Majority General Partner pursuant to this power of attorney and hereby waives any and all actions and defences which may be available to negate or disaffirm the action of the Majority General Partner taken in good faith under this power of attorney. The power of attorney granted in this Section 2.10 is not intended to be a continuing power of attorney within the meaning of the Substitute Decisions Act (Ontario), exercisable during a Partner's incapacity to manage property, or any similar power of attorney under equivalent legislation in any of the provinces or territories of Canada (a "CPOA"). The execution of this power of attorney shall not terminate any such CPOA granted by the Partner previously and shall not be terminated by the execution by the Partner in the future of a CPOA, and the Partner hereby agrees not to take any action in future which results in the termination of this power of attorney.

This power of attorney shall continue in respect of the Majority General Partner so long as it is the general partner of the Partnership, and shall terminate thereafter, but shall continue in respect of a new Majority General Partner as if the new Majority General Partner were the original attorney.

Subject to the provisions of the Act and of similar legislation in other jurisdictions of Canada, the liability of each Limited Partner for the debts, liabilities and obligations of the Partnership shall be limited to the amount of his or her Capital Contribution, plus his or her pro rata share of any undistributed income of the Partnership. Where Limited Partners have received the return of all or part of their Capital Contribution, they are nevertheless liable to the Partnership or, where the Partnership is dissolved, to its creditors for any amount, not in excess of the amount returned with interest, necessary to discharge the liabilities of the Partnership to all creditors who extended credit or whose claims otherwise arose before the return of the Capital Contribution. Following payment of his or her Capital Contribution, a Limited Partner shall not be liable for any further claims or assessments or be required to make further contributions to the Partnership.

2.12 Indemnity of Limited Partners

Subject to Section 7.6, the General Partners will indemnify and hold harmless each Limited Partner (including former Limited Partners) for all costs, expenses, damages or liabilities suffered or incurred by the Limited Partner if the limited liability of such Limited Partner is lost for or by reason of the negligence of the General Partners in performing its duties and obligations hereunder.

2.13 Compliance with Laws

Each Limited Partner will, on the request of any of the General Partners from time to time, immediately execute the Declaration and any other documents considered by any of the General Partners to be necessary to comply with any applicable law or regulation of any jurisdiction in Canada, for the continuation, operation or good standing of the Partnership.

2.14 Other Activities of Partners

The General Partners, Affiliates and Associates of the General Partners and the Limited Partners and their Affiliates and Associates may engage in businesses, ventures, investments and activities which may be similar to or competitive with those in which the Partnership is or might be engaged and no such person shall be required to offer or make available to the Partnership any other business or investment opportunity which any such Person may acquire or be engaged in for its own account.

2.15 General Partners May Hold Partnership Units

Any of the General Partners may subscribe for, acquire or purchase Partnership Units or purchase Partnership Units by private contract or in the market or hold Partnership Units as nominee and shall be shown on the Record as a Limited Partner in respect of the number of Partnership Units held by any of the General Partners from time to time.

2.16 General Partner as a Limited Partner

2.17 Authority of Majority General Partner to Make Tax Elections

For greater certainty, the Majority General Partner shall be entitled to make or execute elections under the Tax Act and applicable provincial taxation legislation that relate to a Fiscal Year on behalf of all Persons who are Limited Partners or who are the beneficial owners of Partnership Units during the Fiscal Year and shall have the authority to act for the Partnership in connection therewith.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, no Limited Partner will, in respect of any Partnership Unit held by such Partner, have any preference, priority or right in any circumstance over any other Partner in respect of any Partnership Unit held by the other Partner. The holders of Class A Units shall have 5 votes for each Class A Unit held, the Class B Units shall have 1 vote for each Class B Unit held, and the holders of Class C Units shall have no votes.

3.4 Refusal to Issue Partnership Units

The General Partners shall refuse to issue Partnership Units to a "non-Canadian" within the meaning of the Investment Canada Act (Canada) and to a Non-Resident and may require any Person to provide evidence reasonably satisfactory to it that such Person is not within either category. Without limiting the foregoing, the General Partners shall not issue Partnership Units to a Person unless such Person has executed a Power of Attorney or a Transfer Form, as may be applicable. If, for any reason the General Partners refuse to issue Partnership Units to a Person, the General Partners shall forthwith cause the Partnership to return to the Person the consideration tendered for such Partnership Unit(s) without interest or deduction.

Upon execution by the Majority General Partner of any Subscription Agreement or upon the Acquisition, all Partners will be deemed to consent to the admission of the subscriber or Person as a Partner, the Majority General Partner will execute this Agreement on behalf of such Person, will cause the Record, and such other documents as may be required to be filed or amended under the Act or legislation similar to the Act in other provinces or territories, including as required to afford, to the extent possible, limited liability, to be amended specifying the prescribed information and will cause the foregoing information in respect of the new Partner to be included in the Register and other Partnership books and records. As provided in Section 3.9, upon the entering of the Person's name in the Record, the Person will be admitted to the Partnership as a Partner and will be entitled to all of the other rights accruing to a Limited Partner under this Agreement and the Partnership Units in respect of such subscription or in respect of the Acquisition will thereupon be deemed to be issued.

3.7 Payment of Expenses

The Partnership shall pay all expenses incurred in connection with the entering into of this Agreement, including, without limitation, the registration of the Partnership under the Act and similar legislation in other jurisdictions in Canada and the sale and issuance of the Partnership Units from time to time, including without limitation on the Acquisition.

The rights and obligations of a Person as a Partner under this Agreement commence and are enforceable by and upon the Partner as between the Partner and the other Partners from the date on which the Record is amended as required under the Act, adding such Partner as a Partner of the Partnership and Partnership Units will thereupon be deemed to be issued.

3.10 Register of Partners

The Majority General Partner shall at all times maintain, or cause to be maintained by a registrar and transfer agent which may be appointed by the Majority General Partner, a Register of Partners in the City of Calgary which shall contain the name and address of each Partner and the number and class of Partnership Units held by each Partner.

3.11 Changes in Membership of Partnership or Information Concerning Partners

No change of name or address of a Partner, no transfer of a Partnership Unit of a Partner and no admission of a substituted Partner in the Partnership shall be effective for the purposes of this Agreement until all reasonable requirements as determined by the General Partners with respect thereto have been met and until such change, transfer, substitution or addition is duly reflected in an amendment to the Record prepared and recorded as may be required by the Act. The names and addresses of the Partners as reflected from time to time in the Record, as from time to time amended, shall be conclusive as to such facts for all purposes of the Partnership.

3.12 Notice of Change to Majority General Partner

No name or address of a Partner shall be changed and no transfer, substitution or addition of a Partnership Unit of a Limited Partner shall be recorded on the Record except pursuant to a notice in writing received by the Majority General Partner.

Subject to Section 3.11, the Majority General Partner shall, on or before the last Business Day of each calendar quarter, prepare and file or record an amendment to the Record or to any similar document required to be filed or maintained under the Act or under similar legislation in other provinces to reflect as required the receipt of any notice from any Partner requiring the filing or recording of an amendment to such Record or other document.

3.14 Inspection of Register

A Partner, or an agent of a Partner duly authorized in writing, has the right to inspect and make extracts from the Register of Partners or Record during normal business hours and, upon payment of a reasonable fee to the Majority General Partner or Registrar and Transfer Agent, to obtain a copy of the Register of Partners or the Record in accordance with and as required by applicable laws.

3.15 Transfer of Partnership Units

Subject to the prior written consent of the Majority General Partner and to the prior consent of The Toronto Stock Exchange, and subject to the provisions of Sections 3.13, 3.20, 3.22 and 9.4, Partnership Units may be transferred by a General Partner or his or her agent duly authorized in writing to any Person. Such Person shall not be recorded on the Register as the holder of the Partnership Units so transferred nor, if such Person is not a Partner, be entitled to become a Partner unless such Person has delivered to the Majority General Partner a Transfer Form completed and executed in a manner acceptable to the Majority General Partner.

The Majority General Partners has the right to deny the transfer of Partnership Units including, without limitation, any transfer to a Non-Resident or a partnership that is not a "Canadian partnership" within the meaning of the Tax Act and the right to deny the transfer of Partnership Units where the transferee has made the borrowings described in Section 2.6(b)(iii). No such Person will become a General Partner until all filings and recordings required by the Act and this Agreement have been duly made. Any transfer of a Partnership Unit shall be at the expense of the transferee (provided however that the Partnership shall be responsible for all costs in relation to the preparation of any amendment to the Record and similar documents in other jurisdictions). No transfer of a Partnership Unit shall relieve the transferor from any obligations to the Partnership incurred prior to the transfer becoming effective. Where the transferee complies with the provisions aforesaid and is entitled to become a General Partner pursuant to the provisions hereof, subject to Section 3.11 the Majority General Partner shall be authorized to admit the transferee to the Partnership as a Partner and the Partners hereby consent to the admission of, and will admit, the transferee to the Partnership as a General Partner, without further act of the Partners (other than as may be required by law). Holders of Class C Units are entitled to exchange their Class C Units in consideration for Class B Units and/or cash pursuant to and subject to the terms and conditions set out in the Exchange Agreement. The Exchange Agreement is hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement to the extent that it provides for this exchange right and is, to such extent, deemed to be a part of this Agreement for all purposes.

3.17 Form of Transfer

The Transfer Form shall be signed by the transferor (whose endorsement thereon shall be guaranteed by a Canadian chartered bank, a trust company qualified to carry on business in the Province of Ontario, a member of The Investment Dealers Association of Canada or a member of The Toronto Stock Exchange or TSX Venture Exchange) and by the transferee and shall be accompanied by the certificate(s), if any, issued by the Partnership representing the Partnership Units to be transferred. The Majority General Partner shall, to the extent that it and The Toronto Stock Exchange consents to the transfer, execute the consent on the Transfer Form.

3.18 Additional Documentation on Transfer

If a transferor of Partnership Units is a firm or a corporation, or purports to assign such Partnership Units in any representative capacity, or if an assignment results from the death, mental incapacity or bankruptcy of a Partner or is otherwise involuntary, the transferor or his or her legal representative shall furnish to the Majority General Partner such documents, certificates, assurances, court orders and other instruments as the Majority General Partner may reasonably require to effect the said transfer and assignment.

3.19 Amendment of Declaration or Record

The Majority General Partner shall from time to time in accordance with this Agreement effect filings, recordings, registrations and amendments to the Record and the Declaration and to such other documents and at such places as in the opinion of counsel to the Partnership are necessary or advisable to reflect changes in the membership of the Partnership, transfers of Partnership Units and dissolution of the Partnership as herein provided and to constitute a transferee as a Partner.

3.20 Non-Recognition of Trusts or Beneficial Interests

Partnership Units may be held by nominees on behalf of the beneficial owners thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, but subject to Section 3.9, except as required by law, no Person will be recognized by the Partnership or any Partner as holding any Partnership Unit in trust, and the Partnership and Partners will not be bound or compelled in any way to recognize (even when having actual notice) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any Partnership Unit or in any fractional part of a Partnership Unit or any other rights in respect of any Partnership Unit except an absolute right to the entirety of the Partnership Unit in the Partner shown on the Record as holder of such Partnership Unit.

3.21 Incapacity, Death, Insolvency or Bankruptcy

Where a Person becomes entitled to Partnership Units on the incapacity, death, insolvency, or bankruptcy of a Partner, or otherwise by operation of law, in addition to the requirements of Sections 3.11, 3.12, 3.15, 3.16, and 3.17 such entitlement will not be recognized or entered into the Record until such Person:

- (a) has produced evidence satisfactory to the Majority General Partner of such entitlement;
- (b) has agreed in writing to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and to assume the obligations of a Partner under this Agreement; and
- (c) has delivered such other evidence, approvals and consents in respect to such entitlement as the Majority General Partner may require and as may be required by law or by this Agreement.

3.22 No Transfer of Fractions

No transfer of a fraction of a Partnership Unit may be made or will be accepted or entered into the Record.

3.24 Pledge of Partnership Units

Notwithstanding Section 3.19, a Partner may pledge or hypothecate Partnership Units held by him or her as security for a loan to, or an obligation of, the Partner and, if the Partnership Units are so pledged or hypothecated, the Majority General Partner will, upon receipt by the Majority General Partner of a written request from the Partner, deliver a written acknowledgment to the Person specified by the Partner in the written request acknowledging the pledge or hypothecation and confirming that, upon receipt by the Majority General Partner of a written order from such Person setting forth an address for service, all distributions by the Partnership in respect of the Partnership Units following the receipt by the Majority General Partner of the written order will be made to such Person at the address set forth therein until such Person delivers a release of the acknowledgment to the Majority General Partner; and the Partner, by delivering the written request to the Majority General Partner, hereby authorizes the Majority General Partner to make, and consents to the making of, all such distributions pursuant to the written order.

3.25 Subdivision or Consolidation of Partnership Units

The General Partners may at any time subdivide or consolidate the Partnership Units on such basis as the General Partners in their discretion may determine. After any subdivision or consolidation, the General Partners shall give to each Partner such notice thereof as the Majority General Partner in its discretion may consider reasonable in the circumstances.

Where the consolidation or subdivision of Partnership Units into whole Partnership Units of a different value results in a fraction of a Partnership Unit, a Partner will not be entitled to be entered in the Record or the Register in respect of the fraction of a Partnership Unit or to receive a certificate therefor, or to receive cash in lieu of the issue of a fraction of a Partnership Unit.

- (c) Where an Offeror is entitled to acquire Class B Units held by Dissenting Unitholders pursuant to Section (b), and the Offeror wishes to exercise that right, the Offeror will send by registered mail within 30 days after the date of expiry of the Offer a notice (the "Offeror's Notice") to each Dissenting Unitholder stating that:

- (h) An Offeror will not be entitled to rely on the provisions of this Section 3.26 unless, concurrent with the communications of the Offer to any Unitholders, a copy of the Offer is provided to the Majority General Partner.

ARTICLE 4 CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS AND ACCOUNTS

4.1 Capital

The capital of the Partnership consists of the aggregate of the Capital Contributions contributed by the Partners and not returned to them.

4.2 Initial Limited Partner Contribution

The Initial Limited Partner has contributed the sum of $20.00 to the capital of the Partnership in full satisfaction of its Capital Contribution and has received one (1) Class A Unit. The Majority General Partner has also contributed the sum of $20.00 to the capital of the Partnership in full satisfaction of its Capital Contribution and has received one (1) Class A Unit. Upon completion of the Acquisition, the Partnership Units issued to the Initial Limited Partner and the Majority General Partner will not be redeemed and the Initial Limited Partners' and the Majority General Partners' Capital Contributions will not be returned. The Majority General Partner confirms that the Initial Limited Partner and the Majority General Partner need not provide a Subscription Agreement in connection with these Partnership Units.

Further, on or about the Closing Date of the Acquisition, or within a reasonable period of time thereafter:

- (a) The Initial Limited Partner will contribute approximately $20.00 to the Partnership, (provided that such amount shall be determined and agreed to in the Acquisition Agreement) in consideration for a number of Class A Units equal to the value to the amount so contributed divided by $20; and
- (b) FirstPro will contribute the Property in consideration for (i) cash; (ii) the assumption of debt; (iii) the issuance of such number of Class B Units equal to the balance of the value of the Property transferred less all debt assumed divided by $19.85; and (iv) the issuance of such number of Class C Units equal to 40% of the future estimated earn out value of future developments currently contemplated on the property being acquired under the Acquisition divided by $20.10.

Further, the Partnership, the Initial Limited Partner and FirstPro agree to co-operate in the filing of elections under sections 97(2) and 22 of the Tax Act and under section 167 of the Excise Tax Act.

4.3 Partner Contributions

The Capital Contribution of each Partner shall be the subscription price for Partnership Units paid by that Partner, provided that the Capital Contribution for Class C Units shall be deemed to be $0.0001.

4.4 Separate Capital Accounts

The Majority General Partner will maintain a separate capital account for each Partner holding Class A Units or Class B Units and will credit the account of a Partner with the Capital Contribution determined for the Partner under Section 4.3 and will debit the account with the amount of any capital contribution actually returned from time to time by the Partnership to the Partner. The interest of a Partner will not terminate by reason of there being a debit or nil balance in the Partner's account. No Partner shall be responsible for any losses of any other Limited Partner, nor share in the allocation of income or loss attributable to the Partnership Units of any other Limited Partner.

4.5 No Interest on Capital Account

The Partnership will not pay interest on any credit balance of the capital account of a Partner. Except as provided in this Agreement or the Act or similar applicable legislation in Canada, no Partner is required to pay interest to the Partnership on any Capital Contribution returned to the Partner or on any debit balance in his or her capital account.

ARTICLE 5 PARTICIPATION IN PROFITS AND LOSSES

5.1 Expenses of the Partnership

The Partnership will reimburse the General Partners for all direct costs and expenses incurred on the Partnership's behalf by the General Partners in the performance of its duties hereunder, but specifically excluding expenses of any action, suit or other proceedings in which or in relation to which the General Partners are adjudged to be in breach of any duty or responsibility imposed on it hereunder. In addition, the Partnership will reimburse the General Partners for all indirect costs, including general office and administrative expenses, reasonably allocable to the Partnership. The Partnership will be responsible for the payment of any goods and services tax, if any, with respect to fees paid to the General Partners.

5.2 Allocation of Net Income and Loss for Tax Purposes

The Income for Tax Purposes or Loss for Tax Purposes for a given Fiscal Year shall be calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act and the maximum discretionary deductions available to the Partnership in computing its income shall be claimed to the extent such deductions reduce the taxable income of the Partnership, but not to the extent such deductions would create a loss for purposes of the Tax Act. Such Income for Tax Purposes or Loss for Tax Purposes from each source for that Fiscal Year, and all other items of income, gain, loss, deduction, recapture and credit of the Partnership, which are allocable for the purposes of the Tax Act and other relevant taxing statutes, shall be allocated to the Partners (including, for greater certainty, Partners who become or cease to be Partners during the Fiscal Year of the Partnership) in an amount calculated by multiplying the aggregate amount to be allocated among the Partners by a fraction, the numerator of which is the sum of the cash distributions received by that Partner and the aggregate amount of any loans made by the Partnership to that Partner in lieu of a distribution pursuant to subsection 5.5(d) with respect to that Fiscal Year, and the denominator of which is the total amount of the cash distributions and the aggregate amount of all loans under subsection 5.5(d) made by the Partnership to all Partners with respect to that Fiscal Year. For greater certainty, a cash distribution made by the Partnership to a partner in a year that is used to repay a loan made pursuant to subsection 5.5(d) shall not be included as a cash distribution received by the Partner for the purposes of this section 5.2.

The income or loss of the Partnership for accounting purposes for a given Fiscal Year shall be allocated among the Partners in the same proportion as Income for Tax Purposes or Loss for Tax Purposes is allocated for such Fiscal Year.

5.3 Amount of Income Allocated

The amount of income allocated to a Partner may exceed or be less than the amount of cash distributed by the Partnership to that Partner in respect of a given Fiscal Year.

5.4 Where No Cash Distribution

If, with respect to a given Partnership Fiscal Year, no cash distribution is made by the Partnership to its Partners, the Income for Tax Purposes or Loss for Tax Purposes from each source for that Fiscal Year will be allocated as follows:

- (a) as to 0.01%, to the Majority General Partner;
- (b) as to 0.01%, to the holders of the Class C Units, pro rata among them in accordance with the number of units held by each such Partner; and
- (c) as to the remainder, to the holders of the Class A Units and the Class B units pro rata among them in accordance with the number of units held by each such Partner.

5.5 Distributions

- (a) The Partnership will distribute to the Partners whose names appear on the Record on the last day of each month, all of the Distributable Cash available to the Partnership for distribution and such distributions shall be allocated among the partners as follows:
 - (i) as to 0.01%, to the Majority General Partner;
 - (ii) as to 0.01%, to the holders of the Class C Units, pro rata among them in accordance with the number of units held by each such Partner;
 - (iii) to the holders of the Class B Units, such amounts as are necessary such that the amount distributed in respect of each such Partner is equal to the amount that the REIT would have distributed to such Partner if each Class B Unit owned by such Partner were a Unit of the REIT; and
 - (iv) as to the remaining Distributable Cash, to the holders of the Class A Units, pro rata among them in accordance with the number of units owned by each such Partner.
- (b) The Partnership may, in addition, make a distribution at any other time. For greater certainty, distributions that are made after the end of a Fiscal Year, but which are payable on or before the end of that Fiscal Year will be deemed to be distributions with respect to that Fiscal Year for purposes of Article 5.
- (c) Notwithstanding Section 5.5(a), distributions to Unitholders' shall be made net of any applicable withholding taxes. Any amount withheld on account of withholding taxes applicable to distributions to the holders of Partnership Units shall be considered to have been distributed to the holders of Partnership Units for the purposes of this Agreement.
- (d) Notwithstanding subsection 5.5(a), each Partner may, in lieu of receiving the distributions described above at the time indicated above, choose to be loaned amounts from the Partnership equal to those amounts which would otherwise have been distributed, and to have the aggregate of all distributions described above made to it on the first Business Day following the end of the Fiscal Year in which such distributions would otherwise have been made. Each loan made in a Fiscal Year will not bear interest and will be due and payable in full on the first Business Day following the end of the Fiscal Year during which the loan was made. Any Person who has received loans in lieu of distributions in a Fiscal Year in which such Person has ceased to be a Partner shall receive distributions on the first Business Day following the end of that Fiscal Year equal to the amount that would otherwise have been distributed to such Person during that portion of the Fiscal Year in which such Person was a Partner. With respect to amounts distributed to a Partner or a person who has ceased to be a Partner at any time after the making of a loan to a Partner pursuant to this subsection (d), the Partner shall be deemed to have irrevocably directed that the amount of any such distribution first be applied to repay loans previously advanced.

- (e) The calculation of Distributable Cash will be derived from the audited financial statements of the Partnership in respect of the applicable fiscal year, forthwith following the approval of such financial statements by the Majority General Partner, and will be calculated and adjusted on a monthly basis in a manner consistent with the definition of Distributable Cash.
- (f) Distributions payable pursuant to this Section 5.5 will be paid in cash or other immediately available funds. Any payment to a Partner pursuant to this Agreement will be conclusively deemed to have been made upon mailing of a cheque in a postage pre-paid envelope, addressed to the Partner at the Partner's address appearing in the Record, unless such cheque is dishonoured upon presentment. Upon such payment, the General Partners will be discharged from all liability to the Partner in respect of such payment; provided, however, that if such cheque is lost or destroyed then, upon the presentation of evidence satisfactory to the General Partners of such loss or destruction, together with such indemnity as the General Partners may reasonably require, the General Partners will issue a replacement cheque to the Partner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the General Partners, in lieu of forwarding or causing to be forwarded a cheque, may enter into an agreement with a Partner providing for the payment to such Partner of amounts hereunder by electronic funds transfer or by any other method at a place or places other than the place or places specified herein. Any payment of any amount pursuant to such agreement will, notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, be valid and binding on the General Partners, the Partnership and the relevant Partner.

5.6 Repayments

If, as determined by the Auditor it appears that any Partner has received an amount under this Article 5 that is in excess of that Partner's entitlement hereunder, the Partner will, promptly upon notice from the Majority General Partner, reimburse the Partnership to the extent of the excess.

5.7 Tax Matters

The Partnership shall be treated as a limited partnership for federal, provincial and municipal income tax and other tax purposes. The Majority General Partner shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, any federal, provincial and municipal tax or information returns required to be filed by the Partnership and all financial statements required by each Partner to enable the filing of any tax or information return which is required to be filed by such Partner.

5.8 Set-off

The Partnership may set off any of its obligations to make distributions to any of the Partners against any liabilities or obligations of such Partners to the Partnership under this Agreement.

5.9 Distribution of Assets

Notwithstanding Section 5.2, where assets of the Partnership are distributed in kind to a Partner and the distribution results in Income for Tax Purposes or Loss for Tax Purposes to the Partnership, for the purposes of computing the Income for Tax Purposes or Loss for Tax Purposes of a Partner, the income or amount shall be allocated to the Partner receiving the distribution, unless the Partners otherwise agree.

ARTICLE 6 WITHDRAWAL AND RETURN OF CAPITAL CONTRIBUTIONS

6.1 Withdrawal

No Partner has the right to withdraw any of his or her Capital Contribution or other amount or to receive any cash or other distribution from the Partnership except as provided for in this Agreement and except as permitted by law.

6.2 Return of Capital Contribution

POWER OF ATTORNEY FORM

All capitalized terms contained herein and not otherwise defined have the same meaning as assigned thereto in the Limited Partnership Agreement made as of the 15th day of June, 2005 between CALLOWAY GP INC., a corporation incorporated under the laws of the Province of Alberta, as the Majority General Partner, CALLOWAY HOLDINGS TRUST as Initial Limited Partner and each person who is admitted to the Partnership as a limited partner in accordance with the provisions thereof, as from time to time amended.

The Person who has executed this Form (the "undersigned"), by executing this Form, agrees, as a part of the Acquisition which will result in the undersigned receiving Partnership Units, to be bound as a Partner in the Partnership by the terms of the partnership agreement of the Partnership (the "Partnership Agreement"), as from time to time amended, supplemented or replaced as if the undersigned had personally executed the Partnership Agreement, and hereby ratifies, for all legal purposes, the execution of the Partnership Agreement and all other actions taken on the undersigned's behalf by the Majority General Partner in connection with the Partnership. In addition, the undersigned agrees as follows:

1. In consideration of the Majority General Partner accepting this Form and conditional thereon the undersigned: (a) agrees to be bound as a Partner in the Partnership by the terms of the Partnership Agreement as from time to time amended, supplemented or replaced and in effect and expressly grants the power of attorney given to the Majority General Partner in Section 2.10 thereof; (b) irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints the Majority General Partner, with full power of substitution, as his or her agent and true and lawful attorney to act on his or her behalf, with full power and authority in his or her name, place and stead to execute, record or file, as and where required, (i) the Partnership Agreement, the Record of Partners maintained by the Majority General Partner and any amendments thereto and any other instruments listed in the Partnership Agreement, and (ii) any tax elections or forms relating to the Partnership, including any election under subsection 97(2) of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and, if applicable, the corresponding provision of the Taxation Act (Quebec), in respect of the disposition by a security holder as transferor of limited partnership units of a limited partnership in exchange for Partnership Units; and (c) consents to the Majority General Partner, on behalf of the Partnership, applying for orders from relevant securities regulatory authorities exempting it from any requirements (i) to prepare and file with such authorities or forward to the Partners reports and financial statements for the first and third quarters of each fiscal year, and (ii) to hold annual meetings of Partners.
2. The power of attorney granted herein shall survive the transfer, but only to the extent of the obligations of a Partner hereunder, by the Partner, of the whole or any part of the interest of the Partner in the Partnership and may be exercised by the Majority General Partner on behalf of each Partner in executing any instrument necessary or desirable to give effect to such transfer. The undersigned agrees to be bound by any actions made or taken by the Majority General Partner pursuant to this power of attorney and hereby waives any and all causes of action and defences which may be available to negate or disaffirm the action of the Majority General Partner taken in good faith under this power of attorney. The power of attorney granted in this Form is not intended to be a continuing power of attorney within the meaning of the Substitute Decisions Act (Ontario), exercisable during a Partner's incapacity to manage property, or any similar power of attorney under equivalent legislation in any of the provinces or territories of Canada (a "CPOA"). The execution of this Form shall not terminate any such CPOA executed by the Partner previously and this power of attorney shall not be terminated by the execution by the Partner in the future of a CPOA, and the Partner hereby agrees not to take any action in future which results in the termination of this power of attorney.
3. The undersigned represents and warrants that: (a) he or she has the capacity and competence, and if a corporation, the necessary corporate authority, to enter into the Partnership Agreement and this Form; (b) he or she is not, and is not holding Partnership Units on behalf of, a non-resident of Canada within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada) and if such Partner is itself a partnership, that each of its partners is not a "Non-Resident" within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada); (c) he or she has not made any borrowings to finance the acquisition of Partnership Units which are "limited recourse amounts" within the meaning of the Income Tax Act (Canada); and (d) he or she shall ensure that his or her status set forth in (b) and the status of any borrowings referred to in (c) shall not be modified and he or she shall not knowingly transfer his or her Partnership Units in whole or in part to a Person who is not able to make these representations and warranties.

4. The undersigned acknowledges that the transferability of Partnership Units is limited as follows. Any transfer of Partnership Units will become effective for the purposes of the Partnership Agreement on the recording of an amendment to the Record of the Partnership, which will be filed or recorded on or before the last Business Day of a calendar quarter in the case of a completed Transfer Form received by the Majority General Partner more than 15 days prior to the end of such calendar quarter, or on or before the last Business Day of the next calendar quarter, in the case of a completed Transfer Form received by the Majority General Partner within 15 days of the end of a calendar quarter.
5. This power of attorney shall continue in respect of the Majority General Partner so long as it is the Majority General Partner of the Partnership, and shall terminate thereafter but shall continue in respect of a new Majority General Partner as if the new Majority General Partner were the original attorney. If the undersigned is a partnership, the undersigned confirms that any authority granted herein, whether by attorney or otherwise, is granted on behalf of such partnership by each of the partners thereof and hereby represents and warrants that the undersigned has the power and authority to execute this Form and to confer such authority hereunder on behalf of each such partner.
6. The undersigned acknowledges that he or she will become a Partner in the Partnership upon the issuance of Partnership Units pursuant to the Acquisition, and upon the registration of such Partnership Units in the name of the Majority General Partner as nominee on the Partner's behalf.
7. All capitalized terms used in this Form have the meaning provided in the Partnership Agreement as from time to time amended, supplemented or replaced unless the context otherwise requires. The undersigned confirms that he or she has requested that this Form, the Partnership Agreement and all related documents be in the English language only. Le cessionnaire confirme avoir exigé que le présent formulaire de transfert, la convention de société en commandite ainsi que tous les documents y afférents, y compris le certificat de parts de la société en commandite, soient en anglais seulement.
8. If the undersigned previously granted a power of attorney with respect to the Partnership, such power of attorney shall be deemed to be revoked upon the granting of this power of attorney.
9. The undersigned hereby acknowledges that the Partnership Agreement and this Power of Attorney will be governed and construed exclusively by the laws of the Province of Alberta and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

ARTICLE 2 - THE DEBT SECURITIES

2.01 Limitation on Issue and Designation

The aggregate principal amount of Debt Securities which may be authorized, issued and certified under this Indenture will be unlimited; provided however that the Debt Securities may be issued under this Indenture only upon the terms and subject to the conditions in this Indenture. The Debt Securities may be issued in one or more series as provided in this Indenture.

2.02 Issuance in Series

(1) Subject to Section 2.01, Debt Securities may be issued in one or more series pursuant to this Indenture and Supplemental Indentures delivered in accordance with the terms of this Indenture. The Debt Securities of each series (a) will have such designation, (b) may be subject to a limitation of the maximum principal amount authorized for issuance, (c) will be issued in such denominations, (d) may be purchased and payable as to principal, Premium (if any) and interest at such place or places and in such currency or currencies, (e) will bear such date or dates and mature on such date or dates, (f) will indicate the portion (if less than all of the principal amount) of such Debt Securities to be payable on declaration of acceleration of maturity, (g) will bear interest at such rate or rates (which may be fixed or variable) payable on such date or dates, (h) may provide for record dates for interest payable on Registered Debt Securities, (i) may contain mandatory or optional redemption or sinking fund provisions, including the period or periods within which, the price or prices at which and the terms and conditions upon which the Debt Securities may be redeemed or purchased at the option of the Fund or otherwise, (j) may contain conversion or exchange terms, (k) may be issued at par or at a percentage of the principal amount thereof and, if so provided in this Indenture or in a Supplemental Indenture applicable thereto, may be redeemed at par or a percentage of the principal amount thereof (with or without a Premium), (l) may be issued in registered form or bearer form or both and, if issuable in bearer form, the restrictions as to the offer, sale and delivery of the Debt Securities in bearer form and as to exchanges between registered and bearer form, (m) may be issuable in the form of one or more registered global securities and, if so, will identify the depository for such registered global securities, (n) will contain each office or agency at which the principal of, Premium (if any) and interest on the Debt Securities will be payable, and each office or agency at which the Debt Securities may be presented for registration of transfer or exchange, (o) may contain covenants and events of default in addition to Events of Default and (p) may contain such other provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture, as may be determined by resolution of the Trustees passed at or before the time of the issue of the Debt Securities of such series and such other provisions (to the extent as the Trustees may deem appropriate) as are contained in the Debt Securities of such series. The execution by the Fund of the Debt Securities of such series and the delivery thereof to the Indenture Trustee for certification will be conclusive evidence of the inclusion of the provisions authorized by this Section 2.02(1).

(2) Before the issuance of any series of Debt Securities (other than the Series A Debenture provided for in Article 3 hereof), the Fund will execute and deliver to the Indenture Trustee a Supplemental Indenture for the purpose of establishing the terms of such Debt Securities and the forms and denominations in which they may be issued. In addition, before the issuance of any series of Debt Securities, the Fund will deliver to the Trustee a certified resolution of the Trustees authorizing the issuance of such Debt Securities. The Indenture Trustee will execute and deliver each Supplemental Indenture pursuant to Article 14.

(3) Whenever any series of Debt Securities has been authorized, Debt Securities in such series may from time to time be executed by the Fund and delivered to the Indenture Trustee and, subject to Section 2.02(4), will be certified and delivered by the Indenture Trustee to or to the order of the Fund upon receipt by the Indenture Trustee of:

- (a) a certified resolution of the Trustees authorizing the issuance of a specified principal amount of Debt Securities of such series;
- (b) a Certificate to the effect that there is no existing Event of Default or event which with the giving of notice or passage of time or both would constitute an Event of Default and the Fund has complied with all other conditions of this Indenture in connection with the issue of such series;
- (c) a Written Order for the certification and delivery of such series of Debt Securities specifying the principal amount of the Debt Securities to be certified and delivered; and
- (d) an opinion of counsel to the Fund addressed to the Indenture Trustee to the effect that the issuance of the Debt Securities of such series has been duly authorized, that all conditions in this Section 2.02(3) have been complied with and that such Debt Securities have been duly executed and delivered by the Fund.

(4) No Debt Securities will be certified or delivered under this Indenture if an Event of Default has occurred under Section 7.01(6) or a declaration has been made by the Indenture Trustee under Section 7.03, unless it has been waived in accordance with Section 7.04.

2.03 Forms of Debt Securities

(1) The Debt Securities of any series may be of different denominations and forms (either Coupon Debt Securities or Registered Debt Securities or both) and may contain such variations of tenor and effect, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Indenture, as are incidental to such differences of denomination and form, including variations in the provisions for the exchange of Debt Securities of different denominations or forms and in the provisions for the registration or transfer of Debt Securities and, subject to the provisions of any series of Debt Securities, may consist of Debt Securities having different dates of issue, difference dates of maturity, different interest payment dates, different rates of interest and/or different redemption terms (if any), than are the case for any other series of Debt Securities.

(2) Subject to Section 2.03(1) and to any limitation as to the maximum principal amount of Debt Securities of any particular series, any Debt Securities may be issued as part of any series of Debt Securities previously issued, in which case they will bear the same designation and designating letters as those applied to such similar previous issue and will be numbered consecutively upwards in respect of such denominations of Debt Securities in like manner and following the numbers of the Debt Securities of such previous issue.

(3) All series of Debt Securities which may at any time be issued under this Indenture and the Coupons (if any) attached or appertaining thereto and the certificate of the Indenture Trustee endorsed on such Debt Securities may be in English or any other language or languages or any combination thereof, and may be in the form or forms provided in any schedule hereto or in any Supplemental Indenture or in such other language or languages and in such form or forms as the Trustees by resolution determine at the time of first issue of any series or part of a series of such Debt Securities, as approved by the Indenture Trustee, the approval of which will be conclusively evidenced by its certification of the Debt Securities.

(4) If any provision of the Debt Securities or Coupons in a language other than English is susceptible of an interpretation different from the equivalent provision of the English language, the interpretation of such provision in the English language will be determinative.

(5) The Debt Securities and Coupons may be typed, engraved, printed, lithographed or reproduced in a different form, or partly in one form and partly in another, as the Fund may determine. The execution of any such Debt Securities or Coupons by the Fund and the certification by the Indenture Trustee of any such Debt Securities will be conclusive evidence that such Debt Securities and Coupons are Debt Securities and Coupons authorized by this Indenture.

2.04 Debt Securities to Rank Equally

The Debt Securities will be direct senior unsecured obligations of the Fund and will rank equally and rateably with all other Debt Securities, regardless of their actual date or terms of issue, and with all other unsecured and unsubordinated indebtedness of the Fund, except to the extent prescribed by law.

2.05 Execution

The Debt Securities will be executed on behalf of the Fund by the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, or either one of them and such other officer as may be designated by the Trustees. The signature of such proper officers on the Debt Securities may be manual or mechanically reproduced in facsimile. Debt Securities and Coupons bearing facsimile signatures will be binding upon the Fund as if they had been manually signed at the time such facsimile signature is reproduced. The Fund will from time to time execute and deliver Debt Securities to the Indenture Trustee. Debt Securities or Coupons bearing the manual or facsimile signature of an individual who was at the time of execution a proper officer of the Fund will be valid and binding even though that individual has ceased to hold such office before the certification and delivery of such Debt Securities or Coupons.

2.06 Countersignature by Indenture Trustee

(1) Subject to the terms and conditions in this Indenture, the Indenture Trustee, from time to time upon receipt by the Indenture Trustee of a Written Order, will certify and make available Debt Securities in the manner specified in the Written Order, without the Indenture Trustee receiving any consideration therefor.

(2) No Debt Security will be entitled to any right or benefit under this Indenture or be valid or obligatory for any purpose unless it has been certified by or on behalf of the Indenture

Trustee substantially in the form provided for in the relevant Supplemental Indenture. Such certification upon any Debt Security will be conclusive evidence, and the only evidence, that such Debt Security has been duly certified, issued and delivered.

(3) The certificate by or on behalf of the Indenture Trustee will not be construed as a representation or warranty of the Indenture Trustee as to the validity of this Indenture or of a Debt Security or its issuance (except the due certification thereof by the Indenture Trustee) or as to the performance by the Fund of its obligations under this Indenture or the Debt Securities and the Indenture Trustee will be in no respect liable or answerable for the use made of the proceeds of such Debt Security. The certificate by or on behalf of the Indenture Trustee on Debt Securities issued under this Indenture will constitute a representation and warranty by the Indenture Trustee that such Debt Securities have been duly certified by and on behalf of the Indenture Trustee pursuant to the provisions of this Indenture.

2.07 Concerning Interest

(1) Every Registered Debt Security, whether issued originally or in exchange or in substitution for previously issued Debt Securities, will bear interest from and including the later of (i) its date of issue and (ii) the last Interest Payment Date on which interest has been paid or made available for payment on the outstanding Debt Securities of the same series.

(2) Subject to accrual of any interest on unpaid interest from time to time, interest on each Debt Security will cease to accrue from the earlier of (i) the maturity date of such Debt Security and (ii) if such Debt Security is called for redemption, the date fixed for redemption; unless, in each case, upon due presentation and surrender of such Debt Security for payment on or after the maturity date or the date fixed for redemption, as the case may be, such payment is improperly withheld or refused.

(3) If the date for payment of any amount of principal or interest is not a Business Day at the place of payment, then payment will be made on the next Business Day and Debentureholders will not be entitled to any further interest on such principal, or to any interest on such interest or other amount so payable in respect of the period from the date for payment to such next Business Day.

(4) The Coupons (if any), matured at the date of delivery by the Indenture Trustee of any Coupon Debt Security registered as to principal only will be detached therefrom and cancelled before delivery, unless such Debt Security is being issued in exchange or in substitution for another Debt Security (whether in interim or definitive form) and such matured Coupons represent unpaid interest to which the holder of such exchanged or substituted Debt Security is entitled.

(5) Wherever in this Indenture or the Debt Securities or Coupons there is mention, in any context, of the payment of interest, such mention is deemed to include the payment of interest on amounts in default to the extent that, in such context, such interest is, was or would be payable pursuant to this Indenture or the Debt Securities, and express mention of interest on amounts in default in any of the provisions of this Indenture will not be construed as excluding such interest in those provisions of this Indenture where such express mention is not made.

(6) Unless otherwise stated, wherever reference is made in this Indenture to a rate of interest "per annum" or a similar expression is used, the interest will be calculated on the basis of the actual number of days based on a calendar year of 365 or 366 days, as the case may be.

2.08 Payment of Interest in respect of Debt Securities

Except as may be provided in any Supplemental Indenture or in any series of Debt Securities, payment of interest due upon the principal amount of each interest-bearing Debt Security (except interest payable on maturity or redemption of a Debt Security which, at the option of the Fund, may be paid upon presentation of such Debt Security for payment), will be made on the applicable Interest Payment Date in the following manner. The Fund (either directly or through the Indenture Trustee or any agent of the Indenture Trustee), at least two Business Days before each Interest Payment Date, will forward or cause to be forwarded by prepaid ordinary mail (or in the event of mail service interruption, by such other means as the Indenture Trustee and the Fund determine to be appropriate), a cheque for such interest (less any tax required by law to be deducted) payable to the holder of such Debt Security for the time being at the address appearing on the Register described in Article 4 unless otherwise directed in writing by the holder or, in the case of registered joint holders, payable to all such joint holders and addressed to one of them at the last address appearing in the applicable Register and negotiable at par at each of the places at which interest upon such Debt Securities is payable. The forwarding of such cheque will satisfy and discharge the liability for the interest on such Debt Securities to the extent of the sum represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax deducted as aforesaid) unless such cheque is not paid on presentation at any of the places at which such interest is payable. In the event of the non-receipt of such cheque by the applicable Debtholder or the loss, theft or destruction thereof, the Fund, upon being furnished with evidence of such non-receipt, loss, theft or destruction and indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it, will issue or cause to be issued to such Debtholder a replacement cheque for the amount of such cheque. Upon a written request to do so by a Debtholder holding at least $5 million aggregate principal amount (or such lesser amount as the Fund may agree) of Debt Securities, the Fund, at its option, may cause the amount payable in respect of interest to be paid to such Debtholder by wire transfer to an account maintained by such Debtholder or any other method acceptable to the Fund.

2.09 Payments of Amounts Due on Maturity

Except as may otherwise be provided in any Supplemental Indenture or in any series of Debt Securities, payments of amounts due upon maturity of the Debt Securities will be made in the following manner. The Fund will establish and maintain a Debt Account for each series of Debt Securities. On or before 4:00 p.m. (Toronto time) on the Business Day before each maturity date for Debt Securities outstanding from time to time under this Indenture, the Fund will deposit in the applicable Debt Account an amount sufficient to pay the amount payable in respect of such Debt Securities (less any tax required by law to be deducted). The Fund (either directly or through the Indenture Trustee or any agent of the Indenture Trustee) will pay to each holder entitled to receive payment, the principal amount of and Premium (if any) on the Debt Security, upon surrender of the Debt Security at any branch of the Indenture Trustee designated for such purpose from time to time by the Fund and the Indenture Trustee. The deposit or making available of such amounts to the applicable Debt Account will satisfy and discharge the liability of the Fund for the Debt Security to which the deposit or making available of funds relates to the extent of the amount deposited or made available (plus the amount of any tax deducted as aforesaid) and such Debt Security will thereafter not be considered as outstanding under this Indenture and such holder will have no other right than to receive out of the money so deposited or made available the amount to which it is entitled. Failure to make a deposit or make funds available as required to be made pursuant to this Section 2.09 will constitute default in payment on the Debt Securities in respect of which the deposit or making available of funds was required to have been made.

2.10 Interim Debt Securities

(1) Pending delivery to the Indenture Trustee of definitive Debt Securities of any series, the Fund may issue and the Indenture Trustee may certify in lieu thereof (but subject to the same provisions, conditions and limitations as set forth in this Indenture), interim printed, mimeographed or typewritten Debt Securities, with or without Coupons, in such forms and in such denominations as may be approved by the Indenture Trustee and the proper officers of the Fund (whose certification or signature, either manual or in facsimile, as the case may be, on any such interim Debt Securities will be conclusive evidence of such approval) entitling the holders of such Debt Securities to definitive Debt Securities of such series in any authorized denominations when the same are ready for delivery, provided that the total amount of interim Debt Securities so issued and certified will not exceed the aggregate principal amount of Debt Securities of such series for the time being authorized. When so issued and certified, such interim Debt Securities will be deemed to be Debt Securities for all purposes and pending the exchange thereof for definitive Debt Securities, the holders of such interim Debt Securities will be deemed to be Debtholders and entitled to the benefit of this Indenture to the same extent and in the same manner as though the exchange had actually been made. Forthwith after the Fund has executed and delivered the appropriate definitive Debt Securities to the Indenture Trustee, the Indenture Trustee will call for exchange all interim Debt Securities that have been issued and forthwith after such exchange will cancel the Interim Debt Securities, together with all unmatured Coupons (if any) attached or appertaining thereto. No charge will be made by the Fund or the Indenture Trustee to the holders of such interim Debt Securities for such exchange.

(2) Any interest paid upon interim Debt Securities without Coupons will be noted thereon at the time of payment unless paid by cheque to the registered holder thereof.

2.11 Payment Agreements for Debt Securities

Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture or any Debt Securities, the Fund may enter into an agreement with the holder of a Registered Debt Security or with the Person for whom such holder is acting as nominee, providing for the payment to such holder of the principal of, Premium (if any) and interest on such Debt Security at a place or places or in a manner other than the place or places or the manner specified in this Indenture or such Debt Security as the place or places for such payment, all (in the case of partial payments on Debt Securities) without presentation or surrender of the Debt Security or notation of payment thereon. The Fund will provide a copy of such agreement to the Indenture Trustee before the next Interest Payment Date of any Debt Security to which such agreement relates. Any payment of the principal of, Premium (if any) and interest on any such Debt Security or other money payable under this Indenture at such other place or places or in such manner pursuant to such agreement, notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture or the Debt Security, will be valid and binding on the Fund, the Indenture Trustee and such Debtholder.

2.12 Surrender for Cancellation

If the principal amount due upon any Debt Security becomes payable by redemption or otherwise before the maturity date of such Debt Security, the Person presenting such Debt Security for payment must surrender the same together with all unmatured Coupons (if any) appertaining thereto not previously surrendered for cancellation. The Fund will pay or cause to be paid the interest accrued and unpaid thereon to the date fixed for payment (and not later), unless such interest is not paid by the Fund in accordance with this Indenture upon such surrender. Such interest will be computed on a per diem basis if the date fixed for payment is not an Interest Payment Date. For greater certainty, it is expressly declared that Section 8.01 will apply to such cancelled Debt Securities or Coupons.

2.13 Right to Receive Indenture

Each Debtholder is entitled to receive from the Fund a copy of this Indenture on written request and upon payment of a reasonable copying charge.

(3) Neither the Fund nor the Indenture Trustee will be under any obligation to deliver, nor will the holder of an interest in the Series A Debentures represented by a Global Debenture have any right, except as provided in Section 3.08(4), to require the delivery of a certificate evidencing a Series A Debenture to the holder of the interest in such Series A Debenture.

- (f) if after the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing, Beneficial Holders holding beneficial interests aggregating over 50% of the outstanding principal amount of Series A Debentures determine that the continuation of the Book-Based System is no longer in the interests of such Debentureholders and notify the Indenture Trustee and the Fund to such effect.

(5) While the Series A Debentures are represented by a Global Debenture, the Fund and the Indenture Trustee will deal with CDS for all purposes of this Indenture and the Series A Debentures, including the making of payments on the Series A Debentures, as the sole holder of the Series A Debentures and the authorized representative of the beneficial holders of the Series A Debentures. Notwithstanding Section 3.13, the Fund and any Subsidiary of the Fund will be permitted to incur and issue the following types of Indebtedness:

(1) Indebtedness of the Fund owed to any of its Subsidiaries and Indebtedness of any Subsidiary of the Fund owed to the Fund and/or another of its Subsidiaries provided, however, that the provisions of this Section 3.14(1) will no longer be applicable:

- (a) upon the subsequent transfer or other disposition by the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries to any Person other than the Fund or another of the Fund's Subsidiaries of such Indebtedness, to the amount of such Indebtedness that was so transferred or otherwise disposed of to such other Person; or
- (b) in the case of Indebtedness of the Fund owed to any of its Subsidiaries, upon the subsequent issuance or disposition of common shares (including, without limitation, by consolidation or merger) of such Subsidiary which results in such Subsidiary ceasing to be a Subsidiary of the Fund (and thereby for this purpose a "third party"), to the amount of such Indebtedness equal to the product obtained by multiplying the amount of such Indebtedness by the percentage of common shares of the third party owned immediately after such issuance or disposition of such common shares by Persons other than the Fund or one of its Subsidiaries, and, in each case, such amount of such Indebtedness will be deemed for the purpose of Section 3.13 to have been incurred at the time of such transfer, issuance or disposition; and

(2) Indebtedness of the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries ("Refinancing Indebtedness") which is incurred, or the proceeds of which are used, to renew, extend, repay, redeem, purchase, refinance or refund from time to time in whole or in part (each a "Refinancing") (including any subsequent Refinancing) any Indebtedness of the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries (the "Original Indebtedness") whether now existing, or incurred or assumed at a time when permitted pursuant to Section 3.13; provided, however, that:

- (i) the amount of the Refinancing Indebtedness (or subsequent Refinancing Indebtedness) does not exceed the total amount paid by the Fund to retire the Original Indebtedness or any prior Refinancing thereof (including any premium and all expenses incurred in connection therewith); and
- (ii) in the case of a Refinancing of all or any part of the Series A Debentures, the Refinancing thereof ranks equally and rateably with (or subordinate in right of payment to) the Debt Securities (whether then existing or created at any time in future) (including any Series A Debentures then remaining outstanding) or, if the Refinancing is subordinate in right of payment to the Debt Securities, any subsequent Refinancing is subordinate in right of payment to the Debt Securities (whether then existing or created at any time in the future).

3.15 Calculations for Interest Coverage Covenant

For the purposes of Section 3.12, Consolidated EBITDA will be calculated on a pro forma basis giving effect to the incurrence of the Indebtedness to be incurred, Indebtedness incurred to the date of calculation and, in each case, to the application of the proceeds therefrom and the revenue derived from such application and, for this purpose, (i) all Indebtedness incurred since the first day of the Reference Period, including Indebtedness incurred to refinance other Indebtedness, will be deemed to have been incurred at the beginning of the Reference Period, the proceeds of all such Indebtedness will be deemed to have been applied at the beginning of such Reference Period and the revenue derived from the application of such proceeds will be calculated from the beginning of such Reference Period as if the said proceeds had been applied at such time, (ii) the repayment or retirement of any other Indebtedness since the first day of the Reference Period will be deemed to have occurred at the beginning of the Reference Period, (iii) in the case of Acquired Indebtedness acquired since the first day of the Reference Period, the related acquisition will be deemed to have occurred as of the first day of the Reference Period with the appropriate adjustments with respect to such acquisition being included in such pro forma calculation (including adjustments for revenue derived from such acquisition) and (iv) in the case of any acquisition or disposition by the Fund or its Subsidiaries of any asset or group of assets since the first day of the Reference Period, whether by merger, share purchase or sale, or asset purchase or sale, such acquisition or disposition or any related repayment of Indebtedness will be deemed to have occurred as of the first day of the Reference Period with the appropriate adjustments with respect to such acquisition or disposition being included in such pro forma calculation (including adjustments for revenue derived or lost from such acquisition or disposition).

3.16 Calculation of Indebtedness Percentage

For the purpose of Section 3.13, the Indebtedness Percentage will be calculated on a pro forma basis as at the date of the Fund's most recently published balance sheet (the "Balance Sheet Date") giving effect to the incurrence of the Indebtedness to be incurred and the application of proceeds therefrom and to any other event that has increased or decreased Consolidated Indebtedness or Aggregate Assets between the Balance Sheet Date and the date of calculation.

manner and upon the same terms that the Indenture Trustee may seek to enforce the obligations of the Fund hereunder. The Fund agrees that, if at any time after the date of this Indenture, any of its Wholly-Owned Material Subsidiaries has not executed and delivered a Guarantee to the Indenture Trustee, the Fund shall take all necessary steps to ensure that such Subsidiary promptly executes and delivers a Guarantee to the Indenture Trustee.

3.20 Inconsistency

In the case of any conflict or inconsistency between Article 3 of this Indenture and any other provision of this Indenture, Article 3 shall, as to the Series A Debentures, govern and prevail.

(2) After registration of a Coupon Debt Security as to principal, any such Debt Security may be discharged from registry and subsequently may be transferred to bearer after which it will again be transferable by delivery but may again from time to time be registered and discharged from registry.

All Debt Securities and Coupons surrendered for exchange will be surrendered to the Indenture Trustee for cancellation.

(3) Debt Securities issued in exchange for Debt Securities which at the time of such issue have been selected or called for redemption at a later date will be deemed to have been selected or called for redemption in the same manner and will have noted thereon a statement to that effect, provided that:

- (a) Debt Securities which have been selected or called for redemption may not be exchanged for Debt Securities of larger denominations; and
- (b) if a Debt Security that has been selected or called for redemption in part is presented for exchange for Debt Securities of smaller denominations, the Indenture Trustee will designate, as it may deem equitable, particular Debt Securities of those issued in exchange, which will be deemed to have been selected or called for redemption, in whole or in part, and the Indenture Trustee will note on such Debt Securities a statement to that effect.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this Indenture, upon any exchange of Debt Securities of any denomination for Debt Securities of any other authorized denominations and upon any transfer of Debt Securities, the Indenture Trustee or other registrar of Debt Securities may make a sufficient charge to reimburse it for any transfer tax or other governmental charge required to be paid and, in addition, a reasonable charge for its services for each Debt Security exchanged or transferred, and payment of such charges will be made by the party requesting such exchange or transfer as a condition precedent thereto.

(5) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no charge to the holder (other than for insurance on any Debt Securities forwarded by mail) will be made by the Indenture Trustee, any other registrar of Debt Securities or the Fund:

- (a) for any exchange, registration or transfer of any Debt Security applied for within a period of 45 days from the date of such Debt Security; or

The Indenture Trustee will require each registrar, at the request of any Debtholder, and upon payment to the Indenture Trustee of a reasonable fee, to furnish such list to such holder upon fulfillment by it of the conditions prescribed by law in that respect.

4.07 Ownership of Debt Securities and Coupons

(1) The Fund, the Indenture Trustee and any registrar or paying agent may deem and treat, unless otherwise required by law, the Person in whose name any Registered Debt Security is registered, as the absolute owner of such Debt Security for all purposes of this Indenture and payment of or on account of the principal of, Premium (if any) and interest on, such Debt Security will be made only to or upon the order in writing of such registered holder.

(2) The Fund, the Indenture Trustee and any registrar or paying agent may deem and treat, unless otherwise required by law, the bearer of any Unregistered Debt Security and the bearer of any Coupon, whether or not the Debt Security from which it has been detached is registered as to principal, as the owner of such Debt Security or Coupon, as the case may be, for the purposes of this Indenture and none of the Fund, the Indenture Trustee and any registrar will be affected by any notice to the contrary.

(3) None of the Fund, the Indenture Trustee and any registrar or paying agent will be bound to take notice of or see to the performance or observance of any duty owed to a third Person, whether under a trust, express, implied, resulting or constructive, in respect of any Debt Security by the registered holder or any Person whom the Fund or the Indenture Trustee treats, as permitted or required by law, as the owner or the registered holder of such Debt Security, and may transfer the same on the direction of the Person so treated or registered as the holder of the Debt Security, whether named as trustee or otherwise, as though that Person were the beneficial owner of the Debt Security.

(4) The holder from time to time of any Registered Debt Security and the bearer of any Coupon (except any Coupon which is void by reason of the acceleration of the maturity of the Debt Security to which it was annexed or appertains) will be entitled to the principal, Premium (if any) and interest evidenced by such instruments, free from all equities or rights of set-off or counterclaim between the Fund and the original or any intermediate holder thereof (except in respect of equities of which the Fund is required to take notice by law or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction) and all Persons may act accordingly. The receipt by any such holder or bearer, as the case may be, of any such principal, Premium (if any) or interest will be a good discharge to the Fund and the Indenture Trustee for the same and neither the Fund nor the Indenture Trustee will be bound to inquire into the title of any such holder or bearer except as aforesaid.

(5) The Fund and the Indenture Trustee may treat the holder of any Registered Debt Security as the owner thereof without actual production of such Debt Security for the purpose of any Debtholders' Request, requisition, direction, consent, instrument or other document.

(6) Subject to Section 9.16, upon receipt of a certificate of any bank, trust company or other depository satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee stating that the Unregistered Debt Security specified therein has been deposited by a named Person with such bank, trust company or other depository and will remain so deposited until the expiry of the period specified therein, the Fund and the Indenture Trustee may treat the Person so named as the owner, and such certificate as sufficient evidence of the ownership by such Person during such period, of such Debt Security, for the purpose of any Debtholders' Request, requisition, direction, consent, instrument or other document to be made, signed or given by the holder of the Debt Security so deposited.

4.08 Replacement of Debt Securities

If any Debt Security or Coupon is mutilated, lost, stolen or destroyed and in the absence of notice that such Debt Security or Coupon has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser within the meaning of the Business Corporations Act (Ontario), the Fund in its discretion may issue, and thereupon the Indenture Trustee will certify and deliver, a new Debt Security or Coupon upon surrender and cancellation of the mutilated Debt Security or Coupon, or, in the case of a lost, stolen or destroyed Debt Security or Coupon, in lieu of and in substitution for the same, and the substituted Debt Security or Coupon will be in a form approved by the Indenture Trustee and will be entitled to the benefits of this Indenture equally with all other Debt Securities or Coupons issued or to be issued under this Indenture. In case of loss, theft or destruction, the applicant for a new Debt Security or Coupon will furnish to the Fund and to the Indenture Trustee such evidence of loss, theft or destruction as will be satisfactory to them in their discretion and will also furnish an indemnity and surety bond in amount and form satisfactory to them in their discretion. The applicant will pay all expenses incidental to the issuance of any such new Debt Security or Coupon.

4.09 Record of Payment

The Indenture Trustee will maintain accounts and records evidencing any payment, by it on behalf of the Fund, of principal, Premium (if any) and interest in respect of Debt Securities, which accounts and record will constitute, in the absence of manifest error, prima facie evidence of such payment.

4.10 Book-Entry Only Debt Securities

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, upon the election of the Fund, any Supplemental Indenture applicable to any series of Debt Securities may provide that Debt Securities of such series will be represented by a book-entry only global certificate and, in this regard, the Fund may, with the consent of the Indenture Trustee, appoint CDS or any other depository to act as a clearing agency in connection with interests in such global certificate. If any Supplemental Indenture so provides and, subject to the terms of any agreement between the Fund and CDS or other depository, beneficial holders of Debt Securities will have no right to receive definitive Debt Securities.

ARTICLE 5 - REDEMPTION AND PURCHASE FOR CANCELLATION OF DEBT SECURITIES

5.01 Redemption of Debt Securities

Subject to the provisions of the Supplemental Indenture relating to the issue of a particular series of Debt Securities, Debt Securities of any series may be redeemable before the applicable maturity date thereof, in whole at any time or in part from time to time, at the option of the Fund and in accordance with and subject to the provisions set out in this Indenture and the applicable Supplemental Indenture, including those relating to the payment of any required redemption price (“Redemption Price”).

5.02 Places of Payment

The Redemption Price will be payable upon presentation and surrender of Debt Securities called for redemption at any of the places where the principal of such Debt Securities is expressed to be payable and at any other places specified in the notice of redemption.

5.03 Partial Redemption of Debt Securities

(1) If less than all the Debt Securities of any series are to be redeemed at one time, the Fund will in each such case, at least 10 Business Days before the date upon which notice of redemption is to be given, notify the Indenture Trustee by Written Direction of its intention to redeem Debt Securities of such series and of the aggregate principal amount of Debt Securities to be redeemed. The Debt Securities to be redeemed will be selected by the Indenture Trustee on a pro rata basis, disregarding fractions, according to the principal amount of Debt Securities registered in the name of each Debtholder, or in such other manner (which may include random selection by computer) as the Indenture Trustee may consider equitable, provided that such selection will be proportionate (to the nearest $1,000). For this purpose, the Indenture Trustee may make, and from time to time amend, regulations with regard to the manner in which such Debt Securities may be called for redemption and regulations so made will be valid and binding upon all Debtholders notwithstanding the fact that, as a result of such regulations, one or more Debt Securities become subject to redemption in part only. Unless the context otherwise requires, the term “Debt Security” and “Debt Securities” as used in this Article 5 will be deemed to include any part of the principal amount of any Debt Security which in accordance with the foregoing provision has become subject to redemption.

(2) The holder of any Debt Security called for redemption in part only, upon surrender of such Debt Security for payment, will be entitled to receive, without expense to such Debtholder, a new Debt Security or Debt Securities of an aggregate principal amount equal to the unredeemed part of the Debt Security so surrendered, and the Fund will execute and the Indenture Trustee will certify and deliver to the holder such new Debt Security or Debt Securities.

(3) In the alternative and notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, payment of part of the principal amount of any Debt Security may be made by the Fund or the Indenture Trustee to the holder of such Debt Security without presentation or surrender of such Debt Security to the Indenture Trustee if the Fund has filed with the Indenture Trustee a Certificate stating that the Fund has entered into an agreement with such holder or the Person for which such holder is acting as nominee to the effect that (i) payments will be so made, (ii) upon request from the Indenture Trustee or the Fund, such holder or other Person will make notations on such Debt Security of the portion of the principal amount of such Debt Security so redeemed and promptly notify the Fund and the Indenture Trustee of the making of such notations and (iii) such holder or other Person will not sell, transfer, encumber or dispose of or permit any nominee to sell, transfer, encumber or dispose of such Debt Security or any interest therein without, before the delivery thereof, surrendering the same to the Indenture Trustee or other registrar in exchange for a Debt Security or Debt Securities aggregating the same principal amount as the principal amount of such Debt Security so surrendered which remains unpaid.

5.04 Notice of Redemption

Notice of intention to redeem any Debt Security will be given to the holders of the Debt Securities which are to be redeemed, not more than 60 days and not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, in the manner provided in Article 15. Every such notice will specify that part of the principal amount of such Debt Security to be redeemed, the redemption date, the Redemption Price and places of payment and will state that all interest on the Debt Securities called for redemption will cease to be payable from the redemption date. Unless all outstanding Debt Securities are to be redeemed, the notice of redemption will also specify:

(1) in the case of notice mailed to a Debtholder, the distinguishing letters and numbers of the Debt Securities registered in the name of such holder which are to be redeemed;

(2) in the case of a published notice, the distinguishing letters and numbers of the Debt Securities to be redeemed; and

(3) in the case of both Sections 5.04(1) and 5.04(2), the principal amount of such Debt Securities or, if any such Debt Security is to be redeemed in part only, the principal amount of such part.

5.05 Debt Securities Due on Redemption Dates

(1) Upon notice having been given as provided in Section 5.04, the Debt Securities called for redemption or the principal amount to be redeemed of the Debt Securities called for redemption in part, as the case may be, will thereupon become due and payable at the Redemption Price, on the redemption date specified in such notice, in the same manner and with the same effect as if it were the maturity date for such Debt Securities, notwithstanding anything contained in this Indenture or in the Debt Securities to the contrary. From and after such redemption date, if the money necessary to redeem such Debt Securities has been deposited as provided in Section 5.06 and affidavits or other proof satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee as to the mailing or publication of such notices have been delivered to it, such Debt Securities will not be considered as outstanding under this Indenture and interest upon such Debt Securities will cease to accrue after such date.

(2) If any question arises as to whether notice of redemption or deposit of the redemption money has been given or made available as provided above, such question will be decided by the Indenture Trustee, whose decision will be final and binding upon all interested parties.

5.06 Deposit of Redemption Money

Except as may otherwise be provided in any Supplemental Indenture or in any series of Debt Securities, upon Debt Securities being called for redemption, the Fund will deposit in the applicable Debt Account one Business Day before the redemption date fixed in the relevant notice of redemption, such sums as may be sufficient to pay the Redemption Price of the Debt Securities to be redeemed, including accrued and unpaid interest on the Debt Securities called for redemption, and will pay to the order of the Indenture Trustee the estimated charges and expenses to be incurred in connection with such redemption. From the sums so deposited and upon surrender of such Debt Securities, the Indenture Trustee will pay or cause to be paid to the holders of the Debt Securities called for redemption the principal thereof, Premium (if any) and interest thereon to which they are entitled on redemption. In the case of Coupon Debt Securities, the accrued interest represented by Coupons matured before the date fixed for redemption will continue to be payable (but without interest thereon unless the Fund defaults in the payment thereof) to the bearers of such Coupons upon presentation and surrender thereof.

5.07 Purchase of Debt Securities for Cancellation

(1) Subject to the terms and conditions of any Supplemental Indenture relating to a particular series of Debt Securities and provided no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Fund may purchase at any time and from time to time, at any price, all or any of the Debt Securities in the market (which will include purchase from or through an investment dealer or a firm holding membership on a recognized stock exchange) or by invitation to tender or by private contract. The Fund will deliver to the Indenture Trustee all Debt Securities purchased as aforesaid when paid as evidence of such payment.

(2) If upon an invitation to tender more Debt Securities are tendered in response to such invitation at the same lowest price than the Fund is prepared to accept, Debt Securities to be purchased by the Fund will be selected by the Indenture Trustee on a pro rata basis, disregarding fractions, according to the principal amount of Debt Securities registered in the name of each Debtholder, or in such other manner as the Indenture Trustee may consider equitable (which may include random selection by computer), from the Debt Securities tendered by each Debtholder which tendered at such lowest price. For this purpose the Indenture Trustee may make, and from time to time amend, regulations with respect to the manner in which Debt Securities may be so selected and regulations so made will be valid and binding upon all Debtholders, notwithstanding the fact that, as a result thereof, one or more of such Debt Securities becomes subject to purchase in part only. The holder of any Debt Security of which a part only is purchased, upon surrender of such Debt Security for payment, will be entitled to receive, without expense to such holder or bearer, one or more new Debt Security or Debt Securities, as the case may be, for the unpurchased part so surrendered and the Indenture Trustee will certify and deliver such new Debt Security or Debt Securities, as the case may be, upon receipt of the Debt Security so surrendered.

5.08 Cancellation of Debt Securities

All Debt Securities redeemed and all Debt Securities purchased under this Article 5 will be delivered forthwith to the Indenture Trustee and will be cancelled by it and no Debt Securities will be issued in substitution therefor.

ARTICLE 6 - COVENANTS OF THE FUND

6.01 General Covenants

The Fund covenants with the Indenture Trustee for the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Debtholders that as long as any Debt Securities remain outstanding, it will:

(1) duly and punctually pay or cause to be paid to every Debtholder or deposit to the relevant Debt Account, as the case may be, all amounts required to be paid or transferred thereto in respect of such Debt Securities of which it is the holder in the manner provided under this Indenture or any Supplemental Indenture, as the case may be (including, in the case of default, interest on the amount in default) on the dates, at the place, and in the manner specified in this Indenture, any Supplemental Indenture and in the Debt Securities;

(2) at least once in each twelve month period beginning on the date of this Trust Indenture and at any reasonable time if requested by the Indenture Trustee, furnish to the Indenture Trustee a Certificate stating that the Fund has complied with all covenants, conditions and other requirements contained in this Indenture, non-compliance with which would, with the giving of notice or the lapse of time or both, constitute an Event of Default under this Indenture or, if such is not the case, specifying the covenant, condition or other requirement which has not been complied with and giving particulars of such non-compliance and the action, if any, the Fund proposes to take with respect thereto;

(3) maintain and keep or cause to be maintained and kept in good condition, repair and working order all of the properties owned by it or any of its Subsidiaries used in its business or in the business of any of its Subsidiaries and will make or cause to be made all necessary repairs and renewals to and replacements and improvements of these properties, in each case as in its judgment may be necessary to carry on its business properly and prudently; provided that the Fund and its Subsidiaries will not be prohibited from selling or transferring any of their properties in the ordinary course of business;

(4) maintain and cause its Subsidiaries to maintain property and liability insurance as would be maintained by a prudent owner;

(5) pay to the Indenture Trustee reasonable remuneration in accordance with the Indenture Trustee's fee schedule as it may be reasonably revised from time to time for its services as Indenture Trustee and pay to the Indenture Trustee on demand all costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the Indenture Trustee in connection with the trusts created by this Indenture (including the compensation and disbursements of its counsel and other advisors or assistants not regularly in its employ), both before any Event of Default and thereafter until all duties of the Indenture Trustee under this Indenture have been finally and fully performed, and also (in addition to any right of indemnity given to the Indenture Trustee by law), at all times keep the Indenture Trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents indemnified against all liabilities, losses, damages, actions, proceedings, costs, claims, expenses and demands in respect of any matter or thing done or omitted by the Indenture Trustee (other than through gross negligence or fraud by the Indenture Trustee or any of its directors, officers, employees and agents) in any way relating to this Indenture. Any amount due under this Section 6.01(5) and unpaid 30 days after demand for such payment will bear interest from the expiration of such 30-day period at a prevailing rate set by the Indenture Trustee;

(6) duly and punctually perform and carry out all of the acts or things to be done by it as provided in this Indenture; and

(7) provide the Indenture Trustee with prompt written notice of the occurrence of any Event of Default.

6.02 Not to Extend Time for Payment of Principal or Interest

(1) To prevent any accumulation after maturity of unpaid interest or of unpaid Debt Securities, the Fund will not directly or indirectly extend or assent to the extension of time for payment of any interest upon any Debt Securities or of any principal payable in respect of any Debt Securities or directly or indirectly be or become a party to or approve any such arrangement by purchasing or funding any interest on the Debt Securities or any principal thereof or in any other manner.

(2) If the time for the payment of any interest or principal in respect of any Debt Securities of any series is extended, whether or not such extension is by or with the consent of the Fund, notwithstanding anything contained in this Indenture or in such Debt Securities, such interest or principal will not be entitled, in case of default under this Indenture, to the benefit of this Indenture except subject to the prior payment in full of the principal of all the Debt Securities of such series then outstanding and of all accrued interest on such Debt Securities the payment of which has not been so extended.

6.03 Indenture Trustee may Perform Covenants

If the Fund fails to perform any of its covenants contained in this Indenture, the Indenture Trustee may, to the extent it has actual notice thereof and in its discretion, but (subject to Section 7.03) need not, notify the Debtholders of such failure or may itself perform any of such covenants capable of being performed by it and, if any such covenant requires the payment of money, it may make such payment with its own funds, or with money borrowed by it for such purpose, but it will be under no obligation to do so or to notify the Debtholders of such failure. All sums so paid by the Indenture Trustee will be payable by the Fund in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.07. No such performance by the Indenture Trustee of any covenant contained in this Indenture or payment by the Fund of any sums advanced or borrowed by the Indenture Trustee pursuant to this Article will be deemed to relieve the Fund from any default or its continuing obligations under this Indenture.

ARTICLE 7 - DEFAULT AND ENFORCEMENT

7.01 Events of Default

Each of the following events in respect of a series of Debt Securities is an Event of Default:

(1) the Fund defaults in the payment of the principal of any Debt Security of such series;
or

(2) the Fund defaults in payment of any interest when due on the Debt Securities in that series where such default continues for a period of three Business Days after the relevant Interest Payment Date; or

(3) the Fund defaults in the performance of or is in breach of any covenant in this Indenture, the Debt Securities or a Supplemental Indenture in connection with that series of Debt Securities where such default or breach continues for a period of 30 days after the Indenture Trustee has given notice in writing to the Fund specifying the nature of such default or breach and requiring that it be remedied unless the Indenture Trustee (having regard to the subject matter of such breach or default) agrees to a longer period and, in such event, within the period agreed to by the Indenture Trustee; or

(4) a final judgment or judgments (not subject to appeal) is or are rendered against the Fund or any Material Subsidiary in an aggregate amount in excess of $25 million by a court or courts of competent jurisdiction, which remains or remain undischarged and unstayed for a period of 60 days after the date on which the right or rights to appeal has or have expired, as the case may be; or

(5) the Fund or any Material Subsidiary defaults under the terms of any Indebtedness (other than Non-Recourse Indebtedness) where that default results in such Indebtedness becoming or being declared due and payable prior to the date on which it would otherwise have become due and payable (after expiration of any applicable grace period) unless such acceleration is waived or rescinded, provided that the aggregate of all such Indebtedness which is accelerated exceeds $25 million; or

(6) the Fund or any Material Subsidiary generally does not pay its liabilities as they become due, admits in writing its inability to pay its liabilities generally as they become due or makes a general assignment for the benefit of the creditors of the Fund or otherwise acknowledges in writing the insolvency of the Fund or any proceeding is instituted by or against the Fund seeking to adjudicate it a bankrupt or insolvent or seeking liquidation, winding up, dissolution, reorganization, arrangement, adjustment, protection, relief or composition of its debts under any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or relief of debtors or seeking the entry of an order for relief by the appointment of a receiver, liquidator, trustee or other similar official for the Fund or such Material Subsidiary or for any substantial part of the property of the Fund and, if such proceeding has been instituted against the Fund or such Material Subsidiary without the consent or concurrence of the Fund or such Material Subsidiary, the Fund or such Material Subsidiary (as the case may be) shall not in good faith be actively and diligently contesting the entry of an order, judgment or decree approving or giving effect to the relief sought in such proceeding and such proceeding has not been stayed or dismissed within 45 days.

7.02 Notice of Events of Default

(1) The Indenture Trustee will give to the holders of a series of Debt Securities, within a reasonable time (but not exceeding 30 days) after the Indenture Trustee receives actual notice of the occurrence of an Event of Default, notice of the Event of Default in respect of that series of Debt

Securities unless the Indenture Trustee in good faith determines that the withholding of such notice is in the best interests of Debtholders and so advises the Fund in writing.

(2) Where notice of an Event of Default has been given to holders of a series of Debt Securities and the Event of Default is thereafter cured, notice that the Event of Default is no longer continuing will be given by the Indenture Trustee to the Persons to whom notice was given pursuant to Section 7.02(1) within a reasonable time (not to exceed 30 days) after the Indenture Trustee becomes aware that the Event of Default has been cured.

7.03 Acceleration on Default

Subject to Section 7.04, if any Event of Default (other than an Event of Default described in Section 7.01(6)) has occurred and is continuing in respect of a series of Debt Securities, the Indenture Trustee may, in its discretion, and will, upon receipt of a Debtholders' Request of such series (subject to Section 7.04) by notice in writing to the Fund and each of the Guarantors, declare the principal of, Premium (if any) and the interest and additional amounts (if any) on all Debt Securities of the applicable series then outstanding and any other money payable under this Indenture or the applicable Supplemental Indenture in respect of such series to be due and payable and shall demand payment of same from the Fund and from each of the Guarantors. If an Event of Default described in Section 7.01(6) occurs, then the principal of, Premium (if any) and the interest and additional amounts (if any) on all Debt Securities then outstanding and any other moneys payable under this Indenture will become and be immediately due and payable without any declaration or other act on the part of the Indenture Trustee or any Debtholder and the Indenture Trustee shall immediately demand payment of same from the Fund and from each of the Guarantors. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Indenture, any Supplemental Indenture or the Debt Securities to the contrary, if the Indenture Trustee makes such declaration or an Event of Default described in Section 7.01(6) occurs, the Fund will pay to the Indenture Trustee forthwith for the benefit of the holders of Debt Securities of such series the amount of principal of, Premium (if any) and accrued and unpaid interest (including interest on amounts in default) on all Debt Securities of such series and all other money payable, together with subsequent interest thereon at the rate borne by the Debt Securities from the date of such declaration until payment is received by the Indenture Trustee, to be applied in the order of priorities established in Section 7.07 in respect of that series of Debt Securities. Such payment, when made, will be deemed to have been made in discharge of the Fund's obligations under this Indenture.

7.04 Waiver of Default

- (1) If an Event of Default occurs, other than an Event of Default contemplated by Section 7.01(6):
 - (a) the holders of more than 50% of the principal amount of the Debt Securities then outstanding of that series in respect of which the Event of Default has occurred will have the right (in addition to the powers exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution as hereinafter provided) by instrument signed by such Debtholders to instruct the Indenture Trustee to waive the Event of Default and/or annul the declaration made by the Indenture Trustee pursuant to Section 7.03 and the Indenture Trustee will thereupon waive the Event of Default and/or annul such declaration upon such terms and conditions as such Debtholders prescribe; and

- (b) the Indenture Trustee, so long as it has not become bound to institute any proceedings under this Indenture by virtue of a Debtholders' Request or any other reason, will have the power to waive the Event of Default if, in the Indenture Trustee's opinion, the same has been cured or adequate satisfaction made therefor, and in such event to annul any such declaration made by the Indenture Trustee in the exercise of its discretion, upon such terms and conditions as the Indenture Trustee may consider advisable.

(2) No delay or omission of the Indenture Trustee or of any Debtholders to exercise any right or power accruing upon any Event of Default will impair any such right or power or be construed to be a waiver of any such Event of Default or acquiescence therein. No act or omission either of the Indenture Trustee or of such Debtholders will extend to or be taken in any manner whatsoever to affect any subsequent Event of Default under this Indenture or the rights resulting therefrom.

7.05 Enforcement by the Indenture Trustee

(1) If (i) an Event of Default described in Section 7.01(6) has occurred, or (ii) any other Event of Default has occurred and is continuing in respect of a series of Debt Securities and the Trustee has made a declaration pursuant to Section 7.03 in respect of such Event of Default but subject to (y) Section 7.04 and (z) the provisions of any Extraordinary Resolution that may be passed by holders of a series of Debt Securities as provided in this Indenture (or, for the purposes of clause (b) below, the provisions of the initial Extraordinary Resolution (or any subsequent Extraordinary Resolution) that shall have been passed directing or authorizing one or more of the acts, actions or proceedings mentioned in Section 9.09(1)(c)):

- (a) the Indenture Trustee may in its discretion proceed to enforce the rights of the Indenture Trustee and the Debtholders by any action, suit, remedy or proceeding authorized or permitted by this Indenture or by law or equity, and may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Indenture Trustee and of the Debtholders filed in any bankruptcy, insolvency, winding-up or other judicial proceedings relating to the Fund; and
- (b) upon receipt of a Debtholders' Request and upon receiving sufficient funds and being indemnified to its satisfaction as provided in Section 11.01(2), the Indenture Trustee will exercise or take such one or more remedies as the Debtholders' Request may direct (provided that the Indenture Trustee will not have received an Extraordinary Resolution of the Debtholders of that series that it is inconsistent with such Debtholders' Request), provided that if any such Debtholders' Request directs the Indenture Trustee to take proceedings out of court the Indenture Trustee may in its discretion take judicial proceedings in lieu thereof.

(2) No remedy for the enforcement of the rights of the Indenture Trustee or the Debtholders will be exclusive of or dependent on any other such remedy but any one or more of such remedies may from time to time be exercised independently or in combination.

(3) All rights of action under this Indenture may be enforced by the Indenture Trustee without the possession of any of the Debt Securities or Coupons or the production thereof at the trial or other proceedings relating thereto.

7.06 Debtholders May Not Sue

(1) No Debtholder will have the right to institute any action, suit or proceeding or to exercise any other remedy authorized or permitted by this Indenture or by law or by equity for the purpose of enforcing any rights on behalf of the Debtholders or for the execution of any trust or power under this Indenture, unless:

- (a) in the case of any suit by the holders of a series of Debt Securities, such Debtholders, by Extraordinary Resolution, have made a request to the Indenture Trustee to take action under this Indenture or a Debtholders' Request referred to in Section 7.03 has been delivered to the Indenture Trustee, and the Indenture Trustee has been offered a reasonable opportunity either itself to proceed to exercise the powers conferred upon it or to institute an action, suit or proceeding in its name for such purpose;
- (b) the holders of Debt Securities of such series or any of them have furnished to the Indenture Trustee, when requested by the Indenture Trustee, sufficient funds and an indemnity in accordance with Section 11.01(2);
- (c) the Indenture Trustee has not received from the holders of at least a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of such series a direction inconsistent with such request; and
- (d) the Indenture Trustee has failed to institute any such proceeding.

(2) In the event that a holder has the right to institute proceedings under this Section 7.06 (but not otherwise) any Debtholder, acting on behalf of itself and all other Debtholders of such series, will be entitled to take proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction such as the Indenture Trustee might have taken under Section 7.05, but in no event will any Debtholder or combination of Debtholders have any right to take any other remedy or proceedings out of court. It is intended that no one or more holders of Debt Securities will have any right in any manner whatsoever to enforce any right under this Indenture or under any Debt Security except subject to the conditions and in the manner provided in this Indenture, and that all powers and trusts under this Indenture will be exercised and all proceedings at law will be instituted, had and maintained by the Indenture Trustee, except only as provided in this Indenture, and in any event for the equal benefit of all holders of outstanding Debt Securities of the same series.

(3) The limitations in Section 7.06(1) do not apply to a suit instituted by a Debtholder for enforcement of payment of the principal of, Premium (if any), or interest on such Debt Security after the maturity date of the principal expressed in such Debt Security, as it may be amended pursuant to the provisions hereof.

7.07 Application of Money

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Indenture, any money arising from any enforcement of this Indenture, whether by the Indenture Trustee or any holder of Debt Securities of any series, will be held by the Indenture Trustee and applied by it, together with any money then or thereafter in the hands of the Indenture Trustee available for the purpose, as follows:

- (a) first, in payment or reimbursement to the Indenture Trustee of the remuneration, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Indenture Trustee earned, incurred or made in the administration or execution of the trusts under this Indenture or otherwise in relation to this Indenture with interest thereon as provided in this Indenture;
- (b) second, in or towards payment of the principal of all of the Debt Securities of such series then outstanding and thereafter in or towards payment of the accrued and unpaid interest and interest on overdue interest on such Debt Securities (or if the Debtholders by instrument signed by the holders of a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities of such series then outstanding or by Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Debt Securities of such series, have directed payments to be made in accordance with any other order of priority, or without priority as between principal and interest, then such money shall be applied in accordance with such direction); and
- (c) third, the surplus (if any) of such money will be paid to the Fund or as it may direct.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 7.07(1), no payments will be made in respect of the principal of, Premium (if any) or interest on any Debt Security held, directly or indirectly, by or for the benefit of the Fund or an Affiliate (other than any Debt Security pledged for value and in good faith to a Person other than the Fund, but only to the extent of such Person's interest therein) except subject to the prior payment in full of the principal of, Premium (if any) and interest on all Debt Securities of such series which are not so held.

7.08 Distribution of Proceeds

Payments to Debtholders pursuant to Section 7.07(1)(b) will be made as follows:

(1) at least 21 days' notice of every such payment will be given in the manner provided in Article 13 specifying the date and time when and the place or places where the Debt Securities and Coupons are to be presented and such payments are to be made and the amount of the payment and the application thereof as between principal, Premium (if any) and interest;

(2) payment of any Debt Security or Coupon will be made upon presentation thereof at any one of the places specified in such notice and any such Debt Security or Coupon thereby paid in full will be surrendered and otherwise a notation of such payment will be endorsed thereon, provided that the Indenture Trustee may in its discretion dispense with presentation and surrender or endorsement in any special case upon receipt by it of such indemnity as it considers sufficient;

(3) from and after the date of payment specified in the notice, interest will accrue only on the amount owing on each Debt Security after giving credit for the amount of the payment specified in such notice unless the Debt Security in respect of which such amount is owing is duly presented on or after the date so specified and payment of such amount is not made; and

(4) the Indenture Trustee will not be required to make any partial or interim payment to holders of Debt Securities of any series unless the money in its hands, after reserving therefrom such amount as the Indenture Trustee may think necessary to provide for the payments described in Section 7.07(1)(a), exceeds 5% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities of such series, but it may retain the money so received by it and deal with the same as provided in Section 11.09 until the money or investments representing the same, with the income derived therefrom, together with any other money for the time being under its control, is sufficient for such purpose or until it considers it advisable to apply the same in the manner set out above.

7.09 No Recourse Against Unitholders, etc.

No unitholder of the Fund or annuitant under a plan of which a unitholder acts as trustee or carrier will be held to have any personal liability as such, and no resort will be had to the private property of any unitholder of the Fund or annuitant under a plan of which a unitholder acts as trustee or carrier for satisfaction of any obligation or claim arising out of or in connection with this Indenture, and only the assets of the Fund are liable and subject to levy or execution for full satisfaction. In particular, the Debtholders will not have any, and the Indenture Trustee hereby waives and releases any, right, cause of action or remedy now or hereafter existing in any jurisdiction against any past, present and future Trustee or officer, employee or agent of the Fund or of any Successor for the payment of the principal of, Premium (if any) and interest on any of the Debt Securities or for the performance of any covenant or agreement or for the correctness of any representation or warranty by the Fund in this Indenture or in the Debt Securities.

7.10 Persons Dealing with Indenture Trustee

No Person dealing with the Indenture Trustee or any of its agents will be required to inquire whether an Event of Default has occurred, or whether the powers which the Indenture Trustee is purporting to exercise have become exercisable, or whether any money remains due under this Indenture, any Supplemental Indentures or the Debt Securities, or to see to the application of any money paid to the Indenture Trustee; and in the absence of fraud on the part of such Person, such dealing will be deemed to be within the powers hereby conferred and to be valid and effective accordingly.

7.11 Remedies Cumulative

No remedy conferred in this Indenture upon or reserved to the Indenture Trustee or the Debtholders is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy, but each and every such remedy will be in addition to every other remedy given under this Indenture or now or hereafter existing by law or by statute.

7.12 Judgment Against the Fund

In the case of any judicial or other proceedings to obtain judgment for the principal of, Premium (if any) or interest on the Debt Securities, judgment may be rendered against the Fund in favour of the Debtholders or in favour of the Indenture Trustee, as trustee for the Debtholders, for any amount which may remain due in respect of the Debt Securities and the interest and Premium (if any) thereon.

7.13 Recourse and Destruction

Each Debtholder is entitled to recourse to the assets of the Fund to satisfy the obligations of the Fund to that Debtholder. That recourse will exist in full even if the Trustees have no right to seek indemnification from the assets of the Fund or to apply those assets in satisfaction of those obligations or if those rights of the Trustees are impaired. For greater certainty, any rights of the Debtholders pursuant to this Section shall be enforced in accordance with this Article 7.

ARTICLE 8 - SATISFACTION AND DISCHARGE

8.01 Cancellation and Destruction

All matured Debt Securities will forthwith after payment thereof be delivered to the Indenture Trustee or to a Person appointed by it or by the Fund with the approval of the Indenture Trustee and will be cancelled by the Indenture Trustee. All Debt Securities or Coupons which are cancelled or required to be cancelled under this or any other provision of this Indenture will be destroyed by the Indenture Trustee and, if required by the Fund, the Indenture Trustee will furnish to it a certificate setting out the designating numbers and denominations of the Debt Securities or Coupons so destroyed.

8.02 Release from Covenants

Upon proof being given to the reasonable satisfaction of the Indenture Trustee that:

(1) the principal of all of the Debt Securities, Premium (if any) and interest (including interest on amounts in default) thereon and other money payable under this Indenture has been paid or satisfied; or

(2) all the outstanding Debt Securities have matured or have been duly called for redemption (or the Indenture Trustee has been given irrevocable instructions by the Fund to publish, within 90 days, notice of redemption of all outstanding Debt Securities), and such payment or redemption has been duly provided for by payment to the Indenture Trustee or otherwise, and upon payment of all costs, charges and expenses properly incurred by the Indenture Trustee in relation to this Indenture and all interest thereon and the remuneration of the Indenture Trustee (or upon provision satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee being made therefor), at the request and at the expense of the Fund, the Indenture Trustee will forthwith execute and deliver to the Fund such deeds or other instruments necessary to evidence the satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture and to release the Fund from its covenants in this Indenture, except those relating to the indemnification of the Indenture Trustee.

8.03 Failure to Surrender Debt Securities and Coupons

If the holder of any Debt Security or Coupon fails to surrender the same for payment on the date on which the principal thereof, Premium (if any) and interest thereon or represented thereby becomes payable, either at maturity or on the date fixed for redemption thereof or otherwise, and does not within such time accept payment in respect thereof or give such receipt therefor (if any), as the Indenture Trustee may require:

(1) the Fund will be entitled to pay to the Indenture Trustee and direct it to set aside, or the Fund will be entitled to make provision in form satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee in its absolute discretion for the payment of; or

(2) in respect of money deposited with the Indenture Trustee which may or should be applied to the payment or redemption of the Debt Securities, the Fund will be entitled to direct the Indenture Trustee in its discretion for the payment of, the principal, Premium (if any) and interest, as the case may be, in trust to be paid to the holder of such Debt Security or Coupon upon due presentation or surrender thereof in accordance with the provisions of this Indenture; and thereupon the principal of, Premium (if any) and interest payable on each Debt Security and each Coupon in respect of which such funds have been set aside will be deemed to have been paid and thereafter such Debt Securities or Coupons will not be considered as outstanding under this Indenture and the holder thereof will thereafter have no right in respect thereof except that of receiving payment of the money so set aside or provided (without interest) upon due presentation and surrender of the relevant Debt Security or Coupon, subject always to the provisions of Section 8.04. Any money so set aside may and, if remaining unclaimed for 60 days and upon request by written instructions of the Fund, shall be invested by the Indenture Trustee in accordance with Section 11.09.

8.04 Repayment of Unclaimed Money

Any money deposited to a Debt Account by the Fund pursuant to Section 2.09 or paid to the Indenture Trustee pursuant to Sections 8.02 or 8.03 or following an Event of Default, and not claimed by and paid to holders of Debt Securities or Coupons within two years after the date on which payment first becomes due and payable, subject to applicable law, will be repaid to the Fund, on demand, and thereupon the Fund will be released from all further liability with respect to such money, and thereafter the holders of the Debt Securities or Coupons in respect of which such money was so repaid to the Fund will have no rights in respect thereof and the Fund will be discharged from its obligations in respect thereof.

8.05 Defeasance

(1) Subject to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in this Section 8.05(1), at any time that any series of Debt Securities is outstanding (the “Specified Series”), the Indenture Trustee will, at the request and expense of the Fund, execute and deliver to the Fund such deeds and other instruments as are necessary to release the Fund from the terms of this Indenture and the Supplemental Indenture relating to the Specified Series, other than those relating to the indemnification of the Indenture Trustee:

- (a) the Fund shall have delivered to the Indenture Trustee evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the Indenture Trustee that the Fund has (i) deposited sufficient funds for payment of all principal, Premium (if any), interest and other amounts due or to become due on the Specified Series, (ii) deposited funds or made provision for the payment of all expenses of the Indenture Trustee to carry out its duties under this Indenture, and (iii) deposited funds for the payment of taxes for which the Indenture Trustee is or may be liable or otherwise arising or payable by the Fund with respect to all deposited funds or other provision for payment, in each case irrevocably pursuant to the terms of (y) a trust agreement in form and substance satisfactory to the Fund and the Indenture Trustee, or (z) other arrangements in compliance with Section 8.05(3);
 - (b) the Fund shall have delivered to the Indenture Trustee an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Indenture Trustee to the effect that the holders of the Specified Series will not be subject to any taxes as a result of the exercise by the Fund of this defeasance option and that the holders of the Specified Series will be subject to taxes, including those in respect of income (including taxable capital gain) in the same amount, in the same manner and at the same time or times as would have been in the case if the Fund had not exercised its option to defease the Specified Series;
 - (c) no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of the deposit referred to in Section 8.05(1)(a);
 - (d) the making of the deposits referred to in paragraph (a) above does not result in a breach or violation of, or constitute a default under, any material agreement or instrument to which the Fund is a party or by which the Fund is bound;
 - (e) the Fund shall have delivered to the Indenture Trustee a Certificate stating that to the best of the belief of the officer signing such Certificate, the deposit referred to in paragraph (a) above was not made by the Fund with the intent of preferring the holders of the Specified Series over the other creditors of the Fund with the intent of defeating, hindering, delaying or defrauding creditors of the Fund or others; and
 - (f) the Fund shall have delivered to the Indenture Trustee a Certificate stating that all conditions precedent provided for or relating to the defeasance have been complied with.
- (2) The Fund will be deemed to have made due provision for the depositing of funds if it deposited or caused to be deposited Payout Securities with the Indenture Trustee under the terms of an irrevocable trust agreement, solely for the benefit of the holders of a Specified Series stated therein. “Payout Securities” means cash or securities denominated in Canadian dollars constituting direct obligations of Canada or an agency or instrumentality of Canada, which will be sufficient, in the opinion of a firm of independent chartered accountants or an investment dealer acting reasonably and acceptable to the Indenture Trustee, to provide for payment in full of the Specified Series in accordance with the terms thereof and all other sums payable pursuant to Section 8.05(1)(a).

(3) If the opinion mentioned in Section 8.05(1)(b) cannot be obtained from counsel acceptable to the Indenture Trustee, the Fund shall, at its option and instead of the deposit of Payout Securities under a trust agreement in accordance with Section 8.05(2), deposit the Payout Securities with the Indenture Trustee pursuant to alternate arrangements as proposed by the Fund, subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) such arrangements shall be to the satisfaction of the Indenture Trustee and, in the opinion of counsel acceptable to the Indenture Trustee, will be upon such terms to preserve and not impair any of the rights and powers of the Indenture Trustee and of the holders of the Specified Series under this Indenture as are applicable in the circumstances;
- (b) the Fund shall have delivered to the Indenture Trustee an opinion of counsel acceptable to the Indenture Trustee to the effect that the holders of the Specified Series will not be subject to any taxes as a result of the entering into of such alternate arrangements and that the holders of the Specified Series will be subject to taxes, including those in respect of income (including taxable capital gain) in the same amount, in the same manner and at the same time or times as would have been in the case if the Fund had not exercised its option to defease the Specified Series;
- (c) nothing in this paragraph (3) shall prejudice or otherwise detract from the conditions in Section 8.05(1), Sections 8.05(4) or (5), all of which shall remain in full force and effect.
- (4) The Indenture Trustee will hold in trust the Payout Securities deposited with it pursuant to this Section 8.05, and will apply the same in accordance with this Indenture to the payment of principal of, Premium (if any), and interest on, the Specified Series.
- (5) If the Indenture Trustee is unable to apply the Payout Securities in accordance with this Section 8.05 by reason of any legal proceeding or any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Fund's obligations under this Indenture and the Specified Series will be revived and reinstated as though no Payout Securities had been deposited pursuant to this Section 8.05 until such time as the Indenture Trustee is permitted to apply all the Payout Securities in accordance with this Section 8.05; provided that if the Fund has made any principal, Premium (if any) or interest payments on Debt Securities because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Fund will be subrogated to the rights of the holders of the Specified Series to receive such payment from the Payout Securities held by the Indenture Trustee.

ARTICLE 9- MEETINGS OF DEBTHOLDERS

9.01 Right to Convene Meetings

(1) At any time and from time to time, the Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Fund may and, on receipt of a Written Order or a Debtholders' Request from holders of Debt Securities of any series of Debt Securities, and upon being indemnified and funded for the costs thereof to the reasonable satisfaction of the Indenture Trustee by the Fund or the Debtholders signing such Debtholders' Request, will, convene a meeting of the Debtholders of that series. If, in the opinion of counsel to the Fund, any business to be transacted at any meeting or any action to be taken or power to be exercised by signed instrument pursuant to this Article 9 does not adversely affect the rights of holders of Debt Securities of one or more particular series, no notice of any such meeting need be given to the holders of the Debt Securities of such series. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a proposal to modify or terminate any covenant or agreement which by its terms is effective only so long as the Debt Securities of a particular series are outstanding or an Event of Default relating to one series of Debt Securities will be deemed not to adversely affect the rights of the holders of the Debt Securities of any other series.

(2) At any time and from time to time, the Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Fund may and, on receipt of a Written Order or a Debtholders' Request and upon being indemnified and funded for the costs thereof to the reasonable satisfaction of the Indenture Trustee by the Fund or the Debtholders signing such Debtholders' Request, will, convene a meeting of all Debtholders.

(3) If the Indenture Trustee fails to convene a meeting after being duly requested as aforesaid (and indemnified and funded as aforesaid), the Fund or such Debtholders may themselves convene such meeting and the notice calling such meeting may be signed by such person as those Debtholders designate. Every such meeting will be held in Toronto or such other place as the Indenture Trustee may in any case determine or approve.

9.02 Notice

At least 21 days' notice of any meeting of the holders of Debt Securities of any series or of all series then outstanding, as the case may be, will be given to the holders of Debt Securities in that series or in all series then outstanding, as applicable, and to the Indenture Trustee unless the meeting has been called by it, and to the Fund unless the meeting has been called by it. Such notice will state the time when and the place where the meeting is to be held and will state briefly the general nature of the business to be transacted thereat, but it will not be necessary for any such notice to set out the terms of any resolution to be proposed at the meeting or any of the provisions of this Article.

9.03 Chairman

The Chief Executive Officer of the Fund, if present, will be the Chairman of any meeting of Debtholders. Otherwise, an individual, who need not be a Debtholder, nominated in writing by the Indenture Trustee will be chairman of the meeting. If no individual is so nominated or if the individual so nominated is unable or unwilling to act or is not present within 15 minutes from the time fixed for the holding of the meeting, the Debtholders present in person or by proxy will choose an individual present to be chairman.

9.04 Quorum

Subject to this Indenture, at any meeting of the holders of a series of Debt Securities, a quorum will consist of two or more Debtholders present in person or by proxy and representing at least 25%, or, if the meeting is called to pass an Extraordinary Resolution, 50%, of the aggregate principal amount of the Debt Securities then outstanding in that series. At any meeting of the holders of all series of Debt Securities then outstanding, a quorum will consist of two or more Debtholders present in person or by proxy and representing at least 25%, or, if the meeting is called to pass an Extraordinary Resolution, 50% of the aggregate principal amount of all Debt Securities then outstanding. If a quorum of the Debtholders is not present within 30 minutes from the time fixed for holding any such meeting, the meeting, if convened by the Debtholders or pursuant to a Debtholders' Request, will be dissolved; but in any other case the meeting will be adjourned to be held at a place and upon a date and at an hour to be fixed by the Indenture Trustee which will give at least 14 days' notice of the date, time and location to which such meeting is adjourned and which notice will state that at such adjourned meeting a quorum will consist of the holders of Debt Securities in that series, or in all series then outstanding, as applicable, then and there represented in person or by proxy. For clarity, if a meeting to pass an Extraordinary Resolution is adjourned, at the adjourned meeting a resolution passed by the favourable votes of not less than 66⅔% or, in the case of Section 9.09(2), 75% of the principal amount of Debt Securities represented at the meeting will be an Extraordinary Resolution for the purposes of this Indenture, notwithstanding that the holders of more than 50% of the principal amount of the applicable Debt Securities are not present in person or by proxy at such adjourned meeting.

9.05 Power to Adjourn

The chairman of any meeting at which a quorum of Debtholders is present may, with the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Debt Securities represented thereat, adjourn any such meeting and no notice of such adjournment need be given except such notice, if any, as the meeting may prescribe.

9.06 Voting

On a show of hands, every Person who is present and entitled to vote, whether as a Debtholder or as proxy, will have one vote. On a poll each Debtholder present in person or represented by a duly appointed proxy will be entitled to one vote in respect of each $1,000 principal amount of Debt Securities of the relevant series of which it is the holder. A proxy need not be a Debtholder. In the case of joint registered holders of Debt Securities, any one of them present in person or by proxy at the meeting may vote in the absence of the other or others; but in case more than one of them are present in person or by proxy, they shall vote together in respect of the Debt Securities of which they are joint registered holders.

9.07 Show of Hands

Every question submitted to a meeting, except an Extraordinary Resolution, will be decided by a majority of the votes given on a show of hands or, if a poll is requested as provided in this Indenture, by a majority of the votes cast on the poll and will be binding on all holders of Debt Securities in the relevant series, or in all series then outstanding, as applicable. At any meeting of Debtholders where no poll is required or requested, a declaration made by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried by any particular majority, or lost, will be conclusive evidence thereof.

9.08 Poll

A poll will be taken on every Extraordinary Resolution or when required by a Debtholder or a proxy representing a Debtholder holding at least 5% of the principal amount of Debt Securities represented at the meeting. If at any meeting a poll is so demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment, it will be taken forthwith. If at any meeting a poll is demanded on any other question, or an Extraordinary Resolution is to be voted upon, a poll will be taken in such manner and either at once or after an adjournment as the Chairman directs. The result of a poll will be deemed to be the decision of the meeting at which the poll was demanded and will be binding on all holders of Debt Securities in the relevant series.

9.09 Powers Exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution

(1) In addition to any powers conferred by any other provisions of this Indenture, holders of any series of Debt Securities by Extraordinary Resolution have the power in respect of that series of Debt Securities to:

- (a) subject to the provisions of this Indenture, approve any change whatsoever in any of the provisions of such Debt Securities or of this Indenture and any modification, abrogation, alteration, compromise or arrangement of the rights of the Debtholders and/or the Indenture Trustee against the Fund;
- (b) approve any transaction whereby all or substantially all of the undertaking, property and assets of the Fund would become the property of another Person, provided that no such approval will be necessary in respect of any such transaction if the provisions of Article 10 have been complied with;
- (c) direct or authorize the Indenture Trustee (subject to indemnification and funding pursuant to Section 11.01(2)), to exercise or refrain exercising any power conferred upon it by this Indenture or to take any act, action or proceeding in the exercise of such power or to otherwise direct the manner in which such power may be exercised;
- (d) waive and direct the Indenture Trustee to waive any default or Event of Default under this Indenture and/or cancel any declaration made by the Indenture Trustee pursuant to Section 7.03 either unconditionally or upon any conditions specified in such Extraordinary Resolution;
- (e) restrain any holder of a Debt Security or a Coupon of such series from taking or instituting any suit, action or proceeding for recovery of amounts payable under such Debt Security or under this Indenture or from the execution of any trust or power under this Indenture or for the appointment of a trustee in bankruptcy or the winding up of the Fund or for any other remedy under this Indenture and to direct such holder of any such Debt Security to waive any Event of Default on which any suit or proceeding is founded;
- (f) direct any holder of a Debt Security or a Coupon of such series bringing any action, suit or proceeding to stay or discontinue or otherwise deal with the same in the manner directed by such Extraordinary Resolution upon payment (if the taking of such action, suit or proceeding has been permitted by Section 7.06) of the costs, charges and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by such Debtholder in connection therewith;

- (g) appoint a committee with power and authority (subject to such limitations, if any, as may be prescribed in the Extraordinary Resolution) to exercise, and to direct the Indenture Trustee to exercise, on behalf of the holders of such Debt Securities, such of the powers of the Debtholders as are exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution or other resolution as shall be included in the Extraordinary Resolution appointing the committee, and to remove any committee so appointed. The Extraordinary Resolution making such appointment may provide for payment of the expenses and disbursements of and compensation to such committee and the Indenture Trustee. Such committee will consist of such number of persons prescribed in the Extraordinary Resolution appointing it and the members need not be themselves holders of such Debt Securities. Every such committee may elect its chairman and may make regulations respecting its quorum, the calling of its meetings, the filling of vacancies occurring in its number and its procedures generally. Such regulations may provide that the committee may act at a meeting at which a person is present or may act by minutes signed by the number of members thereof necessary to constitute a quorum. All acts of any such committee within the authority delegated to it shall be binding upon all holders of such Debt Securities. Neither the committee nor any member of it nor the Indenture Trustee will be liable for any loss arising from or in connection with any action taken or omitted to be taken by them in good faith;
 - (h) assent to any judgment, compromise or arrangement by the Fund with any creditor or creditors or any class or classes of creditors or with the holders of any securities of the Fund, provided that no assent will be necessary in respect of a judgment for less than $5 million;
 - (i) provided the holders of every series of Debt Securities passes an Extraordinary Resolution to that effect, remove the Indenture Trustee from office and appoint a new Indenture Trustee;
 - (j) authorize the distribution in specie of any shares, bonds, debt securities or other securities or obligations and/or cash or other consideration received by the Trustee on behalf of Debtholders or the use or disposition of the whole or any part of such shares, bonds, debt securities or other securities or obligations and/or cash or other consideration in such manner and for such purpose as may be considered advisable and specified in such Extraordinary Resolution;
 - (k) approve the exchange of the Debt Securities for or the conversion thereof, at the option of the Fund, into shares, bonds, debt securities or other securities or obligations of the Fund or any entity formed or to be formed; and
 - (l) amend, alter or repeal any Extraordinary Resolution previously passed or approved by the Debtholders or by any committee appointed pursuant to Section 9.09(1)(g).
- (2) Notwithstanding Section 9.09(1), a resolution passed by the favourable votes of holders of not less than 75% of the outstanding principal amount of Debt Securities of any series represented at a meeting of holders of Debt Securities of such series will be required:

- (a) to change the stated maturity of the principal or Redemption Price of or any Premium or installment of interest on, such Debt Securities;
- (b) to reduce the principal amount of, Premium (if any) or interest on, such Debt Securities;
- (c) to change the place or currency of payment of principal or Redemption Price of, or Premium (if any) or interest on, such Debt Securities; or
- (d) to amend the percentage of holders of such Debt Securities of such series necessary to approve an Extraordinary Resolution.

9.10 Signed Instruments

Any action which may be taken and any power which may be exercised by the holders of a series of Debt Securities at a meeting held as provided in this Article 9 may also be taken and exercised by the holders of not less than 50% of the aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Debt Securities in such series by a signed instrument, except for matters required to be approved by Extraordinary Resolution in which case such matter may be approved by an instrument signed by 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % or, where 75% is required pursuant to Section 9.09(2), 75%, of the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Debt Securities of such series, and the expressions “resolution” or “Extraordinary Resolution” when used in this Indenture will include instruments so signed. Notice of any resolution or Extraordinary Resolution passed in accordance with this Section 9.10 will be given by the Indenture Trustee to the Debtholders affected thereby within 30 days of the date on which such resolution or Extraordinary Resolution was passed.

9.11 Binding Effect of Resolutions

Every resolution and every Extraordinary Resolution passed in accordance with the provisions of this Article 9 at a meeting of Debtholders will be binding upon all Debtholders to which such resolution relates, whether present at or absent from such meeting, and every instrument signed by Debtholders in accordance with Section 9.10 will be binding upon all the Debtholders to which such instrument relates, whether signatories thereto or not, and each and every Debtholder will be bound to give effect to every such resolution, Extraordinary Resolution and instrument. Notwithstanding anything in this Indenture (but subject to the provisions of any indenture, deed or instrument supplemental or ancillary hereto), any covenant or other provision in this Indenture or in any Supplemental Indenture which is expressed to be or is determined by the Indenture Trustee (relying on the advice of counsel) to be effective only with respect to Debt Securities of a particular series, may be modified by the required resolution or consent of the holders of the Debt Securities of such series in the same manner as if the Debt Securities of such series were the only Debt Securities outstanding under this Indenture.

9.12 Powers Cumulative

Any one or more powers and/or any combination of powers in this Indenture stated to be exercisable by Debtholders by Extraordinary Resolution or otherwise may be exercised from time to time and the exercise of any one or more of such powers or any combination of powers from time to time will not be deemed to exhaust the right of the holders of that series of Debt Securities to exercise the same or any other such power or powers or combination of powers thereafter from time to time. No powers exercisable by Extraordinary Resolution will derogate in any way from the rights of the Fund pursuant to this Indenture.

9.13 Minutes

Minutes of all resolutions and proceedings at every meeting of holders of a series of Debt Securities will be made and duly entered in books to be provided for that purpose by the Indenture Trustee at the expense of the Fund, and any such minutes, if signed by the chairman of the meeting at which such resolutions were passed or proceedings had, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting of holders of that series of Debt Securities, will be prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated and, until the contrary is proved, every such meeting, in respect of the proceedings of which minutes have been made, will be deemed to have been duly held and convened, and all resolutions passed or proceedings had thereat, to have been duly passed and had.

9.14 Fund and Indenture Trustee May Be Represented

The Fund and the Indenture Trustee, by their Trustees, directors, officers and employees, as applicable, and the legal advisers of the Fund and the Indenture Trustee may attend any meeting of Debtholders, but will have no vote as such.

9.15 Evidence of Rights of Debtholders

(1) Any request, direction, notice, consent or other instrument which this Indenture may require or permit to be signed or executed by the Debtholders may be in any number of concurrent instruments of similar tenor and may be signed or executed by such Debtholders in person or by attorney duly appointed in writing. Proof of the execution of any such request, direction, notice, consent or other instrument or of a writing appointing any such attorney will be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture if the fact and date of the execution by any Person of such request, direction, notice, consent or other instrument or writing may be proved by the certificate of any notary public, or other officer authorized to take acknowledgements of deeds to be recorded at the place where such certificate is made, that the Person signing such request, direction, notice, consent or other instrument or writing acknowledged to such notary public or other officer the execution thereof, or by an affidavit of a witness of such execution or in any other manner which the Indenture Trustee may consider adequate.

(2) Notwithstanding Section 9.15(1), the Indenture Trustee may in its discretion require further proof in cases where it considers further proof necessary or desirable or may accept such other proof as it considers proper.

9.16 Regulations

(1) The Indenture Trustee or the Fund, with the approval of the Indenture Trustee, may from time to time make reasonable regulations (and reasonable variations thereof) as it thinks fit providing for, without limitation:

- (a) voting by proxy by holders of Registered Debt Securities and the form of the instrument appointing a proxy (which will be in writing) and the manner in which the same may be executed and for the production of the authority of any Person signing on behalf of the giver of such proxy;

- (b) the deposit of instruments appointing proxies at such place or places and in such custody as the Indenture Trustee, the Fund or the Debtholders convening a particular meeting, as the case may be, may in the notice convening the meeting direct and the time, if any, before the holding of the meeting or any adjournment thereof by which the same will be deposited;
- (c) the deposit of instruments appointing proxies at some approved place or places other than the place at which a particular meeting is to be held and enabling particulars of instruments appointing proxies to be mailed, cabled, telegraphed, telecopied or sent by telex before the meeting to the Fund or to the Indenture Trustee at the place where the same is to be held and for the voting of proxies so deposited as though the instruments themselves were produced at the meeting; and
- (d) the issue of voting certificates to holders of Unregistered Debt Securities:
 - (i) by any bank, trust company, or other depository approved by the Indenture Trustee certifying that specified Unregistered Debt Securities have been deposited with it by a named holder and will remain on deposit until after the meeting and any adjournment thereof; and
 - (ii) by any bank, trust company, governmental departments or agency approved by the Indenture Trustee certifying that it is the holder of specified Unregistered Debt Securities and will continue to hold the same until after the meeting and any adjournment thereof; which voting certificates will entitle the holders named in them to be present and vote at any such meeting and at any adjournment thereof or to appoint a proxy or proxies to represent them and vote for them at any such meeting and at any adjournment thereof, in the same manner and with the same effect as though the holders so named in such voting certificates were the actual holders of the Debt Securities in bearer form specified therein.

(2) Any regulations made in accordance with Section 9.16(1) will be binding and effective and the votes given in accordance therewith will be valid and counted. (2) immediately before and immediately after giving effect to such transaction, no Event of Default has occurred and is continuing;

(3) where any Supplemental Indenture includes a covenant restricting the amount of Indebtedness the Fund may incur, immediately after giving effect to such transaction, the Successor could incur at least $1.00 of Indebtedness under such Supplemental Indenture;

(4) each of the Guarantors shall have executed and delivered to the Indenture Trustee a confirmation that the Guarantee executed by such Guarantor shall continue to guarantee the obligations of the Successor under the Debt Securities; and

(5) the Fund has delivered to the Indenture Trustee a Certificate and an opinion of counsel each stating that such consolidation, amalgamation, merger, sale, lease or transfer and such supplemental indenture comply with this Article and that all conditions precedent contained in this Indenture relating to such transaction have been complied with.

10.02 Vesting of Powers in Successor

Whenever the conditions of Section 10.01 have been duly observed and performed, the Indenture Trustee will execute and deliver a supplemental indenture as provided for in Article 14 and then:

(1) the Successor will possess and from time to time may exercise each and every right and power of the Fund under this Indenture in the name of the Fund or otherwise, and any act or proceeding by any provision of this Indenture required to be done or performed by any Trustees or officers of the Fund may be done and performed with like force and effect by the like trustees or directors or officers of such Successor; and

(2) the Fund will be released and discharged from liability under this Indenture and the Indenture Trustee will execute any documents which it may be advised are necessary or advisable for effecting or evidencing such release and discharge.

ARTICLE 11 - THE INDENTURE TRUSTEE

11.01 Duties of Indenture Trustee

(1) In the exercise of the rights and duties prescribed or conferred by the terms of this Indenture, the Indenture Trustee will act honestly and in good faith exercise that degree of care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent institutional trustee would exercise in comparable circumstances. Subject to the foregoing, the Indenture Trustee will be liable for its own fraud and gross negligence. The Indenture Trustee will not be liable for any act or default on the part of any agent employed by it or a co-trustee, or for having permitted any agent or co-trustee to receive and retain any money payable to the Indenture Trustee, except as aforesaid. The Indenture Trustee will read, and act upon (as required by this Indenture) all of the Written Orders, Written Directions, Certificates, opinions and other documents delivered to it under or pursuant to this Indenture.

(2) Subject only to Section 11.01(1), the obligation of the Indenture Trustee to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding for the purpose of enforcing any rights of the Indenture Trustee or Debtholders under this Indenture will be conditional upon such Debtholders furnishing, when required by notice in writing by the Indenture Trustee, sufficient funds to commence or continue such act, action or proceeding and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee to protect and hold harmless the Indenture Trustee against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred thereby and any loss and damage it may suffer by reason thereof. None of the provisions in this Indenture will require the Indenture Trustee to expend, commit or otherwise risk its own funds in the exercise of any of its rights or powers unless the Trustee has been funded and indemnified in accordance with this Section 11.01(2).

(3) The Indenture Trustee, prior to commencing or at any time during the continuance of any such act, action or proceeding, may require the Debtholders at whose instance it is acting to deposit with it Debt Securities held by them, for which Debt Securities the Indenture Trustee will issue receipts.

(4) Every provision of this Indenture that by its terms relieves the Indenture Trustee of liability or entitles it to rely upon any evidence submitted to it is subject to the provisions of applicable legislation, this Section 11.01 and Section 11.03.

11.02 No Conflict of Interest

The Indenture Trustee represents to the Fund that at the date of the execution and delivery of this Indenture there exists no material conflict of interest between the role of the Indenture Trustee as a fiduciary under this Indenture and the Indenture Trustee's role in any other capacity. If at any time a material conflict of interest exists in the Indenture Trustee's role as a fiduciary under this Indenture that is not eliminated within 90 days after the Indenture Trustee becomes aware that such a material conflict of interest exists, the Indenture Trustee will resign from the trusts under this Indenture by giving notice in writing of the nature of the conflict to the Fund at least 21 days prior to such resignation and will thereupon be discharged from all further duties and liabilities hereunder. Upon such resignation, the Indenture Trustee will be discharged from all further duties and liabilities under this Indenture. If, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, the Indenture Trustee has a material conflict of interest, the validity and enforceability of this Indenture, any Supplemental Indenture and any Debt Securities issued under any Supplemental Indenture will not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only of the existence of such material conflict of interest. If the Indenture Trustee contravenes the foregoing provisions of this Section, any interested party may apply to the Ontario Superior Court of Justice for an order that the Indenture Trustee be replaced as trustee under this Indenture.

11.03 Reliance upon Evidence of Compliance

(1) In the exercise of its rights, duties and obligations, the Indenture Trustee may, if it is acting in good faith, rely as to the truth of the statements and the accuracy of the opinions expressed therein, upon Written Orders, Written Directions, Certificates, Debtholders' Requests, resolutions, Extraordinary Resolutions, statutory declarations, opinions, reports, certificates or other evidence furnished pursuant to any covenant, condition or other requirement of this Indenture or required by the Indenture Trustee to be furnished to it in the exercise of its rights and duties under this Indenture where such statutory declarations, opinions, reports or certificates comply with the requirements of this Indenture and the Indenture Trustee examines such evidence and determines that such evidence indicates compliance with the applicable requirements of this Indenture. If there is a conflict between the provisions of this Indenture and the provisions of any law applicable to this Indenture or the Indenture Trustee, the provisions of such law will prevail.

(2) In addition to the reports, certificates, opinions, statutory declarations and other evidence required by this Indenture, the Fund will furnish to the Indenture Trustee such additional evidence of compliance with any provisions of this Indenture in such form as the Indenture Trustee may reasonably require by written notice to the Fund.

11.04 Employing Agents

The Indenture Trustee may employ or retain such counsel, auditors, accountants, appraisers or other experts or advisers, whose qualifications give authority to any opinion or report made by them, as it may reasonably require for the purpose of determining and discharging its duties under this Indenture. The remuneration, costs and expenses of any such counsel, auditor, accountant, appraiser or other expert or advisor will be paid by the Fund.

11.05 Indenture Trustee May Deal in Debt Securities

Subject to Sections 11.02 and 11.03, the Indenture Trustee may buy, sell, lend upon and deal in the Debt Securities or other securities of the Fund, either with the Fund or otherwise, and generally contract and enter into financial transactions with the Fund or otherwise, without being liable to account for any profits made thereby.

11.06 Indenture Trustee Not required to Give Security

The Indenture Trustee will not be required to give any bond or security for the execution of the trusts or otherwise in respect of this Indenture.

11.07 Action by Indenture Trustee to Protect Interests

The Indenture Trustee will have power to institute and maintain such actions and proceedings as it may consider necessary or expedient to preserve, protect or enforce its interests and the interests of the Debtholders.

11.08 Protection of Indenture Trustee

By way of supplement to the provisions of any law for the time being relating to trustees, it is expressly declared and agreed as follows:

(1) the Fund hereby indemnifies and saves harmless the Indenture Trustee and its directors, officers, employees and agents from and against all claims, demands, losses, actions, causes of action, costs, charges, expenses, damages and liabilities whatsoever brought against the Indenture Trustee which it may suffer or incur as a result of or arising in connection with the performance of its duties and obligations under this Indenture, including any and all legal fees and disbursements of whatever kind or nature except only in the event of the gross negligence or fraud of the Indenture Trustee or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents. This indemnity will survive the removal or resignation of the Indenture Trustee under this Indenture and the termination of the Indenture;

(2) the Indenture Trustee will not be liable for or by reason of any statements of fact in this Indenture or in the Debt Securities (except the representation contained in Sections 11.02 and 11.11 and in the certificate of the Indenture Trustee on the Debt Securities) or required to verify the same, but all such statements are and will be deemed to be made by the Fund;

(3) the Indenture Trustee will not be bound to give notice to any Person of the execution of this Indenture;

(4) the Indenture Trustee will not incur any liability or responsibility whatever or in any way be responsible for the consequence of any breach on the part of the Fund of any of the covenants contained in this Indenture or of any acts of the agents or employees of the Fund;

(5) the Indenture Trustee shall not be liable for any error in judgment or for any act done or step taken or omitted by it in good faith or for any mistake, in fact or law, made in good faith by it or for anything which it may do or refrain from doing in good faith in connection herewith, except arising out of its own fraud or gross negligence or the failure to comply with the standard of care described in the first sentence of Section 11.01(1);

(6) the Indenture Trustee will not be responsible for any error made or act done by it resulting from reliance upon the signature of any Person on behalf of the Fund or of any Person on whose signature the Indenture Trustee may be called upon or entitled to act or refrain from acting under this Indenture;

(7) the Indenture Trustee will not be required to disburse monies according to this Indenture except to the extent that monies have been deposited with it;

(8) neither the Indenture Trustee nor any Affiliates of the Indenture Trustee will be appointed a receiver or receiver and manager or liquidator of all or any part of the assets or undertaking of the Fund; and

(9) nothing in this Indenture will impose on the Indenture Trustee any obligation to see to, or to require evidence of the registration or filing (or renewal thereof) of this Indenture or any instrument ancillary or supplemental to this Indenture.

11.09 Investment of Trust Money

Unless otherwise provided in this Indenture, any money held by the Indenture Trustee, which under the trusts of this Indenture may or ought to be invested or which may be on deposit with the Indenture Trustee or which may be in the hands of the Indenture Trustee, may be invested and reinvested in the name or under the control of the Indenture Trustee as directed in writing by the Fund in any of the debt securities in which trustees are by the laws of the Province of Ontario authorized to invest at the time of investment maturing not later than one year from such time. Pending such investment, such money may be placed by the Indenture Trustee on deposit in a chartered bank in Canada, or with its own deposit department at the rate of interest then current for similar deposits and, provided that the Fund is not in default under this Indenture, will credit the Fund with interest received on money deposited with other depositories and on all money invested as provided in this Section 11.09, provided, however, that the Indenture Trustee may apply such interest and other income to pay amounts howsoever payable under this Indenture (including, without limitation, the remuneration and expenses of the Indenture Trustee). Unless an Event of Default in respect of principal of, Premium (if any) and interest on the Debt Securities or in respect of money payable under this Indenture has occurred and is continuing, all interest or other income received by the Indenture Trustee in respect of such deposits and investments will belong to the Fund and will be reimbursed to the Fund forthwith upon receipt thereof by the Indenture Trustee.

11.10 Resignation or Removal of Indenture Trustee

(1) The Indenture Trustee may resign from the trusts under this Indenture and thereupon be discharged from all further duties and liabilities under this Indenture by giving to the Fund 60 days' written notice or such shorter notice as the Fund may consider sufficient.

(2) If the Indenture Trustee resigns or is removed or dissolves, becomes bankrupt, goes into liquidation or otherwise becomes incapable of acting under this Indenture, the Fund will forthwith appoint a new Indenture Trustee unless a new Indenture Trustee has already been appointed by the Debtholders; failing such appointment by the Fund, the retiring Indenture Trustee at the Fund's expense may apply to a Judge of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, on such notice as such Judge may direct, for the appointment of a new Indenture Trustee. Any new Indenture Trustee so appointed by the Fund or by the Court will be subject to removal by all Debtholders by Extraordinary Resolution. Any new Indenture Trustee appointed under any provision of this Section 11.10 will be a corporation authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each province and territory of Canada. On any new appointment, the new Indenture Trustee will be vested with the same powers, rights, duties and responsibilities as if it had been originally named in this Indenture as Indenture Trustee. The expense of any act, document or other instrument or thing required or permitted under this Section 11.10 will be satisfied from the assets of the Fund.

(3) Forthwith upon appointment, any new or successor Indenture Trustee will become vested with all the estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts of its predecessors in the trusts under this Indenture, with like effect as if originally named as Indenture Trustee in this Indenture. Nevertheless, upon the written request of the successor Indenture Trustee or of the Fund and upon payment of all outstanding fees and expenses properly payable to the Indenture Trustee under this Indenture, the Indenture Trustee ceasing to act will execute and deliver an instrument assigning and transferring to such successor Indenture Trustee its rights and obligations under this indenture, and will duly assign, transfer and deliver all property and money held by such Indenture Trustee to the successor Indenture Trustee so appointed in its place. If any deed, conveyance or instrument in writing from the Fund is required by any new Indenture Trustee for more fully and certainly vesting in and confirming to it such estates, properties, rights, powers and trusts, then any and all such deeds, conveyances and instruments in writing will on the request of the new or successor Indenture Trustee, be made, executed, acknowledged and delivered by the Fund, as the case may be.

(4) Any company into which the Indenture Trustee may be merged or with which it may be consolidated or amalgamated or any company resulting from any merger, consolidation or amalgamation to which the Indenture Trustee will be a party will be a successor Indenture Trustee under this Indenture without the execution of any instrument or any further act; provided that such successor Indenture Trustee will be a corporation qualified to carry on the business of a trust company in each province and territory of Canada and will not have a material conflict of interest in its role as a fiduciary under this Indenture.

(5) The provisions of Section 11.08 shall, in respect of any liabilities suffered by the Indenture Trustee while acting as Indenture Trustee, survive the resignation or removal of the Indenture Trustee and the termination of this Indenture and any trust created hereby.

11.11 Authority to Carry on Business

The Indenture Trustee represents to the Fund that at the date of execution and delivery by it of this Indenture it is authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each province and territory of Canada. If, notwithstanding the provisions of this Section, the Indenture Trustee ceases to be so authorized to carry on business, the validity and enforceability of this Indenture and the Debt Securities issued under this Indenture or any Supplemental Indenture will not be affected in any manner whatsoever by reason only of such event but, within 90 days after ceasing to be authorized to carry on the business of a trust company in each province and territory of Canada, the Indenture Trustee either will become so authorized or resign in the manner and with the effect specified in Section 11.10.

11.12 General Provisions as to Certificates

(1) Each Certificate of the Fund, opinion of counsel or Written Order made to the Indenture Trustee or any Debtholder pursuant to any provision of this Indenture will specify the Section under which such certificate, opinion or Written Order is being made and will include:

- (a) a statement that the Person signing such certificate or opinion has read and is familiar with those provisions of this Indenture relating to the conditions precedent with respect to compliance with which such evidence is being given; and

- (b) a statement that, in the belief of the Person giving the evidence, that Person has made such examination or investigation as is necessary to enable him or her to make the statements or give the opinions contained or expressed therein.
- (2) Whenever the delivery of a certificate or opinion is a condition precedent to the taking of any action by the Indenture Trustee under this Indenture, the truth and accuracy of the facts and opinions stated in such certificate or opinion will in each case be conditions precedent to the right of the Fund to have such action taken.
- (3) Any certificate of any expert, insofar as it relates to matters outside of such expert's competence or responsibility, may be based upon a certificate or opinion of or upon representations by counsel or some other qualified expert, unless the first expert knows that the certificate or opinion or representations with respect to the matters upon which the certificate may be based as aforesaid are erroneous or, in the exercise or reasonable care, should have known that the same were erroneous.
- (4) The Fund shall provide to the Indenture Trustee an incumbency certificate setting out the names and sample signatures of persons authorized to give instructions to the Indenture Trustee hereunder. The Indenture Trustee shall be entitled to rely on such certificate until a revised certificate is provided to it hereunder. The Indenture Trustee shall be entitled to refuse to act upon any instructions given by a party which are signed by any person other than a person described in the incumbency certificate most recently provided to it pursuant to this section.
- (5) The Indenture Trustee shall be entitled to rely, and act upon, on any direction, order, instruction, notice or other communication provided to it hereunder which is sent to it by facsimile transmission.

11.13 Conditions Precedent to Indenture Trustee's Obligation to Act

- (1) The Indenture Trustee will not be bound to give any notice or do or take any act, action or proceeding by virtue of the powers conferred on it by this Indenture until it has been required so to do under the terms of this Indenture. The Indenture Trustee will not be required to take notice of any Event of Default under this Indenture, other than in payment of any money required by any provision of this Indenture to be paid to it, unless and until notified in writing of such Event of Default which notice will specify the Event of Default desired to be brought to the attention of the Indenture Trustee. In the absence of such notice, the Indenture Trustee may for all purposes of this Indenture assume that no default has been made in the observance or performance of any of the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or conditions contained in this Indenture. Any such notice will in no way limit any discretion given to the Indenture Trustee in this Indenture to determine whether or not to take action with respect to any Event of Default.
- (2) The obligation of the Indenture Trustee to commence or continue any act, action or proceeding, will be conditional upon receipt of an Extraordinary Resolution specifying the act, action or proceeding which the Indenture Trustee is requested to take, sufficient funds to commence or continue such act, action or proceeding and an indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee to protect and hold harmless the Indenture Trustee against the costs, charges and expenses and liabilities to be incurred thereby and any loss and damage it may suffer by reason thereof.

(3) The Indenture Trustee shall not be required to act and shall not be held liable for refusing to act unless it receives clear and reasonable documentation which complies with the terms of this Indenture. Such documentation must not require the exercise of any discretion or independent judgment, except as otherwise provided herein.

CALLOWAY REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST

(A trust organized under the laws of Alberta)

4.51% SERIES A DEBENTURE DUE SEPTEMBER 22, 2010

CALLOWAY REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST (the "Trust") for value received hereby acknowledges itself indebted and, subject to the provisions of a trust indenture (the "Indenture") dated as of September 22, 2005 between the Trust and Computershare Trust Company of Canada (the "Indenture Trustee"), promises to pay to the registered holder hereof on September 22, 2010, or on such earlier date as the principal amount hereof may become due in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture the principal sum of $_____ in lawful money of Canada on presentation and surrender of this Debenture at the head office of the Indenture Trustee in Toronto, and to pay interest on the principal amount hereof from the date of this Debenture, or from the last interest payment date to which interest shall have been paid or made available for payment on the outstanding Debentures, whichever is later, at the rate of 4.51% per annum, in arrears in semi-annual instalments (less any tax required by law to be deducted) on September 22 and March 22 in each year, commencing on March 22, 2006 until September 22, 2010. If the Trust at any time defaults in the payment of any principal or interest, the Trust will pay interest on the amount in default at the same rate and half-yearly on the same dates.

Except as may be provided in the Indenture, payment of interest due upon this Debenture (except interest payable on maturity or redemption which may be paid upon presentation of this Debenture for payment), will be made on the due date for payment thereof in the following manner. The Trust (either directly or through the Indenture Trustee or any agent of the Indenture Trustee), as least two Business Days before each due date for payment of interest, will forward or cause to be forwarded by prepaid ordinary mail (or in the event of mail service interruption, by such other means as the Indenture Trustee and the Trust determine to be appropriate), a cheque for such interest (less any tax required by law to be deducted) payable to the registered holder hereof at the address appearing on the register unless otherwise directed in writing by the holder or, in the case of registered joint holders, payable to all such joint holders and addressed to one of them at the last address appearing in the applicable register and negotiable at par at each of the places at which interest hereunder is payable. The forwarding of such cheque will satisfy and discharge the liability for the interest hereunder to the extent of the sum represented thereby (plus the amount of any tax deducted as aforesaid) unless such cheque is not paid on presentation at any of the places at which such interest is payable.

This Debenture is one of the 4.51% Series A Debentures due September 22, 2010 (the "Debentures") of the Trust issued or issuable under the provisions of the Indenture. The Debentures are limited to an aggregate principal amount of $250,000,000 in lawful money of Canada. Reference is expressly made to the Indenture for a description of the terms and conditions upon which the Debentures are or are to be issued and held and the rights and remedies of the holders of the Debentures and of the Trust and of the Indenture Trustee, all to the same effect as if the provisions of the Indenture were set out in this Debenture, and all of which provisions the holder of this Debenture by acceptance hereof assents.

The Debentures are initially issuable only as fully registered Debentures in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof. Upon compliance with the provisions of the Indenture, Debentures of any denomination may be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Debentures in any other authorized denomination or denominations.

This Debenture may be redeemed at the option of the Trust on the terms and conditions set out in the Indenture at the redemption price set out in the Indenture.

The indebtedness evidenced by this Debenture and by all other Debentures now or hereafter certified and delivered under the Indenture is a direct unsecured and unsubordinated obligation of the Trust.

The right is reserved to the Trust to purchase Debentures for cancellation in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture.

The principal of this Debenture may become or be declared due and payable before the stated maturity in the events, in the manner, with the effect and at the times provided in the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions making binding upon all holders of Debentures outstanding under the Indenture resolutions passed at meetings of such holders held in accordance with such provisions and instruments signed by the holders of a specified majority of Debentures outstanding, which resolutions or instruments may have the effect of amending the terms of this Debenture or the Indenture.

The Indenture contains provisions disclaiming any personal liability on the part of holders of Units or the trustees, officers or agents of the Trust in respect of any obligation or claim arising out of the Indenture or this Debenture.

This Debenture may only be transferred, upon compliance with the conditions prescribed in the Indenture, in one of the registers to be kept at the principal office of the Indenture Trustee in Toronto, Ontario and in such other place or places and/or by such other registrars (if any)

as the Trust with the approval of the Indenture Trustee may designate, by the registered holder of this Debenture or its executors or administrators or other legal representatives, or its or their attorney duly appointed by an instrument in form and substance satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee or other registrar, and upon compliance with such reasonable requirements as the Indenture Trustee and/or other registrar may prescribe.

This Debenture will not become obligatory for any purpose until it has been certified by the Indenture Trustee under the Indenture.

FORM OF GUARANTEE

WHEREAS Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust (the "Fund") wishes to issue or has issued senior unsecured debentures designated as 4.51% Series A Debentures due September 22, 2010 pursuant to a trust indenture to be dated September 22, 2005 (the "Debt Issue");

AND WHEREAS various subsidiary entities of the Fund including the undersigned (the "Guarantor", collectively the "Guarantors") will derive benefit from the Debt Issue through the increased liquidity and reduced cost of capital available to the Fund and the Guarantor and, accordingly, the Guarantor wishes to support the Debt Issue by providing a guarantee to the Indenture Trustee acting on behalf of and as trustee for the Debentureholders (all as defined herein).

NOW THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION of the Debentureholders making the loan to the Fund and of the sum of $10.00 now paid by the Fund to each of the Guarantors on behalf of the Debentureholders, the receipt and sufficiency of which is hereby acknowledged, the Guarantor covenants as follows:

1. All capitalized words or phrases shall have the meanings set forth herein or in Schedule "A" attached hereto or in the Indenture.
2. The Guarantor unconditionally and absolutely guarantees to the Indenture Trustee and the Debentureholders:
 - (a) repayment of the Indebtedness including all interest, costs and charges, at the times and in the manner set forth in the Indenture; and
 - (b) the performance and observance by the Fund of all terms, conditions, covenants and agreements to be performed by the Fund that are contained in the Indenture.
3. (a) As between the Debentureholders and the Guarantor, the Guarantor is and shall continue to be liable hereunder notwithstanding:
 - (i) any transaction which may take place between the Debentureholders, the Indenture Trustee and the Fund and whether or not the Guarantor has been given notice of such transaction and whether or not the Guarantor has consented thereto; and
 - (ii) any act, omission, neglect or default of the Indenture Trustee or Debentureholders which might otherwise operate as a discharge, either partial or absolute, of the Guarantor, or any one or more of them, and, whether or not the Guarantor has been given notice of such act, omission, neglect or default and whether or not the Guarantor has consented thereto.
- (b) Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, as between the Indenture Trustee, the Debentureholders and the Guarantor, the Guarantor is and shall continue to be liable hereunder, notwithstanding:

- (i) the Debentureholders or Indenture Trustee failing to or abstaining from perfecting any security which may be offered by the Fund;
- (ii) the release, discharge, renewal, modification, variation or amendment, in whole or in part, of the terms of the Indebtedness or any security (including without restriction any increase or decrease in the interest rate, the amortization period or the monthly payments or any extension or reduction in the length of the term as set forth in the Indenture or in the Debentures);
- (iii) the granting of any time or other indulgences to the Fund or anyone else now or hereafter liable to the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders in respect of the Indebtedness;
- (iv) the taking of collateral security or additional guarantees by the Debentureholders or Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Debentureholders;
- (v) the Debentureholders or Indenture Trustee failing to or abstaining from realizing upon any security which may be available;
- (vi) the acceptance, by the Debentureholders or Indenture Trustee, of any composition or arrangement involving any security which is available, or the variation or termination of any contract or agreement between the Fund and the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders;
- (vii) the release, howsoever obtained or caused, of the Fund from any or all obligations owed to the Indenture Trustee or Debentureholders;
- (viii) the bankruptcy, death or dissolution of the Fund;
- (ix) any compromise, reduction or disallowance of any of the Fund's obligations by virtue of the application of any bankruptcy, insolvency or similar such laws, and laws affecting creditors' rights generally or general principles of equity;
- (x) the existence of any claims, set-off or other rights that the Guarantor may have against the Fund, the Indenture Trustee, any Debentureholder or any other Person, whether or not related to the transactions contemplated by the Indenture or this Guarantee;
- (xi) any invalidity, illegality, irregularity or unenforceability for any reason of the Indenture or any Debenture or in any part thereof as regards the Fund, or any provision of applicable law or regulation purporting to prohibit the payment by the Fund of the principal or of interest on any Debenture or any other amount payable by the Fund under the Indenture;
- (xii) any other act or omission to act or delay of any kind by the Fund, the Indenture Trustee, any Debentureholder or any other Person or any other circumstance whatsoever which might, but for the provisions of this paragraph, constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of the Guarantor's obligations hereunder;

- (xiii) any contest by the Fund or any Person as to the amount of the Indebtedness;
- (xiv) the recovery of any judgment against the Fund or any action to enforce the same;
- (xv) the transfer of the Fund's obligations under the Debenture or Indenture to the Debentureholders or to anyone else, or the assumption of any security with or without the release of the Fund and with or without consent of the Debentureholders, the Indenture Trustee, the Fund or the Guarantor; or
- (xvi) the determination, for any cause or reason whatsoever, of any right of the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders held as against the Fund or anyone else pursuant to the obligations represented by the Debentures and the Indenture.

The Indenture Trustee, for and on behalf of the Debentureholders, in its absolute discretion and without diminishing the liability of the Guarantor, or incurring any responsibility or liability to the Guarantor, may do, commit or cause all acts, omissions and results which are contemplated by the foregoing subparagraphs (i) through (xvi).

4. The Guarantor may not consolidate with, amalgamate or merge with or into or sell, assign, transfer or lease all or substantially all of its properties and assets unless the entity (the "Successor" including, if required in the case of a joint venture, the parties to such joint venture) formed by such consolidation or amalgamation or into which the Guarantor is merged or the entity which acquired by operation of law or by conveyance or by transfer the assets of the Guarantor substantially as an entirety is a corporation, trust, partnership, limited partnership, joint venture or unincorporated organization organized or existing under the laws of Canada or any province or territory thereof and (except where such assumption is deemed to have occurred solely by the operation of law) the Successor assumes under an agreement satisfactory to the Indenture Trustee relying on the advice of counsel (who may also be counsel to the Fund), all obligations of the Guarantor under this Guarantee and such transaction to which satisfaction of the Indenture Trustee will be upon such terms to preserve and not to impair any of the rights and powers of the Indenture Trustee and of the Debentureholders under this Guarantee.
5. Any account settled or stated by or between the Debentureholders and the Fund, or admitted by or on behalf of the Fund, may be adduced by the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders and, shall in that case, be conclusive evidence as against the Guarantor that the balance or amount appearing therein is the sum of money due by the Fund to the Debentureholders.
6. The Guarantor shall not, at any time, claim to be subrogated, in any manner, to the position of the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders and shall not claim the benefit of any security at any time held by the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders, provided however, that in the event of the Guarantor paying to the Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Debentureholders (or otherwise making provision for payment in accordance with the Indenture) all of the Indebtedness, then the Guarantor shall be entitled, on demand made by it in writing to the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders, to the assignment of so much of the security, if any, which remains in the Indenture Trustee's or Debentureholders' possession at the time of receipt of the said payment.

7. The Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Debentureholders shall not be bound to exhaust its legal remedies against the Fund, any other parties, or any additional or collateral security which it may hold, prior to becoming entitled to payment from the Guarantor.
8. The obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall be direct and unconditional and independent of the obligations of the Fund, and a separate action or actions may be brought and maintained against the Guarantor without the necessity of joining or previously proceeding against or exhausting any other remedy against the Fund, or any security then held.
9. If an Event of Default (as defined under the Indenture) occurs and all conditions have been met such that the Indenture Trustee is entitled to make a declaration pursuant to Section 7.03 of the Indenture that the principal of, Premium (if any) and the interest and additional amounts (if any) on the Debentures then outstanding and any other money payable under the Indenture is due and payable then the Guarantor shall forthwith on demand of the Indenture Trustee acting on behalf of the Debentureholders, pay to the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders in the manner established for payment by the Fund to the Indenture Trustee or the Debentureholders all principal monies, interest, costs and charges due by virtue of this Guarantee. In the event of the Guarantor's failure to so pay, the outstanding sum may be recovered by the Indenture Trustee acting on behalf of Debentureholders against the Guarantor as a just debt due and improperly withheld and it is the express intention and agreement of the Guarantor and the Debentureholders that the Guarantor shall fully and totally indemnify the Indenture Trustee and the Debentureholders for all costs, expenses, charges and monies of any nature whatsoever, including, without restriction, all legal costs as between a solicitor and his own client either directly or indirectly, arising out of or associated with the enforcement of this Guarantee and the collection of all monies owing hereunder by the Guarantor to the Debentureholders.
10. It is expressly acknowledged and agreed by the Guarantor that should the Indenture Trustee acting on behalf of the Debentureholders obtain a judgment or judgments from a Court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a default by the Guarantor with respect to any of the covenants contained herein, then interest shall accrue, be calculated, and be payable to the Debentureholders by the Guarantor upon that judgment or judgments at the rate of interest per annum and at the times as are stipulated in the Indenture. Such interest shall commence on the date that judgment is granted and shall continue to be payable until the judgment monies, including accrued interest, have been paid to the Debentureholders.
11. The Guarantor acknowledges that there have been no representations whatsoever, either written or oral, made to or relied upon by the Guarantor other than those contained herein.

This Guarantee may be amended only by an agreement in writing executed by both the Indenture Trustee on behalf of the Debentureholders and the Guarantor.

12. In its absolute discretion, the Indenture Trustee acting on behalf of the Debentureholders, may obtain an additional guarantee or guarantees of the Indebtedness. The taking of any additional guarantee shall not reduce the liability of the Guarantor, which liability shall be joint and several with any other guarantor, to the extent that the Guarantee is the same for each guarantor.
13. The Guarantor's liability shall not be diminished or affected, where any person expected or believed by the Guarantor to be or to become an additional guarantor, is not an additional guarantor and does not for any reason whatsoever become an additional guarantor. Further, the Guarantor's liability shall not be diminished or affected by any transaction whatsoever which may take place between the Debentureholders and any other guarantor, including but not restricted to any act, omission, neglect or default of the Debentureholders which may vary or terminate in whole or in part the liability of such other guarantor.
14. In this Guarantee:
 - (a) the covenants contained herein shall be joint and several; and
 - (b) all words imputing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.
15. This Guarantee:
 - (a) shall enure to the benefit of the Indenture Trustee and the Debentureholders and their successors and assigns; and
 - (b) shall extend to and be binding upon the successors and assigns of a corporate Guarantor and the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns of an individual Guarantor.
 - (a) All notices, requests, demands, pleadings, judicial documentation and any other communications required to be served or given by the terms of this Guarantee or any security or by any legislation or Rules of Court as a result of the default by the Guarantor, including but not restricted to any Statement of Claim issued by the Debentureholders or the Indenture Trustee on their behalf or a Notice of Motion requesting enforcement of the Debentureholders' rights hereunder, shall be sufficiently served either personally or by prepaid registered mail addressed to the party to whom the notice is to be given at the address set forth in Schedule "B" attached hereto.
 - (b) No want of notice of publication when required by this Guarantee or by any statute nor any impropriety nor irregularity shall invalidate any proceedings taken or purported to be taken pursuant to this Guarantee.
17. The unenforceability of any agreement, provision or covenant contained herein shall not affect the enforceability of any other agreement, provision or covenant and each of the said agreements, provisions and covenants so contained shall be deemed to be severable from all others.

18. Upon this Guarantee bearing the signature of the Guarantor coming into the hands of any officer, agent or employee of the Indenture Trustee, the same shall be deemed to be finally executed and delivered by the Guarantor and shall not be subject to or affected by any promise or condition which purports to affect or limit the Guarantor's liability, except as the same is expressly set forth herein. No statement, representation, agreement or promise on the part of any officer, employee or agent of the Indenture Trustee or Debentureholders, unless expressly contained herein, shall form any part of this Guarantee or has induced the making thereof or shall be deemed in any way to affect the Guarantor's liability hereunder.
19. No change in the name, objects, unit capital, business, membership, trustees' powers, organization or management of the Fund shall in any way affect the obligations of the Guarantor, either with respect to transactions occurring before or after any such change, it being understood that this Guarantee is to extend to the person or persons or corporation or trust or other business entity for the time being and from time to time carrying on the business now carried on by the Fund notwithstanding any change or changes in the name or unit holders of the Fund and notwithstanding any reorganization of the Fund or its amalgamation with any other or others or the sale or disposal of its business in whole or in part to another or others.
20. Neither the Indenture Trustee nor the Debentureholders shall be concerned to see or enquire into the powers of the Fund or its trustees, unit holders or agents acting or purporting to act on its behalf and any security obtained and granted in the professed exercise of such powers shall be deemed to form part of the Indebtedness even though the borrowing of the Indebtedness or granting of the security was irregular, fraudulent, defective or informally effected, or in excess of the powers of the Fund or of the Fund Trustees, partners or agents thereof.
21. This Guarantee shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the Province of Alberta and the Guarantor hereby irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the Courts of the Province of Alberta with regards to any proceedings under this Guarantee.
22. Each reference in this Guarantee to any agreement (including this Guarantee and any other defined term that is an agreement) at any time shall be construed so as to include such agreement (including any attached schedules, appendices and exhibits) and each amendment, supplement, other modification, novation or replacement thereof made at or before that time.
23. The obligations of the Guarantor hereunder shall be solely those of the Guarantor and none of the Indenture Trustees, the trustees or unit holders (in the case of a Guarantor that is a trust), the general or limited partners (in the case of a Guarantor that is a partnership other than Calloway GP Inc. in the case of Calloway Limited Partnership), or directors or shareholders in the case of a Guarantor that is a corporation shall have any liabilities or obligations with regards to such obligations and recourse hereunder shall be had solely against the Guarantor and to the property and assets of the Guarantor for payment or performance of the Guarantor's obligations hereunder.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the Guarantors have executed this Guarantee effective this 22nd day of September, 2005.

RECITALS:

A. The Fund has entered into a trust indenture (the "Trust Indenture") made as of September 22, 2005 between the Fund and the Indenture Trustee which provides for the issuance of one or more series of unsecured debt securities of the Fund by way of supplemental indentures; and

B. This First Supplemental Indenture is entered into for the purpose of providing for the issue of up to $500,000,000 aggregate principal amount of 5.37% Series B Debentures of the Fund (the "Series B Debentures") under the Trust Indenture and establishing the terms, provisions and conditions of the Series B Debentures.

NOW THEREFORE THIS FIRST SUPPLEMENTAL INDENTURE WITNESSES and it is hereby covenanted, agreed and declared as follows.

ARTICLE 1 - INTERPRETATION

1.01 Supplemental Indenture

This First Supplemental Indenture is a Supplemental Indenture within the meaning of the Trust Indenture. The Trust Indenture and this First Supplemental Indenture will be read together and have effect so far as practicable as though all of the provisions of both indentures were contained in one instrument.

1.02 First Supplemental Indenture

The terms "this First Supplemental Indenture", "this indenture", "herein", "hereof", "hereby", "hereunder", and similar expressions, unless the context otherwise specifies or requires, refer to the Trust Indenture as supplemented by this First Supplemental Indenture and not to any particular Article, Section or other portion, and include every instrument supplemental or ancillary to this First Supplemental Indenture.

1.03 Definitions

All terms used but not defined in this First Supplemental Indenture have the meanings ascribed to them in the Trust Indenture, as such meanings may be amended by this First Supplemental Indenture. In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the terms in the Trust Indenture and the terms of this First Supplemental Indenture, the terms of this First Supplemental Indenture prevail.

Subject to the foregoing, in this First Supplemental Indenture and in the Series B Debentures, the following terms have the following meanings.

“Acquired Indebtedness” means the Indebtedness of a Person (i) existing at the time such Person becomes a Subsidiary of the Fund, or (ii) assumed by the Fund in connection with the acquisition of assets from such Person, calculated as of the date such Person becomes a Subsidiary or of such acquisition, in each case, other than Indebtedness incurred in connection with or in contemplation of such Person’s becoming a Subsidiary or such acquisition.

“Aggregate Assets” of the Fund, at any time, means the total book value of the assets of the Fund, excluding goodwill, determined on a consolidated basis, plus accumulated amortization of income properties, including accumulated amortization of the fair value of intangible assets but less the fair value of intangible liabilities and the associated accumulated amortization recorded on the acquisition of income properties, recorded in the books and records of the Fund at such time, determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

“Balance Sheet Date” has the meaning attributed to it in Section 3.05.

“Book-Based System” means the record entry securities transfer system known as at the date of this First Supplemental Indenture by the name “Depository Service”, which is administered by CDS in accordance with the operating rules and procedures of the securities settlement service of CDS, in force from time to time, and any successor system thereof.

“Canada Yield Price” means a price equal to the price of a Series B Debenture calculated to provide a yield to maturity, compounded semi-annually and calculated in accordance with generally accepted financial practice, equal to the Government of Canada Yield calculated at 10:00 a.m. (Toronto time) on the date on which the Fund gives notice of redemption pursuant to Section 5.04 of the Trust Indenture, plus 0.34%.

ARTICLE 2 - SERIES B DEBENTURES

2.01 Creation and Designation

In accordance with the Trust Indenture, the Fund is authorized to issue under this First Supplemental Indenture a series of Debt Securities designated “5.37% Series B Debentures due October 12, 2016”, which will have the terms set out in Article 2 and Article 3 hereof.

2.02 Limitation on Aggregate Principal Amount

The aggregate principal amount of Series B Debentures which may be issued under this First Supplemental Indenture will consist of and be limited to $500,000,000 in lawful money of Canada with the first issuance of Series B Debentures on October 12, 2006 being equal to $250,000,000 principal amount. Subsequent to the date hereof, the Fund may issue additional 5.37% Series B Debentures due October 12, 2016 up to the aggregate principal amount contemplated hereunder.

2.03 Date of Issue and Maturity

The Series B Debentures will be dated October 12, 2006 (regardless of their actual date of issue) and will become due and payable, together with all accrued interest and unpaid interest thereon, on October 12, 2016 (the “Maturity Date”).

2.04 Interest

(1) The Series B Debentures will be issued in $1,000 denominations or integral multiples thereof and bear interest on the unpaid principal amount thereof at the rate of 5.37% per annum from their date of issue to but excluding the Maturity Date, compounded semi-annually and payable in arrears in equal semi-annual payments on each Interest Payment Date (other than the first Interest Payment Date). The first Interest Payment Date for the initial issuance on October 12, 2006 will be April 12, 2007.

(2) Interest will be payable in respect of each Interest Period (after as well as before maturity, default and judgment, with overdue interest at the same rate) on each Interest Payment Date in accordance with Section 2.08 of the Trust Indenture. Interest on the Series B Debentures for the first Interest Period and for any other period which is not a full Interest Period will be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in the case of a leap year) based on the actual number of days elapsed and will accrue from day to day.

(3) While the Series B Debentures are represented by a global debenture (a "Global Debenture"), the Regular Record Date will be the close of business five Business Days preceding the relevant Interest Payment Date. If the Series B Debentures cease to be represented by a Global Debenture, the Fund may select a Regular Record Date which will be a date that is at least 10 Business Days preceding an Interest Payment Date.

2.05 Redemption of Series B Debentures

(1) The Series B Debentures are redeemable at the option of the Fund in whole or in part at any time and from time to time prior to maturity in accordance with Article 5 of the Trust Indenture. The redemption price for the Series B Debentures to be redeemed by the Fund shall be an amount equal to the greater of (i) the Canada Yield Price and (ii) par, together in each case with accrued and unpaid interest to the date fixed for redemption (less any taxes required by law to be deducted or withheld). Less than all of the Series B Debentures may be redeemed in accordance with Section 5.03 of the Trust Indenture.

(2) In case the holder of any Series B Debenture so called for redemption shall fail on or before the redemption date to so surrender such holder's Series B Debenture, or shall not within such time accept payment of the redemption monies payable, or give such receipt therefor, if any, as the Indenture Trustee may require, such redemption monies may be set aside in trust either in the deposit department of the Indenture Trustee or in a chartered bank, and such setting aside shall for all purposes be deemed a payment to the Debentureholder of the sum so set aside and, to that extent, the Series B Debenture shall thereafter not be considered as outstanding hereunder and the Debentureholder shall have no other right except to receive payment out of the monies so paid and deposited upon surrender and delivery up of such holder's Series B Debenture of the Redemption Price of such Series B Debenture plus any accrued but unpaid interest thereon (less any taxes required by law to be deducted or withheld) to but excluding the redemption date. In the event that any money required to be deposited hereunder with the Indenture Trustee or any depository or paying agent on account of principal or interest, if any, on Series B Debentures issued hereunder shall remain so deposited for a period of six years from the redemption date, then such monies, together with interest, if any, accumulated thereon, shall at the end of such period be paid over or delivered over by the Indenture Trustee or such depository or paying agent to the Fund on its written demand, and thereupon the Indenture Trustee shall not be responsible to Debentureholders for any amounts owing to them and, subject to applicable law, thereafter the holder of a Series B Debenture in respect of which such money was so repaid to the Fund shall have no rights in respect thereof except to obtain payment of the money due from the Fund, subject to any limitation period provided by the laws of Ontario.

2.06 Form of Series B Debentures

The Series B Debentures will be issuable as fully registered Debt Securities, initially as one Global Debenture held by, or on behalf of, CDS, as depository, for its participants and registered in the name of CDS or its nominee. The Series B Debentures will be substantially in the form set out in Schedule "A" to this First Supplemental Indenture with changes as may be reasonably required by CDS and which are not prejudicial to the holders of the Series B Debentures, and any other changes as may be approved or permitted by the Fund, with such approval in each case to be conclusively deemed to have been given by the officers of the Fund executing the same in accordance with Article 2 of the Trust Indenture.

2.07 Book-Based System

(1) Registrations of ownership and transfers of the Series B Debentures will be made only through the Book-Based System.

(2) The rights of holders of any beneficial interest in the Series B Debentures (“Beneficial Holders”) represented by a Global Debenture (including the right to receive a certificate or other instrument evidencing an ownership interest in such Series B Debentures) will be exercised only through CDS or by proxy issued by CDS or its clearing agency participants and will be limited to those rights established by applicable law and agreements between CDS and its participants and between such participants and holders of such interests.

(3) Neither the Fund nor the Indenture Trustee will be under any obligation to deliver, nor will the holder of an interest in the Series B Debentures represented by a Global Debenture have any right, except as provided in Section 2.07(4), to require the delivery of a certificate evidencing a Series B Debenture to the holder of the interest in such Series B Debenture.

(4) The Fund will deliver to the Indenture Trustee definitive Series B Debentures in fully registered form to be issued to Beneficial Holders, will allow transfers of Series B Debentures other than within the Book-Based System and will make payments or distributions required to be made under this First Supplemental Indenture to Beneficial Holders if:

- (a) the Fund is required to do so by applicable law;
- (b) the Fund elects to do so;
- (c) the Book-Based System ceases to exist;
- (d) the Fund determines that CDS is no longer willing or able to discharge properly its responsibilities as depository and the Fund is unable to find a qualified successor;
- (e) the Fund elects to terminate the record entry system through CDS for any reason (including, without limitation, in circumstances where the Fund considers it impracticable or inefficient to effect any distribution of Series B Debentures through the Book-Based System or through the facilities of CDS); or
- (f) after the occurrence of an Event of Default which is continuing, Beneficial Holders holding beneficial interests aggregating over 50% of the outstanding principal amount of Series B Debentures determine that the continuation of the Book-Based System is no longer in the interests of such Debentureholders and notify the Indenture Trustee and the Fund to such effect.

(5) While the Series B Debentures are represented by a Global Debenture, the Fund and the Indenture Trustee will deal with CDS for all purposes of this First Supplemental Indenture and the Trust Indenture, including the making of payments on the Series B Debentures, as the sole holder of the Series B Debentures and the authorized representative of the beneficial holders of the Series B Debentures. In particular, the Indenture Trustee will give only to CDS all notices or other communications required to be provided to holders of Series B Debentures.

2.08 Currency of Payment

The principal of and interest on the Series B Debentures will be payable in Canadian dollars.

2.09 Additional Amounts

The Fund will not be required to pay an additional amount on the Series B Debentures in respect of any tax, assessment or government charge withheld or deducted.

2.10 Indenture Trustee, etc.

The Indenture Trustee will be the trustee, authenticating agent, paying agent, transfer agent and registrar for the Series B Debentures.

ARTICLE 3 - RESTRICTIONS ON INDEBTEDNESS

3.01 Interest Coverage Covenant

The Fund will maintain a ratio of Consolidated EBITDA to Consolidated Interest Expense of not less than 1.65 to 1, calculated from time to time in respect of the most recently completed Reference Period.

3.02 Asset Coverage Test

Subject to Section 3.03, the Fund will not incur or assume, or permit any Subsidiary to incur or assume, any Indebtedness unless the quotient (expressed as a percentage) obtained by dividing Consolidated Indebtedness by Aggregate Assets, calculated on a pro forma basis as described in Section 3.05 (the "Indebtedness Percentage"), would be less than or equal to 65%.

3.03 Permitted Indebtedness

Notwithstanding Section 3.02, the Fund and any Subsidiary of the Fund will be permitted to incur and issue the following types of Indebtedness:

(1) Indebtedness evidenced by the 4.51% Series A senior unsecured debentures due September 22, 2010;

(2) Indebtedness evidenced by the 5.37% Series B senior unsecured debentures due October 12, 2016;

(3) Indebtedness of the Fund owed to any of its Subsidiaries and Indebtedness of any Subsidiary of the Fund owed to the Fund and/or another of its Subsidiaries provided, however, that the provisions of this Section 3.03(3) will no longer be applicable:

(a) upon the subsequent transfer or other disposition by the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries to any Person other than the Fund or another of the Fund's Subsidiaries of such Indebtedness, to the amount of such Indebtedness that was so transferred or otherwise disposed of to such other Person; or

- (b) in the case of Indebtedness of the Fund owed to any of its Subsidiaries, upon the subsequent issuance or disposition of common shares (including, without limitation, by consolidation or merger) of such Subsidiary which results in such Subsidiary ceasing to be a Subsidiary of the Fund (and thereby for this purpose a “third party”), to the amount of such Indebtedness equal to the product obtained by multiplying the amount of such Indebtedness by the percentage of common shares of the third party owned immediately after such issuance or disposition of such common shares by Persons other than the Fund or one of its Subsidiaries, and, in each case, such amount of such Indebtedness will be deemed for the purpose of Section 3.02 to have been incurred at the time of such transfer, issuance or disposition; and

(4) Indebtedness of the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries (“Refinancing Indebtedness”) which is incurred, or the proceeds of which are used, to renew, extend, repay, redeem, purchase, refinance or refund from time to time in whole or in part (each a “Refinancing”) (including any subsequent Refinancing) any Indebtedness of the Fund or any of its Subsidiaries (the “Original Indebtedness”) whether now existing, or incurred or assumed at a time when permitted pursuant to Section 3.02, provided, however, that:

- (a) the amount of the Refinancing Indebtedness (or subsequent Refinancing Indebtedness) does not exceed the total amount paid by the Fund to retire the Original Indebtedness or any prior Refinancing thereof (including any premium and all expenses incurred in connection therewith); and
- (b) in the case of a Refinancing of all or part of the Series B Debentures, the Refinancing thereof ranks equally and rateably with (or subordinate in right of payment to) the Debt Securities (whether then existing or created at any time in the future) (including any Series B Debentures then remaining outstanding) or, if the Refinancing is subordinate in right of payment to the Debt Securities, any subsequent Refinancing is subordinate in right of payment to the Debt Securities (whether then existing or created at any time in the future).

3.04 Calculations for Interest Coverage Covenant

For the purposes of Section 3.01, Consolidated EBITDA will be calculated on a pro forma basis giving effect to the incurrence of the Indebtedness to be incurred, Indebtedness incurred to the date of calculation and, in each case, to the application of the proceeds therefrom and the revenue derived from such application and, for this purpose, (i) all Indebtedness incurred since the first day of the Reference Period, including Indebtedness incurred to refinance other Indebtedness, will be deemed to have been incurred at the beginning of the Reference Period, the proceeds of all such Indebtedness will be deemed to have been applied at the beginning of such Reference Period and the revenue derived from the application of such proceeds will be calculated from the beginning of such Reference Period as if the said proceeds had been applied at such time, (ii) the repayment or retirement of any other Indebtedness since the first day of the Reference Period will be deemed to have occurred at the beginning of the Reference Period (except that, in making such computation, the amount of Indebtedness under any revolving credit facility will be computed based upon the average daily balance of such Indebtedness during the Reference Period), (iii) in the case of Acquired Indebtedness acquired since the first day of the Reference Period, the related acquisition will be deemed to have occurred as of the first day of the Reference Period with the appropriate adjustments with respect to such acquisition being included in such pro forma calculation (including adjustments for revenue derived from such acquisition), and (iv) in the case of any acquisition or disposition by the Fund or its Subsidiaries of any asset or group of assets since the first day of the Reference Period, whether by merger, share purchase or sale, or asset purchase or sale, such acquisition or disposition or any related repayment of Indebtedness will be deemed to have occurred as of the first day of the Reference Period with the appropriate adjustments with respect to such acquisition or disposition being included in such pro forma calculation (including adjustments for revenue derived or lost from such acquisition or disposition).

3.05 Calculation of Indebtedness Percentage

For the purpose of Section 3.02, the Indebtedness Percentage will be calculated on a pro forma basis as at the date of the Fund's most recently published balance sheet (the "Balance Sheet Date") giving effect to the incurrence or assumption of the Indebtedness to be incurred and the application of proceeds therefrom and to any other event that has increased or decreased Consolidated Indebtedness or Aggregate Assets between the Balance Sheet Date and the date of calculation.

ARTICLE 4 - EQUITY MAINTENANCE

4.01 Equity Maintenance Covenant

The Fund will maintain an Adjusted Unitholders' Equity of not less than $500,000,000, determined as of the date of the Fund's most recently published balance sheet.

ARTICLE 5 - GUARANTEES

5.01 Guarantees

Each of the Guarantors shall, on or before the issuance of the Series B Debentures, execute and deliver a Guarantee to the Indenture Trustee, which Guarantee shall be enforceable against the Guarantors by the Indenture Trustee acting on behalf of the Debentureholders in the same manner and upon the same terms that the Indenture Trustee may seek to enforce the obligations of the Fund hereunder. The Fund agrees that, if at any time after the date of this Indenture, any of its Wholly-Owned Material Subsidiaries has not executed and delivered a Guarantee to the Indenture Trustee, the Fund shall take all necessary steps to ensure that such Subsidiary promptly executes and delivers a Guarantee to the Indenture Trustee.

VALUATION

Highest & Best Use

- The highest and best use of the sites as though vacant is that of development with a mid to large size retail centre.
- The highest and best use of the sites as presently improved is that of the continued use as multi-tenant retail use with the potential for future expansion as the case may be.

Methodology of Valuation

- As income producing investment properties, we completed Overall Income Capitalization and Discounted Cash Flow Analyses. Additionally, and as a supportive technique, the Direct Comparison Approach was conducted. Since properties such as the subject do not trade on the basis of depreciated cost, we did not complete a Cost Approach. This letter relates our findings within the Income Approach which was supported by the Direct Comparison Approach.

The income of the various properties were stabilized using market or property specific parameters. Vacancy rates and structural reserves and other parameters are tabled following. This chart also relates the assumptions utilized within the Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Reconciliation

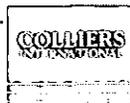

- As an income producing investment grade property, most emphasis has been place on the two income based methods of valuation (primary emphasis on Direct Capitalization).
- As of November 1, 2004, the gross aggregate value of the six centres is estimated to be $70,250,000.
- We believe that based upon our Cash Flow projections the implicit returns are acceptable within the current market and supported by sale data sampled hereto in addition data retained in our working files
- The foregoing value estimate is based on an exposure period of three to six months

Conclusion

Given current investor's emphasis on existing Net Operating Income and initial yield, the Direct Capitalization method was the primary approach to value. It is recognized, however, that investors will also be influenced by the relationship between contract rents in place and market levels and the potential to increase return over a specific holding period. For this reason Discounted Cash Flow Analyses were also undertaken over a ten year holding period. In the aggregate, this approach was considered very supportive of the Direct Capitalization Method which was the primary approach. A selection of capitalization rates estimated from an analysis of recent sales and/or current listings on comparable properties located throughout Canada were applied to the Net Operating Incomes of each of the six properties.

The reader will note that the two bottom lines of the analysis above relate to a portfolio premium range in value. The current investment market in Canada continues to be very strong, with many potential purchasers remarking on the current limited availability of institutional or investment grade real estate. The individual capitalization rates applied to each of the properties is a reflection of the considerable weighting of the respective income streams from largely national tenancies. Considering the magnitude of investment, many of the potential purchasers of this portfolio would also be probable purchasers on a property-by-property basis. Investment markets are currently attributing a premium to larger transactions which result in economies of scales since considerable amounts can be invested at one time. It is noteworthy that the subject properties are reported to be debt-free and the potential rates that could be attracted by this magnitude of financing would be extremely attractive. The current and sustained low interest rate environment, therefore, further supports the argument for a premium on a portfolio basis. Discussions generally tend toward a portfolio premium of 3% to 5%. This seems reasonable given the size and geographic diversity of this portfolio. In our opinion, therefore, we believe that the value of the portfolio as of November 1, 2004 to be between $72,360,000 and $73,770,000. We believe that a point estimate of $73,065,000 within the range to be reasonable.

10. The property has been valued on the basis that there are no outstanding liabilities except as expressly noted herein, pursuant to any agreement with a municipal or other government authority, pursuant to any contract or agreement pertaining to the ownership and operation of the real estate or pursuant to any lease or agreement to lease, which may affect the stated value or saleability of the subject property or any portion thereof.
11. The interpretation of the leases and other contractual agreements, pertaining to the operation and ownership of the property, as expressed herein, is solely the opinion of the author and should not be construed as a legal interpretation. Further, the summaries of these contractual agreements, which appear in the Addenda, are presented for the sole purpose of giving the reader an overview of the salient facts thereof.
12. The property has been valued on the basis that the real estate complies in all material respects with any restrictive covenants affecting the site and has been built and is occupied and being operated, in all material respects, in full compliance with all requirements of law, including all zoning, land use classification, building, planning, fire and health by-laws, rules, regulations, orders and codes of all federal, provincial, regional and municipal governmental authorities having jurisdiction with respect thereto. (It is recognized there may be work orders or other notices of violation of law outstanding with respect to the real estate and that there may be certain requirements of law preventing occupancy of the real estate as described in this report. However, such circumstances have not been accounted for in the appraisal process).

13. Investigations have been undertaken in respect of matters that regulate the use of land. However, no inquiries have been placed with the fire department, the building inspector, the health department or any other government regulatory agency, unless such investigations are expressly represented to have been made in this report. The subject property must comply with such regulations and, if it does not comply, its non-compliance may affect the market value of this property. To be certain of such compliance, further investigations may be necessary.
14. The property has been valued on the basis that there is no action, suit, proceeding or investigation pending or threatened against the real estate or affecting the titular owners of the property, at law or in equity or before or by any federal, provincial or municipal department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality which may adversely influence the value of the real estate herein appraised.
15. The property has been valued on the basis that all leases, agreements to lease, or other contractual agreements relating to the terms and conditions of the tenants' occupation of space within the subject property are fully enforceable, notwithstanding that such documentation may not be fully executed by the parties thereto as at the date of this appraisal.
16. The property has been valued on the basis that all rents referred to in this report are being paid in full and when due and payable under the terms and conditions of the attendant leases, agreements to lease or other contractual agreements. Further, it is assumed that all rents referred to in this report represent the rental arrangements stipulated in the leases, agreements to lease or other contractual agreements pertaining to the tenants' occupancy, to the extent that such rents have not been prepaid, abated, or inflated to reflect extraordinary circumstances, and are full enforceable notwithstanding that such documentation may not be fully executed by the parties thereto as at the date of this appraisal, unless such conditions have been identified and noted in this report.
17. The data and statistical information contained herein were gathered from reliable sources and are believed to be correct. However, these data are not guaranteed for accuracy, even though every attempt has been made to verify the authenticity of this information as much as possible.
18. The estimated market value of the property does not necessarily represent the value of the underlying shares, if the asset is so held, as the value of the share could be affected by other considerations. Further, the estimated market value does not include consideration of any extraordinary financing, rental or income guarantees, special tax considerations or any other atypical benefits which may influence the ordinary market value of the property, unless the effects of such special conditions, and the extent of any special value that may arise therefrom, have been described and measured in this report.
19. Should title to the real estate presently be held (or changed to a holding) by a partnership, in a joint venture, through a co-tenancy arrangement or by any other form of divisional ownership, the value of any fractional interest associated therewith may be more or less than the percentage of ownership appearing in the contractual agreement pertaining to the structure of such divisional ownership. For the purposes of our valuation, we have not made any adjustment for the value of a fractional interest.

20. In the event of syndication, the aggregate value of the limited partnership interests may be greater than the value of the freehold or fee simple interest in the real estate, by reason of the possible contributory value of non-realty interests or benefits such as provision for tax shelter, potential for capital appreciation, special investment privileges, particular occupancy and income guarantees, special financing or extraordinary agreements for management services.
21. Unless otherwise noted, the estimated market value of the property referred to herein is predicated upon the condition that it would be sold on a cash basis to the vendor subject to any contractual agreements and encumbrances as noted in this report as-is and where-is, without any contingent agreements or caveats. Other financial arrangements, good or cumbersome, may affect the price at which this property might sell in the open market.
22. Should the author of this report be required to give testimony or appear in court or at any administrative proceeding relating to this appraisal, prior arrangements shall be made therefore, including provisions for additional compensation to permit adequate time for preparation and for any appearances which may be required. However, neither this nor any other of these assumptions and limiting conditions is an attempt to limit the use that might be made of this report should it properly become evidence in a judicial proceeding. In such a case, it is acknowledged that it is the judicial body which will decide the use of this report which best serves the administration of justice.
23. Because market conditions, including economic, social and political factors, change rapidly and, on occasion, without notice or warning, the estimate of market value expressed herein, as of the effective date of this appraisal, cannot necessarily be relied upon as of any other date without subsequent advice of the author of this report.
24. It is imperative that the reader or any other interested party be aware that the Appraiser did not inspect the premises for fire detection or smoke detection systems, or for the presence of carbon monoxide detectors, nor did the Appraiser inspect the condition of such equipment, if present. The Appraiser takes no responsibility whatsoever for the lack of, or condition of, detection devices that may be located on the premises, nor does the Appraiser warrant compliance in any manner of such equipment, if present.
25. The value expressed herein is in Canadian dollars.
26. This report is only valid if it bears the original signature(s) of the author(s).
27. These Contingent and Limiting Conditions shall be read with all changes in number and gender as may be appropriate or required by the context or by the particulars of this mandate.

RE: PORTFOLIO VALUATION OF EIGHT WALMART ANCHORED RETAIL CENTRES ACROSS CANADA

In accordance with your request, we have inspected the above referenced properties and have carried out full valuation analysis in order to estimate their current market values. This letter represents a summary of our findings only and we conclude that the market values of the properties within their individual reports are as tabled below on January 15, 2005. It should be noted that these are individual values and do not include the portfolio premium which we have allocated in other correspondence. These values are subject to the underlying Contingent and Limiting conditions set out within those reports and this letter as well as any extraordinary assumptions outlined therein.

City	Value Conclusion
Bolton, Ont.	$30,610,000
Edmonton North	$32,360,000
Huntsville, Ont.	$15,800,000
Regina, Sask.	$54,530,000
St Constant, P.Q.	$40,400,000
St. John's, NFLD.	$37,120,000
Whitby, Ont.	$42,190,000
Winnipeg SW, Man.	$74,580,000

The indicated values are based on an exposure time of three to six months and assume a cash to vendor sale. If you have any questions, we would be pleased to discuss the valuation further.

Yours very truly,

TERMS OF REFERENCE

- Extraordinary Assumptions ▪ Our client has requested that we value the subject property as currently developed and assuming that tenants which are now booked are now in occupancy with the requisite improvements now complete. Included in our value estimate is the excess buildable density of the site, where applicable. The quantity of the available excess density was provided to us by our client and is assumed to be correct. Additionally, we have relied on summary income information and no formal lease review has been completed. The preceding assumptions are critical to the value estimate contained herein and the authors of this summary letter and Colliers International Realty Advisors Inc., reserve the right to amend our estimates should any of these assumptions be altered in whole or in part.
- Property Rights Appraised ▪ Leased Fee Estate
- Purpose of Appraisal ▪ To estimate the "market value" of the properties referred to herein in order to facilitate mortgage financing. It is also acknowledged that this valuation may be included with information relating to an offering memorandum

For the purposes of this valuation, market value is defined as: "The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of the specific date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby:

- Buyer and seller are typically motivated;
- Both parties are well informed or well advised, and acting in what they consider their best interests;
- A reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market;
- Payment is made in terms of cash in Canadian Dollars or in financial arrangements comparable thereto; and
- The price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions granted by anyone associated with the sale."

(The Appraisal Institute of Canada "Canadian Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice". 2001 ed., p. 47)

- Scope of the Assignment
- The properties were personally inspected in 2004
 - Review of available data regarding the local markets was collected
 - Verification of current land use and zoning regulations
 - A review of sales and listing data on comparable properties
 - Interview(s) with market participants
 - This letter represents a summary of eight individual full valuations of the properties referred to herein; there were no extraordinary departures from the Canadian Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice guidelines
- Contingent & Limiting Conditions
- The summary letter is subject to the Contingent and Limiting Conditions set forth herein in addition to any specific assumptions that may be stated in the body of the summary letter.
- EFFECTIVE DATE OF VALUATION
- The effective date of the portfolio valuation is January 15, 2005.
- BUILDING AREAS
- Assumed gross leaseable areas were based upon actual areas now built as well as head-leased areas that are to be built. The head leased areas are to have their income guaranteed by the vendor until the tenants take occupancy. Excess site density reflects the amount of buildable square feet remaining on the individual sites. Our value estimates summarized within this letter reflects an allocation of value for this excess land component.

VALUATION

Highest & Best Use

- The highest and best use of the sites as though vacant is that of development with a mid to large size retail centre.
- The highest and best use of the sites as presently improved is that of the continued use as multi-tenant retail use with the potential for future expansion as the case may be.

Methodology of Valuation

- As income producing investment properties, we completed Overall Income Capitalization and Discounted Cash Flow Analyses. Additionally, and as a supportive technique, the Direct Comparison Approach was conducted. Since properties such as the subject do not trade on the basis of depreciated cost, we did not complete a Cost Approach. This letter relates our findings within the Income Approach which was supported by the Direct Comparison Approach, but is not related herein.

The income of the various properties were stabilized using specific parameters, which are discussed within the individual reports. A summary of the sales transactions reviewed are tabled following.

All copyright is reserved to the author and this summary letter is considered confidential by the author and Keith McRae of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust. Possession of this summary letter, or a copy thereof, does not carry with it the right to reproduction or publication in any manner, in whole or in part, nor may it be disclosed, quoted from or referred to in any manner, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent and approval of the author as to the purpose, form and content of any such disclosure, quotation or reference. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither all nor any part of the contents of this summary letter shall be disseminated or otherwise conveyed to the public in any manner whatsoever or through any media whatsoever or disclosed, quoted from or referred to in any reports, financial statement, prospectus, or offering memorandum of the client, or in any documents filed with any governmental agency without the prior written consent and approval of the author as to the purpose, form and content of such dissemination, disclosure, quotation or reference.
3. The estimated market value of the real estate that is the subject of this appraisal pertains to the value of the leased fee estate in the real property. The property rights appraised herein exclude mineral rights, if any.
4. The concept of market value presumes reasonable exposure. The exposure period is the estimated length of time the asset being valued would have been offered on the market prior to the hypothetical consummation of a sale at market value on the effective date of valuation. The overall concept of reasonable exposure encompasses not only adequate, sufficient and reasonable time but also adequate, sufficient and reasonable effort. The reasonable exposure period is a function not only of time and effort, but will depend on the type of asset being valued, the state of the market at the date of valuation and the level at which the asset is priced. (The estimated length of the exposure period needed to achieve the estimated market value is set forth in the Letter of Transmittal, prefacing this summary letter).

5. The estimate of value contained in this summary letter is founded upon a thorough and diligent examination and analysis of information gathered and obtained from numerous sources. Certain information has been accepted at face value; especially if there was no reason to doubt its accuracy. Other empirical data required interpretative analysis pursuant to the objective of this appraisal. Certain inquiries were outside the scope of this mandate. For these reasons, the analyses, opinions and conclusions contained in this summary letter are subject to the following Contingent and Limiting conditions.
6. The property has been valued on the basis that title to the real estate herein appraised is good and marketable.
7. The author of this summary letter cannot accept responsibility for legal matters, questions of survey, opinions of title, hidden or unapparent conditions of the property, toxic wastes or contaminated materials, soil or sub-soil conditions, environmental, engineering or other technical matters that might render this property more or less valuable than as stated herein. If it came to our attention as the result of our investigation and analysis that certain problems may exist, a cautionary note has been entered in the body of the summary letter.
8. The legal description of the property and the area of the site were obtained from the various Land Titles Offices. Further, any plans and sketches contained in this summary letter are included solely to aid the recipient in visualizing the location of the property, the configuration and boundaries of the site and the relative position of the improvements on the said lands.
9. The property has been valued on the basis that the real estate is free and clear of all value influencing encumbrances, encroachments, restrictions or covenants except as may be noted in this summary letter and that there are no pledges, charges, liens or special assessments outstanding against the property other than as stated and described herein.
10. The property has been valued on the basis that there are no outstanding liabilities except as expressly noted herein, pursuant to any agreement with a municipal or other government authority, pursuant to any contract or agreement pertaining to the ownership and operation of the real estate or pursuant to any lease or agreement to lease, which may affect the stated value or saleability of the subject property or any portion thereof.
11. The interpretation of the leases and other contractual agreements, pertaining to the operation and ownership of the property, as expressed herein, is solely the opinion of the author and should not be construed as a legal interpretation. Further, the summaries of these contractual agreements, which appear in the Addenda, are presented for the sole purpose of giving the reader an overview of the salient facts thereof.
12. The property has been valued on the basis that the real estate complies in all material respects with any restrictive covenants affecting the site and has been built and is occupied and being operated, in all material respects, in full compliance with all requirements of law, including all zoning, land use classification, building, planning, fire and health by-laws, rules, regulations, orders and codes of all federal, provincial, regional and municipal governmental authorities having jurisdiction with respect thereto. (It is recognized there may be work orders or other

- notices of violation of law outstanding with respect to the real estate and that there may be certain requirements of law preventing occupancy of the real estate as described in this summary letter. However, such circumstances have not been accounted for in the appraisal process).
13. Investigations have been undertaken in respect of matters that regulate the use of land. However, no inquiries have been placed with the fire department, the building inspector, the health department or any other government regulatory agency, unless such investigations are expressly represented to have been made in this summary letter. The subject property must comply with such regulations and, if it does not comply, its non-compliance may affect the market value of this property. To be certain of such compliance, further investigations may be necessary.
 14. The property has been valued on the basis that there is no action, suit, proceeding or investigation pending or threatened against the real estate or affecting the titular owners of the property, at law or in equity or before or by any federal, provincial or municipal department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality which may adversely influence the value of the real estate herein appraised.
 15. The property has been valued on the basis that all leases, agreements to lease, or other contractual agreements relating to the terms and conditions of the tenants' occupation of space within the subject property are fully enforceable, notwithstanding that such documentation may not be fully executed by the parties thereto as at the date of this appraisal.
 16. The property has been valued on the basis that all rents referred to in this summary letter are being paid in full and when due and payable under the terms and conditions of the attendant leases, agreements to lease or other contractual agreements. Further, it is assumed that all rents referred to in this summary letter represent the rental arrangements stipulated in the leases, agreements to lease or other contractual agreements pertaining to the tenants' occupancy, to the extent that such rents have not been prepaid, abated, or inflated to reflect extraordinary circumstances, and are full enforceable notwithstanding that such documentation may not be fully executed by the parties thereto as at the date of this appraisal, unless such conditions have been identified and noted in this summary letter.
 17. The data and statistical information contained herein were gathered from reliable sources and are believed to be correct. However, these data are not guaranteed for accuracy, even though every attempt has been made to verify the authenticity of this information as much as possible.
 18. The estimated market value of the property does not necessarily represent the value of the underlying shares, if the asset is so held, as the value of the share could be affected by other considerations. Further, the estimated market value does not include consideration of any extraordinary financing, rental or income guarantees, special tax considerations or any other atypical benefits which may influence the ordinary market value of the property, unless the effects of such special conditions, and the extent of any special value that may arise therefrom, have been described and measured in this summary letter.

19. Should title to the real estate presently be held (or changed to a holding) by a partnership, in a joint venture, through a co-tenancy arrangement or by any other form of divisional ownership, the value of any fractional interest associated therewith may be more or less than the percentage of ownership appearing in the contractual agreement pertaining to the structure of such divisional ownership. For the purposes of our valuation, we have not made any adjustment for the value of a fractional interest.
20. In the event of syndication, the aggregate value of the limited partnership interests may be greater than the value of the freehold or fee simple interest in the real estate, by reason of the possible contributory value of non-realty interests or benefits such as provision for tax shelter, potential for capital appreciation, special investment privileges, particular occupancy and income guarantees, special financing or extraordinary agreements for management services.
21. Unless otherwise noted, the estimated market value of the property referred to herein is predicated upon the condition that it would be sold on a cash basis to the vendor subject to any contractual agreements and encumbrances as noted in this summary letter as-is and where-is, without any contingent agreements or caveats. Other financial arrangements, good or cumbersome, may affect the price at which this property might sell in the open market.
22. Should the author of this summary letter be required to give testimony or appear in court or at any administrative proceeding relating to this appraisal, prior arrangements shall be made therefore, including provisions for additional compensation to permit adequate time for preparation and for any appearances which may be required. However, neither this nor any other of these assumptions and limiting conditions is an attempt to limit the use that might be made of this summary letter should it properly become evidence in a judicial proceeding. In such a case, it is acknowledged that it is the judicial body which will decide the use of this summary letter which best serves the administration of justice.
23. Because market conditions, including economic, social and political factors, change rapidly and, on occasion, without notice or warning, the estimate of market value expressed herein, as of the effective date of this appraisal, cannot necessarily be relied upon as of any other date without subsequent advice of the author of this summary letter.
24. It is imperative that the reader or any other interested party be aware that the Appraiser did not inspect the premises for fire detection or smoke detection systems, or for the presence of carbon monoxide detectors, nor did the Appraiser inspect the condition of such equipment, if present. The Appraiser takes no responsibility whatsoever for the lack of, or condition of, detection devices that may be located on the premises, nor does the Appraiser warrant compliance in any manner of such equipment, if present.
25. The value expressed herein is in Canadian dollars.
26. This summary letter is only valid if it bears the original signature(s) of the author(s).
27. These Contingent and Limiting Conditions shall be read with all changes in number and gender as may be appropriate or required by the context or by the particulars of this mandate.

Dear Keith:

RE: PORTFOLIO VALUATION OF TWENTY-EIGHT RETAIL PROPERTIES

In accordance with your request, we have completed our analysis and appraisal of the twenty-eight retail developments located in Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Quebec, Ontario, Alberta and British Columbia. The purpose of the individual reports was to estimate the market value of the leased fee or fee simple estate of each property as at June 1, 2005 for acquisition and potential financing purposes. It is understood that the individual appraisals and this opinion of portfolio value may be included in an offering memorandum.

The portfolio comprises twenty-eight multi-tenant retail developments, including three vacant development sites, offering a total leaseable area of 7,803,100 square feet upon completion. As at the effective date of our analysis, ±73.5% of the portfolio (5,738,292 sf) is assumed completed and fully leased, on a fully net basis with all tenants in occupancy. Some of the tenants and their required improvements may not yet be completed or in occupancy, however, it is our understanding that these areas will be head-leased by the vendor until the improvements are completed or the actual tenants take occupancy. Our final value estimate also allotted value to the available excess development potential on twenty-four of the twenty-eight sites.

An investor basing criteria on an expected income flow is acquiring the portfolio. For income producing properties the Income Approach is used as the primary method of valuation. The two primary income methods are:

Direct Capitalization: This method measures the relationship of value to the fully leased Net Operating Income, normally at the first year. This method is also referred to as the Overall Capitalization Rate Method.

Discounted Cash Flow (DCF): The Discounted Cash Flow Method calculates the present value of the future cash flows over a specified time period, including the potential proceeds of a deemed disposition, to determine market value.

Both the DCF and Direct Capitalization approaches convert the earnings of a property into an estimate of value. Investors typically will use both approaches, applying different weight to each method based on the particular characteristics of the investment. Given current investor's emphasis on existing Net Operating Income and initial yield, the Direct Capitalization method was the primary approach to value. A selection of capitalization rates estimated from an analysis of recent sales and/or current listings on comparable properties located throughout Canada were applied to the Net Operating Incomes of each of the twenty-four income producing properties.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis were also undertaken, based on a ten-year holding period recognizing investors are also be influenced by potential returns over a specific holding period. The aggregate value indicated by this approach supported the conclusions of the Direct Capitalization Method.

Three of the properties were vacant development sites, for which we relied primarily upon the Direct Comparison Approach to value.

PORTFOLIO PREMIUM

As part of our reporting requirement, we have also considered the issue of 'portfolio premium', as it applies to a specific grouping or cluster of properties. In this regard it is our opinion that a premium is likely to be applicable to the subject properties due to several key factors:

- Management Fee Savings
- Leasing Flexibility and Synergies
- Operating Cost Efficiencies
- Current Market Conditions

The first three points relate to the obvious operating advantages arising from the grouping of twenty-eight, similar open strip, power centre properties in four major geographic regions. The fourth point refers to the acute imbalance that currently exists between investment demand and available supply. Current demand levels for real estate investment are extraordinarily high, due in part to poorer performance of alternate non-real estate investment products. Moreover, retail assets in particular have consistently been one of the most sought after property types over the past 12 to 18 months. Thus, the opportunity to acquire a scarce investment heightens the perception of price. While the extent of such a premium is clearly speculative, it is our sense that an additional 2% to 5% of the individual market values should be considered as reasonable.

Applying such a premium to our initial value estimate of $892,100,000 results in a portfolio premium range of approximately $17,842,000 to $44,605,000. In our opinion, therefore, we estimate that the value of the portfolio as of June 1, 2005 to be between $909,900,000 and $936,700,000.

I trust that the preceding is suitable for your requirements. Should you have any questions or comments please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned directly.

Attention: Keith McRae

Dear Mr. McRae:

RE: PORTFOLIO UPDATE VALUATION OF SEVEN WALMART ANCHORED & SHADOW ANCHORED RETAIL CENTRES ACROSS CANADA

In accordance with your request, we have inspected the above referenced properties and have carried out a full valuation analysis in order to estimate the updated current market value of the portfolio. This letter represents a summary of our findings and we conclude that the portfolio market value, as at June 1, 2005 and subject to the underlying Contingent and Limiting conditions set out herein, was:

FOUR HUNDRED FORTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS
$445,000,000

The indicated value is based on an exposure time of three to six months and assumes a cash to vendor sale. The reader's attention is directed to the Extraordinary Assumptions outlined on page 1 of this letter. This letter summarizes the methods and approaches to value in support of the value conclusions and contains some of the pertinent data gathered in our investigation of the market. This is an update valuation and must be read in conjunction with the original reports. If you have any questions, we would be pleased to discuss the valuation further.

Yours very truly,

TERMS OF REFERENCE

- Extraordinary Assumptions ▪ Our client has requested that we value the subject property as currently developed and assuming that tenants which are now booked are now in occupancy with the requisite improvements now complete. Included in our value estimate is the excess buildable density of the site, where applicable. The quantity of the available excess density was provided to us by our client and is assumed to be correct. Additionally, we have relied on summary income information and no formal lease review has been completed. The preceding assumptions are critical to the value estimate contained herein and the authors of this report and Colliers International Realty Advisors Inc., reserve the right to amend our estimates should any of these assumptions be altered in whole or in part.
- Property Rights Appraised ▪ Leased Fee Estate
- Purpose of Appraisal ▪ To estimate the "market value" of the properties referred to herein in order to facilitate mortgage financing. It is also acknowledged that this valuation may be included with information relating to an offering memorandum

For the purposes of this valuation, market value is defined as: "The most probable price which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller each acting prudently and knowledgeably, and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimulus. Implicit in this definition is the consummation of a sale as of the specific date and the passing of title from seller to buyer under conditions whereby:

- Buyer and seller are typically motivated;
- Both parties are well informed or well advised, and acting in what they consider their best interests;
- A reasonable time is allowed for exposure in the open market;
- Payment is made in terms of cash in Canadian Dollars or in financial arrangements comparable thereto; and
- The price represents the normal consideration for the property sold unaffected by special or creative financing or sales concessions granted by anyone associated with the sale."

(The Appraisal Institute of Canada "Canadian Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice". 2001 ed., p. 47)

- Scope of the Assignment
- The properties were personally inspected in 2004
 - Review of available data regarding the local markets was collected
 - Verification of current land use and zoning regulations
 - A review of sales and listing data on comparable properties
 - Interview(s) with market participants
 - This letter represents a summary of seven individual full valuations of the properties referred to herein; there were no extraordinary departures from the Canadian Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice guidelines
- Contingent & Limiting Conditions
- The report is subject to the Contingent and Limiting Conditions set forth herein in addition to any specific assumptions that may be stated in the body of the report.
- EFFECTIVE DATE OF VALUATION
- The effective date of the portfolio valuation is June 1, 2005.
- BUILDING AREAS
- A summary of the gross leaseable areas of each development is provided following. Assumed gross leaseable areas are based upon actual areas now built as well as head-leased areas that are to be built. The head leased areas are to have their income guaranteed by the vendor until the tenants take occupancy. Excess site density reflects the amount of buildable square feet remaining on the individual sites. Our gross aggregate value estimate contained within this report as well as our portfolio value estimate reflects an allocation of value for this land component.

VALUATION

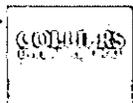

Highest & Best Use

- The highest and best use of the sites as though vacant is that of development with a mid to large size retail centre.
- The highest and best use of the sites as presently improved is that of the continued use as multi-tenant retail use with the potential for future expansion as the case may be.

Methodology of Valuation

- As income producing investment properties, we completed Overall Income Capitalization and Discounted Cash Flow Analyses. Additionally, and as a supportive technique, the Direct Comparison Approach was conducted. Since properties such as the subject do not trade on the basis of depreciated cost, we did not complete a Cost Approach. This letter relates our findings within the Income Approach which was supported by the Direct Comparison Approach, but is not related herein.

The income of the various properties were stabilized using specific parameters, which are tabled following. This chart also relates the assumptions utilized within the Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

On the pages following this we have included a sampling of the investment market evidence. The subject properties are leased at market rental rates. The reader is reminded that, by and large, the subject developments are superior in tenancy covenant to the majority of the sales tabled. A valuation summary for the income approach follows the investment sales tabled.

Reconciliation

- As an income producing investment grade property, most emphasis has been place on the two income based methods of valuation (primary emphasis, generally, on Direct Capitalization).
- As of June 1, 2005, the gross aggregate value of the seven centres is estimated to be $445,000,000.
- We believe that based upon our Cash Flow projections the implicit returns are acceptable within the current market and supported by sale data sampled hereto in addition data retained in our working files
- The foregoing value estimate is based on an exposure period of three to six months

Conclusion

Given current investor's emphasis on existing Net Operating Income and initial yield, the Direct Capitalization method was the primary approach to value. It is recognized, however, that investors will also be influenced by the relationship between contract rents in place and market levels and the potential to increase return over a specific holding period. For this reason Discounted Cash Flow Analyses were also undertaken over a ten year holding period. In the aggregate, this approach was considered very supportive of the Direct Capitalization Method which was the primary approach. A selection of capitalization rates estimated from an analysis of recent sales and/or current listings on comparable properties located throughout Canada were applied to the Net Operating Incomes of each of the seven properties. The Discounted Cash Flow technique was given special consideration when considerable income increases were realized over Years One to Three.

The reader will note that the two bottom lines of the analysis above relate to a portfolio premium range in value. The current investment market in Canada continues to be very strong, with many potential purchasers remarking on the current limited availability of institutional or investment grade real estate. The individual capitalization rates applied to each of the properties is a reflection of the considerable weighting of the respective income streams from largely national tenancies. Considering the magnitude of investment, many of the potential purchasers of this portfolio would also be probable purchasers on a property-by-property basis. Investment markets are currently attributing a premium to larger transactions which result in economies of scales since considerable amounts can be invested at one time. It is noteworthy that the subject properties are reported to be debt-free and the potential rates that could be attracted by this magnitude of financing would be extremely attractive. The current and sustained low interest rate environment, therefore, further supports the argument for a premium on a portfolio basis. Discussions generally tend toward a portfolio premium of 3% to 5%. This seems reasonable given the size and geographic diversity of this portfolio. In our opinion, therefore, we believe that the value of the portfolio as of June 1, 2005 to be between $442,450,000 and $451,070,000. We believe that a point estimate of $445,000,000 within the range to be reasonable.

It is not reasonable for any person other than the person or those to whom this report is addressed to rely upon this appraisal without first obtaining written authorization from Keith McRae of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust and the author of this report. This report has been prepared on the assumption that no other person will rely on it for any other purpose and all liability to all such persons is denied.
2. This report has been prepared at the request of Keith McRae of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust and for the exclusive (and confidential) use of, the recipient as named herein and for the specific purpose and function as stated herein. All copyright is reserved to the author and this report is considered confidential by the author and Keith McRae of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust. Possession of this report, or a copy thereof, does not carry with it the right to reproduction or publication in any manner, in whole or in part, nor may it be disclosed, quoted from or referred to in any manner, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent and approval of the author as to the purpose, form and content of any such disclosure, quotation or reference. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, neither all nor any part of the contents of this report shall be disseminated or otherwise conveyed to the public in any manner whatsoever or through any media whatsoever or disclosed, quoted from or referred to in any report, financial statement, prospectus, or offering memorandum of the client, or in any documents filed with any governmental agency without the prior written consent and approval of the author as to the purpose, form and content of such dissemination, disclosure, quotation or reference.
3. The estimated market value of the real estate that is the subject of this appraisal pertains to the value of the leased fee estate in the real property. The property rights appraised herein exclude mineral rights, if any.
4. The concept of market value presumes reasonable exposure. The exposure period is the estimated length of time the asset being valued would have been offered on the market prior to the hypothetical consummation of a sale at market value on the effective date of valuation. The overall concept of reasonable exposure encompasses not only adequate, sufficient and reasonable time but also adequate, sufficient and reasonable effort. The reasonable exposure period is a function not only of time and effort, but will depend on the type of asset being valued, the state of the market at the date of valuation and the level at which the asset is priced. (The estimated length of the exposure period needed to achieve the estimated market value is set forth in the Letter of Transmittal, prefacing this report).

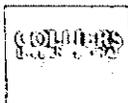

5. The estimate of value contained in this report is founded upon a thorough and diligent examination and analysis of information gathered and obtained from numerous sources. Certain information has been accepted at face value; especially if there was no reason to doubt its accuracy. Other empirical data required interpretative analysis pursuant to the objective of this appraisal. Certain inquiries were outside the scope of this mandate. For these reasons, the analyses, opinions and conclusions contained in this report are subject to the following Contingent and Limiting conditions.
6. The property has been valued on the basis that title to the real estate herein appraised is good and marketable.
7. The author of this report cannot accept responsibility for legal matters, questions of survey, opinions of title, hidden or unapparent conditions of the property, toxic wastes or contaminated materials, soil or sub-soil conditions, environmental, engineering or other technical matters that might render this property more or less valuable than as stated herein. If it came to our attention as the result of our investigation and analysis that certain problems may exist, a cautionary note has been entered in the body of the report.
8. The legal description of the property and the area of the site were obtained from the various Land Titles Offices. Further, any plans and sketches contained in this report are included solely to aid the recipient in visualizing the location of the property, the configuration and boundaries of the site and the relative position of the improvements on the said lands.
9. The property has been valued on the basis that the real estate is free and clear of all value influencing encumbrances, encroachments, restrictions or covenants except as may be noted in this report and that there are no pledges, charges, liens or special assessments outstanding against the property other than as stated and described herein.
10. The property has been valued on the basis that there are no outstanding liabilities except as expressly noted herein, pursuant to any agreement with a municipal or other government authority, pursuant to any contract or agreement pertaining to the ownership and operation of the real estate or pursuant to any lease or agreement to lease, which may affect the stated value or saleability of the subject property or any portion thereof.
11. The interpretation of the leases and other contractual agreements, pertaining to the operation and ownership of the property, as expressed herein, is solely the opinion of the author and should not be construed as a legal interpretation. Further, the summaries of these contractual agreements, which appear in the Addenda, are presented for the sole purpose of giving the reader an overview of the salient facts thereof.
12. The property has been valued on the basis that the real estate complies in all material respects with any restrictive covenants affecting the site and has been built and is occupied and being operated, in all material respects, in full compliance with all requirements of law, including all

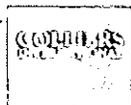

- zoning, land use classification, building, planning, fire and health by-laws, rules, regulations, orders and codes of all federal, provincial, regional and municipal governmental authorities having jurisdiction with respect thereto. (It is recognized there may be work orders or other notices of violation of law outstanding with respect to the real estate and that there may be certain requirements of law preventing occupancy of the real estate as described in this report. However, such circumstances have not been accounted for in the appraisal process).
13. Investigations have been undertaken in respect of matters that regulate the use of land. However, no inquiries have been placed with the fire department, the building inspector, the health department or any other government regulatory agency, unless such investigations are expressly represented to have been made in this report. The subject property must comply with such regulations and, if it does not comply, its non-compliance may affect the market value of this property. To be certain of such compliance, further investigations may be necessary.
 14. The property has been valued on the basis that there is no action, suit, proceeding or investigation pending or threatened against the real estate or affecting the titular owners of the property, at law or in equity or before or by any federal, provincial or municipal department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality which may adversely influence the value of the real estate herein appraised.
 15. The property has been valued on the basis that all leases, agreements to lease, or other contractual agreements relating to the terms and conditions of the tenants' occupation of space within the subject property are fully enforceable, notwithstanding that such documentation may not be fully executed by the parties thereto as at the date of this appraisal.
 16. The property has been valued on the basis that all rents referred to in this report are being paid in full and when due and payable under the terms and conditions of the attendant leases, agreements to lease or other contractual agreements. Further, it is assumed that all rents referred to in this report represent the rental arrangements stipulated in the leases, agreements to lease or other contractual agreements pertaining to the tenants' occupancy, to the extent that such rents have not been prepaid, abated, or inflated to reflect extraordinary circumstances, and are full enforceable notwithstanding that such documentation may not be fully executed by the parties thereto as at the date of this appraisal, unless such conditions have been identified and noted in this report.
 17. The data and statistical information contained herein were gathered from reliable sources and are believed to be correct. However, these data are not guaranteed for accuracy, even though every attempt has been made to verify the authenticity of this information as much as possible.
 18. The estimated market value of the property does not necessarily represent the value of the underlying shares, if the asset is so held, as the value of the share could be affected by other considerations. Further, the estimated market value does not include consideration of any extraordinary financing, rental or income guarantees, special tax considerations or any other

- atypical benefits which may influence the ordinary market value of the property, unless the effects of such special conditions, and the extent of any special value that may arise therefrom, have been described and measured in this report.
19. Should title to the real estate presently be held (or changed to a holding) by a partnership, in a joint venture, through a co-tenancy arrangement or by any other form of divisional ownership, the value of any fractional interest associated therewith may be more or less than the percentage of ownership appearing in the contractual agreement pertaining to the structure of such divisional ownership. For the purposes of our valuation, we have not made any adjustment for the value of a fractional interest.
 20. In the event of syndication, the aggregate value of the limited partnership interests may be greater than the value of the freehold or fee simple interest in the real estate, by reason of the possible contributory value of non-realty interests or benefits such as provision for tax shelter, potential for capital appreciation, special investment privileges, particular occupancy and income guarantees, special financing or extraordinary agreements for management services.
 21. Unless otherwise noted, the estimated market value of the property referred to herein is predicated upon the condition that it would be sold on a cash basis to the vendor subject to any contractual agreements and encumbrances as noted in this report as-is and where-is, without any contingent agreements or caveats. Other financial arrangements, good or cumbersome, may affect the price at which this property might sell in the open market.
 22. Should the author of this report be required to give testimony or appear in court or at any administrative proceeding relating to this appraisal, prior arrangements shall be made therefore, including provisions for additional compensation to permit adequate time for preparation and for any appearances which may be required. However, neither this nor any other of these assumptions and limiting conditions is an attempt to limit the use that might be made of this report should it properly become evidence in a judicial proceeding. In such a case, it is acknowledged that it is the judicial body which will decide the use of this report which best serves the administration of justice.
 23. Because market conditions, including economic, social and political factors, change rapidly and, on occasion, without notice or warning, the estimate of market value expressed herein, as of the effective date of this appraisal, cannot necessarily be relied upon as of any other date without subsequent advice of the author of this report.
 24. It is imperative that the reader or any other interested party be aware that the Appraiser did not inspect the premises for fire detection or smoke detection systems, or for the presence of carbon monoxide detectors, nor did the Appraiser inspect the condition of such equipment, if present. The Appraiser takes no responsibility whatsoever for the lack of, or condition of, detection devices that may be located on the premises, nor does the Appraiser warrant compliance in any manner of such equipment, if present.

25. The value expressed herein is in Canadian dollars.
 26. This report is only valid if it bears the original signature(s) of the author(s).
 27. These Contingent and Limiting Conditions shall be read with all changes in number and gender as may be appropriate or required by the context or by the particulars of this mandate.

Employees are required to comply with the Trust's policies governing corporate and individual conduct. They must observe a high standard of morality in the conduct of their official duties and faithfully fulfill the responsibilities of their positions, regardless of their personal or financial interests.

II. USE OF TRUST RESOURCES

No employee shall request or permit the use of Trust-owned vehicles, equipment, computer information systems, materials, Trust time or property for personal convenience or profit, except where the Trust grants such privileges. The Trust expects the employees to conduct business according to the highest ethical standards. The employee is expected to devote his/her best efforts to the interests of the Trust and the conduct of its affairs. The employee shall avoid outside employment, contractual relationships, activities and other interests that involve obligations that may compete with or be in conflict with the interests of the Trust. Prior to engaging in any of the above activities, an employee should request, in writing, approval to proceed in such activity from the CEO or CFO of the Trust. Management has the sole discretion to determine whether an employee's outside employment or activities are in conflict with the interests of the Trust. If the status of a previously non-conflicting activity changes, an employee should contact the CEO or CFO of the Trust and disclose the situation.

V. OFFERING OR ACCEPTING GIFTS

Gifts or favours may create self-interest or familiarity threats. Accordingly, Trust employees may accept or offer such gifts or favours only if the gifts or favours are of such a token nature that any self-interest or familiarity threats would be clearly insignificant. In case of doubt, the Trust's CFO should be consulted.

VI. DRUG FREE WORKPLACE

Our obligation to clients and the nature of our business require that we remain alert, responsive to instruction and aware of the consequences of our actions. The ability to meet these obligations is seriously compromised by the use of illegal drugs or the inappropriate or illegal use of legal drugs or alcohol.

The Trust will not permit:

- The sale, purchase or use of controlled substances while conducting Trust business (exception: appropriate possession or use while under the supervision of a licensed health care provider).
- The sale, purchase or abuse of alcohol on the job.
- The use of drugs or alcohol off the job in a manner that might impair job performance.

Any employee who reasonably suspects that another employee is selling, buying, distributing, possessing or using illegal or abusing legal drugs or alcohol inappropriately, should immediately notify their manager or a Human Resources representative.

VIII. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Trust and its employees are regularly entrusted with confidential information. Employees must take every precaution to protect and respect the confidentiality and security of the Trust and its confidential information both during the course of the employee's employment, and thereafter. This includes your own personal information, such as salary. The Trust:

- Will control access to confidential information.
- Will use secure media to transmit, store or destroy confidential information (in many instances cell phones are considered insecure media).
- Will not release information that violates the privacy rights of others.

All employees will be required to sign the Trust's Confidentiality Agreement as a term of accepting employment with the Trust.

VIII. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Internally created techniques, processes, methodologies and the like are considered "trade secrets" of the Trust and are the intellectual property of the Trust. Employees may not use, communicate, or otherwise compromise any intellectual property of the Trust without prior written authorization from the Trust.

IX. FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS

The Trust supports the hiring of employees' children or other relatives for summer and casual employment. Family members may be hired in a regular full-time capacity provided there is clear evidence of due consideration in hiring the best qualified candidate for the position and that best HR recruitment practices were complied with.

Family members will not be hired where that places them in direct or indirect reporting relationships.

X. REPORT ANY PROBLEMS OR IRREGULARITIES:

Compliance with the policies that support the Trust's values of Dignity and Respect is a condition of employment. If you believe that you may have breached the policies that support the Trust's values of Dignity and Respect or have observed:

- A serious breach of the Code by another employee, or
- A serious weakness or deficiency in our policies, procedures or controls which might enable breaches to occur or go undetected.

You have a responsibility to the Trust, your fellow employees, and yourself to report it immediately to Manager, Human Resources, or another member of the Trust management team.

No adverse action shall be taken against any employee who, acting in good faith, brings forward such information. However, if you have a concern, you may discuss it anonymously or confidentially through Human Resources.

On a day-to-day basis, if you are uncertain about an appropriate course of action, seek the advice of your Manager or a more senior officer as appropriate. For a complete list of the sources of assistance please refer to the listing provided next.

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION CIRCULAR
For the Annual and Special Meeting of Unitholders to be held on July 7, 2005

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES AND VOTING AT THE MEETING

Solicitation of Proxies

This Management Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway" or the "Trust") to be used at the annual and special meeting (the "Meeting") of the holders of Units (the "Unitholders") of Calloway to be held on July 7, 2005 at 9:00 a.m. (Toronto Time) in the Quebec Room, Main Mezzanine Level, Fairmont Royal York Hotel located at 100 Front Street West, Toronto, Ontario, and at any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth in the enclosed Notice of Annual and Special Meeting. Solicitations of proxies will be primarily by mail, but may also be by newspaper publication, in person or by telephone, teletype or oral communication by directors, officers, employees or agents of Calloway who will be specifically remunerated therefor. All costs of the solicitation will be borne by Calloway. The information contained herein is given as of May 23, 2005 except where otherwise indicated.

Appointment and Revocation of Proxies

The persons named in the accompanying form of proxy are trustees or officers of Calloway. A Unitholder desiring to appoint a person (who need not be a Unitholder) to represent such Unitholder at the Meeting other than the persons designated in the accompanying form of proxy may do so either by inserting such person's name in the blank space provided in the form of proxy or by completing another form of proxy and, in either case, sending or delivering the completed proxy to the Secretary of Calloway c/o Computershare Trust Company of Canada, Attention: Corporate Trust, 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2Y1. A form of proxy must be received by Computershare Trust Company of Canada at least 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) prior to the time set for the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Failure to so deposit a form of proxy shall result in its invalidation.

A Unitholder who has given a form of proxy may revoke it as to any matter on which a vote has not already been held pursuant to its authority by an instrument in writing executed by such Unitholder or by his attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the Unitholder is a corporation, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized, and deposited either at the above mentioned office of Computershare Trust Company of Canada on or before the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, or with the chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a registered Unitholder attends personally at the Meeting, such Unitholder may revoke the proxy and vote in person.

The Board of Trustees of Calloway has fixed the record date ("Record Date") for the Meeting as at the close of business on May 23, 2005. Unitholders of Calloway of record as at the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of, to attend and to vote at the Meeting, except to the extent such Unitholder transfers any of such Unitholder's Units after the Record Date and the transferee of those Units establishes that such transferee owns the Units and demands, not later than 10 days before the Meeting, that the transferee's name be included in the list of Unitholders entitled to vote, in which case such transferee shall be entitled to vote such Units at the applicable Meeting.

Signature of Proxy

The form of proxy must be executed by the Unitholder or his attorney authorized in writing or, if the Unitholder is a corporation, the form of proxy should be signed in its corporate name under its corporate seal by an authorized officer whose title should be indicated. A proxy signed by a person acting as attorney or in some other representative capacity should reflect such person's capacity following his signature and should be accompanied by the appropriate instrument evidencing qualification and authority to act (unless such instrument has been previously filed with Calloway).

Voting of Proxies

The persons named in the accompanying form of proxy will vote the Units in respect of which they are appointed in accordance with the direction of the Unitholder appointing them. In the absence of such direction, such Units will be voted in favour of the following resolutions:

1. Fixing the number of trustees to be elected at the meeting at not more than 9;
2. Electing the persons named as proposed trustees in this Management Information Circular as trustees of the Trust for the ensuing year;
3. Appointing Kenway Mack Slusarchuk Stewart LLP, Chartered Accountants as auditors of the Trust for the ensuing year and to authorize the trustees of the Trust to fix the remuneration of such auditors;
4. Approving a deferred unit plan for the Trust;
5. Approving: (i) the acquisition (the "Acquisition") by Calloway of interests in 35 retail shopping centres and adjacent undeveloped lands (the "Centres") and 10 parcels of development lands (the "Development Lands" and together with the Centres, the "Centres V") from First Professional Realty Inc. and affiliated entities controlled directly or indirectly by Mr. Mitchell Goldhar ("FirstPro"), Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. and other minority owners (collectively, the "Vendors"); (ii) the issuance to the Vendors (except Wal-Mart) of up to 12.6 million class B units of a limited partnership to be set up by Calloway, each of which will be convertible into Units at the option of the holder; (iii) the creation and issuance to the Vendors (except Wal-Mart) of 12.6 million special voting units of Calloway ("Special Voting Units"); (iv) in connection with additional developments on the Centres V, the reservation of up to 11 million Units issuable to FirstPro, of which up to 8.5 million will be issuable on conversion of Class B units issuable to FirstPro in connection with additional development on those Centres and Development Lands to be acquired by the limited partnership, (v) the reservation of 8.5 million additional Special Voting Units issuable to FirstPro in connection with the additional Class B units issuable to FirstPro pursuant to (iv) above; and (vi) the issuance of such Units of Calloway as are required to fund the cash consideration required by Calloway to complete the acquisition from the Vendors (up to a maximum of 15,000,000 Units) pursuant to one or more private placements or public offerings, all as more particularly set forth in this Management Information Circular; and
6. Approving amendments to the declaration of trust constituting the Trust which have the effect of converting the Trust to an "open-end" mutual fund trust and implementing additional amendments contemplated in connection with the Acquisition, all as more particularly set forth in this Management Information Circular.

Exercise of Discretion of Proxy

The accompanying form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein with respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the accompanying Notice of Meeting and this Management Information Circular and with respect to other matters that may properly come before the Meeting. At the date of this Management Information Circular, management of Calloway ("Management") knows of no amendments, variations or other matters to come before the Meeting other than the matters referred to in the Notice of Meeting.

Advice to Beneficial Unitholders

The information set forth in this section is of significant importance to many Unitholders, as a substantial number of Unitholders do not hold Units in their own name. Unitholders who do not hold their Units in their names (referred to in this Management Information Circular as "Beneficial Unitholders") should note that only proxies deposited by Unitholders whose names appear on the records of Calloway as the registered holders of Units can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting. If Units are listed in an account statement provided to a Unitholder by a broker, then in almost all cases, those Units will not be registered in the Unitholder's name on the records of Calloway. Such Units will more likely be registered under the name of the Unitholder's broker or an agent of that broker. Units held by brokers or their agents can only be voted (for or against resolutions) upon the instructions of the Beneficial Unitholder. Without specific instructions, brokers or agents for that broker are prohibited from voting Units for their clients. Therefore, Beneficial Unitholders should ensure that instructions respecting the voting of their Units are properly communicated to the appropriate person.

Applicable regulatory policy requires intermediaries and brokers to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Unitholders in advance of meetings of Unitholders. Every intermediary and broker has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Unitholders in order to ensure that their Units are voted at the Meeting. Often, the form of proxy supplied to a Beneficial Unitholder by its broker is identical to the form of proxy provided to registered Unitholders; however, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered Unitholders how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Unitholder. A Beneficial Unitholder receiving a proxy from an intermediary or broker cannot use that proxy to vote Units directly at the Meeting; rather, the proxy must be returned to the intermediary or broker well in advance of the Meeting in order to have the Units voted.

Although a Beneficial Unitholder may not be recognized directly at the Meeting for the purposes of voting Units registered in the name of his or her broker (or an agent of the broker), a Beneficial Unitholder may attend at the Meeting as proxyholder for the registered Unitholder and vote the Units in that capacity. Beneficial Unitholders who wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote their Units as proxyholder for the registered Unitholder should enter their own names in the blank space on the form of proxy provided to them by their broker and return the same to their broker (or the broker's agent) in accordance with the instructions provided by such broker (or broker's agent), well in advance of the Meeting.

INFORMATION RESPECTING CALLOWAY REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST

General

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway" or the "Trust") is an unincorporated closed-end real estate investment trust established by the declaration of trust dated December 4, 2001, as most recently amended and restated as of January 16, 2004 (the "Declaration of Trust"), and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta. Calloway was created to invest in income-producing rental properties located in Canada. Calloway intends to invest primarily in large format, unenclosed retail centres which are geographically diversified. Although Calloway is a "mutual fund trust" as defined in the Income Tax Act (Canada), Calloway is not a "mutual fund" as defined in applicable securities legislation. The principal and head office of Calloway is located at 310, 855 – 8th Avenue S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 3P1.

Trust Units

Calloway's authorized capital consists of an unlimited number of Units. As of May 31, 2005, there were 36,904,570 Units issued and outstanding.

The Declaration of Trust provides that Units or rights to acquire Units may be issued at times, to the persons, for the consideration and on the terms and conditions that the Trustees determine. Each Unit represents an equal fractional undivided beneficial interest in any distributions from, and in any net assets of, Calloway in the event of termination or winding-up of Calloway. All Units are of the same class with equal rights and privileges. Each Unit is transferable, entitles the holder thereof to participate equally in distributions, including the distributions of net income and net realized capital gains of Calloway and distributions on liquidation, is fully paid and non-assessable and entitles the holder thereof to one vote at all meetings of Unitholders for each Unit held.

Principal Unitholders

To the knowledge of Calloway, as at May 23, 2005, no person or company beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, or exercised control or direction over, voting securities of Calloway carrying more than 10% of the voting rights attached to any class of voting securities of Calloway except as set out below:

Sable Technologies, Inc., a California based company of which Kevin Pshebniski was a director, filed bankruptcy protection documentation in California on August 12, 2001. Bramalea Limited, a company of which Simon Nyilassy was Senior Vice-President, Finance, filed for bankruptcy protection in 1995.

Governance

In 1995, the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") adopted a series of recommendations and guidelines (the "TSX Guidelines") from the Report of the TSX Committee on Corporate Governance in Canada (the "TSX Report"). The TSX Guidelines deal with the constitution of boards of directors and board committees, their functions, their independence from management and other means of addressing governance practices. The TSX has, in accordance with the recommendations in the TSX Report, imposed a disclosure requirement on every TSX listed company incorporated in Canada to disclose on an annual basis its approach to governance with reference to the TSX Guidelines in either its annual report or the Management Information Circular for its annual meeting.

The board of trustees of Calloway (the "Board") believes that sound governance practices are essential to achieve the best long-term interests of Calloway and the enhancement of value for all security holders. Regulatory changes to governance that have occurred, or will occur, are continually monitored by the Board and the Board has taken, or will take, appropriate action as regulatory changes occur. Listed below are the current TSX Guidelines and a brief discussion of Calloway's compliance with each guideline.

GUIDELINE	COMPLIANCE	COMMENTS:
1. The Board should explicitly assume responsibility for the stewardship of the Trust.	Yes	The Board supervises management of the Trust with the goal of enhancing long term Unitholder value. Management, in turn, is responsible for the day-to-day management of the business and affairs of the Trust and its subsidiaries. The Board approves all significant decisions that affect the Trust before they are implemented, supervises the implementation and reviews the results.
a) The Board should adopt a strategic planning process.	Yes	Management is responsible for establishing strategic planning initiatives for the Trust. The Board assists in the development of these goals and strategies by acting as a sounding board and contributing ideas. The Board ultimately approves the strategic plan, taking into account the risks and opportunities of the business of the Trust.
b) The Board should identify the principal risks of the Trust's business and ensure the implementation of appropriate systems to manage these risks.	Yes	In conjunction with Management, the Board regularly identifies, assesses, discusses and manages the principal risks to the operations of the Trust. The Audit Committee and the Board as a whole review market risks, liquidity risks and interest rate risks.
c) The Board should assume responsibility for succession planning, including appointing, training and monitoring senior management.	Yes	The Board, through the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee, has responsibility for succession planning, including appointing, training and monitoring senior management of the Trust. The Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee at least annually reviews, reports and, where appropriate, provides recommendations to the Board in respect of senior officers and their performance, as well as existing management resources.
d) The Board should establish a communications policy for the Trust.	Yes	The Board has adopted a disclosure policy to disseminate material information in a timely manner to all interested parties in accordance with applicable securities laws. Material disclosure documents such as annual reports, annual financial statements, quarterly financial statements, management's discussion and analysis on financial results, proxy circulars, and annual information forms are reviewed and approved by the Board, in each case before they are distributed. Specified officers of the Trust are authorized to make ongoing disclosure and to respond to inquiries from Unitholders and other stakeholders.

e) The Board should assume responsibility for integrity of the Trust's internal control and management information systems.	Yes	The Board, through the Audit Committee, oversees the integrity of the Trust's financial reporting, internal control and management information systems. The Board has adopted a mandate for the Audit Committee which details the responsibilities and authority of the Audit Committee. At each Audit Committee meeting, the Audit Committee receives information and consults with management to satisfy itself with the integrity of these systems. In addition, the Audit Committee affords the external auditors the opportunity of expressing on a confidential basis their views respecting the integrity of these systems.
2. The Board shall be constituted with a majority of individuals who qualify as unrelated trustees.	Yes	The Board is composed of nine trustees. The Board has determined, after reviewing the roles and relationships of each of the trustees, that six (6) of the trustees, namely David M. Calnan, Jamie M. McVicar, Ken Delf, Kevin Pshebniski, David Carpenter and Al Mawani are unrelated. In the event that the Acquisition closes five (5) of the proposed trustees, namely David M. Calnan, Jamie M. McVicar, Kevin Pshebniski, Al Mawani and Mike Storey will be unrelated, although Mr. Storey will not be an "independent" director under the TSX guidelines by virtue of the fact that he has been an officer of Calloway within the past three years. The Board has determined that the Trust does not have a "significant unitholder", being a unitholder with the ability to exercise the majority of votes for the election of trustees.
3. The Board is required to disclose its analysis of the application of the principles supporting the conclusion in item 2.	Yes	An "unrelated trustee" is a trustee who is independent of management and is free from any interest and any other business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the trustee's ability to act with a view to the best interests of the Trust, other than interests or relationships arising from holding units of the Trust. The Board has determined that three (3) of the current trustees and four (4) of the proposed trustees are related trustees. J. Michael Storey is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Calloway and is therefore currently a "related trustee". Following the Acquisition Mr. Storey will be an "unrelated" trustee. However, Mr. Storey will not be considered independent under applicable securities regulations since he was an executive officer of the Trust within the last three years. Simon Nyilassy is the Executive Vice President of the FirstPro Shopping Centres group of companies which provides property management services to Calloway and is beneficially owned and controlled by the largest unitholder of Calloway and is therefore a "related trustee". In addition, Mr. Nyilassy will assume the position of President and Chief Executive Officer following the Acquisition. Michael Young has been retained by Calloway as a consultant to provide services connected to financing activities of Calloway and is therefore a "related trustee". Kevin Pshebniski is the President of a company with which Calloway has a development agreement but this is not considered material to Calloway and he is therefore considered an "unrelated trustee". David Calnan is a partner in a law firm that provides legal services to Calloway but, after a review, has been determined by the trustees to be an "unrelated trustee". Mr. Calnan's interest in the legal fees payable to the law firm are not material to him while Mr. Calnan's interest in Units of Calloway are material to him. Mr. Calnan is not "independent" under applicable securities regulations related to audit committees. Mitchell Goldhar holds a controlling equity interest in the FirstPro Shopping Centres Group of Companies and thus will be considered a "related trustee". Peter Forde is Executive Vice President, Finance and Administration of FirstPro and is therefore considered a "related trustee".

4. The Board should appoint a committee of trustees composed exclusively of outside trustees (i.e. non-management), a majority of whom are unrelated trustees, with the responsibility for proposing to the full Board new nominees to the Board and for assessing trustees on an ongoing basis.	Yes	The Board has appointed the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee which is responsible for, among other items: (i) reviewing the size and composition of the Board; (ii) recommending candidates for election to the Board; (iii) reviewing credentials of nominees for re-election; and (iv) recommending candidates for filling vacancies on the Board. All members of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee are outside trustees and a majority are unrelated.
5. The Board should implement a process for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the committees of the Board and the contribution of individual trustees.	Yes	The Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee reviews the effectiveness of the Board, its committees and individual trustees. The mandate of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee includes, among other items: (i) assessing the effectiveness of the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities and duties; (ii) reviewing the performance of individual trustees; and (iii) reviewing the composition of the Board and its various committees and making recommendations to the Board on matters such as their size, composition and structure.
6. Existence of an orientation and education program for new trustees.	Yes	The Board and Management have established an informal orientation and education program for new trustees and new committee members. Existing Board members have historically provided orientation and education to new members on an ad hoc and informal basis in light of the particular needs of each new member. Every member of the Board has access to management and relevant business information. Management makes regular presentations to the Board on the main areas of the Trust's business.

GUIDELINE	COMPLIANCE	COMMENTS:
7. The Board should examine the size of the Board and the impact of the number upon effectiveness.	Yes	The Board reviews its size and composition from time to time to determine their impact on its effectiveness. The Board believes that a board of nine (9) trustees is an appropriate size for a public entity with a capitalization and business of the Trust's size. The Board believes that its current trustees comprise an appropriate mix of individuals with real estate, accounting, financial, legal and general business experience.
8. The Board should review the adequacy and form of the compensation of trustees and ensure the compensation realistically reflects the responsibilities and risks involved in being an effective trustee.	Yes	The Board, through its Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee, periodically reviews the adequacy and form of compensation of its trustees. The committee considers the time commitment, risks and responsibilities of trustees and takes into account the types of compensation and the amounts paid to directors and/ or trustees of comparable publicly traded Canadian companies.
9. Committees of the Board should generally be composed of outside trustees, a majority of whom are unrelated trustees.	Yes	The Board has three committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee and an Investment Committee. All members of the Audit Committee are outside trustees and unrelated trustees. All members of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee are outside trustees and a majority are unrelated trustees. All members of the Investment Committee are outside trustees and a majority are unrelated trustees.
10. The Board should assume responsibility for, or a committee of the Board should be assigned general responsibility for, developing the Trust's approach to governance issues.	Yes	The Board, through the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee, is responsible for the Trust's approach to corporate governance issues. This committee discharges its responsibility through review and consideration of the Trust's governance principles and brings forth recommendations to the Board regarding necessary changes to those principles arising pursuant to regulatory changes or otherwise.
11. The Board, together with the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"), should develop position descriptions for the Board and the CEO, involving the definition of the limits to Management's responsibilities. In addition, the Board should approve or develop the corporate objectives which the CEO is responsible for meeting and assess the CEO against these objectives.	Yes	The Board has responsibility for: (i) participating in the development of a corporate strategic plan; (ii) identifying and managing business risks; (iii) ensuring the integrity and adequacy of Calloway's internal controls and management information systems; (iv) defining the roles and responsibilities of Management; (v) reviewing and approving the business and investment objectives to be met by Management; (vi) assessing the performance of Management and the performance of its subsidiaries; (vii) succession planning; (viii) ensuring effective and adequate communication with Calloway's Unitholders and other stakeholders as well as the public at large; and (ix) establishing committees of the board of Trustees, where required, and defining their mandates. In addition, the Board has adopted a mandate which expands upon its objectives and responsibilities. The Board has developed a position description for the CEO involving the definition of the limits to the CEO's responsibilities. The Board has developed objectives which the CEO is responsible for meeting and the Board assesses the CEO against those objectives.

GUIDELINE	COMPLIANCE	COMMENTS:
12. The Board should have structures and procedures for ensuring that the Board can function independently of Management.	Yes	The Board meets independently of Management on an ongoing basis. During some meetings, the Board and its committees conduct "in camera" sessions, at which no management trustees or members of management are present. In matters which require the independence of the Board, only the unrelated Board members take part in the decision-making responsibilities and evaluations.
13. a) The Audit Committee of the Board should be composed only of outside trustees. b) The roles and responsibilities of the Audit Committee should be specifically defined so as to provide appropriate guidance to Audit Committee members as to their duties. c) The Audit Committee should have direct communication channels with the internal and external auditors to discuss and review specific issues as appropriate. d) The Audit Committee duties should include oversight responsibility for Management reporting on internal control and should ensure that Management has designed and implemented an effective system of internal control.	Yes Yes Yes Yes	The Audit Committee is comprised entirely of unrelated Trustees who are also all outside trustees. The Audit Committee has adopted a mandate which specifically defines its roles and responsibilities which include the review of annual and quarterly financial statements, review of accounting practices and policies, ongoing reviews with and of the Trust's auditors including the scope of the audit, and the role, independence and fees of the external auditors. The Audit Committee is responsible for the Trust's financial reporting processes and the quality of its financial reporting. In fulfilling this responsibility, the Audit Committee oversees the terms of engagement and relationship between the Trust and its external auditors. The Audit Committee is free to communicate directly with the external auditors of the Trust without the presence of Management. The Trust's external auditors have a direct line of communication with the Audit Committee at all times and meet with the committee without management present at least once each quarter. The Audit Committee's duties include oversight responsibility for Management reporting on internal control and ensuring that Management has designed and implemented an effective system of internal control.
14. The Board should implement a system which enables an individual trustee to engage an outside advisor at the expense of the Trust in appropriate circumstances. The engagement of the outside advisor should be subject to the approval of an appropriate Committee of the Board.	Yes	The Board and its committees may retain outside advisors as they deem necessary. Individual trustees may also retain outside advisors, at the expense of the Trust, upon approval of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee.

Executive Compensation

Composition of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee

The Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Trustees of Calloway during the most recently completed financial year of Calloway consisted of Jamie M. McVicar, Ken Delf, David Carpenter, Simon Nyilassy and Michael Young. Mr. McVicar was the Chairman of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee during the most recently completed financial year of Calloway.

Compensation Policy

As set forth below under the heading "Employment Agreements", each of J. Michael Storey, Mark Suchan and Keith McRae have entered into Employment Agreements with Calloway. In determining the appropriate terms of the Employment Agreements, the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of Calloway considered the following objectives:

- (a) obtaining the executives critical to the success of Calloway and the enhancement of Unitholder values;
- (b) providing fair and competitive compensation;
- (c) balancing the interests of management and Unitholders of Calloway; and
- (d) reviewing performance, both on an individual basis and with respect to the business of Calloway in general.

To achieve these objectives, the compensation paid to each of J. Michael Storey, Mark Suchan and Keith McRae consists of the following three primary components:

- (a) base salary;
- (b) annual bonus incentives;
- (c) long-term incentive in the form of Unit options granted in accordance with the Unit Option Plan of Calloway; and
- (d) long-term incentive in the form of deferred units granted in accordance with the Deferred Unit Plan of Calloway.

Base Salary

The base salary of each of J. Michael Storey, Mark Suchan and Keith McRae was determined by assessment of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of such executive's performance, consideration of competitive compensation levels in entities similar to Calloway, and the role such executive is expected to play in the performance of Calloway.

Bonus Incentives

Annual cash bonus incentive awards are based upon the ability of Calloway to meet the targeted annual distribution levels set out at the commencement of each fiscal year. This establishes a direct link between executive compensation and Calloway's performance.

In addition, from time to time, the Board of Trustees may declare an additional cash bonus in favour of one or more members of Calloway's management team in circumstances where it is determined that the executive(s) in question have made an exceptional contribution to the performance of Calloway during the fiscal year. The Board of Trustees has determined that a special bonus should be payable in the event that the Acquisition is completed, the details of which are discussed the section titled "Executive Compensation - Employment Agreements" below.

Long-term Incentive

Calloway provides a long-term incentive by granting options and deferred units to trustees, executive officers and employees through the Unit Option Plan and the Deferred Unit Plan, respectively. The objective of granting options and deferred units is to encourage trustees, executive officers and employees to acquire an ownership interest in Calloway over a period of time which acts as a financial incentive for such persons to consider the long-term interests of Calloway and its Unitholders.

Compensation of Executive Officers

The following table provides a summary of all compensation paid to Calloway's three executive officers (the "Named Executive Officers") for the periods indicated. No other executive officer of Calloway received compensation in excess of $150,000 during the financial year ended December 31, 2004.

The following table sets forth, in respect of the Named Executive Officers, details of the options exercised in the financial year ended December 31, 2004 and the financial year-end number and value of unexercised options on an aggregate basis:

Mark Suchan	26,600	117,400	23,400/15,000	204,750/131,250
Keith McRae	20,000	111,520	30,000/15,000	262,500/131,250

Notes:

- (1) This amount was determined by multiplying the number of Units issued upon the exercise of options by the closing price of the Units on the Toronto Stock Exchange on the date of exercise and subtracting therefrom the product of the number of such units and the exercise price thereof.
- (2) For the purposes of calculating the value of unexercised "in-the-money" options, for each option the exercise price was subtracted from the $18.75 closing price per Unit on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the "TSX") on December 31, 2004, the last trading day of the most recently completed financial year.

Employment Agreements

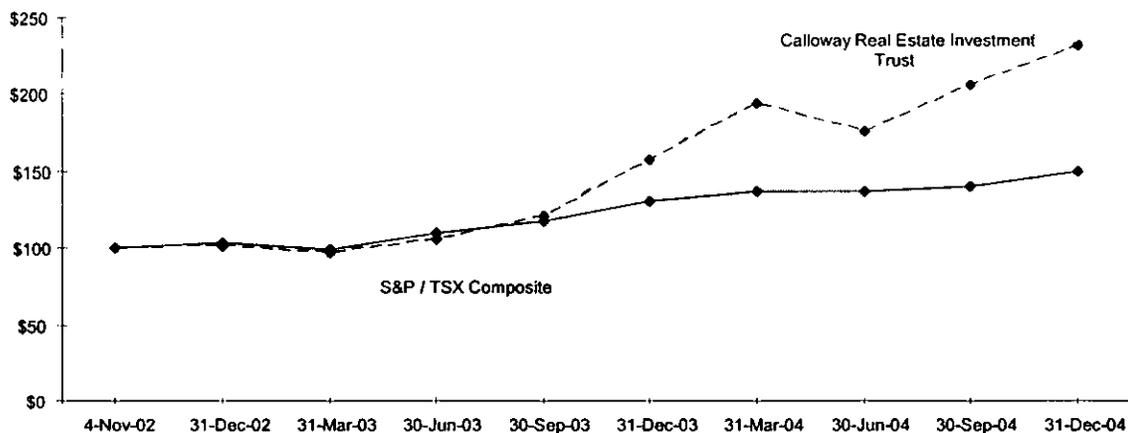

Each of J. Michael Storey, Mark Suchan and Keith McRae has entered into employment agreements (the "Employment Agreements") with Calloway. The current annual compensation payable to each of J. Michael Storey, Mark Suchan and Keith McRae under the Employment Agreements is $350,000 plus a bonus of up to $200,000, $200,000 plus a bonus of up to $100,000, and $125,000 plus a bonus of up to $75,000, respectively. Each agreement will continue indefinitely, subject to termination by either party upon notice. Each agreement provides for the executive management individual's base salary and for benefits in accordance with benefit plans for employees established from time to time by Calloway. Each agreement provides for the executive management individual to receive an amount if the agreement is terminated other than for cause. For J. Michael Storey, if he is terminated following the Acquisition, this termination amount will be 1.5 times the sum of one year's base salary plus targeted maximum 2005 bonus, or $825,000. For Mark Suchan and Keith McRae, if they are terminated following the Acquisition, this amount will be one year's base salary plus targeted maximum 2005 bonus, or $300,000 and $200,000 respectively. Based on an analysis of the attributes of the Acquisition and its beneficial impact on Calloway, the Trustees have agreed to award an additional bonus of $200,000, $100,000 and $75,000 to Messrs. Storey, Suchan and McRae respectively contingent upon the closing of the Acquisition, termination of each following the closing of the Acquisition and confirmation by the Compensation and Governance Committee that the final terms of the Acquisition continue to represent a favourable transaction for Calloway. None of the amounts payable to senior management on termination of their employment, including the contingent special award connected to the completion of the Acquisition, is eligible for participation in the Deferred Unit Plan.

Compensation of Trustees

The Trustees are entitled to compensation for services rendered to Calloway in their capacities as Trustees. Compensation for the Trustees, other than J. Michael Storey who is also the President and Chief Executive Officer of Calloway and is compensated in that capacity, is currently set at $18,000 per year plus an additional $1,000 for each meeting of Trustees or committee meeting attended and an additional annual fee of $2,500 for the Chairman of each committee of the Board. Mr. Storey is not entitled to receive any compensation for services rendered to Calloway as a Trustee. The Trustees are also entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable travel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending meetings of the Trustees or any committee thereof in connection with their services as Trustees. For the year ended December 31, 2004, the Trustees earned an aggregate of $218,700 for their services. Further, Michael Young provides consulting services to Calloway in consideration for a fee calculated as between 10 and 15 basis points multiplied by the amount raised by Calloway in any public financing. For the year ended December 31, 2004, Mr. Young earned an additional $481,475 for the provision of these services.

Unit Performance Graph

The following graph compares the cumulative total unitholder returns (assuming an investment of $100.00 on November 4, 2002, the date the Units of Calloway were listed for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange, and assuming the reinvestment of cash distributions into Units on the date of payment of such distributions) on Calloway's Units during the period November 4, 2002 to December 31, 2004 with the cumulative return of the Toronto Stock Exchange S&P/TSX Composite Index during the same period. The price performance of the Calloway's Units as set out on the graph does not necessarily indicate future price performance.

Note:

(1) Calloway paid cumulative distributions of $2.5603 per Unit between November 4, 2002 and December 31, 2004.

Indebtedness of Trustees and Officers

As of the date of this Management Information Circular, none of the trustees or executive officers of Calloway, or any associate or affiliate of any of the trustees or executive officers of Calloway is indebted to Calloway.

- (1) See the paragraphs below under the heading "Unit Option Plan" for a description of the Unit Option Plan of Calloway.
 (2) See the paragraphs below under the heading "Deferred Unit Plan" for a description of the Deferred Unit Plan of Calloway.

Unit Option Plan

Calloway currently has an incentive unit option plan (the "Unit Option Plan") which has been previously approved by the Unitholders. The Unit Option Plan is administered by the Board of Trustees of Calloway, or by a special committee of the Trustees appointed from time to time by the Board of Trustees of Calloway pursuant to rules of procedure fixed by the Board of Trustees of Calloway. Pursuant to the terms of the Unit Option Plan, trustees, directors, officers, consultants, and employees of Calloway or its subsidiaries are eligible for selection to participate in such incentive Unit Option Plan (such persons hereinafter collectively referred to in this section as "Participants"). The Board of Trustees of Calloway shall determine to whom options shall be granted, the terms and provisions of the respective option agreements, the time or times at which such options shall be granted and vested, and the number of Units to be subject to each option. The purpose of Unit Option Plan is to advance the interests of Calloway by encouraging Participants to acquire Units in the capital of Calloway, thereby increasing their proprietary interest in Calloway, encouraging them to remain associated with Calloway and furnishing them with additional incentive in their efforts on behalf of Calloway in the conduct of its affairs.

As of May 31, 2005, Calloway has 36,904,570 Units outstanding. The maximum number of Units reserved for issuance under the Unit Option Plan is 562,000, or approximately 1.5% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway. An aggregate of 331,600 Units, or approximately 0.9% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway, have been issued upon the exercise of options granted pursuant to the Unit Option Plan. Options to acquire a further 228,400 Units, or approximately 0.6% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway, have been granted pursuant to the Unit Option Plan.

The Unit Option Plan provides that the number of Units reserved for issuance pursuant to the Unit Option Plan in respect of all options granted to any one Participant, together with any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway, at any one time shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time. The Unit Option Plan also provides that the number of Units reserved for issuance pursuant to the Unit Option Plan in respect of all options granted to all insiders of Calloway (as that term is defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) ("Insiders"), together with any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway, at any one time shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time. The Unit Option Plan also provides that the number of Units that may be issued to Insiders of Calloway within a one year period pursuant to the Amended Option Plan or any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway shall not exceed (10%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time. The Unit Option Plan also provides that the number of Units that may be issued to any one Insider, and associates (as that term is defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) of such Insider ("Associates"), pursuant to the Unit Option Plan or any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway within a one year period shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time.

The exercise price of the Units subject to each option shall be determined by the Board of Trustees of Calloway at the time any option is granted. In no event shall such exercise price be lower than the closing price of the Units on the Toronto Stock Exchange on the first date preceding the date of grant on which the Units traded on such exchange. Once the exercise price has been determined by the Board of Trustees of Calloway and accepted by the Toronto Stock Exchange, the exercise price of an option may be reduced upon receipt of approval of the Board of Trustees of Calloway, provided that in the case of options held by Insiders of Calloway, the exercise price of an option may be reduced only if disinterested Unitholder approval is obtained.

Subject to earlier termination upon certain events as hereinafter described, each option and all rights thereunder granted pursuant to the Unit Option plan shall expire on the date determined by the Board of Trustees, provided that in no circumstances shall the duration of an option exceed 10 years.

If a Participant shall cease to be a trustee, director, officer, consultant, employee of Calloway, or its subsidiaries, for any reason (other than death), such Participant may then only exercise his or her option to the extent that the Participant was entitled to exercise it at the date of such cessation, provided that such exercise must occur within 90 days after the Participant ceases to be a trustee, director, officer, consultant, employee of Calloway, or its subsidiaries.

In the event of the death of a Participant, the option previously granted to him or her shall be exercisable only within the first year after such death and then only: (a) by the person or persons to whom the Participant's rights under the option shall pass by the Participant's will or the laws of descent and distribution; and (b) if and to the extent that such Participant was entitled to exercise the option at the date of his or her death.

Subject to any vesting restrictions imposed by the relevant exchange upon which the Units of Calloway are listed, the Board of Trustees of Calloway may, in its sole discretion, determine the time during which options shall vest and the method of vesting, or that no vesting restriction shall exist.

All benefits, rights and options accruing to any Participant in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Unit Option Plan shall not be transferable or assignable. During the lifetime of a Participant any benefits, rights and options may only be exercised by the Participant.

The Board of Trustees of Calloway has the power to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Unit Option Plan, subject to any necessary regulatory and Unitholder approvals. Subject to the receipt of any necessary regulatory or Unitholder approvals, the Board of Trustees may also at any time amend or revise the terms of any options granted under the Unit Option Plan from time to time. The TSX will generally not require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) amendments of a "housekeeping" nature; (b) change to the vesting provisions of a security or a plan; (c) a change to the termination provisions of a security or a plan which does not entail an extension beyond the original expiry date; and (d) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities, which provides for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve. The TSX will generally require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) any amendment to the number of securities issuable under the plan, including an increase to a fixed maximum number of securities or a change from a fixed maximum number of securities to a fixed maximum percentage; (b) any change to the eligible participants which would have the potential of broadening or increasing insider participation; (c) the addition of any form of financial assistance; (d) any amendment to a financial assistance provision which is more favourable to participants; (e) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities which does not provide for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve; and (f) the addition of a deferred or restricted share unit or any other provision which results in participants receiving securities while no cash consideration is received by the issuer.

Deferred Unit Plan

The Board of Trustees of Calloway has adopted a deferred unit plan (the "Deferred Unit Plan"), subject to the approval of such plan by the Unitholders at the Meeting and by the Toronto Stock Exchange. If such approvals are obtained, the effective date of the Deferred Unit Plan will be January 1, 2004 or such other date as the Board of Trustees may determine. The Deferred Unit Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees. A copy of the full text of the Deferred Unit Plan is attached as Schedule A hereto.

The purpose of the Deferred Unit Plan is to promote a greater alignment of interests between the Trustees, officers and employees of Calloway and/or its subsidiaries ("Eligible Participants") and the Unitholders.

Each Eligible Person is given the right to elect to be a participant (a "Participant") of the Deferred Unit Plan. An Eligible Person who elects to be a Participant shall be paid between sixty percent (60%) and one hundred percent (100%) of:

- (i) in respect of a Trustee, the annual retainer paid by Calloway to that Trustee in a calendar year for service on the Board of Trustees, together with committee fees, attendance fees and additional fees and retainers to committee chairs; and
- (ii) in respect of an officer or employee, the annual bonus paid by Calloway to that officer or employee in a calendar year;

(the "Elected Amount") in the form of deferred Units ("Deferred Units") in lieu of cash provided that Calloway shall match the Elected Amount for each Participant such that the number of Deferred Units issued to each Participant shall be equal in value to two (2) times the Elected Amount.

The number of Deferred Units (including fractional Deferred Units) granted at any particular time pursuant to this Deferred Unit Plan will be calculated by dividing (i) two (2) times the dollar amount of the Elected Amount allocated to the Participant by (ii) the Market Value (as defined below) of a Unit on the award date. "Market Value" at any date in respect of the Units means the volume weighted average price of all Units traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange for the ten trading days immediately preceding such date (or, if such Units are not listed and posted for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange, on such stock exchange on which such Units are listed and posted for trading as may be selected for such purpose by the Board of Trustees). In the event that such Units are not listed and posted for trading on any stock exchange, the Market Value shall be the fair market value of such Units as determined by the Board of Trustees in its sole discretion.

Under no circumstances shall Deferred Units be considered Units nor entitle a Participant to any Unitholder rights, including, without limitation, voting rights, distribution entitlements (other than as set out below) or rights on liquidation. One (1) Deferred Unit is equivalent to one (1) Unit. Fractional Units are permitted under the Deferred Unit Plan.

Generally speaking, Deferred Units granted to Participants pursuant to the Deferred Unit Plan shall vest in accordance with the following schedule:

- (a) 50% of the Deferred Units shall vest on the third anniversary of the grant;
- (b) 25% of the Deferred Units shall vest on the fourth anniversary of the grant; and
- (c) 25% of the Deferred Units shall vest on the fifth anniversary of the grant.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Trustees shall have the discretion to vary the manner in which Deferred Units vest for any Participant.

The Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit account that have vested may be redeemable in whole or in part on the date in which the Participant files a written notice of redemption with Calloway (the "Redemption Date"). The Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit account shall vest immediately and be redeemable by the Participant (or, where the Participant has died, his or her estate) following an event, including termination other than for cause, retirement or death, causing the Participant to be no longer an Eligible Person (the "Termination Date"). Where the Participant has been terminated for cause, the Deferred Units credited to the Participant's Deferred Unit account shall be redeemable by the Participant in accordance with the aforementioned vesting schedule excepting only that a minimum of 50% of such Deferred Units shall be deemed vested. The Participant shall receive, within five (5) business days after the Termination Date or Redemption Date, as applicable, a whole number of Units from Calloway equal to the whole number of Deferred Units then recorded in the Participant's Deferred Unit account, net of any applicable withholding taxes. Calloway shall also make a cash payment, net of any applicable withholding taxes, to the Participant with respect to the value of fractional Deferred Units standing to the Participant's credit after the maximum number of whole Units have been issued by Calloway, calculated by multiplying (i) the number of such fractional Deferred Units by (ii) the Market Value of such fractional Deferred Units on the Termination Date or Redemption Date, as applicable. Upon payment in full of the value of the Deferred Units, the Deferred Units shall be cancelled.

Whenever cash distributions are paid on the Units, additional Deferred Units will be credited to the Participant's Deferred Unit account. The number of such additional Deferred Units shall be calculated by dividing (i) the amount determined by multiplying (a) the number of Deferred Units in such Participant's Deferred Unit account on the record date for the payment of such distribution by (b) the distribution paid per Unit, by (ii) 97% of the Market Value of a Unit on the distribution payment date for such distribution, in each case, with fractions computed to two decimal places. Such additional Deferred Units shall vest on the basis as the initial Deferred Units granted from the date of grant of same.

As of May 31, 2005, Calloway has 36,904,570 Units outstanding. The aggregate number of Units authorized for issuance upon the redemption of all Deferred Units granted under the Deferred Unit Plan shall not exceed 250,000, or approximately 0.7% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway, or such greater number of Units as may be determined by the Board of Trustees and approved by the Unitholders and, if required, by any relevant stock exchange or other regulatory authority; provided, however, that: (i) at no time shall the number of Units reserved for issuance to insiders of Calloway pursuant to outstanding Deferred Units, together with the number of Units reserved for issuance to such persons pursuant to any other compensation arrangements, exceed 10% of the then outstanding Units, as calculated immediately prior to the issuance in question; and (ii) the number of Units issued to insiders of Calloway pursuant to outstanding Deferred Units together with the number of Units issued to such persons pursuant to any other compensation arrangements, within any one year period, shall not exceed 10% of the then outstanding Units. To date, no Units have been issued upon the redemption of Deferred Units issued under the Deferred Unit Plan. Further, to date Calloway has not issued any Deferred Units under the Deferred Unit Plan. However, subject to receipt of regulatory and Unitholder approval to the Deferred Unit Plan, on March 8, 2005 the Trustees of Calloway authorized the issuance upon conclusion of the meeting of an aggregate of 49,218 Deferred Units, or approximately 0.13% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway, pursuant to the Deferred Unit Plan to the Trustees (20,224 Deferred Units) and officers of Calloway (28,994 Deferred Units) at a Market Value of $19.31 per Deferred Unit, being the Market Value of the Units of Calloway on March 8, 2005.

In no event may the rights or interests of a Participant under the Deferred Unit Plan be assigned, encumbered, pledged, transferred or alienated in any way, except to the extent that certain rights may pass to a beneficiary or legal representative upon death of a Participant, by will or by the laws of succession and distribution.

The administration of the Deferred Unit Plan shall be subject to and performed in conformity with all applicable laws, regulations, orders of governmental or regulatory authorities and the requirements of any stock exchange on which the Units are listed. Should the Compensation Committee, in its sole discretion, determine that it is not desirable or feasible to provide for the redemption of Deferred Units in Units, including by reason of any such laws, regulations, rules, orders or requirements, it shall notify the Participants of such determination and on receipt of such notice each Participant shall have the option of electing that such redemption obligations be satisfied by means of a cash payment by Calloway equal to the Market Value of the Units that would otherwise be delivered to a Participant in settlement of Deferred Units on the redemption date (less any applicable withholding taxes).

The Board of Trustees of Calloway has the power to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Deferred Option Plan, subject to any necessary regulatory and Unitholder approvals. Subject to the receipt of any necessary regulatory or Unitholder approvals, the Board of Trustees may also at any time amend or revise the terms of any Deferred Units granted under the Deferred Option Plan from time to time. The TSX will generally not require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) amendments of a "housekeeping" nature; (b) a change to the vesting provisions of a security or a plan; (c) a change to the termination provisions of a security or a plan which does not entail an extension beyond the original expiry date; and (d) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities, which provides for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve. The TSX will generally require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) any amendment to the number of securities issuable under the plan, including an increase to a fixed maximum number of securities or a change from a fixed maximum number of securities to a fixed maximum percentage; (b) any change to the eligible participants which would have the potential of broadening or increasing insider participation; (c) the addition of any form of financial assistance; (d) any amendment to a financial assistance provision which is more favourable to participants; (e) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities which does not provide for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve; and (f) the addition of a deferred or restricted share unit or any other provision which results in participants receiving securities while no cash consideration is received by the issuer.

Interests of Management and Others In Material Transactions

Except as set out in the paragraphs below and elsewhere in this Management Information Circular, no Trustee, officer or insider of Calloway or any associate or affiliate of any of the foregoing persons has or had any material interest in any material transaction with Calloway since the commencement of Calloway's last financial period which has not been previously disclosed in an information circular of Calloway.

On October 13, 2004, Calloway entered into agreements to purchase interests in 14 retail properties from Wal-Mart-First Pro Realty Partnership (the "Partnership") and from the Wal-Mart-FirstPro Realty Co-ownership (the "Co-ownership"). On November 30, 2004, Calloway completed the acquisition from the Partnership of 6 of the 14 properties (the "Phase I Centres"). The purchase price of the Phase I Centres was $71.5 million including costs of acquisition. The purchase price, net of adjustments, was satisfied via new debt financing totalling $36.1 million, by the vendors providing a non-interest bearing mortgage totalling $5.7 million, and by the payment of the balance in cash. The 6 centres included in the Phase I Centres comprised approximately 516,000 square feet of leased area and included adjacent lands with the potential future development of approximately 206,000 square feet of retail space, for a total potential area of 722,000 square feet. Upon closing of the transaction Wal-Mart, which leases space in 3 of the 6 centres, made up approximately 32.2% of Calloway's gross rental revenue. As stated earlier, as at May 31, 2005, Mitchell Goldhar of Toronto, Ontario beneficially owns, directly and indirectly, approximately 16.4% of the outstanding Units of Calloway. First Professional Realty Inc., one of the partners of the Partnership, is controlled by Mitchell Goldhar and is affiliated with FirstPro. First Professional Realty Inc. had a 40% interest in the Partnership while Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. had a 60% interest in the Partnership.

Concurrently with the closing of the acquisition of the Phase I Centres, Calloway entered into development agreements with the Partnership for the undeveloped lands on each of the Phase I Centres (the "Phase I Development Agreements"). Pursuant to the Phase I Development Agreements, the Partnership assumed responsibility for managing the development of the land on the Phase I Centres and has been granted the right for a period of five years from the date of the acquisition to earn additional proceeds from Calloway on the completion and rental of additional space on these lands. The purchase price for the additional developments will be calculated by a formula using the net operating rents and predetermined capitalization rates. First Pro has the right, at its option, to receive up to 40% of the proceeds for any new developments in Units of Calloway at a purchase price of $17.80 per unit (for an aggregate of approximately 345,000 Units). The Partnership agreed to provide financing to Calloway for the development costs of the additional developments. Calloway provided first mortgages, assignments of rents and leases, and general security agreements on two properties acquired from the Partnership and Co-ownership as security for the development loans for the Phase I Centres. The Partnership assigned its interest in financing development costs to the Wal-Mart-FirstPro Realty Partnership II (the "Partnership II") on February 1, 2005.

During 2004, Calloway completed the purchase of an additional 147,381 square feet of developed space from the FirstPro and the Partnership for $25.3 million (including land value of $5.8 million) under the terms of the development agreements with those entities. The consideration paid consisted of: the issuance to FirstPro of 139,311 Units at a price of $10.00 per Unit, 30,773 Units at a price of $10.50 per Unit, 210,574 Units at a price of $14.00 per Unit and 335,959 Units at a price of $15.25 per Unit; assumption of development loans and accounts payable; and the balance in cash. In addition, Calloway repaid acquisition and development loans provided by the Partnership.

On March 10, 2005, Calloway completed the acquisition from the Co-ownership of the remaining eight properties it agreed to purchase on October 13, 2004 (the "Phase II Centres"). The purchase price of the Phase II Centres was approximately $230 million including costs of acquisition. The purchase price, net of adjustments, was satisfied via new debt financing totalling $155.2 million, by the vendors providing a non-interest bearing mortgage totalling $6 million, and by the payment of the balance in cash. The 8 additional centres included in the Phase II Centres comprised approximately 2,097,000 square feet of leased area and included adjacent lands with the potential future development of approximately 258,000 square feet of retail space, for a total potential area of 2,355,000 square feet. Upon closing of the transaction Wal-Mart, which leases space in all 8 of the centres, made up approximately 34.2% of Calloway's gross rental revenue. As stated earlier, as of May 23, 2005, Mitchell Goldhar of Toronto, Ontario beneficially owns, directly and indirectly, approximately 16.4% of the outstanding Units of Calloway. First Professional Realty Inc., one of the co-owners of the Co-ownership, is controlled by Mitchell Goldhar and is affiliated with FirstPro. First Professional Realty Inc. had a 40% interest in the Phase II Centres while Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. had a 60% interest in the Phase II Centres.

Concurrently with the closing of the acquisition of the Phase II Centres, Calloway entered into development agreements with the Partnership II for the undeveloped lands on each of the Phase II Centres (the "Phase II Development Agreements"). Pursuant to the Phase II Development Agreements, the Partnership II has assumed responsibility for managing the development of the land on the Phase II Centres and has been granted the right for a period of five years from the date of the acquisition to earn additional proceeds from Calloway on the completion and rental of additional space on these lands. The purchase price for the additional developments will be calculated by a formula using the net operating rents and predetermined capitalization rates. An affiliate of FirstPro has the right, at its option, to receive up to 40% of the proceeds for any new developments in Units of Calloway at a purchase price of $19.60 per unit (for an aggregate of approximately 225,000 Units). The Partnership II will provide financing to Calloway for the development costs of the additional developments. Calloway has provided a first mortgage, assignment of rents and leases, and a general security agreement on one property acquired from the Co-ownership as security for the development loans.

THE ACQUISITION

Calloway has entered into separate conditional agreements with each of FirstPro and Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. ("Wal-Mart") dated May 11, 2005 and April 8, 2005 respectively (the "Purchase Agreements") to acquire (i) interests in 35 recently completed, large-format shopping centres and adjacent undeveloped lands with future development potential (the "Centres"), including a 60% interest in 8 of such centres from Wal-Mart and (ii) development properties for 10 new shopping centres, totalling approximately 11.2 million square feet on completion (the "Development Lands"), for consideration of approximately $1.135 billion (the "Acquisition") (the "Centres" and "Development Lands" are hereinafter collectively called the "Centres V"). Under the terms of the Purchase Agreements, Calloway has also agreed to relocate its operations to Toronto from Calgary, take on part of FirstPro's leasing and development operations and appoint a new senior management team with Simon Nyilassy (now at First Pro) in the role of President and Chief Executive Officer. The termination payments disclosed at page 18 will be triggered as a result of these changes. Calloway intends to hire externally as well as offer employment to a number of employees of FirstPro to implement and manage the development process connected with 13 of the Centres and the Development Lands. This group will initially be responsible for approximately 2.0 million square feet of new development associated with the Centres V. The Acquisition is expected to close by July 15, 2005 and is subject to due diligence, Unitholder approval and other customary conditions. FirstPro will continue to manage all of the Centres.

The Centres V are located in 8 of Canada's 10 provinces. Sixty percent of the 35 Centres exceed 300,000 square feet in leaseable area and 25% of the Centres exceed 500,000 square feet. Wal-Mart operates a department store in 32 of the 35 Centres and comprises approximately 3.9 million square feet of the Centres with a weighed average remaining initial term of over 16 years. Calloway's share of rents generated from Wal-Mart leases will represent approximately 31% of the rents from Calloway's total portfolio after closing. Calloway expects that the Development Lands will, following completion of development, also be anchored by Wal-Mart and/or other large Canadian retailers. These properties are expected to achieve substantial completion within the next 1 to 3 years and will add a further 1.2 million square feet to Calloway's portfolio on completion.

In order to complete the Acquisition and as a condition of the Acquisition, Calloway intends to reorganize its affairs as follows:

1. Amend the Declaration of Trust to add a fair market value redemption feature to the publicly traded units, thus becoming an "open-ended" mutual fund trust. The terms and conditions of this redemption right are set out below in the section "Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust" at page 49 below;
2. Amend the Declaration of Trust to provide for the issuance of special voting units (the "Special Voting Units") to FirstPro. These Special Voting Units will be entitled to one vote per Special Voting Unit but will not be entitled to any distributions payable to Unitholders. The rights and restrictions associated with these

Special Voting Units are set out below in the section "Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust" at page 49 below:

3. Form a new trust (the "Calloway Holdings Trust") with Calloway holding all of its units; and
4. Calloway Holdings Trust will form a limited partnership ("Calloway LP").

Calloway LP shall have three classes of units: (i) class A units, entitled to distributions equal to such amount as Calloway Holdings Trust shall determine from time to time (the "Class A Units") subject to ensuring that adequate provision has been made for distributions payable on other classes of Calloway LP units; (ii) class B units, entitled to distributions in the same amount and coincident with Units (in priority to distributions on Class A Units) and convertible at any time at the option of the holder into Units ("Class B Units"); and (iii) class C units which are entitled to nominal distributions and which are replaced by Class B Units at the option of the holder following the completion of certain earn-out events associated with developments on the Centres V ("Class C Units") as more particularly discussed in "Access to Development Projects on Centres and Undeveloped Lands" at page 46 below. The holder of Class B Units will be entitled to one Special Voting Unit of Calloway for each Class B Unit held. Following the Acquisition, Calloway Holdings Trust will be the holder of all of the issued Class A Units. Distributions paid by Calloway LP to Calloway Holdings Trust and FirstPro will be treated partly as income and partly as return of capital in such ratio as is determined by agreement between Calloway and FirstPro.

The Purchase Agreements provide that certain of the Centres V will be acquired by Calloway LP while others will be acquired by Calloway. The base purchase price for the Centres V will be approximately $1.135 billion (the "Purchase Price"), subject to adjustment as contemplated in the Purchase Agreement. The Purchase Price will be satisfied as follows:

- (a) by issuing an interest free mortgage in the amount of approximately $13 million to Wal-Mart (the "Wal-Mart Mortgage");
- (b) by payment of approximately $271 million in cash to Wal-Mart;
- (c) by issuing interest free mortgages to FirstPro in the amount of approximately $18 million (the "FirstPro Mortgages");
- (d) by way of the issuance of approximately 12.6 million Class B Units at $19.85 per Class B Unit, approximately 8.5 million Class C Units and approximately 12.6 million Special Voting Units to the Vendors excluding Wal-Mart, representing consideration in an amount equal to approximately $250 million;
- (e) by way of assumption of existing mortgage debt on the Centres in the amount of approximately $345 million (including a mark to market adjustment of $22 million); and
- (f) by the payment of the balance in cash to the Vendors excluding Wal-Mart.

In addition to the Purchase Price, Calloway expects to incur approximately $21 million in costs for an aggregate total cost to Calloway of approximately $1.156 billion. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreements, Calloway will place $1,000,000 (the "Deposit") in trust with its legal counsel as a deposit towards payment of the Purchase Price. The Deposit may be forfeited and remitted to the Vendors if the Acquisition is not completed under certain circumstances.

Calloway intends to fund the cash component of the Purchase Price and its costs by obtaining debt financing of approximately $329 million and by issuing Units pursuant to one or more arms length private placements or public offerings of Units which is expected to be completed prior to or concurrently with the closing for aggregate gross proceeds of approximately $225 million. On June 2, 2005 Calloway agreed to issue up to 8,820,000 subscription receipts pursuant to the private placements at $19.85 per subscription receipt pursuant to the terms of an agency agreement entered into with a syndicate of agents led by CIBC World Markets Inc. On June 9, 2005 Calloway agreed to increase the private placement to 11,336,000 subscription receipts, at $19.85 each, for gross proceeds of $225,019,600. This private placement is expected to close on June 22, 2005. Each subscription receipt entitles the holder to one Calloway Unit on closing of the Acquisition. If there is a significant increase in the Purchase Price as a result of adjustments Calloway may issue additional units pursuant to one or more private placements or public offerings. Calloway will issue a maximum of 15,000,000 Units pursuant to all private placements or public offerings with the precise number issued to be determined by the final adjusted Purchase Price. The pricing of any additional private placements or public offering will be determined based on market conditions and will be subject to the approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange.

Calloway is acquiring a 60% interest in eight of the Centres from Wal-Mart. Calloway is acquiring the balance of the Centres and the Development Lands from FirstPro. All of the Centres V will be acquired either by Calloway or indirectly by Calloway LP. Mitchell Goldhar owns, directly or indirectly, 6,048,513 Units of Calloway (or approximately 16.4% of the outstanding Units). The Vendors (excluding Wal-Mart) will acquire up to approximately 12.6 million Special Voting Units in addition to approximately 12.6 million Class B Units and 8.5 million Class C Units of Calloway LP. If Calloway issues the Units (or subscription receipts) pursuant to the private placement at $19.85 per Unit for gross proceeds of $225 million and if there is no significant increase in the Purchase Price as a result of adjustments and if Mr. Goldhar directly or indirectly receives 12.6 million Class B Units, Mr. Goldhar will control, directly or indirectly, 6,048,513 Units of Calloway and 12.6 million Class B Units (or approximately 30.7% of the outstanding Units and Class B Units combined) as well as 12.6 million Special Voting Units of Calloway. As a result, Mr. Goldhar will control, directly and indirectly approximately 30.7% of the votes at any meeting of Unitholders. None of FirstPro, Mr. Goldhar or their affiliates will be entitled to vote Units held by them at the Meeting in connection with the resolution to approve the Acquisition.

As additional conditions to the Acquisition, Calloway will further amend its Declaration of Trust to provide for the following:

1. To the extent that FirstPro holds at least 25% of the total aggregate issued and outstanding Units and Special Voting Units of Calloway, Calloway's board of trustees shall be composed of nine trustees and FirstPro shall be entitled to appoint three of such trustees;
2. To the extent that FirstPro holds at least 15% but less than 25% of the total aggregate issued and outstanding Units and Special Voting Units of Calloway, Calloway's board of trustees shall be composed of eight trustees and FirstPro shall be entitled to appoint two of such trustees;
3. To the extent that FirstPro holds at least 5% but less than 15% of the total aggregate issued and outstanding Units and Special Voting of Calloway, Calloway's board of trustees shall be composed of eight trustees and FirstPro shall be entitled to appoint one of such trustees; and
4. To the extent that FirstPro holds less than 5% of the total aggregate issued and outstanding Units and Special Voting Units of Calloway, FirstPro shall not be entitled to any board representation rights.

The Purchase Agreement with FirstPro also provides that the composition of the board of directors of Calloway GP together with FirstPro's right to nominate directors shall be the same as those relating to Calloway's board of trustees as set out above. Finally, the Purchase Agreement with FirstPro provides that if in any given 365 day period the average weighted aggregate number of Special Voting Units and Units held or controlled by FirstPro is equal to or greater than 15,000,000 and provided that Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee, then so long as FirstPro and its affiliates directly or indirectly beneficially own or control less than 25% of the voting rights attached to all voting securities of Calloway, Calloway shall for a period of 5 years commencing on Closing, issue such number of additional Special Voting Units (the "Additional Special Voting Units") which will entitle FirstPro to cast 25% of the votes at a meeting of the holders of Calloway Units. FirstPro's entitlement to a 25% minimum voting right shall extend for an additional five year period should FirstPro, its affiliates and partners sell in aggregate at least $800,000,000 in freehold assets (including freehold interests in assets sold under development arrangements) to Calloway or its affiliates during the initial 5 year period provided that Mr. Goldhar remains on the Board of Trustees of Calloway at all relevant times and further provided that the average weighted aggregate number of Special Voting Units and Units which must be held or controlled by FirstPro during this extended 5 year period shall be increased to the lesser of 20,000,000 or 20% of the aggregate of issued Units and Special Voting Units then outstanding. The chief executive officer of Calloway shall be selected on an annual basis and with the consent of greater than 75% of the board of trustees of Calloway. The terms and conditions of the amendment set out above amends the Declaration of Trust set out above are described in detail in the section "Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust" at page 49 below.

The Centres include 3 properties in which Calloway will acquire a leasehold interest. The term of the ground leases will be 35 years. FirstPro will have the right to terminate the three ground leases after ten years on payment to Calloway of the market value of a 35 year leasehold interest in the properties at that time and will have the right to terminate the three ground leases at any time in the event that any third party acquires 20% of the aggregate of the Units and Special Voting Units of Calloway by repayment to Calloway of the unamortized balance of any prepaid rent paid by Calloway to FirstPro. Calloway intends to prepay its 35 year rental obligation under the ground leases for the 3 properties at the Closing in the amount of approximately $184.7 million.

There are no prior valuations within the contemplation of OSC Rule 61-501 (as defined below) that would reasonably be expected to affect the decision of a Unitholder to vote for or against the Acquisition.

Management believes that the Acquisition will benefit Calloway by increasing its asset base, net operating income and market capitalization each by approximately 100%, providing Calloway with a more diversified portfolio of properties, extending Calloway's lease renewal dates and extending its debt maturity dates, all of which are expected to contribute to enhanced stability of income and distributions and reduce credit risks. Further issuance of additional Units for the purposes of the Acquisition is expected to provide greater liquidity for Unitholders. The Acquisition results in Wal-Mart's status as Calloway's largest tenant being maintained. The Acquisition continues to increase the proportion of Calloway's income derived from newly constructed retail space. Calloway believes that the rental income from the Centres will provide sufficient cash to at least maintain its distributions at current levels after the issuance of all Units necessary to close the Acquisition.

The Special Committee

The Board of Trustees of Calloway established a special committee (the "Special Committee") comprised of Kevin Pshebniski (Chairman), Al Mawani, Ken Delf and David Carpenter to assess the Acquisition as a result of the relationship of FirstPro to Calloway and the Partnership. The Board of Trustees of Calloway provided the Special Committee with a mandate to oversee and supervise compliance by the Trust with the requirements of Rule 61-501 of the Ontario Securities Commission ("OSC Rule 61-501") and Policy Q-27 of the Autorité des marchés financiers ("Policy Q-27") in connection with the Acquisition.

Deliberations of the Special Committee

Following its formation, the Special Committee retained the services of Bennett Jones LLP to act as its legal counsel. With the assistance and advice of its legal advisors, the members of the Special Committee concluded that each of them was independent of Calloway management and FirstPro. On April 25, 2005, the Special Committee held a meeting with its legal advisors. During that meeting, the Special Committee's legal advisors made a presentation to the Special Committee with respect to the role and obligations of the Special Committee in evaluating the Acquisition. The Special Committee determined that in accordance with OSC Rule 61-501 and Policy Q-27 it was necessary to: (i) obtain independent valuations (the "Valuations") of the properties that Calloway agreed to acquire from FirstPro (the "FirstPro Properties") and the non-cash consideration involved in the acquisition of the FirstPro Properties (the "FirstPro Acquisition"); and (ii) seek the approval of the Acquisition by minority Unitholders. The Special Committee also determined, independent of the requirements of OSC Rule 61-501 and Policy Q-27, to seek the advice and expertise of an independent financial advisor in connection with preparing the Valuations and its review of the FirstPro Acquisition.

After considering numerous candidates, the Special Committee selected RBC Dominion Securities Inc. ("RBC"), a member company of RBC Capital Markets, to prepare the Valuations and to provide additional guidance to the Special Committee in forming its opinion as to whether the consideration to be paid by Calloway under the FirstPro

Acquisition is fair from a financial point of view to Calloway (the "Fairness Opinion"). The Special Committee selected RBC based principally on RBC's overall institutional strength, expertise and experience in valuing assets such as those forming part of the Acquisition. In retaining RBC, the Special Committee concluded that, as required by OSC Rule 61-501, RBC was independent of all interested parties to the Acquisition, including FirstPro, and that RBC possessed the appropriate qualifications to conduct the Valuations. RBC was paid a flat fee of $1,500,000 by Calloway for preparing the Valuations and the Fairness Opinion.

In meetings held during April, May and June 2005, with the assistance of its legal advisors, the Special Committee conducted a review of the terms and conditions of the FirstPro Acquisition. The Special Committee also discussed with RBC the value of the non-cash assets involved in the FirstPro Acquisition, including the non-cash consideration to be paid by Calloway.

At the request of the Special Committee, throughout May 2005 Calloway management provided the Special Committee with updates on the status of the Acquisition and discussed with the Special Committee the potential benefits and risks connected with the Acquisition.

On June 7, 2005, the Special Committee received from RBC advice that, and subject to the assumptions and qualifications contained therein, the fair market value of the FirstPro Properties to be purchased by Calloway pursuant to the FirstPro Acquisition is in the range of $821.3 million to $860.5 million and the fair market value of the consideration to be paid by Calloway pursuant to the FirstPro Acquisition is in the range of $853.9 million to $873.4 million. RBC also provided the Special Committee with a financial analysis of the Acquisition and an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that, as of June 7, 2005, based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of the review undertaken by RBC, that the consideration to be paid by Calloway under the FirstPro Acquisition is fair, from a financial point of view, to Calloway. A copy of the Valuations and the Fairness Opinion is attached as Schedule "C" to this Management Information Circular.

Recommendation of the Special Committee

On June 7, 2005, the Special Committee, after consulting with its legal and financial advisors and considering the Valuations and the Fairness Opinion in respect of the FirstPro Acquisition, determined unanimously that the Acquisition is fair to and in the best interests of Calloway and unanimously recommended that the Calloway Board of Trustees authorize the Acquisition and recommend to Calloway Unitholders that they vote in favour of the Acquisition, subject to satisfactory completion of relevant conditions, including:

- (a) regulatory approvals;
- (b) approval of the Acquisition by a majority of the disinterested Unitholders;
- (c) due diligence;
- (d) appropriate debt or equity financing; and
- (e) formal documentation.

In reaching its determinations, approvals and recommendations, the Special Committee considered the following:

- (a) as determined in the Valuations, the fair market value of consideration to be paid by Calloway for the FirstPro Properties is within the range of fair market values of the FirstPro Properties;
- (b) the Fairness Opinion of RBC;
- (c) the terms of the Purchase Agreements;

- (d) management's view that Calloway will be able to maintain its current distribution level following the Acquisition;
- (e) a review of anticipated synergies to be derived from the Acquisition;
- (f) the anticipated value to be obtained from the development properties to be acquired as part of the Acquisition;
- (g) an increase of Calloway's exposure in existing strong geographic markets and a greater geographic diversification of portfolio assets afforded through the Acquisition;
- (h) that the Acquisition extends Calloway's existing average lease renewal and debt maturity dates; and
- (i) that it is anticipated the Acquisition will strengthen income and distribution stability and reduce Calloway's cost of capital.

Recommendation of the Board of Trustees

On June 7, 2005, at a meeting of Calloway's Board of Trustees held immediately after the meeting of the Special Committee, the Board of Trustees considered the recommendation of the Special Committee, the Valuations and the Fairness Opinion. Following further discussion, the Board of Trustees of Calloway voted unanimously to authorize the execution of such agreements as are necessary to complete the Acquisition. Simon Nyilassy, a Trustee of Calloway and the Executive Vice President Finance and Treasury of FirstPro declared his conflict of interest to the Board of Trustees in respect of the FirstPro Acquisition and did not vote in respect of the approval of the Acquisition. Michael Young disclosed his interest in connection with the fees payable to him relating to any public offering of Units in connection with the Acquisition and did not, and will not, vote on those aspects of the Acquisition.

RBC Valuations and Fairness Opinion

The Valuations indicate that, subject to the assumptions and qualifications contained therein, the fair market value of the FirstPro Properties to be purchased by Calloway pursuant to the FirstPro Acquisition is in the range of $821.3 million to $860.5 million and the fair market value of the consideration to be paid by Calloway pursuant to the FirstPro Acquisition is in the range of $853.9 million to $873.4 million.

The Fairness Opinion states that, subject to the assumptions and qualifications contained therein, RBC is of the opinion that, as of the date of the Valuations and the Fairness Opinion, the consideration to be paid by Calloway under the FirstPro Acquisition is fair, from a financial point of view, to Calloway.

A copy of the Valuations and the Fairness Opinion of RBC dated June 7 2005 is attached as Schedule "C" to this Management Information Circular. Unitholders should carefully review and consider the Valuations and the Fairness Opinion in their entirety. The Valuations and the Fairness Opinion are subject to the assumptions and limitations contained therein.

Independent Appraisal of the Centres V

Calloway engaged Altus Helvar and Colliers International (the "Appraisers") to provide a qualified and independent portfolio appraisal of the market value of the Centres V (the "Appraisals"). Given their respective reputations, experience and professional certifications, Calloway management determined the Appraisers to be qualified to prepare the Appraisals. Further, given that the Appraisers do not have and have never had a material financial interest in Calloway, FirstPro, Wal-Mart or the Partnership other than with respect to the provision of professional services on a fee-for-services basis, the Trustees determined that the Appraisers are independent of Calloway, FirstPro, Wal-Mart and the Partnership. The Appraisers were paid fees of $209,000 by Calloway for the Appraisals. The Appraisals were prepared in conformity with the Code of Professional Ethics and the Standards of Professional Practice of the Appraisal

Institute of Canada and are dated June 1, 2005. The Appraisal Institute of Canada defines market value as "the most probable price in terms of money which a property should bring in a competitive and open market under all conditions requisite to a fair sale, the buyer and seller, each acting prudently, knowledgeably and assuming the price is not affected by undue stimuli". Whenever the definition of market value is employed, or its precise wording is used, the following conditions are always assumed: (i) competitive market conditions; (ii) an informed buyer and seller; (iii) no pressure on either party; (iv) "rational" or prudent economic behaviour by both buyer and seller; (v) a reasonable turnover period; and (vi) payment consistent with the standards of behaviour of the market.

The estimated value of the Centres V, as a portfolio, was determined by using a discounted cash flow approach and a direct capitalization method. The Appraisers gave appropriate consideration to a forecast of income for each of the Centres V in terms of market rental rates, growth levels, vacancy rates, tenant rollovers, future tenant inducements, realty commissions and the lease termination rights of significant tenants. Appropriate valuation parameters were used, having due regard to an assessment of the income characteristics, current market conditions, terms of the leases and prevailing economic and industry information. The highest and best use for each of the Centres V was considered by the Appraisers to be the current use.

In determining the approximate market value of the Centres V, the Appraisers relied on operating and financial data provided by First Pro and Wal-Mart, including detailed rent rolls and projected operating results. Based on its review, and other relevant factors, the Appraisers considered such data to be reasonable and supportable.

In appraising the Centres V, the Appraisers assumed that title to each centre is good and marketable and did not take into account engineering, environmental, zoning, planning or related issues.

Collectively, the Appraisals indicate estimated approximate market value of the Centres V on a portfolio basis, as at June 1, 2005 to be between $1,126,000,000 and $1,157,000,000.

Caution should be exercised in the evaluation and use of appraisal results. An appraisal is an estimate of market value. It is not a precise measure of value but is based on a subjective comparison of related activity taking place in the real estate market. The Appraisal is based on various assumptions of future expectations and while the Appraiser's forecast of income is considered to be reasonable at the current time, some of the assumptions may not materialize or may differ materially from actual experience in the future.

A publicly traded real estate investment trust will not necessarily trade at values determined solely by reference to the underlying value of its real estate assets. Accordingly, the Units may trade at a premium or a discount to values implied by the Appraisal.

A copy of the Appraisal may be inspected during ordinary business hours at the registered office of Calloway. Further, a copy of the Appraisal will be sent to any Unitholder without charge on request to the Secretary of Calloway at 310, 855 – 8th Avenue SW, Calgary, Alberta, T2P 3P1, fax number: (403) 266-6522. The Appraisers have consented to the filing of the Appraisals with the Ontario Securities Commission and to the inclusion of this summary of the Appraisals in this document.

Overview of the Property Portfolio

As at March 31, 2005, Calloway owned 63 commercial properties (the "Calloway Properties") comprising 97.65% retail and 2.35% industrial by gross rental revenue. Calloway's proportionate interest in the Calloway Properties comprise a total of 8,802,151 square feet of gross leasable area.

Upon closing of the Acquisition, the Centres V and the Calloway Properties (collectively, the "Property Portfolio") will consist of properties located in all ten Canadian Provinces. Following completion of the Acquisition, 99% of rental revenue from the Property Portfolio will be derived from retail properties containing an aggregate of 13,514,732 square feet; and approximately 1% of rental revenue will be derived from industrial properties containing an aggregate of 484,493 square feet. The occupancy rate for the Property Portfolio was 98.2% as at April 1, 2005.

Capital lease obligations relate to an income property which was acquired under the terms of a 35 year lease. A single payment of $39.0 million was made on October 31, 2003 and a payment of $10.0 million is due at the end of the lease to exercise a purchase option. The net present value of the purchase option payment is $463,425, at an inherent interest rate of 9.18%, as at March 31, 2005.

Convertible debentures have a face value of $53,569,000, bear interest at 6%, and are convertible at the holder's option at any time into trust units at $17.00 per unit. They are redeemable at the option of Calloway in cash or units on or after June 28, 2010.

It is assumed that unsecured debt payable amounting to $175 million will be issued to fund a portion of the Purchase Price. It is assumed that the unsecured debt payable will consist of $75 million due in five years and $100 million due in seven years with a weighted average interest rate of 5.05%.

Debt (including mortgages payable, capital lease obligations and unsecured debt payable but excluding convertible debentures) as a percentage of Gross Book Value at Closing will be 57.52%. Debt (including mortgages payable, capital lease obligations, unsecured debt payable and convertible debentures) as a percentage of Gross Book Value at Closing will be 59.65%.

Management of the Centres

Calloway intends to enter into a property management contract with FirstPro with respect to the Centres, which will include customary market terms and conditions, including the following:

- (a) leasing fees equal to $3.00 per square foot on new leases entered into with respect to the Centres and $1.00 per square foot for lease renewals (up to $4.00 for new leases and up to $2.00 for renewals if outside leasing agents are used by FirstPro);
- (b) property management fees equal to 2.5% of net rental revenues plus the administration fees paid by tenants under relevant leases; and
- (c) a term of five years, renewable, at the option of FirstPro, for a further five year term.

Access to Development Projects on the Centres and Development Lands

Calloway will have access to additional retail developments to be undertaken on 24 of the Centres and on the Development Lands. With respect to 11 of the Centres, the Vendors will be granted the right for a period of five years (the "Earn-Out Period") to earn additional proceeds (the "Earn-Out Proceeds") from Calloway on the completion and rental of additional buildings (the "Earn-Out Event") on the undeveloped lands adjacent to those Centres and on the Development Lands. Upon the occurrence of an Earn-Out Event, Calloway will agree to pay the Earn-Out Proceeds to the Vendor as calculated in the manner set out in the Purchase Agreement. The formula used to calculate the Earn-Out Proceeds for any new development uses net rents from the new development divided by the capitalization rate used to derive the portion of the Purchase Price allocated to the associated centre plus 12.5 basis points. An Affiliate of FirstPro will be provided the right, at its option, to subscribe for either Units or Class B Units of Calloway LP in an amount of up to 40% of the Earn-Out Proceeds at a purchase price per Unit or Class B Unit equal to $20.10. Each Class B Unit issued as a result of an Earn-Out Event shall result in the cancellation of one Class C Unit of Calloway LP and the issuance of an additional Special Voting Unit of the Trust. Based on current projected rents and on potential buildable square feet on the 11 Centres, the Earn-Out Proceeds could be up to approximately $211 million and result in the issuance to FirstPro of up to approximately 4.2 million additional Units or Class B Units of Calloway LP (as well as additional Special Voting Units of the Trust equivalent to the number of Class B Units issued) at $20.10 per Unit or Class B Unit of Calloway LP. Calloway expects that it will raise approximately 60% of any Earn-Out Proceeds by issuing mortgages secured against the property it acquires.

In the event that FirstPro does not elect to subscribe for the full amount of Units or Class B Units of Calloway LP to which it is entitled, Calloway intends to raise such portion of the Earn-Out Proceeds by the issuance of Units pursuant to one or more private placements or public offerings of such additional Units of Calloway, which will be priced at the then current ten day weighted average trading price for Units, subject to at most a 15% discount. The pricing for such private placement or public offering will be determined based on then prevailing market conditions and be subject to the approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange. To the extent that Calloway is able to sell its Units at the relevant time at $20.10 per Unit and that the aggregate Earn-Out Proceeds are $211 million, such private placements or public offerings could result in the issuance of up to 4.2 million additional Units of Calloway.

If an Earn-Out Event does not occur before the expiration of an Earn-Out Period (which may be extended by the Vendors) with respect to a new building, Calloway will not be required to pay any Earn-Out Proceeds in connection with such new building and will be required to repay only 85% of the proceeds it borrowed from the Vendors in relation to the acquisition and development of the Centres attributable to such new building (including the amount owing under the Mortgage, construction financing advances (if any) and interest thereon, all relative to the relevant Undeveloped Land).

With respect to a number of the Centres and the Development Lands, Calloway will conduct the development process. Calloway intends to hire externally as well as offer employment to a number of employees of FirstPro to implement and manage the development process connected with these 13 Centres and the Development Lands. FirstPro will be provided the right, at its option, to subscribe for additional Units or Class B Units of Calloway LP at a purchase price per Unit or Class B Unit equal to $20.10 on the completion of any development of the 13 Centres or the Development Lands (a "Development Event") for an aggregate amount of up to 40% of the value of such development ("Development Proceeds") where value will be determined in a manner similar to the determination of Earn-Out Proceeds. Each Class B Unit issued as a result of a Development Event shall result in the cancellation of one Class C Unit and the issuance of an additional Special Voting Unit. Based on current projected rents and on potential buildable square feet on the 13 Centres and the Development Lands, the Development Proceeds could equal approximately $342 million and result in the issuance of up to 6.8 million additional Units or Class B Units and additional Special Voting Units of the Trust equivalent to the number of Class B Units issued, to FirstPro to the extent that Calloway issues same at $20.10 per Unit pursuant to the contemplated equity offering. Calloway expects it will raise approximately 60% of any Development Proceeds by issuing mortgages secured against the property on which it has completed a development.

In the event that FirstPro does not elect to take any portion of the Development Proceeds in Units or Class B Units, Calloway intends to raise such portion of the Development Proceeds by the issuance of Units pursuant to one or more private placements or public offerings of such additional Units of Calloway, which will be priced at the then current ten day weighted average trading price for Units, subject to at most a 15% discount. The pricing for such private placement or public offering will be determined based on then prevailing market conditions and be subject to the approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange. To the extent that Calloway is able to sell its Units at the relevant time at $20.10 per Unit and that the aggregate Development Proceeds are $342 million, such private placements or public offerings could result in the issuance of up to 6.8 million additional Units of Calloway.

Calloway and Calloway LP will issue a maximum of 11 million additional Units and Class B Units and the Trust will issue a maximum of 8.5 additional Special Voting Units to FirstPro in completing the acquisitions flowing from Earn-Out Events and refinancing properties following Development Events. The precise number of additional Class B Units and Special Voting Units issued will be determined by the applicable trading price of Units (in the event that FirstPro does not elect to subscribe for the full number of the Earn-Out Proceeds or Development Proceeds in Class B Units to which it is entitled) and by the actual amount of the Earn-Out Proceeds or Development Proceeds which will be based on the actual net rents that FirstPro and Calloway are able to achieve in the development of the undeveloped land adjacent to the Centres and Development Lands.

FOURTH AMENDED AND RESTATED DECLARATION OF TRUST

Calloway is a closed-ended mutual fund trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta and created pursuant to a Declaration of Trust dated December 4, 2001, as amended and restated as of October 24, 2002, as further amended and restated as of October 31, 2003, and as further amended and restated as of February 16, 2004 (the "Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust"). Subject to regulatory approval, the Trustees propose to adopt a further amended and restated Declaration of Trust (referred to in this section as the "Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust"). The amendments to the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust that are proposed include changing the Trust from a closed-end mutual fund trust to an open-end mutual fund trust, adding a provision for the issuance of special voting units to FirstPro and adding a provision such that FirstPro will have a right to obtain additional special voting units to maintain its votes at meetings of the Unitholders of Calloway at particular levels.

The primary reason for approving the reorganization is that it is a condition precedent to the completion of the Acquisition. Another benefit that the Trustees believe could be derived from this change is that it will provide Calloway with greater flexibility to more actively pursue value enhancing opportunities and acquisitions in businesses related to Calloway's operations if the Trustees determine this appropriate. The conversion to "open-end" status would substantially reduce the investment restrictions applicable under the Income Tax Act (Canada) (the "Act") and under Calloway's Declaration of Trust and therefore permit greater flexibility in the types of investments to be made by Calloway in the future. The conversion would also be consistent with recent trends in the industry as currently at least eight other Canadian publicly-traded real estate investment trusts are structured as open-end trusts, including the majority of the real estate investment trusts established over the last several years.

Background

Calloway is a "closed-end" investment trust formed under the laws of Alberta. Calloway currently qualifies, and must in the future continue to qualify, as a "unit trust" and as a "mutual fund trust" as those terms are defined in the Tax Act. This means that Calloway must restrict its activities to the making of passive investments (such as the ownership of Canadian real property) and must satisfy at least one of the following two conditions:

- (a) (i) at least 80% of Calloway's assets must consist of shares, cash or bonds, debentures, mortgages, notes or other similar obligations, marketable securities or Canadian real estate; (ii) not less than 95% of its income (computed without regard to any distributions) for the year must be derived from, or from the disposition of, investments described in (i); and (iii) not more than 10% of Calloway's assets may consist of shares, bonds or securities of any one corporation or debtor; or
- (b) Unitholders must possess a right of redemption with respect to their Units, meaning that Unitholders must be entitled to require Calloway to accept, on demand, the surrender of Units at prices determined and payable in accordance with conditions attached to the Units.

Through its ownership of Canadian real estate, Calloway qualifies as a "mutual fund trust" and a "unit trust" by satisfying condition (a). However, Calloway does not satisfy condition (b) as Calloway does not currently provide a right of redemption to Unitholders. If the conversion to open end status is approved by Unitholders and proceeded with, Calloway would qualify as a "mutual fund trust" and a "unit trust" by satisfying condition (b) by providing a right of redemption to Unitholders and would no longer be subject to the restrictions on the nature of its assets and income set out in condition (a).

In order to complete the Acquisition in accordance with the proposed terms, Calloway must amend its Declaration of Trust to be in compliance with condition (b) instead of condition (a).

In addition, Calloway's ability to effectively compete in the commercial real estate industry with other fully integrated real estate companies and ultimately to maintain and increase Unitholder value and distributions, is dependent in part on its ability to effectively pursue investing in opportunities in value enhancing businesses related to real property ownership. The conversion to open-end status would allow Calloway to expand its investments in these and other related areas without being constrained by the asset and income limits described in (a) above.

The conversion requires certain amendments to Calloway's Declaration of Trust described below.

Right of Redemption

The conversion to open-end status would necessitate an amendment to the Declaration of Trust to grant a right of redemption to Unitholders with respect to their Units. This will allow a Unitholder to require Calloway at any time on demand to redeem his or her Units. Upon such redemption, all of such Unitholder's rights to and under the Units tendered would be surrendered, and the Unitholder would be entitled to receive a price per Unit as determined by a market price formula, subject to a proposed monthly aggregate cash cap for all Trust Units tendered in such month of $50,000. The redemption price payable by Calloway would be satisfied by way of a cash payment or, in certain circumstances, including where such payment would cause the monthly cash cap to be exceeded, by way of an in specie distribution (that is, a proportionate distribution of unsecured subordinated promissory notes of subsidiaries of Calloway or of Calloway). As with most other open-end trusts, it is anticipated that trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange and not the right of redemption would continue to be the primary mechanism for Unitholders to dispose of their Units. Any securities or other property of Calloway that may be distributed in specie to Unitholders in connection with a redemption will not be listed on any stock exchange and no market is expected to develop for such securities or other property. Any securities so distributed may be subject to resale restrictions under applicable securities laws. For more detailed information regarding the right of redemption and the terms of the promissory notes, see the specific amendments to the Declaration of Trust described below.

Income Tax Considerations

Future investments or acquisitions permitted by the conversion to "open-end" status may result in dividend, interest or other forms of payments to Calloway and, in turn, distributions to Unitholders that may be wholly or in part taxable. In approving any future investment or acquisition, the Trustees would be required to consider the impact that such investments or acquisitions would have on anticipated after-tax distributions to Unitholders.

A redemption of Units in consideration for cash or other assets of Calloway, as the case may be, will be a disposition of such Units for proceeds of disposition equal to such cash or the value of such other assets, as the case may be. Unitholders exercising the right of redemption will consequently realize a capital gain, or sustain a capital loss, depending upon whether the amount received exceeds, or is exceeded by, the adjusted cost base of the Units so remitted for retraction. The receipt of securities or other property of Calloway in specie in substitution for Units may result in a change in the income tax characterization of distributions.

Calloway obtained an Advance Income Tax Ruling from Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") with respect to Calloway's proposed conversion to open end status. CRA confirmed that the addition of the proposed redemption features and the creation of the Special Voting Units will not, in and of themselves, result in a disposition by existing Unitholders of their Units or result in a disposition by Calloway of its property or in a resettlement of Calloway.

- 6.1.1 The beneficial interests in the Trust shall be divided into interests of two classes, described and designated as "Units" and "Special Voting Units", which shall be entitled to the rights and subject to the limitations, restrictions and conditions set out herein, and the interest of each Unitholder and Special Unitholder shall be determined by the number of Units and/or Special Voting Units registered in the name of the Unitholder or Special Unitholder.
- 6.1.2 Each Unit represents an equal undivided interest in the Trust. All Units outstanding from time to time shall be entitled to participate pro rata in any distributions by the Trust and, in the event of termination or winding-up of the Trust, in the net assets of the Trust. All Units shall rank among themselves equally and rateably without discrimination, preference or priority.

Special Voting Units may be issued in series and shall only be issued in connection with or in relation to Exchangeable Securities on such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Trustee. A Special Voting Unit shall be issued in conjunction with Exchangeable Securities issued and shall be automatically cancelled on the issuance of Units on exercise, conversion or cancellation of Exchangeable Securities. Subject to Section 8.6.3, each Special Voting Unit shall entitle the Special Unitholder of record thereof to a number of votes at all meetings of Unitholders or in respect of any written resolution of Unitholders equal to the number of Units into which the Exchangeable Securities to which such Special Voting Unit relates are, directly or indirectly, exchangeable or convertible (other than in respect of Exchangeable Securities which have been so exchanged, converted or cancelled). For greater certainty, holders of Special Voting Units shall not be entitled to any distributions of any nature whatsoever from the Trust or have any legal or beneficial interests in any assets of the Trust on termination or winding-up of the Trust.
- 6.1.4 Concurrently with the issuance of any Exchangeable Securities and associated Special Voting Units, the Trust shall enter into such agreements, including voting and exchange trust agreements and Exchangeable Security support agreements, as may be necessary or desirable to properly provide for the terms of the Exchangeable Securities, including to provide for voting of such Special Voting Units;
- 6.1.5 If in any given 365 day period in the five year period from July 1, 2005, the average weighted aggregate number of Special Voting Units plus Units held or controlled by the FirstPro is equal to or greater than 15,000,000, then so long as Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee and FirstPro directly or indirectly beneficially own or control less than 25% of the voting rights attached to all voting securities of the Trust, the Trust shall issue such number of additional Special Voting Units (the "Additional Special Voting Units") which will entitle the FirstPro to cast 25% of the votes attached at a meeting of the holders of Units and Special Voting Units. FirstPro's entitlement under this clause shall extend for an additional five year period should FirstPro sell in aggregate at least $800,000,000 of freehold assets (including freehold interests in assets sold under development arrangements) to the Trust or its affiliates during the initial 5 year period, provided that number of Units and Special Voting Units held or controlled by FirstPro shall be increased to the lesser of 20,000,000 or 20% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Units plus Special Voting Units and provided that Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee.

Special Voting Units shall have no legal or beneficial interest in the distributions or assets of the Trust.

It is proposed that the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust by the addition of section 6.3.2 which will read as follows:

- 6.3.2 Special Voting Units shall only be issued in connection with the issuance of Exchangeable Securities or pursuant to the operation of Section 6.1.5 above.

It is proposed that section 6.6 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.6 The titles to the assets of the Trust and the right to conduct the affairs of the Trust are vested exclusively in the Trustees, subject to the provisions of this Declaration of Trust, and the Unitholders and Special Unitholder shall have no interest therein other than the interest in the Trust conferred by their Units or Special Voting Units issued hereunder as described in section 2.7. No Unitholder or Special Unitholder has or is deemed to have any right of ownership in any of the assets of the Trust.

It is proposed that section 6.7 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.7 The Trustees may allot and issue Units and Special Voting Units at such time or times and in such manner (including pursuant to any plan from time to time in effect relating to reinvestment by Unitholders of their distributions of the Trust in Units), and for such consideration and to such person, persons or class of persons as the Trustees in their sole discretion shall determine excepting only that Special Voting Units shall only be issued in connection with the issuance of Exchangeable Securities. In the event that Units or Special Voting Units are issued in whole or in part for a consideration other than money, the resolution of the Trustees allotting and issuing such Units or Special Voting Units shall express the fair equivalent in money of the other consideration received.

It is proposed that section 6.8 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.8 The Trustees may create and issue rights, warrants or options to subscribe for fully paid Units (including Exchangeable Securities) which rights, warrants or options may be exercisable at such subscription price or prices and at such time or times as the Trustees may determine. The rights, warrants or options so created may be issued for such consideration or for no consideration, all as the Trustees may determine. A right, warrant or option shall not be a Unit and a holder thereof shall not be a Unitholder. Upon the approval by the Trustees of any Unit option plan for trustees, officers and/or employees of the Trust, the Trustees may grant options upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in such plan.

It is proposed that section 6.10 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.10 Subject to section 6.11, the Units are freely transferable and the Trustees shall not impose any restriction on the transfer of Units. The Trustees shall use all reasonable efforts to obtain and maintain a listing for the Units on one or more stock exchanges in Canada. Special Voting Units and Exchangeable Securities shall be non-transferable without the consent of the Trust and shall not be listed on any exchange.

It is proposed that section 6.11 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

6.11 Limitation of Ownership by Non-Residents

- 6.11.1 At no time may Non-Residents be the beneficial owners of more than 40% of the Units, on a basic or fully-diluted basis (and for greater certainty, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged), and the Trustees shall inform the Transfer Agent of this restriction. The Trustees may require a registered holder of Units and Special Voting Units to provide the Trustees with a declaration as to the jurisdictions in which beneficial owners of the Units registered in such Unitholder's name are resident and as to whether such beneficial owners are Non-Residents (or in the case of a partnership, whether the partnership is a Non-Resident). If the Trustees become aware, as a result of acquiring such declarations as to beneficial ownership or as a result of any other investigations, that the beneficial owners of 40% of the Units (on a basic or fully-diluted basis, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged) are, or may be, Non-Residents or that such a situation is imminent, the Trustees may make a public announcement thereof and shall not accept a subscription for Units from or issue or register a transfer of Units to a person unless the person provides a declaration in form and content satisfactory to the Trustees that the person is not a Non-Resident and does not hold such Units for the benefit of Non-Residents. If, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trustees determine that more than 40% of the Units (on a basic or fully-diluted basis, including Units into which Exchangeable Securities may be converted or exchanged) are held by Non-Residents, the Trustees may send a notice to such Non-Resident holders of the Units or Exchangeable Securities, as the case may be, chosen in inverse order to the order of acquisition or registration or in such other manner as the Trustees may consider equitable and practicable, requiring them to sell their Units or Exchangeable Securities or a portion thereof within a specified period of not more than 30 days. If the Unitholders receiving such notice have not sold the specified number of Units or Exchangeable Securities or provided the Trustees with satisfactory evidence that they are not Non-Residents within such period, the Trustees may on behalf of such Unitholders sell such Units or Exchangeable Securities and, in the interim, shall suspend the voting and distribution rights attached to such Units or Exchangeable Securities (other than the right to receive the net proceeds from the sale). Upon such sale or conversion, the affected holders shall cease to be holders of the relevant Units or Exchangeable Securities and their rights shall be limited to receiving the net proceeds of sale upon surrender of the certificates, if any, representing such securities. The Trust may direct the Transfer Agent to do any of the foregoing.

- 6.11.2 No liability shall accrue to the Trust or the Trustees if the Units of a Non-Resident Unitholder are sold at a loss to such Unitholder. Unless and until the Trustees shall have been required to do so under the terms hereof, the Trustees shall not be bound to do or take any proceeding or action with respect to this Section 6.11 by virtue of the powers conferred on them hereby. The Trustees shall use reasonable commercial efforts to actively monitor the ownership of Units by Non-Residents. It is acknowledged that the Trustees cannot definitively monitor the ownership of Units by Non-Residents if the Units are registered in the name of CDS. The Trustees shall not be liable for any violation of the Non-Resident ownership restriction which may occur during the term of the Trust.
- 6.11.3 In order to ensure the Trust's continued compliance with proposed amendments to subsection 132(7) of the Income Tax Act or any legislative amendments to subsection 132(7) of the Income Tax Act as finally enacted, the Trustees may, at any time and in their sole discretion, amend the Declaration of Trust in any manner including that the Trustees may proceed to reclassify the outstanding Units into two separate classes of Units, namely, Class A Units and Class B Units. The Class A and Class B Units would carry the same rights to vote, obtain distributions and participate in the Trust Property upon the wind-up or dissolution of the Trust. However, ownership of the Class B Units would be restricted to Resident Canadians while Class A Units would not be subject to any restriction on ownership. If the Trustees were to proceed with this amendment, the Declaration of Trust would also be amended to provide that the number of outstanding Class B Units must at all times exceed 150% of the number of outstanding Class A Units. The proposed terms of the Class A and Class B Units, if and when adopted, would be substantially as follows:

Class A Trust Units

- (i) are not subject to any residency restriction;
- (ii) will trade on the principal exchange on which the Units are traded immediately prior to reclassification into Class A Units and Class B Units;
- (iii) may be exchanged by a holder at any time for Class B Units provided that the holder is a Canadian Resident and provides a suitable residency declaration;
- (iv) will have identical rights to voting, distributions and Trust Property on a wind-up to the Class B Units (will not vote separately as a class); and
- (v) will be subject to a restriction on the number of Units to be issued such that the total number of issued and outstanding Class A Units will not exceed 66⅔% of the number of issued and outstanding Class B Units.

Class B Trust Units

- (i) may not be held by Non-Residents;

- (ii) will trade on the principal exchange on which the Units are traded immediately prior to reclassification into Class A Units and Class B Units;
- (iii) may be exchanged by a holder for Class A Units, provided that the number of outstanding Class A Units, after the exchange, does not exceed 66% of the number of outstanding Class B Units; and
- (iv) will have identical rights to voting, distributions and Trust Property on a wind-up to the Class A Units (will not vote separately as a class).

It is proposed that section 6.12 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.12 Each Unitholder and Special Unitholder or his duly authorized agent is entitled to a certificate bearing an identifying serial number in respect of the Units or Special Voting Units held by him, signed in the manner hereinafter prescribed, but the Trust is not bound to issue more than one certificate in respect of a Unit or Units held jointly or in common by two or more persons and delivery of a certificate to one of them shall be sufficient delivery to all. No certificate shall be issued to evidence any fractional Units. A single certificate shall be issued for the Special Voting Units as directed by FirstPro.

The Unit Certificates may be engraved, printed or lithographed, or partly in one form and partly in another, as the Trustees may determine, and the Unit Certificate issued in respect of the Initial Contribution (and any Unit Certificate issued to a transferee of such Unit) may be typewritten. The form of certificate representing Special Voting Units shall be in a form authorized by the Trustees.

It is proposed that section 6.18 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.18 Units shall be for all purposes of the Trust and this Declaration of Trust, personal and moveable property, and shall be transferable at any time and from time to time by the Unitholder by endorsement and delivery of the certificates representing the Units subject to such provisions and conditions as may be prescribed by the Trustees from time to time. No transfer shall be recorded on the Register unless the transferor has executed the instrument of transfer as reproduced in the Unit certificate and the transferee has delivered to the transfer agent and/or registrar a Unit certificate representing the Units transferred. Subject to the foregoing, transfers shall be recorded on the Register and a new certificate for the Units so transferred shall be issued to the transferee and in case of a transfer of only part of the Units represented by any certificate, a new certificate for the remaining Units shall be issued to the transferor. Special Voting Units shall be non-transferable (except to an affiliate of FirstPro) without the consent of the Trust and the Toronto Stock Exchange.

It is proposed that section 6.19 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

operation of law shall be recorded in the Register as the holder of such Units or Special Voting Units and shall receive a new certificate therefor upon production of evidence thereof satisfactory to the Trustees and delivery of the existing certificate to the Trustees or a transfer agent or registrar of the Trust, but until such record is made, the Unitholder or Special Unitholder of record shall continue to be and be deemed to be the holder of such Units or Special Voting Units for all purposes whether or not the Trust, the Trustees or the transfer agent or registrar of the Trust shall have actual or other notice of such death, bankruptcy, incapacity or other event.

It is proposed that section 6.21 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.21 None of the Trustees, officers of the Trust, Unitholders, Special Unitholders or any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the Trust or the Trustees shall have a duty to inquire into any claim that a transfer of a Unit, Special Voting Unit or other security of the Trust was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the Unit, Special Voting Unit or other security or any other adverse claim, or be bound to see to the performance of any trust, express, implied or of any charge, pledge or equity to which any of the Units, Special Voting Units or other securities or any interest therein are or may be subject, or to ascertain or inquire whether any sale or transfer of any such Units, Special Voting Units or other securities or interest therein by any such Unitholder, Special Unitholder or holder of such security or his personal representatives is authorized by such trust, charge, pledge or equity, or to recognize any person as having any interest therein, except for the person recorded as Unitholder or Special Unitholder of such security.

It is proposed that section 6.22 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

- 6.22 In the event that any certificate for Units or Special Voting Units is lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated, the Trustees may authorize the issuance of a new certificate for the same number of Units or Special Voting Units in lieu thereof. The Trustees may in their discretion, before the issuance of such new certificate, require the owner of the lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificate, or the legal representative of the owner, to make such affidavit or statutory declaration, setting forth such facts as to the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation as the Trustees deem necessary and may require the applicant to supply to the Trust a "lost certificate" or similar bond in such reasonable amount as the Trustees direct indemnifying the Trustees, the transfer agents and registrars for so doing. The Trustees shall have the power to acquire from an insurer or insurers a blanket lost security bond or bonds in respect of the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificates. The Trust shall pay all premiums and other sums of money payable for such purpose out of the property of the Trust with such contribution, if any, by those insured as may be determined by the Trustees. If such blanket lost security bond is acquired, the Trustees may authorize and direct (upon such terms and conditions as they from time to time impose) any registrar, transfer agent, trustee or others to whom the indemnity of such bond extends to take such action to replace such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated certificates without further action or approval by the Trustees.

It is proposed that section 6.23 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust to read as follows:

officers of the Trust or the property of the Trust, but shall only entitle the personal representatives or the heirs of the estate or succession of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder to demand and receive, pursuant to the provisions of section 6.19, a new certificate for Units in place of the certificate held by the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder, and upon the acceptance thereof such personal representatives or the heirs of the estate or succession of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder shall succeed to all rights of the deceased Unitholder or Special Unitholder under this Declaration of Trust.

It is proposed that the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust shall be revised and amended by adding a redemption feature as Article 7 in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust which will read as follows:

ARTICLE 7 REDEMPTION OF UNITS

7.1 Right of Redemption

Each Unitholder shall be entitled to require the Trust to redeem at any time or from time to time at the demand of the Unitholder all or any part of the Units registered in the name of the Unitholder at the prices determined and payable in accordance with the conditions hereinafter provided.

7.2 Exercise of Redemption Right

7.2.1 To exercise a Unitholder's right to require redemption under this Article 7, a duly completed and properly executed notice requiring the Trust to redeem Units, in a form approved by the Trustees, shall be sent to the Trust at the head office of the Trust.

7.2.2 Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units, the Unitholder shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to the Units tendered for redemption (other than to receive the redemption payment therefor) including the right to receive any distributions thereon which are declared payable to the Unitholders of record on a date which is subsequent to the day of receipt by the Trust of such notice. Units shall be considered to be tendered for redemption on the date that the Trust has received the notice and other required documents or evidence as aforesaid.

7.3 Cash Redemption

7.3.1 Upon receipt by the Trust of the notice to redeem Units in accordance with Section 7.2 the holder of the Units tendered for redemption shall be entitled to receive a price per Unit (hereinafter called the "Redemption Price") equal to the lesser of:

7.3.1.1 90% of the "market price" of the Units on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading during the 10 trading day period ending on the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption; and

7.3.1.2 100% of the "closing market price" on the principal market on which the Units are quoted for trading on the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption.

For the purposes hereof, "market price" shall be an amount equal to the weighted average of the closing price of the Units for each of the trading days on which there was a closing price; provided that if the applicable exchange or market does not provide a closing price but only provides the highest and lowest prices of the Units traded on a particular day, the "market price" shall be an amount equal to the weighted average of the average of the highest and lowest prices for each of the trading days on which there was a trade; and provided further that if there was trading on the applicable exchange or market for fewer than five of the 10 trading days, the "market price" shall be the weighted average of the following prices established for each of the 10 trading days: the average of the last bid and last ask prices for each day on which there was no trading; the closing price of the Units for each day that there was trading if the exchange or market provides a closing price; and the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of the Units for each day that there was trading, if the market provides only the highest and lowest prices of Units traded on a particular day. For the purposes of Section 7.3.1.2, the "closing market price" shall be: an amount equal to the closing price of the Units if there was a trade on the date and the exchange or market provides a closing price; an amount equal to the weighted average of the highest and lowest prices of Units if there was trading and the exchange or other market provides only the highest and lowest trading prices of Units traded on a particular day; and the weighted average of the last bid and last ask prices if there was no trading on the date. During the period of time, if any, after the date on which the Units were surrendered to the Trust for redemption, that the Units issued are subject to payment of an instalment of the issue price and are represented by instalment receipts, unless a market for trading in the Units (other than those so represented by instalment receipts) develops which the Trustees consider fairly reflects the market value of the Units, the "market price" for purposes of Section 7.3.1.1 and the "closing market price" for purposes of Section 7.3.1.2 shall equal the aggregate of the "market price" or "closing market price" for such instalment receipts (calculated as aforesaid as if the instalment receipts were Units) plus the amount of the unpaid instalment of the issue price per Unit.

7.3.2 Subject to Sections 7.4 and 7.5, the Redemption Price payable in respect of the Units tendered for redemption during any month shall be paid by cheque, drawn on a Canadian chartered bank or a trust company in lawful money of Canada, payable at par to or to the order of the Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption on or before the last day of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were tendered for redemption. Payments made by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of a cheque in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Unitholder and/or any party having a security interest unless such cheque is dishonoured upon presentment. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Unitholder in respect of Trust Units redeemed.

7.4 No Cash Redemption in Certain Circumstances

Section 7.3.2 shall not be applicable to Units tendered for redemption by a Unitholder, if:

7.4.1 the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 7.3 in respect of such Units and all other Units tendered for redemption prior thereto in the same calendar month exceeds $50,000 ("Monthly Limit"); provided that the Trustees may, in their sole discretion, waive such limitation in respect of all Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month. In the absence of such a waiver, Units tendered for redemption in any calendar month in which the total amount payable by the Trust pursuant to Section 7.3.2 exceeds the Monthly Limit will be redeemed for cash pursuant to Section 7.3.2 and, subject to any applicable regulatory approvals, in accordance with Section 7.5 on a pro rata basis;

7.4.2 at the time the Units are tendered for redemption, the outstanding Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are not listed for trading or quoted on any stock exchange or market which the Trustees consider, in their sole discretion, provides representative fair market value prices for the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts); or

7.4.3 the normal trading of the outstanding Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) is suspended or halted on any stock exchange on which the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are listed for trading or, if not so listed, on any market on which the Units (or, as applicable, instalment receipts) are quoted for trading, on the date that such Units tendered for redemption were tendered to the Trust for redemption or for more than five trading days during the 10 trading day period commencing immediately after the date on which such Units tendered for redemption were tendered to the Trust for redemption.

7.5 Alternate Redemption

If, pursuant to Section 7.4, Section 7.3.2 is not applicable to Units tendered for redemption by a Unitholder, the Redemption Price per Unit specified in Section 7.3 to which the Unitholder would otherwise be entitled shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid and satisfied by way of a distribution to such Unitholder of unsecured promissory notes with interest at a market rate to be determined by the Trustees, payable monthly, issued by the Trust (the "Notes"), each in the principal amount of $1, on the basis of such number of Notes for such Units tendered for redemption equal to the product of (i) number of Units tendered for redemption multiplied by (ii) the Redemption Price per Unit specified in Section 7.3, which product will then be divided by $1 on the date the Units were tendered for redemption. The Redemption Price payable pursuant to this Section 7.5 in respect of Units tendered for redemption during any month shall, subject to receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, be paid by the transfer, to or to the order of the Unitholder who exercised the right of redemption, on the last day (the "Transfer Date") of the calendar month following the month in which the Units were tendered for redemption. Payments by the Trust of the Redemption Price are conclusively deemed to have been made upon the mailing of the Notes by registered mail in a postage prepaid envelope addressed to the former Unitholder. Upon such payment, the Trust shall be discharged from all liability to the former Unitholder in respect of the Units so redeemed. No fractional Notes in a principal amount less than $1 will be distributed and where the number of Notes to be received by the former Unitholder includes a fraction or a principal amount less than a multiple of $1, such number shall be rounded to the next lowest number or multiple of $1, as the case may be.

7.6 Cancellation of all Redeemed Units

All Units which are redeemed under this Article 7 shall be cancelled and such Units shall no longer be outstanding and shall not be reissued.

7.7 Subordination

Following any in specie redemption pursuant to the operation of Section 7.5, holders of Notes will be required to acknowledge that they are subject to any applicable subordination agreements as may be determined by the Trustees prior to delivery of such Notes to the Unitholder.

It is proposed that the second sentence of section 7.2 of the Third Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust be revised and amended in the Fourth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust (now section 8.2) to read as follows:

Two persons present in person or represented by proxy and representing in the aggregate at least 10% of the votes attaching to all outstanding Units shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all such meetings.

Financial Statements

The audited financial statements of the Trust for the year ended December 31, 2004 and the auditor's report thereon will be tabled before the Unitholders at the Meeting for the consideration of the Unitholders. The audited financial statements have been approved by the Audit Committee and by the Board of Trustees of the Trust.

At the Meeting, Unitholders will be asked to vote on the following resolution, with or without variation:

The foregoing resolution must be approved by disinterested Unitholders holding at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) plus one of the votes cast by disinterested Unitholders who vote on this resolution at the Meeting. The Toronto Stock Exchange has determined that Mitchell Goldhar and FirstPro, who hold approximately 6,048,513 Units or 16.4% of the outstanding Units of Calloway, are not disinterested Unitholders and are not entitled to vote on this resolution due to the interest of each in the proposed amendments to the Declaration of Trust. 7.02 An account, to be known as a "Deferred Unit Account" shall be maintained by the Trust for each Participant and will be credited with notional grants of Deferred Units received by a Participant from time to time.

7.03 Whenever cash distributions are paid on the Units, additional Deferred Units will be credited to the Participant's Deferred Unit Account. The number of such additional Deferred Units shall be calculated by dividing (i) the amount determined by multiplying (a) the number of Deferred Units in such Participant's Deferred Unit Account on the record date for the payment of such distribution by (b) the distribution paid per Unit, by (ii) 97% of the Market Value of a Unit on the distribution payment date for such distribution, in each case, with fractions computed to two decimal places. Such additional Deferred Units shall vest on the basis set out in Section 6.03 from the date of grant of same.

ARTICLE 8 ADJUSTMENTS

8.01 In the event of any Unit dividend, Unit split, combinations or exchange of Units, merger, consolidation, spin-off or other distribution (other than normal cash distributions) of the Trust's assets to the Unitholders, or any other change affecting the Units, the account of each Participant and the Deferred Units outstanding under the Plan shall be adjusted in such manner, if any, as the Compensation Committee may in its discretion deem appropriate to reflect the event. However, no amount will be paid to, or in respect of, a Participant under the Plan or pursuant to any other arrangement, and no additional Deferred Units will be granted to such Participant to compensation for a downward fluctuation in the price of the Units, nor will any other form of benefit be conferred upon, or in respect of, a Participant for such purpose.

ARTICLE 9 REDEMPTION OF DEFERRED UNITS

9.01 The Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit Account shall vest immediately and be redeemable by the Participant (or, where the Participant has died, his or her estate) following an event, including termination other than for cause, retirement or death, causing the Participant to be no longer an Eligible Person (the "Termination Date"). Where the Participant has been terminated for cause, the Deferred Units credited to the Participant's Deferred Unit Account shall be redeemable by the Participant in accordance with the vesting schedule in Section 6.03 excepting only that a minimum of 50% of such Deferred Units shall be deemed vested.

9.02 Subject to the approval of the Compensation Committee, the Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit Account that have vested may be redeemable in whole or in part on the date in which the Participant files a written notice of redemption in the form of Schedule A-3 hereto with the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Trust (the "Redemption Date").

9.03 Subject to (i) the provisions of the Plan, and (ii) the receipt by The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited of the Participant's brokerage account information from his or her securities broker, the Participant shall receive, within five (5) business days after the Termination Date or Redemption Date, as applicable, a whole number of Units from the Trust equal to the whole number of Deferred Units then recorded in the Participant's Deferred Unit Account, net of any Applicable Withholding Taxes.

9.04 The Trust shall also make a cash payment, net of any Applicable Withholding Taxes, to the Participant with respect to the value of fractional Deferred Units standing to the Participant's credit after the maximum number of whole Units have been issued by the Trust, calculated by multiplying (i) the number of such fractional Deferred Units by (ii) the Market Value of such fractional Deferred Units on the Termination Date or Redemption Date, as applicable.

9.05 Upon payment in full of the value of the Deferred Units, the Deferred Units shall be cancelled.

Accordingly, we express no such assurance.

The foregoing procedures would not necessarily reveal matters of significance to the unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements, and we therefore make no representation about the sufficiency of the procedures for the purposes of a reader of such statements.

CALLOWAY REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST
NOTES TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2005 and the Year Ended December 31, 2004
(unaudited)
(In thousands of dollars except unit and per unit amounts)

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway") is an unincorporated closed-end real estate investment trust governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta, created under a declaration of trust dated December 4, 2001 subsequently amended and restated on October 24, 2002, October 31, 2003 and January 16, 2004. In conjunction with the June 9, 2005 Management Information Circular for which these pro forma financial statements have been prepared, Calloway is seeking unitholder approval for its intention to amend its declaration of trust to become an unincorporated open-ended investment trust and to authorize special voting units.

These unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements ("pro forma statements") have been prepared by Calloway management for inclusion in the Management Information Circular of Calloway dated June 9, 2005 relating to the acquisition of freehold and leasehold interests in 45 properties (the "Centres V") from Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. ("Wal-Mart") and from the FirstPro Group of Companies ("FirstPro").

During 2004 and 2005, Calloway completed four other significant acquisitions as follows:

- On February 16, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres") from the Wal-Mart-FirstPro Realty Partnership (the "Partnership").
- On May 14, 2004, the acquisition of twelve shopping centres ("The Centres II") from the Partnership.
- On November 30, 2004, the acquisition of six shopping centres (the "Phase I Centres") from the Partnership.
- On March 10, 2005, the acquisition of 100% undivided interests in three retail properties and 60% undivided interests in five other retail properties (the "Phase II Centres") from Wal-Mart and FirstPro.

The Centres, Centres II, Phase I Centres, Phase II Centres and the Centres V are collectively referred to as the "Collective Centres".

These pro forma statements have been prepared from the following financial statements:

- Calloway's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2005.
- Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004.
- Centres V Phase I ("Centres V-I"), Centres V Phase II ("Centres V-II") and Centres V Phase III ("Centres V-III") unaudited schedules of combined net operations for the three months ended March 31, 2005.
- Centres V-I, Centres V-II and Centres V-III audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.
- Phase II Centres audited schedules of combined net operations for the year ended December 31, 2004.

CALLOWAY REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST
NOTES TO THE PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2005 and the Year Ended December 31, 2004
(unaudited)
(In thousands of dollars except unit and per unit amounts)

The Centres V-I, Centres V-II and Centres V-III net operations for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 have been combined on Schedule I attached to these pro forma statements and presented in the pro forma consolidated statements of income on a combined basis.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated balance sheet gives effect to the acquisitions of the Centres V as if they had occurred on March 31, 2005. The unaudited pro forma consolidated statements of income for the three months ended March 31, 2005 and for the year ended December 31, 2004 give effect to the acquisitions of the Centres V as if they had occurred on January 1, 2004. Calloway's March 31, 2005 consolidated financial statements contains the actual operations of the Phase II Centres from the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2005 to March 31, 2005. The pro forma consolidated statement of income for the three months ended March 31, 2005 contains adjustments outlined in Note 4 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for the Phase II Centres for the period from January 1, 2005 to the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2005. Calloway's December 31, 2004 consolidated financial statements contains the actual operations of the Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres from various dates of acquisition by Calloway in 2004 to December 31, 2004. The pro forma consolidated statement of income for the year ended December 31, 2004 contains adjustments outlined in Note 4 to provide for certain revenues and expenses for The Centres, The Centres II and the Phase I Centres for the period from January 1, 2004 to the date of acquisition by Calloway in 2004.

The pro forma statements are not necessarily indicative of the results that would have actually occurred, had the transactions reflected therein been in effect on the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of future operating results or the financial position of Calloway.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

In addition to the policies disclosed below, the accounting policies used in the preparation of the pro forma statements are in accordance with those disclosed in Calloway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2004 and Calloway's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2005. These pro forma statements do not include all of the information and disclosure required by Canadian generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), and therefore should be read in conjunction with the December 31, 2004 and March 31, 2005 consolidated financial statements of Calloway.

(a) Basis of consolidation

As further described herein, it is intended that a limited partnership ("Calloway LP") will be formed to facilitate the probable acquisition of certain of the Centres V, and that Calloway will indirectly be a general partner as well as a limited partner. These pro forma statements present the accounts and operations of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust, its wholly owned subsidiary Calloway Financial Inc., and Calloway LP.

Calloway carries out certain activities through co-ownerships and these investments are accounted for using the proportionate consolidation method.

(b) Exchangeable units

As further described in Note 3(a), it is intended that limited partnership units of Calloway LP will be issued to FirstPro that are exchangeable into units of Calloway. Holders of the exchangeable units are entitled to receive distributions of earnings economically equivalent to distributions received by units of Calloway. The units are non-transferable to third parties without first exchanging them for units of Calloway. Accordingly the units are presented, in accordance with the guidance for exchangeable securities issued by subsidiaries of income trusts, as a component of unitholders' equity.

(unaudited)

(c) Leases

As further described in Note 3(a), it is intended that Calloway will lease certain properties from FirstPro. Leases are classified as either capital or operating leases. Leases that transfer substantially all of the benefits and inherent risks of ownership of property to Calloway are accounted for as capital leases. At the time a capital lease is entered into, an asset is recorded together with its related long-term obligation to reflect the acquisition and financing. Components of income properties recorded under capital leases are amortized on the same basis as described in the annual financial statements. Rental payments under operating leases are expensed over the period to which they relate.

3. PRO FORMA BALANCE SHEET ADJUSTMENTS AND ASSUMPTIONS*(a) Probable acquisition of the Centres V*

Calloway has entered into agreements with each of Wal-Mart and FirstPro (a related party) to acquire, directly or through Calloway LP, freehold and leasehold interests in thirty-five retail properties and ten parcels of development land at an estimated aggregate cost to Calloway of $1,155,915.

Calloway will acquire Wal-Mart's 60% freehold interests in eight retail properties and adjacent undeveloped lands with future development potential for $284,375. Calloway will acquire FirstPro's freehold interests in thirty retail properties and adjacent undeveloped lands for $623,392 and ten parcels of development land for $42,612. Calloway will also lease interests in three other retail properties, including adjacent undeveloped lands, from FirstPro for a term of 35 years subject to certain early termination events. Calloway intends to prepay its entire lease obligations under the lease agreements at the time of Closing in the amount of $184,696. It is estimated that land transfer taxes and other transaction costs will amount to $20,840.

The aggregate purchase price will be satisfied as follows:

- By non-interest bearing vendor take-back mortgages for the amount of the purchase price for certain of the undeveloped lands		$30,929
- By assumption of existing mortgages
- face value	323,095
- market rate adjustment	21,782	344,877
- By issuance of exchangeable partnership units to FirstPro		250,000
- By cash payment
- From the net proceeds of new mortgage financing	153,690
- From the net proceeds of new unsecured debt financing	173,260
- From the net proceeds of the Offering	203,159	530,109
		$1,155,915

The purchase price is subject to adjustments at closing, which include an adjustment to the price to reflect leasing between the date of the agreements and closing, and could result in a change in the purchase price. It is assumed for the purpose of these pro forma statements that no such adjustment will occur.

For the Three Months Ended March 31, 2005 and the Year Ended December 31, 2004
(unaudited)
(In thousands of dollars except unit and per unit amounts)

In conjunction with the acquisition of the Centres V, Calloway will take on a portion of FirstPro's leasing and development operations through an offer of positions to FirstPro employees. Calloway's preliminary assessment is that no material allocation of the purchase price will be assigned to assets acquired and liabilities assumed as a result of the acquisition of these operations.

Calloway will assume existing mortgages on certain of the properties in the amount of $323,095 and incur related mortgage assumption fees in the amount of $690. Certain of the assumed mortgages have interest rates in excess of current rates and Calloway will receive a credit of $21,782 from the vendors as a mark to market adjustment at closing. The mortgage assumption fees will be amortized to deferred financing costs and the market rate adjustment will be amortized against interest expense over the term of the applicable assumed mortgages.

FirstPro intends to subscribe for approximately $250,000 of Class B exchangeable units (representing approximately 12,594,000 Class B exchangeable units at $19.85 per unit) of Calloway LP, as partial payment for the Centre V properties acquired by Calloway LP, and 8,500,000 Class C exchangeable units of Calloway LP, representing future potential equity value of the FirstPro undeveloped lands acquired by Calloway LP.

Holders of the Class B exchangeable units are entitled to cash distributions in amounts equal on a per unit basis to monthly distributions made by Calloway to its unitholders. The Class B exchangeable units carry no voting rights at meetings of Calloway unitholders. Class B exchangeable units are exchangeable on a one for one basis for units of Calloway, at the option of the holder.

Holders of the Class C exchangeable units are not entitled to cash distributions and have no voting rights at meetings of Calloway unitholders. The Class C exchangeable units are exchangeable, on a one for one basis, at the holder's option, into Class B exchangeable units on the completion of certain developments on the undeveloped lands and development land ("Centres V Undeveloped Lands"). The 8,500,000 Class C exchangeable units available for issuance represents FirstPro's right to receive 40% of the estimated proceeds on development of those Centres V Undeveloped Lands acquired by Calloway LP in units priced at the issuance price under the Offering plus $0.25. Any Class C exchangeable units that remain outstanding 10 years after the closing of this acquisition will be cancelled.

FirstPro will also have the right to receive up to 2,500,000 units of Calloway representing 40% of the estimated proceeds on completion of development of those Centres V Undeveloped Lands acquired directly by Calloway in units priced at the issuance price under the Offering plus $0.25.

Calloway will be authorized to issue an unlimited number of Special Voting units which shall be entitled to one vote per unit at meetings of Calloway unitholders but otherwise shall have no economic value. These units provide voting rights but no equity participation. The number of outstanding Special Voting units will be equivalent to the number of outstanding Class B exchangeable units.

FirstPro will receive 12,594,000 (the total of the Class B exchangeable units of Calloway LP issued) Special Voting units. Calloway will issue additional Special Voting units if Class C exchangeable units are exchanged for Class B exchangeable units, with the total outstanding Special Voting units to equal the outstanding Class B exchangeable units. The number of Special Voting units issued to FirstPro may increase due to future developments of Centres V Undeveloped Lands acquired by Calloway LP and the granting of the right, under certain circumstances, to receive additional Special Voting units of Calloway in order to maintain a voting interest at a minimum of 25%. This right will expire at the end of five years unless an additional $800,000 in assets is transferred from FirstPro to Calloway (inclusive of assets which will be acquired by Calloway under existing development agreements) and other conditions are fulfilled, in which case the 25% minimum voting right will extend for an additional five year term.

The Centres V Undeveloped Lands will be developed directly and indirectly by Calloway under the terms of development agreements with FirstPro and Wal-Mart. It is assumed for the purpose of these pro forma statements that these undeveloped lands remain undeveloped and that no material development costs and no earnouts under the terms of these development agreements are incurred during the year ended December 31, 2004 and the three months ended March 31, 2005.

(b) New mortgage financing

Calloway is assumed to arrange new mortgage financing on four of the retail properties in the amount of $154,250 at a weighted average interest rate of 5.355%. The net proceeds to Calloway of $153,690, after deducting financing fees and other costs related to the new mortgage financing, will be used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the acquisition cost of the Centres V.

(c) New unsecured debt financing

Calloway is assumed to arrange new unsecured debt financing in the amount of $175,000 at an interest rate of 5.05%. The net proceeds to Calloway of $173,260, after deducting financing fees and other costs related to the new unsecured debt financing, will be used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the acquisition cost of the Centres V.

(d) Issuance of trust units

Calloway has entered into an agency agreement for the private placement of subscription receipts (the "Offering") which will result in the issuance of 11,336,000 trust units at an issuance price of $19.85 per unit, for net proceeds of $214,918 (after deducting underwriters' fees and issue costs of $10,102). Net proceeds of $203,159 will be used by Calloway to partially fund the cash component of the acquisition cost of the Centres V and the remaining net proceeds will be used to pay deferred financing costs and for working capital.

(e) Summary of the acquisition of the Centres V

A summary of the assets acquired, using the purchase method of accounting based on preliminary allocations, and liabilities assumed or incurred resulting from the acquisition of the Centres V is as follows:

Notes to Schedules of Combined Net Operations

Three months ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 (unaudited)
and years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

1. Basis of presentation:

These schedules of combined net operations (the "schedules") are financial schedules prepared for inclusion in a management information circular for a proposed acquisition that includes a 100% freehold interest in five shopping centres, a 60% freehold interest in two shopping centres and a 40% leasehold and 60% freehold interest in one shopping centre by Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway") from Wal-Mart-First Pro Realty Co-ownerships (the "Co-ownerships").

The schedules combine the net operations, as defined in note 2(a), of eight shopping centres ("Centres V Phase I"), listed below, that Calloway anticipates purchasing from the Co-ownerships. Centres V Phase I is not a legal entity and the information used to prepare the schedules has been derived from records specific to the properties to be sold to Calloway. The schedules may not necessarily reflect the net operations in future periods, nor do they necessarily reflect the net operations that would have been realized had Centres V Phase I been a stand-alone entity during the years presented.

This information is provided to assist the reader in determining the relative impact of each property on the financial results for the periods presented. The net leased and occupied areas increased period to period as construction was completed on units and tenants occupied said units.

2. Significant accounting policies:

(a) General:

The schedules have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The schedules present the combined net operations prior to amortization of income properties, general and administrative expenses, capital taxes, interest expense and income taxes. Additionally, all costs and revenue associated with the undeveloped lands and lands under development of Centres V Phase I have been excluded. As these properties are multi phased developments, costs are capitalized until the phase is considered substantially complete subject to a predetermined time limit, at which point the phase is considered income-producing property.

Rental revenue from income properties includes base and percentage rent, operating cost recoveries, parking and other incidental tenant charges.

Property operating costs include property taxes, utilities, insurance, repairs and maintenance, property management fees and other expenses directly related to the operation of properties.

(b) Use of estimates:

The preparation of the schedules requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the periods. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

(c) Revenue recognition:

Rental revenue from income properties is recognized once a phase of the property is considered substantially complete. Rentals from income properties are recognized as revenue over the term of the related lease agreements. All rent steps in lease agreements are accounted for on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective leases. Recoveries from tenants for property taxes, utilities, insurance and other operating costs are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable costs are incurred.

(d) Deferred expenses:

Deferred tenant inducements and leasing expenses are amortized on a straight-line basis over the term of the related lease agreements.

3. Related party transactions:

First Professional Development Group II Inc. ("First Professional") is related to one of the co-owners of the Co-ownerships and acts as property manager to Centres V Phase I. Property operating costs include management fees paid to First Professional for property management services which were recorded at amounts specified in the management agreement. In addition, First Professional earned fees for leasing which were recorded at the exchanged amount and amortized over the lease term.

Leasing fees	48,873	165,424	391,414	410,929

First Professional also earns fees from the Co-ownerships for acting as development manager of Centres V Phase I.

4. Economic dependence:

Rental revenue derived from one retailer, who is related to one of the co-owners of the Co-ownerships, represents approximately the following percentages:

	Three months ended March 31,		Years ended December 31,
	2005	2004	2004	2003

and years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

5. Subsequent events:

The Co-ownerships have entered into an agreement to sell the following interests in the Centres V Phase I properties: a 100% freehold interest in five shopping centres, a 60% freehold interest in two shopping centres and a 40% leasehold and 60% freehold interest in one shopping centre to Calloway for approximately $402.8 million. The sale price will be satisfied by a vendor take-back mortgage of approximately $20.2 million and cash consideration for the balance. Currently, one of the co-owners of the Co-ownerships owns approximately 16.3% of the issued and outstanding units of Calloway.

and years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

2. Significant accounting policies:

(a) General:

The schedules have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The schedules present the combined net operations prior to amortization of income properties, general and administrative expenses, capital taxes, interest expense and income taxes. Additionally, all costs and revenue associated with the undeveloped lands and lands under development of Centres V Phase II have been excluded. As these properties are multi phased developments, costs are capitalized until the phase is considered substantially complete subject to a predetermined time limit, at which point the phase is considered income-producing property.

Rental revenue from income properties includes base and percentage rent, operating cost recoveries, parking and other incidental tenant charges.

Property operating costs include property taxes, utilities, insurance, repairs and maintenance, property management fees and other expenses directly related to the operation of properties.

(b) Use of estimates:

The preparation of the schedules requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the periods. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

(c) Revenue recognition:

Rental revenue from income properties is recognized once a phase of the property is considered substantially complete. Rentals from income properties are recognized as revenue over the term of the related lease agreements. All rent steps in lease agreements are accounted for on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective leases. Recoveries from tenants for property taxes, utilities, insurance and other operating costs are recognized as revenue in the period the applicable costs are incurred.

1. Basis of presentation:

The schedule of combined net operations ("Schedule") is prepared for inclusion in a management information circular of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway") for a proposed acquisition that includes these nineteen real estate properties (See Note 5).

This schedule combines the net operations, as defined in Note 2 (i), of the nineteen real estate properties listed below ("Centres V Phase III") which Calloway intends to acquire or lease from the owners.

Centres V Phase III is not a legal entity and the information used to prepare this schedule has been obtained from records specific to each of the Centres V Phase III properties.

The following are the Centres V Phase III properties included in the schedule of combined net operations. This information is provided to assist the reader in determining the relative impact of each property on the financial results for the years presented. Several properties were under construction and the net leased and occupied areas increased from period to period as units were leased.

NOTES TO SCHEDULE OF COMBINED NET OPERATIONS

Years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

(Information for the three month periods ended March 31, 2005 and 2004 is unaudited)

2. Significant accounting policies:

(i) General:

The schedule of combined net operations of Centres V Phase III has been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

The schedule presents the combined net operations prior to amortization of income properties, general and administrative expenses, capital taxes, interest expense and income taxes. Additionally, all costs and revenue associated with undeveloped land and land under development have been excluded.

Rental revenue from income properties includes base and percentage rent, operating cost recoveries, and other incidental tenant charges.

Property operating costs include property taxes, utilities, insurance, repairs and maintenance, property management fees and other expenses directly related to the operation of income properties.

(ii) Revenue recognition:

Rentals from income properties are recognized when tenants of each unit of multi-phased developments take occupancy. Rentals from income properties are recognized as revenue on a straight-line basis over the term of the respective leases. Recoveries from tenants for property taxes, utilities, insurance and other operating costs are recognized as revenues in the year the applicable costs are incurred.

Effective January 1, 2004, the accounting policy for recognizing rental revenue was changed. Previously, rental revenue was recorded based on the amounts contractually due under the lease agreements. As a result of this change in accounting policy, the following additional amounts were included in rental revenue:

Year ended December 31, 2004	$ 1,182,482
Three months ended March 31, 2004	$ 284,327
Three months ended March 31, 2005	$ 277,627

(iii) Deferred costs:

Deferred costs include financing fees, leasing fees and tenant inducements.

Deferred tenant inducements and leasing fees are amortized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the related lease agreements, while deferred financing fees are amortized on a straight-line basis over five years.

Actual amounts could differ from these estimates.

3. Related party transactions:

Property management and leasing fees, which are recorded at the exchange amount, were paid with respect to some of Centres V Phase III properties to a company controlled by one of the owners of Centres V Phase III. Management fees are included in property operating costs while leasing fees are included in deferred costs and amortized over the terms of the related lease agreements.

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust

To the Special Committee:

RBC Dominion Securities Inc. ("RBC"), a member company of RBC Capital Markets, understands that Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway" or the "Trust") has entered into an agreement (the "FP Agreement") with the FirstPro Group of Companies and affiliated entities which are controlled directly or indirectly by Mr. Mitchell Goldhar (collectively "FirstPro") dated May 11, 2005 to acquire (the "FP Acquisition") the following properties (the "FirstPro Properties") from FirstPro: (i) interests in 30 shopping centres (the "FP Income Properties"), including 27 properties on a freehold basis (the "FP Freehold Properties") and 3 properties by way of prepaid land leases (the "FP Leasehold Properties"); (ii) undeveloped lands with future development potential adjacent to 10 of the FP Income Properties, where FirstPro will take all development risk and sell the completed properties to Calloway upon completion (the "Earn-Out Lands"); and (iii) development properties for 13 new shopping centres plus undeveloped land adjacent to 10 of the FP Income Properties where Calloway will complete the developments on its own account (the "Development Lands").

RBC understands that under the terms of the FP Acquisition the consideration to be paid by the Trust at closing will be approximately $850 million comprising of: (i) approximately $237 million in cash; (ii) approximately $345 million in assumed mortgage debt (including a $22 million mark to market); (iii) $250 million through the issuance of 12.59 million units of a limited partnership ("Calloway LP") created to facilitate the Acquisitions (the "Class B Units") and an equal number of special voting units (the "SV Units"); and (iv) approximately $18 million of zero-coupon mortgages to be held by FirstPro representing the purchase price of certain of the Earn-Out Lands (the "FirstPro VTBs"). The Class B Units are entitled to equivalent distributions to the units of the Trust (the "Units") and each Class B Unit, combined with an SV Unit, is exchangeable into a Unit at the option of the holder. The SV Units are each entitled to one vote at any meeting of the holders of the Units (the "Unitholders"). RBC also understands that Calloway has entered into an agreement with Wal-Mart Canada Realty Inc. ("Wal-Mart") dated April 19, 2005 (the "Wal-Mart Agreement") to acquire Wal-Mart's 60% interest in 8 shopping centres including undeveloped lands with development potential located adjacent to the centres (the "Wal-Mart Acquisition") for consideration of approximately $284 million comprising of: (i) approximately $271 million in cash; and (ii) approximately $13 million in zero-coupon mortgages to be held by Wal-Mart representing the purchase price of the development lands adjacent to the Wal-Mart properties. The FP Freehold Properties include FirstPro's 40% interest in 5 of the 8 Wal-Mart properties, while the FP Leasehold Properties include a leasehold interest in FirstPro's 40% interest in one of the 8 properties. The Earn-Out Lands include the undeveloped lands attached to all six of the Wal-Mart properties in which FirstPro's interest is included in the FirstPro Properties. Calloway intends to fund the cash component of the FP Acquisition and Wal-Mart Acquisition (collectively the "Acquisitions") and closing costs with new unsecured debt of $175 million, new mortgage debt of $154 million, proceeds from a $175 million private placement (the "Private Placement"), announced June 2, 2005, of subscription receipts exchangeable for Units upon closing of the Acquisitions, and proceeds from an additional future equity issuance.

RBC also understands that: (i) FirstPro owns 6.05 million Units or approximately 16.4% of the currently outstanding Units, which could increase to approximately 25.8% based on earn-out provisions under previous development agreements; (ii) immediately following the Acquisitions and the associated equity financings, FirstPro will own, directly or indirectly, approximately 18.64 million Units and Class B Units (together with an equal number of SV Units) or approximately 30.9% of the outstanding Units and Class B Units combined; and (iii) upon completion of each of the developments on the Earn-Out Lands and Development Lands, FirstPro will have the option to receive as partial payment or subscribe for cash for an additional 8.0 million Units or Class B Units (together with an equal number of SV Units) in the aggregate, at a fixed price of $20.10 per Unit or combined Class B Unit and SV Unit. If the option to subscribe for or receive all of these 8.0 million Units or Class B Units (together with an equal number of SV Units) is exercised, FirstPro's ownership would increase to 42.9% of the combined Units and Class B Units, on a proforma basis. FirstPro will also have the right to terminate the leases on the FP Leasehold Properties in certain circumstances. FirstPro will also acquire certain governance rights with respect to Calloway regarding the ability to nominate a certain number of trustees and minimum voting rights under certain circumstances.

The terms of the Acquisitions will be more fully described in a management information circular (the "Circular"), which will be mailed to Unitholders in connection with the Acquisitions.

RBC also understands that a committee (the "Special Committee") of the board of trustees of Calloway (the "Board") who are independent of FirstPro has been constituted to consider the FP Acquisition and make recommendations thereon to the Board. RBC was instructed by the Special Committee that the FP Acquisition is a "related party transaction" within the meaning of Rule 61-501 of the Ontario Securities Commission and Quebec Securities Commission Policy Statement Q-27 (collectively, the "Policies"). The Special Committee has retained RBC to provide advice and assistance to the Special Committee in evaluating the FP Acquisition, including the preparation and delivery to the Special Committee of formal valuations of the FirstPro Properties (the "FirstPro Properties Valuation") and the non-cash consideration (the "Non-Cash Consideration") being paid to FirstPro under the FP Acquisition (the "Non-Cash Consideration Valuation", collectively the "Valuations") in accordance with the requirements of the Policies, and RBC's opinion as to the fairness to Calloway, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid by Calloway under the FP Acquisition (the "Fairness Opinion"). The Valuations and Fairness Opinion have been prepared in accordance with the guidelines of the Investment Dealers Association of Canada.

Engagement

The Special Committee initially contacted RBC regarding a potential advisory assignment in April 2005, and RBC was formally engaged by the Special Committee through an agreement between the Trust and RBC (the "Engagement Agreement") dated May 10, 2005. The terms of the Engagement Agreement provide that RBC is to be paid $1,500,000 for the Valuations and Fairness Opinion. In addition, RBC is to be reimbursed for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to be indemnified by the Trust in certain circumstances. RBC consents to the inclusion of the Valuations and Fairness Opinion in their entirety and a summary thereof in the Circular and to the filing thereof, as necessary, by the Trust with the securities commissions or similar regulatory authorities in each province of Canada.

Relationship With Interested Parties

Neither RBC, nor any of its affiliates is an insider, associate or affiliate (as those terms are defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) of the Trust, FirstPro, or any of their respective associates or affiliates. There are no understandings, agreements or commitments between RBC and the Trust, FirstPro, or any of their respective associates or affiliates with respect to any future business dealings. RBC may, in the future, in the ordinary course of its business, perform financial advisory or investment banking services for the Trust, FirstPro, or any of their respective associates or affiliates. The compensation of RBC under the Engagement Agreement does not depend in whole or in part on the conclusions reached in the Valuations or the Fairness Opinion or the successful outcome of the FP Acquisition. Royal Bank of Canada, of which RBC is a wholly-owned subsidiary, provides banking services to FirstPro in the normal course of business.

RBC acts as a trader and dealer, both as principal and agent, in major financial markets and, as such, may have had and may in the future have positions in the securities of the Trust and, from time to time, may have executed or may execute transactions on behalf the Trust, FirstPro or any of their respective associates or affiliates or clients for which it received or may receive compensation. As an investment dealer, RBC conducts research on securities and may, in the ordinary course of its business, provide research reports and investment advice to its clients on investment matters, including with respect to the Trust or the FP Acquisition.

Prior Valuations

The Trust has represented to RBC that there have not been any prior valuations (as defined in Ontario Securities Commission Rule 61-501) of the Trust or its material assets or its securities in the past twenty-four month period.

Assumptions and Limitations

With the Special Committee's approval and as provided for in the Engagement Agreement, RBC has relied upon the completeness, accuracy and fair presentation of all of the financial and other information, data, advice, opinions or representations obtained by it from public sources, senior management of the Trust and FirstPro, and their consultants and advisors (collectively, the "Information"). The Valuations and Fairness Opinion are conditional upon such completeness, accuracy and fair presentation of such Information. Subject to the exercise of professional judgment and except as expressly described herein, we have not attempted to verify independently the completeness, accuracy or fair presentation of any of the Information.

Senior officers of the Trust have represented to RBC in a certificate delivered as of the date hereof, among other things, that (i) the Information (as defined above) provided orally by, or in the presence of, an officer or employee of the Trust or in writing by the Trust or any of its subsidiaries or their respective agents to RBC for the purpose of preparing the Valuations and Fairness Opinion was, at the date the Information was provided to RBC, and is at the date hereof complete, true and correct in all material respects, and did not and does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact in respect of the Trust, its subsidiaries or the FP Acquisition and did not and does not omit to state a material fact in respect of the Trust, its subsidiaries or the FP Acquisition necessary to make the Information or any statement contained therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which the Information was provided or any statement was made; and (ii) since the dates on which the Information was provided to RBC, except as disclosed in writing to RBC, there has been no material change, financial or otherwise, in the financial condition, assets, liabilities (contingent or otherwise), business, operations or prospects of the Trust or any of its subsidiaries and no material change has occurred in the Information or any part thereof which would have or which would reasonably be expected to have a material effect on the Valuations or Fairness Opinion.

A senior officer of FirstPro has represented to RBC in a certificate delivered as of the date hereof, among other things, that (i) the FirstPro Information (taken as whole) provided orally or in writing by an officer or employee of FirstPro or any of its subsidiaries to RBC for the purpose of preparing the Valuations and Fairness Opinion was, at the date the Information was provided to RBC, and is at the date hereof complete, true and correct in all material respects, and did not and does not contain any untrue statement of a material fact in respect of the FirstPro Properties and did not and does not omit to state a material fact in respect of the FirstPro Properties necessary to make the Information or any statement contained therein not misleading in light of the circumstances under which the FirstPro Information was provided or any statement was made; and (ii) since the dates on which the FirstPro Information was provided to RBC, except as disclosed in writing to RBC, there has been no material change, financial or otherwise, in the financial condition, assets, liabilities (contingent or otherwise), business, operations or prospects of the FirstPro Properties and no material change has occurred in the FirstPro Information or any part thereof.

In preparing the Valuations and Fairness Opinion, RBC has made several assumptions, including that all of the conditions required to implement the FP Acquisition will be met and that the disclosure provided or incorporated by reference in the Draft Circular with respect to the Trust, its subsidiaries and affiliates, the FirstPro Properties and the FP Acquisition is accurate in all material respects.

The Valuations and Fairness Opinion are rendered on the basis of securities markets, economic, financial and general business conditions prevailing as at the date hereof and the condition and prospects, financial and otherwise, of the Trust, its subsidiaries and affiliates, and the FirstPro Properties as they were reflected in the Information and as they have been represented to RBC in discussions with management of the Trust and FirstPro. In its analyses and in preparing the Valuations and Fairness Opinion, RBC made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of RBC or any party involved in the FP Acquisition.

The Valuations and Fairness Opinion have been provided for the use of the Special Committee and the Board and may not be used by any other person or relied upon by any other person other than the Special Committee and the Board without the express prior written consent of RBC. The Valuations and Fairness Opinion are given as of the date hereof and RBC disclaims any undertaking or obligation to advise any person of any change in any fact or matter affecting the Valuations or Fairness Opinion which may come or be brought to RBC's attention after the date hereof. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event that there is any material change in any fact or matter affecting either of the Valuations or Fairness Opinion after the date hereof, RBC reserves the right to change, modify or withdraw either of the Valuations or Fairness Opinion.

RBC believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analyses or the factors considered by it, without considering all factors and analyses together, could create a misleading view of the process underlying the Valuations or Fairness Opinion. The preparation of a valuation or a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Any attempt to do so could lead to undue emphasis on any particular factor or analysis. Overview of Calloway

Calloway's principal business is to invest in new format retail centres which are geographically diversified. Calloway has grown through a series of acquisitions since 2002, when it owned a total of four retail properties in Calgary totaling 86,905 square feet ("sq. ft.") of gross leasable area ("GLA"), to today where it currently owns 63 commercial properties comprising 97.65% retail and 2.35% industrial by gross rental revenue with a total of 8,802,436 sq. ft. of GLA.

Overview of the FirstPro Properties

The FP Income Properties include freehold interests, ranging from 35% to 100%, in 27 new format shopping centres. The FP Income Properties also include leasehold interests, ranging from 40% to 100% in 3 new format shopping centers. The FP Income Properties have a combined owned GLA of 3.876 million square feet, and have a 0.4% vacancy rate with an average lease term of 9.6 years. Wal-Mart represents over 40% of the leased area and approximately 26.6% of leased revenues, with an average remaining term of over 15 years. Eighteen of the FP Income Properties are located in Ontario, with eight locations in the Greater Toronto Area ("GTA"). The remaining properties are spread throughout the rest of Canada.

The Earn-Out Lands comprise undeveloped lands with future development potential that are adjacent to 10 of the FP Income Properties. FirstPro is responsible for completing the development of these lands. Calloway is obligated to purchase the completed properties from FirstPro at a capitalization rate ("cap rate") of 0.125% above the cap rate at which the adjacent property was sold to Calloway under the FP Acquisition. The estimated completed value of the developments on the Earn-Out Lands is approximately $156 million, comprising approximately 0.868 million square feet of owned GLA upon completion.

The Development Lands consist of 13 undeveloped retail sites and development lands adjacent to 10 of the FP Income Properties. Calloway is responsible for completing the development of these lands. The estimated completed value of the developments on the Development Lands is approximately $247 million, comprising approximately 1.291 million of owned GLA upon completion.

Definition of Fair Market Value

For purposes of the Valuations, fair market value means the monetary consideration that, in an open and unrestricted market, a prudent and informed buyer would pay to a prudent and informed seller, each acting at arm's length with the other and under no compulsion to act.

FirstPro Properties Valuation

Valuation Methodologies

RBC's primary valuation methodology in preparing the FirstPro Properties Valuation was a net asset value ("NAV") approach, which ascribes a separate value for each category of asset, utilizing the methodology appropriate in each case.

There are five key components to the NAV of the FirstPro Properties:

- i) the FP Income Properties;
- ii) the Development Lands;
- iii) the Earn-Out Lands;
- iv) secured debt; and
- v) income taxes and tax deductions.

FP Income Properties

RBC used primarily a going-in cap rate approach to the valuation of the FP Income Properties due to the stable nature of the net operating income ("NOI") resulting from the long-term leases on the properties. As a check to reasonableness of the going-in cap rate approach, RBC also utilized discounted cash flow ("DCF") analysis. The DCF approach takes into account the amount, timing and relative certainty of projected unlevered free cash flows expected to be generated by the FP Income Properties. The DCF approach requires that certain assumptions be made regarding, among other things, future cash flows, discount rates and terminal values. The possibility that some of the assumptions will prove to be inaccurate is one factor involved in the determination of the discount rates to be used in establishing a range of values.

In completing its DCF analysis, RBC used the eleven year cash flow projections provided by management of Calloway for each of the FP Freehold Properties and RBC prepared thirty-five year cash flow projections for each of the FP Leasehold Properties by extending the eleven year cash flow projections provided by management of Calloway. RBC reviewed the assumptions in the projections and determined that material adjustments to the projections were not necessary. Appropriate discount rates and reversionary capitalization rates ("RCR") of NOI were selected based on precedent transactions and RBC's knowledge of current real estate pricing parameters. RBC used discount rates and RCRs in valuing the FP Income Properties as follows:

	Discount Rates	RCRs
FP Leasehold Properties	8.2% to 8.3%	N/A
FP Freehold Properties	8.0% to 10.0%	6.25% to 8.50%

The table below presents the aggregate projected unlevered free cash flows from the FP Income Properties:

FP Income Properties
Consolidated Unlevered Free Cash Flows
(C$ millions)

	Forecast for the Year Ending May 31,
	2006	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016

Less: Capital Expenditures	0.3	0.3	0.3	0.3	0.3	0.4	0.5	0.5	0.5	0.5	0.5
Less: Leasing Costs	0.2	0.4	0.3	0.5	0.6	1.2	1.4	1.8	1.8	2.1	0.0
Free Cash Flow	$51.2	$51.6	$52.2	$52.5	$53.0	$52.8	$53.5	$53.9	$54.7	$55.8	$59.0

The property values resulting from the above analyses were also reviewed on the basis of price per square foot to ensure that this was also consistent with market pricing parameters. The above analyses resulted in a value for the FP Income Properties of $728.8 million to $755.3 million. Going-in cap rates for the FP Income Properties ranged between 6.40% to 7.98% with a weighted average of 6.96%.

Development Lands

RBC used a residual land value analysis approach to determine the value of the Development Lands. The development proformas provided by FirstPro were used to determine potential income and costs of each development. The residual land value was then calculated by using the appropriate cap rate on the potential net income net of a 2.5% management fee minus construction costs (including land carrying costs).

The cap rate selected for the 13 development properties was based on the appropriate going-in yields on the completed development plus a premium to compensate for the development risk. The premiums ranged from 1.50% to 2.25%, resulting in cap rates ranging from 8.75% to 9.75%. The cap rate selected for the undeveloped lands adjacent to 10 of the FP Income Properties was based on appropriate going-in yields on the completed development plus a premium to compensate for the development risk. The premiums ranged from 1.00% to 1.50%, resulting in cap rates ranging from 8.00% to 9.75%.

The above analyses resulted in a value for the Development Lands of $57.3 million to $70.1 million, which represents a mid point cap rate of 8.93% and a mid point of $49 per buildable square foot.

Earn Out Lands

The amount of future development on the Earn-out Lands is dependent upon the amount of future leasing ultimately completed and the rental rates achieved. Consistent with real estate industry practice, RBC valued the Earn-Out Lands on a price per square foot of buildable GLA. This analysis resulted in a value for the Earn-Out Lands of $35.1 million, which represents $40 per buildable square foot.

Secured Debt

The Company has mortgages secured on the FP Income Properties of approximately $323.1 million, $303.5 million of which is fixed rate and approximately $19.6 million of which is floating rate. For the fixed rate debt, the weighted average coupon rate is above market with a weighted average term of approximately 11.0 years and a weighted interest rate of approximately 6.69%. Under the FP Agreement, FirstPro and Calloway will make a mark-to-market adjustment on this debt. The current amount of the mark-to-market is $21.8 million, which RBC views as reasonable.

Income Taxes and Tax Deductions

RBC considered the tax implications of the lower historical tax basis of the FirstPro Properties resulting from the rollover of the FirstPro Properties into the Calloway LP structure. Under the FP Agreement, the impact of the lower tax basis is to be streamed to the Class B Units held by FirstPro so Unitholders achieve the same tax deferral as if the FirstPro Properties were acquired with full tax basis. As a result, RBC has not adjusted the value of the FirstPro Properties as a result of the lower historical tax basis.

Summary

The following table summarizes RBC's valuation of the FirstPro Properties:

(CS millions)	Low	High
FP Income Properties	$728.8	$755.3
Development Lands	57.4	70.1
Earn-out Lands	35.1	35.1
	$821.3	$860.5

Sensitivity Analysis

In completing the FirstPro Properties Valuation, RBC principally performed a sensitivity analyses on going-in cap rates. Sensitivities to changes in rental rates and occupancy were not considered meaningful given the fully leased nature of the FP Income Properties and the long-term leases in place. A change of 0.25% in going-in cap rates changes the value of the FP Income Properties by $24.8 million and the Development Lands by $6.3 million. The results of these sensitivity analyses are reflected in our judgment as to the appropriate values resulting from the NAV approach.

Valuation Conclusion

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, RBC is of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the fair market value of the FirstPro Properties is in the range of $821.3 million to $860.5 million.

Non-Cash Consideration Valuation

The Non-Cash Consideration includes: (i) the Class B Units and SV Units; (ii) the FirstPro VTBs; (iii) the option value relating to the entitlement of FirstPro to receive Units or Class B Units (together with an equal number of SV Units) with respect to the Development Lands and the Earn-Out Lands at fixed prices in the future; and (iv) the obligation of Calloway to acquire the completed properties under the Earn-Out Lands at a fixed cap rate in the future. RBC also considered whether the governance rights granted to FirstPro under the FP Agreement should be valued as part of the Non-Cash Consideration Valuation. RBC concluded that it would not be possible to quantify any value for the governance rights, however RBC considered the governance rights, as well as FirstPro's ownership position in Calloway upon completion of the FP Acquisition and of FirstPro exercising its options to receive or subscribe for Units or Class B Units (together with an equal number of SV Units) upon completion of the Earn-Out Lands and Developments Lands respectively, as further described below. RBC also considered whether the governance rights and FirstPro's increased ownership position in Calloway increased the value of Calloway's existing Units. RBC concluded that given FirstPro's existing governance rights and ownership position of Calloway, no additional value should be attributed to FirstPro's existing Units resulting from the FP Acquisition.

Class B Units and SV Units

In assessing the Class B Units and SV Units offered as consideration under the FP Acquisition, RBC considered both the market trading value of the Units and an en-bloc valuation of the Units. RBC concluded that in addition to market trading value an en-bloc approach to valuation was appropriate given FirstPro's potential 42.9% ownership on completion of the Acquisitions and on completion of the developments on the Earn-Out Lands and the Developments Lands along with the governance rights associated with the FP Agreement. Although FirstPro could not deliver 100% of the Trust to a potential purchaser, FirstPro could exert significant influence over when an en-bloc sale might occur.

The average trading prices of the Units on the Toronto Stock Exchange over various periods of time, ending June 6, 2005 are shown below:

(in C$ millions, except per Unit amounts)	Units	Value of Class B Units ⁽¹⁾
Close	$20.43	$257.3
5-Day Weighted Average	20.44	257.4
10-Day Weighted Average	20.42	257.2
20-Day Weighted Average	20.15	253.8
30-Day Weighted Average	19.86	250.1

Note:

(1) Based on the number of Class B Units issued to FirstPro.

In addition the Private Placement was priced at an effective price of $19.85 per Unit, which represents a benchmark for a price at which a large block of Units could be sold on that date.

In determining potential en-bloc value of the Units, RBC principally relied upon an estimate of the NAV of Calloway based on the implied cap rate of Calloway's properties, compared to the cap rates in precedent transactions for properties comparable to those owned by Calloway. RBC concluded that the market value of the Units was at or above the estimated NAV of Calloway.

RBC also reviewed the trading multiples of public entities involved in the real estate industry generally, and retail property entities in particular, as compared to the trading multiples of the Units. RBC concluded that most Canadian REITs are currently trading at or slightly above their NAV.

Finally, RBC analyzed the ability of likely third party purchasers to acquire 100% of Calloway and the price that they could pay based on certain assumptions. RBC's analysis concluded that a third party purchaser could pay only a modest premium to current market prices of the Units.

The above analyses, resulted in a value for the Class B Units and SV Units to be received by FirstPro in a range from $19.85 to $21.00 per combined Class B Unit and SV Unit, or $250.0 million to $264.5 million in the aggregate.

FirstPro VTBs

In determining the value of the FirstPro VTBs, RBC calculated the present value of the cash flows to be paid under the FirstPro VTBs over the expected term to maturity discounted at the appropriate rate to reflect risk associated with that cash flow. RBC assumed a weighted average term of two years, based on the average expected time to complete the developments on the Earn-Out Lands, and a discount rate of 8.0% to 10.0%.

Based upon the above analysis, RBC valued the FirstPro VTBs in a range of $14.6 to $15.1 million.

Option on Issuance of Units

In connection with the completion of developments on the Development Lands and Earn-Out Lands, FirstPro has an option to subscribe for or receive up to 8.0 million additional Units or Class B Units (together with an equal number of SV Units) at a fixed price of $20.10 per Unit or combined Class B Unit and SV Unit. The value of this option (the "Unit Option") was determined using an option pricing model, with assumptions regarding volatility of the Units, term of the Unit Option, risk-free rate and expected distribution growth of the Units.

Based upon the above analysis, RBC valued the Unit Option in a range of $7.3 million to $11.8 million

Purchase of Completed Properties on Earn-Out Lands

RBC considered whether any value should be attributed to Calloway's obligation to purchase the completed properties under the Earn-Out Lands. RBC considered these obligations to be equivalent to a forward sale. RBC concluded that the 0.125% cap rate premium inherent in these obligations appropriately compensates for the forward sale nature of the obligations, hence RBC did not include any value in the Non-Cash Consideration for the purchase of completed properties on the Earn-Out Lands.

Summary

The following table summarizes RBC's valuation of the Non-Cash Consideration:

(C$ millions)	Low	High
Class B Units	$250.0	$264.5
FirstPro VTBs	14.6	15.1
Unit Option	7.3	11.8
	$271.9	$291.4

Valuation Conclusion

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, RBC is of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the fair market value of the Non-Cash Consideration is in the range of $271.9 million to $291.4 million.

Fairness Opinion

Factors Considered

In considering the fairness to Calloway, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid by Calloway under the FP Acquisition, RBC considered and relied on the following: (i) a comparison of the consideration to be paid for the FirstPro Properties by Calloway pursuant to the FP Acquisition to RBC's valuation of the FirstPro Properties; (ii) an analysis of the financial impact of the FP Acquisition on Calloway; and (iii) whether the FP Acquisition should be considered a "change of control" of Calloway due to the increased ownership and governance rights of FirstPro resulting from the FP Acquisition and whether Unitholders should therefore receive "en bloc" value for their Units.

Comparison of Consideration under the FP Acquisition to the Value of the FirstPro Properties

The total consideration under the FP Acquisition comprising cash, assumed debt (including mark to market) and the Non-Cash Consideration is shown below:

(C$ millions)	Low	High
Cash	$237.1	$237.1
Assumed Mortgages	323.1	323.1
Mark to Market	21.8	21.8
Non-Cash Consideration	271.9	291.4
	$853.9	$873.4

The range of fair market values of the consideration under the FP Acquisition of $853.9 million to $873.4 million overlaps with the fair market value range of the FirstPro Properties of $821.3 million to $860.5 million.

Financial Impact of the Acquisition on Calloway

Based on the projected cash flows of the FirstPro Properties and the consideration to be paid under the FP Acquisition, the FP Acquisition is expected to be accretive to Calloway's recurring distributable income, funds from operation ("FFO"), and adjusted FFO per Unit in 2005 on a pro forma basis.

Change of Control

FirstPro currently owns approximately 16.4% of the Units, which could increase to approximately 25.8% based on earn-out provisions under previous development agreements. Upon completion of the Acquisitions, FirstPro will own approximately 30.9% of the combined Units and Class B Units which could increase to approximately 42.9% of the combined Units and Class B Units if FirstPro's options to receive or subscribe for Units or Class B Units (together with an equal number of SV Units) with respect to developments on the Earn-Out Lands and the Development Lands are fully exercised. A holder of more than 33.33% of the Units would be able to prevent an acquisition of 100% of the Units due to the voting provisions under Calloway's Declaration of Trust, hence Unitholders might expect that any transaction enabling a single Unitholder to achieve greater than 33.33% ownership of the Units, should generate cash flows and distributions on the Units enabling them to trade in the market at a value within a range of what a purchaser of 100% of the Units, prior to the Acquisition, would likely pay. RBC concluded that given the current trading levels of the Units, the accretion expected from the Acquisitions and the trading multiples of other comparable REITs, it was reasonable to expect that, upon completion of the Acquisitions, the Units could trade within a range of what a purchaser of 100% of the Units, prior to the Acquisitions, would likely pay.

Fairness Conclusion

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, RBC is of the opinion that, as of the date hereof, the consideration to be paid by Calloway under the FP Acquisition is fair, from a financial point of view, to Calloway.

NOTE: A unitholder has the right to appoint a proxy holder other than the persons designated in this proxy as that unitholder's nominee to attend and act for that unitholder and on that unitholder's behalf at the Meeting. To exercise such right, the unitholder should insert the name of that unitholder's nominee in the blank space provided for that purpose above or complete another proxy. Unitholders who are unable to attend the Meeting are requested to complete this proxy and return it to the Trust's transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company of Canada, 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2Y1. In order to be valid proxies must be received by Computershare Trust Company of Canada (Toronto) not less than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the time set for the holding of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof.

MANAGEMENT INFORMATION CIRCULAR
For the Annual and Special Meeting of Voting Unitholders to be held on May 16, 2006

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES AND VOTING AT THE MEETING

Solicitation of Proxies

This Management Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway" or the "Trust") to be used at the annual and special meeting (the "Meeting") of the holders of Units ("Units") and special voting Units ("Special Voting Units") of Calloway to be held in the Auditorium in the TSX Broadcast & Conference Centre located at The Exchange Tower, 130 King Street West, Toronto, Ontario, on May 16, 2006 at 10:30 a.m. (Toronto time), and at any adjournment thereof, for the purposes set forth in the enclosed Notice of Annual and Special Meeting. Solicitations of proxies will be primarily by mail, but may also be by newspaper publication, in person or by telephone, teletype or oral communication by directors, officers, employees or agents of Calloway who will be specifically remunerated therefor. All costs of the solicitation will be borne by Calloway. The information contained herein is given as of March 10, 2006 except where otherwise indicated.

The holders of Units ("Unitholders") and the holders of Special Voting Units ("Special Voting Unitholders") are collectively referred to herein as the "Voting Unitholders". The Units and Special Voting Units are collectively referred to herein as the "Voting Units".

Appointment and Revocation of Proxies

The persons named in the accompanying form of proxy are trustees or officers of Calloway. A Voting Unitholder desiring to appoint a person (who need not be a Voting Unitholder) to represent such Voting Unitholder at the Meeting other than the persons designated in the accompanying form of proxy may do so either by inserting such person's name in the blank space provided in the form of proxy or by completing another form of proxy and, in either case, sending or delivering the completed proxy to the Secretary of Calloway. To be effective:

- (a) a proxy submitted by a holder of Units must be received by the Chief Financial Officer of Calloway, c/o Computershare Trust Company of Canada, 100 University Avenue, 9th Floor, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2Y1; and in each case at least 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) prior to the time set for the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Failure to so deposit a form of proxy shall result in its invalidation.
- (b) a proxy submitted by a holder of Special Voting Units must be received by the Chief Financial Officer of Calloway at the head office of Calloway located at 700 Applewood Crescent, Suite 200, Vaughan, Ontario L4K 5X3;

A Voting Unitholder who has given a form of proxy may revoke it as to any matter on which a vote has not already been held pursuant to its authority by an instrument in writing executed by such Voting Unitholder or by his attorney duly authorized in writing or, if the Voting Unitholder is a corporation, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized, and deposited either at the above mentioned office of Computershare Trust Company of Canada on or before the last business day preceding the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof, or with the chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or any adjournment thereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a registered Voting Unitholder attends personally at the Meeting, such Voting Unitholder may revoke the proxy and vote in person.

The Board of Trustees of Calloway has fixed the record date ("Record Date") for the Meeting as at the close of business on March 23, 2006. Voting Unitholders of Calloway of record as at the Record Date are entitled to receive notice of, to attend and to vote at the Meeting, except to the extent such Unitholder transfers any of such Unitholder's Voting Units after the Record Date and the transferee of those Voting Units establishes that such transferee owns the Voting Units and demands, not later than 10 days before the Meeting, that the transferee's name be included in the list of Voting Unitholders entitled to vote, in which case such transferee shall be entitled to vote such Voting Units at the applicable Meeting.

Signature of Proxy

The form of proxy must be executed by the Voting Unitholder or his attorney authorized in writing or, if the Voting Unitholder is a corporation, the form of proxy should be signed in its corporate name under its corporate seal by an authorized officer whose title should be indicated. A proxy signed by a person acting as attorney or in some other representative capacity should reflect such person's capacity following his signature and should be accompanied by the appropriate instrument evidencing qualification and authority to act (unless such instrument has been previously filed with Calloway).

Voting of Proxies

The persons named in the accompanying form of proxy will vote the Voting Units in respect of which they are appointed in accordance with the direction of the Voting Unitholder appointing them. In the absence of such direction, such Voting Units will be voted in favour of the following resolutions:

1. Fixing the aggregate number of trustees to be elected or appointed at the meeting at not more than 9;
2. Electing the persons named as proposed trustees in this Management Information Circular as trustees of the Trust for the ensuing year;
3. Re-appointing PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, Chartered Accountants as auditors of the Trust for the ensuing year and to authorize the trustees of the Trust to fix the remuneration of such auditors;
4. Approving certain amendments to the declaration of trust constituting the Trust, all as more particularly set forth in this Management Information Circular; and
5. Approving certain amendments to the Deferred Unit Plan of the Trust, all as more particularly set forth in this Management Information Circular.

Exercise of Discretion of Proxy

The accompanying form of proxy confers discretionary authority upon the persons named therein with respect to amendments or variations to matters identified in the accompanying Notice of Annual and Special Meeting and this Management Information Circular and with respect to other matters that may properly come before the Meeting. At the date of this Management Information Circular, management of Calloway ("Management") knows of no amendments, variations or other matters to come before the Meeting other than the matters referred to in the Notice of Annual and Special Meeting.

Advice to Beneficial Voting Unitholders

The information set forth in this section is of significant importance to many Voting Unitholders, as a substantial number of Voting Unitholders do not hold Voting Units in their own name. Voting Unitholders who do not hold their Voting Units in their names (referred to in this Management Information Circular as "Beneficial Voting Unitholders") should note that only proxies deposited by Voting Unitholders whose names appear on the records of Calloway as the registered holders of Voting Units can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting. If Voting Units are listed in an account statement provided to a Voting Unitholder by a broker, then in almost all cases, those Voting Units will not be registered in the Voting Unitholder's name on the records of Calloway. Such Voting Units will more likely be registered under the name of the Voting Unitholder's broker or an agent of that broker. Voting Units held by brokers or their agents can only be voted (for or against resolutions) upon the instructions of the Beneficial Voting Unitholder. Without specific instructions, brokers or agents for that broker are prohibited from voting the Voting Units for their clients. Therefore, Beneficial Voting Unitholders should ensure that instructions respecting the voting of their Voting Units are properly communicated to the appropriate person.

Applicable regulatory policy requires intermediaries and brokers to seek voting instructions from Beneficial Voting Unitholders in advance of meetings of Voting Unitholders. Every intermediary and broker has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed by Beneficial Voting Unitholders in order to ensure that their Voting Units are voted at the Meeting. Often, the form of proxy supplied to a Beneficial Voting Unitholder by its broker is identical to the form of proxy provided to registered Voting Unitholders; however, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered Voting Unitholders how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Voting Unitholder. A Beneficial Voting Unitholder receiving a proxy from an intermediary or broker cannot use that proxy to vote Voting Units directly at the Meeting; rather, the proxy must be returned to the intermediary or broker well in advance of the Meeting in order to have the Voting Units voted.

Although a Beneficial Voting Unitholder may not be recognized directly at the Meeting for the purposes of voting the Voting Units registered in the name of his or her broker (or an agent of the broker), a Beneficial Voting Unitholder may attend at the Meeting as proxyholder for the registered Voting Unitholder and vote the Voting Units in that capacity. Beneficial Voting Unitholders who wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote their Voting Units as proxyholder for the registered Voting Unitholder should enter their own names in the blank space on the form of proxy provided to them by their broker and return the same to their broker (or the broker's agent) in accordance with the instructions provided by such broker (or broker's agent), well in advance of the Meeting.

General

Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust ("Calloway" or the "Trust") is an unincorporated open-end real estate investment trust established by a declaration of trust dated December 4, 2001, as most recently amended and restated as of July 7, 2005 (the "Declaration of Trust"), and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta. Calloway was created to invest in income-producing rental properties located in Canada. Calloway intends to invest primarily in large format, unenclosed retail centres which are geographically diversified. Although Calloway is a "mutual fund trust" as defined in the Income Tax Act (Canada), Calloway is not a "mutual fund" as defined in applicable securities legislation. The principal and head office of Calloway is located at 700 Applewood Crescent, Suite 200, Vaughan, Ontario L4K 5X3.

Authorized Capital

The Declaration of Trust authorizes the issuance of an unlimited number of two classes of units: Units (See "Information Respecting Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust – Units") and Special Voting Units (See "Information Respecting Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust – Special Voting Units").

As of March 10, 2006, the Trust had 57,299,019 Units and 12,987,859 Special Voting Units outstanding for a total of 70,286,878 outstanding Voting Units.

Units

An unlimited number of Units may be created and issued pursuant to the Declaration of Trust. Each Unit represents an equal fractional undivided beneficial interest in any distributions from the Trust, and in any net assets of the Trust in the event of termination or winding-up of the Trust. All Units are of the same class with equal rights and privileges. Each Unit is transferable, entitles the holder thereof to participate equally in distributions, including the distributions of net income and net realized capital gains of the Trust and distributions on liquidation, is fully paid and non-assessable and entitles the holder thereof to one vote at all meetings of Unitholders for each Unit held.

Special Voting Units

An unlimited number of Special Voting Units may be created and issued pursuant to the Declaration of Trust. Special Voting Units may be issued by the Trust from time to time which shall entitle the holder of an Exchangeable Security (as defined below) to such number of votes at meetings of Voting Unitholders as is equal to the number of Units into which such Exchangeable Security (other than an Exchangeable Security owned by the Trust or any subsidiary of the Trust) is then exchangeable or convertible for. For greater certainty, holders of Special Voting

Units shall not be entitled, by virtue of their holding of Special Voting Units, to distributions of any nature whatsoever from the Trust nor shall they have any beneficial interest in any assets of the Trust on termination or winding up of the Trust. Special Voting Units are not separately transferable from the Exchangeable Security to which they relate and are automatically redeemed and cancelled upon the exercise or conversion of such Exchangeable Security.

“Exchangeable Security” means any security of any trust, limited partnership or corporation other than the Trust that is convertible or exchangeable directly for Units without the payment of additional consideration therefore.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if in any given 365 day period in the five year period from July 1, 2005, the average weighted aggregate number of Special Voting Units plus Units held or controlled by Mitchell Goldhar, companies controlled by Mitchell Goldhar or affiliates of such companies (collectively referred to herein as “FirstPro”) is equal to or greater than 15,000,000, then so long as Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a Trustee and FirstPro directly or indirectly beneficially owns or controls less than 25% of the voting rights attached to all voting securities of the Trust, the Trust shall issue such number of additional Special Voting Units (the “Additional Special Voting Units”) which will entitle FirstPro to cast 25% of the votes attached at a meeting of the holders of Units and Special Voting Units. FirstPro’s entitlement under this clause shall extend for an additional five year period should FirstPro sell in aggregate at least $800,000,000 of freehold assets (including freehold interests in assets sold under development arrangements) to the Trust or its affiliates during the initial 5 year period, provided that number of Units and Special Voting Units held or controlled by FirstPro shall be increased to the lesser of 20,000,000 or 20% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Units plus Special Voting Units and provided that Mr. Mitchell Goldhar remains a trustee of Calloway.

Principal Voting Unitholders

To the knowledge of Calloway, as at March 10, 2006, no person or company beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, or exercised control or direction over, voting securities of Calloway carrying more than 10% of the voting rights attached to any class of voting securities of Calloway except as set out below:

Voting Unitholder and Municipality of Residence	Type of Ownership	Units		Special Voting Units		Voting Units
		Number	Percentage	Number	Percentage	Number	Percentage

Note:

(1) These Voting Units are held by companies controlled by Mitchell Goldhar.

The following table sets forth the name, municipality of residence, office held with Calloway, experience and principal occupation during at least the last five (5) years and the approximate number of Voting Units of Calloway beneficially owned or controlled by each of the current Trustees of Calloway and each of the individuals to be nominated for election as a Trustee of Calloway at the Meeting or to be appointed by FirstPro upon the conclusion of the Meeting (see “Particulars of Matters to be Acted Upon - Election of Trustees”), each of whom shall take office from and after the Meeting. Governance

Introduction

The Board of Trustees of Calloway (the "Board") believes that sound governance practices are essential to achieve the best long-term interests of Calloway and the enhancement of value for all security holders. The Board further believes that an important element of sound governance is the alignment of interests between the Trustees and Unitholders of Calloway. This is achieved, in part, by encouraging investment in Calloway by the Trustees through the Deferred Unit Plan (see "Equity Compensation Plan Information – Deferred Unit Plan"). In addition, the majority of the Trustees beneficially own a significant number of Units (see "Information Respecting Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust – Trustees").

The Canadian Securities Administrators (the "CSA") have issued National Policy 58-201 – Corporate Governance Guidelines ("NP 58-201"). The CSA have also adopted National Instrument 58-101 – Disclosure of Corporate Governance Practices ("NI 58-101") which requires Canadian reporting issuers to annually disclose their corporate governance practices. Regulatory changes to governance practices that have occurred, or will occur, are continually monitored by the Board and the Board has taken, or will take, appropriate action as regulatory changes occur. Below is a discussion on the current composition of the Board and the current governance practices of Calloway.

Board of Trustees

Composition

As at March 10, 2006, the Board was composed of nine (9) individuals (each referred to herein as a "Trustee"). Such Trustees are Simon Nylassy, David M. Calnan, Jamie M. McVicar, Kevin B. Pshebniski, Michael Young, Al Mawani, Mitchell Goldhar, Peter Forde and J. Michael Storey.

Independence

The principle factor underlying the determination of Trustee "independence" is whether or not a particular Trustee has a "material relationship" with Calloway which is a relationship which could be reasonably expected to interfere with the exercise of the Trustee's independent judgement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the opinion of the CSA, as set out in NI 58-101, certain relationships are deemed to be "material relationships". The following analysis has been based upon the definition of "material relationship" as set out in NI 58-101.

Four (4) trustees qualify as independent under NI 58-101: David M. Calnan, Jamie M. McVicar, Kevin B. Pshebniski, and Al Mawani. David M. Calnan is a partner in a law firm that provides legal services to Calloway but has been determined by the Trustees to be an independent trustee" on the basis that Mr. Calnan's interest in the legal fees payable to the law firm are not material to him. Kevin B. Pshebniski is the President of a company with which Calloway has outstanding loans totalling $1,600,000 pursuant to development agreements but this is not considered material to Calloway nor the company of which he is President and he is therefore considered an independent trustee.

Five (5) trustees do not qualify as independent under NI 58-101: Simon Nyilassy, Michael Young, Mitchell Goldhar, Peter Forde and J. Michael Storey. Simon Nyilassy is the President and Chief Executive Officer of Calloway and is therefore not an independent trustee. Michael Young had been retained by Calloway to provide services connected to financing activities of Calloway pursuant to a consulting arrangement which was terminated in August 2005. Since Mr. Young has received in excess of $75,000 under this arrangement during a 12 month period in the previous three (3) years, he is not considered to be independent under NI 58-101. Mitchell Goldhar holds a controlling equity interest in FirstPro which has entered into development agreements that are material to Calloway and is therefore not an independent trustee. Peter Forde is the Chief Operating Officer of FirstPro and is therefore not an independent trustee. J. Michael Storey has served as President and Chief Executive Officer of Calloway in the past three years (3) and is therefore not considered to be independent under NI 58-101.

Other Boards

The following table sets forth the names of each other reporting issuer, and the exchange upon which the securities of that reporting issuer are listed, for which each of the current Trustees of Calloway and of each of the individuals to be nominated for election as a Trustee of Calloway at the Meeting serve as a trustee or director as at March 10, 2006.

Independent Chairs

The Board has not appointed a Chairman of the Board. However, the chair of each Board committee is an independent Trustee. Al Mawani is the Chair of the Audit Committee. Kevin B. Pshebniski is the Chair of the Investment Committee. Jamie M. McVicar is the Chair of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee. In addition, Mr. Mawani is the primary contact under the Board's "Whistleblower" policy as discussed under "Ethical Business Conduct".

The Board does not hold regularly scheduled Board meetings at which non-independent Trustees and members of management are not present. However, each Board committee meets independently of management, and the independent Trustees meet independent of the non-independent Trustees, on an ongoing and on an as needed basis. During some meetings, the Board and its committees may conduct "in camera" sessions, at which no management trustees or members of management are present. Further, on matters in which a particular trustee may not be independent, the Board and its committees may conduct "in camera" sessions at which the particular non-independent Trustee is not present. In matters which require the independence of the Board, only the Board members that are independent with respect to the particular matter take part in the decision-making responsibilities and evaluations.

Attendance

Since the commencement of the 2005 fiscal year, the Board has held four (4) regularly scheduled Board meetings and four (4) non-regularly scheduled Board meetings. The following table summarizes the attendance of each of the Trustees, since their respective appointments, at such Board meetings.

Board Mandate

The Board is responsible for the stewardship of Calloway. The Board supervises management of Calloway with the goal of enhancing long term Unitholder value. Management, in turn, is responsible for the day-to-day management of the business and affairs of Calloway and its subsidiaries. Management is also responsible for establishing strategic planning initiatives for Calloway. The Board assists in the development of these goals and strategies by acting as a sounding board and by contributing ideas. The Board ultimately approves the strategic plan, taking into account the risks and opportunities of the business of Calloway. The Board approves all significant decisions that affect Calloway before they are implemented, supervises the implementation and reviews the results.

The Board has specifically assumed responsibility for: (i) participating in the development of the strategic plan; (ii) identifying and managing business risks; (iii) ensuring the integrity and adequacy of Calloway's internal controls and management information systems; (iv) defining the roles and responsibilities of management; (v) reviewing and approving the business and investment objectives to be met by management; (vi) assessing the performance of management and the performance of its subsidiaries; (vii) succession planning; (viii) ensuring effective and adequate communication with Calloway's Unitholders and other stakeholders as well as the public at large; and (ix) establishing committees of the board of Trustees, where required, and defining their mandates.

In addition, the Board has adopted a mandate which expands upon its objectives and responsibilities. The full text of the "Mandate of the Board" is attached as Schedule "A" to this Management Information Circular.

Position Descriptions

Chair and Chair of each Board Committee

The Board has not developed written position descriptions for the the chair of each Board committee. However, the Board has adopted written mandates for the Board and for each Board committee. The Board as a whole and the members of each Board committee are responsible for taking such steps as may be necessary to ensure that the Board and the committees of the Board fulfill their respective mandates.

Chief Executive Officer

The Board has developed a position description for the Chief Executive Officer of Calloway involving the definition of the limits to the Chief Executive Officer's responsibilities. In addition, the Board has developed objectives which the Chief Executive Officer is responsible for meeting and the Board assesses the Chief Executive Officer against those objectives

Orientation and Continuing Education

The Board and management of Calloway have established an informal orientation and education program for new Trustees and new committee members regarding the role of the Board, its committees and the Trustees and the nature and operation of Calloway's business. Existing Trustees have historically provided orientation and education to new members on an ad hoc and informal basis in light of the particular needs of each new Trustee. Further, every Trustee has access to management and relevant business information and management makes regular presentations to the Board on the main areas of Calloway's business. At least annually, the Board reviews the skills, knowledge and effectiveness of the Board, its committees and individual Trustees.

Ethical Business Conduct

The Board has adopted a written code of conduct for the Trustees, directors, officers and employees of Calloway and its subsidiaries. The policy stipulates that such persons will treat each other, customers, suppliers, security holders and all other persons with goodwill, trust, and respect. The policy strives to create a culture in Calloway and its subsidiaries that values honesty, high ethical standards and compliance with laws, rules and regulations. In addition, the Trust has approved a human rights policy, an equal opportunity employment policy, a sexual harassment policy, a work place harassment policy and an insider trading policy.

The Declaration of Trust contains "conflict of interest" provisions that serve to protect Unitholders without creating undue limitations on Calloway. Given that the Trustees are engaged in a wide range of real estate and other business activities, the Declaration of Trust contains provisions, similar to those contained in the Canada Business Corporations Act, that require each Trustee to disclose to Calloway any interest in a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with Calloway (including a contract or transaction involving the making or disposition of any investment in real property or a joint venture arrangement) or the fact that such person is a director or officer of or otherwise has a material interest in any person who is a party to a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction with Calloway. Such disclosure is required to be made at the first meeting at which a proposed contract or transaction is considered. In the event that a material contract or transaction or proposed material contract or transaction is one that in the ordinary course would not require approval by the Trustees, a Trustee is required to disclose in writing to Calloway or request to have entered into the minutes of the meeting of the Trustees the nature and extent of his or her interest forthwith after the Trustee becomes aware of the contract or transaction or proposed contract or transaction. In any case, a Trustee who has made disclosure to the foregoing effect is not entitled to vote on any resolution to approve the contract or transaction unless the contract or transaction is one relating primarily to his or her remuneration as a Trustee, officer, employee or agent of Calloway or one for indemnity under the provisions of the Declaration of Trust or liability insurance.

The Board has advised each of the executive officers of Calloway and its subsidiaries that the terms of their employment require such executive officers to follow the same disclosure procedures and practices outlined above when such executive officers are in a situation that is, or may be considered to be, a "conflict of interest".

The Audit Committee has also adopted a "whistleblower" policy that sets out procedures which allow trustees, directors, officers and employees of Calloway and its subsidiaries to file reports on a confidential and anonymous basis with the appropriate persons regarding any concerns about accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters.

Nomination of Directors

The Board has appointed the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee which is responsible for, among other items: (i) reviewing the size and composition of the Board; (ii) recommending candidates for election to the Board; (iii) reviewing credentials of nominees for re-election; and (iv) recommending candidates for filling vacancies on the Board. While two (2) of the three (3) members of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee are technically not independent trustees under NI 58-101, the Board feels that the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee conducts its activities in an objective manner.

The Board reviews its size and composition from time to time to determine their impact on its effectiveness. The Board believes that a board of 9 trustees is an appropriate size for a public entity with a capitalization and business of Calloway's size. The Board believes that its current Trustees comprise an appropriate mix of individuals with real estate, accounting, financial, legal and general business experience.

Compensation

The Board, through its Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee, periodically reviews the adequacy and form of compensation of trustees and executive officers. The Compensation Committee considers the time commitment, risks and responsibilities of Trustees and executive officers and takes into account the types of compensation and the amounts paid to directors and/ or Trustees and executive officers of comparable publicly traded Canadian companies. As stated earlier, notwithstanding that two (2) of the three (3) members of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee are technically not independent trustees under NI 58-101, the Board feels that the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee conducts its activities in an objective manner.

Board Committees

The Audit Committee shall be composed of Trustees who comply with the provisions of Mutilateral Instrument 52-110. The external auditors of the Trust are entitled to receive notice of every meeting of the Audit Committee and, at the expense of the Trust, to attend and be heard thereat and, if so requested by a member of the Audit Committee, shall attend any meeting of the Audit Committee held during the term of office of the external auditors.

Investment Committee

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the Trustees shall appoint an Investment Committee to consist of not less than three Trustees and not more than five Trustees, a majority of whom shall be outside trustees (i.e. independent of management), two of whom shall be Trustees appointed by FirstPro for so long as FirstPro is the registered and beneficial owner of in excess of 15% of the issued and outstanding Units and/or Special Voting Units of the Trust (unless the prior written consent to the contrary or a written waiver of FirstPro is obtained) and two-thirds of whom shall have had at least 5 years of substantive experience in the real estate industry. The duties of the Investment Committee will be to:

- (a) review all proposals regarding investments;
- (b) approve or reject proposed acquisitions and dispositions of investments by the Trust or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates;
- (c) approve proposed transactions on behalf of the Trust or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates; and
- (d) approve or reject all borrowings and the assumption or granting of any mortgage or other security interest in real property, including any assignment of rents and other monies derived from or related to real property, by the Trust or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates.

Where for any reason a member of the Investment Committee is disqualified from voting on or participating in a decision, any other independent and disinterested Trustee not already a member of the Investment Committee may be designated by the Trustees to act as an alternate. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Investment Committee, the Trustees may consider and approve any matter which the Investment Committee has the authority to consider or approve.

Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee

Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the Trustees shall appoint a Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee to consist of not less than three Trustees and not more than four Trustees, one of whom shall be a Trustee appointed by FirstPro for so long as FirstPro is the registered and beneficial owner of in excess of 15% of the issued and outstanding Units and/or Special Voting Units of the Trust (unless the prior written consent to the contrary or a written waiver of FirstPro is obtained). The duties of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee will be to review the governance of the Trust with the responsibility for the Trust's corporate governance, human resources and compensation policies. In particular, the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee will be responsible for:

- (a) assessing the effectiveness of the board of Trustees and each of its committees;
- (b) considering questions of management succession;
- (c) participating in the recruitment and selection of candidates as Trustees of Calloway;
- (d) considering and approving proposals by the Trustees of Calloway to engage outside advisers on behalf of the board of Trustees of Calloway;
- (e) administering Calloway's long term incentive plan;
- (f) assessing the performance of the Chief Executive Officer;
- (g) reviewing and approving the compensation of senior management and consultants of Calloway and its subsidiaries; and
- (h) reviewing and making recommendations to the board concerning the level and nature of the compensation payable to the Trustees.

Where for any reason a member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee is disqualified from voting on or participating in a decision, any other independent and disinterested Trustee not already a member of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee may be designated by the Trustees to act as an alternate. Notwithstanding the appointment of the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee, the Trustees may consider and approve any matter, which the Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee has authority to consider or approve.

Assessments of Trustees

The Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee annually conducts a peer evaluation process to provide feedback to individual Trustees, including the chairs of each Board committee, on their effectiveness. The survey requires that every Trustee assess the contribution of each of his or her peers. The Corporate Governance and Compensation Committee also conducts an annual evaluation of the effectiveness of the Board and each of the committees of the Board. The latter survey covers the operation of the Board and its committees, the adequacy of information provided to Trustees, Board structure and agenda planning for Board meetings. These assessments take into account the Board mandate and the relevant committee mandates. The results of the surveys form the basis of recommendations to the Board for change.

Executive Compensation

For the purposes of this "Executive Compensation" section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- (a) "Chief Executive Officer" or "CEO" means each individual who served as chief executive officer of Calloway or acted in a similar capacity during the most recently completed financial year;

Employment Agreements

Each of the Named Executive Officers entered into employment agreements (the "Employment Agreements") with Calloway.

The annual compensation paid to each of Simon Nyilassy, Bart Munn and Marc Charleblois, under their Employment Agreements is $400,000 plus a bonus of up to $250,000, $250,000 plus a bonus of up to $125,000, and $250,000 plus a bonus of up to $125,000, respectively. Each agreement also provides for benefits in accordance with benefit plans for employees established from time to time by Calloway. Each agreement also provides for the executive management individual to receive an amount if the agreement is terminated other than for cause. For Simon Nyilassy, Bart Munn and Marc Charleblois this termination amount will be 1.5, 1, and 1, respectively, the sum of one year's base salary plus the targeted maximum bonus for the applicable year.

The annual compensation paid to each of J. Michael Storey, Mark Suchan and Keith McRae under their Employment Agreements was $350,000 plus a bonus of up to $200,000, $200,000 plus a bonus of up to $100,000, and $125,000 plus a bonus of up to $75,000, respectively. Each agreement also provided for benefits in accordance with benefit plans for employees established from time to time by Calloway. Each agreement also provided for the executive management individual to receive an amount if the agreement was terminated other than for cause. For J. Michael Storey, if he was terminated following the completion of the acquisition of certain properties from FirstPro in 2005 (the "Acquisition"), this termination amount was to be 1.5 times the sum of one year's base salary plus targeted maximum 2005 bonus, or $825,000. For Mark Suchan and Keith McRae, if they were terminated following the Acquisition, this amount was to be one year's base salary plus targeted maximum 2005 bonus, or $300,000 and $200,000 respectively. Based on an analysis of the attributes of the Acquisition and its beneficial impact on Calloway, the Trustees also agreed to award an additional bonus of $200,000, $100,000 and $75,000 to Messrs. Storey, Suchan and McRae, respectively, contingent upon the closing of the Acquisition, termination of each following the closing of the Acquisition and confirmation by the Compensation and Governance Committee that the final terms of the Acquisition continued to represent a favourable transaction for Calloway. The Acquisition was completed in July of 2005 and all of the aforementioned termination amounts, including the additional bonuses, were paid to each of Messrs. Storey, Suchan and McRae.

None of the amounts paid or payable to Named Executive Officers on termination of their employment was (or is) eligible for participation in the Deferred Unit Plan.

Compensation of Trustees

The Trustees are entitled to compensation for services rendered to Calloway in their capacities as Trustees. During the most recently completed financial year of Calloway, the compensation for the Trustees, other than any trustee who is also an employee of Calloway and is compensated in that capacity, was set at $18,000 per year plus an additional $1,000 for each meeting of Trustees or committee meeting attended and an additional annual fee of $2,500 for the Chairman of each committee of the Board. For the 2006 financial year, the compensation for the Trustees, other than any trustee who is also an employee of Calloway and is compensated in that capacity, has been set at $20,000 per year plus an additional $1,000 for each meeting of Trustees or committee meeting attended and an additional annual fee of $10,000 for the Chairman of the Audit Committee and an additional annual fee of $5,000 for the Chairman of each other committee of the Board. The Trustees are also entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable travel and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending meetings of the Trustees or any committee thereof in connection with their services as Trustees. The Trustees are also entitled to participate in the Deferred Unit Plan of Calloway.

For the year ended December 31, 2005, the Trustees earned an aggregate of $340,500 for their services. Further, during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, Calloway paid fees totalling $1,456,389 to a legal firm in which David M. Calnan, a trustee of Calloway, is a partner and paid fees totalling $397,529 to Michael Young, a trustee of Calloway, for consulting services for public equity offerings.

Composition of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee

At the onset of the most recently completed financial year of Calloway, the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Trustees consisted of Jamie M. McVicar, Ken Delf, David Carpenter, Simon Nyilassy and Michael Young. Upon the completion of the acquisition of certain properties by Calloway from the FirstPro Shopping Centre group of companies, among others, in July of 2005, Ken Delf and David Carpenter ceased to be trustees of Calloway and therefore ceased to be members of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee. Further, upon completion of the aforementioned acquisition, Simon Nyilassy replaced J. Michael Storey as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Calloway and J. Michael Storey replaced Simon Nyilassy on the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee. As such, the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Trustees of Calloway at the end of the most recently completed financial year of Calloway consisted of Jamie M. McVicar, J. Michael Storey and Michael Young. Mr. McVicar was the Chairman of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee throughout the most recently completed financial year of Calloway.

Compensation Policy

As set forth under the heading "Employment Agreements", each of the Named Executive Officers entered into Employment Agreements with Calloway. In determining the appropriate terms of the Employment Agreements, the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of Calloway considered the following objectives:

- (a) obtaining the executives critical to the success of Calloway and the enhancement of Unitholder values;
- (b) providing fair and competitive compensation;
- (c) balancing the interests of management and Unitholders of Calloway; and
- (d) reviewing performance, both on an individual basis and with respect to the business of Calloway in general.

To achieve these objectives, the compensation paid to each of the Named Executive Officers consists of the following primary components:

- (a) base salary;
- (b) annual bonus incentives;
- (c) long-term incentive in the form of deferred units granted in accordance with the Deferred Unit Plan of Calloway.

The base salary of each of each Named Executive Officer was determined by assessment of the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of such executive's performance, consideration of competitive compensation levels in entities similar to Calloway, and the role such executive is expected to play in the performance of Calloway.

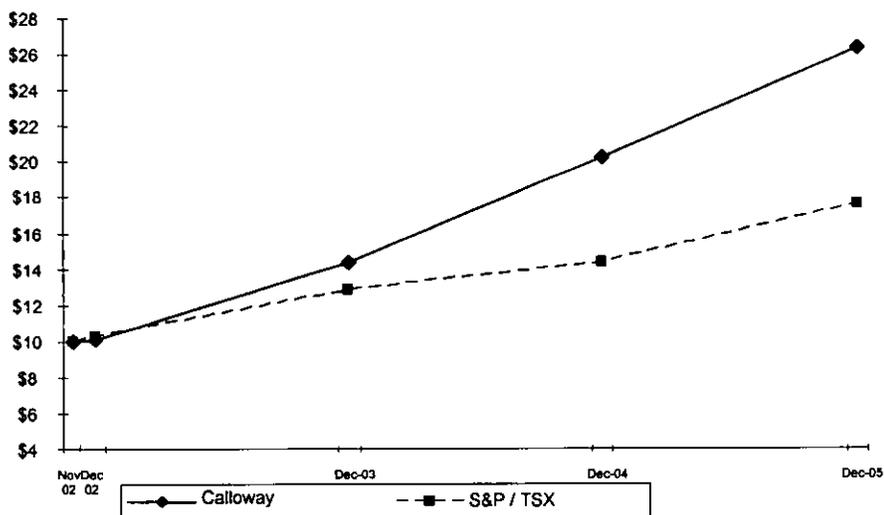

Annual cash bonus incentive awards are based upon the ability of Calloway to meet the targeted annual distribution levels set out at the commencement of each fiscal year. This establishes a direct link between executive compensation and Calloway's performance.

In addition, from time to time, the Board of Trustees may declare an additional cash bonus in favour of one or more members of Calloway's management team in circumstances where it is determined that the executive(s) in question have made an exceptional contribution to the performance of Calloway during the fiscal year.

Calloway provides a long-term incentive by granting deferred units to trustees, executive officers and employees through the Deferred Unit Plan. The objective of granting deferred units is to encourage trustees, executive officers and employees to acquire an ownership interest in Calloway over a period of time which acts as a financial incentive for such persons to consider the long-term interests of Calloway and its Unitholders. See "Equity Compensation Plan Information."

Equity Compensation Plan Information

Summary

The following table summarizes certain information as of March 10, 2006 regarding compensation plans of Calloway under which equity securities of Calloway are authorized for issuance.

Deferred Unit Plan	107,604	142,396

Deferred Unit Plan

Calloway has a deferred unit plan (the "Deferred Unit Plan") which has previously been approved by the Unitholders. The Deferred Unit Plan is administered by the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Trustees.

The purpose of the Deferred Unit Plan is to promote a greater alignment of interests between the Trustees, officers and employees of Calloway and/or its subsidiaries (such persons hereinafter collectively referred to in this section as "Eligible Participants") and the Unitholders.

Each Eligible Person is given the right to elect to be a participant (a "Participant") of the Deferred Unit Plan. An Eligible Person who elects to be a Participant shall be paid between sixty percent (60%) and one hundred percent (100%) of:

- (i) in respect of a Trustee, the annual retainer paid by Calloway to that Trustee in a calendar year for service on the Board of Trustees, together with committee fees, attendance fees and additional fees and retainers to committee chairs; and
- (ii) in respect of an officer or employee, the annual bonus paid by Calloway to that officer or employee in a calendar year;

(the "Elected Amount") in the form of deferred Units ("Deferred Units") in lieu of cash provided that Calloway shall match the Elected Amount for each Participant such that the number of Deferred Units issued to each Participant shall be equal in value to two (2) times the Elected Amount.

The number of Deferred Units (including fractional Deferred Units) granted at any particular time pursuant to this Deferred Unit Plan will be calculated by dividing (i) two (2) times the dollar amount of the Elected Amount allocated to the Participant by (ii) the Market Value (as defined below) of a Unit on the award date. "Market Value" at any date in respect of the Units means the volume weighted average price of all Units traded on the Toronto Stock Exchange for the ten trading days immediately preceding such date (or, if such Units are not listed and posted for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange, on such stock exchange on which such Units are listed and posted for trading as may be selected for such purpose by the Board of Trustees). In the event that such Units are not listed and posted for trading on any stock exchange, the Market Value shall be the fair market value of such Units as determined by the Board of Trustees in its sole discretion.

Under no circumstances shall Deferred Units be considered Units nor entitle a Participant to any Unitholder rights, including, without limitation, voting rights, distribution entitlements (other than as set out below) or rights on liquidation. One (1) Deferred Unit is equivalent to one (1) Unit. Fractional Units are permitted under the Deferred Unit Plan.

Generally speaking, Deferred Units granted to Participants pursuant to the Deferred Unit Plan shall vest in accordance with the following schedule:

- (a) 50% of the Deferred Units shall vest on the third anniversary of the grant;
- (b) 25% of the Deferred Units shall vest on the fourth anniversary of the grant; and
- (c) 25% of the Deferred Units shall vest on the fifth anniversary of the grant.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board of Trustees shall have the discretion to vary the manner in which Deferred Units vest for any Participant.

The Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit account that have vested may be redeemable in whole or in part on the date in which the Participant files a written notice of redemption with Calloway (the "Redemption Date"). The Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit account shall vest immediately and be redeemable by the Participant (or, where the Participant has died, his or her estate) following an event, including termination other than for cause, retirement or death, causing the Participant to be no longer an Eligible Person (the "Termination Date"). Where the Participant has been terminated for cause, the Deferred Units credited to the Participant's Deferred Unit account shall be redeemable by the Participant in accordance with the aforementioned vesting schedule excepting only that a minimum of 50% of such Deferred Units shall be deemed vested. The Participant shall receive, within five (5) business days after the Termination Date or Redemption Date, as applicable, a whole number of Units from Calloway equal to the whole number of Deferred Units then recorded in the Participant's Deferred Unit account, net of any applicable withholding taxes. Calloway shall also make a cash payment, net of any applicable withholding taxes, to the Participant with respect to the value of fractional Deferred Units standing to the Participant's credit after the maximum number of whole Units have been issued by Calloway, calculated by multiplying (i) the number of such fractional Deferred Units by (ii) the Market Value of such fractional Deferred Units on the Termination Date or Redemption Date, as applicable. Upon payment in full of the value of the Deferred Units, the Deferred Units shall be cancelled.

Whenever cash distributions are paid on the Units, additional Deferred Units will be credited to the Participant's Deferred Unit account. The number of such additional Deferred Units shall be calculated by dividing (i) the amount determined by multiplying (a) the number of Deferred Units in such Participant's Deferred Unit account on the record date for the payment of such distribution by (b) the distribution paid per Unit, by (ii) 97% of the Market Value of a Unit on the distribution payment date for such distribution, in each case, with fractions computed to two decimal places. Such additional Deferred Units shall vest on the basis as the initial Deferred Units granted from the date of grant of same.

As of March 10, 2006, Calloway has 57,299,019 Units outstanding (not including the 12,987,859 Units issuable upon the exercise or conversion of the Exchangeable Securities outstanding). The aggregate number of Units authorized for issuance upon the redemption of all Deferred Units granted under the Deferred Unit Plan shall not exceed 250,000, or approximately 0.44% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway, or such greater number of Units as may be determined by the Board of Trustees and approved by the Unitholders and, if required, by any relevant stock exchange or other regulatory authority; provided, however, that: (i) at no time shall the number of Units reserved for issuance to insiders of Calloway pursuant to outstanding Deferred Units, together with the number of Units reserved for issuance to such persons pursuant to any other compensation arrangements, exceed 10% of the then outstanding Units, as calculated immediately prior to the issuance in question; and (ii) the number of Units issued to insiders of Calloway pursuant to outstanding Deferred Units together with the number of Units issued to such persons pursuant to any other compensation arrangements, within any one year period, shall not exceed 10% of the then outstanding Units. No Units have been issued upon the redemption of Deferred Units issued under the Deferred Unit Plan. Calloway has issued 107,604 Deferred Units, or approximately 0.19% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway, under the Deferred Unit Plan leaving 142,396 Deferred Units, or approximately 0.25% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway, remaining available for issuance pursuant to the Deferred Unit Plan (assuming that all Deferred Units are redeemed for Units).

In no event may the rights or interests of a Participant under the Deferred Unit Plan be assigned, encumbered, pledged, transferred or alienated in any way, except to the extent that certain rights may pass to a beneficiary or legal representative upon death of a Participant, by will or by the laws of succession and distribution.

The administration of the Deferred Unit Plan shall be subject to and performed in conformity with all applicable laws, regulations, orders of governmental or regulatory authorities and the requirements of any stock exchange on which the Units are listed. Should the Compensation, Nominating and Governance Committee, in its sole discretion, determine that it is not desirable or feasible to provide for the redemption of Deferred Units in Units, including by reason of any such laws, regulations, rules, orders or requirements, it shall notify the Participants of such determination and on receipt of such notice each Participant shall have the option of electing that such redemption obligations be satisfied by means of a cash payment by Calloway equal to the Market Value of the Units that would otherwise be delivered to a Participant in settlement of Deferred Units on the redemption date (less any applicable withholding taxes).

The Board of Trustees of Calloway has the power to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Deferred Option Plan, subject to any necessary regulatory and Unitholder approvals. Subject to the receipt of any necessary regulatory or Unitholder approvals, the Board of Trustees may also at any time amend or revise the terms of any Deferred Units granted under the Deferred Option Plan from time to time. The TSX will generally not require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) amendments of a "housekeeping" nature; (b) a change to the vesting provisions of a security or a plan; (c) a change to the termination provisions of a security or a plan which does not entail an extension beyond the original expiry date; and (d) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities, which provides for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve. The TSX will generally require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) any amendment to the number of securities issuable under the plan, including an increase to a fixed maximum number of securities or a change from a fixed maximum number of securities to a fixed maximum percentage; (b) any change to the eligible participants which would have the potential of broadening or increasing insider participation; (c) the addition of any form of financial assistance; (d) any amendment to a financial assistance provision which is more favourable to participants; (e) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities which does not provide for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve; and (f) the addition of a deferred or restricted share unit or any other provision which results in participants receiving securities while no cash consideration is received by the issuer.

Unit Option Plan

Calloway also has an incentive unit option plan (the "Unit Option Plan") which has been previously approved by the Unitholders. However, there are presently no options outstanding pursuant to the Unit Option Plan and Calloway has no present intention to grant any further options under this plan.

The Unit Option Plan is administered by the Board of Trustees of Calloway, or by a special committee of the Trustees appointed from time to time by the Board of Trustees of Calloway pursuant to rules of procedure fixed by the Board of Trustees of Calloway. Pursuant to the terms of the Unit Option Plan, trustees, directors, officers, consultants, and employees of Calloway or its subsidiaries are eligible for selection to participate in such incentive Unit Option Plan (such persons hereinafter collectively referred to in this section as "Participants"). The Board of Trustees of Calloway shall determine to whom options shall be granted, the terms and provisions of the respective option agreements, the time or times at which such options shall be granted and vested, and the number of Units to be subject to each option. The purpose of Unit Option Plan is to advance the interests of Calloway by encouraging Participants to acquire Units in the capital of Calloway, thereby increasing their proprietary interest in Calloway, encouraging them to remain associated with Calloway and furnishing them with additional incentive in their efforts on behalf of Calloway in the conduct of its affairs.

As of March 10, 2006, Calloway has 57,299,019 Units outstanding (not including the 12,987,859 Units issuable upon the exercise or conversion of the Exchangeable Securities outstanding). The maximum number of Units reserved for issuance under the Unit Option Plan is 562,000 (or 0.98% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway). There are presently no Options outstanding pursuant to the Unit Option Plan.

The Unit Option Plan provides that the number of Units reserved for issuance pursuant to the Unit Option Plan in respect of all options granted to any one Participant, together with any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway, at any one time shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time. The Unit Option Plan also provides that the number of Units reserved for issuance pursuant to the Unit Option Plan in respect of all options granted to all insiders of Calloway (as that term is defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) ("Insiders"), together with any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway, at any one time shall not exceed ten percent (10%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time. The Unit Option Plan also provides that the number of Units that may be issued to Insiders of Calloway within a one year period pursuant to the Unit Option Plan or any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway shall not exceed (10%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time. The Unit Option Plan also provides that the number of Units that may be issued to any one Insider, and associates (as that term is defined in the Securities Act (Ontario)) of such Insider ("Associates"), pursuant to the Unit Option Plan or any other previously established or proposed share compensation arrangement of Calloway within a one year period shall not exceed five percent (5%) of the outstanding Units in the capital of Calloway from time to time.

The exercise price of the Units subject to each option shall be determined by the Board of Trustees of Calloway at the time any option is granted. In no event shall such exercise price be lower than the closing price of the Units on the Toronto Stock Exchange on the first date preceding the date of grant on which the Units traded on such exchange. Once the exercise price has been determined by the Board of Trustees of Calloway and accepted by the Toronto Stock Exchange, the exercise price of an option may be reduced upon receipt of approval of the Board of Trustees of Calloway, provided that in the case of options held by Insiders of Calloway, the exercise price of an option may be reduced only if disinterested Unitholder approval is obtained.

Subject to earlier termination upon certain events as hereinafter described, each option and all rights thereunder granted pursuant to the Unit Option Plan shall expire on the date determined by the Board of Trustees, provided that in no circumstances shall the duration of an option exceed 10 years.

If a Participant shall cease to be a trustee, director, officer, consultant, employee of Calloway, or its subsidiaries, for any reason (other than death), such Participant may then only exercise his or her option to the extent that the Participant was entitled to exercise it at the date of such cessation, provided that such exercise must occur within 90 days after the Participant ceases to be a trustee, director, officer, consultant, employee of Calloway, or its subsidiaries.

In the event of the death of a Participant, the option previously granted to him or her shall be exercisable only within the first year after such death and then only: (a) by the person or persons to whom the Participant's rights under the option shall pass by the Participant's will or the laws of descent and distribution; and (b) if and to the extent that such Participant was entitled to exercise the option at the date of his or her death.

Subject to any vesting restrictions imposed by the relevant exchange upon which the Units of Calloway are listed, the Board of Trustees of Calloway may, in its sole discretion, determine the time during which options shall vest and the method of vesting, or that no vesting restriction shall exist.

All benefits, rights and options accruing to any Participant in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Unit Option Plan shall not be transferable or assignable. During the lifetime of a Participant any benefits, rights and options may only be exercised by the Participant.

The Board of Trustees of Calloway has the power to amend, modify, suspend or terminate the Unit Option Plan, subject to any necessary regulatory and Unitholder approvals. Subject to the receipt of any necessary regulatory or Unitholder approvals, the Board of Trustees may also at any time amend or revise the terms of any options granted under the Unit Option Plan from time to time. The TSX will generally not require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) amendments of a "housekeeping" nature; (b) change to the vesting provisions of a security or a plan; (c) a change to the termination provisions of a security or a plan which does not entail an extension beyond the original expiry date; and (d) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities, which provides for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve. The TSX will generally require its listed issuers to obtain security holder approval for the following types of amendments: (a) any amendment to the number of securities issuable under the plan, including an increase to a fixed maximum number of securities or a change from a fixed maximum number of securities to a fixed maximum percentage; (b) any change to the eligible participants which would have the potential of broadening or increasing insider participation; (c) the addition of any form of financial assistance; (d) any amendment to a financial assistance provision which is more favourable to participants; (e) the addition of a cashless exercise feature, payable in cash or securities which does not provide for a full deduction of the number of underlying securities from the plan reserve; and (f) the addition of a deferred or restricted share unit or any other provision which results in participants receiving securities while no cash consideration is received by the issuer.

The auditors' reports of Kenway Mack Slusarchuk Stewart LLP on the financial statements of the Trust for the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003 did not contain any reservations as to departures from generally accepted accounting principles or limitation in the scope of the audits. In connection with the audits for the years ended December 31, 2004 and December 31, 2003 and through to September 30, 2005, there were no "reportable events" as defined in National Instrument 51-102 of the Canadian Securities Administrators. Pursuant to the Declaration of Trust, the Trustees appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the Trust's new auditors as of September 30, 2005. The Audit Committee considered and approved the appointment. As stated earlier, Calloway is an unincorporated open-end real estate investment trust established by a declaration of trust dated December 4, 2001, as most recently amended and restated as of July 7, 2005 (the "Declaration of Trust"), and governed by the laws of the Province of Alberta. The Trustees propose to adopt a further amended and restated Declaration of Trust (referred to in this section as the "Fifth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust"). The material amendments to the Declaration of Trust that are proposed to be included in the Fifth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust are set out below. The purposes of the amendments are, among other reasons, to provide the Trust with greater flexibility in structuring transactions in response to potential acquisitions or investment opportunities, to provide the Trust with greater flexibility in determining the appropriate level for its distributions to Unitholders and to conform to current applicable regulatory requirements.

Proposed Amendments to the Definitions

The Fifth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust contains the following material amendments to the definitions in section 1.1 of the Declaration of Trust:

- (a) The definition of "Distributable Income" has been deleted.
- (b) The definition of "Distribution Date" has been changed to read as follows (with the insertions underlined and the deletions crossed out):

1.1.11 “Distribution Date” means, with respect to a distribution by the Trust: a business day determined by the Trustees for any calendar month ~~other than December~~, on or about the 15th day of the following month; ~~and~~

~~1.1.11.2 for the month of December, December 31;~~

(c) The following definition has been added for “Fair Market Value”:

“Fair Market Value” means, at any time, at the option of the Trustees of the Trust either: (i) the fair market value assets of the Trust at such time, as determined by the Trustees of the Trust; or (ii) the fair market value of the Trust calculated as the aggregate outstanding indebtedness of the Trust at such time plus the value obtained when the aggregate number of Units and Exchangeable Securities outstanding at such time is multiplied by the weighted average trading price of the Units on the Toronto Stock Exchange, or such other exchange upon which the Units of the Trust may be listed for trading, for the ten trading days immediately preceding such time;

Proposed Amendments to the Investment Guidelines

The Fifth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust contains the following material amendments to the investment guidelines in section 5.1 of the Declaration of Trust (with the insertions underlined and the deletions crossed out):

5.1 Investment Guidelines

The assets of the Trust may be invested only in accordance with the following guidelines:

5.1.1 the Trust will focus its acquisition activities on existing income-producing properties that are capital property of the Trust, including office, retail, industrial and mixed use properties, that are substantially leased;

5.1.2 notwithstanding anything in this Declaration of Trust to the contrary, the Trust shall not make any investment or take any action or omit to take any action that would result in Units not being units of a “mutual fund trust” and of a “unit trust” within the meaning of the Income Tax Act, that would result in Units being disqualified for investment by registered retirement savings plans, registered retirement income funds, deferred profit sharing plans or registered education savings plans, ~~that would result in the Trust being liable under the Income Tax Act to pay a tax imposed as a result of holdings by the Trust of foreign property as defined in the Income Tax Act, that would result in Units being foreign property for the purposes of the Income Tax Act or that would result in the Trust paying a tax under the registered investment provisions of the Income Tax Act imposed for exceeding certain investment limits;~~

5.1.3 the Trust may, directly or indirectly, invest in a joint venture arrangement only if: for the purposes of owning interests or investments otherwise permitted to be held by the Trust, provided that such joint venture arrangement contains terms and conditions which, in the opinion of the Trustees, are commercially reasonable, including without limitation such terms and conditions relating to restrictions on transfer and the acquisition and sale of the Trust’s and any joint venturer’s interest in the joint venture arrangement, provisions to provide liquidity to the Trust, such as buy-sell mechanisms, provisions that limit the liability of the Trust to third parties, and provisions that provide for the participation of the Trust in the management of the joint venture arrangement. For purposes of this provision, a joint venture arrangement is an arrangement between the Trust and one or more other persons (“joint venturers”) pursuant to which the Trust, directly or indirectly, conducts an undertaking for one or more of the purposes set out above and in respect of which the Trust may hold its interest jointly or in common or in another manner with others either directly or through the ownership of securities of a corporation or other entity (a "joint venture entity"), including without limitation a general partnership, limited partnership or limited liability company;

~~5.1.3.1 the arrangement is one pursuant to which the Trust holds an interest in Real Property jointly or in common with others ("joint venturers") either directly or through the ownership of an interest in a corporation or other entity (a "joint venture entity") as co-owners and not as partners and such Real Property is capital property of the Trust and if owned through the ownership of an interest in a joint venture entity, the said Real Property is capital property of the joint venture entity;~~

~~5.1.3.2 the Trust's interest in the joint venture arrangement is not subject to any restriction on transfer other than a right of first offer or a right of first refusal, if any, in favour of the joint venturers;~~

~~5.1.3.3 the Trust has a right of first offer or a right of first refusal to buy the interests of the other joint venturers;~~

~~5.1.3.4 the joint venture arrangement provides an appropriate buy-sell mechanism to enable a joint venturer to purchase the other joint venturers' interests or to sell its interest;~~

~~5.1.3.5 the joint venture arrangement provides that the liability of the Trust to third parties is several based on its proportionate ownership interest of the joint venture and not joint and several, provided however, that subject to any remedies that each joint venturer may have against the other joint venturers, a joint venturer may be required to give up its interest in any particular property owned by the joint venture entity as a result of another joint venturer's failure to honour its proportionate share of the obligations relating to such property; and~~

~~5.1.3.6 the joint venture arrangement permits, but does not require, the Trust or its designee to participate fully in the management thereof;~~

5.1.4 except for temporary investments held in cash, deposits with a Canadian chartered bank or trust company registered under the laws of a province of Canada, short-term government debt securities, or in money market instruments of, or guaranteed by, a Schedule 1 Canadian chartered bank maturing prior to one year from the date of issue, the Trust may not hold securities other than securities of a trust or limited partnership formed for the purpose of holding Real Property, securities of a joint venture entity, trust or limited partnership or an entity or corporation wholly owned by the Trust formed and operated for the purpose of holding a particular Real Property or ~~Real p~~Properties or for any other purpose relating to the activities of the Trust, and provided further that, notwithstanding anything contained in this Declaration of Trust to the contrary, the Trust may acquire securities of other real estate investment trusts;

5.1.5 except as otherwise prohibited in this Declaration of Trust, the Trust may invest in interests (including fee ownership and leasehold interests) in income-producing Real Property in ~~Canada and the United States~~ that is capital property of the Trust;

5.1.6 the Trust shall not acquire any single investment in real property (whether directly or indirectly through its interest in a ~~trust or~~ limited partnership or corporation) if the cost to the Trust of such acquisition (including encumbrances assumed) will exceed 20% of the Gross Book Value calculated following such purchase;

- 5.1.7 the Trust shall not invest in rights to or interests in mineral or other natural resources, including oil or gas, except as incidental to an investment in Real Property that is capital property of the Trust;
- 5.1.8 the Trust shall not invest ~~indirectly in~~ operating businesses unless such investment is through a corporation, limited partnership or trust incidental to a transaction: (i) where the revenue will be derived, directly or indirectly, principally from Real Property; or (ii) which principally involves the ownership, maintenance, improvement, leasing or management, directly or indirectly, of real property (in each case as determined by the Trustees);
- ~~5.1.9 the Trust shall not acquire interests in general partnerships or limited partnerships provided that the Trust may invest in a general partnership or limited partnership if:~~
- ~~5.1.9.1 the general partnership or limited partnership is formed and operated solely for the purpose of acquiring, owning, maintaining, improving, developing, leasing or managing a particular Real Property or Real Properties or interest therein.~~
- ~~5.1.9.2 the Trust's interest in the limited partnership is not subject to any restriction on transfer other than a right of first offer or right of first refusal, if any, in favour of any other partner or any affiliate thereof;~~
- ~~5.1.9.3 the Trust has a right of first offer or right of first refusal to buy the interests of the other partners; and~~
- ~~5.1.9.4 the Trust has received a legal opinion to the effect that the investment (a) would not result in the Trust or any registered retirement savings plan, registered retirement income fund, deferred profit sharing plan or registered education savings plan being liable, under the Income Tax Act, to pay tax imposed as a result of holdings by the Trust of foreign property as defined in the Income Tax Act, (b) would not disqualify the Trust as a "mutual fund trust" within the meaning of the Tax Act, and (c) would not result in the Trust losing any status under the Income Tax Act that is otherwise beneficial to the Trust and its Unitholders;~~
- ~~provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Trust may from time to time enter into any limited partnership arrangement which does not comply with any of subparagraphs 5.1.9.2 or 5.1.9.3 above if the Trustees determine that the investment is desirable for the Trust and otherwise complies with sections 5.1 and 5.2;~~
- 5.1.9 subject to Section 5.1.2, the Trust shall ~~not~~may invest directly in raw land for development ~~except for properties adjacent to existing properties of the Trust provided such investment is through a corporation, limited partnerships or trust established for the purpose of (i) the renovation or expansion of existing facilities that are capital property of the Trust, or (ii) the development of new facilities which will be capital property of the Trust, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not preclude the Trust from investing in general or limited partnerships that invest in raw lands for development purposes;~~
- 5.1.10 the Trust may invest in mortgages or mortgage bonds (including, with the consent of a majority of the Trustees, a participating or convertible mortgage) where:
- 5.1.10.1 the Real Property which is security therefore is income-producing Real Property which otherwise meets the general investment guidelines of the Trust adopted by the Trustees from time to time in accordance with this Declaration of Trust and the restrictions set out therein; and

~~5.1.10.2 the amount of the mortgage loan is not in excess of 75% of the market value of the property securing the mortgage and the mortgage has at least 1.2X debt service coverage;~~

~~5.1.10.3 the mortgage is a first-ranking mortgage registered on title to the Real Property which is security therefore; and~~

5.1.10.2 the aggregate value of the investments of the Trust in these mortgages, after giving effect to the proposed investment, will not exceed 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity;

5.1.11 the Trust may invest in mortgages if the sole primary intention is to use the acquisition of the mortgages as a method of acquiring control of income-producing Real Property which would otherwise meet the investment guidelines of the Trust and provided the aggregate value of the investments of the Trust in these mortgages, after giving effect to the proposed investment, will not exceed 20% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity; and

5.1.12 subject to subsection 5.1.2, the Trust may invest an amount (which, in the case of an amount invested to acquire Real Property, is the purchase price less the amount of any indebtedness assumed or incurred by the Trust and secured by a mortgage on such property) of up to 15% of the Adjusted Unitholders' Equity of the Trust in investments or transactions which do not comply with subsections 5.1.4, 5.1.5, 5.1.11 and 5.1.12 above or subsection 5.2.3.

For the purpose of the foregoing guidelines, the assets, liabilities and transactions of a corporation or other entity wholly or partially owned by the Trust will be deemed to be those of the Trust on a proportionate consolidation basis. In addition, any references in the foregoing to investment in Real Property will be deemed to include an investment in a joint venture arrangement. Nothing in the guidelines prohibits the Trust from holding or assigning some or all of the receivables due pursuant to any instalment receipt agreement.

Except as specifically set forth herein to the contrary, all of the foregoing prohibitions, limitations or requirements for investment shall be determined as at the date of investment by the Trust.

If the Trustees anticipate a cash shortfall and determine that it would be in the best interests of the Trust, they may reduce for any period the percentage of Distributable Income to be distributed to Unitholders, provided that they may not reduce the percentage of Distributable Income distributed below 75% for any taxation year. The Trust shall also distribute to Unitholders, and the Unitholders will have a right to receive, on December 31 of each year (i) the Net Realized Capital Gains of the Trust and the Net Recapture Income of the Trust for the year then ended and (ii) any excess of the income of the Trust for purposes of the Income Tax Act for the year then ended over distributions otherwise made for that year. The Fifth Amended and Restated Declaration of Trust will also contain certain other amendments which are of a housekeeping nature of the variety described in the foregoing paragraph.

Declaration of Trust Amendment Resolution

At the Meeting, the Unitholders will be asked to vote on the following ordinary resolution, with or without variation:

Adoption of a Revised Deferred Unit Plan

Proposed Amendments

The Trust currently has an incentive Deferred Unit Plan (the "Current Plan") which has been previously approved by the Unitholders. The Trust proposes to adopt an amended Deferred Unit Plan (the "Amended Plan") which will be substantively similar to the Current Plan but with some minor amendments. See "Information Respecting Calloway Real Estate Investment Trust - Equity Compensation Plan Information - Deferred Unit Plan" for a summary of the key terms of the Current Plan. Below is a summary of the proposed key amendments which will be contained in the Amended Plan.

Under the Current Plan, an Eligible Person who elects to be a Participant shall be paid between sixty percent (60%) and one hundred percent (100%):

- (i) in respect of a Trustee, the annual retainer paid by Calloway to that Trustee in a calendar year for service on the Board of Trustees, together with committee fees, attendance fees and additional fees and retainers to committee chairs (the "Annual Board Retainer"); and
- (ii) in respect of an officer or employee, the annual bonus paid by Calloway to that officer or employee in a calendar year (the "Annual Bonus");

(the "Elected Amount") in the form of Deferred Units in lieu of cash provided that Calloway shall match the Elected Amount for each Participant such that the number of Deferred Units issued to each Participant shall be equal in value to two (2) times the Elected Amount. Under the Amended Plan, the sixty percent (60%) minimum for the Elected Amount has been removed such that an Eligible Person who elects to be a Participant shall be paid up to one hundred percent (100%) of their Annual Board Retainer or Annual Bonus, as applicable, in the form of Deferred Units in lieu of cash provided that Calloway shall match the Elected Amount for each Participant such that the number of Deferred Units issued to each Participant shall be equal in value to two (2) times the Elected Amount.

Under the Current Plan, the Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit Account shall be redeemable by the Participant following an event, including termination other than for cause, retirement or death, causing the Participant to be no longer an Eligible Person. The Amended Plan tightens the vesting provisions such that only the Deferred Units credited to a Participant's Deferred Unit Account that have vested shall be redeemable by the Participant following an event, including termination other than for cause, retirement or death, causing the Participant to be no longer an Eligible Person.

As of March 10, 2006, Calloway has 57,299,019 Units outstanding (not including the 12,987,859 Units issuable upon the exercise or conversion of the Exchangeable Securities outstanding). Under the Current Plan, the aggregate number of Units authorized for issuance upon the redemption of all Deferred Units granted under the Deferred Unit Plan shall not exceed 250,000, or approximately 0.44% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway. Under the Amended Plan, the aggregate number of Units authorized for issuance upon the redemption of all Deferred Units granted under the Deferred Unit Plan shall not exceed 1,000,000, or approximately 1.75% of the currently outstanding Units of Calloway.

Deferred Unit Plan Resolution

At the Meeting, Unitholders will be asked to vote on the following resolution (the "Deferred Unit Plan Resolution"), with or without variations:

Be it resolved that:

1. The Amended Plan, substantially as described in the Management Information Circular of Calloway dated March 10, 2006, be and is hereby approved.
2. The reservation of up to 1,000,000 Units of the Trust for issuance pursuant to the Amended Plan be and is hereby approved.

3. Notwithstanding that this resolution has been passed, the Board of Trustees of the Trust may, without further notice to or approval of the Unitholders, revoke this resolution at any time prior to the Amended Plan becoming effective.
4. 2. Policy Statement

The Board of the Trust has, subject to all of the provisions of the Declaration of Trust of the Trust, as amended from time to time (the "Declaration of Trust"), the responsibility to oversee the conduct of the business of the Trust and to oversee the activities of management who are responsible for the day-to-day conduct of the business of the Trust.

3. Composition and Operation

The Board operates by delegating certain of its authorities to management and to Committees of the Board and by reserving certain powers to itself all as prescribed by the Declaration of Trust. The Board retains the responsibility of managing its own affairs including selecting its Chairman, nominating candidates for election to the Board, constituting committees of the full Board and determining compensation for the trustees. Subject to the Declaration of Trust and all amendments thereto, the Board may constitute, seek the advice of and delegate powers, duties and responsibilities to committees of the Board.

In performing its functions, the Board should also consider the legitimate interests its other stakeholders such as employees, customers and communities may have in the Trust. In broad terms, the stewardship of the Trust involves the Board in strategic planning, financial reporting, risk management and mitigation, senior management determination, communication planning and internal control integrity.

5. Specific Duties

Subject only to the express limitations contained in the Declaration of Trust including, without limitation sections 5.1 and 5.2 of the Declaration of Trust, and in addition to any powers and authorities conferred by the Declaration of Trust or which the trustees may have by virtue of any present or future statute or rule or law, the Board shall have and may exercise the following powers and authorities (with all defined terms having the meaning prescribed by the Declaration of Trust):

- (b) For such consideration as they deem proper, to invest in, purchase or otherwise acquire for cash or other property or through the issuance of Units or through the issuance of notes, debentures, bonds or other obligations or securities of the Trust and hold for investment the entire or any participating interest in mortgages. In connection with any such investment, purchase or acquisition, the Board shall have the power to acquire a share of rents, lease payments or other gross income from or a share of the profits from or a share in the equity or ownership of Real Property;
- (c) To sell, rent, lease, hire, exchange, release, partition, assign, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, grant security interests in, encumber, negotiate, convey, transfer or otherwise dispose of any or all of the property of the Trust by deeds, trust deeds, assignments, bills of sale, transfers, leases, mortgages, financing statements, security agreements and other instruments for any of such purposes executed and delivered for and on behalf of the Trust or Trustees by one or more of the Trustees or by a duly authorized officer, employee, agent or any nominee of the Trust;

- (h) To deposit funds of the Trust in banks, trust companies and other depositories, whether or not such deposits will earn interest, the same to be subject to withdrawal on such terms and in such manner and by such person or persons (including any one or more Trustees, officers, agents or representatives) as the Board may determine;
- (i) To possess and exercise all the rights, powers and privileges appertaining to the ownership of all or any mortgages or securities, issued or created by, or interest in, any person, forming part of the assets of the Trust, to the same extent that an individual might and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to vote or give any consent, request or notice, or waive any notice, either in person or by proxy or power of attorney, with or without power of substitution, to one or more persons, which proxies and powers of attorney may be for meetings or action generally or for any particular meeting or action and may include the exercise of discretionary power;

- (m) To purchase and pay for, out of the assets of the Trust, insurance contracts and policies insuring the assets of the Trust against any and all risks and insuring the Trust and/or any or all of the Trustees, the Unitholders or officers of the Trust against any and all claims and liabilities of any nature asserted by any person arising by reason of any action alleged to have been taken or omitted by the Trust or by the Trustees, the Unitholders or the officers or otherwise;
